What's In It For You?

Dane J. Griffith Editorial Intern Adventist Review

The Adventist Review has little to offer. . . if you're content to live with little or no knowledge of the news and views of your church in a changing world. How can the Seventh-day Adventist Christian solve the pyramid of problems present in every family today? What's the solution to the growing discontent of today's youth with organized religion? What are the views of church leaders concerning major social and spiritual questions of today? Where do I fit into the operation of this organization called church?

Important questions? Definitely. Yet they only skim the surface of the sea of problems facing you and me as Christians in this society. The Adventist Review can provide you with the equipment to dive safely into that sea, confident and prepared to meet almost any problem that may arise. What's our equipment? Well, take a look!

Do you want to make new friends? The Review recently created a 32-page "Friendship Edition" specially designed to make friends for Christ, for us, and for our church. It has received a tremendous response! Do you want to travel? Each week the Review whisks you around the world as it outlines the work God is doing through the church on every continent of the globe. Do you want more harmony in your home? The Review publishes a family column regularly that just could get your castle choir singing in tune once again. Are you battling with baffling Biblical beliefs? The Review editors endeavor each week to put you one step closer to victory as they answer questions from you and your fellow fighters.

Do you feel a bit more confident about taking that big "dive"? Good. Be watching your mail box for a special direct-mail package inviting you to subscribe to the Review.

The changing world. There's a lot to know. The Adventist Review. It has a lot to offer.

Community Relations Day

The devil is not afraid of the Bible that has dust on it nor the church that has no warmth in it. That's why churches in North America will concentrate on the warmth ingredient during the month of October. October 14 is officially Community Relations Day and Sabbath School Guest Day.

A friend of mine visited a non-Adventist church. "When I opened the doors," he said, "I felt the friendly atmosphere. I was greeted by the hostess in the lobby and taken to a special class. The person on my right shook my hand as well as the person on the left, and then added 'Welcome, friend.'" They may not have our message, but they do have a message. "Welcome, friend." These were magic words coming from the lips of an almost total stranger.

A sign advertising a product once stated, "Without it, you're not with it". We may have doctrine and organization but we're not "with it" spiritually without friendship and warmth.

It has been my privilege to participate in a number of Community Relations Day services, and I've seen opinions changed. "I didn't know Adventists were concerned about the community," one honored congressman remarked. "This is the first time I've been in an Adventist church," a councilman said, "but I don't believe it will be the last."

The General Conference Communication Department is anticipating 1,000 community service award plaques to be presented during the month of October. The honorees will be chosen from influential people in the community, non-Adventists who have worked for the welfare of the community above and beyond the call of duty.

I always recommend that someone from the local newspaper be honored along with the others. An editor will no doubt have a photographer with him and will write up a story of the day's activities in local papers. The occasion provides an excellent opportunity for the editor to become a friend of the Adventists, and it will be easier to take him future church news.

Many churches are planning to kick off their nutrition classes or weight reduction classes, 5-Day Plan, or some other community-oriented program on that day. The whole day should be a step-by-step involvement of the church with the community.

What is your church planning to do about Community Relations Day? Have you ordered your plaque? Selected your recipient? Let us pray that our plans for Community Relations Day may be only the beginning of a consistent vital course of action that involves the entire church working for the community.

Invite A Friend!

Meet The Secretaries – Newfoundland

James M. Campbell, President S.D.A. Church In Newfoundland

Barbara Janes: Should you dial the telephone numbers of the Newfoundland Mission you will most likely be greeted by Barbara with the pleasing identification, "Seventh-day Adventist Offices, Good-morning". Both Barbara and her husband John claim St. John's, Newfoundland as their home town. John teaches in the Seventh-day Adventist Academy and they have a son Alan, 3½ years old. Barbara began working in our office in 1969, after successful stenographic experience in a local law firm, followed by a year of secretarial work for International Telephone and Telegraph Co. in Clinton, Mass. She now cares for the general secretarial work in our office.

Helen Spracklin: Helen is our efficient assistant treasurer. She works closely with her husband Ron, who is office clerk and cares for the Book and Bible House. Helen came to Newfoundland in 1958 from working with Maracle Press in Oshawa. She was a student at Oshawa Missionary College from 1948 to 1953. Everyone in the office knows that Helen will have the answer as to where it can be found or how it has been done. Helen handles the payroll too, and most feel that's pretty important.

