The Voice of Prophecy —

People in Canada are Responding

Response to the Voice of Prophecy ministry in Canada is encouraging.

Last year 208 people were baptized as a result of the influence of the Voice of Prophecy. In addition, more than 2,500 people enrolled in a Voice of Prophecy Bible course.

A teen-ager who listens to the Sunday broadcast on CKJS (Winnipeg) every week wrote, "Your simple yet strong words have helped me greatly".

From Nova Scotia a 22-year-old Bible School student wrote that although he'd been brought up in a Seventh-day Adventist home he'd been an on-and-off-again Christian for years. "Now that I am studying deeply, delving into God's promises for my life, I feel more alive than ever," he wrote. "Keep those guides coming."

These letters and the testimonies of many others who are finding their way to Jesus provide ample evidence that God is speaking to people in Canada through the Voice of Prophecy.

Seven Ways The Voice of Prophecy Can Help You Witness For Jesus

Did you know that the Voice of Prophecy can help you in your personal witnessing program?

The Voice of Prophecy staff suggests seven ways the broadcast and its associated ministries can help church members reach people on a personal basis. Here they are —

1. Invite a friend to tune in. Key topics of the Christian life are presented in a time-tested format by experienced radio ministers in a way that touches hearts and brings commitment.

2. Listen to the broadcast for ideas of how to present spiritual truths when friends ask you questions about heaven, human suffering, God's commandments, and other points.

3. Present a Bible School enrollment card to people you are hoping to reach. Every year people are brought to Christ because someone gave away enrollment cards or placed them in waiting rooms, laundromats, or in gift books.

4. Enroll in a Bible course—for your own spiritual understanding as well as for resource materials to help you present key truths whenever you have an opportunity.

5. Send the Voice of Prophecy monthly newspaper to a friend or relative who may be interested in spiritual matters. Be sure you're on the mailing list, too, so you can read about broadcast topics for the following month, Voice of Prophecy

FATHER AND SON spend many hours together in the Voice of Prophecy studio recording the Sunday broadcasts, now aired on 625 stations in North America. H. M. S. Richards, a pioneer in the radio ministry, has been proclaiming God's Word on the air since 1930. Much of the recording and public speaking is now carried on by his son, H. M. S. Richards, Jr., (right) speaker-director of the broadcast.

crusades coming up soon, sermons, and special features of potential interest to your friends.

6. Next time the Voice of Prophecy is invited to present a crusade in your area—or where you have loved ones needing to be reached—be sure to invite the people on your soul-winning list to attend. If you've succeeded in getting them to listen to the broadcast and enroll in a Bible course, they'll be glad for the opportunity.

7. Pray that the music and words of the broadcast will reach hearts longing for the peace only Jesus can bring. As you pray, you'll be amazed at the way God's Spirit will open up opportunities to you to witness to others.

To assist church members in their personal witnessing program, free radio logs, enrollment cards and sample copies of the Voice of Prophecy NEWS are available on request. For large quantities, supplies are available at cost.

For more information, write to Field Services, the Voice of Prophecy, Box 55, Los Angeles, California 90053. When you write, be sure to mention that you are a Seventh-day Adventist involved in expanding your personal witnessing program for the Lord.

"A Heart for Singing"

Del Delker's life has been filled with music as far back as she can remember.

"My first baby-sitter was a record player," she says. "The music would keep me entertained for hours."

One of her first solo appearances was as a pre-Christian teen-ager in Oakland, California. Del remembers the occasion well. "I was singing Ave Maria in Latin in a Protestant church. I turned the wrong page and got hopelessly lost. But I kept singing, just making up syllables that sounded Latin to me. I don't think anybody noticed."

It wasn't the last time Del would need to think fast to keep things moving smoothly.

Since joining the Voice of Prophecy, Del has sung in a dozen languages, traveled in 30 different countries and spent at least 1,500 hours waiting in airports.

She's endured sore throats and influenza, off-key pianos, unsavory restaurants, faltering public address systems and misplaced luggage.

But if she's been distressed by the parade of minor calamities that confront her as the traveling contralto soloist for the Voice of Prophecy, she doesn't let on. "Just knowing that God is leading is enough for me," she says.

This year as Del celebrates her thirtieth anniversary with the Voice of Prophecy she earns the distinction of serving as a performing member of the broadcast's music staff longer than anyone else.

After turning down the invitation four times because she didn't think she had enough musicianship and didn't want to leave her home in Oakland, Del joined the Voice of Prophecy staff in 1947.

