the voice of prophecy

September 1978

Dear Friend:

The Voice of Prophecy was one of the earliest religious broadcasts on radio. Thanks to God and His wonderful people, it has been communicating the gospel every week for 48 years.

Through all these years God's people have generously supported this radio ministry with their means and their deep interest and prayers.

Tens of thousands have found Christ and have joined with His people. They, too, are now looking for the return of Jesus. They, too, are now adding their generous gifts, opening doors for the Voice of Prophecy to purchase more hours of radio time, telling millions of people about the matchless Saviour.

Over every radio outlet that we can find funds for, the Voice of Prophecy tells hundreds about the Saviour's great love, providing hope for the hopeless, forgiveness for the despairing, peace for the troubled.

Your gift to the Voice of Prophecy on October 14 will make you an "under-shepherd" with Christ in His intense search for lost sheep in the Canadian Union.

This year, won't you ask God with all the sincerity of your heart to direct you as you plan your annual gift to the radio ministry.

Remember -- Radio Reaches People!

Yours in Christ's service,

V.O.P. Crusade Almost Triples Kenora Membership

When evangelist Joe Melashenko and crusade musician Norm Nelson of the Voice of Prophecy Evangelistic Association arrived in Kenora, Ontario, they saw the beautiful lake amid peaceful surroundings and were certain that a warm welcome awaited them.

It became evident, however, after their crusade began on May 6, that feelings of antagonism and prejudice were strong in the predominantly Catholic area. Their large crusade sign was cut and torn down on three different occasions.

Pastor Dennis Heintz and his wife, Marlene, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Seidel, and the handful of Adventists who met together in Kenora, had worked hard in preparation of the meetings. They arranged to air the Voice of Prophecy broadcast on station CJRL, mailed V.O.P. Focus on Living Bible enrollment cards to every home in the city of 10,000 and conducted community service projects.

Pastor Heintz and his wife had been sent to Kenora two-and-one-half years ago to start a church in this remote area of the conference. By the time of the meetings, Pastor Heintz felt certain that a number of people with whom he had studied would decide to join the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

It appeared that all the preparations might have been in vain when nightly attendance averaged only 17. Often the number would drop as low as seven. Pastor Melashenko commented, "At times it seemed more like a Bible study than an evangelistic series".

However, because the number of interests was small, crusade team members had more time to study and answer questions in the homes. Their efforts were rewarded when seven of those with whom they were studying decided on baptism and eight others took their stand for Christ.

As a result of the Voice of Prophecy crusade held in Kenora, Ontario, seven persons were baptized in Lake of the Woods during the last weekend of the four-week crusade. One month later three more interests were baptized. Friends, relatives, and church members gathered on Sabbath afternoon to witness the baptisms of— second row, left to right: Sandra Theriault, Denise Theriault, Sarah Borsfai, Denise Borsfai, Steven Borsfai, Tommy Borsfai, and Albert Halvorson. Pastor Dennis Heintz stands next to Albert. Voice of Prophecy evangelist, Joe Melashenko and his wife, Ann, kneel in the front row with a group of children.

On the last Sabbath of the four-week crusade, the baptism was held at Anicnabe Park on beautiful Lake of the Woods. Just a few days before that baptism there had still been ice in the lake. "That water was cold!" said Pastor Melashenko.

Following the crusade, a high school teacher from Kenora who was not a Seventh-day Adventist wrote to the Voice of Prophecy: "I feel compelled to write. I cannot put into words how much I was impressed with the quality of the meetings. Night after night these people radiated an enthusiasm and spirit of Christ that warmed the heart. Your local pastor, Dennis Heintz, and his wife also deserve commendation. They came through as very fine Christians who truly love the Lord."

Pastor Heintz conducted a Revelation Seminar two nights a week as a follow-up to the meetings. On July 15, three more people were baptized. As a result of the crusade, the number of Adventists in Kenora increased from six to sixteen. Eight of the new members attended their first camp meeting at Thunder Bay in August.

This fall, Pastor Heintz was transferred to Sault Ste. Marie. Pastor Jack Milmine has replaced him in Kenora to carry on the work that has begun there. With the success of the recent Voice of Prophecy campaign, it is anticipated that a company will soon be formed in Kenora and ultimately, a church that will be a light in the community.

