Senior College Status Progress Report

by N. O. Matthews, President Canadian Union College

A recent Hansard Report on the question-answer period in the Alberta Legislature on April 12, 1978 will undoubtedly be of interest and encouragement to the Canadian constituency. In part, it reads as follows:

Mr. Thompson: Mr. Chairman, I'd like to ask the minister a question about Canadian Union College in Lacombe. I understand they have applied for degree-granting privileges. It's been held up, and this puts extreme pressure on this college. I wonder if he could give us some idea of the cause of the holdup on degree-granting for the Canadian Union College.

Dr. Hohol: An excellent question, Mr. Chairman. It will be of much interest to the Legislature, I am sure. . . . The officials of the department are and, as you properly suggested, have for quite some time been working with the college on the criteria, conditions, and circumstances that may cause us to permit them, not in the negative sense but in the sense of being clearer, that it's a reasonable thing to do in terms of predicting that everything that goes into an education for a degree is there: money on a long-term basis for financing the college; that professorial component in terms of recognized requirements by peer groups, by other academics like PhDs and others from doctoral programs, masters and so on in certain programs; libraries. We're working at that.

The request of Canadian Union College is to add at least two and possibly three degrees. I have an open mind, and if I may say without any of my officials falling over the rail, a positive mind, because they agree with me in any case. I believe, Mr. Chairman, that an important kind of principle is involved here. You know, we have a plural society, and it seems reasonable to me to have a plural society underpinned by a plural educational system. In the conduct of our discussions with Canadian Union, we must also speak to the institutions, not because it's required but because it's reasonable to talk to those institutions that presently present and offer degrees, to assist us to ensure that that college or any other college has the kinds of components in place that would make us predict that beyond any question the quality of the programs, the services, and the product would be the kind we would be proud of and not the kind that we would feel we helped Canadian Union make a mistake.

I have an intuitive feeling, a fairly cognitive one. I've been there. One of my officials and I travelled to the United States to look at a university and at a college that's denominational in the same way Canadian Union is. To say we were impressed would be an understatement. We were very impressed! For the record, I want to say that my judgment and that of other members of the Legislative Assembly who have been to Canadian Union is universally that they are doing excellent work. There is a commitment there. There is a feeling for the human condition, for education and for service that is something to behold. You're not quite the same after you visit Canadian Union College.

In a human sense, I'm very open and positive. In the criteria sense, the department officials are working with the college and other institutions. I hope that during this term of office it will be possible to make a definitive statement one way or another on the matter of Canadian Union College.

Mr. Cookson: . . . Mr. Chairman, I would briefly say to the members of the Legislature, many of whom have had an opportunity to attend the operation of Canadian Union College at Lacombe, which is a Seventh-day Adventist church-operated institution, a private institution: they are extremely proud of their operation. I think they're doing an excellent job. I have visited their grounds a number of times. I'm really impressed again with the dedication they have, in particular to their young people.

They have negotiations going on with the minister with regard to, hopefully, university status. I know these areas have to be very, very carefully thought out. It would be fair to say there's a fair amount of anxiety at the college to know whether the province of Alberta and our government is prepared to give the permission required for university status. They're extremely anxious to know their position; because you know, in private institutions, as has been said, they cover all their capital costs. That indicates to me extreme dedication.

Recently the Canadian Union College constructed a very large athletic centre, built it to the standards required at the university level. It was built by a group of, I think, 100 who are so committed to the work they're doing that they have committed funds for the capital costs of that operation. Naturally, until we can assure students who attend that campus that the courses they take will qualify them in the different faculties and areas, Mr. Minister, they hesitate. And in the process of hesitating it's causing some concern.

In conclusion, Mr. Minister, could you indicate briefly what is required in terms of legislation to qualify Canadian Union College? I know you'll word this carefully. You did suggest there was some time frame, hopefully within the term of office of this government. Could you give some reassurance in the area of that comment? So there are two points to the question.

Dr. Hohol: I'd be happy to do that, Mr. Chairman. In recalling that one of my officials and I made a tour of some of the institutions of this denomination in the United States, I'd forgotten that the honorable Member for Lacombe was on the trip with us. I want to indicate my appreciation of his support on behalf of that college.

