70 Years of Ingathering Evangelism 1908-1978

What a tremendous blessing Ingathering Evangelism has been for the past 70 years to God's church!

Think of the thousands of souls that have found Christ.

Think of the millions of dollars that have strengthened and extended God's work at home and abroad.

Let us make this 70th Anniversary year the most outstanding year for God in souls reached and funds raised!

Within every human breast is a heart longing for peace and happiness — to know God.

What a golden opportunity is ours during our Ingathering campaign to help fulfill man's reach out for God!

As we contact every home for God, let us leave a bit of heavenly sunshine while extending an invitation to all to receive God's free gift.

Souls will be saved because we have invited people to drink at the fountain of "Living Water".

A Message From The President . . .

Some have already finished. Many are deeply involved. While others have just begun. Some have not yet joined either of the three groups. But this is for everybody! Yes, it is INGATHERING time again. How quickly the months have slipped away!

In this annual visitation program the soul-winning contact is of greatest importance. Behind the doors of many homes that will be visited are sorrows and heartaches which only Jesus can comfort and heal. You are His representative to bring the needed hope and cheer. Angels will accompany you in your visitation.

Through the INGATHERING campaign a very substantial amount of money is raised to support the Lord's world-wide work. Much depends on these vital funds, most of which is raised in small donations.

Thank you for what you have already done, as well as for what you will do. God's reward to you is sure on your dedication and service.

May you see souls in God's heaven as a result of your efforts, and have much joy and success in your service now.

Ingathering Evangelism – A Way to Find
The Poor In Spirit

A lady called at the S.D.A. church in Kelowna asking to speak to the pastor or have him visit her. Pastor Don MacIvor went to visit her. He was welcomed cordially and taken into the home and asked to sit down. This lady stated that she was a good Catholic as were the other members of the family and she didn't know if she was doing the right thing or not. At this point the conversation moved to some other things and shortly she came back and repeated the statement that she didn't know if she was doing the right thing or not. Pastor MacIvor casually said, "Madam, why did you call for a minister of the Adventist church to come and see you?" She replied that she felt empty; her family felt empty. They felt they were not securing sufficient spiritual help and guidance to carry them on, and they were desperately looking for spiritual help from somewhere.

Pastor MacIvor then prepared to give her a simple study from the Bible on God's available grace. He quoted a text and then asked the lady if she wouldn't mind bringing her Bible from which she was going to read the texts. The lady got up and went to another room supposedly to bring back her Bible. What she came back with was the current Ingathering magazine. She said to Pastor MacIvor, "Please don't take this from me, it is the only Bible that we have". Of course Pastor MacIvor filled in with his Bible and made arrangements for continued spiritual help for this family. It is hard to imagine this experience happening in Canada in 1977, but it did. It just shows how careful and how faithful we should be in every Ingathering contact. Souls are looking for hope, faith, for something they can believe in, for someone they can turn to, and may God grant us grace to fulfill this desire in each of our Ingathering appointments.

Ingathering Evangelism – A Challenge To A New Church

In Fort McMurray the Ingathering per capita raised was $253.58. Ingathering has never been done before in the town of Fort McMurray. It is the new town in northern Alberta where oil is being produced from the Tar Sands. The church membership has grown to 55 members. Last year was the first time they decided to go Ingathering. As they were still a company they were not given an Ingathering goal. The pastor suggested $250.00. A Sabbath School and church service was the kickoff for their Ingathering campaign. The thought was expressed that every home should be visited. The church members supported this idea and the whole town was covered. Before the end of the campaign $4043.00 was raised. It is interesting to note that in Fort McMurray one of the ladies contacted during the Ingathering campaign has already been baptized. Certainly the Lord blesses and leads in all these endeavors.

Yellowknife shows a per capita of $145.00 raised, but it was actually much greater than that because many of the church members have moved away. With the aid of Pastor and Mrs. Conran the six church members went out in 45 degree below zero weather. These folks were able to raise $3308.03 in just the week before Christmas. This certainly shows the blessing of God and their determination to serve Him even under trying circumstances and very cold weather.

