"After Many Days

BRITISH ADVENT

In the early days of the message, the pioneers made it their practice to send out literature to people not of our faith, also leaving the way open for the addressee to receive more reading matter by sending forward the name and address of the sender. The sincere prayers which accompanied this literature did not go unanswered, even though long periods of time would often elapse before definite results were seen. The following remarkable experience has been brought to our attention by Brethren C. M. Crawford and E. S. Greaves, secretarytreasurer and field missionary secretary of the Guiana Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists respectively:

"In the year 1892 a Mr. William Henry Palmer from the village of Beterverwagting, British Guiana. South America, was impressed to write for literature. Winding their way across the ocean to the humble home of this man were copies of Signs of the Times, then published in California by the Pacific Press; Present Truth, published by the Pacific Press branch in London; and Youth's Instructor, published in Battle Creek by the ReLong-forgotien comes of "Present Truth" which helped to win a soul view and Herald. While some of these papers were taken out of their wrappers and read, most of them remained unopened until June, 1938-a period of 46 years.

One of the old copies of "Present Truth," recently found in a small British Guiana village, which led a young man to the Advent message.

"In 1899 a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Palmer. When this young man, who is now the father of four children, recently visited his childhood home, he saw a few papers enclosed in their original wrappers on the table. During the forenoon of that same day the mother, while in the act of discarding some unnecessary things that had accumulated around the house through the years, discovered some of these papers, yellowed with age, and placed them on the table.

"The young man in whose home the papers had arrived seven years before his birth, opened one of the wrappers, read the enclosed paper, and was profoundly impressed. He inquired if there were more such papers in the house, and a search followed. Trunks and shelves brought forth their treasures-several copies of Present Truth, Signs of the Times, Youth's Instructor, and one copy of Good Health, edited by Dr. Kellogg. The publications were read with intense interest, and to-day the son is a member of the Beterverwagting church's baptismal class. Yes, the young man has suffered much perse"The workers were thrilled as they read the following postmark on one of the wrappers: 'Beterverwagting, B. Guiana, December 26, '92.' Enclosed was a copy of Signs of the Times, dated November 21, 1892.

"Since the papers were opened, they have been read by many. A copy of Present Truth which bears the date of June 16, 1892, was loaned to a Roman Catholic. His appreciation for the paper was shown in the fact that he stitched the torn papers together to hold them in place. The fact that one of the articles was entitled, 'Romanism is Heathenism,' did not in any way lessen his appreciation for the paper."

A dynamic message which had remained sealed for forty-six years had not lost any of its explosive power. May we not suppose that the sincere prayers offered by earnest pioneers were largely responsible for the 1938 awakening in the village of Beterverwagting.

"THE spirit of self-exaltation, the disposition to censure our brethren, is displeasing to God. Those who indulge in these evils cast doubt upon the work of God, and give the sceptical an excuse for their unbelief."

This is the issue of "Present Truth" so eagerly read by a Roman Catholic in Beterverwagting.

To Fellow-Believers Throughout the World

A Message from the President of the General Conference

GREETINGS in the Lord.

We live in a changing world. We have come into new times and conditions. Individuals, peoples, and nations find themselves facing problems that are new and strange. The statesmen and leaders of the nations are greatly perplexed as they endeavour to face the problems of these times. Commercial and political rivalries, and the fear of what others may do, drive the nations of earth either to prepare for, or to engage in, war. As the Word of God declares, the nations are angry, and men's hearts are failing them for fear as they look after the things that are coming on the earth. The spirit of peace and goodwill has largely given place to discord and hatred. The whole world seems to be driven on helplessly toward its impending doom.

It is in just such times and conditions as these that God's last message of salvation is to be given to the world. The people of God will not allow the spirit of worldly strife and evil, of discord and bitterness, to rend their ranks and divide them in a time when unity is highly essential. As the peoples of the world grow more unfriendly toward one another, and exhibit less and less of the divine principles of love, the people of God will learn to love one another more and more. This love will be based on the truth of God as revealed in His Word, which will become more and more precious to every faithful believer. The hope of Jesus' coming will also become more real. and will bind our hearts closer together.