The requirements for the change at Canadian Union College were those I mentioned in discussion with the House on a question from the honorable member from Carstairs. But specifically on the last one, it would have to be a change to The Colleges Act. That in itself would not be difficult. What is difficult is to get in place the logistics, criteria and conditions for additional degree-granting circumstances. On behalf of his constituents, including this college, the honorable member has fairly and properly asked me in this portfolio to make a commitment, or at least where this commitment is.

In terms of the commitment of the college people, and my examination of the professorial capacity at the university in the United States, it's of a very high order, the kind of order that the federal government in the United States has certain contracts with that university to train people in some of the professions. We walked through it, talked to the professors and students, looked at the equipment, the research capability, the library. I haven't any doubt that this college could meet those conditions, and our people will continue to work.

As I said some time ago, there are certain things that, one way or another, each of us in our portfolio sets as priorities to conclude, and not have a new minister face a complex problem in the middle. I want to assure the Assembly and in particular the honorable Member for Lacombe, that that is one of the top six or top dozen priorities that we will address and conclude before this term expires.

So that's my commitment, Mr. Chairman."

Although the Minister has not as yet reached the stage at which he is prepared to present a bill to the House amending the Alberta College Act or the Alberta Universities Act, or both, to enable Canadian Union College to attain degree-granting status, it would be fair in summary to state that:

1. The Minister and other members of the Government are very favorably impressed with Seventh-day Adventist higher education.
2. The Minister believes that the Canadian constituency can

Rest Haven General Hospital — 1921-1978

Sidney, British Columbia

The final chapter of Rest Haven's specialty of dedicated medical service and devoted nursing care concluded when, on April 10, the last patient, Harold Kennedy, 81, was transferred to the new Saanich Peninsula Hospital.

Mr. Kennedy, however, was no stranger to the institution. His prior acquaintance was in 1917 when he was admitted to this Federal Government-operated Convalescent Hospital as a veteran disabled in World War I.

The Seventh-day Adventist denomination acquired the property subsequently and established the Rest Haven Sanitarium in 1921, on an idyllic three acre island retreat in which patients and residents by the thousands, have received treatment and care consonant with Adventist practise and philosophy.

The Rest Haven property was purchased by J. McNaughton, a church member of the Manitoba Conference, in the year 1921. He sold it to the Union Conference for $20,000, half of the purchase price.

Dr. A. W. Truman was loaned by the St. Helena Sanitarium to organize and start a sanitarium. With personnel from the Alberta Sanitarium at Bowness Park, Calgary and local help, he put together the first staff. The first patient was received by boat on December 31, 1921.

Over the years Rest Haven was administered by: F. L. Hommel 1921 — 1925, O. S. Parrett 1925 — 1927, F. T. Balmer 1927 — 1929, J. M. LeMarquand 1929 — 1931, H. A. Shepard 1931 — 1937, W. E. Perrin 1937 — 1939, E. S. Humann 1939 — 1943, H. A. Munson 1943 — 1948, C. M. Crawford 1948 — 1954, A. G. Rodgers 1954 — 1962, T. J. Bradley 1962 — 1971, F. L. Bell 1972 — 1975, D. L. Dunfield 1975 — 1978.

Beautiful Rest Haven Sanitarium as it was in the early years of its operation.

Our limited space will not permit inclusion of the many expressions of community reaction articulated with affection and a sense of great loss as Rest Haven now closes its doors. Former patients and members of our dedicated staff feel deeply and understandably repress with difficulty, their emotional response to the end of an era.

With the ever-increasing participation of government in the delivery of health services, accompanied by capital and operating funding, Rest Haven identified with the status of an active treatment hospital initiated under the auspices of the Provincial Government in 1949. With the passage of time, (the building dates back to 1912), the authorities recognized the structural and physical inadequacies of Rest Haven and a plebiscite culminated in the erection of a community hospital which is now fully operative.

The Rest Haven property has now been sold and the new owners are diligently assessing the site's potential as they plan for the future. But the relinquishing of this hallowed spot, cherished and church-owned and operated for so many years, was difficult in the extreme for the Rest Haven Board and for the corporate body, the British Columbia Conference Corporation.

Much careful and prayerful consideration was accorded this important decision. With blessed recourse to the pen of inspiration, the brethren were sustained and emboldened to act as they proceeded courageously and decisively: "Whatever your anxieties and trials, spread out your case before the Lord." D. A. p. 329.