Ingathering Evangelism – Establishing a Contact With Our Neighbors

In Newfoundland friends of the church give almost $30,000 each year to the Seventh-day Adventist Annual Ingathering Appeal. Thousands of homes and hundreds of business offices are contacted during the campaign. It only takes a few calls to discover a home where a return visit would be greatly appreciated. We promise ourselves that we will keep up the contact, but often we've forgotten these precious opportunities and have returned only when it's Ingathering time again. You will find lasting enjoyment from your Ingathering visits if you keep an accurate record of the names, addresses and other helpful details of these friendly people. A card, letter or phone call and better still regular visits would soon lead to a request for Bible studies or the opportunity to invite these new friends to church services or evangelistic meetings. We are sure that if we follow this method in our 1978-79 Ingathering Appeal that God will help us to find many precious souls for His Kingdom.

Ingathering Evangelism — Telling The Community About The Work Of Our Church

The Tusket Seventh-day Adventist church in Nova Scotia has four members. They have their own church on Highway 3 in the village of Tusket. Attendance averages five or six adults and five or six children. Their Ingathering goal is $200.00. Only two members are able to go Ingathering but they go out faithfully. Vivian Sweeney and her son Murray enjoy their work. They have many good contacts, and some not so good, but all in all they are respected in the community.

Forty years ago Mrs. Sweeney and Barney Little Ingathered the community and raised a total of $2.82 but faithful contact with the people has brought about local support. Last year they received from their friends $548.00. Ingathering has already begun at Tusket this year and Mrs. Sweeney and her son Murray are expecting God to bless them as abundantly as He did last year.

Ingathering Evangelism — A Way To Spread The Gospel

I can only say, "Praise the Lord" for the way the members of the Man.-Sask. Conference as a dedicated church, have gone forward in faith. The willingness of every member to do his share plays an important part in our Ingathering campaign. We must not only pray for success, we must work for it! The Lord will lead us to the doors of those who are willing to give towards God's cause.

One of our members contacted a businessman last year who gave a $50.00 donation and also requested a Bible. The church member purchased a leather-bound Bible and gave it to the businessman at Christmas time. During a visit this year, the same businessman thanked the church member for the gift and said that he would like to double the amount he gave last year.

We thank God for blessing His people, and the Holy Spirit for moving upon the hearts of those who gave. May God bless your endeavors throughout this year's Ingathering campaign.

Ingathering Evangelism — Paves The Way For The Saving Of Souls

Three years ago the Quebec City church moved into a new location. The Ingathering campaign was the best way to meet our new neighbors in the area. The church members rallied to the task and visited all the homes in the neighborhood of the church.

God Promises

I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight (Isa. 45:2).

Neither be afraid (Isa. 44:8).

Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you (Matt. 20:4).

Ask, and it shall be given you (Matt. 7:7).

Therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, that I am God (Isa. 43:12).

He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways (Ps. 91:11).

Every one that asketh receiveth (Matt. 7:8).

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven (Matt. 5:12).

I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places (Isa. 45:3).

Nothing shall be impossible unto you (Matt. 17:20).

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations (Matt. 28:19).

For most of the church members this was a new experience. They reached their goal and passed out much literature with the new address of the church. They talked with the people, they invited them to visit our new place of worship. Little did they know then that their efforts would not be in vain. The first Ingathering campaign in this new area was paving the way for EVANGELISM.

The Il Est Ecrit T.V. program was doing its part in reaching the hearts of men and women right in their homes. The months went by and the seeds were germinating underground. In the spring a week of spiritual emphasis was announced and all the neighbors were invited. They came morning and evening. They listened to the message of hope in Jesus Christ. After the meetings some of them kept coming faithfully to the church services. Among them was Denis Fortin, a young man born in the same neighborhood eighteen years before. He had received the Ingathering pamphlet. He had listened attentively to Pastor George Hermans on T.V. He had attended all the Easter campaign meetings and had responded to the voice of God. He did receive the instructions and was baptized in August 1977. He integrated the ranks of our active church members.

On Wednesday August 30, 1978 with two other young men he left his home town, his home church, his family. His destination: Canadian Union College, His Goal: The Ministry, His Dream: The saving of souls in the Belle Province of Canada.

Does Ingathering pay? Yes it does! Do your part and the Lord will do the rest. Ingathering will pave the way for the SAVING OF SOULS. Try it this year — it works!

Ingathering Evangelism — Finding Those Who Hunger And Thirst For The "Water Of Life"

Ingathering '77 proved to be a tremendous blessing to the Toronto East Church in terms of souls contacted and won to the Saviour. Under the energetic lay leadership of Jerome Gregg, the program was successfully launched with the clear admonition to search for souls "on the verge of the kingdom, waiting only to be gathered in".

