All Church Members Should Attend Sabbath School

G. R. NASH, Secretary Sabbath School Department, General Conference

G. R. Nash

We believe that every effort should be made to get those who know not God into the Sabbath School and church. However, it seems to me that we should do more than we are doing perhaps to get the ones who are now church members, but who are not faithful in attending the Sabbath School, to gain the blessings that are afforded by this weekly spiritual feast of study and fellowship. Therefore, I am appealing especially to those who are church members — really good people — but who are not faithful in Sabbath School attendance.

There are many good reasons why Christians should regularly attend the Sabbath School. First, we might mention that Jesus, our example, whose footsteps we are to follow, had a "custom" or "habit" of attending church services. Luke 4:16. "I have given you an example," He said, "that ye should do as I have done." John 13:15. Then, too, we have the promise that "where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." Matthew 18:20.

In Hebrews 10:25 the apostle tells us, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching." Here we are plainly told to be more faithful in attending the services of the church, especially as we see the end approaching. It was "the manner of some" in Paul's day to stay away from church. It is "the manner of some" today to stay away from the Sabbath School service, as well as other services of the church. Those who do this lose the special blessing of God. If this practice is continued, these people will lose their interest in the services of the church and eventually lose their own souls.

There is another good reason why Christians should be faithful in attending the services of the church. That is because of their own personal example and influence, "None of us liveth to himself." Romans 14:7. We are either gathering for Christ or scattering from Him. The question is, What example are you setting? Can you say with the apostle Paul, "Be ye followers of me"? 1 Cor. 11:1.

It has always been important to attend Sabbath School, but there is a very special reason why those of us who "see the day approaching" should be faithful in this respect. We are admonished to hide the word of the Lord in our hearts against that day when we will not be able to have it and to study it as we otherwise want to. The Sabbath School is the church at study. Those who fail to attend Sabbath School are missing what God has in store for them. "We are living in the time of the end. The fast-fulfilling signs of the times declare that the coming of Christ is near at hand."

Realizing that time is short and that the rapidly-fulfilling signs of the times all point to the soon-coming of Jesus, shall we not determine that we will be present and on time at His divinely-appointed services to receive the blessings that He has for us? May we count on you to be faithful in Sabbath School attendance? May God grant that your answer will be, Yes. I earnestly pray that the Lord will bless you to this end.

New President For the Maritimes

Elder and Mrs. D. E. Tinkler

The Maritime Conference Committee voted to invite Elder D. E. Tinkler, president of the Newfoundland Mission, to be their new president. Elder L. L. Bock, former Maritime Conference president, has already taken up his duties as president of the Ontario-Ouebec Conference.

Elder Tinkler comes to the Maritimes with a helpful background in pastoral, evangelistic, departmental and administrative experience. For the past four years he gave able leadership as president of the Newfoundland Mission. His previous service was in the British Columbia and Manitoba-Saskatchewan Conferences as pastor-evangelist and later he was called back to British Columbia to serve as Home Missionary, Sabbath School and Public Relations Secretary. He was born in Saskatchewan, while his wife, the former Ruth Brown, was born in Nova Scotia.

I am confident that the membership of the Maritime Conference will appreciate the leadership of Elder Tinkler as he assumes his new responsibilities. Please remember Elder and Mrs. Tinkler as they make their plans to move to Moncton. Without a doubt their presence will be greatly missed by all our believers in Newfoundland, but I am sure the best will be wished for them in the Master's service.

The Links in a Missionary Chain

(United States - Canada - Germany)

The soul-winning ministry of Zeichen der Zeit is world-wide.

Not long ago a Swiss couple living in California began to receive the German Signs of the Times, Zeichen der Zeit, from a friend who sent it to them regularly. They read the magazine eagerly and noticed the advertisement for the German Bible course. So they enrolled.

In 1962 they returned to Basel, Switzerland, where they got in touch with the Seventh-day Adventist minister who started to give them Bible studies in their home. The latest report from Basel says: "Husband and wife will soon be baptized. He has given notice to his employer that he will give up his job, and is planning to become a literature evangelist."