Armed with these promises, the case was spread out before the Lord, confident that He would guide and show that plain path that He had promised. When all the facts were in and studied, only one decision could be reached: Rest Haven was sold!

Health Ministry – Thou Shalt Surely Die

by G. D. Strunk, Director Adventist Health Ministries

The eventual death of everyone is certain despite their efforts to prolong life by good diet, exercise, pills or meditation. Only two, Elijah and Enoch, have cheated death in the past. And only a relatively few will cheat death in the future at Christ's return. The universality of death and the inability to escape death provide constant testimony of the inspiration of Scripture; "Thou shalt surely die!" If someone wants to destroy faith in Scripture let him refuse to die. To elude this predicament many "pretend" that something invisible lives on while the body dies. But in fact we die!

Two important lessons may be observed from recognizing this truth.

1. That for all our efforts to live healthfully; eating, drinking, exercising and resting correctly, the kingdom of heaven is not meat and drink. We cannot eat our way into heaven.

2. We ought not to pursue the practices of health out of fear of dying. Nor should we be disappointed if we grow old and death approaches. No matter how well or how badly we live we will eventually die.

It may sound presumptuous to imply that such naive attitudes are entertained but in an effort to hold onto life strange and deceptive motives intrude themselves into our behaviour. Our great hope is not in escaping death but in being resurrected from it because of Jesus Christ.

Why then does God lay such stress on health laws?

TO AID IN THE PURIFICATION OF OUR LIVES:

"We need to learn that indulged appetite is the greatest hindrance to mental improvement and soul sanctification." Testimonies Vol. 9, p. 156.

"It is impossible for those who indulge the appetite to attain to Christian perfection." Testimonies Vol. 2, p. 399.

"The diet has much to do with the disposition to enter into temptation and commit sin." Counsels on Diet and Foods p. 52.

While it's true that no one has eaten their way into heaven, it is also true that many have eaten their way out of heaven.

"The reason why many of us will fall in the time of trouble is because of laxity in temperance and indulgence of appetite.

Moses preached a great deal on this subject, and the reason the people did not go through to the promised land was because of repeated indulgence of appetite. Adam and Eve lost Eden through the indulgence of appetite, and we can only regain it by the denial of the same." Temperance p. 150.

TO ENABLE THE FULL POTENTIAL OF LONGEVITY:

"He who formed the wonderful structure of the body will take special care to keep it in order if men do not work at cross-purposes with Him. Days, months, and years are added to our existence that we may improve our opportunities and advantages for working out our individual salvation...." Testimonies Vol. 6, p. 379.

"Right physical habits promote mental superiority. Intellectual power, physical strength, and longevity depend upon immutable laws." Counsels on Diet and Foods p. 29.

"I may not live as long but I'll enjoy life while I live" is self-contradictory. He not only dies sooner, but he ages prematurely. He becomes physiologically old sooner. The part of his life that is missed is not off the end but right out of the middle – the best years.

TO ELEVATE THE QUALITY OF LIFE:

"All our enjoyment or suffering may be traced to obedience or transgression of natural law." Testimonies Vol. 3, p. 161, 162.

Our loving heavenly Father wants us to get the most out of a long life that we might value more greatly our anticipated eternal life. And when we have accepted the assurance of our eternal life we may then enjoy the adjustments of living healthfully moved not from fear of growing old or of death but moved to love life.

Members of Alberta Legislature Visit C.U.C. Campus

by Charles Tidwell

Five members of the Education Committee of the Alberta Legislative Assembly visited the campus of Canadian Union College on April 4, 1978. Mr. Jack Cookson of Lacombe, chairman of the Education Committee, Dr. Winston O. Backus of Grande Prairie, Mr. Bill Diachuk of Edmonton, Mr. John Thompson of Cardston and Dr. John Walker of Fort Macleod wanted to become better acquainted with the program, facilities and goals of C.U.C. as a private denominational college in their province.

After visiting with Dr. Matthews the MLA's took a tour of the college facilities with an emphasis on the industries since they are especially interested in the work-study concept. In commenting on the work-study program, Dr. Walker of Fort Macleod said this concept was a wonderful idea, one that might well be considered for its province-wide implications. He also felt that the visit of the group was a real education for each one of them.

