

Time Is Running Out!

By R. W. Wilmot, Treasurer, Canadian Union Conference

On Sabbath, September 9, in all of the Seventh-day Adventist churches around the world, an offering will be taken called the MISSIONS EXTENSION OFFERING. The main purpose of this special offering is to provide funds to extend the work of missions in certain specified areas. According to the General Conference policy, the monies collected on this date will help certain types of mission institutions to become more effective in carrying forward their work. These institutions are publishing houses, medical clinics, small hospitals and schools.

Such organizations need buildings and certain types of permanent equipment which they are not able to provide from their operating or from other special appropriations.

Having served overseas, I know how much these extra funds mean to our mission work. I remember how happy our Press manager was when we received assistance to purchase a much-needed press which helped them produce literature at an increased rate, more efficiently and economically. All around the world, we have institutions that need your help. Our time is running out. Surely it is long past time for Jesus to come. Let's give of our funds now while they can still be put to use — tomorrow may be too late!

The above is not an ad for the army or for polar explorers. It is a call for dedicated, sincere Christians to become part of the new mission project in Whitehorse, Yukon Territory.

For decades, the Lord's Messenger has been urging the remnant church to leave the cities. "Again and again the Lord has instructed that our people are to take their families away from the cities, into the country, where they can raise their own provisions. . . We should now begin to heed the instruction given us over and over again: Get out of the cities into rural districts, where the houses are not crowded closely together, and where you will be free from the interference of enemies." Letter 5, 1904.

"Do not consider it a privation when you are called to leave the cities and move into the country places. Here there await rich blessings for those who will grasp them. By beholding the scenes of nature, the works of the Creator, by studying God's handiwork, imperceptibly you will be changed into the same image." Manuscript 85, 1908.

"Let the children no longer be exposed to the temptations of the cities that are ripe for destruction. The Lord has sent us warning and counsel to get out of the cities. . . 'Out of the cities' is my message for the education of our children." Selected Messages, II, page 355.

If this is not strong enough encouragement, allow me to continue.

"Brethren who wish to change their location, who have the glory of God in view, and feel that individual responsibility rests upon them to do others good, to benefit and save souls for whom Christ withheld not His precious life, should move into towns and villages where there is little or no light and where they can be of real service and bless others with their labor and experience. Missionaries are wanted to go into towns and villages, and raise the standard of truth, that God may have His witnesses scattered all over the land, that the light of truth may penetrate where it has not yet reached, and the standard of truth be raised where it is not yet known." Evangelism, page 52.

There may be some who are convinced they should relocate in wide open, unpopulated areas, but feel hindered by a lack of funds. Do not be discouraged. Mrs. White also says, "God will help His people to find such homes outside of the cities." Medical Ministry, page 310.

Do you believe God's promises to fulfill your every need? Can you trust Him enough to follow Him into an unknown land that will be shown to you? Do you have the faith of Abraham who was called out of Ur?

The Lord needs you here in the frontier Yukon mission where an unspoiled creation spreads in every direction. A unified, growing nucleus of members will successfully reach out to confused and discouraged sinners who are even now searching for light. Doors stand open, public opinion is favorable, and the time is short. We must work now while unlimited opportunities are ours.

And the opportunities are not confined to the spiritual. Through contact with the hospital staff, we learned that there are several openings right now for qualified nurses. The Yukon Educational supervisor expressed a desire for teachers in the public school system who have strong religious and moral principles. He has been pleased with the dedicated service of Adventist teachers in the past. Journeymen, heavy-duty mechanics, electronic technicians and contractors are also in demand. Almost anyone who is qualified and who really wants to work, will find an opening.

Are you a doctor or a dentist looking for a practise that will provide a mission experience? Do you want to move to a place where you really feel needed? Are you a young family searching for the perfect location in which to educate your children? The time has come for us to finish the work of God in the Yukon as well as all over the world.

Won't you come up north and help us?

See centre spread for latest news.

As the call came from Macedonia, so those of the Northland cry out for help. What is your answer?

Meet The Secretaries – Alberta

Helen Bechthold: Secretary to Reo Ganson in the departments of Education and Religious Liberty and Public Affairs. Mrs. Bechthold is also secretary to Mrs. Judy Gímbel, who serves as the Conference Health Education Coordinator.

Helen's work at the Conference office dates back to 1969 when she began here as part-time help. In 1973 she was employed on a full-time basis. Her service has been uninterrupted except for a few months of the year 1971–1972 when she worked for the Alberta Book and Bible House.