In separate contacts Jerome Gregg and Thirza Davis, a star Ingatherer at Toronto East, found several families whose hearts were hungering and thirsting after righteousness. They immediately enrolled them in the "Bible Says" course. Faithfully our laymen visited these families week after week praying with them and answering their many questions.

Right about this time Pastor Rupert Young was commencing to hold an Easter Revival Week at the church. The families were invited to attend. They came and were thrilled with the story of the cross and the hope of the resurrection. At the end of the week seven of these precious souls took their stand for the truth and were baptized with three more following shortly thereafter.

One year previous to this thrilling experience Ingathering contacts had brought eleven individuals into the Toronto East Church.

Whatever funds God needs to finish His work - His Spirit will impress the people to give.

Conferences Establish Education Boards

M. Graham, Associate Director Educational Department

Most local conferences of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada have substantially to the development and upgrading of the continuously expanding Christian of these boards include conference officers, superintendents of education and their associates, members of the conference committee, laymen from various professions and trades, school board committee chairmen, teachers and pastors.

Duties of the board include long-range planning for the conference's education program, approval of educational budgets, school staffing, school evaluations, approval of the school calendar, approval of applications for starting new schools, assuring that the education program fulfills the aims, objectives, and policies of the Seventh-day Adventist education program in Canada, etc.

In a short period of time the newly established Education Boards have contributed substantially to the development and upgrading of the continuously expanding Christian education program of the S.D.A. Church in Canada.

The agenda of a recent B.C. Conference Education Board meeting gives an insight into the practical work being accomplished by education boards. The board discussed and acted on a number of items including approval of teachers appointed to serve the conference's school for the school year 1978-79, approval of two new schools to be opened for the 1978-79 school year, the school calendar, the school evaluation schedule, summer school assistance for teachers in the process of upgrading their certification, and bursary requests.

Reports were considered, recommendations made, and a committee appointed in respect to plans for a boarding academy.

Association of Seventh-day Adventist Nursing Homes of Canada Meets at Blackstrap

The Association of Seventh-day Adventist Nursing Homes of Canada met in convention at the Blackstrap Health Centre outside Saskatoon, Saskatchewan on September 12 and 13. Forty-seven administrators and department heads of extended care facilities from Winnipeg to Vancouver Island were in attendance. Mutual problems, concerns, and new ideas were shared.

A variety of topics, including "Dressing for Success", "Decision Making", "Communication", "Risk Management". "Lifestyle and the Importance of Healthful Living" were covered. W. H. Wilson, Associate Director, Department of Health, General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists; Dr. Dan Klein, Chairman, Department of Physical Education, Andrews University, and Clayoma Soloniuk, Manitoba-Saskatchewan Conference, were the guest speakers.

The program, which combined lectures with recreational activities such as swimming in the pool and volleyball in the gymnasium of the Health Centre, was an invigorating experience for all in attendance.

New President elected to the Association's administration for 1978-79 is Ed Gallant of West Park Manor Personal Care Home.

Branson Hospital Has Nutrition Booth At Canadian National Exhibition

The North York Branson Hospital Dietary Department's participation in the Centenary celebration of the C.N.E. was a big success! Our booth attracted throngs of people — no less than two thousand each day. The people who came were not only from the various provinces in Canada, but from Australia, Germany, England, Scotland, Ireland, Greece, Italy, Austria, Mexico, Bahamas, Holland, Denmark and the United States.

Health and nutrition messages were relayed to the public by way of posters, fruit, vegetable and food displays, jingles, pamphlets, magazines and other varieties of printed materials. The printed materials and magazines were assembled into kits to cover the various age groups. Types of kits were distributed to groups or individuals as was seen fit for them. This was decided by the dietitian. A dietitian, upon speaking to the inquirers, also gave professional counsel and answered queries with scientifically documented facts and information on nutrition.

The lay people were not the only beneficiaries of what was done — professionals such as physicians, dentists, dietitians, home economists, teachers, and health educators were glad to receive the prepared information handed out. The public had a taste of our nutritious and famous "carrot cake". They also had a sampling of the vegetable proteins which aroused their curiosity about the use and availability of these substitutes.