In his brief presentation to the members, Dr. Matthews emphasized the uniqueness of the Seventh-day Adventist educational system which stresses the importance of both work and study. In addition to explaining Adventist educational philosophy, he also mentioned the world-wide network of Adventist educational institutions of which C.U.C. is a part.

In commenting on the importance of the visit of the MLA's, Dr. Matthews stated that it is important to have various members visit in order to become acquainted with C.U.C., particularly these members of the Education Committee for they will undoubtedly be asked to advise the Minister of Education concerning the recently submitted petition requesting degree-granting status for C.U.C.

During their tours, the members visited the Career Centre with its wood, auto and machine shops, the College Bindery, Parkland Color Press, Parkland Furniture, the College Farm, and the physical education complex. After their tour, the members were joined by several members of the college faculty and administration for a vegetarian lunch prepared by Mr. Lyle Brooks, Director of the College Food Service.

Meet The Secretaries - Manitoba-Saskatchewan

It is always an honor and a pleasure to work for the Lord in His vineyard, but it is most enjoyable to work together with a dedicated staff, people who put their Lord first in their lives. Our secretaries at the Manitoba-Saskatchewan Conference are this kind of people.

Fern Aaserude: Secretary to the Publishing Director. She is responsible for sending the Literature Evangelists' report out on time every week, and the monthly report to the Union every month. She transcribes letters and tries to keep the filing up-to-date not only for the Publishing Director but the Secretary-treasurer, as well. She also does light secretarial duties for the Stewardship and Trust Services Director. Just in case this is not enough to keep her busy, she is also the key operator for the Xerox machine.

Elizabeth Elkow: Elizabeth is secretary for the President, Elder W. G. Soloniuk and for the Youth, Education and Temperance Director of the Conference, Pastor Jim Eiseman. Besides holding the usual secretarial duties, she takes care of sending out Pathfinder supplies to the clubs and films to the members holding Five-Day Plans to Stop Smoking. She also is responsible for sending the Statistical Report to the Union each quarter (which also means keeping the church records in the office up-to-date). With camp meeting coming on, she is already busy, with Mrs. Soloniuk, making reservations for the people who will be attending and typing out letters to the ministers who will be speaking. She is looking forward to meeting you during camp meeting.

Helen Koleada: Helen started in the Book and Bible House in 1970, and when it moved to Alberta, she took over the care of Angwin Distributors, which then was just for the Manitoba-Saskatchewan Conference. In 1975, after Mike Manchur joined Angwin, it expanded to cover the whole Canadian Union, and Helen, besides her work for Angwin, took over a small part in the Treasurer's department. Then when Mrs. Scrace retired in 1976, Helen moved into the Treasurer's department full time.

Gabriela Pohle: Seven and half years ago Gabriela arrived in Canada, and so far has enjoyed most of her stay here. In January 1978 together with her husband, Bob, she moved from Ontario to Saskatoon where she was asked to join the Conference staff as the receptionist, secretary to Angwin and the Community Services, Public Relations, Radio and T.V., Lay Activities and Sabbath School Director, Elder Stan Gallant. In between the many phone calls she has to answer, she tries to get her letters, reports, supplies and orders all sorted out and prepared for mailing.

Worship The Creator!

"I have just finished watching your telecast and do wish to secure from you a copy of today's message, 'Tying Down the Sun'. This is just what I've wanted for the past few months as the question arose in my Sunday School class. I also have a neighbor who follows Darwins theory and we have discussed this before. I'm so thankful to have this message available to me." D.G., Saskatchewan

The final warning message in Revelation 14 is to warn the world against false worship and salvation by works. It is a call to worship the Creator of heaven and earth. The evolutionary theory destroys belief in the Creator and Saviour. We have a task to do to bring the message of justification by faith to the world. This final message includes the righteousness of Christ and obedience to God's commandments. (Revelation 14:12)

As long as people believe in evolution, they do not believe in the Sabbath because they do not believe in the Creator. The whole message of salvation — justification, sanctification and glorification — must be made plain to the world.

Your support is needed to spread the message by radio and television. The budget for all of Canada for mass media is about $500,000 per year. We thank you, reader of this article, for your support.

Just How Good Is Kingsway's Music Program?

Ask that question to anyone who has ever heard its music students perform — be it in a trumpet duet — a harpsichord solo — a band concert — or in the choirs stirring rendition of Vaughn Williams' "Hodie" — just ask them — and they'll all tell you. It's Fabulous!