From her second-floor office where she doubles as music staff secretary, Del reflected about what her service at the Voice of Prophecy has meant to her. She sorted through some letters on her desk.

"Music can touch the heart like nothing else," she said. "Here's a letter from a woman who was well-known for her fearful temper. But one night at campmeeting she heard the King's Heralds singing, 'Would your heart be right, if He came tonight?' and she knew the answer was 'No.' She gave herself completely to Jesus, and now her ten-year-old has seen the difference. When he greeted his mother the other day he said, 'Hi, changed Mom.'"

In another letter a retired monk said, "Your voices are like a voice from home." A woman whose husband had just been killed wrote, "Your records bring comfort to my heart." A listener in New York wrote, "Your voice in song sinks into my soul."

A husband and wife in Oregon went through a tragic fire in which all three of their children burned to death. "Your song, 'But I Do Know.'" they told Del, "was just the healing ointment we needed."

One day at lunch in a cafeteria a woman approached Del and asked, "Do you remember me?"

"No, I'm sorry; I don't," Del said.

"I was an alcoholic," the woman continued. "I wandered into the Lynwood campmeeting where H. M. S. Richards was speaking on forgiveness."

"The message that God could change even me began to get through to me. And then you sang 'The Love of God,' and in my drunken stupor I accepted that love."

Now a baptized Seventh-day Adventist Christian, the woman works as a counselor to alcoholics.

Del feels that it takes a lot of prayer for a person in the public spotlight to keep things in perspective and to acquire a sense of total dependence on God.

"I'm just an average person," she says, "but the beautiful thing is that God can take any of us and use us to help reach others. Every morning we can say, 'I'm yours today, Lord,' and He can take it from there."

Del has never lost her sense of awe for the work of the broadcast. "I still get choked up when I hear 'Lift Up the Trumpet,'" she says.

She's convinced that the Voice of Prophecy will continue to play a vital role in proclaiming God's Word before Jesus comes. "Right now it looks as if we're going to have to cut back our coverage because of a shortage of funds, but God's people have rallied before. I'm sure they'll come through this time, too," she said.

As for herself, Del plans to keep lifting her voice in praise to God. It's her way of letting others know about the love of Jesus.

Proclaiming God's Word In Canada

From more than 70 cities and towns in Canada, the Voice of Prophecy is proclaiming God's Word on the radio.

This means that virtually every person living within Canada can tune into the broadcast.

But have you ever wondered how those 70 cities and towns—and the stations—are selected?

According to Daniel R. Guild, manager of the Voice of Prophecy, a number of factors must be weighed every time a decision is made about continuing, ending or beginning coverage on a particular station. Among them are cost of air time, kilowatt power of the station, size of the potential listening audience, available time slots, listener response, and church member support.

"We try to improve coverage with every decision," Guild said, "but there is a limit to how far the dollars will stretch."

The Voice of Prophecy staff feels it must first place the broadcast within reach of everyone. This goal takes priority over all other considerations. As a result, time may be purchased on smaller stations to cover a portion of a province even though this is more expensive in terms of cost per listener than it would be to buy time on stronger stations in more heavily populated areas.

"Coupled with personal witnessing—and not neglecting the power of television and the printed word—a strong radio ministry can work miracles by God's power in preparing the way for Jesus to come," Elder Guild said.

Tribute to Rest Haven General Hospital Sidney, B.C.

By A. George Rodgers, Consultant
Health Care Institutions
Canada

D. L. Dunfield
Administrator

An island surrounded by scenic beauty complemented by Rest Haven's own peculiar charm, evokes surprise and delight as the visitor approaches this picturesque waterway and this truly idyllic retreat. Even prior administrative association with the institution, and subsequent visits, did nothing to diminish our joy, or detract from the pleasure of this privileged survey of a hospital on an island. Built in 1912, and still retaining architectural characteristics of that period, the structure, for over half a century, has been under Seventh-day Adventist ownership and control.

In faithful compliance with pioneer concept of the church's health message as delineated and hallowed by the pen of inspiration, denominational philosophy of that day prescribed and extolled the virtues of the sanitarium-type of operation, with emphasis on physical medicine.

Rest Haven, through the years, with dedicated physicians, devoted nurses, and a staff—all highly motivated, and truly pillars of the institution, has faithfully and successfully fulfilled its mission and elaborated this denominationally-oriented plan.

