R. Allen Smithwick, president of the British Columbia Conference, presents . . .

Encouraging Report from Remote Areas

Elder C. S. Cooper, pastor of the Prince George church, is also superintendent of what is known as District 6 of the British Columbia Conference. Closely connected with him there at the headquarters of the district are Brother and Sister Holstein. Elder Cooper, the evangelist, with John Holstein as associate and singer, form a splendid team for evangelism throughout many of the towns and cities of the district. Far to the west on the outer fringes of this vast territory another team is busy at work also but we will speak about them a little later.

John Holstein and Elder C. S. Cooper.

In five years. Let me give some rather impressive figures of the way the work has grown in that area in the last five years. Since 1950 the membership has more than doubled, the mission offerings have more than doubled and the tithe is almost three times larger than it was then. Most of last year's tithe gain of $30,000 in the conference was due to this district.

In 1950 the district consisted of three churches: Lamming Mills, Prince George and Terrace; and one small company at Burns Lake. The membership including isolated members was 230. The mission offerings were $9,475.00 and the tithe amounted to $25,577.00. Today there are six churches in the making and three companies, and the membership has risen from 230 to 512. The tithe has increased from $25,577.00 to $65,120.00, a gain of almost $40,000.00. The mission offerings were $9,457.00 in 1950 as compared with $18,158.00 in 1955. All of this has taken place within the past five years, and the picture is just beginning to unfold.

Growing churches. Last week I visited Lamming Mills and spoke to a large, fine audience at an evening service. The mill now has its electrical push-button equipment and everything operates with precision and smoothness. The brethren are all of good courage. There are many interests in and near McBride. Brother Bechthold is busy leading the church in missionary work and Elder Cooper plans a theatre effort in McBride next fall.

The church in Prince George includes many new faces since my last visit. Brother Snieder and his family have moved in from Wisconsin and others have joined to swell the ranks in that important outpost.

I attended a Sunday night service at Williams Lake, April 8, where Elder Cooper spoke. Every seat was filled with eager listeners. A well prepared sermon on Christ impressed the message home to the hearts of those who heard it. By camp meeting time Elder Cooper plans to have won, through the various meetings he has conducted, a total of fifty souls.

The Ingathering at Williams Lake this year was three or four times what it was a year ago. Before this report goes to press, that part of the district will have gone over its goal.

Ingathering Victory

Elder J. P. Habenicht, Calgary pastor (second from right), radiates much happiness and satisfaction as he passes to Elder L. H. Davies, conference treasurer, his bag of money signifying Ingathering victory for District 3. His district is one of the largest in the conference and is the first to go over the top in the Ingathering.

Elder C. C. Voth (second from left), who pastors the German church in the Calgary district, is also presenting his bag of money signifying victory for the German church. Elder Taylor, conference president, looks on with great satisfaction as this first district goes over the top. Needless to say, Elder W. E. Kuester (at the right), home missionary leader for the conference, gives his hearty approval to this transaction. The Calgary district is not content with reaching its basic goal, but is pushing ahead to be a victorious Minuteman district.

Adventist believers at Prince George who attended the evening meeting at the time of Elder Smithwick's recent visit.

Coastal territory. Far to the west stretches the great coastal territory where Brother and Sister Reimche are located. This winter they have been labouring among the Indians of the Kispiox, in a group of towns known as the Hazeltons. A large fruitage is expected in this area. Hundreds have been listening to the message night after night as Brother and Sister Reimche have brought it to them.

Haidi District. In this district, still farther west, are 3000 Haidi Indians, a tribe living on the Queen Charlotte Islands. I expect to visit these tribespeople in May with Brother Reimche, and plans will be made shortly to open up work among these people. Brother Momb and Brother and Sister Spainhower, of the Upper Columbia Conference, earnest lay workers, spent some months last fall working among the Haidi Indians. Their earnest pleas have been heard and our conference is taking the final steps to move, as Providence directs, into this unknown wilderness of isolation and despair.

Macedonian Challenge. Our work grows stronger and the prospects brighter as the population flow broadens into this vast territory. Dramatic changes are moving swiftly across the horizon with a suddenness that overwhelms one. The threat of Russia nearby brings war games under winter conditions to Alaska. Installations for year around military personnel at the North Pole; great air bases with electronic ears guarding the approaches to this hemisphere; the aluminum development at Kitimat, the world's largest;—all these developments, and others such as pulp mills, lumber mills, uranium mines, etc., are bringing a boom to this area. And now the Lord is leading His people to move into these places and sow the gospel seed.

We have heard the Macedonian cry and are responding to the appeal and are bringing the gospel to these people who sit in darkness and who are to be given the message for this time.

435,000 Copies of "God Speaks"

Yes, that is the figure I was given. When I asked Brother Bly, our Book Department manager of the Kingsway Publishing Association, the number of God Speaks to Modern Man that had been printed that is the figure he gave me. A large percentage of these dynamic, power-packed, full-message volumes are already in the hands of people outside our faith.

Elder F. W. Detamore says of this volume: "One of the commendable features of this unique (colourful) volume is its positive evangelistic approach. No fitting opportunity to make an appeal is passed by. The reader again and again is called upon to make a decision based on intellectual assent and a genuine submission of heart to the appeal of Calvary."