Frances Campbell: Doing the receptionist and secretarial work for the St. John's Adventist Academy, along with her part-time bookkeeping duties keeps Frances busy. She feels that these are only side-lines to her main interest in entertaining and homemaking. Frances' husband is the president of the Newfoundland Mission and the Campbells have lived in Newfoundland since 1975 when they returned to Canada after 13 years in India. The Campbell's have three children: Merle, a nurse at Loma Linda; Coleen, a sophomore at Walla Walla College; and Richard, 9, at home.

These three ladies have a heavy load caring for the Mission activities including the nine evangelistic workers, the school board with thirty-five employees, Radio VOAR with about seven full and part-time staff, five Literature Evangelists, the Book and Bible House and the administrative staff of seven. Those of us who have responsibilities all across the province and occasionally outside the area find real assurance knowing that the work back in the office is in consecrated, capable hands.

Laborers Together With God

"It was through your program and the books by Pastor George Vandeman I became conscious and convicted about the true Sabbath.

"Being of a different faith all my life, it was not easy. But I rejoice to think God in His kindness opened up this truth to me." R. J., Ontario.

This is a thrilling letter, and we rejoice with the writer. This person goes on to express appreciation for the evangelistic crusades and Bible correspondence courses.

It takes the cooperation of mass media programming, evangelistic crusades, Bible courses, pastoral and lay visitation, a good local church program and a true love for people to win a soul to Christ.

We read in I Cor. 3:6-11 — "I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ."

We are all working together to finish God's work. We must combine our effort, our talents, our money and our prayers. This pleases God.

When we uphold each other's hands, cooperate in each other's plans, God can produce a maximum increase.

It Is Written will be covering the complete Maritime Conference beginning with the September 10 telecast. Signing this contract is a monument of faith for a conference with so small a membership. But the people are thrilled and the conference is moving ahead. Let us all lend our support and our prayers.

Thank you for your continued prayers and support of the total program.

Health Ministry – Pork and Breast Cancer Go Together

by G. D. Strunk, Director, Adventist Health Ministries

"You are not to eat. . . the pig, for though it divides the hoof, thus making a split hoof, it does not chew the cud, it is unclean to you. You shall not eat of their flesh nor touch their carcasses." Leviticus 11:3–8 But why?

Evidence to vindicate one's course of faith may not always emerge during a lifetime but look at this one reported in the June '78 issue of Preventive Medicine.—

Japan has enjoyed an extremely low incidence of breast cancer when compared with other nations until recently. As many Japanese have adopted a Western diet high in meat, eggs, butter and cheese daily, their disease rates have increased especially in coronary heart disease and cancer and other diseases related to a high fat diet.

Those women in the higher socioeconomic strata where meat is eaten daily have 8.5 times more breast cancer than those in the lower socioeconomic strata. Fat intake has significantly increased along with deaths from breast cancer.

Year	Deaths	Fat Intake g/cap./day
1950	1419	18
1960	1683	25
1970	2486	47
1976	3346	52

Their daily fat intake is still only 1/3 that of U.S. and Canada. But our breast cancer incidence is 3–4 times that of theirs.

And note the correlation of dietary intake with Breast Cancer mortality:

Pork	0.895
Fat	0.842
Cheese	0.733
Animal Fat, Lard	0.675
Oils and Fat	0.628
Butter	0.626

Correlation does not mean cause. It only identifies an association. Those who eat larger amounts of these substances experience more breast cancer than those who don't, e.g. of 10 women who get breast cancer, 9 will be pork eaters, one will not. But is pork the cause or are fats the cause?

In a partial correlation study when pork was removed, the correlation between fat and breast cancer nearly disappeared. When fat was removed and pork remained (which is also fat), the correlation was 0.573. Very significant!

The intake of pork in Japan has increased 6.4 times between 1964–1973. So while a correlation exists between dietary fat and breast cancer "this association with dietary fat is satisfactorily explained by the daily amount of pork intake." p. 194

Is the increased fat consumption unimportant then? By no means! Fat is fattening! The risk of breast cancer was 12–17 times greater for tall, overweight women than for smaller or normal weight persons. That's a big indictment of obesity. The authors state "It is of urgent necessity to alert the government, the public, and individuals to the possible danger of excess dietary fat and resulting obesity". p. 190

The presence of AF2, a highly mutagenic chemical used as a food additive from 1965–1975, may have accelerated cancer incidence but does not mask the association referred to earlier. Incidentally, lung cancer and colon cancer was also increased!