The display of various types of grains, nuts, legumes and by-products of the soy-bean, motivated people to ask about the possibility of using these in place of the conventional sources of protein and the method used in preparation.

The nature of inquiries regarding clarification on various aspects of nutrition, leads us to believe there still is an out-cry for the public to be given further basic education on nutrition. There are so many misconceptions, food fads, fallacies, and hang-ups which alert dietitians and those involved in nutrition education to set up some type of continuing education program in their own communities.

The response of the public was most encouraging. Mrs. Elsie Sokol, who planned, organized and directed the 17-day project, informs us there were forty volunteers who donated their time so that important health information and food samples could be made available to the public.

Although the project demanded a strenuous and hectic schedule on the part of Mrs. Sokol, her staff and volunteers, it was a project worth getting involved in. 213,000 pieces of literature and 68,000 food samples were distributed, besides hundreds and hundreds of personal questions answered.

We all feel that we have filled an existing need — that of disseminating nutrition and health information to as many as could be reached. To all those involved it was a most rewarding and a satisfying experience.

Health Ministry – Your Health Is In The News

by G. D. Strunk, Director
Adventist Health Ministries

Several recent articles carried in newspapers and magazines in Canada and the U.S. have mentioned Seventh-day Adventists as living longer and having less disease. These articles are based on studies comparing Seventh-day Adventists with the average population.

One such study using 50,000 California S.D.A. church members showed that Seventh-day Adventists, age 35 and over, during a 7 year period, had a death rate from all causes of death of only 59% of the average population. For lung cancer it was 20% and for cirrhosis of the liver 13%, for digestive tract cancer 65%, coronary heart disease 55%, and peptic ulcer 42%. These are just a few samples of many more reported to illustrate the lower death rate enjoyed by Seventh-day Adventists.

These figures mean something to the world! It isn't easy to find a group of people in the Western world living the way they're supposed to, enough at least, to produce favourable statistics. The world is looking at Seventh-day Adventists. As they behold a better way of living they are drawn to inquire. "They will reason that if we have such sound ideas in regard to health and temperance, there must be something in our religious belief that is worth investigation. If we backslide in health reform we shall lose much of our influence with the outside world." Evangelism p. 514.

The Seventh-day Adventists studied were a cross section of average Seventh-day Adventists. It included those recently converted. The church statistics, therefore, inherited those who had been smokers or drinkers and who had followed an unwholesome diet. The statistics were still impressive.

Imagine how much better it would appear if we were all living to the glory of God and what an effect health reform, when followed, would have on our evangelistic work. That is why we need to take inventory of our habits. For the sake of others. "A demonstration of the principles of health reform will do much toward removing prejudice against our evangelistic work." Counsels on Health p. 497.

With such statements as the following appearing in print, we need to take inventory of "the little foxes" in our daily habits. It may be that we more than circumstances are responsible for our diseases. And it may be that we can improve our influence with the world. Read on.

"As much as 80% of cancer is now considered preventable, and two factors by themselves may account for 90% of the preventable potential. They are stopping smoking and getting on a good dietary program." Life & Health Cancer Prevention Special, 1978.

"A vegetarian diet can prevent 90% of our thromboembolic disease and 97% of our coronary occlusions." Journal of American Medical Association, June 3, 1961.

These statements indicate that a very high proportion of the major killer diseases, heart disease and cancer, are preventable. They also serve as vindication of the kind of dietary program that our Lord has specifically described for us, His people, to follow in these last stressful days; not just for our personal welfare and comfort, but as a means of glorifying God's ways before a watching world.

First Caribbean Family Camp Held in Alberta

"This was the best weekend of my entire life." "I'm told that heaven will be a place of complete happiness and after enjoying myself this weekend, I sure don't want to miss going there." These were some of the numerous positive remarks heard at the first Caribbean Family Camp held at Foothills S.D.A. Camp in Alberta from September 1-4, 1978. God had answered our prayers and the weather was exceptionally good.

Our sincere thanks go to Pastor St. Clair Kydd who pioneered this venture.

He was assisted by representatives from Edmonton and Calgary.

Friday vespers was held in the youth auditorium and shortly a Caribbean atmosphere hovered over the entire camp.

Our Sabbath school leader was Sister Cynthia Campbell. The mission report was by Sister Connie Arnold of South Africa, now residing in Calgary. A most interesting Sabbath school lesson was led by Brother Edson Phipps.