Our leaders recognize in this well illustrated, full-message book a great soul winning potential. The brethren were kind enough to permit the Canadian field to use this wonderful volume in the subscription field for 1956. It was urged by the members of the Union Committee that no set or single children's book be sold without presenting God Speaks as part of the sales unit.

We are most happy to state at this time that this volume is greatly enhancing the sale of children's books as well as the larger denominational books.

Brother C. Ferguson told us of an aged couple who purchased a large volume and promised that they would pay something to be allowed to just read God Speaks. When the colporteur called back the man said: "Here is $2.00. You can tell everyone you see that Mr. — who is seventy years old read it and found it the best book in his experience." His wife ran into the other room and soon returned with the money to buy the book to loan out.

One of our Alberta colporteurs finds

God Speaks helps him "to place more children's books than ever before."

This is a new day, a great day for the literature ministry. One colporteur in the North American field delivered over $29,000 worth of literature last year; others delivered between $5,000 and $25,000 worth of our literature.

Surely God is a good paymaster to those who are faithful in hours of service. Great will be the harvest of souls as a result of the efforts of the humble literature evangelists.

Public Affairs Report

From the Secretary's Desk

PUBLIC RELATIONS—It is with sincere regret that plans for an itinerary through western Canada by Cecil R. Coffey, of the General Conference Public Relations Department, and this writer have had to be indefinitely postponed. Circumstances entirely unforeseen have required this postponement. It is hoped that plans for such a tour can be planned for later this year.

Ingathering is in the news again and rightly so! Public support for this endeavour is essential to its success. Support comes most readily when the public is well-informed, hence the crucial role of good public relations in this and other projects of the church. Canadians who read the Stettler Independent, Niagara Falls Evening Review, Welland Evening Tribune and New Glasgow Evening News were told of the impending ingathering drive in their communities through the columns of these papers.

Thirteenth Sabbath stories with pictures in some cases have also appeared in the Calgary Albertan and the Niagara Falls Evening Review giving readers an insight into the far-flung activities of Seventh-day Adventists. The observance of Christian Home Day by the Stettler, Alberta church was shared by a larger congregation—the readers of the Independent!

PUBLIC AFFAIRS—At this writing there is yet no definite word on the fortunes of calendar reform before the United Nations. The Economic and Social Council opened in New York on April 17 and adopted its agenda which included under Item 16 the calendar proposal. The session is slated to run until well into May and so a final decision might not be forthcoming for some time yet. However, informed opinion around the corridors of the United Nations appears to indicate that barring some last minute switch, (1) the supporters of the scheme recognize the absolute lack of official support for the plan and are working for postponement of the issue so as to avert a clear-cut decision on the question, (2) and there are enough governments represented on the Economic and Social Council who would prefer to see the matter stricken from the agenda and completely removed from the area of U.N. consideration.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY — Excellent contacts with Canadian parliamentary figures were made by Dr. Frank H. Yost, of Washington, editor of the quarterly journal Liberty. On a recent visit to Ottawa in company with the writer of this column Dr. Yost had occasion to meet many of Canada's outstanding legislators with a view to discovering potential writers for Liberty with a Canadian background. One prominent and popular M.P. spontaneously expressed his appreciation for the journal in these words: "It is without question the very finest journal of its kind that I have ever seen; I don't miss an issue."

Prevention of Alcoholism

The seventh session of the Institute of Scientific Studies for the Prevention of Alcoholism will be conducted at Loma Linda, California, July 9 to 20, 1956, according to an announcement by W. A. Scharffenberg, chairman of the Board of Directors.

An announcement and application form may be secured from the National Committee for the Prevention of Alcoholism, 6840 Eastern Avenue, Northwest, Washington 12, D. C.

We Salute You

F. W. Connors

Publishing Director F. W. Connors, of the Ontario-Quebec Conference, is one of our hardest working leaders. He is not afraid of work. Day in and day out he serves God and fellow man out on the battle front working right beside his loyal soldiers of the cross.

Brother Connors believes and loves the precious message of truth that must be zealously and quickly heralded to earth's millions. He has little time for anything else. His great desire is to see men and women and youth properly trained to carry the printed page to all the cities, hamlets and villages of the Ontario-Quebec Conference.

The literature evangelists find in Brother Connors a man who patterns his work after the Master. There never has been a substitute for work. God gave work to man to bring him a great blessing. Jesus said, "My Father worketh hitherto, and I work."

We have loyal leaders in the publishing departments and Book and Bible Houses across Canada. They work hard. They work long hours, too.

During the month of May we doff our hats to Brother Connors. He led his forces to new heights of achievement last year. He is out in front this year. May God keep you humble, fervent and strong in His great work until the rewards are bestowed upon the faithful.

Filming TV Programmes on Location

Since January 1, when Faith for Today went on film, the programme has found many ways to improve quality. As many as seven or eight "takes" are made of important scenes. When an actor fluffs, his mistake is left on the cutting room floor. If a door slams while a scene is being filmed, that, too, is edited out. Live television is final. There is no recalling a mistake once it has happened.

Another advantage of the filmed programme is the opportunity to shoot outdoors or on location. A recently filmed telecast on juvenile delinquency showed youngsters smashing a car window. Filmed in a car lot at night, this shows youngsters creeping up to the car and flinging a stone. A passing policeman nabbed the boys and held them for questioning.