Her cheerful smile is a blessing to all who come in contact with her from day to day.

Dianne Braun: Dianne is kept very busy serving as the office receptionist and also handling the correspondence for the Literature Evangelist and Stewardship and Trust Services Departments. Besides helping her husband who is the pastor of the Calgary Bridgeland Church, she takes care of their three children who are attending the Calgary Adventist School. Her pleasant disposition in spite of the constant interruptions from the telephone has added much to the pleasure of having Dianne serve as a member of our secretarial staff in the Alberta Conference office.

Helen Kivinen: Helen is secretary to the treasurer. She also does the receipting of funds that come into the Treasury Department and does the computer receipting for the churches that are on that program.

Helen's worth to the Alberta Conference can be measured by the many reserves of friendship she has built. Her dedication and Christian example is an inspiration to all who work with her. She has the knack of changing liabilities into investments and truly is storing her treasure up in heaven.

Marlene Littman: Marlene is secretary to Elder John M. Howard, Director of the Lay Activities, Sabbath School and Key Operator for Xerox. Apart from her normal secretarial duties, she also orders and receives for the Sabbath School Evangelism Department. She helps organize and plan the different workshops for Vacation Bible School, seminars for Lay Preachers and Dorcas Federation meetings and she is responsible for the programming and scheduling of Mission Spotlight, and Witnessing Highlight programs.

Marie Nawalkowski: Quietly, efficiently and with loyal dedication Marie "gets the job done!" She serves the Youth Department plus the president's work, with statistics thrown in to add spice.

Marie recently came to the Alberta office after having spent a number of years in the Manitoba-Saskatchewan office in Saskatoon. Her influence in Western Canada has been wide-spread and deeply appreciated.

The Thrill of Evangelism

L. R. Krenzler, Director, Department of Communication

As we telecast the It Is Written program across the airwaves, we often wonder what is being accomplished. Just recently we received a letter from Brother and Sister James of the Henderson Highway Church in Winnipeg telling us of a lady who was baptized in May of this year as a result of an It Is Written contact.

This dear sister has been a Christian for many years but was not able to understand the Bible fully. Brother and Sister James are continuing Bible studies after her baptism, so she will be firmly established and grounded in the truth for these last days. This dear sister has said that she has learned more in the last several months of intensive Bible studies with our Adventist believers than she did for the many years before. How wonderful it is to know that we can be an instrument in God's hand to lead people to Jesus Christ and help them to understand God's Word and His plan.

We appreciate the continued support of our members all across Canada. We have heavy expenses with the It Is Written program but when we receive a letter as we did from Brother and Sister James we believe it is all worthwhile. I would invite your continued support of the It Is Written television program and other forms of evangelism that this work can soon be finished in Canada. It is expensive to win souls, but the value of a soul is beyond the price of the world. Therefore, let us sacrifice in these last days and put all we can into the Lord's work to help finish it. Your contributions to the It Is Written television ministry have and will be greatly appreciated. Your prayers also mean very much to us. God bless you.

Health Ministry – Let's Play Right!

G. D. Strunk, Director, Adventist Health Ministries

In a recent constituency committee much concern was expressed over some of the social and scheduling practices in our schools that are counter productive of the student's health and the educational objectives of the school. Late night socials with late Sunday breakfasts which disrupt regularity, inadequate time for meals and meals that are not nutritionally appetizing, along with insufficient attention given to health education in general came under close review. The constituency session unanimously passed recommendations to improve these areas.

The committee was quick to perceive that the customs followed in many of our schools are but a continuation of the customs followed in our local churches and in our homes. The committee's recommendations therefore urged that efforts be made by the Health Ministries Department to encourage our homes and churches to evaluate their Saturday night recreation to see if it serves to re-create or wreck one's health and productivity for the next day and the next.

Let me suggest three guidelines that are a departure from the norm but which will provide an even more enjoyable lifestyle to you and the children.

1. Let the socials revolve around activity and social interaction more than food or refreshments. The purpose of a social is to play together, to get to know and appreciate each other. The food at socials is usually not healthful. But even if it were the body doesn't need it. It's eaten late at night. This practice displays poor stewardship of the body and money even if the income is to be used for a good cause. The end does not justify the means!

At most a drink can be enjoyed. But beware! Many an ingathering team have been felled by sore throats not from exposure to the weather but from the sweet hot chocolate, or punch thought to be necessary to revive the workers.