Another story. An elderly couple on a lonely Midwestern farm had been sending Zeichen der Zeit to some friends in Germany but they never received any word of thanks and wondered whether their missionary work did any good. When they were about to stop sending the magazine they received an interesting letter from Canada. A family that had fled from Eastern Germany to Western Germany stopped at the home of the people that had been receiving Zeichen der Zeit. They noticed several of these magazines and asked if they could keep them. Their hosts gladly gave them to the refugee family which later emigrated to Canada. There, after having read the magazine with great pleasure, they found Seventh-day Adventists and were baptized.

The sponsors of that subscription of Zeichen der Zeit were so impressed by the results that they not only continued to send the magazine to their friends but promised to give several hundred dollars for the German literature work when they sold their farm and retired.

Our German magazine reaches thousands of homes particularly in the United States but also in many other countries. Many souls have been won by the ministry of Zeichen der Zeit and many have been gladdened by the message as it is brought to them in their own tongue.

We should put forth our utmost efforts to reach all the people around us who have a foreign language background.

the artist on the Ukrainian Voice of Hope radio programme, in evangelistic meetings, and in various other meetings.

Some favourites among the 14 hymns are: Have I Done my Best for Jesus?, My Hope Is Built; Not I, But Christ; Will Your Anchor Hold, and typical Ukrainian hymns not translated into English. Especially dear to the heart of this pastor of the Bermuda Church is the hymn bearing the title of the record. It is an endearing tie with his earliest desire as a young boy growing up in a lonely prairie farm country in Canada. He longed to sing to the world of God's wonderful love and to teach them of the greatness of the God he had come to know so well through his intimate touch with nature. His experience of a hope realized enriches the quality of expression, not only in How Great Thou Art, but in all songs that bear a message to draw hearts ever closer to God.

These records, FLP 1001 and FLP 1002 are recorded in the monophonic only. They are available through your Book and Bible House.

Ukrainian Records

FLP will have a special significance to persons who have been asking for for-eign-language records. This new series, which is being added to the Chapel Records catalogue, has had its beginnings in the production of two outstanding Ukrainian records. Elder Nicholas Il-chuk, speaker for the Ukrainian Voice of Hope radiobroadcast and editor of the Ukrainian Publications at the Pacific Press Publishing Association, Mountain View, California, has co-operated with Chapel Records in the preparation of these two albums. Other languages will be introduced from time to time.

FLP 1001, the first of these new listings, is titled Have Thine Own Way, Lord, with the King's Heralds and Del Delker. This group, well-known because of their association with the Voice of Prophecy radio broadcast throughout the world, have recorded an excellent rendition of hymns in the Ukrainian language. Familiar and well-loved sacred selections are so presented that even one not understanding the language can readily enjoy the music. In the programme of 16 songs are such favourites as: My Faith

Jerry Dill (right), King's Heralds' bass, at work with Pastor Nicholas Ilchuk, on Ukrainian translation of songs into International phonetic symbols.

Looks up to Thee; If You Love Him; This is My Father's World. Pass Me Not; Have Thine Own Way, Lord; Dare to Stand Like Joshua; I Need the Prayers; Just As I Am. The Ukrainian believers will be overjoyed with this release!

Released concurrently with this album is FLP 1002, How Great Thou Art, with sacred selections sung by Joseph Melashenko, bass. This record was produced as a result of innumerable requests from people over a period of time who heard ter in the author's life, this book is a marvellous revelation of God's characterrefining love during times of pain and distress.

Mary Holder Dietel was a college professor (at Southern Missionary College) at the height of her career when, suddenly, one morning she awakened to excruciating pain seemingly in every part of her body. She describes it this way: "All of my bones were though suddenly welded into a painful mass by some diabolical trickster in such a fashion that any part of my stiffened anatomy would send electrical shocks to every other part, though only slightly moved or touched."

She didn't know it then, but she was soon to learn that she had been afflicted with Rheumatoid Arthritis.

The painful ordeal that followed, the terrible question "Why?" the rewarding and satisfying answers that came in response to her prayers and questions — all of these are woven together in a masterful way, resulting in a story that will bring to the reader both tears and laughter, both joy and sorrow; in the final analysis, mostly joy.

Like Jacob of old, the author made the greatest discoveries of God's love during times of intense pain and dreadful onslaughts of uncertainty.

Available now at your Book and Bible House. This is definitely an above-average book.

