Community Services Evangelism Day — Sabbath, May 6

Community Services Evangelism

by W. Walter Rogers, Lay Activities Director, British Columbia Conference

The Community Services Health Van is proving to be an effective public relations and soul-winning tool. At the present time, we are only doing hypertension screening, which includes checking age, weight and height. At the same time we are giving nutritional information and receiving applications for future Five-Day Plans to Stop Smoking.

This summer, we hope to add a computerized lifespan projection unit whose projection is based on lifestyle facts. We also have a computerized pulmonary function analyzer. This is not used in our regular screening, but it is an effective tool in providing an incentive to stop smoking.

These units have been used in the United States for a number of years and are rapidly increasing. They do basically the same type of screening that we do. Some have the pulmonary function analyzers. Others are doing diabetes testing. One of the Unions has several vans and a doctor to travel with them continually. Of course, with a program like this, one can offer a much wider range of services. The general screening for hypertension is the one that is most appreciated by the public. We were somewhat concerned about the use of a van like this in Canada because of the free medical coverage which we all have. However, our fears were unfounded for we found that the average person just doesn't take the time to avail himself of these checkups. We make no charge for services or health-related materials which we hand out.

The van is used primarily in the metropolitan areas. In fact, it could be used in what you could call the "inner city" continuously and we would not be able to keep up with the demands. Shopping malls are especially appreciative of this kind of service. In some of the larger malls, we take the van inside the building and set up in the main concourse. Sometimes the nurses are so busy with the blood pressure testing and related activities that they find it a real struggle to complete their shifts. The people form a long line outside the door and just feed through the van from front to back as quickly as they can be processed.

During the midsummer months we try to have the van do one complete circuit around the province. In situations like this we have an agreement with a large supermarket chain to use their parking lots. It would be best if we could spend two or three days in a lot but due to the number of towns to cover, we have only been allowing one day thus far. This year, however, it looks as though we will have to make it a two-day stand in each place. Otherwise, the service rendered in the community does not compensate for the driving.

Last year we covered a few fall and summer fairs. This was much appreciated by the sponsoring churches and general public. Almost impossible is the task of arranging a schedule over the wide area of British Columbia so as to correlate the dates in any effective way.

Staffing is a critical part of the program. It would be preferable if the van could be operated by a full-time husband and wife team. Although the van has sleeping accommodations and a kitchen unit, periodic use of motels and restaurants have to be made, thus it becomes rather expensive. Currently we have been relying quite extensively on volunteer service. At present, we are looking for a retired couple, one of whom is an RN and would be interested in this type of service.

The evangelistic outreach is the most attractive part of the program. Each person screened completes a form which includes their name, address, height, weight, age, and other pertinent medical facts. Some of the items to be checked off on this chart include nutritional information, Five-Day Plans to Stop Smoking, weight control, stress control, and spiritual living guides to be sent by mail. This year we hope, with proper procedures, to considerably increase the sign-up ratio for the Bible course. In some areas, the ratio is as high as one in three of those screened.

In a society where people are as health conscious and interested in a lifestyle that will produce both health and happiness, the right arm of the message has unprecedented opportunities. We believe that this program is going to be an increasingly valuable tool in opening doors and building bridges to the Kingdom of God.

Meet the Secretaries

"The Great Advent Movement" applies so directly to the officers and departmental directors of the conferences that they spend a lot of their time away from their offices. As a result much of the work of the conference devolves upon the faithful secretaries who "stay by the stuff" during their absences. So that you may know who these hard-working people are this new feature is being presented.

First of all, meet the ladies of the Canadian Union Conference office in Oshawa:

Evelyn Bowles: Assistant treasurer, has worked with several treasurers, including Elders E. L. Green, Carl Klam and at the moment, R. W. Wilmot. Evelyn prepares the monthly pay cheques for the staff, does the accounting and banking, pays the bills and takes charge of the office when the men are away.

Esther Davis: Takes care of two men in the office, Elder Reile, president, and Elder How, secretary. She is responsible for the monthly baptismal report, a picture of which appears in the MESSENGER, as well as assisting with regular MESSENGER copy and Review notes, does all the letters, executive committee minutes, makes plane reservations (for the boss and visitors, too), does the filing, and finds time to carry on a project that supports missionary work within the Union.

cation Department of which her husband, Malcolm, is associate director. Lorine takes care of the correspondence, prepares Educational Code books, does research on educational items, files transcripts for all the teachers in Canada, mails out education year calendars, and in her spare time helps It Is Written.

Nancy Kyte: Does all the usual secretarial work for the Director of Stewardship, Elder G. Maxson. In addition to this Nancy helps in the It Is Written office, sending out books to viewers, typing lists of names and preparing input for the Computer where the thousands of names of viewers are filed.

Esther Lowe: Secretary in the Ministerial Department and Trust and Building Departments. Besides carrying out the usual secretarial responsibilities she types sermons and runs off thousands of copies for distribution at meetings conducted by the Ministerial Department Director, Elder Lawton Lowe. The latest building project, Kingsway Pioneer Home, is taking a lot of her time as Elder Ray Matthews cares for the project.

Marilyn Michael: Secretary to the treasurer, Elder Wilmot, to the Consultant of Health Care Institutions, A. George Rodgers, and to the Public Affairs Department Director, Darren L. Michael. Marilyn goes steady with the dictionary as she transcribes letters dictated by at least two of her bosses, then becomes well versed in figures as she cares for the other one.

Marilyn Pazitka: Receptionist, switch-board operator and secretary to Elder Walter Ruba, Publishing Department Director, and Mr. L. D. Dunn, auditor. When you phone the office it is usually Marilyn who says, in a very sweet voice, "Good morning, Seventh-day Adventist National Headquarters", and you know you have the right number.

Beverly Penner: Bev is the computer operator in the Computer Service which is located in the headquarters' office. She also does secretarial work when required for the director, Kenneth Chan, and takes care of the books for the department.

Carol Penner: Another secretary with two departmental directors to care for, Elders Bill Edsell and Lewis Shipowick. These two men care for Youth, Temperance, Pathfinders, Lay Activities, Sabbath School, Community Services, and this includes Ingathering. Carol puts out the Ingathering bulletin each week during the campaign, takes care of Pathfinder uniforms, films and the sundry supplies required in operating the many departments with which she is associated.

Donalea Strunk: Secretary to the director of the Communication Department,

Radio and TV. This means that she is responsible for all the program tapes and cassettes being sent out to the various TV stations, seeing that they are returned on time, maintaining a stock of books to be sent out to It Is Written viewers on request, and answering the many letters that interested viewers write in, and caring for the many donations that come in with these letters, receipting them, and turning them over to the assistant treasurer.

Naomi Wilmot and Ruth Schaber assist in the Treasury Department part-time, but were not present for the picture.

It is hoped that this introduction will help you in your communication with this office.

Health Ministry — Healthful Living and the Holy Spirit

It's exciting to talk about the Holy Spirit. As Seventh-day Adventists we long for the latter rain; the massive distribution of spiritual gifts in order to finish the work. We would like to be a recipient of its fruitage.

But unless we are actively adopting the principles and making the changes required in healthful living, we are presumptuous to even expect to be alive in that day let alone be a recipient if we were alive.

The latter rain will not force us to change our way of living, nor will it create a wave of excitement in the church to alert us all that the time has come. He comes only on those who have already made the changes in response to the simple statements in the Testimonies of God.