This unique location, with its peace and quietude, the snow-capped grandeur of Mount Baker silhouetted against a blue sky, and frequently visible to the admiring eye, constitutes an ideal setting for the patient's recuperation, rehabilitation and rest. The tranquil waters reflect the image of the institution, and mirror the island's sturdy sentinels, whose outstretched arms for generations, have provided welcome shelter and cooling shade.

In the early '50's and while still administered by the Canadian Union, Rest Haven's board of directors, in common with other hospitals, identified with the nationally-initiated government health plan. Funding was derived from the British Columbia Health Insurance Service, and consultative services essentially on an advisory basis were proffered, as we accepted the designation of a public general hospital.

Although a denominational departure from former status, through the years there has been no discernible disposition on the part of government to invade our autonomy, or to infringe upon our operational philosophy. Our uniqueness and church sponsorship have been perpetuated with fidelity, and many patrons and patients alike, have found renewed health and strength as they have been supported mentally, spiritually, and physically by the "Right Arm" of our message.

Since transfer of ownership and operation of the hospital to the British Columbia Conference, Rest Haven's Board has demonstrated a flair for its consistently fine record in selection of outstanding leadership to administer the affairs of the institution.

Traditionally and through the years, the denomination has preserved its prerogatives in the selection and appointment of administrators, but today with government financing and the demand for excellence by the professional and accrediting bodies, Adventist aspirants to executive portfolios in the health discipline, must augment dedication with intelligent and industrious application leading to professional competence, academic adequacy and provincial and national certification. Our hospital at Sidney is fortunate in terms of its incumbent and the professional preparation of its chief executive officer Laurie Dunfield, who prior to acceptance of the Rest Haven assignment, was Executive Director of McBride and District Hospital, British Columbia. A devotee of Christian education, Dunfield graduated from Atlantic Union College with a degree in Business and Economics, and possessed of a sense of mission, continued to pursue his studies, and completed his certification in Hospital

Organization and Management under the auspices of the Canadian Hospital Association.

Diligent, and ever aspiring to magnify his potential, Administrator Dunfield enjoys affiliation with several professional bodies, and relates to his governing board with competence and expertise. In this tribute to dedication, the Director of Nursing Service, Arthur Cannon, R.N., professionally ranks by the side of the Administrator in their joint endeavors for God and Humanity. With many years of supervisory responsibility at our North York Branson Hospital, and as clinical instructor at Branson's School of Nursing, Rest Haven's administration is greatly strengthened, and its clinical excellence enhanced by the appointment of one whose nursing career has been developed, and whose professional preparation was consummately adequate and acceptable at the Toronto Metropolitan level. Cannon also studied at the University of Toronto in the field of his specialty. He is more than adequate to his current assignment.

May blessings commensurate with need continue in heavenly benediction upon chairman of the board Anthony Kaytor, and his executive associates as they plan the continued service of this fine institution

Changes in Personnel at Kingsway College

Elder George Bryson, Bible teacher at Kingsway College, has accepted a call from the General Conference to return to mission service.

Elder Arnold White then requested that he be permitted to return to the classroom as Bible instructor, and be relieved of administrative responsibilities. He stated that he and his wife had prayerfully considered the matter and were thus making the request. He was asked to give further study to the question, but at the next board meeting he reaffirmed his decision. The board acceded to his request and expressed appreciation to Elder White for his untiring and willing efforts.

Since that time Elder White has accepted a call to help strengthen the church work in the British Columbia Conference.

Elder and Mrs. White are loved by all for whom they have labored. It has been a pleasure to serve with him. His contribution to the cause of Christian education in Canada will long be remembered. The example of his dedication is an inspiration. The loving, Christian witness of Mrs. White will be greatly missed at the College Park Elementary School where she taught so effectively for the last several years.

Elder L. R. Kuhn has been invited to serve as president of Kingsway College and he has responded favorably. At present he is working on his doctoral program at Andrews University, and will move with his family to Kingsway College about January 1, 1978. In the interim, our associate educational officer for the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada, Elder M. S. Graham, will lead the program at Kingsway College.

Elder Kuhn is a native son of Canada. He has served for many years in teaching and educational administrative posts, both at home and overseas. We welcome the Kuhn family back to Canada and know that they will strengthen the educational program and bring a blessing to all whose lives they will touch.

Farewell to the Whites

Kingsway College's former President, Elder Arnold N. White, recently accepted a call to pastor a church in the Fraser Valley of British Columbia.

A few days prior to the departure date, faculty and staff of Kingsway College met in a casual outdoor gathering to bid the family farewell and express their gratitude to Elder White for his leadership and faithful service.