I contacted a lady who had enjoyed Uncle Arthur's Bedtime Stories when she was a small girl, but did not know they were still in print. On seeing them again she was so overjoyed she bought a complete unit including a Golden Heritage Bible and Modern Ways to Health, which totalled $167.50 with down payment of $40.00. This order came out of a clear sky direct from God.

A man I met this week had very recently left his life of drinking, etc., and turned to a "Pentecost-style" church. He was happy — turned down a party invitation from some old friends when I was there. "I am going to church now instead." His finances were not too good, but he took Your Bible and You and wanted more books later. He had come to a turning point in his life. It was interesting to meet him. I will see him again.

After having prayer in a home, the lady asked me if I were a Seventh-day Adventist. She said that only Adventists pray so beautifully. This couple bought Your Bible and You for cash. Another lady told me that she knew that I was an Adventist the moment I stepped in through the door. Brethren, the fields are ripe, but indeed the labourers are few. God is blessing His work and the honest canvasser.

Brother Sudds and I called at a home where the husband and wife were very interested in the better way of life and the times in which we live. After our canvass on the Bible Story and a very interesting discourse on denominations, Mr.—wanted to know what reason we had for keeping Sabbath on the seventh day. He agreed with our reasons and really only wanted confirmation of his own studies on the subject. They are members of the United Missionary Church but actually believe more Adventism than anything else. With their order we were able to include a Triumph and also left a copy of Planet in Rebellion and Love Unlimited. Shortly after this we met a young Mennonite couple who also agreed to the seventh day as being correct. The lady of this home is the librarian in their church and she desires to put some of our books in their library.

Two very good sales this week resulted from two homes which previously had a copy of Children's Hour. They enjoyed them, of course, and felt impressed with the lessons. In one home the result was a complete Bible Story sale with Children's Hour and other books to follow. In the other home a complete set of Bible Story and Children's Hour were delivered. Many years before some other colporteur placed the previous copies, and their influence kept on living, and who can tell what the final results will be. Only in eternity will we know.

This week I canvassed a young lady staying at the Y.W.C.A. whom I had canvassed last fall. She told me to call back. We went into the main waiting room and she called all her girl friends in to see the Bible Story. Two bought the big unit and two others are planning to buy soon. It was wonderful to see the Spirit of God work on those young hearts. May God bless each book that we place in the homes is my prayer.

An Appeal from Inter-America . . .

A Miracle of God

Late one afternoon Peter was brought into the hospital in a semicomatose state. Two days before this little lad had been severely burned by upsetting hot water over himself. One-third of his body surface was burned, but the parents did not realize his danger. When his temperature began to soar and he began to lose consciousness, they brought him to the doctor at Andrews Memorial Hospital in Kingston, Jamaica.

Being a person who loves children, Dr. Leon's heart went out to this suffering little one. If only they had brought him in sooner!

"I'm very much afraid that it is too late for any treatment we can give to help your little boy," the doctor told the anxious parents, trying to prepare them for the worst. "However, we will do all we can." He hesitated, then added slowly, "I doubt if he will make it through the night."

Peter was admitted quickly, and all the latest possible burn therapy was instituted — drips, injections, and dressings. Dr. Leon drove to the coolness of his home in the hills where he usually was able to relax and throw off the cares of the day — but tonight he was worried about little Peter. He questioned, "Was there anything more that I could have done?" Yet, he knew he had done everything humanly possible. He decided he could only leave the case in the hands of the Lord.

In the meantime, the nurses were keeping a close watch on Peter. Pulse, respiration, and temperature were taken frequently and were increasing alarmingly. Suddenly the nurse noticed a turn for the worse, and feeling sure the little boy was dving, sent another nurse to call Dr. Leon, It was a twenty-minute drive to the hospital from the hills, but he made it in record time. Emergency stimulants were administered, for it seemed the little boy was already gone. However, he rallied a bit. Then, after leaving further instructions, the doctor again headed for home. Twice more during the night the little fellow was at the point of death, and twice more the doctor made the trip back to the hospital. Twice more the little lad rallied.

The next morning when the parents returned, the doctor told them, "He has come through the night 'by a miracle of God.' There is a slight possibility that he may yet pull through."

A couple of days later as he left the child's room, he met the parents in the hallway. "Peter just smiled at me," he reported with a big smile on his own face. "He's out of danger at last. We thank the Lord, and can be glad that medical science has developed better methods of treating burn cases during recent years."