Pastor Kydd was the speaker for the divine worship and spoke about "The Life of Christ". This topic was continued at the Sabbath vesper hour.

Sister Daphne Poter was leader of the children's division and was assisted by Sister R. Riffin and Sister G. Thompson.

After lunch we were busy preparing an M.V. program under the leadership of Sister Bertha Ferrance. What a program it was! Have you ever sat through or participated in a 3-hour-long M.V. program?

On Sunday and Monday morning, Pastor Kydd spoke on "The Two Adams" and "How To Deal with Temptation", respectively. These topics set the tone for a pleasant day.

Recreation included games of cricket and soccer, a hay ride and horseback riding.

Sixty-five adults and sixty-one children were registered. Approximately thirty other West Indians visited the camp and participated in various activities.

What a reunion it was to have Pastor and Mrs. Emm with us! He had pastored churches in England, Ontario and Calgary, which some of our West Indian brethren had attended.

Our sincere thanks to the Alberta Conference for allowing us to use the camp.

Duncan Church School Under Construction

Three dedicated men enlisted their services for the beginning of the Duncan Church School, located on Gibbons Road in Duncan.

Mr. Fred Fox is the head deacon, and ably does the chain-saw requirements. Mr. Charles Turner is superintendent, and Mr. F. Johnson is a teacher.

The work of these laymen is greatly appreciated as they see ahead to the time when the little Duncan S.D.A. School will be completed.

Wagners Celebrate 60 Years of Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wagner recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary in the Fellowship Room of the Rutland S.D.A. Church.

Elder Don MacIvor gave a prayer for the happy couple and they were entertained by several musical and poetical tributes by some of their many friends who attended.

James Wagner was born near Bridgewater, Nova Scotia. In 1918 he was called into the Canadian Army, but because of his loyalty to the Sabbath, he was court-martialed and sentenced to two years in Lethbridge jail. Here he faithfully witnessed for the Truth. At the end of six weeks he was released and sent back to Calgary to be placed in the Medical Corp. When the war ended, he and his wife, (the former Amy Henderson) both enrolled in nurses training courses at Alberta Sanitarium Bowness Park, Calgary.

After graduating in 1921, they worked at Paradise Valley Sanitarium in California after which they attended Pacific Union College.

Returning to Canada, they resided near Sidney, Vancouver Island, until the end of World War 2, when they came to the Okanagan Valley to enable their children to receive education at Okanagan Academy.

James Wagner spent 17 seasons in colporteur work, and his wife Amy, was busy with Dorcas welfare work, the Red Cross blood donors clinic and served also as church secretary for many years.

The Wagners built their own home where they are still active and healthy. Brother Wagner is now 87 and his wife 80. They attribute their long life and good health to vegetarian living. They are looking forward to the coming of Jesus when there will be 'perpetual youth'.

Victoria Has "Newsletter"

A general NEWSLETTER is prepared by a Newsletter Committee of the Victoria church and each four to six weeks is ready to give out or mail out to all members on the church list. The church NEWSLETTER is a marvelous media to keep all the church family up-to-date with the functions, plans, reports, etc., from various departments and activities in the church program.

For a closer fellowship within the church family and with each other, the Victoria church has also founded a Koinonia. Koinonia is prayer study, friendship groups which have been formed whereby members can visit, call upon others for help, for themselves, or for others for whom they have a burden. Koinonia helps members keep in touch to share and bear each others' burdens and joys throughout the week.

B.C. Camp Meeting Under a Renewed Roof

B.C. church members praised God in their re-located and renovated auditorium at new Camp Hope this year.

The project of moving the auditorium from the old site and the making of renovations to accommodate the growing number of attenders, kept pastors and volunteer workers in high gear until only a few hours before the opening message of President A. W. Kaytor, Friday evening, August 5.

But there was "joy, joy, joy, when the work was done" and God's people gathered hour after hour to enjoy His spiritual blessings through the messages of His servants.

Canadian Union Revivalist, W. Lehman, used the Biblical marriage covenant metaphor to broaden our understanding of God's love relationship with us. R. S. Watts deepened our knowledge of prophecies in the book of Revelation. Inspiration came from Elders C. D. Brooks, G. R. Thompson, and Don Neufeld of the General Conference, to mention only a few.