"I was shown that if God's people make no efforts on their part, but wait for the refreshing to come upon them and remove their wrongs and correct their errors; if they depend upon that to cleanse them from filthiness of the flesh and spirit, and fit them to engage in the loud cry of the third angel, they will be found wanting. The refreshing or power of God comes only on those who have prepared themselves for it by doing the work which God bids them, namely, cleansing themselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God." Counsels on Diet and Foods, pg. 33 (1 T. 619)

"Only those who are living up to the light they have will receive greater light Unless we are daily advancing in the exemplification of the active Christian virtues, we shall not recognize the manifestations of the Holy Spirit in the latter rain. It may be falling on hearts all around us, but we shall not discern or receive it." Testimonies to Ministers, pg. 507.

"God cannot let His Holy Spirit rest upon those who, while they know how they should eat for health, persist in a course that will enfeeble mind and body." Counsels on Diets and Foods, pg. 55, 56.

Notice the relationship of health reform to the Holy Spirit, especially the "latter rain", "loud cry", the "refreshing", "power of God",

"Ministers and people are unprepared for the time in which we live, and nearly all who profess to believe present truth are unprepared to understand the work of preparation for this time. They are wholly unfitted to receive the latter rain.

"Ministers and people must make greater advancement in the work of reform. They should commence without delay to correct their wrong habits of eating, drinking, dressing, and working." Testimonies, vol. 1, pg. 466.

Regarding Health Reform,

"God's people are not prepared for the loud cry of the third angel. They have a work to do for themselves which they should not leave for God to do for them. He has left this work for them to do. It is an individual work; one cannot do it for another." Counsels on Diet and Foods, pg. 32:2 (1 T. 486).

Those quotations were from Volume 1 when our people were not at all following the specific instruction of healthful living.

But even in later years when brethren were living more carefully than many do today the relationship was repeated.

"Those who proclaim the message should teach health reform also. It is a subject that we must understand, in order to be prepared for the events that are close upon us, and it should have a prominent place." Counsels on Health, pg. 453.

"The gospel minister should preach the health principles, for these have been given of God as among the means needed to prepare a people perfect in character. Therefore health principles have been given to us that as a people we might be prepared in both mind and body to receive the fullness of God's blessing." Manuscript, Quoted by O. A. Olson, Review & Herald, October 29, 1914.

"The health reform is one branch of the great work which is to fit a people for the coming of the Lord." Counsels on Health, pg. 20.

"The health reform" is the Lord's means. . . of purifying His people." Counsels on Diet and Foods, pg. 38.

But the good news is that God's people are making changes. From the Yukon to Newfoundland, step by step, they are progressing; sometimes wisely, sometimes unwisely, but ever learning and growing and rejoicing in the mercies of God as they go.

Pacific Press Career Story

"What in the world are men and women doing for heaven's sake?"

The question posed by Russ Chandler, religion editor for the Los Angeles Times, reminded me of a group of some 360 people I had learned to know over the past three years.

From Idi Amin's Uganda, Batista's Cuba, DeGaulle's France, and Mao's China they had come; from the countries of Canada, India, Costa Rica, Norway, Chile, Mexico and Russia; from the teeming metropolitan cities of Saigon, Buenos Aires, Beirut, and Rio de Janeiro; from the forested mountains of the Northwest, from the fertile farm lands of the Midwest, and the tropics of Hawaii.

As editors and layout persons, folder operators and maintenance personnel, management and press persons, sewing machine operators and artists, and photographers they have blended their skills into a production team that makes up the church's largest publishing house, Pacific Press.

Early in its history the denomination's awareness of the great need to proclaim the gospel through the print medium was evidenced by the establishment in 1875 of Pacific Publishing of Oakland.

As the church grew with the world around it, the development of the electronic media of radio and television allowed the message to grow into broader channels of communication.

Today's print media serves as an evangelistic tool in itself in addition to working with and complimenting the electronic media. Of the 50 new English language books to be produced in 1978 four, written by Elder George Vandeman, will be used in the It Is Written television ministry. Two books written by Pastor Dick Jewett are being printed as an extension of Jewett's radio program "Hotline."

The cosmopolitan composition of Pacific Press employees is reflected in a foreign language editorial staff of seventeen editors and secretaries. In-house French, Spanish and Ukrainian departments produce books and periodicals destined for the world's markets. Publications are offered in some 28 languages of which 17 are printed on an annual basis.

El Centinela, the Spanish Signs, anticipates 1 million monthly circulation by 1980, according to Dr. Tulio N. Peverini, foreign language acting-editor-in-chief. "We think this is only the beginning," he emphasizes.

Printing industry reports indicate rapid sales growth in the religious publishing field. In 1975 sales of religious books jumped 24 percent, three times as much as the publishing industry as a whole. Forecasts for 1978 point toward continued expansion.

But for Pacific Press the yardstick of success is conversions that result in decisions for Christ.

Of the publishing ministry Ellen White wrote: "The great and wonderful work of the last gospel message is to be carried on now as it has never been before. The world is to receive the light of truth through an evangelizing ministry of the Word in our books and periodicals." Testimonies Vol. 9, p. 61. She also spoke of the time when "More than one thousand will soon be converted in one day, most of whom will trace their first convictions to the reading of our publications." (Review and Herald, November 10, 1885)

As the work grows Pacific Press selectively hires individuals who can best help expand the publishing work's role in proclaiming the gospel in its various facets.

Paul, in his letter to the Romans, spoke of the good news and the bad news. "The wages of sin is death," he said. That was the bad news. But far from being the end of the story the thought climaxes on a positive note: "but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

At that intersection is the good news of God's love, the basis for our hope, and the challenge of communication facing Pacific Press today.

Double Your Investment for a Double Project

Whitehorse, Yukon and Appalachia, Kentucky will benefit directly from the Sabbath School Investment Offering this year. Twenty-five percent of the Investment funds will be shared by the two projects. There are similarities, there are differences in the two areas. Both areas are mining areas; Kentucky mines coal. Yukon mines gold. Both areas have well-known characters. Kentucky, the Hatfields and McCoys; Yukon, Sam McGee and Dangerous Dan McGrew. The Appalachia area has a population of 617,287. The entire Yukon boasts a population of 21,392 and Whitehorse itself 12,794 citizens, over half of the population of the entire Territory.

The Appalachian area has three church buildings to house six church congregations. Whitehorse, a company, has no church building. However it is looking forward to a Maranatha Flight in June, and an instant church as a result of their building expertise and dedication.

Appalachia is a land of contrasts. Colonial manors lord it over pitifully poor neighbors. Pastoral settings produce rich harvests while highly industrialized coal mines operate around the clock resulting in scarred landscapes, polluted streams and displaced inhabitants.

True to its mission the church is embarking on a bold thrust to bring the gospel to Appalachia and Whitehorse.

Thousands eke out a subsistent existence, with little hope of anything better.

Next door neighbors. These homes in Harlan dramatize the disparity between the rich and poor in Appalachia.

Tom Law prepares for a trip to Whitehorse where he and his family attend Sabbath School. Due to a severe cold spell the engine was too cold to turn over and had to be warmed up with the propane heater.

Your Investment project will support this twin evangelistic thrust which is being supported by local conferences, union conferences and the General Conference.

Double your Investment to support this double evangelistic thrust. Come over into Appalachia to help us. Come over into Whitehorse to help us.

School Evaluations

The education departments of the local conferences and of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada has started a systematic evaluation of church schools, junior academies and academies. The emphasis this school year is on the evaluation of junior academies. Within three years all schools will be evaluated.