It took some time to set up this scene. Cameras, brilliant lights, and boom microphones scattered out in strategic places on the lot aroused so much interest in the neighbourhood that apartment windows overlooking the lot were filled with curious spectators. That area is now well aware of the Faith for Today telecast.

Because it is almost impossible to record sound satisfactorily, most scenes are filmed inside the soundproof Charter Oak Tele-pictures studio.

The quartette film several weeks' songs when they go down town for the day. Pastor and Mrs. Fagal also film several introductions and closings. They do this so that scenery may be used a whole day once it is set up. This set is then dismantled and background for the week's story is constructed. All this calls for a complicated filming schedule. Every shortcut is employed to save money on the project. Technicians work closely with Pastor Fagal and Mr. Hartman, Faith for Today treasurer, to pare expenses to the absolute minimum. Any money saved goes into the Bible School, for the ultimate goal of the Adventist telecast is not simply a fine TV programme, but souls saved in God's kingdom.

We used to ask your prayers for the Sunday rehearsal and live telecast. Now we need your special prayers every day as well as Sundays that God's blessing may rest upon this project that is reaching out with the message for all the world.

Fanny Crosby Night

Fanny Crosby, the blind hymn writer, who wrote thousands of hymns, many of which are well known for their soul-winning appeal, was born March 24, 1820.

The Port Arthur and Fort William church social committees provided a very fine social evening in celebration of the blind hymn writer's birthday. Appropriately March 24 came on Saturday night.

The programme consisted of the life story of Fanny Crosby and included the setting in which several songs were written. Different individuals and groups sang the respective songs.

The lights were subdued, helping each one to sense something of the feelings and ecstasies of the poet as she in her blindness saw spiritual things the more keenly.

As a social event this programme excelled. It was indeed different from the usual type of Saturday night entertainments and we enjoyed it immensely.

News Notes

★ On April 14 four persons were baptized in the Saskatoon church by Elder D. E. Tinkler. Mr. and Mrs. Hiltjo Bosker and Okka came to this country very recently from Holland and have now become members of the Saskatoon church. Mrs. J. A. Thiessen, of Waldheim, was the fourth one baptized. Just prior to the baptism a children's dedication service was held.

★ As a token of appreciation for the faithful service rendered by the Tinklers during their brief stay in Saskatoon the church members presented them with an electric frying pan. They have now left for their new field of labour in British Columbia.

★ Don't forget the camp meeting dates—Saskatoon, July 5-14; Clear Lake, July 18-22. Speakers scheduled to attend one or both of these meetings are as follows: Elders W. R. Beach, A. V. Olson, T. E. Lucas, B. Glanzer, Dr. M. G. Hardinge, Elders R. Ruhling, W. A. Nelson, E. L. Green, J. M. Bucy, and E. M. Peterson. Others will be announced later.

Letting Our Lights Shine

If we could turn back our 1955 page of life would we see lampposts that we have lit along the way? Did we at least light one, or are our lampposts still remaining dark?

Russell, one of our teen-age church members, was asked last summer by his neighbour to work for him. While there Russell did not forget his Lord. Breakfast, dinner and supper, Russell said grace. Many times he was laughed at because his boss was a communist and did not believe in God as the Creator of heaven and earth. Russell was watched by the two little grandsons as he prayed at mealtimes.

When Russell completed his work and went home the light that was lit kept on burning; the grandsons kept begging their grandparents to teach them to pray like Russell. Finally the grandparents could stand it no longer. As they did not know how to pray, they sent the children over to Russell's home, and there Russell and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Tataryn, had the privilege of teaching the two young boys how to pray.

Russell has lit a lamppost set on a hill that will never go out. My greatest desire is that all our young people may be light bearers in their communities, and not only the young people, but all our members both young and old. Soon, very soon, Jesus is coming to take all the light bearers home to shine through eternity. May you and I be among the faithful.

STANLEY GALLANT

Snowbound But Grateful

This morning as I stepped out on the back porch while on my way to the office the first sound to fall on my ear was the song of a meadow lark. It seemed that he had a particularly happy song in his heart. His song in turn made my heart glad. I suppose later on in the season, the song of a meadow lark will not seem so important, but this morning, April 11, it meant a great deal to me!

Yes, I think for all of us the past winter has been just a bit too long. You know what I mean. And yet with its passing comes the greater joy and keener appreciation of the beauties of spring! Though poor, it is the most apt earthly illustration of what it will be like when the vale of sin is ended and the faithful are ushered into the heavenly land.

Now I must come to the point and tell you the purpose of this little article. At our conference office we have been aware during the past few months of the inability of our churches to hold Sabbath services due to the heavy winter snows. Members who were thus affected will remember the letter that was sent to them some time ago by Elder Henriksen and the writer, suggesting that each family conduct a Sabbath school in their home each Sabbath, at which time the lesson study would be conducted and the offering set aside for the time when it would be possible to again worship in communion with fellow believers. It was also suggested that where there were children in the home, that a special programme be prepared for them.