2. Make more of the socials an active encounter rather than spectator. Active games and relays are more sociable and re-creative than movies or TV or talent shows. The pure and innocent games with free unveiled laughter enjoyed at an Adventist social are one of the refreshing treasures longed for by the heavily tempted victims in today's world.

3. Play short! Go home early! Midnight frolics are really out of place. It is a poorly informed social committee which robs from the regular hours of nightly sleep and infringes upon the opportunities of the next morning. New Year's eve begins at sunset not at midnight for you and me.

During the late sunset hours of spring and fall a very brief recreational activity can be enjoyed Saturday night and then to bed. Let the big social events be enjoyed on Sunday with time to begin early and ample time to prepare without distracting one's attention on Sabbath. This practice has already proved a genuine benefit in some of our schools and churches.

These guidelines require effort, some re-education and re-ordering of our priorities. But those homes, those churches, and those schools that learn to play so as to preserve and enhance their health rather than destroy it will remove the guilt that threatens our good times.

Dietitians Study Ellen G. White

Dyspepsia, consumptive, scrofula, torrefied, toothsome. . . these words were added to the professional vocabulary of thirty-five dietitians during the Ellen G. White and Dietetics Today workshop held at Andrews University, June 5 – 11, 1978. Four dietitians from the Canadian Union attended the workshop – Ketti Goudy from British Columbia; and Fe Poblete, Zenaida Magdamo, and Mary Alice White from Ontario.

Dietitian participants sought to give scientific and historical perspective to the topics: use of eggs today, milk and sugar combinations, use of cheese, fruits and vegetables, liquids at meals, institutional service of meat, sugar, meal frequency, baking powder and soda, fasting, meat alternates, grease and free fats, spices and condiments, vinegar, caffeine containing beverages, chocolate and cocoa. In connection with these varied topics, the participants, representing seventeen different medical or educational institutions across the nation, had a unique opportunity to personally study the original manuscripts of dietary counsels and advice from Ellen G. White as well as 19th century cookbooks, hygiene texts, and early health journals of the church. Personalities familiar to Seventh-day Adventists of the 19th century such as W. A. Alcott, Sarah Hale, Catherine Beecher, L. B. Coles, Ella Kellogg, Elmida Lambert, and R. T. Trall were introduced. Papers on broad subjects such as early recipes, balance in health reform, food variety in the diet, vegetarian restaurants, camp meeting food service, origins of strict vegetarianism in the church, the importance of S.D.A. food service and many other topics were presented.

Each morning the faculty presented historical and scientific papers to the group and during the afternoons and evenings the participants worked with the manuscripts and archival files of the Andrews University vault of the E. G. White Estate and the Heritage Room collection.

The findings and recommendations of the workshop will be the basis for further historical and scientific research in this area. Abstracts of the papers will be available from Andrews University Department of Home Economics after August 1, 1978.

"Festival of the Word" Delegates Report

Bob Lehmann, Youth Director Maritime Conference

New Evangelist in Halifax

Brother and Sister Ed. Richards and their daughters Eleanor, Emanda and Elaine have accepted a call to begin evangelism in the Greater Halifax area.

This is a major step as the Maritime Conference has hoped for many years to start work among the black population.

Please remember Pastor and Sister Richards as they open this new work.

Elaine, Esther, Emanda, Eleanor and Edwin Richards.

Eastern Canada Festival of the Word delegates returned home from Ontario eager to share their faith and to rally Maritime youth to the cause of witnessing for Christ. Delegates spent Sabbath, June 3, with the members of Halifax area churches sharing what God has done for them and what they hope and plan for in the near future.

The day began with Sabbath School by Prince Edward Island delegate, Debbie Kawakami. The challenge of the worship hour, by Maritime Youth Director, Bob Lehmann was to make the life habit like that of Mary Magdalene and to be found daily at the feet of Jesus.

Eighteen eastern Festival of the Word delegates were present to share in the afternoon interviews with Elder G. E. Andersen to present to the churches just what Festivals of the Word are all about. Maritime Seventh-day Adventists are excited about the prospects of our youth joining hands with the elders in fulfillment of prophecy. To end the day all shared in an Agape feast and a stirring, testimony service.

With such an army as our youth how soon might the message of a crucified and risen Saviour be carried throughout the Maritimes and Jesus would come.

Pastor Ron Myers of Halifax taught the Sabbath School lesson. Debbie Kawakami of Prince Edward Island and Roger Batten of Truro conducted the Sabbath School.