The parents were grateful, so grateful that a few days later the following notice appeared in the daily newspaper:

"The parents of Peter wish to thank the nurses and doctors of the Andrews Memorial Hospital for their loving care and devotion to duty in bringing him safely through his recent severe illness."

Generous offerings this Thirteenth Sabbath can help to provide more medical facilities in Inter-America to care for the many sick persons who are looking for Christian ministry from trained medical personnel.

MEDICAL EDUCATION and SERVICE

This year, and in the next several years, Loma Linda University's SCHOOL OF MEDICINE faces the staggering necessity of establishing at Loma Linda an adequate new teaching hospital.

... The successful continuance of the school for preparing the youth of the church depends on this. The extending of medical services depends on this. Keeping the avenues open into all the world depends on this.

... Friends of medical education can help by giving to the offering that will be taken in all North American churches on April 13 or by sending a check directly to the University in care of the President.

A Tribute

(From One Senior Citizen to Another)

A loving tribute to Aunt Jenny Mann at the celebration of her 94th birthday, March 14, 1963.

Aunt Jenny Mann of the St. John's, Newfoundland, Church on the occasion of her 94th birthday enjoys good health and the blessings of church attendance and fellowship. The following poem tribute to Sister Mann was written by Mrs. Emilie Granger who is 83 years old. Mrs. Granger is also a member of the St. John's Church.

The Days of Her Great Age

God bless you, my dear; God bless you, I pray,

On this your ninety-fourth birthday.

God bless you now as you turn the new page

To enter upon the days of great age. May God in His love bestow joy and peaces

From suffering and pain may grant you release.

Long years have you lived, saw changes through life;

You saw years of peace, you saw years of strife;

You saw years of plenty, you saw want indeed,

But God richly blest you to help those in need;

God lengthened your days to make those homes bright

God blessed you at morn; He blessed you at night.

You lived through the reign of six monarchs for peace

Always made happy when wars they did cease.

You lived through the age of work slowly done

But now in the age when man's on the run. Age then of kerosene, wood, coal and gas

Now in the age of electricity fast.

You lived in the age of horse and his trot

But now in the age when horse most forgot.

You lived in the age when skies were clear blue,

No chemicals tainted pure atmosphere through.

But now in the age when jets swiftly fly

And like lightning flash across cloudy sky.

Age whence on highways chariot doth run And like flaming torches toward you they come.

All these are the signs that the end

draweth near

Soon with His angels our Lord will appear.

May we be ready to meet Him that day

To live with Him alway, forever and aye.

The glorious age of sweet peace and joy

No tears and no pain and no sad good-bye.

Blest age of all ages forever to be With Christ, our Redeemer, eternally. Long years did you toil in God's vineyard here, You'll reap rich reward with God over there.

Farewell For Wessman Family

Pastor and Mrs. Carl Wessman (right) and their daughter, Lois, are presented with a farewell gift by Pastor Tinkler from the Queen's Road Church and conference. Pastor Wessman recently accepted a call from the Manitoba-Saskatchewan conference to locate in Regina, Saskatchewan, as pastor and district leader. The St. John's Church honoured them with a supper social before their departure from Newfoundland where they have laboured for the past three and onehalf years. In appreciation for Mrs. Wessman's services as secretary of the WCTU, she was presented with a life membership pin by the president of the local chapter. Lois is remaining as a student of the St. John's academy until school closing in June when she will join her parents in Regina. Enroute to Saskatchewan Elder and Mrs. Wessman enjoyed a vacation in Miami Beach, Florida, where their son, Carl Jr., is teaching. Their many friends in Newfoundland wish them rich blessings in their new field of labour.

Experience in Corner Brook, Newfoundland

John Llewellyn in canvassing action,

One of the interesting points about canvassing is the uncertainty involved. One has to believe that he is doing the Lord's work and that He will bless him if he works faithfully.

One week however, I was working along quite faithfully, but wasn't having too much success. After supper one evening I went out to call on a man who had sent in a lead card. When I found the house I saw that a car was blocking the driveway. Uncertain as to whether parking was permitted on that side of the street, I thought I would ask a man who was sitting on a doorstep of the house opposite. He said it was all right to park if I wanted to get a ticket, but added, if I wasn't going to be long to park in his driveway, which I did.

