righteousness, as the stars forever and ever. Where are we now I At what point of time, have we arrived, but the ETENAL GLORIFICATION of the righteons? How did we get here, but by closely following the divine narrator, who began this chain of great events to Daniel, with these words: "And now I will shew thee the truth !" If all the eleventh, with the three first verses of the twelffu chapter, are not a closely connected chain of events, from "there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia," to the shining of the righteons forever and ever, then I most earnestly entrent the professor to point us out the defective link. out the defective link.

then I most earnestly entrent the professor to point us out the defective link. How, and where, does he get his authority for apply-ing nearly all the 11th chapter to the wars between Syria and Egypt? What were the other horns about, and that other new power, further west? Why does he not tell us, who the great prince, Michael, is? I most earnestly call his attention to these first words: "and al that time." What meaning is there in words, if these do not join the fall of Antiochus [if it means him] with Michael standing up, and the great time of trouble such as never was before? (We must not forget that this time of trouble is after Antiochus has come to his end, and none to help him.) And at that time deliver-nuce comes to all whose names are written in the book; the dend arise, and the rightcoms are forever glorified. Will the professor point us to the fulfilment of these things after the fall of Antiochus, axo at mar raw? "Many shall run to and fro, and have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. Many shall be purified, and made white, and when the wise shall understand." I would imprive of the professor, if there is any fulfilment of these things in this "time of the cud?" "And from the time the daily shall be taken away." Here, now, I wish to ask my brother to take his Hebrew lexicon, and look on the word here rendered "duily."

Here, now, I wish to ask my brother to take his Hebrew lexicon, and look ont the word here rendered "daily," and tell us whether that "best Hebrew scholar in New York" was correct in saying, the meaning is " continual wicked ?" and if it is so, then how does he dare call it winked l'' and if it is so, then how does he dare call it the Jewish sacrifice lI cannot possibly agree with the professor with regard to these 1290 and 1335 days; but I do most cordially agree with him in the last verse. He says, "thou shaft go down to the grave in the cheering confidence that, ultimately, as allotted thee by the gracious purpose of God, thou shalt participate in all the blessings of the Messiah's kingdom, the kingdom which shall not be destroyed " destroyed." Mr. Editor, what a melancholy sight have we seen ! a distinguished professor of Theology, an instructor of young ministers, issuing remarks on the book of Daniel, in the "Beynew" of our denomination, and passing by such promises as are therein contained to " THE SAINTS ;" or if he notices them at all, it is only to mutilate, or explain them to mean some vindication of the Jewish wor-ship. To what a state of things have we arrived, when " a ripe scholar " could find four ancient universal em-"a ripe scholar" could find one of them; and that all the "rophetic periods in this book (except the seventy weeks) erminated with Antiochus, 168 B. "But we must be permitted to how with the profoundest reverence to the majesty of divine truth, whenever it is discovered." That this bundle affore molecular and cavind on by constant livine truth, whenever it is discovered." That this humble effort, undertaken and carried on by constant prayer, may be blest to the awakening of my respected brother to a re-examination of this subject, is the most carpest prayer of L. #### APPENDIX.

As the foregoing remarks were prepared for the Chris tian Watchman, and as I well knew both Mr. Crowell and the publisher were hostile to the Second Coming of Christ in 1843, I was obliged, of course, to content my-self with merely overturning the professor's theory, with ant building up any other; but, meagre as was my article in this respect, it was inadmissible to their columns. While I have been considering Mr. Chnse's "Romarks," and looking over Professor Stuart's ' Hints on Proph-erg," I have been led to inquire, what can be the reason that our learned and good men are driven to such ex-tremities : to come out against nearly all their own standard commentaries ; the heretofore received opinions similarit commentaries; the accretion e received opinions of the pious fathers ; so as to raise a universal shout of exultation among the wicked; even to call forth the shrill notes of the "Trumpet" in their commendation? I did not need to inquire long. The reason is obvious; -" my Lord delaytch his coming?" was too visible in every line of their "Remarks," and "Hints," for the eagle eve-of the "wicked screents." not to see it; and when they wan it is more noticeable to them to visible.