Reaching People Across Canada

Gifts to the Voice of Prophecy from church members in the Canadian Union help to make possible a year-round evangelistic thrust through radio broadcasts, Bible courses, and crusades.

Nearly every person in the Canadian Union is within the coverage area of at least one of the 57 radio stations airing the Voice of Prophecy. Last year, one person of every 1,622 living in Canada applied for a Bible course from the V.O.P. and 1,011 persons graduated.

Baptisms of Voice of Prophecy interests last year totaled 3,781 in North America, and 163 of these were in the Canadian Union.

Reaching people with the hope of Christ's return is what the Voice of Prophecy is all about. The broadcast team invites members in the Canadian Union to share in this goal.

Manitoba-Saskatchewan Camp Meetings '78

S. H. Gallant Manitoba-Saskatchewan Conference

The main features of the Blackstrap camp meeting, from June 30 to July 8 were the Family Workshop with Dr. and Mrs. P. Strutz of Loma Linda, the Sabbath School Workshop with Elder Ben Liebelt from the General Conference and Elder L. R. Krenzler of the Canadian Union, a health lecture by Dr. and Mrs. G. Hoehn, and a series of Bible studies with Elder J. W. Lehman, Canadian Union Conference Revivalist.

At Clear Lake, July 15 to 18 the congregation had voted to hold the next year's camp meeting for the entire week.

Some of the guests at the Clear Lake camp meeting were: A. N. How, Secretary, Canadian Union Conference, J. W. Lehman, Revivalist, Canadian Union Conference, N. Matiko of the Voice of Prophecy, and R. Watts, President of the North Dakota Conference.

At both camp meetings the Russian-Ukrainian members gained a rich blessing with Elder Nick Trynchuk of the B.C. Conference as the guest speaker at Blackstrap, and Elder P. Samograd from Alberta at Clear Lake.

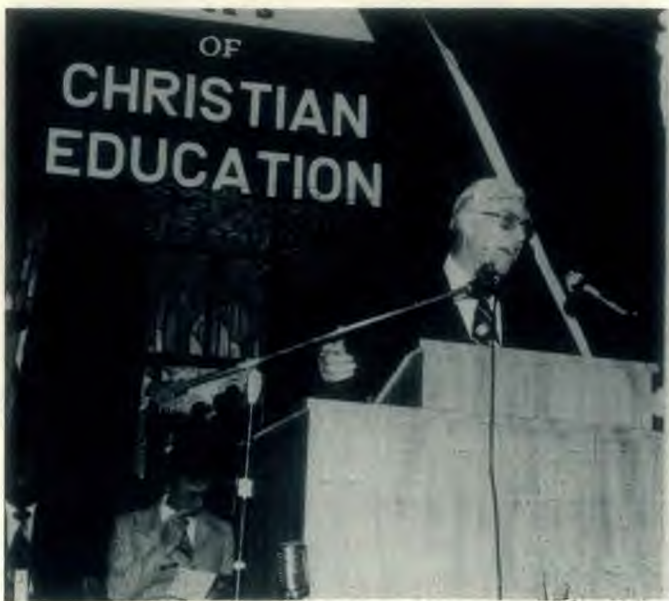

Ordination service for Elder Wilf Michaels was held on Tuesday evening. Elder Michaels has since accepted a call to Newfoundland, and will be pastoring in that Conference.

The tent where the main services were held, has become too small and will have to be enlarged next year.

The highlight of every camp meeting — baptisms. Elder Kenneth Schander, new pastor of Saskatoon Central and Beaver Creek churches baptizing two candidates.

Elder J. W. Lehman, Revivalist for the Canadian Union, gave all who attended spiritual counsel every evening.

Health Ministry — “What Is A Good Cook?”

by G. D. Strunk, Director Adventist Health Ministry

“WOW! Is she a good cook!” That’s what her guests said. That’s what the church members at the potlucks said. But now that she has cooked her way through two husbands both of whom died of a coronary it raises a provocative question, “What is a good cook?”

How would you rank in importance the following as the description of a good cook?