The man whom I had called to see was quite interested but his wife was against it. He asked me to call Monday so he could think about it over the week end.

As I went across the street to my car, parked in the driveway, the man came out and asked me what I was selling as he also was a salesman. He seemed interested and told me that he had one little boy. Within five minutes he had me carrying him a set of Bible Story and a Triumph of God's Love valued at $80.00.

At my next call that evening the lady's sister was visiting her. Within a short time the lady of the house decided that she would have a set of Bible Story. Then she turned to her sister and said, "You'll want a set too, won't you?" and her sister replied, "Yes, you can put mine in my car." Both of these ladies' husbands were successful business men and could well afford the books.

Monday evening I called on the man whose wife opposed having the set and he asked me to bring them in the morning to his office at the Paper Company. This I did.

Here were four sets of Bible Story and four Triumph of God's Love sold in one evening, and I hardly had a chance to say my canvass.

First fruits of regular Sabbath Baptismal classes held in St. John and Barnesville were presented for baptism on March 2 in the Saint John Seventh-day Adventist Church. The dedication of parents, church school influences, and sincere heart searching and diligent study prepared the way for these youth to accept Jesus as their personal Saviour.

Following a sermon by Elder R. Lenbert Cheney entitled-"Now I Belong to Jesus," the youth were examined and voted into church membership subject to baptism. Those baptized from Barnesville were: Miss Betty Brown, Miss Bonita Brown, Miss Barbara Peterson, and Miss Marlene Smith. Those baptized from St. John were: Miss Marilyn Akerley, Mr. Douglas Blakney, Miss Corrine Sommerville, and Miss Ellen White. There are already about the same number preparing for baptism in June or July. May the Lord bless these young people as they "Give of their youth to God."

I have come here on more or less a transfer. I would appreciate it very much if you could find somebody who would be willing to exchange stamps. I would very much like to build up my collection of Canadian stamps. I did have a few before I left India, but they are not many and I now would like to get some more newer issues of Canadian stamps, Kindly ascertain from any of our young people there if they are willing to trade stamps with me. Also, if anybody wants to know anything concerning our work in India. I shall be glad to write on any subject within my limit. - Colleen Roe, No. 34 Loch St., St. Kilda, Vic., Australia.

Ingathering - St. John, N.B.

R. LENBERT CHENEY, Pastor

The Saint John Church did the best it has done for many years in Ingathering this season just closed. This coming year it has every hope of even surpassing what it did in reaching for the 1963 goal.

Investment in church school and auditorium at SDA Youth Centre is beginning to pay off in more ways than one. The spacious Winnipeg school auditorium also serves as a gospel hall. Elder Rudolph Skoretz has launched a three-week concentrated evangelistic effort in the Ukrainian language.

The evangelistic team consists of Elder Skoretz and his wife who looks after operation of films and prepares background for stage by art work, and Pastor Steve Yaseyko, assistant, music director and soloist.

One of the attractive features of the evening is a chalk drawing done by Mrs. Skoretz. The grandeur of the picture is enhanced by a "black light" that accentuates the Gospel story and leaves the audience spell-bound.

Elder Skoretz is offering a free "new Bible" for perfect attendance. Many are enquiring about it. A number who had been given Bible studies by their fireside are now attending the meetings regularly and taking a lively interest in the service.

The spirited singing of Pastor Yaseyko and his able leadership as music director is very much appreciated. We invite all the readers of the Messenger to pray that the Holy Spirit will do His work in the saving of many souls during this Crusade for Christ.

Saskatoon Baptism - D. R. Watts, Pastor

Hearts were made glad in Saskatoon on Sabbath, March 2, as eleven more sheep were baptized into the fold of the Good Shepherd.

The baptismal ordinance was administered by the Pastor, D. R. Watts, assisted by R. L. Bergey, Conference Publishing Secretary, who had the joy of seeing baptized, his brother-in-law and sisterin-law for whom he had prayed for some years.

Three-week Evangelistic Crusade in Calgary - L. E. Dasher

Part of the large group gathered the last night of the series shown holding up the "Friendship Bibles" that were used during the meetings. Over 120 families received these Bibles to keep as their own for having attended twelve out of the sixteen meetings. Pastor-Evangelist L. E. Dasher with back to camera.