Formerly the M.V., Temperance, and Educational Secretary for the Ontario Conference, Elder White was elected Head of the Religion Department for Kingsway in 1973. Two years later, in the fall of 1975, when Elder Easterbrook resigned from the presidency, Elder White assumed the responsibility.

Among his most outstanding accomplishments was the acquisition of the provincial grade 13 program. Beside aiding in procuring government accreditation, he maintained educational standards that surpassed all Board of Education requirements. Under his direction, Kingsway has remained an institution we can be extremely proud of.

We wish the White family all of God's blessings as they make their home in B.C.

Ryley Church Dedication

Dedication services were held for the new Seventh-day Adventist Church in Ryley on Friday, July 15. Special speaker for the occasion was Elder Lloyd Reile, President of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada.

The church, which was opened on February 5 of this year, was dedicated free of debt because of the considerable sacrifice of church members. A building fund was started in May of 1975 with dedication taking place only two years later. The members feel that God has truly led and blessed the congregation.

The chapel seats 125 and the adjoining portion houses classroom facilities. Built at a material cost of $65,000, the church was constructed almost entirely by labor volunteered by church members, under the leadership of Pastor Johnson. The building, while still in need of landscaping and some minor interior finishing, is fully utilized by church members.

The Ryley Church would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who supported this project through prayer and finances.

Farewell to the Emms

A beautiful, sunny Sunday evening marked the gathering of members of the Calgary Mountain View and Pineridge Churches for a less-than-sunny purpose,—bidding farewell to our dear Pastor and Mrs. George Emm and their daughters. We truly cherish the times we spent together, and look forward to that day of no more parting.

The Social Committee members worked diligently, putting together a delicious dinner, and Master of Ceremonies, Bob Huether, presented an outstanding program by members of both churches.

Chad Ziegenhagel and Jennifer Brodeur from the Kindergarten opened the program by giving a charming duet, complete with actions, that stole the hearts of the entire audience. Following musical selections included a violin solo by Roieen Ewing, piano duet by Merina & Tracy Jacobson, two clever songs by Twyla Kiehlbauch, clarinet solo by Tracy Jacobson and a vocal solo by Al Reimche.

Readings and comments were given by Holly Huether, Ginger Sayles, Wayne Culmore, Norman Klam, Adolf Kiehlbauch, George Jacobson, and Doug Sayles.

Just prior to the presentation of the farewell gift, and on behalf of the members, Caroline Nilsson presented a beautiful floral arrangement to Mrs. Emm,—a special lady as lovely as the flowers.

Pastor Emm's closing remarks were another demonstration of his keen concern for each of us, that we might remain faithful, "Stay with the Ship, friends; if troubles arise and feelings are hurt, just travel up on deck, or go down a level if you must,— but just don't desert the Ship."

It is often sad to see a pastor and his family leave, but when the decision is forced on by ill health, the regret is double. As our prayers continue to follow the Emms, we shall learn in a broader sense just what it means to "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not unto thine own understanding."

Students Build Their Own Workshop

About three years ago, the Hazelton Seventh-day Adventist school began a unique work program to fulfill the belief that every child should not only be taught academic subjects but also a trade. It was felt that such a program would result in improved character building and healthier bodies and minds. This in turn makes it possible for a closer spiritual relationship with God and man, the whole purpose of Christian education.

The program began with a few tools and pieces of wood, used to produce saleable items. The money was used for school improvements and more materials.

As the program grew, more tools were donated and purchased. The basement became too small, so after much prayer and discussion, approval was granted to build a shop. And who was to build it? The students, of course! Local pine, birch and cedar was milled into lumber with a small sawmill. Cedar blocks were hauled and students split shakes.

At this writing, there is still much work to be done, but the shop is usable.

The students begin a project by designing as well as producing it. Custom furniture of all types — beds, dressers, cabinets, benches, bookshelves, a roll-top desk — are made by the students.

The boys and girls are also learning to sew.

And how has all this work activity affected the scholarship of the school? On achievement tests given last year, all students did at least as well as before. Only the eighth grade has been tested this year — they made substantially higher gains than they had before. Other things that are not measured in written tests — student attitude, care in doing work, judgment, student-teacher relationships — have shown a very definite improvement.