Nutritious
Tasty
On Time
Looks Delicious
Healthful
Economical
Big Spread

Let me suggest a ranking, beginning with the least important.

7. Big Spread — This of course implies an excess in quantity and variety both of which work counter to the development of a clear and balanced mind. (Read Counsels on Diet and Foods p. 258)

6. Economical — A good cook knows how to budget her kitchen, to use left-overs and to buy wisely. However, economy is usually overrated in importance, even to the point of making people “clean up their plate” and over eat in order to not waste food. If one over eats he undoes the correct purpose of eating, viz. for strength.

The house payment, car payment and other installments are usually fixed leaving the grocery bill as a variable. In order to save money many people skimp on the quality of food they buy. They may make money more important than the care of their lives. Good food is more important than a good house, a good car or saving money! (Counsels on Diet and Foods p. 409)

5. Looks Delicious — Placing this in fifth position doesn’t mean it’s not important. It just isn’t as important as the others. Good cookery makes food look good, taste good and be good. It is often said that digestion begins first in the mouth. But a little more experience reveals that digestion begins with the eyes. . . and the nose, and then we hope these are not disappointed by the tongue which brings us to —

4. Tasty — Even a blind person can enjoy good-tasting food which helps to rank taste over looks. Often less glamorous preparations can be redeemed by their tastiness. The greater importance of

Welcome To The Jack Friesen Family

The Jack Friesen family.

The Ontario Conference welcomes the Jack Friesen family to its working force. Jack is the assistant pastor of the West Toronto church and Malton company. He graduated from Canadian Union College in May of this year with his theology degree but had formerly been involved in the radio broadcasting work for nearly 15 years at different locations in Canada. His wife Mary Ellen (White) was born in Sarnia, Ontario. The Friesens have three children, Scott David, 9; Julia Dawn, 7; Tammy Angela, 6.

Jack's background in radio work should prove to be a tremendous asset to those pastors in Ontario wishing to work in radio.

Peninsula Federation In Paris

The Peninsula Community Service Federation meeting was held in the Paris S.D.A. Church with 35 delegates and friends in attendance.

Leaders in charge of the semi-annual federation meeting were Pastor L. R. Krenzler, Communication Director for the Canadian Union Conference, Mrs. Barbara Trupp, Federation President of Adventist Community Services of Ontario, Mrs. Lillian Dodd, Peninsula Federation President and Pastor O. Orpana, district pastor.

Elder Krenzler, speaking on the topic "What is a Christian?" gave an eye-witness account of the International Fair of Religion held in Montreal. There our church exhibit had the largest display eliciting much favorable comment by those who attended.

The secretary's report was read by Mrs. Pauline Hey and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Kathleen Bissett. It was noted that the $20 annual fee received from each society is building up to a goodly amount which may be called upon by any of the contributing societies in the event of an emergency.

Reports indicated thousands of hours of volunteer work, clothing, bedding, food, furniture, appliances and cash given to needy families in the communities represented.

A film entitled "No Choice" produced by the Seventh-day Adventist World Service (SAWS) was shown depicting the aid given by SAWS in recent disasters.

It was voted to hold the fall Federation meeting in Woodstock.

One It Is Written Call Wins Five

On May 25, 1978 Allan, Cathy, Lynn and Dean O'Malley were baptized into the fellowship of the Kingston, Ontario Seventh-day Adventist church by Pastor Al Webb. Two weeks later Jeffery Scales was also baptized. These 5 young people, three of whom were Catholics, were contacted a few weeks earlier by Pastor Al Webb when he called on Allan who had requested a set of Bible study guides through the It Is Written telecast.

Allan, Cathy, Lynn and Dean with Pastor Webb.

Pastor Webb and Jeff Scales.

On Easter Sunday, Allan, was visiting his father in Ottawa and watched the It Is Written telecast. He sent in for the book Day to Remember and later requested the Bible study guides. He received the books but not the guide sheets. It was not until some time later that Pastor Webb received the notice that he had requested the study guides and called at his apartment. Finding no one home he left his card with a note saying "I am sorry that I missed you. Please call if you are still interested in the study guides".