Sunday night, March 3, was a very important night for the Calgary Central Seventh-day Adventist Church, for at 7:30 sharp the lights were dimmed and Mr. Don Melashenko invited the large audience in attendance to turn their eyes upon Jesus.

This was the beginning of an intensive three-week series of evangelistic meetings held in the new Calgary Central Church. The "Great Bible-Study Crusade" was conducted by Pastor-Evangelist Larry E. Dasher, who just recently arrived as pastor of the Calgary District from California.

As the meetings progressed so also did the attendance and the interest. Three calls were made during the campaign for definite surrender to Christ and to join God's remnant church. Thirty-eight responded to these calls and are now either baptized or are making definite preparation for baptism at a later date.

On Sabbath, March 23, the hearts of the members of the church were made glad as they witnessed the baptism of seven dear souls, the first fruits of the campaign.

Although the series of meetings were completed Sunday night, March 24, the pastor is continuing regular evangelistic meetings every Wednesday night through the month of April. There is real reason to believe that a number more will also take their stand during these follow-up meetings and will be baptized.

Your prayers in behalf of those yet to make their decision, and for strength for those who have, will be very much appreciated. Only eternity will show the benefits of concerted prayer effort on the part of Christian believers.

The Doctor Is In

No. 7, Medical Series

Note: Dr. R. Stickle is an optometrist, practicing in the city of Port Alberni and vicinity on Vancouver Island. His wife Caroline is a registered nurse, also practicing in the hospital there. Dr. and Mrs. Stickle have two children, Tevesa LeAnn, aged two years, and Kelly Lynder, born September 25, 1962.

Elder Kuester—We will begin with you, Dr. Stickle, and ask first in what field you are practicing, and then something of your educational background.

Dr. Stickle—I am a doctor of optometry. I was born in the Okanagan Valley here in British Columbia, and received my church school training at Grandview, with two years at Rest Haven. I attended our academy in Portland, Oregon, where our family had moved. Then two years at Canadian Union College followed with my professional training at Pacific University in Forest Grove, Oregon, graduating from there in 1959 with my Doctor of Optometry degree.

Question—That sounds like a worthwhile programme. What did you do with your summers?

Dr. Stickle—I spent my summers working in the woods at the Jacobson Brothers Mill in Beaver Valley getting excercise, and money to go back to school in the fall.

Question—Beaver Valley is a beautiful place; I always enjoy going there. I understand you had some extra curricular activities while in Beaver Valley.

Dr. Stickle— Yes, I spent some time one summer working for the government fighting forest fires.

Question—Will you tell us something of it?

Dr. Stickle— It was quite an experience. It was a long distance from civilization to where we worked. We went the first 15 miles by jeep, then travelled up a lake for 40 miles, then hiked up a valley where there was no road for another 13 miles. With no roads, our food and equipment was dropped to us by parachute for the first two weeks; then later it was brought in by boat. We were limited in sleeping equipment and food.

Question—I understand, Dr. Stickle, that your practice includes a larger territory than just Port Alberni. What other territory do you cover?

Dr. Stickle-My main office is in Port Alberni. I go over to Parksville on the east coast of Vancouver Island for one day a week, and once a month I go to Ucluelet which is a village on the extreme west coast of the Island.

NOTATION—Dr. Stickle served as Sabbath School superintendent for 1962. We also appreciate his medical contribution to this section of the British Columbia Conference.

Question—Mrs. Stickle, I understand that you are a professional medical worker also. Will you kindly give us your maiden name and tell us where you received your education as well as your medical training.

Mrs. Stickle—I was Carrol Campbell from the Okanagan. I took my grade school work at Silver Creek, and then went to Canadian Union College for five years. Next I went to Walla Walla College School of Nursing, and from there to the Portland Sanitarium where I took my professional training.

Question-Silver Creek has a beautiful new school building on the hillside, is that the one you attended?

Mrs. Stickle—No, I went to a log school as it was some time ago that I was there. We had about thirty-six students for the one teacher, so it was crowded, but we had a wonderful time playing ball in the summer and sleigh riding in the winter. Question—I understand, Mrs. Stickle, that you still follow your profession. What are you doing at the present time? Mrs. Stickle—I work two days a week at the local hospital here in Port Alberni. We have a lovely 111-bed modern hospital. I find that most of the staff are Christians and it certainly is pleasant working there.