The evaluation procedure is as follows: (1) The school board, principal, and teachers cooperate in making a detailed study of the school's entire program by following the evaluation guide provided by the conference. Generally speaking, the school board and faculty form various committees to study and to prepare reports on various aspects of the school program such as (a) the local church(es) support of the school program in respect to finances, potential enrollment, etc., (b) the philosophy and objectives of the school, (c) the administrative procedures and staff qualifications, (d) curriculum, (e) school facilities and services, and (f) students' achievements, attitudes, and plans for continuing education.

(2) A visiting team of educators, principals, teachers, and laymen spend a day making an on-the-spot analysis of the school's report. The school's program is assessed in respect to conference, union, and General Conference standards.

(3) The visiting evaluation team assigns a term of accreditation to the school. The length of the accreditation period is determined by the quality of the overall education program being offered. The maximum length of time is five years.

(4) A report including a list of commendations and recommendations is prepared. The chairman of the evaluation committee presents this report to the faculty and board. A written report is prepared by the local superintendent of schools and copies are forwarded to the school board chairman and to the education departments of the General Conference and the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada.

(5) The superintendent, principal, and board work toward fulfilling the recommendations of the committee before the accreditation period expires in order to retain accreditation at the time of the next evaluation.

It is a privilege to report that the evaluations conducted to date show that the Seventh-day Adventist schools in Canada are to be commended for the excellent education programs being conducted. The schools are worthy of the support of the entire constituency. It is a privilege to be associated with the church school program.

Booms Bother Coast Cities

Most of us have heard about the loud "booms" that have been mystifying residents of the east coast particularly. The most recent explanation is that they were "sonic booms" from military aircraft 200 miles away which were transmitted over long distances in some peculiar way.

Here is the Lord's explanation as recorded by His messenger in Patriarchs and Prophets, pages 108 and 109: "At this time (during the flood) immense forests were buried. These have since changed to coal, forming the extensive coal beds that now exist, and also yielding large quantities of oil. The coal and oil frequently ignite and burn beneath the surface of the earth. Thus rocks are heated, limestone is burned, and iron ore melted. The action of the water upon the lime adds fury to the intense heat, and causes earthquakes, volcanoes, and fiery issues. As the fire and water come in contact with ledges of rock and ore, there are heavy explosions underground, which sound like muffled thunder. The air is hot and suffocating. Volcanic eruptions follow; and these often failing to give sufficient vent to the heated elements, the earth itself is convulsed, the ground heaves and swells like the waves of the sea, great fissures appear, and sometimes cities, villages, and burning mountains are swallowed up. These wonderful manifestations will be more and more frequent and terrible just before the second coming of Christ and the end of the world, as signs of its speedy destruction."

Read all of chapter eight entitled, "After the Flood". It is most interesting!

King's Heralds Sing for Forty Years

Concluding a 40th anniversary program by 19 of the 23 men who have been King's Heralds since the quartet began singing on the Voice of Prophecy broadcast in 1937, all 19 join in the VOP theme, "Near to the Heart of God," while Dr. H. M. S. Richards recites the words so familiar to listeners of the broadcast. From left are: (back row) first tenors

Veazey, Richard Lange, Wesley Crane; and basses Jerry Dill and Joe Melashenko. Directing the group is baritone Wayne Hooper (back to camera). Not present for the anniversary concerts was first tenor Elwyn Ardourel. Deceased members of the King's Heralds are second tenors Waldo Crane, Ralph Simpson, and Bob Seamount.

Undergraduate Programs at Canadian Union College

While awaiting official approval to confer its own academic degrees, Canadian Union College will continue to operate in academic affiliation with the University of Alberta, thus assuring students and patrons that all credits earned in university courses are accepted and accorded the same recognition for transfer as those earned on the university campus.

Canadian Union College at present offers the following programs of study:

(a) A Four-year Program leading to the Bachelor of Theology degree with majors in theology and religion.

(b) Two-year University Transfer Programs leading to three- and four-year baccalaureate degrees with majors in:

Biology	French	Music

Audit Meeting For the Conferences

At this time of the year annual budget and audit meetings are held in each conference. At these meetings, the preceding year's records are reviewed, and plans studied for the future.

In the Alberta and Manitoba-Saskatchewan Conferences representatives from the churches and conference ministerial workers were invited for special meetings held in connection with the committee meetings.

Financial reports reflect increased giving in each field. The mission offerings increased over 1976, and the total tithe for Canada was over a million dollars more in 1977 than the preceding year.

There are now 240 churches in Canada with a membership of 28,145. Growth and progress are encouraging. We thank you for your dedication and faithfulness, at the same time invite you to continue faithfully until the work is finished.

Awarded Queen's Medal

An official communication received here at headquarters, from the office of the Governor General of Canada, announces that A. George Rodgers has been awarded the Queen's Medal, commemorating the 25th anniversary of the accession to the throne of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth. The citation reads: "The award of the medal is an expression of appreciation of worthy and devoted service rendered by the recipients in their various walks of life and of the esteem in which they are held by their associates."

Elder Rodgers, consultant to our Healthcare System, has been closely connected with our denominational health discipline for many years. In addition to his work for the church, he is chairman of the Advisory Board of Management of the government-operated Lakeshore Hospital, Toronto, and represents the Hospital Council of Metro Toronto at committee level of the chaplains' section of Toronto Interfaith. As a member of the Ontario Hospital Association, he also has been appointed to committee sessions of the Ontario Blue Cross organization. It is gratifying that Adventist executive personnel can extend their usefulness and influence to other jurisdictions which, although secularly-oriented, still have the ministry of healing as their major priority, and in the process of rendering such service, welcome the assistance and experience of our Adventist health system.

Jesus Is Coming Again

"I was wondering if you could tell me why the return of Jesus Christ is not told in the churches here in this area?" This came from a sincere seeker of truth who was watching It Is Written. She had asked several people about the second coming of Jesus Christ but no one could give her a good answer. She further stated, "I think it's great news and something to sing and rejoice about. I hope you can tell me more about this subject."

We have something wonderful to tell the world, "Jesus is coming again!" The three angels' messages are to go to the world. This is the last final message to point people to Jesus Christ as their Saviour. Jesus died for our sins and intercedes for us in the heavenly sanctuary in the investigative judgment. We must also warn the world of Satan's counterfeits, deceptions, and false systems, and the consequences of following his fabrications. We must ever point people to the "Lamb of God."

Yes, Jesus is coming again. He wants to come soon, just as soon as you and I are ready and have done our part in completing the gospel commission.

Join with me in spreading the good news by radio, television, and personal visitation.

Truth will triumph. Let us also be triumphant in Christ.

Memorial Service Held For Late Elder Steinke

Sunday morning, February 26, at 11:00, a memorial service was held at the Rutland S.D.A. Church in honor of the late Robert Steinke, beloved pastor in this area. Elder Steinke died February 22, 1978, as a result of an airplane accident, off the coast of Anros Island, Bahamas. The Steinke family resided several months of each year in the Bahamas.

Robert Steinke was a passenger in a small plane, piloted by his son Raymond and accompanied by another young couple. The four were flying to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, when the plane developed engine trouble which forced them down into the Atlantic Ocean.

The plane sank within minutes leaving the occupants afloat in very rough seas, with only one life-jacket among them. This life-jacket was relinquished by Elder Steinke to the young lady of the group. For an hour (or more) the pastor prayed fervently for the safety of the others, and

Cariboo Academy News

The senior students at Cariboo Academy, Williams Lake, B.C. have decided to compile the school year-book themselves. The youth pastor, Tim Gay, is assisting them in this project. To cover the cost of purchasing a photo enlarger, plus dark-room equipment they decided to put on a Valentine's Banquet for which they sold 150 tickets. The delicious, candlelight dinner was served quickly and efficiently in the new gym, attractively decorated. A short program followed dinner.