So, what can we conclude from this kind of research when 142,857 women aged 40 years were followed for 10 years, that pork causes cancer? No, only that of every 10 women in this study who got breast cancer, 9 of them ate pork, while only one of them didn't, and if they were overweight, it could have been 17 to 1. It may not be the cause, but it certainly keeps close enough company with the cause that you can preach about it. It's good evidence!

The Voice of Prophecy Thanks You

L. R. Krenzler, Director Department of Communication

The Voice of Prophecy thanks you, the members of our churches all across Canada for the support that you have given during 1978. We came far behind in our budget for 1977 and were about to discontinue the VOP on many stations. It appeared that we would have to cut the program on probably 20 to 25 stations in order to meet the budget for 1978. However, your response to the appeal from the VOP early this year has changed the picture up to the present time. If the support continues as it has the first four months of this year, we may be able to keep all of our stations across Canada.

The donations that you make to the VOP from Canada are all used in Canada to buy time on radio stations and to support the Bible correspondence school names for Canada. We have appreciated your help so much and just want to say a big thank you.

You may be interested in some of the figures from the past few years:

	1974	1975	1976	1977	1978
January	$14,629.70	13,331.00	15,130.06	9,985.70	22,196.53
February	13,826.16	8,388.06	10,589.61	16,736.46	14,348.66
March	8,806.64	17,329.59	19,507.66	12,997.72	26,233.12
April	21,362.93	10,248.25	8,721.72	10,498.69	4,328.30
TOTAL	58,625.43	49,296.90	53,949.05	50,218.57	67,106.61

It is wonderful to see the response from our own people and also from the public who are listening to the VOP. We hope that the good support will continue and that the offering October 14 for the Voice of Prophecy which will be taken all over Canada, will be equally as good. With this kind of support we hope to be able to keep all our stations on in Canada.

Again, from Elder Dan Guild and Eldyn Karr of the VOP and myself, a great big thank you and God bless you.

Reflecting on the growth of the Voice of Prophecy from its beginnings in a chicken house nearly 50 years ago to the new offices at Newbury Park, California, are Fordyce Detamore, who joined the broadcast as announcer in 1942 when it went coast-to-coast and who began the Bible School; H. M. S. Richards, Jr., director-speaker; and H. M. S. Richards, founder and speaker emeritus. The church's radio broadcast moved to the new headquarters in June after 40 years in Glendale. The mailing address remains the same — Box 55, Los Angeles 90053.

Audiovisual Aids Available For Sabbath Schools and Lay Activities

The Sabbath morning lay activities period can be vividly enhanced by using a new audiovisual series designed especially for this important section of the worship hour which dramatically demonstrates how laymen can be effective soul-winners in their church.

A package presentation called "Witnessing Highlights" is an ongoing program consisting of 10-minute dramatizations combining color slides, cassette music, and recorded narration. Examples of successful evangelism by laymen are recounted, such as in "The Needles Story," a tale of personal witness in this California desert town that increased local church membership four times over. Another 10-minute drama is set in Hawaii called, "Danny Taka Lives". This is the story of his miraculous healing which ultimately resulted in 12 baptisms.

"Witnessing Highlights" are available through your local conference lay activities secretary.

Primary-age children can now listen to a narrated version of the stories which will be used at their next Sabbath School class.

Available on cassettes from Adventist Book Centres, these stories are directly tied to the primary-age lesson studies. Prior to each new quarter of lessons, these cassettes will be on sale. They were developed to augment each week's Sabbath School lesson. The stories are narrated by Kings Heralds bass Jim Ayres.

The first in a series of slide shows for Kindergarten have been developed to assist Sabbath School teachers in this division with their lesson study presentations.

The premier show, "Jesus Gives More Presents," promotes lesson materials from Kindergarten study helps to augment the teaching of the lesson.

Each show features 45 to 50 slides showing children in subject-related activities. A cassette audio program of music and narration accompanies the slides.