Kingsway has long been recognized as an outstanding educational institution, but especially so in the field of music.

"When considering secondary school music programs, Kingsway's comes second to none!" says Carl Anderson, vocal instructor at Kingsway. An exaggerated statement, maybe? Not at all! Mr. Anderson is merely stating a well-known fact — proved again during April 20-28, at the annual city music competition, the Oshawa Kiwanis Festival.

"The Music Festival gives us a chance to mingle with the other bands," explains Pat DeCiccio, trombone player, "It's a chance to witness to the community — to let them know what Kingsway College is all about — to show the community what Christian education can do."

This year, the band certainly represented its cause well as its excellent performance under the direction of Miss J. Klassen, took first place in both categories entered. (That, however, comes as no surprise. Kingsway has come out on top for the past four years!) Smaller ensembles as well as individual musicians also dominated their categories. In a little over a dozen competitions, Kingsway's students took nine firsts, two seconds, and three third places. In the vocal sections, another eight firsts were taken by Kingsway's singers — as well as four seconds and two thirds. Jackie Henry, a grade thirteen student, was named the best young singer in Oshawa when she won the "Rose Bowl" in the Festival — and also a $150 scholarship.

Brass Ensemble performs on Cable TV.

The Kingsway band was also requested to appear at the final "Festival of Stars" in May.

Some might question the effect of Kingsway's entering the music competitions on their public relations. The answer to that question may be found in the feedback they have received from the community.

As one listener remarked after hearing the band perform, "I was really impressed with how the band played. . . looked and behaved. I had heard there was a school up there on the hill but I never imagined what a fine school it was!"

“You were great!” cried several public high school band members after Kingsway’s second win. “What are you — a music school or something?”

No, it’s not. Kingsway’s made up of just a lot of average kids with an above-average dedicated music staff, set of standards, and motivation — to represent Christ the best they know how.

SPRING TOURS WITH THE CHOIR AND BAND OF KINGWAY COLLEGE

Choir Tour

The Kingsway College Symphonic Choir left on Friday, March 17 for the first concert of their ten-day tour in Kitchener, Ontario. Three sacred programs were given the next day in Paris, London and Windsor. By early Sunday morning we had crossed the border and were well on our way to Grand Rapids, Michigan. We also had a concert in Troy and while in this beautiful state visited the Henry Ford Museum, Kellogg Factory and were especially privileged to see the grave of James and Ellen White and tour their old home in Battle Creek.

On to Ohio the next day with about two hours for shopping in Dayton and then our concert in the beautiful church in Kettering. From here on we travelled south and every day was warmer and the foliage greener.

We were welcomed graciously at both Madison Tennessee and Southern Missionary College where the southern hospitality was truly evident. The accommodation, the food and the tour of the campus at S.M.C. was so much appreciated!

Greensboro, North Carolina was our next stop where we were to sing in a mass choir at the Festival of Faith. Also joining us at Greensboro were the New England Youth Ensemble, directed by Dr. Rittenhouse. There were about eight thousand young people from the eastern United States assembled in the huge coliseum in Greensboro and we felt honored to sing for them.

The Youth Ensemble travelled with us to Washington, D.C. on Sunday for the highlight of our tour—a concert in the National Cathedral. This magnificent structure was begun in 1907 and is still under construction. It is the largest church in North America and the sixth largest church in the world. The acoustics were unbelievable and we were awed with the beauty and majesty of this beautiful edifice. It was Easter Sunday and by the time our concert began the cathedral was packed. Our organist, Nancy Crandall felt privileged to play on the organ there—one of the largest in the world.

Our last concert was on Monday morning at the General Conference worship session after which we hurriedly boarded our bus for our 500 mile return to Kingsway. It is our prayer that our voices, singing praises to our God, were as much a blessing to others as to ourselves.

Mr. James Bingham, choir director, assisted by Mr. Leslie Mackett, Mr. Carl Anderson and Miss Nancy Crandall led out in an inspiring, ten-day tour and we are happy we could join with them representing Kingsway College.

