Do You Trust God?

by G. E. Maxson, Director
Stewardship Department
Canadian Union Conference of S.D.A.

Do you really trust God when you pray "give us this day our daily bread"? Do you get ahead of God and try to feverishly provide for yourself by using credit cards and give no opportunity for God to provide for you? You have repeated, "The Lord is my Shepherd I shall not want", then why should you get up-tight and worry anxiously? You have a wonderful heavenly Father who has a personal interest in each of you.

"God knows our wants and has provided for them. The Lord has a treasure house of supplies for His children, and can give them what they need under all circumstances. Then why do we not trust Him?" That I May Know Him p. 224.

God trusts you to the point that "Man is honored by being made a copartner in God's firm". Sons and Daughters of God p. 15. What a privilege, what a wonderful relationship God offers you of being brought into a daily continual partnership and relationship with the Creator, and owner of the universe! "You are a member of the family of God and everything in the Father's house is for you. All the treasures of God are opened to you." Mount of Blessings p. 110. There is no limit to what God wants to do for you. Consider the challenge, "And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God. Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us." Eph. 3:19, 20.

Too many times by your actions and attitudes you deny the reality that "What God promises He is able at any time to perform". Review and Herald Aug. 23, 1881. We are told that "Prayer is the key in the hand of faith to unlock heaven's storehouse, where are treasured the boundless resources of Omnipotence". Steps to Christ pp. 94-95. You are the keeper of the key. Are you using the key? Do you trust God? "He has provided the riches of heaven's treasure and it is our privilege to draw continually from this capital. But we do not avail ourselves of this privilege." E. G. White Review and Herald April 24, 1900.

"All heaven is waiting for channels through which can be poured the holy oil to be a joy and blessing to human hearts." Christ's Object Lessons p. 419. You are recipients of so many blessings and privileges that our Lord has given to us, but with the blessings comes a responsibility as expressed in 1 Peter 4:10. "As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God." You are a steward of God's grace, of His power, of His love, of His resources and of the abilities that He has entrusted you with. This special relationship with your heavenly Father is conditional to putting God first in every and all aspects of life. "If you have renounced self and given yourself to Christ you are a member of the family of God, and everything in the Father's house is for you. All the treasures of God are opened to you. . . the ministry of angels, the gift of His Spirit, the labor of His servants. . . all are for you." Mount of Blessings pp. 110-11. It must be one of complete dependence upon God "That our lives may be the simple out-working of His will." Desire of Ages p. 208. How do you and how do I rate?

Give God a chance. "In everything you do, put God first and He will direct you and crown your efforts with success" Proverbs 3:6 (Taylor) for "Our heavenly Father has a thousand ways to provide for us of which we know nothing. Those who accept the one principle of making the service of God supreme, will find perplexities vanish and a plain path before their feet." Ministry of Healing p. 481.

World Stewardship Day

by F. C. Webster
General Conference of S.D.A.

On Lebanon's seacoast between the cities of Tyre and Sidon is a small community which I always enjoyed visiting during the years that we lived in Lebanon. The road sign indicates the name of the village as "Sarafand". In Bible times it was called Zarephath—the village where the widow provided Elijah with lodging, and where the oil keg never ran dry and where there was always enough flour in the barrel to supply their daily bread. We have come to call it the Miracle of the Oil and the Flour. But perhaps we should call it The Miracle of Giving or the Miracle of Sharing, for that was the spirit that prompted the miracle.

The widow was gathering wood to make a fire over which she would make bread, using up the last of the flour and the last of the oil that she possessed. Then she and her son faced starvation, but when Elijah, the prophet, asked for food she willingly gave it to him. I'm not

Has Your Faith Been Revitalized?

by L. R. Krenzler, Director
Communication Department
Canadian Union Conference of S.D.A.

"I thoroughly enjoyed watching It Is Written today. The simple reminder of the importance of the Bible has revitalized my faith."

The Bible says, "faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God". Rom. 10:17. Jesus is the living Word and He said He came to give life more abundantly. The Christian faith and life is to be rich, abounding, in goodness, mercy and love.

Jesus and His love are the vitalizing forces of the Christian's life and faith. The living faith is manifest by obedience to the law of God and by service to our fellowmen.

Are you experiencing this vitalizing force of Jesus Christ in your life through the Holy Spirit? If not, pray to the Father in Heaven in the name of Jesus Christ your Saviour for this experience. When you submit to His will, He will be able to inhabit you and give you that vitalized and abundant life.

Next, share your joyous experience with other people. There are many ways to do this. Pray for your neighbors. Show love and kindness to them. Be the best friend and neighbor in your community. Support good community projects.

Another effective way of sharing God's Truth and the abundant life is by supporting the mass-media programs. I appreciate your support for It Is Written, Faith for Today, Voice of Prophecy, etc. These are a vital link in the great commission to bring the gospel to the world. Millions can hear the Word and experience a "revitalized faith".

We need new programs, more air time, etc. Without you we could not do these things. Thank you for continuing and increasing your support by prayer and financial gifts. God bless you.

New Plan Announced To Bring "It Is Written" Into Every Home

"I viewed your broadcast today, and strangely have a feeling your organization may be one of the few churches in existence that sincerely preaches the unadulterated truth about God."

This letter from a viewer in Ontario is just one of the nearly one thousand letters and calls that arrive in our It Is Written offices in Canada and the U.S.A. each working day. They reveal the hunger in people's hearts and prove that God is working through the telecast in a wonderful way. The Holy Spirit is reaching hearts all over the country with its full-message appeal. But it's time to extend the program's influence. While holding the millions already being reached, we need to move into prime time exposure and into those areas not yet covered.