The Grade 11 students are now planning a school trip to Beleze, Central America. It will give them a chance to see what it is like to be a missionary. They will be assisting in the building of a mission boarding school. Mr. Waters, the principal, is confident that he and his class are capable of taking on this building project in Beleze, since Mr. Waters is a former builder. Together, they have done the major part of the finishing work on our new Industrial Arts building. To make this trip possible, these students are taking orders for oranges and grapefruit from Florida.

We are proud of our school and especially pleased with the way the students are being encouraged to take on responsibility and to set high goals.

Health Seminar — Victoria

The Right Hand reaches out to serve those who are seeking to reach God's standard for His people, and those who were interested in the message of health came week by week for eight Wednesday nights and four Sunday evenings to the Victoria church, to take part in the Better Living Breakthrough Studies. Subjects studied were: Water, Air and Health; Exercise and Sunlight; Drugs and Medicines; Physical Fitness; Better Diet. Interesting and educational film cassettes were used to supplement the lectures, which were conducted by Dr. R. Matiko, Dr. H. Domke, Dr. A. V. Piper, Ronald Whitney M.P.H. and Shirley Oakley, R.D. Textbook used was Counsels on Diet and Foods.

The Sunday evening cooking classes were on Man's Original Diet and how we can return to it painlessly. These were conducted by the writer who has been teaching a class in Vegetarian Foods for Camosun College-Community Education, a branch of the Greater Victoria School, for the last seven years.

Another Miracle — Lamming Mills Church Project

Almost 35 years ago the Lamming Brothers moved their logging and sawmill operations from Rocky Mountain House, Alberta, to the McBride, B.C. area, (a tiny village tucked between two mountain ranges, approximately midway between Jasper, Alberta, and Prince George, B.C.) With them came several families who had worked with them in Alberta. At that time the highway was little more than a rough trail.

The first service held in the unfinished church was a baptismal service for Laurenda Lamming, granddaughter of Ernest Lamming. The baptism was performed by Norman Manweiler, on November 5, 1977.

The little company pioneered and grew, gradually forming a small village, — all Seventh-day Adventist families. The Lamming Brothers built a small church, which is still used for worship.

For a number of years members have planned, hoped, prayed and saved for a new church building. But more urgent, it was decided, was a new building for the church school, so this was pursued first. The children are spending their second year in the new church-school facility.

Adjacent to this school, on September 11, 1977, the first work finally began on the new church itself. In three weeks time, the basement cement had been poured, the rough framing completed and preparations for putting on the shake roof began. The building is 40' X 90' and includes a sanctuary on the main floor, four classrooms and an assembly room 40' X 40' on the lower level.

Volunteer labor has been responsible for almost the entire progress of the project up to the present. A few hard-working local members, along with our zealous pastor, have given many hours. Considerable financial gifts have been received from local members as well as friends from a distance.

The project began without guarantee of complete financial means, but the faith and enthusiasm of the small membership, and God's blessing, has accomplished much.

NOBODY KNOWS

While I was servicing the literature rack in a physical therapist's office in Klamath Falls, Oregon, someone told me that Mrs. X's car stalled just outside the office. Mrs. X entered the office to phone for a service car. When she was through, she thanked the therapist for the use of the phone and asked if she might wait inside until the service car arrived. Permission was granted, and where should she choose to sit but right by the literature rack.

"Are these spiritual books?" she asked. "Yes, would you like to read some?" replied the therapist.

"I should; my life is such a mess that I don't think anyone or anything can help me," she said.

The therapist assured her that he'd be glad to have her read some of the books and suggested, "Why don't you take that one [Ever Get Depressed?]? Another good one is So What's There to Live For?"

She replied, "Thank you, and I hope they will help me. Good-bye."

Some days later the woman called the therapist and asked what church sponsored the booklets. He told her that it was the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

"They were wonderful books. Do you suppose your pastor could visit me?" she asked.

He assured her that he would be glad to ask his pastor to call on her. The visit resulted in Bible studies.

Witnessing to the Traveler

A time-proved method of witnessing is experiencing a revival of interest today.

Placing specially selected SDA-published books in the rooms of area motels and inns for the benefit of travelers staying there is a wide-reaching method of witnessing that even the shiest or most time-pressed layman can perform. Once established, a layman's book territory will maintain itself with very little effort on his part.

Sam McGinnis, a member of the Sligo Seventh-day Adventist Church in Takoma Park, Maryland, supplies the Interstate Inn in College Park, Maryland, with paperback copies of A Light for Today, the bicentennial edition of Arthur Maxwell's Your Bible and You. Each book has a card inside on which an address is printed where a traveler who desires to keep the book may send the motel name and room number and a contribution of $2.00. When a card is returned, McGinnis replaces the book taken by the traveler and, if a name and address accompany the card, arranges for the traveler to be contacted by someone in his own area. Occasionally he spot-checks the motel rooms and replaces books that are missing.

Regarding the acceptance of this project by motel managers, McGinnis says, "Many are

WHY A MISSIONARY BOOK OF THE YEAR?

Each year the Lay Activities Department of the General Conference plans a special evangelistic book that will be promoted and used in a major way to tell others about the soon coming of our Saviour. It is not our intent that the individual church member buy one of these books to put on his bookshelf to fill up space—the idea is for each one to purchase several copies to be given to friends, neighbors, and business associates to share his faith with them.

Some years a book is chosen that is very doctrinal, such as Bible Readings for the Home. Two years ago Come Alive used a health theme to bring the message of Christ to the reader. Last year Elder Pierson's book Good-bye Planet Earth pointed out the signs of today and the fact that this portends the soon coming of Jesus. This year in

Can God Be Trusted? Elder Maxwell has taken as his main theme a study of the prophecies of the Bible; also the fact that when God says it in His Word, you can trust that it will surely come to pass. (See back page for more information on the 1978 missionary book.)

Each year the sales of these special books is counted in the hundreds of thousands. We do not now know how much good we have done for others by giving out these books, but the day is coming when we shall see the results of the seeds we have sown in this way.

Why don't you set your goal now to give away some of these books? Your reward will make the $1.00 or so for each book seem vastly insignificant!

NEW E.G. WHITE BOOK RELEASED

Several years ago the White Estate compiled and prepared in mimeographed form the comments of Mrs. White concerning the relationship of the mind and the body. It was used in our SDA colleges as study material for theology students. Because many gained so much while studying this material in college, and because there is a real need for each of us to better understand how mind and health relate, it was decided to prepare the material in book form. Southern Publishing Association was asked to prepare the two-volume set in three different bindings. All three bindings, now available, may be ordered from your Adventist Book Center.

Most will want to order the standard Christian Home Library binding. It is a good-quality hardback binding that will match the other small spirit of prophecy books and will last for many years. For those with a tighter budget, the regular Shield binding is available. This is a paper-bound edition on high-quality paper. The Special Edition was designed at the request of the General Conference Health Department so that each Adventist family could have a set to study from during 1978. Whatever binding you select, you will find the 882 pages filled with much counsel from the pen of inspiration.

A Study Guide has also been prepared for Mind, Character, and Personality—Guidelines to Mental and Physical Health. It may be ordered for 85¢ a copy. The Christian Home Library binding is available at $5.45 a volume; the Shield, $4.15 a volume; and the Special Edition, $2.75 a volume.

AND YOU THOUGHT YOU KNEW JAMES WHITE!