Band Tour

On Thursday, March 16 our 50 plus concert band members boarded the bus for the first stop on our spring tour in Albany, New York. Our concert was held in a beautiful old art museum. Time out for shopping the next day in Boston and then on to Atlantic Union College where we were hosted so graciously and had an evening program. We had the Sabbath service in Stoneham, Massachusetts and after a delicious pot-luck dinner and some sight-seeing we left for Pine Tree Academy in Freeport, Maine where we gave a secular concert that, by all appearances, was well-received.

By supper time on Sunday we had arrived in good old Halifax and gave a concert in our church there and then on the next day to Nova Scotia’s famous Peggy’s Cove. It was so beautiful but so cold! After a concert in North Sydney we boarded the ferry for the all-night trip to Port aux Basques, Newfoundland. Several times the ferry had to break through solid ice and this made it more exciting for all of us.

Our band played in three concerts in Newfoundland—Botwood, St. John’s and Corner Brook and we left impressed by the rugged beauty of the island and with the warmth and friendliness of the islanders.

After concerts in Moncton and St. John, New Brunswick, we saw one of the wonders of the world, the famous reversing falls.

We were greeted with ten inches of snow upon our arrival in Montreal, but with only one more concert to go in Belleville, we were all in good spirits.

The tour was fantastic and we hope we left each audience with the blessing that good music brings. With the help of our competent band director, Miss Joanne Klassen and President Kuhn we were proud to represent Kingsway College through beautiful music.

Vegetarian Diet Seminar Held at Branson Hospital

Dr. Alice G. Marsh, Sc.D., R.D., addressed 80 dietitians from across Ontario at a seminar on the vegetarian diet held at North York Branson Hospital on April 6. Dr. Marsh, who is semi-retired, is a professor of nutrition, researcher, author and a leading figure in the Seventh-day Adventist nutrition field. She presented scientific research on the vegetarian diet and the various nutritional aspects of that diet.

Among the guests were officials from the Government Health Ministries and Departments as well as representatives of several educational institutions.

A vegetarian buffet luncheon was served to acquaint the participants with the various menu adaptations possible and allow them to see, smell and taste for themselves. The vegetarian entrees, salads and appetizers were well accepted and the comments of surprise and delight indicated that they were much enjoyed.

After lunch further presentations followed which included the technological concerns; preparation of soybean protein concentrates, isolates, and various other products by Mr. Allan Crawford, Vice-President of Griffith Laboratories.

Mrs. Elsie Sokol gave a display-demonstration of various meat analogues, as well as natural protein of legumes. The protein supply, complete and incomplete, the necessity of combining such varieties as would provide the acceptable protein value, were some of the facts considered. The use of milk, eggs and cheese in this type of diet was discussed as dietitians concerned themselves with the adaptation of a meatless meal plan for all age groups, especially as pertains to Vitamin B12 and calcium in a balanced diet.

The concluding presentation by Mrs. F. Poblete, dealt with the application of meatless proteins in the various therapeutic diets as prescribed and interpreted in the Hospital Dietary Services. This, of necessity, could only deal with the main diets, which included fat-controlled, specific intolerances, high and low residue/fibre, gastric, sodium-restricted and the diabetic and calorie-calculated diets. Also discussed was the feeding of the vegetarian infant and child.

It all began at the Canadian Dietetic Association Convention in 1971 when the vegetarian diet was introduced and suggested as a possibility of a future change in our eating habits. That the interest has increased is comparable to the tide coming in. Many hundreds of hours, thousands of pages of printed material, also lectures, seminars and various programs via the media has been the route which promoted and established what we now feel is a major task accomplished!

Dr. Alice G. Marsh addressing the Vegetarian Diet Seminar at North York Branson Hospital.

In 1976, the Ontario Dietetic Association-Ontario Hospital Association Diet Manual Revision Committee met to review and revise Ontario's Diet Manual. It was decided then that the vegetarian diet be included, thereby officially recognizing it as a nutritionally adequate alternate eating pattern. The Diet Manual is equally approved by the Medical Association.

Being the only hospital in Canada with the experience and expertise in planning meatless meals for institutions, as well as having been active in nutrition education efforts in this respect, Branson Hospital Dietary Department was then contacted and requested to assist in and contribute to this project. Many hours were pooled, to prepare and provide such materials as would be a practical guide to dietitians, but brief in its context, due to limited space.

Thus, in late spring 1977, the newly revised Diet Manual went into circulation, with the vegetarian diet as one of the "normal" diets, which gave it its final recognized acceptance.