Other slide shows now available through the rest of this year are "Talking to Jesus," "Making Jesus Happy," and "Jesus Cares for Me."

Even small children can now quickly learn the songs they hear in Sabbath School by listening to a new record album now available in all Adventist Book Centres.

"Sabbath Songs for Tiny Tots" is the first record in a series which will be

Cooking School Instructors' Workshop

Forty-one delegates and their families attended the recent cooking school instructors' workshop held at Camp Keswick. These represented some of the teams which conducted over thirty cooking schools in Ontario during last year.

Mrs. Edie Logan from the Central California Conference was the featured speaker who demonstrated how to present a loving Saviour through a cooking school. She also showed how to create a thirst for the writings of Mrs. White as she shared glimpses from "the wife of one of our early ministers," or from "my friend Ellen White who wrote one hundred years ago. . . ." The audience demands a copy of the book and they are made available on the table at the close of the meeting for those who wish one.

Edie describes vegetarian foods as "whole, sound, fresh, and lively" as she presents the positive alternatives instead of "slaughter alley of meat eating".

Sabbath worship activities included a key-note address by Elder E. C. Beck, Ontario Conference President, and an unusual Sabbath hour worship service in which the delegates shared significant changes they had made in healthful living during the past year and in their lives. Sabbath School witnessed many persons searching their Bibles, both in preparation and in response to Bible Charades depicting health laws. The workshop was filled with new ideas for active participation on the part of audiences during cooking schools and other services.

The new "Taste of Nature" Cooking School Manual, which replaces the Century 21 Cooking School Manual, was described by Elder Strunk. This new format provides participant magazines with recipes, health information, and activities which are to be distributed to the people who attend our cooking schools. It has recently been published and is available throughout North America. Persons interested in obtaining an instructor's kit should contact their Conference Health Secretary, or write Concerned Communications, Box 700, Arroyo Grande, California.

Through the Spirit of Prophecy quotations presented, it became apparent that cooking schools are to do more than simply teach how to cook without meat. Through personal visitation of those who come, they are to become a means of winning souls for heaven. Through learning to discard unwholesome recipes and to replace them with healthful, tasty, delightful, vegetarian cuisine, they are to become a means of getting God's people ready for the kingdom of heaven.

Literature Evangelists' Rally at Kingsview Village Church

Recently, the Literature Evangelist team of the Ontario Conference enjoyed a spiritually refreshing rally at the Kingsview Village Church in Toronto. Elder B. M. Wickwire, Publishing Director of the General Conference, presented an enlightening report of our literature work around the world. According to him, there are over 21,000 workers engaged in getting the message before the people through the printed page. He explained that the Literature Evangelist is the only pastor many individuals will ever know as light flashes across darkened minds and spiritually hungry souls absorb the seeds of truth through the literature evangelist and his work. Elder Walter Ruba, Publishing Director of the Canadian Union, brought encouraging reports from across the country.

Our Literature Evangelist team here in Ontario now numbers approximately 60 regular and part-time workers not including over 100 students currently working in the field for the summer. Our team has accepted the challenge of delivering over $1,000,000 worth of literature this year. With the year just half over, we already have over $500,000 in deliveries at this point. Another encouraging factor is that the student program is just beginning which will boost our sales in a large way over the next three months. It now appears evident that we will not only reach the goal of $1,000,000 in sales but will go far beyond this figure. Our real prayer is that souls will find their way into the Kingdom in proportion to the number of books that are being delivered in the homes. We look forward to the day when thousands will be converted by tracing their first conviction back to the reading of our publications.

T. R. Knoll, *Publishing Director
Ontario Conference of S.D.A.*

Pictured here is the Literature Evangelist team of Ontario which led the world field in deliveries for 1977 and from all indications, will do likewise in 1978.

Update on the Ontario Conference Staff

By Craig Johnson, Communications Intern, Ontario Conference

Because of the dynamic work being carried on in Ontario some changes in office personnel have taken place within the last few months in the Ontario Conference office.