We have wondered how you have been faring during the long winter months. Some have written telling of their experiences and they have been such an encouragement to us that we want to share them with you. You will enjoy the following letter dated April 8 from Brother and Sister Negrych of Macrorie, Saskatchewan, where the church members have not been able to meet for more than three months.

"This winter has been the most difficult winter for our church since it was organized in 1915 and it will be some time yet before we can meet together. Some snow drifts even at this late date are ten to twelve feet high.

"But we have much to be thankful for since our heavenly Father has kept us in good health and comfort all winter, and we have enjoyed the good Sabbath school lessons. By God's help we made up our minds to study our Sabbath school lesson daily, and by studying daily we have received great blessings in our home. We followed the extension division plan of keeping our offerings and we will hand them to the treasurer as soon as we can come together.

"We have been isolated all winter and it was a very good winter to read good books. Desire of Ages is such an inspiring book. Great Controversy and Early Writings have been a great blessing and we have enjoyed the weekly visit of the good Review and Herald. We read it right through each week and we cannot overlook the good reading in the Signs and particularly the Counsel Corner by W. A. Fagal. The time seems to go fast during the cold days with such good reading for us.

"At this writing we like to think of being out in the sunshine, and we hope the drifts will soon go so that we can come together on Sabbath to worship. We miss coming together on the holy Sabbath day, but God has been good to us."

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Negrych

We would like to hear from others, including conference church members, and particularly if you have some interesting experiences to tell of how you or your family fared during the winter. Please enclose a picture which will describe your activities. We cannot promise to use all letters and pictures in the MESSENGER, but we will use as many as possible.

George Colbourne

★ Ingathering has begun for another year. Brother George Colbourne was our first Minuteman this year. Following a close second were Brother John Simms and Mrs. Jennie Mann.

Mrs. Jennie Mann

★ Dr. and Mrs. Hildebrand have just recently returned from Government service at Hermitage on the south coast of Newfoundland. While there they held Sabbath school for their own children and invited the neighbourhood children to join. They had an attendance of thirty at their Sabbath school. We pray that the seed sown will be watered and bring forth fruit for the kingdom. They hear "Your Story Hour" and "Voice of Prophecy" radio programmes regularly.

★ A new home Sabbath school has been started by Mrs. Jessie Blackmore at Gander. We hope and pray that the home Sabbath school will grow until it is a community Sabbath school. Mrs. Blackmore is the only Seventh-day Adventist for many miles but we believe God has a purpose in placing His people in widespread areas. He wants them to work for others and let their lights shine.

★ Mrs. Phoebe Moores writes a letter full of courage from her isolated home at Little Bay Islands, Green Bay.

★ The Dorcas society gave a housewarming party for Pastor and Mrs. Moores in their new manse. They were presented with a purse of money by Mrs. Nellie Trenchard with the advice that something be purchased for their home.

★ Two new departments have been added to the Newfoundland Academy curriculum this year. Mrs. Arthur Moores heads the Home Economics Department and Mrs. Philip Moores teaches the typewriting class. Many of the parents have expressed their appreciation of these practical classes. Ten new Royal typewriters with new typing tables and chairs were purchased for this class.

★ Seventy-three pupils in the Academy were invested during chapel exercises recently. There were 21 Sunbeams, 8 Builders, 24 Friends and 20 Companions. The teachers in the Academy have helped and encouraged the young people in their JMV requirements. Special credit is due Mrs. Gryzbowski, who prepared the Friends and Companions for the investiture service.

★ During 1955 two new Sabbath schools were organized, one at New Bay and the other at Cape Freels. The Sabbath School Department of the conference furnished supplies for the first quarter in order to get them started. Now they are self-supporting Sabbath schools. Cutouts and pictures were sent to Una Manuel to help her in teaching the children. At Cape Freels Mrs. Inez Stagg has carried on a Sabbath school for the past three years, mostly for the children of her own family and their friends and relatives. Mrs. Stagg is a graduate of both the Twentieth Century Bible course and the Voice of Prophecy Faith Bible course. She is now in the Sanatorium for treatment but plans to be baptized just as soon as her doctors give permission.

★ The Sabbath School Department has been strengthened in the St. John's church. The primary division is led by Mrs. Emerson Hillock; the juniors, by Brother Hillock; and kindergarten and cradle roll, by Mrs. Philip Moores. There is a combined membership of one hundred in these divisions. Thirty-four per cent of these children come from non-Adventist homes.

★ Marilyn Moores, grade ten, won $5.00 and first place in the Speech Contest sponsored by the English Department of the Newfoundland Academy. Phyllis Hodder came in a close second and received $2.00. This qualified Marilyn to enter the Speech Contest sponsored by the Lion's Club for the schools of Newfoundland. "The Influence of TV" was the topic she chose. Marilyn won honourable mention in the semifinals. She hopes to enter again next year and better represent her school.

★ Diorama has been used by Pastor Philip Moores to explain the Bible prophecies to a full church auditorium each Sunday night for the past few months. Dr. Arthur Moores presents a timely and practical health message to the people at each of these Sunday night services. A baptismal class has been organized preparatory to baptism in a few weeks. During the month of May Pastor Moores expects to be in Bay Roberts following up the interest created by our faithful church members there.