Supportive information has been accumulated, organized and provided to the Ministry of Health, so as to be available to practising dietitians as they implement the vegetarian diet in their hospital menu and diet planning.

In the fall of 1977, at the Ontario Hospital Association Convention meeting for dietetics, representatives of the Ontario Ministry of Health, as well as different individual dietitians, expressed the need for and encouraged Mrs. Elsie Sokol, Director, Dietary Services of North York Branson Hospital, to conduct a seminar on the vegetarian diet. This was to be planned specifically for dietitians who, now having accepted the adequacy of the meatless diet, would consider such a seminar of benefit in the planning of menus for normal as well as therapeutic diets, and in counselling clients/patients who wished to be vegetarian. This would also assist dietitians in becoming aware of the available resources for appropriate and possible variety of food products, scientific literature, teaching aids and their practical use in meal planning.

A goodly amount of printed information was made available to the participating dietitians at the seminar, hopefully to better equip them in their meatless meal planning and nutritional counselling as and when set up in the hospitals where they serve.

Those attending the seminar were very vocal in their expressions of appreciation. and thanks.

Dietary Department

Cooking Classes at Perth Ave. Church

For four consecutive weekends, February 18-March 12, a group of approximately 30 eager individuals gathered at the Perth Ave. church to learn more about vegetarianism at the Century 21 Cooking School conducted by Sister Edith McLean and Pastor Don King. Pastor King is a graduate of Loma Linda University with a Masters in Public Health.

Films were shown each night on various aspects of vegetarianism followed by lectures and seminars on nutrition presented by Pastor King and his wife.

The Century 21 Cooking School ended with a banquet which was attended by approximately 100 individuals. Certificates were presented to those who had successfully completed the class. The entire meal was prepared by the students in the class.

Pollett Crusade Baptizes 54 in Etobicoke

Craig Johnson    Communication Intern    Ontario Conference

Fifty-four people were baptized as a result of an eight-week It Is Written Prophecy Crusade conducted by the Pollett brothers in Etobicoke. Twelve souls were baptized on April 29 at the Sabbath services while 33 were baptized the next weekend.

These two special weekend programs climaxed the crusade and provided the opportunity for interested individuals to make their stand for Christ. A delicious meal was prepared by the ladies of the church and served by Mrs. Connie Johnson and her staff both Sabbaths.

Average attendance for each of the meetings held at the Kingsview Village Seventh-day Adventist church was nearly 250 people. Elder Lyle Pollett was the featured speaker for the meetings and was assisted by Elder Dale Pollett who coordinated the music. Pastor Ken Corkum of the Kingsview Village church, also assisted in coordinating the meetings and the baptisms.

Each one-hour presentation was illustrated with color slides and a blacklight. A free nursery service was provided. "The Heavenbound Singers" presented a special program of music and testimony at the last night of the meeting. Four more baptisms are to follow in the next few weeks.

The Pollett brothers next campaign will be in Barrie starting on May 20 at 7:30 p.m. at the Barrie Seventh-day Adventist church. Watch for more information.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS HELD IN PORT ARTHUR

Pastor Noel Wilton presented a well-planned series of 14 Sunday night meetings in the Port Arthur S.D.A. church from Jan. 29 to April 30.

The series was entitled "Jesus and You". Study outlines were distributed at each meeting and the textbook was the Bible.

Many members from both churches gave outstanding support to the meetings by their attendance and by inviting their friends.

Four dear people are very interested to continue with further studies.

Noel Wilton, a South African, has taught in Mission Schools in Africa and served as a pastor in Rhodesia.

MARANATHA HOLDS FIVE-DAY PLAN

Six smokers renounced allegiance to their noxious, malodorous master—tobacco, after attending a Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking April 1—5.

The program was sponsored by Maranatha Seventh-day Adventist Church in Toronto and held at Sunnybrook Hospital under the direction of Pastor Arthur Zaft, with the assistance of Dr. W. R. Wong.

Fourteen persons, enrolled. One of the successful six, the only man in the group, quit the twenty-five year habit the first day by consuming mouthfuls of potato chips so that he could be thirsty enough to drink plenty of water.

The graduation ceremony on April 8 was followed by a buffet supper.