This year there are approximately 30 students in grades one through nine. Even though the majority come from Seventh-day Adventist homes, the school is not restricted to members only. Those who attend are expected to obey school standards. If anyone is interested in seeing the school-work program in action or in purchasing furniture, you may write the school at P.O. Box 211, Hazelton, B.C. or phone: (604) 842-6272.

Voice of Truth Crusade In Port Hardy

Conference Evangelist, Ron Spear, completed the Voice of Truth evangelistic crusade in Port Hardy on May 22, 1977. Nine precious souls were baptized with their Lord.

Several other contacts have been made with good interests as a result of continued labor.

Those baptized were: Fred Anderson, Maxine Matilpi, Mae Crookall, Bob Crookall, Louise Dugas, Dennis Dugas, Sue Swanton, Warren Waterman, and Gerry Lambert.

Not only were the members inspired with the new believers joining them, but each was richly blessed as a result of the revival that was conducted. Evangelist Spear challenged each one of us to dedicate an hour with God each morning so that we might be prepared to meet Him.

The members of B.C. are asked to pray for the work in Port Hardy that a rich harvest of souls will be ready to be gathered in for His kingdom when Jesus comes to claim His own.

Yellowknife Mission Garbathon

The Cradle Roll-Kindergarten division of the Yellowknife Mission Sabbath School is very small—only seven children ages 2 to 6 years. But though a small group, they are missionary minded. They recently held a "garbathon" in aid of our orphanage in Jordan. They earned $55.00 collecting garbage in only half an hour.

Picnic With a Purpose

A church picnic with a three-fold purpose was held on Sunday afternoon, August 14 with most of the Fox Point membership and some friends present.

The use of a spacious lawn was kindly granted and was the perfect setting for games, races and supper.

Preceding supper, Pastor David Crook, on behalf of the Fox Point Church, made a presentation of five pieces of luggage and a cash gift to Barry and Marilyn Hubley and family. They will be departing shortly for Canadian Union College where Barry will be furthering his education and in due course enter the ministry.

The third phase of the memorable day was the auctioning of the Investment quilt (representing a Sabbath School Family Tree) which brought the sum of $200.00 from Robert Conrad. After Robert and his wife, Heather, held a little conference they presented the quilt to Barry and Marilyn.

It is with mixed emotions that we say "Farewell" to this fine family who have so recently joined our church. We appreciate so much their work and support, and know that God will bless them as they endeavor to lead others to Christ.

London Church News

In January of 1975 a choir was formed at the London Church, under the direction of Mr. Robert Sopo, B.A., A. Mus., R.M.T. This choir has acquired significant growth and achievement over the past two years. Early this year, the choir performed in Harriston and at the Western Ontario Youth Rally in Windsor. Plans are now being formulated for a performance with the combined choirs of the protestant churches in the city, of a Christmas Carol Service to be broadcast on the area radio stations. This will be the second year our own church choir has been involved in this annual broadcast, only on this occasion the program will be originating from our own church.

Several programs are now being prepared for the forth-coming season. If any Evangelism is a major focus of the London Church. The baptism pictured was made possible through the efforts of our Pastor and the It Is Written broadcasts. The London Church is now preparing for its fall crusade under the direction of the Conference Evangelist, Pastor C. Bursma. St. Thomas Church Bids Farewell to the Harris Family Sabbath, July 16, 1977, marked the end of a two year ministry of the St. Thomas Seventh-day Adventist Church by Pastor Dan Harris. Pastor Harris and his wife Diane, and their two sons, David and Dathan, have moved to beautiful Bella Coola, B.C., where Pastor Harris has taken a teaching position in a mission school there. His ultimate goal is to eventually teach theology at college level.

Pastor Harris and his family moved to St. Thomas from Minnesota, where he had pastored two churches.

Prior to their departure to British Columbia, a dinner was held at the park in their honor. Dan and Diane were presented with a lovely wall plaque of a sailing vessel and David and Dathan were presented with antique car plaques.

Although their stay in St. Thomas was all too short, their memories will remain with us.

Welcome to the Clemons Family

Welcome Bill Clemons as the Stewardship, Communication: Secretary of the Ontario Conference.

The Conference Committee voted early this year to ask Elder Dean McDaniel to take over and develop the Trust Services Dept. of the Conference. A great need exists to help our members, who want their money working for the church, understand the various ways in which this can be done and at the same time provide for retirement living.

After careful study on a replacement for Elder McDaniel the Committee chose Elder Bill Clemons, pastor from Goldendale, Washington.

Elder Bill Clemons, Stewardship and Communication Secretary for the Ontario Conference.