Taking the place of Kay York as director of the child evangelism centre is Mrs. Pat Bailey. Pat comes to her new position with a wealth of experience in the field of visual aids for children. She has served as a leader in children's groups for the past seven years here in Ontario. Her two children Fred 12, and Cheril Fay 9½, enjoy joining their mother in her hobbies that include skiing and creating visual aids for Sabbath School. Mrs. Bailey has already made a real contribution in traveling to different churches throughout the conference conducting V.B.S. and Sabbath School workshops.

Helping out with the secretarial work in the publishing department for the summer is Deirdre Benwell. Deirdre graduated with an A.S. in Office Administration from Southern Missionary College in May of this year. Born in Watford, England, Deirdre most recently moved from Poona, India where her father Wilfred was superintendent of the Oriental Watchman Publishing House for 11 years. Hoping to find employment in the medical field as a secretary, Deirdre enjoys sports, reading and sewing as hobbies. We wish Deirdre much success in life.

Keeping her boss on top of things in the Sabbath School and Lay Activities department is Ouvril Gill. Ouvril comes to the office from the West Toronto Church. Born in Guyana, South America, Ouvril immigrated to Canada in 1971. She has had secretarial experience both in denominational work and for the government. Her hobbies include table tennis, sewing, reading, writing and doing volunteer work in the field of crime and delinquency as a probation officer. She has a keen interest in evangelism and enjoys being active in church work.

With a dedicated and hard working staff the work will move forward in Ontario.

Thirteen Baptized at Barrie

IT IS WRITTEN Prophecy Crusade meetings by the Pollett evangelistic team were conducted at Barrie, May 20 to June 10.

The programs were conducted at the church building just south of Barrie, at Holly, on Hwy. 27.

The congregation and Pastor E. L. Anderson were pressed to get the new addition and renovations ready in time, however, the Lord blessed the efforts of all and a successful crusade was carried out.

The last Sabbath of the crusade, thirteen precious souls were baptized boosting the church membership to 60.

The Barrie congregation continues to move forward, and is budgeting for a future church school and organizing a Pathfinder club.

Ontario Pathfinder Camporee

Over 350 Pathfinders and staff representing 14 clubs converged on Sturgeon Woods Camp Grounds near Pelee Provincial Park for the annual Ontario Pathfinder Camporee on June 2-4.

Camporee canoe races thrilled everyone.

Eleven clubs were on time to welcome the Sabbath at the vesper hour Friday evening. Because of the long distance from Toronto, attendance was down slightly from last year and a few clubs were unable to attend. The Toronto East and Toronto Perth churches came by chartered bus.

It's always a healthy sign when a number of Pathfinders and staff say, "This was the best Camporee ever." Mrs. Allard, who rented the camp space to us, had almost a hundred other families in her camp. She said: "So many of my other campers have remarked to me about the nice youngsters and strong program you folks have. They just can't believe that so many hundreds of young people can be so well disciplined. They enjoy your program."

John Boardman, Publishing Director of the Maritime Conference, was ordained to the gospel ministry at an inspiring service at camp meeting on Sabbath, July 15, 1978.

Elder J. Boardman came to Canada in 1968 and worked as a Literature Evangelist and Assistant Publishing Director in the Ontario Conference. Since 1974, he has been Publishing Director and Temperance Secretary of the Maritime Conference. His dedicated service and fine spirit of cooperation is appreciated by the administration and the church members.

Maritime Pioneer Pathfinder Camporee

The holiday weekend of July 1 saw Pathfinders from 8 Maritime Clubs converge upon Camp MeVa on beautiful Northumberland Strait for their annual Pathfinder Camporee.

Once again rain drove the Friday-Sabbath nature and spiritual activities under cover. It was interesting to note that the Pathfinder's prayers were answered and rain stopped for each and every outdoor activity including flag ceremonies and inspections, only to resume upon their completion.

All activities and display booths centred upon the pioneer theme with 8 ft. log cabin foundations being laid, log tables being lashed, pioneer drags built, flint and steel fires started and water being carried with old fashioned pioneer neck yokes.

Special highlight of the Camporee was an Investiture service and the awarding of service stars to youth workers with five years of dedicated service. The Maritime Conference Youth Department thanks these and other consecrated workers seeking to make our church and its programs meet the needs of our young people.