From Far And Near

★ At Botwood, Pastor and Mrs. F. A. Knutson have built up the work, especially for the young people. This is the fourth year that a church school has been operating there and a junior camp held. The young people have been very responsive and carry many responsibilities in connection with the work of the church. The children's divisions of the Sabbath school are overflowing under the leadership of these young people.

★ Brother Peter Parker has been holding Sunday night services in his schoolroom at Corner Brook. He reports a good attendance and some interested people.

CANADIAN UNION COLLEGE

The School of Character

A week of prayer entitled "Christ, My Guide" was conducted by Elder E. M. Peterson, April 15 to 21. Over forty students went to him for counselling. A baptismal class will begin under the leadership of J. Ivan Crawford.

Rimbey Effort. Elder Charles A. Phelps, pastor of the Lacombe church, has commenced an evangelistic campaign at Rimbey, which is approximately thirty miles from the college. Meetings are held each Wednesday and Saturday evenings. Students of the college are assisting with the music.

George Smith

New French Teacher. George Smith, who at present is teaching near Denver, Colorado, has accepted a call to teach French at the college.

He is a graduate of Atlantic Union College and a student of Collonges, France. He holds a Master's degree in French from the University of Michigan. In the past, he has taught French at Greater New York Academy, Ashville Agricultural School and Emmanuel Missionary College. He has also had teaching experience in English at Pisgah Institute and Ashville Agricultural School.

Biology Teacher Change. N. O. Matthews, of London, England has accepted the invitation to take over Dr. Harold G. Coffin's position as teacher of biology. Dr. Coffin will connect with Walla Walla College this summer.

At one time Mr. Matthews taught science and mathematics at Spicer Missionary College in India. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree, and a Master of Education from University College in England.

Mrs. Matthews has taught music and English in India. Their children are aged seven and four.

Lyceum. Charles J. Everest, president of the Canadian Photography Association, presented a lyceum programme at the college on April 21.

The film shown was entitled "Holiday in Florida." Short sections on New York and Washington, D.C. were included as extra features.

Theology Graduates Reveal Plans. Two of the four theology students to graduate this year are planning to fill positions in Alberta. The other two, Dieter Hain and Nicholas Kozachenko, plan to attend the Seminary. Lillian Gabel has accepted an invitation to serve as librarian and assistant registrar at the college. Gordon Smedley will likely be a colporteur intern in the Peace River district where his wife, Lydia, who is graduating this year from teacher training, will be teaching church school.

Haynes Accepts Call. William A. Haynes, head of the music department of Canadian Union College, has accepted a call to Union College in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Mr. Haynes will be associated with Wesley Rhodes, head of the music department at Union College. His duties will be to direct the choir and teach voice. Mr. Rhodes will be on leave of absence studying for his doctorate degree.

A graduate of Pacific Union College, Mr. Haynes came to this college five years ago. He has taught voice, directed the choir, and this year has also directed the college band.

Jingle Contest. Miss Marilyn Brown, secretarial science teacher, won the temperance jingle contest held during temperance week. Second and third prize winners were Edward Turansky and Vernon Ganz respectively.

Marilyn Brown

The three winning jingles were:

- First: Drinking driver
Train ahead
Lazy brain
Driver dead
- Second: The family starved
The mother cried
But father's beer
Was not denied
- Third: The car was demolished
The driver lay near
Still clutched in his hand
Was a bottle of beer

Summer School

Canadian Union College offers six courses during the six week period set aside for summer school beginning on July 4 and ending on August 15.

Elder Malcolm S. Fisher will take charge of this year's programme. He says, "We will make arrangements to meet the needs of each applicant to the best of our ability. There will be morning and evening classes as we conducted them last year. We also plan to hold open-air classes at our school cabins near Banff National Park and to include sight-seeing trips through the Canadian Rockies. A field trip to Alberta's noted fossil canyons will provide additional high lights."

The subjects outlined for this summer include: College Rhetoric, three hours college credit; Arithmetic Methods, Enterprise Programme, Language Methods, two credit hours each; Principles of Education and Revelation, three and two credit hours respectively. If requested, private lessons in voice, piano, and typing will be arranged.

Assisting Elder Fisher, teacher of Principles of Education and Revelation, are Miss Roberta J. Moore and Mrs. Mildred Clark. Miss Moore, head of the English department, is a graduate of Atlantic Union College. She received her Master's degree from Boston University and has been teaching at Canadian Union College since 1952. She will instruct in College Rhetoric. Mrs. Clark has been coaching teachers in training for the past two years at Canadian Union College, and will instruct in Arithmetic Methods, Enterprise Programme, and Language Methods. She was a public school teacher for six years prior to her arrival at Canadian Union College and received her Primary-Kindergarten Certificate from the University of Alberta.

Promotion Campaigns. On April 28 a sixteen voice choir directed by William A. Haynes gave a programme in Calgary. The southern Alberta youth rally was held at that time.

The officers of the temperance organization will crusade for temperance in Beauvallon on May 5.

On May 12 a quartette, consisting of Rose Dubyna, Dolly Alexander, Cathy Gustavson, and Juanita Melashenko will put on a programme in the Peace River District.

College Days this year are May 25 to 28. Prospective students from various places in the western provinces will visit the college.

Lillian Gabel and Eleanor Deer solicit funds for Ingathering.