of the "wicked servorts" not to see it; and when they saw it, it was natural for them to repoice. "The end is not yet," says Mr. Dimmick. "Amen," says all the Universalists in the land. "It is all monoidine," says Dr. Sharp: "Good," says Mr. T. Whittemore; "the doctor is a man of sound understanding." "The world will stand centuries, and handcals of centuries to tome," says Mr. Rogers: "True," say Fiction Norris and Chameleon Lovelh, of the "Olive Branch." the world is yet in its infancy, and will exist to a good old age." "It is only indearbad men wresting the Scriptures," says Mr. P. Smith, of Carlisle. "That is it," echoes the great mass of the wicked. "There always have been men, in every age, prophesying that the world was soon great mass of the wickred. "There ulways have been men, in every age, prophesying that the world was soon coming to an end," says every apposing minister in the land, who has condescended to speak out upon the sub-ject; ergo, the world will never come to an end. "The day and hour are not known to any man, or angel;" therefore it cannot come next year. Universalists quote this passage as often an any other, although this chapter was all fulfilled at the destruction of Jerusaleun, accord ing to their belief. But enough of this. On the 12th page of Mr. Chase's Remarks, he says, "It was in the days of these kings that the God of heaven should set up [cause to stand.] a kingdom, which was not to be destroyed; that is, he would preserve, sustain and gloriously vindicate the true religion, the worship connected with the romines made to the patriarchs and prophets, and with the coming of the Messith, in whom and gloriously vindicate the true religion, the worship connected with the promises made to the patriarchs and prophets, and with the coming of the Messiah, in whom all the nations were to be blessed." As he leaves out the best part of this passage, I will quote the remainder Dan. ii. 44. " And the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms; and it shall stand forever." So, then, according to his views of this passage, the stone striking the image, and reducing it to chaff, and becom-ing a great mountain, and filling the whole earth, (for i cannot be denied that this 44th verse is the explana-tion of that figure,) is nothing more than God's vindlea-ting the Jewish worship! My soul sickens over such an explanation as this, from a learned theologian. On the next page, after quoting the first part of that passage, "I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints;" &c., he says, " The tyreprover or conse-quences, are set forth more fully and eivedly in the glowing vision described in a preceding part of Diis 7th chapter, from the ninth to the 14th verses." Worse and worse! #### LETTER TO N. COLVER.

I HAVE real your loctures, and an sorry to my they are calculated, and have had the effect, to make the heart of the member of the Lord to rejoice; and the opposite effect upon many of Aiz dearest friends. When a man's preaching pleases God, it will comfort all his childran who have daily intercourse with him; when it pleases the devil, it will comfort all who are his. Then of the wo Christ prosounces on these that affend one of his "little ones;" also the punishment of that servant who only " ate and drank with the drunken."

Servant who only " ate and drank with the dranken." In your preliminaries is seen the cloven foot of popery, viz., that we, unlearned, cannot understand the Bible; but must depend upon the "correct knowledge of biblical interpretation," which you say may be " intelligent." agreed among themselree. While Stuart and Chase may the "intelligent." of the 7th "is Antioothas, as all must agree," you say it is Nero. Are you as well informed as they are in Activate and Chadles? Dowling agrees with us, that it is Papary. You and Stuart think the 2000 days are days, but can only make them the interfigure and Chadles? Dowling and Chase may the informed as they are in Activate and Chadles? Dowling and Chase any they are inalf-days, and that is not quite long enough. Dowling and Yourself admit the 5th empire is the Roman; while Stuart, Chase, and Folsom say it is the divided Greek. Why all this disagreement among the "initializent," if "a knowledge of correct hiblical interpretation " is the one thing needful to understand the Bible 7 On your first page, you call the helief that the bine the stuart.

If they wave than is glory, " Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the througe of his glory, " " Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom or grace in the heart fask kingdom, why look for an entrance that " shall be ministered unto you abundontly into the avantant carter of the group of grace in the heart fask kingdom." an extrance that " shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the avantARETEX ALINGDOM of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ " " On page 8, you state your subject to be " not whother Christ will come in '43," but." whether the 2300, 1200, or 1335 days, afford any clue to that event." So, then, your lectures are not to prove Christ will not come this year, but merely to break in please the Key-stone of the arch, so that " the whole supertructure shall fall." You don't want to have it is on alread that you are trying to prove that that event entropy of the arch of the supertructure shall fall." You don't want to have it is on angels, or men." This parsage holds as good against Christ's ever knowing the time, as it does against you or me. You don't wish to have it appear that you are not looking for him ; for you have read, " noto you that LOOK for him," &c. Then again, you fair your lace for his appearing will be doubled, for you have read, " And not to me only, but all them also that LOVE his appearing." A litle " intelligence" will penetrate your flimmy vell. The your attempt to separate the 9th from the 8th of Daniel, you will find tron." What God hath joined together, let no man put asumder." Gabriel was not montioned in the 7th of Daniel, but was in the 8th. " "Make this man to understand true yreavy." was not fulfilled when Daniel fainted with the solidony on his lips, " once understood it j" while of the 7th, Daniel says." Therefore Gabriel comes on the 9th our opponents cling to the these that the 9th is a vision of itself, proves the weakness of their cause. You have reach the avision of itself, proves that or appending it to the 7th. You have reached to a mores one-that of appending it to the 7th. While you were making merry with the "day-for-a-year expesi-tions," why did you not speak about the long in days 'tribulation of the church at Sayran 1--of the long first wo of five months 1--of the still longer second we, of an hour, a day, a month, and a year 7-- and also rejoice with the church, that her stay in the wilderness was but 1260 days 1 Why 1 You knew it would not make so much fun of us, as it would to tell about running out doors 2500 years; and of Danlel's finating 21 years, when there is not a word about fasting in that chapter.

chapter. The page 20, you betray gross ignorance, or something worse, when you my " the angel which gave all these numbers, 2006, 1290, 1336, to Daniel, says, (chap, z. 13,) But the prince of the kingdom of Fer-sin withintood me one and twenty days, &c." Now the "unlearned" can see that it was the "workymaren xummann." that said " unto 2300 days." then he appears ugain in the 10th, when " his eyes were a lamps of fire." But the hund that lifted up Daniel, and the voice that spoke comfort, and the one the prince of Persia withstood, must be Gubriel's. The glorious " man " described in the first verses, was " Michael, one of the chief princes," who, Gabriel says, " came to help me." Then, again, in the last verse he says, " there is none that poldeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince !" so then, Chief and Gabriel were the " saints," the "man," that appear to instruct Daniel. The first gave all the" wonderful days " directly to intim; the leat" explained," "lifted up, "or " strengthened him," as he was ordered. The first gave all the "here also the gives into the set has a two prophetic periods, at the end of the last of which Daniel is to stand in his lot. On page 33, you say, " it is not how long shall be the three for every.