Question-Dr. Stickle, I have heard that you are taking a real interest in the community and its operations. Will you tell what you are doing?

Dr. Stickle— I am presently secretary of the Alberni District Junior Chamber of Commerce. On the professional side I am study group chairman of the Upper Island Optometrical Association which is a branch of the British Columbia Optometrical Association, and also the regional representative of the department of regional information of the British Columbia Optometrical Association.

Question-Mrs. Stickle, will you tell us about the type of public service that you are presently doing?

Mrs. Stickle—I am president of the local Registered Nurses Chapter. We have two hundred registered and graduate nurses in our valley.

Elder Kuester—Both of you are to be commended for the professional services and the public leadership that you are giving to your community.

Kamloops Leading to Date

On March 16 a Conference-wide offering was given for the construction of a Seventh-day Adventist chapel in the city of Kamloops. The Kamloops company of believers set for themselves a high offering goal of $500.00. Forty-nine persons, counting the children, were present for the Sabbath services. The offering amounted to $794.29, or a per capita of $16.21. The faithful Kamloops membership is still giving to its building fund. They are of good courage and strong confidence.

Within a few weeks we will know what the rest of the Conference contributed. In the meantime we are assured that this project is attracting attention all around the field and is receiving warmhearted approval. If you were not present to give an offering on March 16, or if you feel that you did not give all that you ought to give, please feel free to send your gift to your church treasurer or directly to the British Columbia Conference, box 10, Mission City. The Lord will bless us as we sacrifice together to build up His church.

G. O. ADAMS, President

It is peace that you need—heaven's forgiveness and peace and love in the soul. Money cannot buy it, intellect cannot procure it, wisdom cannot attain to it; you can never hope, by your own efforts, to secure it. But God offers it to you as a gift, "without money and without price." Isa. 55:1....

BUSY TONGUES

Scandal is a most fearful thing, It travels from tongue to tongue, There is no power to check its course Whenever it's once begun. Evil motives may start its course, And it travels bit by bit, Very few want to check it down. Their darts are added to it. Even though it is proved untrue Can be proved without a doubt: The rumour with its sweeter taste Some folks will not do without. So no one tries to check its flight, The scandal is farther flung, And the fastest way it travels Is by means of tongue to tongue. Jealousy perhaps may start it, Retaliation, may, too. Though its origin is age-old, People find it ever new. Slander doesn't prove one guilty, Why can't slander be ignored? Slander follows many Christians, Even followed our dear Lord. Some folks scandalized our Saviour, Said He had a shady birth, And their scandal still is moving Here and there upon the earth. Do we hope we shall escape it? We, who live upon earth's sod? There were those who dared and did Smirk the very name of God. Hearers add a bit to scandal, Tell it confidentially, quite, Small tales started in the morning Have been doubled by the night. "Did you hear? Can you believe it? Must be true as each one spoke.' So it smoulders in those ashes While they fan that bit of smoke. Who dares say "I don't believe it!" Dares to say, "There's a liar!" They keep heaping fuel upon it 'Til they have a glowing fire. The good folks cannot "live it down." False tales do not make them worse. But these keep on hurting deeply 'Til there's freedom in a hearse.

Rehabilitation Conference

The Ontario County Rehabilitation Conference Session was held in Oshawa, February 27-March 1, at the Genosha Hotel. Over two hundred delegates from all over Ontario were in attendance.

Elder W. G. Soloniuk, Canadian Union Home Missionary and Sabbath School Secretary, was the Secretary of the Programme Planning Committee, He also served as the Chairman of the Educational Department of the Council.

Elder P. W. Manuel, President of Oshawa Missionary College, was the Chairman of the Finance Committee. Some of the delegates of the Seventhday Adventist Church were: Dr. W. C. Sands, Elder D. Skoretz, Mrs. Florence Dunbar-Vella, Mrs. Ralph Coupland and Mr. Peter Hanley.