Here is a suggestion from Dr. Hilda Rainda of Sopas Adventist Hospital, Box 112, Wabag, Papua, New Guinea:

If you would like to help us we need knitted bandages. Get string (either cotton or cotton and nylon) and knit plain, both ways, bandages, four or five inches across and fifteen feet long. It is impossible to get elastic bandages here.

Toronto East Church News

Sabbath, April 1, was rather unique at Toronto East Church as a well co-ordinated gift Bible graduation program took place. Fifty-six graduates received their diplomas from Pastor R. Young and Brother Gregg, Lay Activities Leader.

Pastor J. Scott, guest speaker for the occasion, told the graduates, that they have now joined millions around the world who are graduates of this great Advent movement.

A glorious service took place at Toronto East Seventh-day Adventist Church at 7 p.m. Sabbath March 25. As a result of a one-week Easter Crusade conducted by Pastor R. Young, four precious souls were baptized by Pastor Young. Relatives and friends gathered in the packed church to see their loved ones take the important step.

- The visit of the chairman and four members of the Caucus

Education Committee of the governing faculty just a week earlier, gave occasion to this airing in the Legislature of Canadian Union College's petition to the Minister for degree-granting status. It is hoped now that the matter will move forward without unnecessary delays to a favorable conclusion. We appreciate greatly the patience exhibited by our constituency. To all of us the waiting period is, at best, a trying time; but it will be worth it all if our goal is finally achieved. We do praise God and give Him all the credit for what has transpired so far.

Baby Dedication

Baptism at Dauphin

Seven members were added to the Dauphin church by baptism on Sabbath April 8. Among those baptized was the Wilson family.

In November I phoned Mrs. Wilson and she seemed just anxiously waiting to get some help in studying the Bible. She and her daughter began that very day, and by the third week the entire family was involved.

In January they began attending church regularly while we continued to study. When the subject of baptism and church membership came up, Mr. Wilson said, "all we have studied is very clear in Scripture. I have been watching very closely to see if Sunday is in the Bible and it is not. I have decided to be baptized and become a member of the S.D.A. church." And the rest of the family felt this is what God would have them do. They are now rejoicing in the Lord.

Others baptized that day were Linda Burak and Mr. D. Lulashnyk.

It was with real joy that members of the Winnipegosis church joined with the Dauphin church to celebrate this happy occasion.

AUDIOLOGICAL HANDBOOK of Hearing Disorders available—by Stephen V. Prescod, Communication Secretary, London, S.D.A. church. This is the first full-scale guide to hearing disorders specifically geared to the audiologist. It examines audiological impairments that range from the outer ear to the central mechanism of hearing, and includes all major disorders that are seen in clinical practice.

Thorough information on injuries and diseases that affect the external ear is followed by coverage of the middle and inner ear, including the eighth nerve of the brain stem. From here the handbook explores the pathologies of the central auditory system occurring at the level of the brain stem along the neural pathways to the temporal lobes of the cerebral cortex. Among the conditions examined are herpes zoster oticus, external cholesteatome, otosclerosis, drug-induced hearing loss, noise-induced hearing loss, Meniere's disease, collapsible ear canal, sudden hearing loss, presbycusis, central deafness, acoustical neuroma, and otitis media. Although these disorders are covered from an audiological rather than an otological point of view, the audiologist is given an essential overview of the medical aspects of hearing deficiencies. For each disease, the handbook describes the disorder and examines possible causes, symptomatology, and otological and audiological management. Special attention is given to aural rehabilitation and to auditory assessment of children. Thoroughly examining the advantages and limitation of the audiometric test battery, the author shows the practitioner how to ensure accurate interpretation of results. Capsule summaries of each chapter provide quick access to essential information. And case studies from the author's clinical practice illustrate many of the problems and procedures in current audiology.

Clinical audiologists will find this an invaluable tool for assessing a wide variety of hearing disorders. The handbook also provides helpful information to speech pathologists, otologist, hearing-aid specialist, teachers of the deaf, and all those involved in audiological research and in pediatric, geriatric and rehabilitative audiology.

Stephen B. Prescod is Audiologist-in-Chief at St. Joseph's Hospital, London, Ontario, and Honorary Clinical Lecturer at the University of Western Ontario. He is a member of the Canadian Speech and Hearing Association, and the Canadian Hearing Society and has recently been invited to become a member of the Section of Clinical and Rehabilitative Audiology at the Academy of Medicine, Toronto.