On page 33, you say, "It is not how long shall be the time for every-thing Daniel saw in the vision, but how long shall be the vision con-certing the daily secrifice? Sci." This looks like sheer deception; why did you not tell your renders the words "concerning" and "accrifice." were the words of men, instead of placing such stress upon them ?

But you have kept "the very delivium of fanaticism " for the last sentence; and that is, " the Lord himself" sounding the " midnight cry," saying, "GO ye out to meet the Bridsgroom." It seems to me, if the "tump of God" is to be that cry, it would have been, " Behold, the Bridsgroom IS COME; CCME ye out and meet him." My col-umn is full. Yours, in the daily expectations of hearing the "trump of GOD."

A sound head, a simple heart, a spirit dependent on Christ, will suffice to conduct us in every variety of cir-cumstances.-Cecil.

WESTERN MIDNIGHT CRY.

TO TO THE

CINCINNATI, DECEMBER 9, 1843.

VOLUME NO. I.

We perceive by the first No. of vol. 1, that thirteen numbers were promised to the subscribers; and as only ten were issued, an explanation is required, which is as follows,-the matter intended for the three remaining numbers, was "Miller's Lectures" as published in the "Midnight Cry, and Watchman's Alarm," two double numbers of which, were sent to each subscriber of the "Western Midnight Cry," thus giving one number more than was promised.

VOLUME NO. 2.

This volume will consist of thirteen numbers, issued weekly, if funds are furnished and time lasts so long. If it should fail for the want of means, other publications will be given for the amounts that may be received, if required. It is not expected that the subscription list will sustain as large an edition as the present increasing interest of the Second Advent cause, in the West, demandy. Those, therefore, who have the means, we trust, will enable us to give this sheet a wide circulation.

THE EDITOR.

In consequence of ill health of himself and family, Br. Storrs has felt it his duty to go to the cast. How soon he will return, should time last, is a matter upon which he will probably advise us. We have left our family in New York, for a visit to this place, where we only intend to remain for a few weeks; and in necordance with the suggestions of the brethren, have consented to take charge of the paper while here.

APPEAL FOR THE "WESTERN MIDNIGHT CRY."

Shall this paper be continued? This is a question for our brothren of the West to answer. You have been led to feel something of the importance of such a medium of communication, as a source of comfort and encouragement to the lovers of Christ's appearing, and as a voice of warning to the slumbering thousands in this Western world. It remains for you to say, whether this flaming torch of truth, shall continue to disseminate its rays of light o'er the plains, prairies, and mountains, and along the majostic streams of this section of our world, which is no soon to witness the tremendous scenes of the last day. Shall thousands perish for lack of knowledge, when a fulthful application of but a little past of the goods over which God has made us stewards, will accomplish the object? When it is borne in mind that all these things, in a few months at the longest, are to be consumed by the judgment fires; surely, this apperal will be responded to, and the support of the "W. Midnight Cry" will be chosen as one of the mediums, through which to transmit some of your treasures to God's everlasting hogdom. But, says one, "how can we sustain it, for we are poor?" I will tell you; and it is one of the ensient things in the world to do it. Let some ten, twenty, or forty of our brethren, agree to make up the deficiency in the amounts sent from abroad, to defray the expense of an edition weekly, and the work is done. If there should not be one farthing received from any others, it would only cost the last named number of individuals about one dollar each per week, or only twelve or tifteen dollars for each individual, between this and the time the Lord will come, when a "cry" will be issued in the East, which will supercode the necessity of the Western one. See Matt. xxv. 6, and axiv. 27.

If this call is promptly responded to, another number will be published next week, should time continue, and so on till the Lord comee. If at any time, yeu should fail to receive your paper, you will know the reason, and where the responsibility (if there is any) will rest. Bear in mind the importance of sustaining a gratuitous distribution of these papers among the thousands of travellers that are weekly passing through this place to all parts of the Western country.

Direct your communications to J. V. Himes, Cincinnati, Ohio.

THE CAUSE IN THIS PLACE.

When Br. Storrs left this city for the cast, the enemies of truth predicted that the Second Advent cause would soon "die away;" but directly the contrary has been the result. When left without a lecturer, the lovers of truth clung still more closely to the promises of God.

The interest has continued to increase, even more rapidly since brother Storrs left. Some thirty or upwards, having embraced the doctrine of the Lord's soon coming, between that and the time we commenced our lectures here. Our first lecture was delivered on Sabbath evening last, to a large and attentive congregation, that had met for a prayer meeting, not knowing that any person would be present to lecture. A prayer meeting was held at the close of the lecture, when upwards of twenty came forward for prayers, many of whom testified that the Lord had blessed them. Two or three professors of religion that had for some time been wavering in their minds, came out and testified their full belief that the Lord would come within the present Jewish year. On Monday evening, fourteen came forward for prayers, some of whom were blessed ; on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings the interest continued, and some others have experienced the smiles of a reconciled God. Although an entire stranger to the whole congregation, never having seen one of their faces before, at the close of our first lecture we were surrounded by a multitude of warm hearts and heaven beaming countenances, tha tstood ready to give the wandering "stranger and pilgrim" a hearty welcome.