If you picture James White to be a quiet, selfless, mild-mannered husband who allowed his wife to dominate their home, better take another look! With his strong personality, aggressive manner, untiring drive, and demanding zeal, James was frequently the object of the wrath of many, including members of his family. Though his dedication to his God and to his church was unquestionable, he was not always the most diplomatic of leaders. James White, a biography of the man by Virgil Robinson, his great-grandson, is a revealing and candid portrait that will intrigue you and help you view with broader perspective the leaders of our church today. $7.50.

UNIQUE HEALTH STORY RECEIVES HIGH ACCLAIM

In just two months since its release, The Vision Bold has brought more reader response than any recent new book. Here is a sample of the comments: "I am thrilled with The Vision Bold." "I read the book from cover to cover in forty-eight hours, and it is fascinating, brilliant, gripping, illuminating, and just plain interesting. After finishing, one has a feeling of pride that he can belong to such a dynamic program." "This is a very high-quality book with photographs and layout that are instantly appealing."

The Vision Bold traces the progress of the burgeoning Adventist health work from its beginnings, considering the philosophy that has undergirded the Seventh-day Adventist emphasis on health since its inception. The visions and counsels of Ellen G. White, the self-sacrificing enthusiasm of supporting church members, the driving force of such people as John Kellogg, Percy Magan, Kate Lindsay, and John Burden have been followed by the dedication of thousands of doctors, nurses, nutritionists, technologists, administrators, and instructors, who today make the Adventist health program the strongest and largest among Protestant bodies.

Production of this volume was just as unique as its preparation. A bit too large for the publishing-house machinery, The Vision Bold was hand bound just as books were done at the turn of the century. Bindery workers stood and watched, fascinated, as skilled craftsmen performed the various functions—using glue pots and brushes, gluing the stacks, applying the covers by hand, and putting the books in clamps to dry. One worker stated, "This is the perfect book to produce by hand—the production process and the contents of this already unique book combine to bring back memories of yesteryear."

The Vision Bold was prepared by professionals—doctors as well as writers—who combined their talents in a blend that evokes nostalgia, admiration, and emulation. You'll want to order your copy now and save $5.00 on the introductory special. Regularly $21.50, now only $16.50 plus 75¢ for postage and handling. There's no finer gift.

receptive, but a lot depends on the individual manager's attitude toward religion. Much also depends on the type of relationship established between the layman and the manager. I'm sure, though, if managers knew the interest shown in our books by their customers, they would all be receptive to our project."

McGinnis added, "I'd like to see book distribution to motels organized the way the Gideons have organized their Bible distribution. Too often this motel ministry is one layman's project, and when he leaves the area, the ministry ceases as well. If the books were placed in an organized manner, the ministry begun by a layman could continue after he is gone."

One of the most popular books used in this type of witnessing is Arthur Maxwell's Your Bible and You, which was specifically written for non-Christian readers. The Desire of Ages by Ellen White and What Jesus Said by H. M. S. Richards have also been used effectively in the Travelers Book Service Program. These books are sold at a special low price to aid those who wish to purchase large quantities for evangelism. Frequently a church body will purchase the books for its laymen to distribute.

If you are interested in participating in this form of witnessing, contact your church Lay Activities secretary or local Adventist Book Center manager.

Your Bible and You—$2.75 cloth; $1.95 paper.

The Desire of Ages—$4.35 cloth; $3.85 paper.

What Jesus Said—$2.75 cloth.

margie asks why

By Laura Rocke Winn

Why does God let a good mother die when her children desperately need her?

Why can a drunk run into the minister's car, killing the minister and leaving the pastor's daughter paralyzed for life, and the drunk not even get a scratch?

Why did God create pets for man to care for and then permit people to cruelly abandon them to die?

Is God unfair and unjust?

Margie asked those same questions. She could not understand how a good God could allow such things to happen. Then Aunt Trudy came to visit and told her the story of the conflict between good and evil—why God must tolerate evil and suffering for a time so that He can someday vanquish it forever.

Every young person who has come face-to-face with the problem of evil in a world made by a kind, loving God will find in Margie Asks Why the answers to many of his questions. Laura Rocke Winn presents the story of the struggle between God and Satan in a way that any young person can understand. She gives many unique insights, gleaned from the writings of Ellen G. White, into the origin and spread of sin. $3.85.

THE COMPLEAT PARENT

by Nancy L. Van Pelt

Every year millions tackle the job of parenthood, yet they have had no training in the principles of parenthood, discipline, character building, or communication. They bravely battle toy-strewn rooms and furious cries of "No! No!" and the next day they deal with pinching and tattling and who gets the wagon. Although the problems change, they never end, and parents plunge on doing their best.

The Compleat Parent graphically teaches easy-to-learn, easy-to-use methods of effective discipline. Although it emphasizes the importance of training during the first five years of a child's life, it also explains how to effectively communicate with and discipline children of all ages.

Professional family counselors have read and enthusiastically endorsed The Compleat Parent. "My overall impression of this book is excellent. One of the best I have seen."

"It was a pleasure to review Mrs. Van Pelt's book. We could see some real possibilities in using it as a text for our child-rearing classes."

Conscientious parents will not only find this book fascinating reading but also thrill as they use the methods it delineates.

Available in paperback at only $5.45.

REVIEW and HERALD DEVOTIONAL BOOK PLAN OFF TO A GOOD START

$4.95 each
Both $8.95

In the fall of 1976 the Oregon Adventist Book Center initiated a program to place a senior or youth devotional book in the home of every Adventist family in the conference. It was felt that if the local pastor could make a personal visit to present this book and make a short appeal for a more meaningful worship, great good could be accomplished in strengthening the spiritual life of the membership. These books were to be purchased by the church and presented free of charge. The Adventist Book Center would allow a generous discount, and the local church board would work out the financing.

Although the program started late the first year, there was much enthusiasm among the participating pastors, and several hundred books were distributed. Camp meeting time, 1977, was the kickoff time for the 1978 devotional project, and at this writing Oregon has purchased well over 6,000 books for the project.

Since the Oregon plan brought such thrilling results, the question was raised, Why could not the book centers, in cooperation with the conference officers, launch the same program across North America?

So on August 1 the first promotional bulletins were sent from the Review and Herald to the book center managers, the conference presidents, and the Lay Activities directors. Although it was felt that this timing was somewhat late, numerous book centers took immediate steps to reach their pastors and present the plan.

Because of the enthusiastic response well over 100,000 senior and youth devotional books will have been distributed by the time the project comes to a close. We thank the Lord for the cooperative efforts of all who have had a part in working to achieve such tremendous results.

Already plans are under way to do even more for 1979. With time to lay plans and to promote among the ministers, with more conferences and conference churches participating, we look forward to great things in the days ahead.

A. G. DANIELLS: The Making of a General Conference President

by John J. Robertson.

An examination of the abilities, character traits, and attitudes of the man Daniells as seen throughout his professional life. The book also evaluates Daniells as a public speaker, an administrator, an activist, a man of resolve, a man of spiritual leadership, and a leader of men. $4.35.

CONGRESSMAN JERRY L. PETTIS: HIS STORY

Six New Releases

ESPECIALLY FOR PRESCHOOLERS AND FIRST GRADERS

Over and over parents and teachers have asked that our church publish some reading material for the first grader to read outside of his regular school reading material. Mrs. Gladys Sims Stump, a professional teacher and specialist in reading, has written the text for these six new books. The vocabulary is that of a first grader who has completed the first semester. The series is entitled "Books I Can Read Myself," and that is exactly what they are to be to the first grader.