Competent Teachers

College Credit

Guest Speaker. Joseph Welsh, retired principal of the Red Deer elementary and junior high school, spoke to the students in chapel. He has taught school for thirty years in Alberta. He has spent forty-two years in association with young people.

Stories For "Youth's Instructor." Fifteen stories have been sent to the Youth's Instructor Pen League contest by the college freshman English class. This brings the total to between thirty-five and forty stories and articles sent in this year.

Special Ingathering. As we go to press it is planned that Tuesday, April 24, a portion of the city of Edmonton will be canvassed by the college students in a special goal raising drive. All theology and teacher training students will take part.

The annual Ingathering day for the whole school is planned either for May 1 or May 8 depending on the weather.

With Our Schools

At Canadian Union College

The training of our boys and girls is one of the greatest fields of evangelism today. This is why we as a people are so interested in church schools. At the present time here at Canadian Union College we have sixteen student-teachers preparing for this great work of saving our boys and girls.

These student-teachers have just finished their last session of practice teaching for this year. Each of the prospective teachers was asked to take charge of an eight-grade classroom. They worked diligently putting in long hours of preparation for their two days of teaching. This really is just a little taste of a regular teacher's busy and enjoyable programme.

One of the young ladies was rather nervous when she took her place at the front of the classroom on her first day but at the end of the second she was quite reluctant to give up her thirty pupils.

In order to make their classes for the coming year more interesting these teachers-to-be are taking several tours. On one of these tours they will visit the Jewish synagogue in Edmonton. This will help in the teaching of the elementary Bible classes.

The need for church school teachers is so great in the Canadian field that Chester Beavon, who was taking the course, was called to Vernon to teach even before finishing this year.

We are happy to have such a conscientious group of our young people training to go out and help save those most dear to us, our boys and girls.

Ingathering

It was thrilling to receive the first Ingathering report from our churches the week ending April 14. By this date a total of $7,743.59 was raised. The New Glasgow church had the honour of being the first church to exceed their goal. Brother W. M. Mercer reported a total of $1,020.00 for New Glasgow.

During the next few weeks the Ingathering phase of missionary endeavour is going to be duly emphasized in all our churches. Wouldn't it be wonderful if every member could be a participating member? There ought to be no reluctance to join in this, the greatest single missionary undertaking of the church. It is well to keep in mind the fact that a very large share of the missionary, medical, and educational phases of our work is in behalf of those outside of our membership, and there are many non-Adventists who deeply appreciate the Adventist type of welfare and gospel programme for lost humanity. Such persons gladly, willingly, and cheerfully give their money as well as their hearty approval of the Adventist programme.

In old times, God plainly instructed His people to solicit means from the Egyptians to assist them on their projected journey to the Promised Land.

In Nehemiah's day God also impressed rulers to contribute of their silver and gold to the rebuilding of God's temple.

The Spirit of prophecy also endorses the Ingathering plan to raise additional funds for the Lord's mission programme. "One of the new plans for reaching unbelievers is the Harvest Ingathering campaign for missions. In many places during the past few years, this has proved a success, bringing blessing to many, and increasing the flow of means into the treasury. As those not of our faith have been made acquainted with the progress of the third angel's message in heathen lands, their sympathies have been aroused, and some have sought to learn more of the truth that has such power to transform hearts and lives. Men and women of all classes have been reached, and the name of God has been glorified." — Christian Service, p. 167.

Johnsons Sail for India

Recent visitors to Moncton were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Johnson and family, who are on their way to India as missionaries. Mr. Johnson will be treasurer of the South India Union.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson spent a term of service in South America, and for the last two years Mr. Johnson has been export manager of Esda Sales and Service, a subsidiary of the General Conference in Washington, D. C.

The Johnsons sailed from New York on the City of Khartoum, which docked in St. John, New Brunswick for a week. During this time they visited relatives and friends in Moncton.

Their postal address will be: Post Box 20, Bangalore 1, India.

We wish this Canadian family God-speed as they take up their work in another section of the Lord's vineyard.

Literature Evangelism

| | 1955 | 1956 | Gain |
|------------|---------|----------|---------|
| Hours | 2081 | 2775 | 694 |
| Sales | $7,649 | $11,924 | $4,275 |
| Deliveries | $4,500 | $ 5,888 | $1,388 |

The above report represents the work of our literature evangelists in the Maritime Conference for the first three and one-half months. It is encouraging to note a gain of 694 hours spent in colporteur work. This is reflected in the fine gain of $4,275.02 in sales. If this pace continues throughout the year the Maritimes will show an all-time high in orders and deliveries for 1956.

Two full-time colporteurs have recently joined our conference literature evangelistic force. Brother S. E. Craig has worked seven weeks and during this brief period he has sold $1,517.10 worth of literature. Brother Wilbur Jones has just started.

Brother C. R. Neill, our conference publishing secretary, has been giving enthusiastic leadership in the book work. In checking over his itinerary the other day I found that of the first ninety days of this year he was in the field seventy days. I know that this type of leadership is not only appreciated by our committee but especially by our faithful colporteurs. I am confident that the Lord will continue to bless in this important phase of our soul-winning programme.