The Second Advent believers in this place are a heavenly band, and their numbers and graces are daily increasing. The first hour in their society was a blessed opiate to our drooping spirits: for while passing down the Ohio, surrounded by those who had no sympathy for our blessed master; and the thought of being separated by the lofty Alleghany's, so far from a dear family, and kind brethren and friends in whose affections and prayers we had so largely shared, a gloom had overspread our mind which only the sweet spirit of God could remove: and here we have found an atmosphere most congenial for the operations of that spirit. Brother Boyer, who has charge of the Second Advent Book room, is indefatigable in his labors.

Br. J. H. Hardy, writes from Lexington, Scott county, Indiana, Dec. 1st, that there is a good deal of excitement in that place upon the subject of the Second Advent. If the theory as taught by Mr. Miller, is correct, there are large numbers in that vicinity who wish to know it. It is a soul cheering doctrine, to think, that in about four months at most, the Saviour will come in his kingdom. * * * * With respect to the "return of the Jewse and the "conversion of the world," the vail has in a great measure, been removed from his mind." He proposes some questions upon Dan. ix. 26, which we shall probably answer in our next number.

Br. Silas G. Strong writes from Mayaville, O., that he prefers truth with the few, to error with the multitude; and takes pleasure in circulating all the publications he can get upon the subject, which above all others, is dear to those who are waiting for the cuming of our blessed Lord. He conds a good article upon the autyect of sanctification, for which we have not room this week. He urgenfly requests, that some of our Second Advent brathren will write more upon this subject.

Br. Joseph Howells writes from Hamilton, O., Nov. 16th, earnestly requesting, that an able advocate of the bleased cause may be sent to that place. In connection with some friends, he wishes br. Storrs to favor them with an exposition of the five first verses of Isa, 2, and Micah iv. 1-8.

Br. Jonathan Woodworth writes from Hattford, Licking county, O., that an interest is awakened in that section, and many will read if papers are thrown in their way. He urgently requests that some one may come and lecture among them. He is anxious to receive publications for distribution, but does not feel able to pay for them.

Two sisters from Preble county, O., write that they have been reading the "Western Midnight Cry," since the great Tent meeting, with a great deal of delight, and it has been food to their souls. They carnestly entreat that a lecturer may be sent them to aid in a protracted meeting which is to commence (if time lasts) the Saturday before Christmas.

A letter from St. Louis, of November 13th, states that there are a few in that city that are looking for the Saviour at the termination of the 2300 days. The people are very much blinded by the Shepherds. He thinks a great deal of good may be done at this time if a good lecturer is sent them.

LECTURES.

Lectures upon the Second Advent, will be delivered at the Lawrence street church (between Third and Fourth) each evening, except Saturday, at half past 6 o'clock, and three times on Sabbath, until further notice.

Can Br. Himes send us half a dozen copies of the "Signs of the Times," of July 12, 1843;-also, three dozen volumes of the last edition of the "Harp," 3 parts, bound ?

A Second Advent Sabbath School is held at the Lawrence street church, on Sabbath mornings, at 9 o'clock, superintended by brother Boyer. The Bible is the only book studied. Parents and guardians are invited to send their children.

SIGNS IN THE EAST.

SIGNS IN THE EAST. EXETINGUARES.—From the True Sun of Tuesday last, we learn that the Eastern coast of the Gulf of Venice, about 250 miles cast from the city of Rome, has recent-ly been visited with a severe carthquake. On the 16th of September at night, two strong sbucks were felt at Ragues, and through a great portion of Dalmatia, caus-ing the most intense alarm. On this occasion a large meteor illuminated the East. Similar shocks were ex-perienced dally, sometimes accompanied by subterra-nean noises, up to the 26th of September. Many of the inhabitants of the Dalmatian villages, had abardoned their habitations in despair, and fied to the mountains, and Ragues was nearly desorted. The latest accounts are to the 27th, at which time the shocks still continued, and the houses in Ragues were so much damaged, that and the houses in Ragusa were so much damaged, that a few more convulsions would reduce the city to a heap of ruins .-- Mid. Cry.

Many professed Christians are very much troubled in arranging the political affairs of the nation. What have the disciples of Jeaus to do with those four great fighting beasts, (Dan. 7)? Patch and mend these Gentile governments as much as you will, they are to be dashed in pieces.

LETTER FROM BR. STORRS.

We have taken the liberty to publish the following extract from a private letter of br. Storrs, knowing the deep interest that is felt in this placet for the wellfare of one whose labors are so highly appreciated. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29th, 1843.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29th, 1843. I have spent one week in New York city. The work have is taking a new start, about 30 were forward for prace in believing. In this city (Philadelphie) I preach-eds week ago last Sabbath eve, to about three thousand deeply interested hearers, and the cause here is eviden-by timing higher and higher—no dying away. Br. Litch have go as the bar of the door, and we shall not have there if the way opens, and time continues. Toblieve the Lord is at the door, and we shall not have and fear not, for our God will come, and come quickly. My communications for me, should at present, be directed to Philadelphia, as I expect to remain here a ter weeks, if the Lord will. Mouse in the blessed hope of soon, zery soon, meeting out glorious Lord and Savioor.