Prior to his service in Goldendale, Elder Clemons served as pastor of the Rapid City Church in South Dakota, before which he was Lay Activities Secretary for the Conference. Elder Clemons served overseas as president of the Seventh-day Adventist Mission in Jordan. He also served as chaplain of the Benghazi Hospital, and was pastor of the Warsaw Wolf Lake District in the Indiana Conference after graduating from Andrews University with an M.A. Degree.

Elder Clemons' wife, Barbara, is the daughter of Elder Bruce Wickwire, Publishing Director of the General Conference. The Clemons have four children — Connie Rene, almost 14; Robert Dale, 12; Mark Allen, 8, and Gary Eugene, 6. We want to welcome this lovely family to the joys and challenges of the Ontario Conference.

Adventist Health Ministries

The recent reports of being able to reverse most heart disease, diabetes and high blood pressure by eliminating free fat and sugar as described in the book Live Longer Now and Dr. Zane Kime's tapes, are exciting. They certainly help to vindicate the very earliest natural-food instruction given to us in 1854: "Eat less fine (refined) food; eat coarse food."

But let's keep the pendulum from swinging too far!

It is well to remember that therapeutic procedures are often more severe than prevention measures ever need to be. They may also be so restrictive that rather than adopting the principles we will ultimately reject them in frustration.

Consider this: The Lord has declared, "It is far better to prevent disease than to know how to treat it when contracted." Ministry of Healing p. 128 Therefore, the latest inspired instruction God has provided would surely be adequate to prevent the serious degenerative diseases of the last days.

Let's examine the matter of fat. God allowed that nut-food recipes may contain proportions of "one-tenth to one-sixth part of nuts," Counsels On Diet and Foods p. 364,365 Assuming that "proportions" refers to volume and of only the main dish rather than one-tenth to one-sixth of the total meal, our office calculated the per cent of fat calories of a breakfast and a dinner meal. We used no margarine, mayonnaise or any visible fats; just English walnuts in a proportion of one-sixth of the entree and waffle serving.

This procedure alone yielded a fat content of 21% of calories. It did not include preparing vegetables with cream as is often recommended, Counsels on Diet and Foods p. 321-324 (Cream is a free fat and 94% fat calories) nor using whole milk which is about 50% fat calories. In other words, a prevention diet as "described" by the Lord could easily range from 20% to 30% fat calories or more. We can live with that and enjoy it!

Recognizing that many of us eat too much fat (42% to 46% of calories) I calculated my fat intake for a day's eating in 1972. My dinner meal contained 36% fat calories. My fat calories for both meals was 34%. Now notice! If I simply had not used margarine and peanut butter for either meal the percentage of fat calories for the day would have been 9%.

If a person wished to drastically reduce his fat intake, and most of us should, he need only delete the trimmings: Margarine, mayonnaise, cheese and part of the peanut butter. That's more easily said than done, so try substituting with either of our mayonnaise recipes as described below. Once you obtain the soybeans the preparation of the soy concentrate is not as difficult as it first appears.

South River Baptism

April 30 was a high day in the lives of Mrs. Ruth Stanfast and Chris Risk as they went through the waters of baptism.

Sister Stanfast took her stand for the truth as a result of a pastor-layman Bible seminar conducted by Pastor Orville Parchment and Bert Hayward and the continued friendship of Mrs. Lucy Nisbett.

Chris Risk after years of searching for truth in various religious groups including the Buddhist religion has found at last full joy and satisfaction in God's Remnant Church.

Pastor Parchment performed the baptism ceremony. A. E. Hayward

Beginnings in Labrador

Fifteen people were present on Sabbath, August 20, 1977 for the first organized Sabbath School to meet in Labrador. James M. Campbell and W. Max Mercer of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Newfoundland and Labrador made the first visit to Labrador in recent times by ministers of the church, August 18–21. They stopped first at Goose Bay where several interests were visited and a dedicated Christian lady fully accepted the Adventist message and requested membership with God's people.

The Sabbath School was conducted in Labrador City where ten baptized Seventh-day Adventists welcomed the visitors from the mission headquarters.

Several Voice of Prophecy students were visited and a fine interest discovered. Plans were laid to continue the Sabbath School in Labrador City on a regular basis.

MESSANGER readers may know of other Seventh-day Adventists, or friends of God's people, who may be living in Labrador. If so, please send their names to:

We know that you will join us in prayer for the progress of this new work in Labrador. Perhaps some dedicated Seventh-day Adventist could volunteer to live in Labrador, for a few weeks or months, and help to build up the church there.