Although camp meeting attenders, inspired by the Word and the natural grandeur of Camp Hope, looked forward to next years spiritual feast, they trust also that soon their annual convocations will be interrupted by the great gathering soon to take place on the Sea of Glass.

Alex Ramsay, *Director
Department of Communication
B. C. Conference of S.D.A.*

The Taiwan Children's Choir received a standing ovation as Adventist believers broke tradition and stood clapping in an effervescent attempt to show their spiritual love and appreciation for their young brothers and sisters who live across the sea.

Thirty minutes of inspiration through music was a much enjoyed feature from 7:00 to 7:30 p.m. as part of each evening meeting.

Dr. Herb Domke discusses the health topics which were presented in work-shop fashion each morning and afternoon.

Elder Don Neufeld's in-depth studies resulted in many personl camp ground discussions.

On warm days youth enjoyed the refreshing water of Camp Hope's outdoor swimming pool.

Special Weekend at Keswick

Labor Day Weekend marked the last official program for the summer at Keswick Adventist Conference camp. This special weekend meeting featured Elder Smuts van Rooyen and Elder Don Jacobsen from Andrews University. The weather cooperated and the entire weekend was a beautiful indication of God's love and care for us. The meetings began on Friday evening and continued through Monday morning with ample time provided for recreation and relaxation. Several hundred were in attendance during the Sabbath hours and all of those who were at the retreat went away feeling blessed.

Next year another Labor Day weekend special will be planned with the same calibre of speakers leading out. Plan now to attend next year's special event.

Human Potential Seminar For Literature Evangelists Held at Keswick

Doctor Herman Johnson and his associate, Newton Hoilette, of Andrews University recently conducted a Human Potential Seminar at beautiful Camp Keswick. Such Seminars have been conducted for Administrators, Teachers and Pastors but this is the first program of this type to be conducted specifically for Literature Evangelists. Although the program was based upon Human Potential, the true foundation was the God-given initiative within each one to succeed in the task God has given him to do. The real theme of this week-long seminar was "The secret of success is the union of Divine Power with human effort". Patriarchs and Prophets, p. 509.

The Literature Evangelist team in Ontario wishes to express its deep appreciation to Andrews University and for the insights shared by Dr. Johnson and Brother Hoilette. Many expressed that they would never be the same after going through this experience together. The intellect was sharpened, the desire to succeed was multiplied, and every person in attendance left with a keen desire to finish the task to which he had been called. Certain thoughts expressed will live forever within the minds of those in attendance such as "Whatever you vividly imagine, ardently desire, sincerely believe and enthusiastically act upon; will inevitably come to pass". It was meditation upon themes like this which inspired our literature evangelist team in the three R.R.'s, Re-evaluation, Re-dedication and Re-direction.

Ground Breaking for Bowmanville Church

The evening of September 18 was a happy occasion for the Bowmanville congregation as they witnessed the ground breaking ceremonies for their future church. Local government officials were present to assist church leaders for this special event.

Church leaders taking part in the sod-turning included Elders Laverne Krenzler and Lewis Shipowick of the Canadian Union; Elder Marvin Suiter, treasurer of the Ontario Conference and Elders Harry Sackett and Gordon Pifher of the College Park church. David Toop, pastor of the Bowmanville church, welcomed guests to the ceremony. Len Leatherdale, chairman of the Building Committee, introduced the guests taking part in the program.

Some 80 charter members organized in June 1976, and have been meeting weekly at St. John's Anglican Church since that time. The congregation presently numbers around 120 and expects to see the church finished in April or May of 1979.

The church complex will consist of a unique hexagonal sanctuary seating 285 and a wing containing a pastor's study, four classrooms, assembly room, kitchen and library. All will be situated at ground level.

It is the desire of every member that a place of worship be erected which will be a lighthouse in Bowmanville to the glory of God's name.

Paris News

Motivated by principal, Doug Hosking, parents, teachers and pupils are all working very hard raising funds for much-needed equipment and building improvements. Several of the boys and girls took on sales jobs, selling cleaning products and citrus fruit.

In the past year the Home and School Association and the Brantford and Paris church members united their efforts, which has resulted in much better financial picture for our Paris church school.

September 9 this year was a happy day for Rodney Joseph and for his classmates at the two-room school in Paris. On that beautiful sunny Sabbath, Rodney was baptized in Whiteman's Creek, Brantford, by Pastor Orpana. His teacher, Brother Doug Hosking felt very happy and grateful to God as he presented the certificate of baptism to his student.