The truth of Jesus' coming is called in the Word of God the "blessed hope." It is, indeed, just British Advent Messenger such a hope. It is this hope that has brought out and established the Seventh-Day Adventist church throughout the world. The development of such a movement is in itself a fulfilment of prophecy, for the Gospel message was to be proclaimed "to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people." Rev. 14:6. How wonderfully this scripture has been fulfilled in the preaching of this message. To-day we have believers and churches in many lands. If we could hold one universal gathering of all our believers throughout the earth, there would thus be brought together representatives of the principal languages of the world, and of many more languages spoken by a smaller number of people. Such a gathering would include representatives of every race of people on earth. Such indeed is the worldwide extent to which the Gospel message has been proclaimed today. It is an inspiring thing to know that the believers of this message are found in every part of the world.

We all have racial and national characteristics and customs. We do not lose our love for homeland or country because of our acceptance of the Gospel message of salvation. The principles of this message, received into the heart and lived out in the life, make every believer a better citizen of his homeland, a more honourable subject of his king or ruler. It is the duty of every Christian to pray for his rulers.

It is the studied purpose of the enemy of our souls to bring into our hearts, and cause us to act out, the principles of selfishness and discord and separation. He seeks to destroy the unity that Jesus prayed should exist among His followers, when He besought the Father, "That they all may be one; as Thou Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that Thou hast sent Me." John 17: 21. The witness that the world needs to-day in order to believe that Jesus was sent to save sinners is that His followers should be a united body. Even though in the world discord and disunity may exist everywhere, even though nations may be separated, even though their interests should clash, even in the midst of violence and confusion, the followers of Jesus will love one another and will preserve their unity, regardless of race or language. We fully expect that in this world conditions will become more serious. Our opportunities to mingle with our brethren of other countries and languages will be more restricted, but nevertheless every believer should maintain in his heart and in the practice of his life the highest regard for the principles of unity.

We are sending this personal appeal to all our believers throughout the world to emphasize the need of renewed and fuller expression of unity. As a united body of believers, we must keep step as we advance in the work of God. If we are truly converted to God, we will all work to maintain the spirit of unity. We will not allow our pride of opinion, place, or country, to separate us from our fellowbelievers in all other parts of the world. When the principles of Heaven are received into the life of every believer, all can, without disloyalty to native country, maintain peace, goodwill, and the spirit of unity.

Through the messenger of the Lord there have come to us words of counsel regarding the spirit of unity that should exist among us.

"The union between Christ and His people is to be living, true, and unfailing, resembling the union that exists between the Father and the Son. This union is the fruit of the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. All true children of God will reveal to the world their union with Christ and with their brethren. Those in whose hearts Christ abides will bear the fruit of brotherly love. They will realize that as members of God's family they are pledged to cultivate, cherish, and perpetuate Christian love and fellowship, in spirit, words, and action.

action. "To be children of God, members of the royal family, means more than many suppose. Those who are accounted by God as His children will reveal Christlike love for one another. They will live and work for one object—the proper representation of Christ to the world. By their love and unity they will show to the world that they bear the divine credentials. By the nobility of love and selfdenial, they will show those around them that they are true followers of the Saviour. 'By this shall all men know that ye are My disciples, if ye have love one to another.'... "The Spirit of Christ never leads "The Spirit of Christ never leads those of the same faith to separate into distinct, independent parties. When such a separation takes place, an impression exactly opposite from that which Christ prayed, is given to the world."—"General Conference Bulletin," Vol. 3, No. 7, pages 154-56 (1900).

The "blessed hope" creates a precious fellowship and unity that all the clashing elements of this world cannot destroy. We confidently believe that this appeal to all our believers throughout the world will meet a hearty response from every one. Let us cultivate and cherish this bond of unity, and thus fulfil the prayer of Christ "that they all may be one."

Praying that God's richest blessings may be upon you, and may abide with you all, I remain, with Christian greetings,

> Your fellow-servant, J. L. MCELHANY.