There are nearly 25,000 people in the Labrador City, Wabush, and Fermont, Quebec area. We feel confident that many of these will respond to the wonderful Adventist message.

Participation in Summer Games

St. John's Seventh-day Adventists took an active part in the 1977 Canada Summer Games, staged August 7–19, in St. John's, Newfoundland. Two of the large posters, displayed all across Canada advertizing the Games, were designed and painted by Ed. Guthero, Art teacher at the St. John's Academy, during the 1976–77 school year.

J. M. Campbell served on the Religious Advisory Committee and Jim Tilley of Radio Station VOAR was fully accredited news reporter for the Games. Don Morgan was Secretary of the ticket committee and Julian Gray was a coordinator of stage facilities for the V.I.P. platform during closing ceremonies.

Larry Murrin, Julian Gray, and Jim Tilley, were selected along with Pastor Campbell to serve on the official counseling team for athletes.

More than 15 youth of the St. John's Church assisted at the contestants Drop-in Centre where participants gathered for informal relaxation. Several Seventh-day Adventists work in the printing firm where the Summer Games material was printed.

Our St. John's Church was featured on a poster displaying pictures of ten area churches serving the summer games. Information was given of times of services and a pastor's phone number. These posters were presented to each of the contestants and remain displayed in hotels and motels throughout the City.

L. B. Baker Joins V.O.P

Latest addition to the team of evangelists and musicians conducting crusades for the Voice of Prophecy Evangelistic Association is Elder L. Baker. Pastor Baker has conducted evangelistic crusades in many communities. A particularly successful one this year resulted in 112 decisions for Christ.

coming this fall

Do you believe Jesus is coming soon? We do. And we've dedicated our time, talent and energy to telling other people of His return.

Buz Starrett, former director of Heritage Singers-New Creation feels strongly that one of the best mediums for spreading the word is through gospel music. During a crusade in Lincoln, Nebraska, in which Heritage New Creations was involved, several businessmen expressed their desire to be a part of this type of ministry. With much prayer, Harvest Celebration was born.

Harvest Celebration is a lively group of fourteen dedicated young people who would like to share their Jesus with you. Come on, join in the Celebration!

YOU'RE REACHING PEOPLE . . .

in Canada, and we want you to know what a thrill it is to participate with you in God's work of saving souls!

Your generosity through the years has helped the Voice of Prophecy broadcast reach thousands of people in Canada.

But our work is not yet done. So many people still need to hear. As we lay plans for another year, we turn to you in confidence that your commitment will enable the radio ministry to reach thousands more.

Many of God's people have sacrificed so that His Word could go out. God knows each heart that has been moved, each longing that has found peace through the simple words of faith and hope.

Your gift to the Voice of Prophecy on October 8 will be dedicated to reaching people. Every dollar will go to radio evangelism.

Pray for God to continue to guide this broadcast. Pray for thousands more to find their way to Jesus. Pray for your own family and friends who need God's love, and for your own needs.

Yours in Christ's service,

NEW RELEASES FROM S.D.A. PUBLISHERS NOW AVAILABLE

HARRY ANDERSON — THE MAN BEHIND THE PAINTINGS by Raymond H. Woolsey and Ruth Anderson. $5.95

Harry Anderson's expressive paintings have delighted art connoisseurs and just plain people for decades. His religious pictures, such as "What Happened to Your Hand?" and "The Prince of Peace," which portrays Christ knocking at the United Nations building have added stature to Seventh-day Adventist art.

Now Raymond Woolsey and the artist's wife, Ruth, have produced a book about the man. What kind of person is Harry Anderson? What is his background? Are his personal qualities and standards reflected in his art? How does he plan and produce his work?

Scores of questions that interest the Harry Anderson admirer are answered in this highly readable book.

A hardback, the volume is beautifully illustrated with more than 40 Anderson pictures in full color and black and white, besides numerous drawings by artist Elfred Lee.

Order today and receive a free Harry Anderson painting.

FINAL EVENTS ON PLANET EARTH by Norman Gulley. $3.25

Is Armageddon a literal battle or a spiritual one? What is the sign of the end? Why do God's people have to pass through a time of trouble? How do we obtain strength to cope with last-day events?

Seventh-day Adventists have a great interest in events on earth before Christ's return. They seek to know how to relate to such trends as the rise of spiritualism, the occult, and the charismatic movement. Norman R. Gulley examines these and other issues. He discusses how to improve family life — so seriously threatened by last-day conditions — and explores the question of a declining belief in Biblical inspiration and revelation.