I believe there is nothing more of special interest to be told respecting things here. I have enjoyed myself much. My friends here are of the true Second Advent stamp, warm, unfluching and devoted to God. But Hong to see sincers converted to God; O how shortly will their doom be scaled! I expect to order a few papers here from New York soon. It is not my custom to send a half filed sheet to a friend. And were I now to express on this remaining page the feelings uppermost in my heart, it would be filled up with personal acknowledge-ments. My dear brother, the comfortable home I have found in your family, binds me to that circle. A stran-ger, a pilgrim, an exile, knows and ever remembers the meant that sympathises with him in those circumstances. The sacrifices you have made to render me comfortable I believe there is nothing more of special interest to be The sacrifices you have made to render me comfortable in these exposures to the chill dampa of winter, are not forgotten. Peace be with you all-pray for me. Yours in expectation of speedy redemption, A. A. STEVESS.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM BR. HIMES. Boston, Nov. 25th, 1843.

"DEAR DEOTHER,-Yours is just received, it has truly cheered my heart. I had been longing to hear from you, to know how you were getting along. Your report of the meetings, is just what I expected. Let me report of the meetings, is just what Perpeted. Let me entreat you to hold on to your prayer meetings, preacher or no preacher. You cannot fail to do good—conducted as they should be; (and I doubt not they are so with you) they will be the greatest blessing to the saints— and cannot fail to wake up, and keep the "virgins," awake till the Lord comes." Yours in the blessed hope, J. V. HIMES.

LETTER FROM BR. HALL.

Tnoy, O., Nov. 14, 1843.

Thor, O., Nov. 14, 1843. Dean Ba. Sroans,—As it has been very rainy and muddy since I have been here, and as my health has been very poor, I did not commence lecturing till Sab-bath evening. I lectured in the Wesleyan house, but I shall finish a course of lectures in the Baptist church in this place. I shall probably get through by Saturday evening, when I expect to leave for Fiqua. There seems to be considerable interest here on the Second Advent; and I pray God that this people may indeed be thoroughly aroused and prepared to meet the Bridegroom. Yours truly, J. B. HALL.

LETTER FROM BR. MCNAMARA.

SHARPSBURGH, Alleghany co. Pa. Nov. 25, 1843.

DEAR BR. STORES, -I embrace the present opportunity to address you upon the subject of the glorious coming of our Lord Je-sus Christ. I am alone in raising the "midnight cry" in sus Christ. I am alone in raising the "midnight cry" in this place. I have many trying scenes to pass, but the Lord is faithful, and his promises are sure. If faithful, we shall receive a glorious crown. I will not trouble you with a history of my conversion to the Second Advent faith, as I expect you have heard of me; I am the old soldier that was to go to New Or-icans last spring; but a good honest, speculating preach-er, with the devil to help him, (for no Christian would) blocked up my way by out-flanking me on my left wing; but, thank God, I have now got the field, and by His grace, mean to keep it, till I fall upon it. I was the first in this place, in the midst of bigotry and little horn influence, to cry "Behold, he cometh." The cause has suffered much in this place in conse-quence of the injudicions course of professed Second Advent believers; many of whom, after the month of May passed, began to feel that "every vision faileth." In a public hotel, a bonfire was made of the "Eible Ex-aminer." I have lectured in almost all of the little towns within twenty-five miles of Pittsburgh, to crowded congregations, and have got many to read the "Trumpet of Alarm," one hundred copies of which Br. Litch sent me as a present. me as a present.

Br. Jacubs, also sent me some copies of the "Coming Br. Jacobs, also sent me some copies of the "Coming of Christ," and the people bave feasted upon them till they are used up. Many are beginning to think the next thing in the line of prophetic events, is the parting of the hearens as a scroll. I should like your paper, but am poor and can not pay for it; but, thank God I can read, and that is glory enough while I am here. Be strong and work, for God will work with us. Farewell, till we meet at HOME. H. B. McNAMARA.

LOVE FOR THE APPEARING OF CHRIST.

It has been justly remarked that "the love of Christ's appearing, is as true a test of a Christian's heart as the needle of the compass is of the direction of the polar star." The heart that is filled with God and heaven will cast upwards its steadfast eye to the appearing of Jesus, "bright glory's beaming star," The coming of the Lord, and not death will be their constant theme.

If in the mean time death should come, and find them thus 'looking,' it has no terror to them, for they will then for a little while, swretly sleep in Jesus till the trumpet sounds.

Look for a moment upon the only sure chart that can guide us safely into the harbor of eternal res'.

Behold I come quickly; blessed is he that keepeth the snyings of the propecy of this book. He which testifieth these things saith, Surely, I come quickly: Amen. Even so, come Lord Jesus.

If the foregoing textado not prove that it is a true test of Christian affection to love Christ's appearing, then in vain may we search for a text in the word of God.