Notes from the Union President

MARCH 4th to 11th is Missionary Volunteer Week. The object of this special appointment is that the souls of unconverted young people may be reached, and that the experience of those already surrendered to God may be strengthened. Special services should be arranged in every place, and the spirit of evangelism should pervade all the meetings. Our great army of youth is a most precious possession and hundreds in it need interest, appeal, help, and training. Let those in charge of services seek prayerfully the help they need to make the meetings bright and evangelical. Appeals should be made and decisions registered on the specially prepared cards supplied from conference offices. Some young people are waiting to come to God through these appeals just now.

LEADERS and members of Bible Service Training Course classes should remember that now is vital time in these studies. "Keep on to the end!" is the motto we need. Fifteen hundred laymen, trained in the finer points of soul-winning, filled with the zeal of the Master, could do a mighty work for God. They could certainly bring in more souls than were won in this Union last year.

THAT laymen and ministers share one reproach, is stressed many times by the servant of God. "I am alarmed at the indifference of our churches. Like Meroz, they have failed to come up to the help of the Lord. The laymen have been at ease. They have folded their hands, feeling that the responsibility rested upon the ministers. . . . Every minister should be a consecrated missionary; every layman a worker, using his talents of influence and means in his service."-"Testimonies." Lord's Vol. 5, page 381.

The lowering tempest on every hand is a certain omen of the imminent advent of the Saviour. We must arise to the work of the Lord while shortening time is ours.

The Life of Faith for February 22nd contains an article on Seventh-Day Adventists. It was written by a minister after a good deal of correspondence with this office. It contains one or two unfavourable comments based on the usual misunderstandings and criticisms of such doctrinal teaching as the Sabbath, the Millennium, the Mark of the Beast. But on the whole, it is one of the fairest statements we have seen from those of other persuasions. Among other things, this is said:

"In various matters of practical Christian living, Seventh-Day Adventists set an example which it would be well if all professing Christians would follow. Their generosity is unbounded (they practise tithing, be-sides free-will offerings); and so is their enthusiasm for missionary work: they raise and give to mis-gione 62 000 000 cer on prom sions £2,000,000 per annum.

SCOTTISH MISSION

Superintendent: Pastor J. McMillan. Address: 1 Corstorphine Hill Avenue, Corstorphine, Edinburgh. Telephone: Corstorphine 85309.

Notes from the Superintendent

WE are very happy to report the first baptism of the year in the Scottish Mission. It was the writer's glad privilege to baptize two young men and three sisters. The mother of these sisters was also received into church fellowship by vote. The candidates were examined by Pastor L. D. Vince, who reviewed the principles of the faith in a vigorous and spiritual presentation. One of the young men joins the company in Uddingston, the other five become members of the Glasgow church.

CAMPAIGNS

The effort by Brother Wilms, hurst is continuing to draw a goodly number of earnest seekers after truth. He has presented the Sabbath truth and decisions are being made. Pray for this second campaign in Greenock. We have had six Sunday services in the Leith Town Hall, and the interest is good. The Bible-workers report a keen interest among the one. hundred and thirty names. Brother . . .

Vince began his effort in the King's Cinema, Sauchiehall Street, Glasgow, on Sunday, February 26th. We ask that you remember these efforts in your prayers, that many souls will be born into the kingdom of God as a result.

FINANCES

We desire to thank our loyal and liberal people for the financial report of 1938. The tithe of the Scottish Mission for last year was the highest in its history. We thank God for the spirit of liberality and faithfulness which this denotes. We believe that our believers will experience spiritual and temporal blessings as they return to God that portion which He claims as His own. Let us maintain our fidelity to the cause of God until our united efforts are crowned with victory. Whatever our sacrifices may be, the time is coming when they will all be forgotten. In Sister White's first vision in 1844 is recorded her response to the question of what trials and sacrifices we had experienced. She wrote, "We tried to call up our greatest trials, but they looked so small compared with the far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory that surrounded us, that we could not speak them out, and we all cried out, 'Alleluia, heaven is cheap enough.' "-"Early Writings," page 17.

Our offerings toward the Evangelistic Box fund, the Sabbath-school, and other necessary financial objectives, are calls from the Lord inviting us to enter into His spirit of benevolence to meet the world's great need. We may be assured that "God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have showed toward His name." Heb. 6:10. Heaven's dawn is just ahead of us, inspiring us on to greater faithfulness, deeper consecration, and more zealous service. May this year find us giving more, loving more, and winning more souls for Jesus. J. A. MCMILLAN.