When Allan came home from work he found the card and didn't think too much about it. He said to himself, "I am really glad that I wasn't home". He had been trying to contact the S.D.A. minister and he didn't want to talk to anyone else (he wasn't aware that Pastor Webb was the local minister). The next day at work he prayed again that the Lord would send someone to teach him the truth. Something said "Call the number on that card". Later in the day he prayed again that God would send someone. "Call the number on that card," again came the answer. When he got home after work he called the pastor's number. He was very anxious to get the guide sheets and was even willing to come after them. He began asking questions which resulted in two Bible studies. Since it was prayer-meeting night Pastor Webb had to leave but promised to return. When he returned the rest of the young people were there for the Bible study which lasted until 12:30. It was resumed the next night and lasted until past midnight. And the next and the next. The five young people were in church that Sabbath and responded to a call for surrender at the close of the sermon.

Today Dean and Jeff are in Kingsway College to further their education. Allan and Cathy (now husband and wife) are looking forward to attending an S.D.A. college where Allan wants to study for the ministry. They are also busy sharing their faith with friends and several Bible studies have been started with friends and family members.

Owen Sound Church Organized

F. Irish, Pastor Owen Sound S.D.A. Church

On Sabbath, June 25, 1978, the Owen Sound Company was organized into a church with 35 members. Many friends and guests were present on this happy occasion.

Some of the friends and members attending the organization of the Owen Sound church.

After the Sabbath morning church service by Elder E. C. Beck, a fellowship meal was enjoyed by all at the home of Dr. George Sanz. Sister Audrey Hepburn had decorated a large cake with a Bible and Scripture in ornamental frosting, which provided a lovely centerpiece for the meal.

During the outdoor organization service in the afternoon, everyone was invited to give a birthday offering to be used in the building fund for the newly-born church. What a delightful surprise it was to find that the amount given came to over $2,800!

It is our prayer that the Lord will richly bless this newly organized "light in the community" and that the membership will continue to grow.

taste (and texture) is found by the body responses viz. the flow of digestive juices and the proper coordination of the muscle and nervous system involved in the reception of food.

3. On Time — Regularity in eating is sorely underrated in meal management. One can make himself ill with the very finest of foods taken too close together, taken before bedtime or taken irregularly. While some seem to evade the immediate physical consequences of irregularity in eating, the long-range effects will ultimately be experienced even if the cause is not accurately diagnosed.

But it should be remembered that our main purpose for food selection and food management is not just the avoidance of disease, but is for the development of Christian character with its fruitage of patience, love, even and quiet disposition and self control. These suffer when meals are not on time.

2. Nutritious. No, nutritious is not No. 1, nor is it equal with No. 1. Meat is very nutritious being high in protein, fat and minerals. But meat carries too many liabilities of which the excess protein and fat are a part. Food should be nutritious but should not possess risks. Sugar is nutritious by some definitions of nutrition and yet is a high risk food when taken in excess. That same definition of nutrition makes water and fibre of no nutritional value yet water and fibre are vital to health. Food should be nutritious but more important is No. 1.

1. Healthful — This one says it all! This is the larger term that embraces nearly all the other good descriptions of a good cook.

A cook who cooks wisely for health and longevity is a cook who cooks with responsible love and one who cooks to the glory of God.

Evangelism Through Across

Primary graduation — Rutland, B.C.

Learning new crafts

Teachers and students — Chatham, Ontario.

The Church in the Wildwood in East Kelowna was filled to capacity with children, parents, friends and helpers on the evening of July 13, as the children presented the closing programs of Vacation Bible School.

Some of the ladies were decorating the church when three young people came by. They came in and offered to help. It turned out that they had gone through the whole V.B.S. program and wanted to talk about the good times they had and how much they valued the lessons they had learned. It made it all worthwhile. For some children this is the only Christian training they will ever receive.

Under the leadership of Ruth Yarema a successful Vacation Bible School was held at the Nipawin church July 17 through 21. In spite of two other VBS's being held that week by other churches in Nipawin, the attendance at the Adventist church was thirty.