10th Grade Graduation At Mount Arrowsmith

On Tuesday evening, June 6, 1978, in the Mount Arrowsmith Adventist School seven 10th graders graduated: Timothy Friesen, Gary Ganz, Gerald Haakmat, Peter Rodenbush, Kelly Stickle, Henry Walkus, Louisa Walkus. They had chosen as their Aim: To Reach The Heights, and their Motto: Prepare Today For Tomorrow, with a certain belief and idealism reflecting the integrity and efforts of their parents and teachers. Christian education is a meaningful and satisfying pursuit with special significance to the youth.

As the first strains of the piano sounded and the procession moved down the aisle, faculty, parents, and friends watched with happy satisfaction. Prayer was offered by Elder Todd Murdock, followed by a warm welcome from the principal, Mr. John Haakmat, along with an introduction of those taking part in the program.

After a baritone instrumental duet by Marc Stickle and Russell Nielsen, Elder C. Goertzen, Superintendent of Education for British Columbia Adventist Schools, gave the evening address. Said he: "This is the ditch-digging time!" He ably illustrated his message by telling the experience recorded in the Bible in 11 Kings 3:16.

The formalities followed: The Class response by Tim Friesen, the Dedictory Prayer offered by Elder John Popowich, a delightful choral number by the student choir with their principal as soloist, the Valedictorian's speech by Kelly Stickle, a speech by school-board chairman, Dr. Roland Stickle, presentation of certificates, and recognitions and gifts brought the program to a close.

The Class of '78, with the help of their fathers and friends, built an attractive fountain adjacent to the school building. This they presented in the hopes it would be but the beginning of a landscaping project.

Golden Wedding Anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Lamming

The Winfield Adventist Community Service Centre was the scene, recently, of the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lamming of Winfield, B.C. They renewed their marriage vows with Elder W. Streifling officiating.

On June 20, 1928, Oscar Lamming and Nellie McIntyre were married in Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McIntyre, the brides' parents. Their attendants, at that time, were Ena Avery and Carl Ableson, who also travelled from Sault St. Marie to attend them on their 50th anniversary.

The hall was opened to all friends and relatives who wished to congratulate Oscar and Nellie on their fifty years of marriage. A very interesting program was presented by the members of the family. Master of Ceremonies was Oscar's brother, Ernie Lamming. Messages of congratulations were read from the Premier of B.C.; the Lieutenant Governor of B.C.; and the M.L.A. for North Okanagan.

Present for the occasion were Oscar and Nellie's three children, 10 grandchildren, and 2 great-grandchildren and all of their brothers and sisters, coming from Ontario, Saskatchewan, California and various other places.

Neufeld Family Holds Large Reunion

Crescent Beach Bible Camp was the scene of a grand reunion during the weekend of June 23, 24 and 25, when the Neufeld family of Waldheim, Saskatchewan gathered together.

Of the thirteen children of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Neufeld, all but one are over sixty years old and now live in various parts of Canada and the United States. They congregated together with many nieces and nephews who had never met before and enjoyed volley-ball, swimming, a talent program and a skit of the wedding of Caroline and Dave Wiegel, who are celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary. Two other wedding anniversaries were honored at the reunion: that of Jake and Laura Neufeld, married 55 years and of Anne and Cecil Mayor, married 52 years.

Each couple had a bridesmaid from their wedding day attending the reunion. A newly-wed Neufeld couple were included in a presentation of gifts after which wedding cake was served. A miniature of the old Neufeld homestead had been set up for the occasion by Walter Neufeld of Surrey, B.C., and a worship hour was conducted by one of the family, Pastor Willis Clark of Lacombe, Alberta. Thirteen older generation Neufelds attended.

Farewell and Fellowship

On June 17, a beautiful sunny Sabbath, members of the Norwood, South Stukely and Abercorn churches gathered at Eben-Eden, site of Quebec's former S.D.A. junior camp. The occasion was an all-day meeting attended by some 100 people for fellowship and farewell. Pastor Werner Seidel and family who were to leave in a few days, have spent 7 years in Quebec — 4 with the South Stukely and Abercorn churches and the past 3 with the Norwood church. Mrs. Seidel taught at the Norwood S.D.A. elementary school and served as camp cook during the summer.