The Honourable Dr. M. B. Dymond, Minister of Health for Ontario, sounded the keynote, and speaker after speaker. as well as the delegates, agreed in the modern concept of rehabilitation so brilliantly presented by Dr. Dymond, He pointed out that Rehabilitation is not a profession, a science, a set of skills. It is a philosophy - a set of intentions, goals, attitudes. This philosophy is rooted in certain ideas, such as: I am my brother's keeper is the only civilized point of view. Rehabilitation deals with people . . . not with conditions. It deals with the whole man . . . and requires a total team approach. We have done the job only when we have reinstated all to full human rights, and done this with unimpaired dignity to the individual.

Study was given by other leading men on rehabilitation. Each speaker stressed the importance of rehabilitation individuals, regardless of the problem or type of

We, as Seventh-day Adventists, should always keep in mind our responsibility in helping people that are in need physically, mentally or spiritually. In our communities we should always look for opportunities for helping others. The Holy Scriptures clearly tell us that pure religion and undefiled before God is - to visit the fatherless in their affliction, and the orphans, those in prison, those that are in hunger, those that are dejected and have no friends. Let us never forget the words, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto Me."

Ingathering Victory

A happy occasion for the Windsor Church was the Ingathering Victory Banquet to celebrate the success of house to house solicitation. Sixth up from bottom right, Brother Pardy, 78 is FAITHFUL-NESS personified. He goes out every year and usually brings in over $100. The church school under the leadership of its teacher, Miss Elsie Magoon, and ten active pupils, were the first band to reach its goal, bringing in $450. We are happy for these Ingathering results.

Battle Creek Tour

A grand tour of Battle Creek has been organized by Elder A. B. Ferrier and the faithful solicitors of the 1962-63 carolling and Ingathering campaign for the London, St. Thomas and Exeter Churches, to take place on May 12. This tour will be a real blessing and inspiration, because it is one of Seventh-day Adventists' most historic sites. In co-operation with the Battle Creek Health Centre and the Chaplain of the institution, the visit will take in the Kellogg Centre, the Health Centre and the original buildings of the Review and Herald. The visitors will also see the house of Elder and Mrs. White, the birthplace of "The Great Controversy" and many other famous writings. The guided tour will also take in the well-known Battle Creek Cemetery, where the Whites have been laid to rest.

Camporee Plans

The week-end of May 31-June 2 has been agreed upon by the Pathfinder directors of the conference for a camporee. Last May a camporee was held and it brought new enthusiasm to all the Pathfinder clubs. Plan now to have a part in the camporee. Instructions will be sent to the Pathfinder clubs when plans are completed.

Eldest Member of College Park Church Honoured

Mrs. Davies on her 98th birthday being entertained at a dinner given in her honour.

On Sabbath, March 16, Mrs. Rebecca Davies was given special recognition in the College Park Sabbath School on the occasion of her 98th birthday which was the following day. Presentation of a gloxinia plant was made by the superintendent, Elder F. L. Wessely. She is the eldest member of the College Park Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Mrs. Davies was born in Oakville, Ontario, on March 17, 1865, as Rebecca Jane Noble.

In 1888 she was married in Columbus, Ohio, to Mr. E. G. Detliefs, an advertising agent for Fleishman's Yeast. The Detliefs became acquainted with Adventists in Columbus, and after they moved to Cleveland they were contacted by an Adventist literature evangelist who detected an interest in religious topics and arranged for them to study with a Bible worker. They became Seventh-day Adventists in Cleveland in 1892.

Following the deaths of her husband in Ohio and her mother in Guelph, Ontario, Mrs. Detlief came to live with her sister, Mrs. Atkinson, in Oshawa. Here, in 1927, she met and married Mr. Josiah Davies, a widower and father of four children.

That same year she became a member of the Oshawa Missionary College Church, and so to this date has been a member of this church for 37 of the 71 years which she has been a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Sister Davies' record of faithfulness and longevity is a witness to the sustaining power of the gospel and the health message of the Adventist Church.

The ladies of OMC presented a reception, "Evening in Paris," the night of March 24. The Nil Sine Numine Club of the College, which comprises all of the girls of the school, had decorations that made the auditorium look like the bank of the Seine. The Eiffel Tower, 19-feet tall, constructed to scale by Dr. Crawford of the Branson Hospital, was the central attraction. The displays of art along the north wall drew much attention as they featured the art masters. A 65-foot mural of the Paris skyline was on the south wall. A delightful programme consisted of French music, a one-act play, and a Walt Disney picture.