Yorkton S.D.A. Junior Academy News Notes

Another school year has rapidly come to a close and many memories will linger on. Some of the highlights of the busy school year were as follows:

Our academy was host to Mr. M. Graham, Associate Director of the Department of Education, Canadian Union Conference; Jim Eiseman, Director of Education from Man.-Sask. Conference; and the principals from the Saskatoon, Rosthern, Winnipeg, and Regina Church Schools, for the school evaluation. Our school received a five-year certification, which is the highest evaluation possible.

The week of May 8-12 was proclaimed Mental Health Week in Saskatchewan. All the schools in Yorkton were to make a poster on positive mental health. Our academy received the first prize, and congratulations and an award of $20.00 go to Kelly Dreger and Brian Parnetta for their poster.

You have already read about the tremendous results of the Canadian Tests of Basic Skills that our Manitoba-Saskatchewan Conference achieved — a 77.5 percentile. However, we at the Yorkton Academy would like to announce that our percentile was 86.

Improvements have been made to the school throughout the year, and the most significant one is the establishment of a science lab.

Several queries about our school and education system from non-Adventists prompted the teachers to carry out an "Open House" for the public. Announcements were mailed to the principals and teachers in Yorkton and surrounding area as well as in the local paper. The remarks from the guests were ones of encouragement to carry on and keep up the good work.

To bring the school year to a happy end, the annual school picnic, planned by the Home and School Association, was held at a beautiful provincial resort some 60 miles from Yorkton.

Investiture at Yorkton

The Investiture program on June 9 was a glorious event for those who had worked so diligently to receive their honors and achievement awards.

Besides all the achievements, from the Busy Bees on to Guides, and numerous honors awarded, a "Good Conduct" medal was awarded to Cindy Corrie by Wanda Chipeur, our Pathfinder Director, for her perfect attendance at Pathfinder meetings.

Monthly Five-Day Plan at Regina

Each month Fred Marshall conducts a Five-Day Plan in the Regina Church lecture room where 15 to 25 people attend. From studies done about 85% of those who have come to the Plan have stopped smoking for good and many have become interested in a church which is interested in them. Within the past two years Fred Marshall and Dr. Ralph Berdan have helped nearly 350 people in the Regina area.

Official Opening of Metro Toronto Community Services Centre

E. J. Parchment, Lay Activities Director Ontario Conference

Sunday, June 18, 1978 was an important day for those involved in our community work in Ontario. On that date representations from the General Conference, the Canadian Union Conference and the Ontario Conference, as well as well-wishers and friends, gathered for the official opening of the new Metro Toronto Community Services Centre of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Elder E. J. Parchment, Lay Activities Director of the Ontario Conference, welcomed the audience and introduced the chairman of the evening, Elder E. C. Beck, President of the Ontario Conference, who outlined the objectives of the Centre. Elder L. L. Reile, President of the Canadian Union Conference offered prayer.

The ribbon was cut, and the centre declared officially open by Mrs. L. L. Reile.

Elder L. A. Shipowick, Lay Activities Secretary of the Canadian Union Conference presented a brief report on our community services across Canada and Pastor W. A. Holgate, Director of the Centre, reported on its activities since its beginning eighteen months before. Elder W. W. Fordham, Director of Regional Affairs of the General Conference gave the main address after the guests were taken on a guided tour of the Centre and light refreshments were served.

The centre was first opened in December 1976, in rented quarters. In November 1977, the Ontario Conference acquired the premises at 528 Bathurst Street, and the Centre was moved to its present comfortable quarters.

The recent appointment of Mrs. Emma Feyerabend to assist Pastor Holgate in the Centre was another important move forward.

The Centre which is jointly supported by the Ontario Conference and the churches of Metro Toronto, periodically offers the "Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking", "Nutrition", "Wa-Rite" and "Heart-Beat" programs, in addition to its routine functions of extending material aid to needy persons in the form of food, clothing, bedding and furniture.

Maranatha Flights International

L. R. Krenzler, Director Communications

Maranatha Flights International began work on Sunday, June 18. Tuesday afternoon it looked like this with a notice on the wall — "opening July 1..."

Dr. Ray Nelson is trying his hand at electrical wiring.

Mr. and Mrs. William Boyes work at the platform and baptistry area.

Brenda McColpin helped with the framing of inside walls.

W. W. Rogers and Charles Turner study plans for heating specifications and ducts.

Mrs. Bill Hanson (left) and Arabella Williams are painting siding. Arabella was on her 11th project and is 82 years old.