Pastor P. F. Lemon, Quebec Association president, preached the morning sermon. After a fellowship lunch, brother Ken Thorne of the Norwood church was ordained as a deacon. The final event of the day was the baptism of four people in the river on the property. Hazel Valdivia and Claudine Dupuis had made the decision to be baptized as a result of church school influence. Burton and Lynn Carson were converted due to the faithful witness of a brother. All 4 candidates joined the Norwood church.

As Pastor and Mrs. Seidel along with their 2 sons take up their responsibilities in the St. John and Barnesville churches of New Brunswick, we wish them the continued blessings of God.

Brenda Bond Kis
Longueuil, Quebec

Baptized by Pastor Seidel on June 17 at Eben-Eden were Hazel Valdivia, Claudine Dupuis, Lynn and Burton Carson.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

First Canadian Philosda Retreat

International Philosda Club held its first Canadian retreat at New Camp Fren- da June 9, 10, 11. Philosda is an organization for single, divorced and widowed people. Guest speaker Emilo Knechtle uplifted Christ to the 25 hungry souls that gathered in nature's scenery.

Many hearts were responsive to the Holy Spirit's influence during the weekend. It was a blessing getting to know everyone in the small group. Those who missed this event will be happy to know that another retreat will take place September 1-4. I.P.C. means International Philosda Club, but more than that it means In Preparation for Christ. We can not afford to miss this preparation and the fellowship of love.

I.P.C. would like to thank Elder Neville George for making this event possible. Philosda will meet the needs of those willing to take time to come and experience loving fellowship. Representatives were present from Michigan, Maryland, Virginia, South Carolina, Connecticut, Colorado and Ontario.

Signs is Best-Circulated Journal

Statistics just compiled by Pacific Press indicate Signs, the church's prophetic magazine, is the best-circulated journal per capita in the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Signs, which is marketed in the Canadian, North Pacific, Pacific, Northern and Central unions, is experiencing vigorous growth due to the recent subscription price reduction to $3.30.

With church membership exceeding 260,000 in the five unions and a press run of 368,000 copies monthly, the current circulation figures show 1.41 magazines are being sent each month on a per capita basis by every church member. The per capita figure, nearly double other Adventist journals, is expected to increase dramatically when projected circulation reaches .5 million in the next year.

Signs subscription information is available from the local church lay activities leader.

BOOK REVIEW

MALINKI OF MALAWI

(Destiny Series)

by Josephine C. Edwards

Malinki of Malawi

Josephine Cunningham Edwards

This is a story of the struggle of Malinki and his mother for their existence in Africa. But it is more than the struggle for existence; it shows the courage and strength of one born in slavery to forge ahead and make a better life.

Josephine Cunningham Edwards is no stranger to book readers. She has had over 32 books published. She and her husband were missionaries in Africa for many years. Her interests and hobbies are teaching, traveling, painting, writing, reading, swimming and many others.

Order from your A.B.C., $3.95, plus .50 for postage and handling.

released over the next three years, one each quarter. The album features a small vocal group including Jim McClintock, former bass of the Kings Heralds.

One parent of a three-year-old calls the record "the best he has ever heard for teaching youngsters because the melodies in each song come through clearly and are not overwhelmed by lavish orchestrations." His daughter could sing along on about half the songs on the record by the second day, he added.

THEY'RE OUT TO GET YOUR FAMILY.

The thieves. They're out to steal your family blind. Mediocre money management, the chills of child rearing, religious frustrations, marriage hassles—they're watching, ready to rob your family of its God-given gifts of peace, happiness, respect, and trust.

The Adventist Review realizes that you're not just playing a little game of cops and robbers, but are actively involved in a controversy between good and evil. That's why we want to help you meet these intruders head-on. Each week in the Review you'll find at least one article dealing with family living. Perhaps the author will show you how to make more sense of spending dollars. Or perhaps you'll discover more effective ways of melting the ice of adolescence freezing many parent-child relationships of today. The regular Review column answering Bible questions may give you the victory over a vexing, perplexing spiritual problem. Frequent articles dealing with the marriage relationship may help you to maintain or restore the two-part harmony your dynamic duet began with. This, and much more, is waiting for you in the Review.

Pick up a copy. When you read the Review regularly, you'll realize that it's more than a magazine, it's a message. A message of strength through faith in Jesus. A message of hope in His salvation. A message of peace and happiness for the Christian home.

The thieves. They're out to get your family. The Adventist Review will help you keep it.