Another successful V.B.S. was conducted by the Moose Jaw church with 35 children ages 4—14 graduating. The closing evening program brought parents and friends together to witness a regular days activities with the exception of classes. Highlights of V.B.S. included a mystery box to reward those who brought a friend, a prayer garden and a story told by Pastor James each morning. The V.B.S. leader was Rhoda James assisted by eight faithful helpers.

The total number of children registered was 120, and of this number, over two-thirds were from non-Adventist homes in the Bowmanville Ontario area.

A unique attraction this year was a daily health feature. Puppets, slides and other visual aids were used by qualified instructors to impress young minds with the basic rules of good health.

Excellent planning by co-leaders Linda Toop and Dorothy Hayward and their staff, contributed to the overall success of a fine V.B.S.

Under the leadership of Sharon Burgess and a group of dedicated helpers, the Quill Lake church held a Vacation Bible School July 24—28 in the Quill Lake Elementary School with fifty children in attendance.

Chatham S.D.A. church enjoyed another successful V.B.S. program this year. Our attendance this year, as in past years was approximately 50 children and we are happy to report that we never had an advertisement campaign. The children love to come back year after year and bring their friends.

Previously we have held V.B.S. for only 5 days but decided to try it this year for 8 days. To ensure that we have enough help we have been holding V.B.S. in the evenings.

The Ryley church was the centre of much activity during the week of July 19 when the annual Vacation Bible School was held. Director Ruth Smith, with the help of many others, operated a well organized and very successful program. Approximately 45 children participated in the songs, stories and crafts. Friday evening, an excellent crowd of parents and friends were welcomed to the closing program.

Vacation Bible School at the South River Woodland Park Church opened July 24. This year it was under the leadership of Mrs. Carolyn Flowers who was assisted by a corp of willing helpers.

A total of seventy-seven children were enrolled with more than three quarters coming from non-Adventist homes.

July 17-21, proved to be a most rewarding week as 119 children of the community gathered for V.B.S. at Rutland, S.D.A. Church, under the direction of Mrs. Edna Gadd.

All programming was supervised by Pastor Don MacIvor and his wife, Ellen.

Included in the program was morning worship, inspirational songs, stories from the Bible and nature study. Many interesting and useful crafts were made under the guidance of Mrs. Norma Bevilacqua and helpers.

On Friday, August 4, 1978, Vacation Bible School closing was held at the Tantallon church.

For the 42 children enrolled, it was the end of an enjoyable week of activity and learning about our wonderful Friend, Jesus.

The program impressed those in attendance as the children's voices sang praise to the Lord and testified of their new-found knowledge. Let it be our prayer that these children will hold these truths close to their hearts and be ready to meet our Lord.

Mrs. Clarke Celebrates 96th Birthday

Members and friends gathered in the basement of the Hopewell Hill Seventh-day Adventist Church June 18, 1978 to extend birthday wishes to Mrs. Maude Clarke who would be celebrating her 96th birthday June 22.

After a fellowship supper, Mrs. Clarke was presented with a potted plant.

Congratulations and best wishes to Mrs. Clarke.

Ryley Baptism

The Ryley church recently had the joy of welcoming two more into church membership. Jenny Anderson and her mother, Mrs. Evonne Anderson were baptized by Pastor Johnson.

Showers of Blessings at Lloydminster

Members of the Lloydminster, Vermilion and Innisfree churches witnessed another beautiful scene on Sabbath, June 3, as three individuals went all the way with their Lord in baptism.

This was the last of a series of baptisms this spring in which six precious souls took their stand.

Sister Brown, a former Anglican Christian, gave an inspiring testimony as to how the Lord led her step by step into a fuller knowledge of His wonderful truth. Each one present was inspired to place more emphasis on soul-winning as a result of this testimony.

As we look back to the beginning of the work here in Lloydminster, in the fall of 1974, we can indeed see how the Lord has opened doors and hearts so His work could progress. The membership has grown from zero in 1974 to slightly over forty. We praise God for that. We thank each one of you dear folk who have been praying for Lloydminster and for the financial help, making possible a new church home which will be dedicated in the near future.

It is with some regret that my family and I leave this area to take up new duties, but we know that God will continue to bless and advance His work here. Continue to pray for the work in Lloydminster and may each one of us be inspired toward a new zeal in missionary activity that we may soon see this work finished and go home with Jesus.