THE year 1938 was a successful year in many ways. We showed an increase in all of our finances and in membership. God certainly blessed our feeble ministry. In the Harvest Ingathering we did very well. We were asked to raise ± 350 , and we actually raised ± 564 . We wish to thank all of our dear

Notes from the Superintendent ______ members from Dublin and Derry, not forgetting Cork. Every worker pulled his portion of the load, and I believe will do so again this year.

> THE year 1938 has gone, but we are not satisfied. We would like to see greater progress. We would like to experience a fuller measure of the blessing of God.

If all of our members would win one soul each our membership would be over 400 by the end of the year. Oh, that God would influence all to woo and win souls.

Soon our Annual Meetings will be held—from June 29th to July 2nd. Will you begin to make your plans to be present? Come while the war clouds have been rolled back for a little while longer. I would in closing thank the anonymous donor of £5 for the work of the Lord in Ireland. We greatly appreciate this gift. It is evident someone thinks of old Ireland. We as workers thank our people for their faithfulness. We also solicit your prayers for this difficult section of the Lord's vineyard. E. E. CRAVEN.

Progress in the Health Food Work By J. RIGBY

In previous contributions to the pages of the MESSENGER it has been my privilege to mention items of interest in connection with this aspect of denominational activities in the British Union Conference. On this occasion I am glad to be able to tell a most encouraging story of progress during 1938. In the first place, the total sales for the year are the highest in the forty years' history of the Company; higher than last year by 7.75 per cent. Some of the products have contributed very nicely to this increase. For example, our name product-Granose Biscuits-is nearly twelve per cent ahead on last year; Fig-Vita Bran sales are more than doubled; Rissol Nut nearly trebled; other products ranging from twenty per cent to fifty per cent increase. Of course this means that some have dropped back a little, but it has been by reason of very severe competition, and we hope to rectify the situation in 1939.

Financially it has been a good year, too. During the boom years we certainly had balance sheets showing somewhat higher net gains, but when we take into consideration the amounts set aside for depreciation and the expenditure in maintenance of premises and plant, I think we are justified in regarding 1938 as one of our best years.

So far as economy in operating is concerned, we have now reached the practicable limit. Any further savings could be only at the risk of reduced efficiency, but it is gratifying to know that every member of the staff is co-operating in the endeavour to avoid unnecessary costs.

It has been a year of investments. During periods of economizing there is always the tendency to put off until "more favourable times" the installation of desirable plant and equipment. Sometimes, however, circumstances arise which make some investment essential, and during 1938 we were able to make a number of installations which were really overdue. The chief item was the new boiler plant. The available evidence indicates that we may reasonably hope to cover the total cost of this by the savings in fuel during the first five years of use.

In spite of the various capital investments we found it possible to repay \pounds 500 of our loan indebtedness during the year, and we are planning to double this amount in 1939, so that if we continue to enjoy normal trading conditions we may be entirely clear of nontrading liabilities by the end of 1940.

Our expenditures, have not all been selfish ones. We are happy to have been able to contribute to field work both monetarily and in personnel. So far as cash is concerned, in addition to our tithe on profits, we have given nearly £200 toward evangelism and smaller amounts to the needs of the local churches.

From the standpoint of personnel the contributions may be even more valuable. Our factory superintendent, Brother G. Norris, is 'now manager of the new food factory in the Austral Union, having previously been loaned by us to them for a few months in the early stages of their planning.

Our senior stenographer left us to take up duties at Newbold College and, caring for the maintenance work there, too, is Brother L. Meredith, for many years a key worker in our bakery.

Naturally the extra load has fallen on those who remain with the institution, but the blessing of God has attended our efforts, and we can truthfully say it has been good to work together.

A Colporteur's Experience

I FELT the definite leading of God when entering the literature ministry, though when first the desire for service came to me, I planned to enter another form of service, but various circumstances prevented me from doing so and led me to take the colporteur work. Now I realize that the various experiences gained in working for different organizations, and being in business, has been used of God and have helped me very considerably, being a preparation in meeting the people.