News Notes

★ A special series of eight revival meetings has been planned for the city of Dartmouth, Nova Scotia. Elder R. A. Matthews is holding the meetings in the Canadian Legion Hall. "The Messengers of Hope" male quartette from the Halifax church assist with the nightly meetings.

★ We welcome Brother Wilbur Jones to our literature evangelistic force. Brother Jones was baptized immediately after our annual colporteur institute held earlier this year. Canvassing in Truro, Nova Scotia, he reports sales of $234.00 and $25.00 in deposits for his first full week's work alone.

★ Brother C. R. Neill is attending the Oshawa Missionary College student colporteur institute. With the students joining our regular workers this summer we are looking forward to our best year for the literature ministry in our conference.

- A. S. Maxwell — Editor of "Signs of the Times"
- J. A. Buckwalter — General Field Secretary
- B. Glanzer — Editor of "The Ministry Magazine"
- Dr. M. Hardinge

Camp meeting will be held at Hope, British Columbia, July 19-28, 1956

Farewell to the Rasmussen Family

Elder Elmer Rasmussen's farewell message appeared in the March 21 issue of the MESSENGER. This belated word regarding Brother Rasmussen and his work will in no way lessen his message which he sent to his many friends throughout the conference. It will emphasize what he has said, and again serve to remind our people that ministers serve a period in a certain vineyard of the Lord and then He calls them to labour in some other needy field.

Elder Rasmussen laboured faithfully and well in this conference during the years he was with us. His experience as a minister has all been in this field. After completing his college work at Walla Walla College he taught school and was later accepted into the ministry.

Our people throughout the conference wish Elder Rasmussen and his family every blessing as they continue to serve the Lord and work for Him in the Wisconsin Conference where he now has gone to labour.

R. ALLEN SMITHWICK

Au Revoir

Most of our believers throughout the province know by now that Elder A. W. Bauer, home missionary secretary for the past seven years, has accepted a call to connect with the Wisconsin Conference. He left us early in March. Our people among the churches will miss the visits and kindly ways of Elder Bauer. He was loved by laymen and workers alike and his leadership through the conference will be missed by all.

A. W. Bauer

Many are acquainted with Sister Bauer, also, for she has been active with her husband in the promotion of Sabbath school workshops. Her displays and talks have brought real inspiration to the Sabbath school teachers and officers.

Elder and Mrs. Bauer have four children. They are well trained and a credit to their godly parents.

Our prayers and best wishes go with them. We shall treasure the memory of Elder and Mrs. Bauer and their kindly Christian ways. We pray that God may use them among the believers in their new field to bring inspiration and courage as they have brought to the believers in our conference where they have served so long and so faithfully.

R. ALLEN SMITHWICK

Elder and Mrs. D. E. Tinkler

New Home Missionary Leader

The man selected as home missionary leader for this growing conference has a big responsibility. In addition to promotion of lay activities and missionary work he sponsors the welfare and disaster relief, temperance, Sabbath school, Ingathering and Dorcas work. It requires a man of varied talents and gifts for such an important assignment.

Recently the Conference Committee was in session and study was given to the selection of a home missionary secretary. Elder Desmond E. Tinkler, a former worker in the British Columbia Conference, was unanimously selected for this important position.

Elder Henriksen and his committee were very reluctant to release Elder Tinkler. They felt, however, inasmuch as his responsibilities are to be on a conference-wide level and his position is elective they should not stand in his way of advancement to a position of wider service and responsibility and therefore released Brother Tinkler for this appointment. He is well known in a number of churches and districts of this conference where he has formerly served. His many friends in British Columbia will welcome the news that he is returning for another period of service.

Brother Tinkler will receive the same support and backing that was given to his predecessor, Elder A. W. Bauer. We shall pray that the work may move forward under his leadership and that God will bless Elder and Mrs. Tinkler as they return to this conference.

W. R. Beach

Alberta Camp Meeting Speaker

Elder W. R. Beach, secretary of the General Conference, will be speaking every day at the Alberta camp meeting. For more than twenty years Elder Beach was associated with our work in Southern Europe, much of the time as president of that large and intensely interesting field. He is a dynamic speaker and will relate stories of God's marvellous grace during the years when Hitler attempted to conquer all of Europe. You will miss a wonderful blessing if you miss one day of camp meeting. The dates are: July 12 to 21, at Lacombe.

E. M. Chalmers

Conference Evangelistic Team

The Chalmers-Friesen evangelistic team of the Alberta Conference held a two-week evangelistic campaign in the town of Ponoka which resulted in fifteen decisions to join the remnant church. On the final evening the church members met in the basement for prayer during the call for decisions.

A course of instruction followed the meetings in the theatre, preceding the baptism which was held in the Canadian Union College auditorium.

Working with Elder E. M. Chalmers, conference evangelist, were Mr. Gery Friesen, conference singing evangelist, and Elder Charles A. Phelps, pastor of Canadian Union College and district. Elder Phelps also held meetings immediately following the campaign to develop new interests.

Last year six full campaigns were held by the evangelistic team besides return trips of two and three nights to most of the places where meetings had been held the previous year. In the meetings they held at the three camp meetings conducted in the conference during the year sixty-four decisions were made.