Cooperation of a Layman and a Literature Evangelist Wins a Soul

On September 2, 1978, Miss Adora dela Cruz, who comes from a Church of Christ (Iglesia ni Cristo, Philippines) family background, was baptized by Pastor A. B. Reyes at Henderson Highway Church.

Her interest in the Adventist faith was kindled while working in an Adventist Nursing Home in Winnipeg, where the nursing service director, Mrs. Kwon, regularly gave her books by E. G. White and some missionary reading materials to study. Upon sensing Adora's interest in the Advent Message, Mrs. Kwon notified Pastor Reyes, a Filipino ordained minister who works for the Manitoba-Saskatchewan Conference as a fulltime Literature Evangelist. He wasted no time in inviting her to the Filipino religious meetings which he had been leading out in.

The Filipino Adventist group in Winnipeg exerted its efforts in winning Adora to the truth. Foremost of the members were Brother and Sister Juanito Arnesto, who untiringly paid her missionary visits and gave her Bible studies. Now Adora is very happy in her new found faith.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Your Memorial Gift Can Support Education In Canada

Memorial gifts can become an established source of regular support for the educational program in Canada. Many thoughtful people are honoring the memory of departed loved ones or a special occasion by sending memorial contributions to a college or university. In this way a precious memory from the past reaches into the future as it lives on and on through the life of a college or academy student. The families of those so honored are notified of the contribution and their names will be published in the Canadian Adventist Messenger.

In Canada we are raising funds that will benefit our educational program from coast to coast. This fund is held in trust by the Canadian Union Conference. When making memorial gifts, be sure to mark these "Memorial Gifts - Canadian Educational Program". You may designate the College or Academy of your choice in Canada.

We look forward to your response and thank you in advance for your thoughtfulness.

To date 151 It Is Written Revelation Seminars have been held in Canada, the United States, Hawaii, and Australia, with 41,000 people having attended. In Canada seminars have so far been held in Ontario, Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba and Saskatchewan. Those attending find these seminars to be a unique and exciting way to study the Bible. Lives have been changed, particularly It Is Written interests.

Church members are welcome, and urged to attend. The only requirement, aside from the registration fee, is that each member bring a non-member. Each member may bring as many non-members as he wishes; if as many as five, he may attend free.

All churches, even those from a distance, may develop a delegation to attend. You can be proud to invite your non-Adventist friends to a seminar of this kind. It is a plan that brings results. Churches all over are reporting substantial baptisms from the non-Adventists who attend.

It Is Written is seen in western Canada on the British Columbia Television System. ## Health Training Program

LOMA LINDA — A world centre for condensed one-week training programs in healthful living is the newest project of the Banning, California church, neighboring Adventist church members and Loma Linda University.

"We plan on our first session running from October 5 to October 12. These week long programs will cover the topics of diet, internal and external use of water, massage, exercise and personal evangelism through a health approach. They will provide opportunities for practical experience in technique in addition to theory," says Charles Thomas, PhD, associate professor of health science at LLU and one of the centre's coordinators.

Persons desiring more information about the health training centre may write to the Department of Continuing Education, School of Health, Loma Linda University, Loma Linda, California 92350.

BOOK REVIEW

SALVATION BY FAITH & YOUR WILL by Morris Venden

"In my years of ministry I have encountered one particular question again and again: 'How do I use my will and my willpower in living the Christian life? What about the question of known sin? Where does my human effort end and where does God's divine power begin?'"

"Some of us have studied this frustrating—though rewarding—question for years. We have even at times felt tempted to scrap the whole study, but always we've been drawn back to it because of its unresolved questions."

"The subject of the will contains a strange paradox. It is simple, and yet for many it is difficult. In the days of Christ the 'good' people rejected its impact, but 'sinners' welcomed it with joy. Spiritual death awaits those who misunderstand the subject. Those who grasp it find the secret of victorious Christian living."

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

An extremely popular speaker, Morris Venden has wrestled with the simple, yet complex, issues of salvation through faith. He has been a leader in bringing the vital topic before the attention of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.