HAPPINESS UNDER ONE ROOF by Reinhold R. Bietz. $2.25

The satisfactory marriage is not one that lacks problems but one that solves them, or at least keeps them under control. Do you want a happier home with harmony throughout? You will find in this book some tremendous "keys" for a happy home, told in a most delightful way.

THE MAN WHO LOVED EVERYBODY by Lawrence Maxwell. $.80

Most books on the life of Christ are so long you put off reading them. These few pages are going to tell Christ's life briefly and quickly and try to pull it all together for you. We think you will know Jesus better and love Him more when you finish reading this.

WHAT A YOUNG MAN SHOULD KNOW ABOUT SEX/WHAT A YOUNG WOMAN SHOULD KNOW ABOUT SEX by John F. Knight, MBBS. $5.45 each

In these volumes guidance is found for young people in successful boy-girl relationships, in methods of academic achievement, and in avoiding many of the health-destroying habits today judged acceptable in some circles. These timely and powerful messages are for those who consider life important enough to be lived to the full.

SO YOU'RE NOT A PREACHER by Steven P. Vitrano. $1.65

The lay leader who is occasionally asked to "take the service" at his local church will find this book the answer to his needs.

Filled with practical help on topics ranging from subject selection to sermon preparation to actual pulpit delivery. Even the experienced pastor can benefit from this source of fresh ideas and approaches.

Temperance Work Opens Doors

We can rejoice with the angels of heaven that over ten thousand precious souls found their way into the baptized ranks of God's Remnant Church in 1976 because of our temperance evangelistic outreach. Most of these brethren and sisters can trace their first interest in the timely message of Seventh-day Adventists to the experience of someone helping them to overcome their intemperate habits and challenging them to a better way of life.

Notice this fantastic and timely statement by Ellen G. White. "I have been informed by my guide that not only should those who believe the truth practice health reform but they should also teach it diligently to others; for it will be an agency through which the truth can be presented to the attention of unbelievers. They will reason that if we have such sound ideas in regard to health and temperance, there must be something in our religious belief that is worth investigation." Temperance, p. 242

With the unique Temperance message God has given to us and the many temperance evangelistic tools at our disposal, readily shared and used in the hands of the church members of the Remnant Church, we could well win 100,000 precious souls through temperance evangelism in 1978. As we contemplate this opportunity and challenge let us keep in mind and plan for a larger World Temperance Sabbath Offering than ever before. The goal has been set by the offerings committee of the General Conference at $200,000.00 for North America to be received on October 22, 1977.

May God bless you as you plan your gift for this great soul-winning endeavor.

Happiness Is Meant to Be Shared

That's what Adventist Contact is all about—shared happiness! And so we'd like to share a little of ours—in the form of excerpts from recent letters.

"I have really appreciated Adventist Contact, as I live in an area where social life with Adventists is extremely limited. Without CONTACT I never would have met —. He's a real wonderful guy! I waited a long time for this referral, and I assure you it has been worth all the waiting. I pray that many may find happiness through AC. Please remove my name from the active list, and accept a small gift of $10. I would appreciate a few extra brochures to hand out."

"I have truly enjoyed your service over the past three years. I have met and written to many nice girls during that time. Now I would like to have my name taken out of the computer matchings until further notice because I am interested in someone very much and want to know her better. Thank you for making this possible. May God richly bless you in this fine work. I am a happy contact."

Whose Child Are You?

"Whose Child Are You?" is the title of the new Halloween Leaflet as Pathfinders across America visit their neighbors asking for food and clothing for the needy. Pathfinders know whose children they are! They are part of the great army of Pathfinders, children of God who belong to the Pathfinder Club.

Every year at Halloween these boys and girls knock at doors, bringing with them a cheerful smile, a friendly handshake and a special request: "Would you help us make the lives of people a little brighter in this sad world?" Yes, they are modern good Samaritans who help those along the way who are deprived of means. Pathfinders have so much to be thankful for, and this is their way of expressing it to the Lord—by helping others.

Won't you, dear Pathfinder leader, rally your Pathfinders once more in 1977 and organize a good Halloween campaign? Get the Halloween leaflets from you local conference youth director. And what an opportunity to enroll people in Voice of Prophecy Bible Correspondence Courses!

And when they ask, "Whose child are you?" tell them, "See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are." I John 3:1 (R.S.V.)