Many times I have seen and witnessed the overruling power of God in my work and have been privileged to speak words of comfort and encouragement to those introuble and difficulty, endeavouring to bear a faithful witness for this truth which we all love so much.

Just a small incident comes to my mind. I was requested one day to call on a certain lady, as it was felt that she would be interested in my work. On visiting her I found that she was just on the point of going abroad to live with her sister. She was selling up her home and all her books, but on explaining my mission she showed a deep interest and ordered a book in the best binding, paying for it right away, and telling me she would take it with her. God led me to that home for, in the ordinary course of my work, it would have been at least another week before I reached this house, and then it would have been too late. One never knows how far reaching such an experience can be.

Then, again, some time ago I gave an invitation to a lady from another village to attend our church meeting. She came, also bringing along a friend. They continued to attend the meetings for some time, but unfortunately the first one invited dropped out, but the other lady's interest continued to grow; so much so, that she gathered together a company of friends in her village and cottage meetings and Bible studies were held by the resident minister and his wife and, to-day, I thank God it is my privilege to tell you that there is now a small company of five baptized believers, happy and rejoicing in the Advent hope. It is hoped that the number will soon be increased as they continue to bring others along; and this all the result of one invitation!

This is how God leads His workers, and I thank Him that He has given me an opportunity to co-operate with Him in the literature work.

I might mention also that twenty years ago the first seed of truth was planted in my home by a lady student-colporteur. I. M. GREEN.

Listen!

Dedicated to the Bible Service Training School

Hark! the drums of Armageddon Beat their loud alarm:

Hark! the restless, warlike nations Call their men to arm:

- Hark! the martial footsteps drawing Nearer day by day:
- Hark! the great and dreaded conflict Hastening on its way.

Canst thou see the awful portents

And remain serene? Canst thou hear the marching millions, Yet not intervene?

Canst thou unperturbed dwell with

If their end is near?

Can thy soul remain unshaken

At the prospect drear?

Nay, of course not, Christians cannot Stand unmoved, unstirred!

We must sally out to warn them With the blessed Word.

- We must work and pray to save them From that fearful fate.
- We must train ourselves for service

E'er it be too late.

Take the hallowed help that's proffered:

Study it to show Unsaved friends and unsaved neighbours

Messages we know.

Trained and consecrated labours

Soon will surely bring Marching multitudes from England To our Lord, the King.

At Rest

NICHOLLS.—Brother Nicholls, of the Barry church, died on January 10, 1939, and, after a service in the church, was laid to rest in the Barry Cemetery on January 13th. Brother Nicholls accepted the Advent truth some forty years ago and was the first Adventist in Wales to be ordained a deacon. At one time he was elder of the then large church in Mountain Ash. Brother Nicholls had reached the ripe old age of some eighty-five years. Another pioneer has fallen, another faithful servant has earned his rest and awaits the call of the Life.giver. It was good to hear the testimony borne by Brother J. Owen, of Mountain Ash, in the church funeral ser-vice. Brother Nicholls is survived by his second wife, as well as by two daughters. S. G. HYDE.

second wife, as well as by two daughers. S. G. HYDE. TIMINGS.—A great loss has been sus-tained by the St. Austell company, in the sudden death of Miss K. Timings, which occurred on January 10th, two days before her sixty-sixth birthday. The interment took place on the following Sabbath in the Mevagissy Cemetery. In spite of the heavy and continuous downpour, there was a fairly large assembly of mourners, con-sisting of members from the St. Austell and St. Mabyn companies, some friends from Plymouth, and about thirty people from the village including eighteen men who acted in a voluntary role, as bearers, in relays of six. Pastor A. Armstrong officiated. His words of sympathy and com-fort were much appreciated. It is about twenty-three years ago that the deceased became a Sabbath-keeper. The conviction that the seventh day was the true Sabbath first dawned through reading an article in Present Truth. Shortly afterward she joined the writer's household, and when she had been more fully instructed in the message was received into fellowship. De-ciding to devote her life in active service in the cause, she entered the ranks of the colporteurs, and for many years sold our magazines and small books. Occasionally she was employed by the North England Conference as temporary Bible-worker, and assisted the writer in raising up the York church and certain other companies. She did valiant service in the annual Harvest Ingathering campaigns. Her quality of plodding persistence and perseverance en-abled her to raise year after year, for many years, sums varying from £80 to £110. Miss Timing's saintly character bore witness to the truths she professed. She possessed that priceless gift—a tongue withou guile. Strangers and members alike were greatly impressed by her godly demeanour. In the local paper appeared a pararraph speaking of the high esteem in which she was held in the community. She is survived by no near relatives, but her adopted niece, Mrs. W. Bee, of Worcester, and the writer (her brother-in-law) sincere

