STATISTICAL REPORT

of Seventh-day Adventist Conferences, Missions, and Institutions Throughout the World for the Year Ending December 31, 2003

A WORD ABOUT THIS REPORT

Where We Stand Statistically.—Since we published our last annual statistical report, 991,717 individuals have joined our communion of faith through baptism or profession of faith. That meant that the total number of baptized Seventh-day Adventists reached 13,406,554 at the end of 2003. It reflected an annual growth rate of 3.98 percent, down from the previous year's 4.65 percent. The relatively low growth rate this year is explainable because of the major church membership audits conducted within the Southern Asia-Pacific Division during the year that resulted in a decrease of its total membership by over 128,000.

Brazil, with a baptized membership of 1,267,015 continues to be the country having the largest number of Seventh-day Adventists within its borders. It experienced a membership growth of 9.93 percent and improved its ratio of members to population from one to 151 to one to 139. Following the United States and the Philippines, India with a membership of 784,698, ranks fourth among the highest country membership of Seventh-day Adventists, and experienced a growth rate of 14.78 percent. Peru, with over 614,000 members, is fifth in countries with the largest Seventh-day Adventist membership and maintains an amazing ratio of one Adventist for every 44 members of its country population.

The 991,717 newest Seventh-day Adventists, those who joined the church through baptism or profession of faith in 2003, brought the ratio of Seventh-day Adventists to world population from 482 at the end of 2002 to 471 by the end of 2003. If the average growth for the past 10 years continues, there should be one Seventh-day Adventist for every 353 people on our planet at the end of 2010.

Statistics by the Day.—An annual growth rate of 3.98 percent meant that Seventh-day Adventist membership increased an average of 1,403 each day during the past statistical year. Additionally, an average day in 2003 meant that over six new churches were established; and 2,715 newly baptized believers daily committed themselves to proclaim the everlasting gospel to the world. Also, the community as a whole each day contributed $5,135,464 to advance that gospel message. Total tithes and offerings for the year amounted to $1,875,728,145.

Statistical State of the Church.—The report before you provides a detailed statistical summary of the Seventh-day Adventist Church at the end of 2003. It devotes 48 pages in its major section that give some 38 items of information about church membership, contributions, and church workers, for each conference, mission, union, and division. The remaining pages provide historical statistics, departmental statistics, and summary tables. A Seventh-day Adventist statistical archives consisting of past statistical reports, tables, and documents is available on the web at www.adventistarchives.org.

GLOBAL MISSION

The Church's Presence, Outreach, and Mission

Challenge of Global Mission.—The Global Mission document voted at the 1989 Annual Council and endorsed at the 1990 General Conference Session seeks to create an awareness, in concrete measurable terms, of what the gospel commission means to the church today.

Monitoring Global Advance.—Table 1 below lists major unentered regions of the world according to conferences or missions rather than by countries. It is based on a challenge of Global Mission: to place a church among each one million of earth's population. To locate regions where the ratio of churches to population is less than 1:1,000,000, we have used the 2004 Seventh-day Adventist Yearbook to find those conferences or missions with low church-to-population ratios. For example, in the Sahel Union Mission of the West-Central Africa Division the Burkina Faso Mission has a population of 13.2 million but only six churches. Therefore, on average, each church serves a population of 2.2 million people! Progress is indicated, however, in the fact that in 1990 each church served an average of 3.0 million people.

This view of the global challenge shows in which conferences or missions the great challenges lie in relation to the Adventist "presence." (For a definition of "presence" see "Definitions" in the next column.)

A column is provided to show the "Population Estimate (Millions) Per Church 1990" for comparison. The basis for these entries is the 1991 Seventh-day Adventist Yearbook. In some cases the 2003 ratio is larger than the 1990 ratio. This may be due to a population that is growing more rapidly than the church or to official revisions in population estimates, rather than to a loss of churches. In some cases the fields that existed in 1990 no longer exist by the same name or territory so a direct comparison is impossible. In other cases growth of churches has lowered the ratio below 1.0. These are being eliminated year by year as church growth occurs.

The number of churches is taken from this edition of the Annual Statistical Report; population statistics are for mid-2003 and are provided by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

Some countries with a population of one million or more yet with little or no Seventh-day Adventist organizational structure are shown in parentheses.

Table 2 lists all countries and areas of the world and shows church-planting activity and general growth, including the number of churches, members, and ordained ministers for each country.

Although isolated Sabbath keepers or Seventh-day Adventists from other countries are known to reside in some countries where there is no organized church, the data here corresponds to official reports from the divisions or attached union.

The "Ordained Ministers" column excludes those who serve in administrative positions at the union and division levels.

Definitions.—Officially, what is a "country or area of the world"? For the purposes of this report, it is a political entity recognized by the United Nations. Because the Seventh-day Adventist Church does not involve itself in political affairs, the reader should attach no special significance to the presence of certain names in the list or the absence of others. The countries shown in the accompanying Global Mission tables are as listed in the United Nation's publication "Statistical Papers," Series A Vol. LV, Nos. 3 and 4, Data available as of December 31, 2003. Exceptions are Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, Macao Special Administrative Region, and Taiwan, which are considered by the United Nations to be a part of China. Population figures are supplied by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

"Presence" means the existence within the territory of an organized church.

"Established work" exists in a country or area of the world when one or more of the following criteria have been met: (1) when an organized church meets regularly; (2) when a mission station, healthcare facility, or school is functioning regularly; or (3) when a regular full-time denominational employee is based in the country carrying on outreach or soul-winning activities through such units as a Sabbath school, an organized company, or a language school. Seventh-day Adventist work is not considered to be established in a country or area when it is limited to a series of evangelistic meetings, literature-evangelist work not based there, scattered Sabbath keepers, employees traveling through, or temporary service by regular employees, student missionaries, or other volunteer employees. The countries where the church does not have established work are listed in a half-page table on page 76.

The "number of countries and areas of the world" as listed by the United Nations as of December 31, 2003 is 230.

Symbols Used in Table 2:

+ Improvement, but percentage calculation is impossible because the beginning figure is zero.

– Decrease in growth.