Each page has a coordinated illustration to complement the text on that page. The books have been set in large type in the style school children are accustomed to reading.

While these books are geared for the first grader to read, they also make excellent reading for parents to read to their preschoolers. The elementary vocabulary and colorful illustrations will catch the interest of any preschool child.

The founders of the Seventh-day Adventist Church wrote many excellent books that molded the thinking of our Church at that time. These books have been out of print for many years. Southern Publishing Association has reprinted eight of the best for your personal reading and study. We call them Heritage Library books. James White, J. N. Andrews, S. N. Haskell, E. J. Waggoner, and others share their study on selected topics with you through the Heritage Library books. Here are the eight that are currently available. Watch for other titles to come out in the future. Only $4.35 each.

THE CROSS AND ITS SHADOW

A study of the sanctuary and the services held in connection with it. Applications of the meanings to the Laodicean church of today.

STORY OF DANIEL THE PROPHET, THE

STEPHEN N. HASKELL

This in-depth study of the Book of Daniel is by one of the denomination's leading experts on apocalyptic.

SANCTIFICATION OR LIVING HOLINESS

D. T. BOURDEAU

A study of sanctification that tells in simple language the "how" of righteousness by faith.

BIBLE ADVENTISM

JAMES WHITE

In 1842, at the age of 22, James White accepted Jesus Christ and immediately began to personally proclaim Jesus' soon return. During White's first winter of preaching, 1,000 persons accepted Jesus Christ. Later he compiled ten of his penetrating sermons into the first edition of Bible Adventism.

PRACTICAL LESSONS FROM THE EXPERIENCE OF ISRAEL FOR THE CHURCH OF TODAY

F. C. GILBERT

A series of studies that explains the Christian significance and meaning of Old Testament Hebrew symbolisms. The lessons and meanings are amplified and compared to the experiences of Christ in fulfilling the promises.

THREE MESSAGES OF REVELATION, THE

J. N. ANDREWS

A study of the messages of Revelation 14, their timing and meaning, and the role of the United States in Bible prophecy.

CHRIST AND HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS

E. J. WAGGONER

E. J. Waggoner and A. T. Jones presented a series of messages exalting justification by faith. Following this conference, Dr. Waggoner edited the messages he had presented and published them in three books. This book is a facsimile of one of the originals.

STORY OF THE SEER OF PATMOS, THE

STEPHEN N. HASKELL

One of the denomination's topmost scholars on apocalyptic brings us this detailed study of the Book of Revelation.

VARIATION AND FIXITY IN NATURE by Frank Marsh.

Variety is truly the spice of life. Variation in the natural world is so omnipresent that we recognize it as one of the variable facts in nature. This book will help as you try to discover and understand the significance of this diversity. $4.35.

HOME TO OUR VALLEYS!

by Walter Utt.

The period of 1686 to 1690 saw the last major violence in the long, sad story of persecution endured by the Waldenses. This culminating episode still stands as a remarkable testimony to what a few men, moved by faith in their God, can do in the face of seemingly impossible odds. $3.95.

ANSWERS ON THE WAY

by Desmond Ford.

The questions and answers in this book underline the fact that life makes sense only through Christ. $4.35.

LENORA by Ann Gimbel.

The story of a Norwegian girl, in a busy waterfront city, whose guardian angel was always on twenty-four-hour emergency alert. This suspenseful, unforgettable true-life account of Heaven's awareness of a girl's needs will strengthen your faith in prayer. $3.95.

For each Heritage Library book that you purchase at the regular price of $4.35 you can purchase one other book in the series for only $2.20. Or, better yet, purchase the set of eight books for only $24.95.

TRAINING PARENTS TO TRAIN THEIR CHILDREN

"In the year 1913 Mrs. White, at her home, Elmhaven, Saint Helena, California, one day after dinner called into conference a young man who was temporarily a member of her household, engaged in a literary work for her. She was then in her eighty-sixth year.

" 'I want to talk with you,' she said, 'about the importance of the work to be done for the parents of the church. You are a teacher. You are also a father. Your work as a father is the most important educational work you have ever done or ever can do. The work of parents underlies every other.'

" 'Let the ministers do all they can, let the teachers do all they can, let the physicians and nurses do all they can to enlighten and teach the people of God; but underneath all their efforts, the first work done by the parents is the work that tells most decidedly for the upbuilding of the church.' . . .

" 'Do you mean that the training of parents to train their children is the most important work we have?' [he asked.]

" 'Oh, yes,' she answered emphatically, 'it is the very most important work before us as a people, and we have not begun to touch it with the tips of our fingers.' "—Arthur W. Spalding, Origin and History of Seventh-day Adventists, Vol. 3, pp. 200-202.

Seventh-day Adventist parents take their responsibilities seriously. They are concerned with fostering those characteristics in their children that will ensure successful living in this world and entrance into eternal life. The Ladder of Life Series of eight paperback booklets and a teacher's guide was developed by an early-childhood education committee under the auspices of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists in response to these concerns and is intended for use by parents and early childhood educational personnel who work in school or child-care programs.

The idea for the ladder of Life Series was conceived by the committee when their attention was drawn to the admonition of Ellen G. White: "Let parents study the first chapter of the second epistle of Peter."—Review and Herald, October 12, 1911.

On another occasion she stressed the importance of this chapter of 2 Peter when she wrote: "These words should mean a great deal to us; and we should study this chapter diligently, that we may learn to practice the virtues it presents before us. If we do these things, the apostle says, we 'shall never fall.' " In response to this counsel the committee diligently began studying what they referred to as "Peter's Ladder of Life." They became impressed that the traits Peter mentioned—i.e., faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness, brotherly kindness, and love—are a comprehensive foundation to character development, and they began to build a program for parents and younger children, using these as the framework.

Each of the eight story booklets is illustrated with full-page "color-me" drawings that reflect no ethnic slant. The parents' guide has page-by-page suggestions, visual aids, activities, and songs for parents to use with the books to reinforce the concepts taught in the stories.

The Ladder of Life Series is not intended to be a complete early-childhood education program. Rather, it should be used as a character-building component for the home or child-care center to give assistance to parents and teachers in helping their children develop those characteristics that Seventh-day Adventists value. The set with teacher's guide is only $13.15 and is available at your Adventist Book Center.

CHAPEL RECORDS CONTINUES TO GROW

The projection for 1978 for Chapel/Bridge Records is very good. A number of new albums will be released highlighting some of the best-selling artists, to include Dona Klein and the Heritage Singers, as well as introducing some new artists. A new concept is also being released—that of taking some of the best artists and combining them for an album featuring the best of their material.

The first such project will be released early in 1978. It will feature the Barron brothers in an album entitled "The Best of the Barron Brothers." Both Dick and Henry were among the top-selling artists on Chapel Records before the unfortunate death of Dick. So Chapel has assembled this attractive collection of the most-requested songs and compiled them into one album.

A new catalog and a special promotional feature will also be introduced in 1978. When customers purchase 3 Chapel or Bridge records, a very fine variety album will be presented to them absolutely free. Watch for feature advertising and promotion on this item alone. Many new and exciting albums will be featured during 1978. Watch for these at your local Adventist Book Center.

Pastor Handysides to Retire

Pastor D. J. Handysides, senior pastor of the College Park Seventh-day Adventist church in Oshawa, will retire at the beginning of April 1978; after completing 41 years of service to the denomination. He graduated with a theology degree in England in 1937, and joined the ranks of the ministry that same year. His talents in music, writing and art found a productive field in his work of evangelism, which occupied the major portion of his ministry.