After such examples as these, what Christian or honest man can believe that God has not made it our duty to look for and expect the coming of the Lord this side of death or the grave? But says one, "I am looking for the coming of the Lord. I expect he will come, but 1 cannot tell when. If it is the will of God that Christ should come this year, I feel resigned to His will; I shall try and submit. I don't believe it is my duty to be looking for this all the time. If I am ready, that is enough-I shall be safe." Such language as this is heard almost every day from those who profess to be God's children, and some of them make their temples ring again with amens and hallelojahs. Now keep your eye on the true test-the word of God. Here it is before you, staring you in the face. Look upon it while we introduce an analagous case.

Your husband has been long absent from you. He sends you a letter, and in it fixes the time when, as well as relates the circumstances under which he will return. The bearer of the letter waits to hear the tidings. You tell him you are in a burry at present, and so lay the letter by. You soon after take it down, break the seal, and begin to read. The time of his arrival is fixed at a certain number of days, but the letter has no date to it. It contains a scaled letter, which you are directed not to open until you hear that the President of the United States is taken and carried a prisoner to Montreal. You lay the scaled letter by, and soon the tidings go all thro' the country that the President of the United States has been taken and carried a prisoner to Montreal; but you have forgotten the scaled fotter till the bearer comes in and reminds you of it. It is taken down, the seal is broken. There is the date and the explanation relative to the time of your husband's return. You look it over, make your calculation, and find that the time runs out the next week.

With a cool, indifferent countenance, and perhaps with a little previsioness, you lay the letter by. The old bearer of it waits, still anxious to know the result. You tell him you don't know when he will come, still indifferent and rather fratful. He looks at the letter for himself and says, "Why here it is, plain as the light of day.

Why he will be home next week. True, he does not say what time in the week, but he will come next wock," You say to him, "I can't see it as you do. However, it may be true, and if it is, I will try and aubmit; for I know it is my duty to be resigned to it, let him come when he will. But don't talk to me any more about it at present, for it is such an agitating subject I am afraid it will set me crazy, for I am very nervous, and you know there have been a number of women deranged lately in consequence of talking so much to them about their husbands coming home."

We now ask, under these circumstances, could you complain if the hearer of that letter should go away and say, you do not love your husband? We leave you a little while to make your own calculations how the fai hful wife would act under similar circumstances. Then judge whether the resignation and submission will not be applied to his staying away, rather than to his coming. After you have well digested the above, read the following:

"I have exponent you to one husband, that I may pre-sent you as a chaste virgin to Christ."-2 Cor. x. 2. "He that loveth father and mother more than my, is not worthy of me."-Mart. x. 27.

"BUT OF THAT DAY AND HOUR KNOWETH NO MAN."

This is generally the first objection that is urged against the possibility of knowing anything about the time of the "Second coming of Christ." It is easily answered with the frank acknowlodgment, that all consistent believers in the advent of Jesus Christ sometime in the Jewish year answering to our 1843, make no pretensions to any knowledge of the " day and hour " when that event will take place. The objector immediately replice, " that is evading the point, for the spirit of the expression is, that no man can ever know anything about the time." If the individual that urges this last objection is honest, and wishes to get the true meaning of this expression of our Saviour, he can have it from the tustimony of God's word.

First, The testimony of Christ himself is pointedly given against this objection in verse 33, of the same (Mar. 21.) "When ye shall see all these chapter. things, know that it is near, even at the door." That, is something about the time, but something more pointed still, we think, may be found in the chapter. The very expression "of that day and hour knoweth no man," is sufficient authority for us to examine closely the context. for a longer defined period of time in which the great evours predicted would take place. In verse 42, "Ye know not what hour your Lord doth come," and v. 44, "in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of man cometh," are strong additional inferences, that their minds had been directed to a longer period of time, and not that they were left in darkness relative to it. Again, in v. 37, "as the days of Nov were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be." In addition to the wickedness of these days, with which the wickedness of the "last days" are to compare, we have the fact, that to Noah was made known the number of years that were to paus away before the world's destruction : (Gen. vi. 3.) "And in saying as the days of Noe were, so shall the coming of the Sou of mun be," our Saviour does not except this important similarity. In Gen. vii. 4, we have proof that the day was made known to Noah; here appears to be an exception to the similarity extending farther, in the expression, "of that day and hour knoweth no man."

Second, In the room of shutting out all light relative to his coming, we firmly believe the Saviour designed in this chapter, to teach the time (i. c. the year) of his second advent. My reasons for this belief shall here be given. In v. 15, he commences the history of the Papal Abomination in these words, "When ye, therefore, shall see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whose