Elden Toombs is busy filling dry wall cracks and covering nails, as his father Ken mixes plaster.

Hans Kroenke puts finishing touches on the electrical system so that there will be light for the opening July 1.

Maranatha Flights International came to the Yukon June 18 — July 1, to build a church in Whitehorse, 450 miles south of the Arctic Circle, on the edge of the midnight sun. This new church seats about 125 people and is the only Seventh-day Adventist Church in the Yukon with its 23,000 people of which about 15,000 live in Whitehorse. The church was opened July 1.

The Yukon is a vast area of 207,000 square miles extending from the B.C. border to the Arctic and lies between the Northwest Territories and Alaska. The Yukon is the home of the famous Klondike Gold Rush of 1898-99 when 33,000 people rushed to Dawson City to stake claims and run stores, etc. As many as 260 steam paddle wheelers used to ply the Yukon River.

Men worked hard and sacrificed much, even life itself, to find gold. We are looking for the true gold, the human nuggets for God's kingdom.

Gold mining requires moving vast mounds of pay dirt and rock to find little gold. Thursday, June 29, Maranatha and local members knocked on doors to invite the residents of Whitehorse to Open House Sabbath, 6:00 — 9:00 p.m.

His wife Judy, daughter Paige, and son Shannon have been living examples of a truly dedicated family to God and it is with genuine sorrow and regret that we say farewell to this family.

Former Salvation Army Captain Baptized

Capt. Patrick J. Brady

In 1974 the writer and a lay worker first contacted Patrick Brady, a former Salvation Army Captain in Montreal. Brother Brady had listened to the telecast and was quite impressed with its message. He prayed that God would send someone to teach him the truth and the following day I made my first visit to his home and endeavored to enroll him in a Bible course. Soon we were studying the Word of God on a weekly basis. Our study continued for about a year when I accepted a call to the Ontario Conference.

Recently he spent almost three weeks with me in an evangelistic crusade at the Six Nations church. On Sabbath, May 20 he became a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Robert Toms, Pastor

Evangelism at Mission

Literature distribution and home nutrition classes helped prepare Mission for Evangelism.

In January Pastor and Mrs. Ron Spear with their Evangelistic team of nine volunteer workers started their endeavors in the area which lasted three months.

The Lord, through His messenger Ellen G. White, in Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 7, page 50, tells us that "Medical Missionary work is the right hand of the gospel. It is necessary to the advancement of the cause of God. As through it, men and women are led to see the importance of right habits of living, the saving power of the truth will be made known."

This was the approach used by Pastor Spear and his team as they conducted a Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking, a vegetarian cooking school, a Wa-Rite program, door-to-door Bible studies and then an evangelistic series. The results — eight new members added to our church.

On April 1 Mr. McLeod, Mr. Cusker and daughter Lorna and Don Biko were baptized with Mrs. Falladown, Ron Sinclair and Linda Jago added to our membership at later dates.

The series is just the beginning of a continuing evangelistic outreach for Mission.

Pleasant Valley Academy News

Students of Pleasant Valley Academy earned over $2,000.00 in an 8-hour Workathon, Sunday, May 7. The project was initiated to raise funds for a music tour. The 35 students, in grades 4 — 10, worked at a variety of jobs and were sponsored by friends, neighbors, and local merchants. A very favorable impression was made on the community as well. The students, together with teachers, Leanne Bergey, band leader, and Ruth Fritz, choir director, gave performances the following weekend in Williams Lake, Quesnel, Prince George, McBride and Golden.

Vernon Voice of Prophecy Crusade A Success

A tent, a four-legged preacher, and a good attendance spell success for the Voice of Prophecy New Life Crusade, currently in Vernon. Evangelist B. R. Spears captivates his audience with his dynamic presentations of Gospel truth. Often mopping his brow with a large white handkerchief, he moves about the pulpit firing one text after the next, without glancing at an outline or opening his Bible once.

Born in Kansas, educated in Catholic schools, Spears gave his heart to God at 21, and began studying for the ministry. At 24 he was stricken with polio and meningitis, but survived to continue his study. Walking with two canes, he became a successful preacher, and was ordained at the age of 32. The Voice of Prophecy recognized his God-given talent, and some years later, in 1970, employed him on their evangelistic team.

B. R. Spears, dynamic Crusade Evangelist.

His unusual ability to quote the Bible, Spears claims, is a God-given talent, and he uses it to glorify God. Many are expected to give their hearts to God during the 13 weeks of the Crusade.