For 17 years he labored in the many large metropolitan centres of Great Britain, with much success. In 1954, he was asked by the Mission Board to go as an evangelist to Africa, where he spent 3 years in Durban, and 3 years in Cape-town. His love of Africa often surfaces in his conversation, and his itineraries into East Africa, which included Kenya and Uganda, and the Rhodesias, seem to hold a beloved place in his memories. In 1960 he returned to Britain and became the Evangelist Director of the New Gallery Evangelistic Centre, located on Regent Street in the heart of London's West end. It was here that he preached to the Londoners and produced two books. In 1964 a call was made for him to come to Canada, and the following year he and his wife and family moved to Ontario. They loved Canada so much that they became naturalized Canadian citizens.

Pastor Handysides has held important offices within the church, and has sat upon many of the executive committees which plan the work of the churches. At the present time he is also an executive member of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists — which embraces the world field. This appointment will hold until at least 1980. Many have heard his voice on Moments of Meditation which is heard on C.F.R.B. radio station. This service and privilege he greatly enjoys.

His devoted wife and companion Lilian, is a fine complement to him. He has a son, Allan who is a specialist in the medical field, his daughter Vernetta is a teacher, married to Dr. C. Wheeler, Medical Director of the North York Branson Hospital. The Handysides have four lovely grandchildren.

When questioned about retirement, he smiled and said: "No clergy worth his salt ever really retires — but is usually retreaded for further use."

Pastor Handysides will however, change the type of service he is giving, and has accepted a position with the Ontario Conference in the field of Trust Services.

College Park Seventh-day Adventist church with its large family of over a thousand members, plus Kingsway College, will miss this dedicated family, though they do intend to be occasional visitors, and keep up their association with so many of their friends in Oshawa.

Farewell to the Geary Family

In this issue of the MESSENGER we say farewell to Elder and Mrs. W. A. Geary, David and Nancy. For two and a half years the Gearys served efficiently and effectively in the Ontario Conference. Elder Geary was the Conference and Ministerial Secretary.

The Gearys came to the Ontario Conference from Upper Columbia where he had served as MV Secretary. Prior to this he spent most of his ministry in Indiana where he was pastor, evangelist, MV and Educational Secretary. During his time in the Ontario Conference he was loved and appreciated by the ministry, workers and laymen of this conference. His kind, approachable manner, his steadfast loyalty and his commitment to Christ and His cause will long be remembered by the fellow-believers of this conference. During his ministry here nearly 1800 people were baptized into the remnant church.

His wife, Ginnie was employed as the secretary in the Registrar's office at Kingsway College. Many people in Ontario had a very difficult time telling Mrs. Beck and Mrs. Geary apart, their looks and mannerisms were so much alike.

The Geary's son, David, is staying at Kingsway College to complete his eleventh grade and their daughter, Nancy, is a junior at Andrews University. We wish the Geary's God's richest blessings as they go on to their new responsibilities as Secretary and Ministerial Secretary of the Carolina Conference.

Outdoor Club Banquet

On February 19 over 120 members gathered in the College Park social room, which was transformed into an idyllic retreat, for the annual banquet of the Outdoor Club which is now celebrating its twenty-second year of operation.

Just inside the entrance door an arched bridge spanned a gurgling brook. Crossing the bridge from the green-grassed bank on the entrance side one could pause to throw coins into the pool where goldfish swam oblivious to the pitching pennies. Cedar trees shaded the one bank and flowers "grew" among the rocks and grass.

Beyond the nature scene, banquet tables with white cloths and red centrepieces and candles gave a festive appearance. The meal served by the energetic social committee members was excellent!

Mrs. Violet Hall is chairlady of the Outdoor Club; Mrs. Bill (Pat) Edsell and her committee were in charge of decorating, and Mrs. Don (Gail) Robinson was in charge of meal preparation. The men of the Club were very efficient waiters.

A film, "Wilderness Family", provided very appropriate entertainment.

Pathfinder Day in Windsor

Sweet music rang through the church as Verlaine Corkum and Pam Vassell played the prelude on the organ and piano accompanying our Pathfinders as they marched in singing their special Pathfinder song. How splendid they looked in their colorful uniforms! We are very proud of our active young people who are always engaged in something worthwhile. Some of their more recent projects have been plastic crafts, macrame and making bicycles from parts salvaged from ones beyond repair.

February 11 was the day our Pathfinders were responsible for the eleven o'clock service. Their trophy for winning the highest number of points at the Ontario camporee was displayed on the rostrum. Reading, memory work, two beautiful musical numbers and reports brought us up to date on their activities. Brother Sayed gave an address appropriate for the occasion.

After the service, the Pathfinders served a delicious and well-organized dinner to a hundred and fifty people in the recreation room of the church. The Windsor church is much indebted to our capable and enthusiastic director, Gordon Jinkerson, to his assistant, Ruth Jinkerson and our counsellors, June Lauzon, Jeanette McGeen and Ted McGeen.

New School at Annapolis Valley

On a hillside just out of Annapolis Royal in beautiful Nova Scotia stands a new "hall of learning". Realizing the worth of Christian Education after operating a school for one year in the basement of the Digby Church, this faithful Annapolis Valley congregation has provided for the educational needs of their children with a schoolhouse of their own. In the midst of Fundy fisherfolk and the Annapolis fruit growers, Mrs. Karen Landry is working with her church for a harvest of their own—a "peculiar treasure"—boys and girls for service and eternity.

Riverdale Students Aid Zaire Hospital

"Are you expecting a baby boom?" asked the surprised clerk. Two Riverdale students had just approached the sales counter with all of the "on sale" baby blankets in the store. The JMV of the Riverdale S.D.A. School had been busy for several weeks planning and cooking for a bake sale to raise the money for these baby items. Their zeal was a direct result of a letter which Miss Sandra Green and the class had received from a mission station in Zaire, Africa requesting receiving blankets for sending newborn

St. John Members Train for Witnessing

On February 17 and 18 the Saint John, N.B. church held its first training program in preparation for witnessing. During the evangelistic meetings with the Feyerabend-Karst team, several of the members participated in the visitation. They enjoyed it so much that they determined to become involved. Territory is being assigned, a new Bible study projector is to be purchased, and plans call for a day of practical instruction door to door.

Adventists Operate Digby Kindergarten

We probably would not run a kindergarten for Adventist children, but when the community is going to have one, who better can give the children Christian love and guidance than Adventist ladies?

Under the direction of our pastor's wife, Jean Davin, the Canada Works Program is funding a Kindergarten in Digby, Nova Scotia. Mrs. Davin's assistants are also members of the church: Mrs. Julia Titus, Mrs. Jean Melanson and Mrs. Dorothy White. The children respond to the motherly love of these ladies.

The government has rented the Kinsmen Club house so that the Kindergarten has ample room for activity.

Materials used are the Home Study Program for Kindergarten. In the "fun and learn" situation children learn how to cooperate in various simple projects. Ministers of other churches have their children enrolled and have been free in their expressions of appreciation. This has given the ladies an excellent Christian contact with the community.

Baptism and Wedding at Ryley

Dwayne and Marlene Neufeld with Pastor Johnson.

January marks the start of a new year and often a new beginning for various things. Such was the case for Dwayne Neufeld.

For some months Dwayne had been dating Marlene Oslund and during the last while had been attending worship services with her and having Bible studies. On Sabbath morning, January 14, Dwayne became a baptized member of the Ryley Seventh-day Adventist Church, signifying the start of a new life in Christ.

Sunday, January 15, also was the start of a new phase in life as Dwayne and Marlene were married in a lovely afternoon ceremony with many relatives and friends in attendance.