Following the Ponoka campaign, Elder Chalmers and his family left for the Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C. to continue work on his Master of Arts degree during the present term. Mr. Friesen is also in Washington studying voice and furthering his training along this line. Future plans call for them to return and hold short campaigns in Lethbridge and High River and then a major campaign in the city of Calgary this fall.

Dorcas Activity at Sedgewick

Members and friends of the Sedgewick Dorcas welfare society opened their spring meeting with a supper on April 2. Mrs. A. Befus, welfare leader, called upon the secretary, Mrs. Lief Grovet, for the welfare report for the last six months.

Some of the high lights were as follows: $50.00 in cash was given to two families, who had suffered loss by fire, and $15.00 to a needy mother. Four quilts were made for the emergency supply. Sixty-five baby gowns were made and donated to hospitals at Killam and Galahad. Woollens were gathered and made into $100.00 worth of good blankets. $20.00 cash was donated to the Disaster and Famine Relief fund.

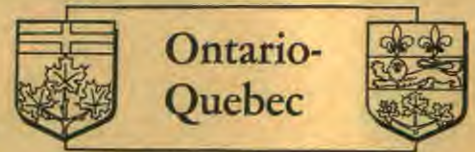

Following the presentation of this report, Walter Horne conducted a sale of home baked goods, fancywork and sewing, which enriched the Dorcas fund by $120.00.

Nature films of Canadian wild life were shown by Elder G. Schwarz to close the welfare meeting.

Evangelistic Meetings at Rimbey

Elder C. A. Phelps, pastor of the Canadian Union College church, is opening evangelistic services on April 21 at the Rimbey Community Hall in Rimbey. He will be assisted in his meetings by the Music Department of Canadian Union College. The first meeting will include the male quartette and also Gloria Thomas with her violin.

We wish Elder Phelps and his helpers a large harvest of souls from these evangelistic services.

Fruitage of Evangelism

The evening meeting of April 7 officially brought to a close the evangelistic campaign in St. Catharines. The churches of the Niagara Peninsula district co-operated in the busy programme and lent their full support. Sharing the additions in membership are the St. Catharines, Welland, and Niagara Falls churches. Still further baptisms are anticipated as lay members and pastor continue to work for the many interested individuals. To date twenty-six have joined the church by baptism and two by profession of faith.

The spirited preaching by Elder H. J. Brendel, the singing by Ernest Roy, and the music by Diane Brendel on her Hammond organ brought a good response in attendance at the lectures.

The strong visitation programme carried on by H. J. Brendel, Ernest Roy, Glynn Davies, G. S. Remick and Gilbert Andersen helped to bring people to decisions to join the remnant church. During the decision meetings the Spirit of God was manifested as people took their stand to serve Jesus.

In the closing meeting thrilling testimonies were freely given by new members telling of the satisfaction they are experiencing in obedience to God.

Dates for Camp Frenda and Eben-Eden

We are happy to announce our camp dates for Camp Frenda and Camp Eben-Eden. Beginning with Camp Frenda, junior camp will be held July 16 to 29, followed by our customary senior camp for ages twenty on up, July 30 to August 5.

For the first time in the history of the conference we are planning a teen-ager camp for young people between the ages of sixteen and nineteen inclusive, beginning August 7 through 12.

This year the dates for Camp Eben-Eden are August 20 to 27.

Just a word about our teen-ager camp. It is possible that some of our teen-agers might like to come to the senior camp rather than the teen-age camp. They may do this if they wish. However, no one older than nineteen years of age will be permitted at the teen-ager camp.

Plan now to send your boys and girls and young people to Camp Frenda.

Seniors, plan and save now for happy days at lovely Camp Frenda! We'll be looking forward to seeing you on those dates.

Ingathering Progress

Smooth Sailing

April 21, 1956

TEN COMMANDMENTS On How to Make Ingathering Pleasant

First: Get a correct mental attitude, remembering that like or dislike in your Ingathering work depends upon how you think about it. Think it is hard, and you will make it hard. Think it is easy and it will tend to become easy.

Second: Tell yourself that you like Ingathering. Then it will not be a drudgery. Think only of the blessings and pleasant experiences. Change your attitude, and Ingathering will be different.

Third: Don't harbour the idea you are carrying the whole load on your own shoulders. Be charitable in your attitude toward others.

Fourth: Take on the "unseen Partner." It is surprising the load He will carry for you. He knows more about your Ingathering than you do. His guidance will make your work easy.

Fifth: At the start of every day pray about your work. You will get some of your best ideas that way.

Sixth: Practice being relaxed. Don't press or strain. Take it in your stride with a smile.

Seventh: Plan your work—work your plan. Lack of system produces that "I'm failing" feeling.

Eighth: Don't try to do everything at once. That is why time is spread out. Operate on that wise advice from the Bible, "This one thing I do."

Ninth: Discipline yourself not to put off until tomorrow what you can do today.

Tenth: Become an expert in your work. "Knowledge is power."

A FORCED LANDING

This report shows that some conferences are making excellent progress in their Ingathering flight toward the goal. There are a few, however, whose planes are in danger of a forced landing, e. g. they have made little or no headway.

Let us all keep up a good speed toward our goals for a happy landing. This means that all must be willing to work and do their faithful part.

Someone has well said, "The world is full of willing people; some willing to work, the rest willing to let them." Let all be willing workers.