The Saviour foresaw, that without this caution, there would be a misunderstanding relative to the thing spoken of by Daniel. Let us then search in Daniel, for the very thing spoken of by the Saviour. In the two last verses of the 9th chapter, is the first place in the prophecies of Daniel, where we find any thing that looks like the language of the Saviour above quoted. Verse 26, " shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined." Versa 27, " and for the overspreading of abominations, he shall make it desolute, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolutor." Is the thing or thi here mentioned, that to which the Saviour refers! 1 think not, for these reasons: The Saviour's words are in the singular, "the abomination of desolution." While the prophet's language clearly brings to view more than one abomination, and more than one desolating power. Again, the event here predicted by the prophet must take place before the one predicted by the Saviour, for the desolation (Dan. ix. 27,) is preparatory to the abomination, and not necessarily connected with it. For, "preparatory to," the overspreading of abominations he shall make it (the city of Jerusalem, v. 26, the place where the sacrifice and oblation was offered, v. 27,) des shate until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolator, or Dan, vii, 11, till the beast is given to the burning flame, or Luke xxi. 24, "Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, till the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled " Jerusalem was made desolate preparatory to the overspreading of the Roman abominations. The first of those abominations, Pagan Rome, did overspread-persecute the saintstread down and break in pieces the whole earth, until it was taken away, A. D. 508. The abomination of desolation is not "spoken of by Daniel the prophet" in his 9th chapter, only by way of reference to it, as something to take place after the destruction of "the city and the sanctuary." The first place in the book of Daniel, where "the abomination that maketh desolate " is "spoken of" assuch, is in chap: xi. 31, "And shall take away the daily, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate." This was done in the year 508, when Vitalian, a champion of the Catholic faith, at the head of an army of Huns and Bulgarians, waged a successful war against Pagan Rome, which resulted in its overthrow. This was the time when "the abomination that maketh desolute " was placed: For the ten kingdoms that arose in Western Rome during the interim, between 508, where Pagan Rome fell, and 538, when the saints were given into the hand of Papal Rome; we are told by the Revelator, "have one mind, and shall give their power and strength to the beast." (Rev. xvii. 13.) From scripture authority, then, this last "abomination" commences with the power that took away the "daily," and at the same time; although it did not commence its "desolations" till the beast was seen in its full form, (Dan. vii. 8,) in 538,

The next and last place, where "the abomination of desolation" is "spoken of by Daniel the prophet," is in chapter xii. 11, " And from the time the daily shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate Set up, A THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED AND NINETY DAYS .-These two last are the only places in Daniel, where "the abomination of desolation" is plainly mentioned. 11 we are told that it is mentioned in chapter viit. 13: I only reply, that the language of that text will best actde this question; that, is a "transgression of desolation," and reaches to the cleansing of the sanctuary, or to the time when the "sanctuary and host" are to be trodden under foot no longer. It embraces Papal Rome, but not in reference to its desolations with the Sword, for those ended in 1798. It refers to Rome as a transgressing power, and it has been such since its dominion was taken away, as well as before. "The abomination of desolation" is described in chapter vii. 24-26, but it is not readeth, let him understand,) &c. Understand what I "spoken of by Daniel" as such, and we cannot, therefore, use it for the present purpose. With these facts before us, I ask, what have we to "understand," but the 1290 days, the given length of "the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet ?" It is interesting to read this caution of our blessed Lord, and then turn to the very place designated by him in the propheey, and read in the preceding verse, "And sone of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand." The words have been shut up, (v. 4.) the book hasbeen scaled till the 1290 days are ended,-then, we have been told, "the wise shall understand," and Jesus points to the "abomination of desolution"-(demonstrated by actual fulfilment to be,) twelve hundred and ninety years long, and says " whose readeth LET him UNDERstand." He then briefly engmerates the events that are to fill up the above period of time-the great tribulations, such as was not from the beginning of the world, in which (not 1,100,000 Jews at the seige of Jerusalem,) but over 50,000,000 Christians, were mar.yred for their faith in Jesus. He speaks of the shortening of those days, or closing up of the Papal civil rule, v. 12the deceivers that should arise at the close of that perind, v. 23-26, as well as those that had risen before, (v. 11.) He then, in v. 29, again points to the 1290 days, referred to in v. 15, and shows in what part of those days the signs of his appearing should commence ; immediately after the tribulation, or as Mark says, chapter xiii. 24, in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, &c., which first sign took place "in those days," eighteen years before they were ended, and after the great "tribulations" under the papal reign had closed. He assures us of his coming the next thing after the falling stars, and that this generation (that has seen the signs) shall not pass away till all be fulfilled. He gives a parable of the fig-tree to show how surely the great event shall follow the signs, and foresceing the skepticism of the last days, he adds an awfully solemn declaration, that though heaven and carth should pass away, yet "my words shall not pass away." Though he had given the events filling up the 1290 years of Dan. sii. 11, and the signs also, of their end in order to guard us from error, yet he adds, " but (though I have helped you to an understanding of the days of Daniet,) of that (literal) day and (literal) hour, to well no man, no not the angels of heaven, but my father only."

"Whose readeth let him understand " one thing more viz , that the that waiteth and cometh to the 1335 days," or a period 45 longer than the 1290, shall be blessed with righteous Daniel, by standing with hum in his lot in the first resurrection.

If his be a correct view of the subject, then, "that day and hour" has nothing to do with any other year than that which ends the forty-fifth from the ending of the dominion of "the abomination of desolution.'s "Whose readeth let him understand."

THE 2300 DAYS.

Dr. Hales says that " there is no number in the Bible whose granineners is better ascernined than that of the 2300 days. It is found in all the printed Hebrew edi-tions, in all the MSS, of Kennicott and De Rosal's Coltions, in all the MSS, of Reamond and De Rosal a Col-lections, and in all the ancient versions, except the Vati-can copy of the Septuagint, which reads 2400, followed by Symmachus; and some copies noticed by Jerom, 2200; both evidently literal errors in excess and defect, See p. 550. The 27th verse he renders, "But one week shall estab-lish a [new] covenant with many; and half of the week shall abrogate the [daily] sacrifice and oblation. #### CONSISTENCY

The pastor of the " Associate Reformed Church," from whose flock the sister was expelled for singing "Second Advent Hymnodies," &c., a little time since attended a tea party at Shires' Theatre, and in company with others of the Rev. Clergy, assisted in singing temperance songs.