Evangelism Newsnotes From Newfoundland

Pastor W. M. Mercer, Newfoundland evangelist, baptized his sister, Violet (Mrs. Chesley Shepherd) along with three precious young people, on February 24, at the close of an evangelistic series held in the Bay Roberts church. The young people taking part are all students of the Lyndale Seventh-day Adventist Academy, Bay Roberts. Their teachers are Wesley Stagg and Mrs. Edna Earle.

Following the baptism, a thrill of joy swept through the congregation as Chesley Russell, for whom loved ones have prayed for fifty years, indicated his desire to be ready for the next baptism. Several other students from non-Adventist homes, are preparing for baptism in the future. The next baptism in Bay Roberts, is planned for April 8.

Our little group of Sabbath keepers in Happy Valley-Goose Bay, Labrador, consists of one baptized member, school teacher Larry Hall, and several Voice of Prophecy students. Meetings are held each Sabbath morning in the home of Ivy Turner. Regular letters from both Larry and Ivy indicate a growing interest among Eskimos, and Indians, as well as among the white population.

Please join us in prayer that God will gather into His church family a great number of His chosen ones in Labrador. We are so thankful to have the Voice of Prophecy program on three stations that cover the main population areas of Labrador. These stations are in danger of being cut off for lack of funds. A special gift to the Voice of Prophecy, Box 3800, Vancouver, B.C. V6B 3Z1, will help to keep these stations witnessing in Labrador.

Faith For Today Bible Conference in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan

Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, with cold, November winds, was the backdrop for a series of meetings conducted by Evangelist Philip Knoche of Faith For Today. Host Pastor Nick Tallios, along with the local 70-member church, supported the Bible Conference, held in the Carleton Comprehensive High School Lecture Theatre, with regular attendance. Neither snow nor icy streets could keep an average of 95% of their membership from attending each meeting. Sixteen new believers, with others preparing for baptism, were added to their number as a result of the Faith For Today Bible Conference.

Moose Jaw Five-Day Plan

Another successful Five-Day Plan was held in the fellowship hall of the Moose Jaw church February 19 — 23. All who enrolled, with the exception of one, were victorious.

The coordinator of the program was Pastor Rudy James, assisted by Dr. A. W. Pillay, a Moose Jaw heart surgeon, and others. The support and assistance of all was greatly appreciated.

Decisions for Jesus

February 25 was a happy day for the members and friends of the Portage la Prairie church. Five young lives were given to Jesus, and confirmed their determination by following their Lord in baptism.

Lyndon James, invited his teacher, a principal of a school he had attended, and other friends of the family to attend the baptism. Members and guests were invited to remain for food and fellowship after the service.

A specially chosen Bible text was given to each of the young people, to strengthen, encourage and guide them in the paths of righteousness.

Official authorization has been received from the Minister of Education for the establishing of a department of Business Administration at Korean Union College. Professor Robert G. Burgess (Kingsway College Class of '46) who has been a faculty member for the past five years working toward this goal, has been appointed chairman of this new department. Dr. Burgess received his B.A. in Business Administration from Walla Walla College, his M.A. from Andrews University and his Ph.D. in Administration of Education from the University of Saratoga. A biographical sketch of Dr. Burgess' 25 year career at home and abroad — Pakistan, Sri Lanka, Taiwan and Korea — will appear in the 1978 edition of Men of Achievement, Cambridge, England. Dr. Burgess' distinguished participation in International service organizations has also earned him recognition in the 1978 issue of Distinguished Personalities of the West and Mid-West. Currently he is president-elect of the Seoul Down Town club of Kiwanis International, and a popular contributor to The Korea Times.

Canadian Booth Popular At Medical Convention

Over 150 visitors stopped to obtain information about Canada at the Medical Convention in Loma Linda's Gentry Gym from February 12 to 15.

Fifteen of the visitors are definitely interested in coming to Canada to practice. Continuing correspondence is being carried on with these people in an effort to help them locate in a suitable Canadian locale.

Pastor Carl Weis, Development Officer of the Senior College for Canada, also used the booth as his headquarters and met many alumni of C.U.C. who stopped in to visit.

In its stories of faith, its doctrinal articles, its interpretation of prophecy, its quiet meditation, its prayer circle, MESSAGE tells your loved ones you remembered them and their spiritual needs.

Because it is mailed every other month (monthly in the summer), it is a gift that keeps on giving. Because its pages are devoted to personal daily use, its spirit of giving is renewed each day.

Near or far away, loved ones, friends, business acquaintances, will remember you as they read each provocative issue of MESSAGE in home, office, or as they travel. It will provide an unfailing reminder that there is something greater than the present, that God has a new world to replace the sorrow and sordidness of the old. Send subscriptions to MESSAGE . . . let them know you care. There are newly designed gift cards available for you to announce your gift. Be sure to check the appropriate box on the MESSAGE order forms which are available at your church or the Adventist Book Center.

In spite of rising costs the special 1978 campaign rate is still only $3.25 for each one-year subscription (seven issues), plus 40¢ for overseas or Canada.

Please place your order through your church Lay Activities secretary or the local Adventist Book Center.

1978 Yearbook Now Available

The 1978 SDA Yearbook, with its 852 pages of information about every Adventist organization in the world, is the largest ever produced. In addition to containing name, address, administration, and other information for each conference, mission, and institution, it also gives the names and addresses of thousands of denominational employees.

To secure a copy, place your order with your Adventist Book Centre. Prices: $20.75 for the hard cover and $18.50 for the paper cover.

Wisconsin Academy Notice

Louise Larmon will be given a special citation on Graduation Day, May 28, 10:00 a.m. Former students are asked to send letters of appreciation or cards well in advance in order to prepare a special appreciation book for Miss Larmon. Mail is to be sent to the attention of the Principal, Wisconsin Academy, Columbus, Wisconsin 53925. Those who can may wish to attend Graduation Service as the choir will sing under her direction. A special reception will be held in her honor at 1:00 p.m. on the same day. This is planned as a surprise.

Grants Announced for Development of Writers

In an effort to attract more young people to writing careers, the Seventh-day Adventist Church has established a $37,500 fund to support selected English, communication and religious writing programs. The action was taken in response to the needs of publishing houses and medical and educational institutions for competent writers at a wide variety of administrative and creative levels.

The funds are provided by the General Conference, the Review and Herald, Pacific Press and Southern Publishing associations and a private source. Guidelines for awarding the funds indicate a priority for scholarships, supplementary equipment, and special projects not otherwise feasible. Applications for grants must be made through the General Conference Board of Higher Education.

The first awards of $3,000 each were made to Andrews University and Pacific Union College. Modest grants to other Seventh-day Adventist colleges and universities will be considered and awarded annually, according to established criteria, during the five-year period of the program.

Andrews Homecoming Weekend Set for April 28-30

Andrews University's annual Alumni Homecoming has been scheduled for April 28 to 30, according to Melvin Andersen, executive secretary of the Alumni Association.

The theme for this year's weekend is "A Higher Standard," referring to Ellen G. White's statement that God desired the college at Battle Creek (Andrews' predecessor) to attain to the highest standard.

The honored classes will be those of years ending in 8, as well as the silver class of 1953 and the golden class of 1928.

The first annual Country Canter, a ten-mile foot race, will be held Sunday, April 30, in connection with alumni activities. Bill Rodgers and other well-known runners will be on hand to lead out in the race, which is open to the public.

Persons interested in participating should write or call Dr. Dan A. Klein, Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Michigan 49104. 616-471-3253.