A. S. KODD. PHILLIPS.—We grieve to have to an-nounce the death of our dear Sister Annie Phillips, which took place January 18, 1939, at St. Mary's Hospital, Portsmouth. Sister Phillips accepted the message under the labours of Pastor D. Morrison in the year 1915, and was baptized by Pastor S. G. Haughey, who was at that time president of the South England Conference. At her own request her body was cremated and the ashes scattered over the Garden of Remembrance in Southampton. Our dear sister had borne, with patience and true Christian fortitude, many years of great suffering, but when at last the call came, she passed very peacefully to her rest. Now with all the sleeping soints, she awaits the call of the Life-giver. May it be our joyful experience, together with our dear sister, to be gathered to our Lord on the resur-rection morning. EDITH HOWARD.

BREWEP.—It is with regret that we announce the death of Sister E. Brewer of the Hull church who nassed away January 23, 1039, at the age of seventy-five. Sister Brewer accepted the message in 1916 during the ministry of Pastor J. Bell. Since that time she has been a faithful and willing worker for the Lord and was highly esteemed by all. She was laid to rest in the Western Cemetery. Pastor L. Murdoch officiated. Our deepest sympathy goes out to her family who are left to mourn their loss, and we trust that we shall all meet on the glad resurrection morn. E. TAYLOR, Church Clerk.

E. TAYLOR, Church Clerk. Mowar.—It is with deep regret that we announce the death on February 1, 1939, of Mrs. E. L. Mowat of the Glasgow church. She accepted the message and was baptized by the writer in May, 1936. She was a faithful member, and endeared her-self to all because of her beautiful Christian character. Our late sister took every opportunity of witnessing for the Master, and had great joy in seeing her daughter take her stand for the truth some little time ago. At the funeral service held in the home, a number of the church-members and friends were present. We laid her to rest in the Biddric Cemetery, and we confidently look forward to meeting our beloved sister again on the morning of the resurrection. To her bereaved son and daughter and their loved ones we extend our deepest sympathy, and commend them to the God of all comfort. D. MORRISON.

to the God of all comfort. D. MORRISON. WALLIS.—During the closing hours of February 2, 1939, William Charles Wallis "fell on sleep," and the East Dereham company suffered the loss of a faithful leder and friend. We laid him to rest on February 7th in the peaceful churchyard of Whinburgh Parish Church, the Rev. W. Kitley conducting the service assisted by the writer. With the death of Brother Wallis another link with the early days of the Advent message in this country is severed. He became a Sabbath-keeper as a young man, and in 1883 assisted Elders M. C. Wilcox, J. H. Durland, S. H. Lane, and A. A. John in their tent efforts; as tent-master in Risely, and afterward at Kettering. On June 8, 1887, he married Edith R. Short, and soon after they sailed for America, with a view to being trained in Battle Creek College as medical mission-aries. Earnest calls were made to then, however, to leave college and take up the colorieur work. Elder Lane was working in the Southern States and urged them to sell our literature in Georgia. They gave up their plans and canvassed through the Southern States, working faithfully and gladly for Christ, suffering much in hard-ship, opposition, and sickness. On Decem-ber 26, 1936, they landed again in Liver-pool after an absence of nearly twenty years. Finally settling in Whinburgh, Nor-folk, these two faithful souls led out in the endeavours of the East Dereham com-pany until Sister Wallis was sa ill church elder when God took this grand old man into rest. He was in his seventy-ninth year. Brother Wallis was a a keem Bible student, and had kept the Sabbath faith-fully and held the Advent hope unwaver-ingly for fifty-seven years. Truly he rests from his labours and his works do follow him. Tenderly we committed his body to the dust, in the glad and certain hope of the resurrection. He Humpurtes.