Whose "painful duty" is it now, to inform this pastor, that such a course is contrary to the "doctrines," (not "practices") of the Associate Reformed Church.

A postle Paul,

Those who tell us the world can not be destroyed now, because improvements in the arts and sciences are making such rapid advances, tell us also, that these improvements will go on for centuries yet to come. "Tus Poon nave rue Gosret."—This was the glory of the Christian dispensation, but the poor are shut out from some of the modern lectures against Christ's near coming. Thomas Y. Howe, D. D., has recently adver-tised a lecture, at Utica, in which, he says, "it will be shown that the assertions of Mr. Miller, as to the time, are expressly contradicted by facts." But this pleasing information must be well paid for,—25 cents being the price, to each person.—Mid. Cry.

IFWe recommend to our readers a careful perusal of brother 1. Herre,'s Reply to Professor Chase's article, commencing on the first page.

Our next muniter will contain an article upon the "Inconsistencies of Colver's Literal Fulfilment of the Prophecies of Daniel !!

Can Br. Israel Jones visit this place and deliver a course of Lectures 1

Will he inform us by letter?

The FORM OF GODLINESS WITHOUT THE POWER. Paul places singing by the side of praying, and says: "I will sing with the spirit." We have a very different state of things now. The editor of the New York Observer

"The idea of praise to God as the object of singing "The idea of praise in God as the object of singing in public worship, has in many churches become obso-lete, while mere display, as at theatrical concerts, is the grand aim of the singers who are most appropriately formed performers. Pastors might, in prayer and in pub-tic tracking, do much towards the inculcation of more correct and Scriptural sentiments on this subject."

The Gospel PERCULD IN ALL THE WORLS.-Dr. Skin-ner, in his sermon before the American Board of Com-missioners for Foreign Missions, denotes the martyr Williams as saying "We do not know of any group or single island of importance within two thousand miles of Tabili, in any direction, to which, the glad tidings of salvation have not been conveyed."

The last number of "The Veice of Elijsh," a Second Advent paper published at Montreal, gives some letters which show a most interesting state of things in Eng-land, relative to this great subject. The editor says he has "scattered hundreds, if not thousands of copies of his paper through Yorkshire, and other parts of Eng-land." Letters which he has published, from Yorkshire, Devanshire, and from different parts of Ireland, speak of the people of God in those sections, as being gladden-ed with the joyful tidings of our blessed Lord's soon coming. coming.

WHEN IS PRAVER A VAIN THING 1-1. Those prayers are vain which are not put up in faith. A faithless prayer is a frailess prayer.
2. The prayers which men offer, while they reso ve to continue in any sin, are vain prayers.
3. Those are vain prayers, when we pray merely to obtain deliverance from an affliction not at all minding our profiting by, or the improvement of, an affliction.
4. Those prayers which we make in orrown strength.
5. Those are vain prayers which we make in our own strength.

name, not in the name of Christ. 6. Angry, possionate prayers are vain prayers.—Caryl on Job 35: 13.—Mid. Cry.

Greater things you yet may find, Freedom from unboly tempers, Freedom from the carnal mind. To procure your perfect freedom, Jesus suffered, groaned, and died, On the cross the healing fountain Gushed from his wounded side. 3 O ye tender babes in Jesus,

O ye tender babes in Jesus, Hear your heavenly Father's will, Claim your portion, plead his promise, And he quickly will fulfil. Pray, and the refining fire Will come streaming from above; Now believe and gain the blessing, Nothing less than perfect love Nothing less than perfect love.

4 If you have obtained this treasure, Search and you shall surely find All the Christian marks and graces,

All the Christian marks and graces, Planted, growing, in your mind. Perfect faith, and perfect patience, Perfect lowliness, and then Perfect hope, and perfect meekness, Perfect love for God and man.

5 But be sure to gain the witness, Which abides both day and night; This your God has plainly promised, This is like a stream of light. While you keep the blessed witness, All is clear and calm within; God himself assures you by it That your heart is cleansed from sin. 6 Be as holy and as happy, And as useful here below, As it is your Father's pleasure, Jesus, only Jesus know. Spread, O spread the holy fire, Tell, O tell what God has done, Till the nations are conformed To the image of his Son.

7 Witnesses might be produced Of this glorious work of love, Paul and James, and John and Peter Long before they went above. Hundreds, thousands, tens of thousands. Have, and do, and will appear : Let me ask the solemn question, Has the Lord a witness here ?

8 Wake up brother, wake up sister, Seek, O seek this holy state; None but holy ones can enter Through the pure celestial gate. Can you bear the thought of losing All the joys that are above ? No, my brother, no, my sister, God will perfect you in love.

9 May a mighty sound from heaven Suddenly come rushing down, Cloven tongues like as of fire, May they sit on all around. O may every soul be filled With the Holy Ghost to-day, It is coming, it is coming, O prepare, prepare the way.