Victory at Thunder Bay

When Pastor Don Donesky arrived in Thunder Bay recently to assume the responsibility of district pastor he found a letter from the Mayor's office that prohibited the Seventh-day Adventist Church from engaging in house-to-house solicitation. Immediately, Pastor Donesky, a strong advocate of religious freedom recognized that a decision like this could only be based on a misconception of our Ingathering program and ignorance of the history and scope of our world-wide work.

Arriving at the Mayor's office for an explanation, Pastor Donesky was refused the courtesy of an interview with this city official. However, persistence and prayer paid off. Laying his plans of approach carefully, Pastor Donesky won the support of many government officials and other influential people so that his next visit to the Mayor's office met with a friendly reception. To the appointed commission he outlined the traditional standing of the church in the community; touched on the matter of religious liberty and showed that we are supporters of government services and concerns with a Bible-oriented injunction: faith in God, which no government provides. The commission listened attentively and respectfully being deeply impressed, and thanked Pastor Donesky for taking the trouble to interrupt his busy schedule to pay them the courtesy of such a visit.

A later communication from the city officials carried an apology and indicated full approval of our work in the city. For this victory in Thunder Bay, we thank God.

First Youth Congress in Quebec

On September 2, 1978, around 300 people came together in Montreal for another "first" in Quebec S.D.A. history. Organized and promoted by Pastors P. F. Lemon and M. M. Kis, youth director and associate youth director respectively for the conference, the congress was a racial, cultural, and linguistic mixture of people seeking unity in the Lord. Banners above the platform proclaimed in both French and English the message "One in Christ".

Elder and Mrs. John Hancock and Elder and Mrs. Bill Edsell and daughters were special guests for the day. Elder Edsell, Canadian Union Youth Director, presented the Sabbath School lesson and Elder Hancock, General Conference

Youth Director, gave the sermon on the great unity passage of John 17:20, 21. Black, white, French and English youth participated in the morning as well as afternoon services which included a music festival and witnessing hour, a slide presentation on Adventist youth around the world, a "special" featuring two new Christian songs from France, supper, and a recreation period. The music of Elder Hancock on his accordion was the highlight of the day. The joy of uniting in Christ prompted several young people to say, "Why don't we have the youth of Quebec get together like this every month?"

Montreal Hosts General Conference Leaders

Montreal's largest S.D.A. church was the assembly point for over 1200 people from the Montreal region. The Sabbath of September 9, 1978, members and friends squeezed together in the pews and aisles of the Westmount church to hear thrilling messages of God's work from S.D.A. world leaders. The event was the first official visit to Quebec by Neal Wilson, vice-president of the General Conference for the North American Division, and M. E. Kemmerer, undertreasurer of the General Conference. Canadian Union president. L. L. Reile, and Union treasurer, R. W. Wilmot, also participated in the Sabbath School and Worship services. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Wilmot accompanied their husbands for the weekend which began with a Friday evening prayer meeting in the St. Leonard church. French Canadian young people meet regularly each week to sing, read a chapter from the Bible, have a testimony service, and pray. The General Conference and Union officers as well as Conference president P. F. Lemon and secretary-treasurer T. W.

Staples were impressed with the experiences recounted that evening. On Sabbath morning it was their turn to share experiences of God's intervention in countries around the world.

Local pastors translated the Sabbath services into French. Music was provided by the 25-member Westmount Youth Choir, the Vanguard Quartet from Toronto, and the French It Is Written quartet from Montreal. Elder Wilson noted that since he first passed through the area six years ago, several changes had occurred: a new Quebec Association office, a new camp, and four new churches in Montreal.

In the afternoon a similar service was presented in the Quebec city church for those living in the eastern half of the province. At the same time in the Westmount church, the Vanguard Quartet and the Portuguese church choir featuring Isabel Santos gave a spiritual concert, the final touch to a very special weekend.

BOOK REVIEW

DINOSAURS
(Panda Series)
by Ruth Wheeler and Harold G. Coffin

In the days of Noah, men, animals, and trees—many times larger than now exist—were buried and thus preserved as an evidence to later generations that the antediluvians perished by a flood. God designed that the discovery of these things should establish faith in inspired history. This book takes a look at what we have learned about some of those ancient creatures—the dinosaurs.