It Is Written already reaches much of the continent of Australia, and will soon be released in other countries as well. But the home base of North America, with its teeming cities, is our immediate concern. Although the telecast now covers a little over half of our own land, a breakthrough is planned that will saturate every corner of this continent with the full-message witness of the It Is Written program.

What a challenge! To bring It Is Written into every home in North America! An opportunity for every soul to view the crucial message God has for these last days — through the medium of television. For many, this may be their only opportunity.

This expanded exposure will include not only releasing the program during the usual Sunday morning hours (when the average Christian watches religious television), but also during prime evening time wherever possible. It's then that the secular masses, who so desperately need the transforming power of the Gospel, are restlessly turning their TV dials.

We're also considering the use of satellite television to serve the 3,500 cable networks in our country — bringing saving truth to additional millions.

As you can imagine, this tremendous broadcasting effort will cost a great deal. God is opening doors, but we are unable to respond due to lack of funds. That's why we need your help. We can accomplish this plan to reach every home if all will do their part — however modest that part may be.

The administrators of the denomination are cooperating with It Is Written in developing a unique plan to help reach this goal. Around December 1st, a mailing will arrive at your home with details of the plan. Should you wish to participate, we have a very special gift to send in appreciation for your support. It's the "It Is Written Heritage Edition" of what we believe to be the finest Bible ever published. With nearly 600 pages of invaluable study aids in one comprehensive volume, it's been called a "Leatherbound Bible School". Inside you'll find a cyclopedic index and 96 pages of study guides presenting the full three-angels' message. You'll also discover read-along translations, a concordance, cross references, maps, special sections on prophecies, archaeological discoveries, prayers and much more. This magnificent Bible will help you understand God's Word as you never have before.

Just now, in this time of unprecedented opportunity, we'll appreciate your prayers. Invite your friends to tune in the telecast. And watch your mailbox for details about an exciting plan to spread the Word through television.

Prime Minister Visits Park Manor

Pierre Trudeau, accompanied by W. G. Soloniuk and W. M. Olson at the Park Manor Personal Care Home of Winnipeg.

On September 18 Park Manor Personal Care Home of Winnipeg was visited by Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau, Senator Joe Guay, and local Liberal candidate Robert Bockstael. The Prime Minister, in Winnipeg for the International Cereals and Grains Conference, was taking time to visit constituents in the St. Boniface riding.

Mr. Trudeau was welcomed to Park Manor by community leader Bernie Wolfe, Chairman of the Board W. G. Soloniuk, and Park Manor's Administrator W. M. Olson and a very large crowd of community neighbors, students, and invited guests. The large crowd and enthusiastic welcome the Prime Minister received reminded many of the "Trudeaumania" of the late 1960's.

Mr. Trudeau stopped to chat and shake hands with many of the eager crowd gathered outside. Inside Park Manor he visited every resident gathered in the lounge, shook hands with staff, signed autographs, was introduced to invited guests and joined in a hearty singing of "O, Canada" as led by the ladies of the Early Settlers Club.

The residents of Park Manor presented the Prime Minister with a red rose and a ceramic candy dish — a product of their craft activities. Mr. E. Gallant, Administrator of West Park Manor, presented him with the Desire of Ages.

During his visit, the Prime Minister was given a verbal picture of the health care program being carried on in Canada and around the world by the Seventh-day Adventist Church. His stopping to talk with Mrs. Dorothy Haughland and her senior class from Red River Valley Junior Academy was just the opportunity Mrs. Haughland needed. Speaking in French and English, she told Mr. Trudeau of the church's educational philosophy and described some of our educational institutions.

The large group of reporters and photographers accompanying Mr. Trudeau provided good coverage of the event in all the local news media and the television national news broadcast that evening.

Manchur Named Executive In California Hospital

A 26-year-old native of Canada has been named assistant to the administrator of Feather River Hospital in California.

Fred Manchur is assuming responsibilities as head of professional services at the ridge's hospital following completion of an administrative residency at Loma Linda University Medical Center.

The new hospital executive earned a master's degree in public health with emphasis in administration at Loma Linda University. Before entering graduate school, he was assistant administrator of a 150-bed personal care home in Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Fred is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Manchur of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan.

Senior Citizens Honored In Moose Jaw

Senior Citizens of the Moose Jaw church were honored by their church family on Sunday, October 1.

This unique recognition took the form of a supper at which more than forty persons were served a tasty vegetarian meal.

Following supper, those present were treated to a color-slide travelogue of beautiful Bermuda, where Pastor Rudy James and family served for four years.

Highlights of the evening included the presentation of gifts and corsages to two former worshippers at the Moose Jaw Church, who are now residing at Sunny-side Nursing Home in Saskatoon. Mrs. Paul and Mrs. Wilson made a special journey to Moose Jaw for the occasion.

Boutonnieres were presented to Mr. Chris Hodgson and Mr. Arthur Gardiner who are both now in their 93rd year. A vocal duet "The Longer I Serve Him, The Sweeter He Grows", was sung by Mr. and Mrs. Art Brandt in honor of our Senior Citizens.

A lovely evening was brought to a close with an inspection of arts and crafts, hobbies, collectors' items and family heirlooms exhibited by courtesy of our Senior Citizens.

Health Ministry — Eat It Raw Or Cook It?

by G. D. Strunk, Director, Adventist Health Ministries

I am frequently asked if the enzymes in plants are destroyed by cooking and should we not, therefore, eat our food raw in order to assimilate this "life" of the plant.

This question represents a misunderstanding of the nature of enzymes, their role and the process of digestion. I'm afraid that it also represents some misinformation that has been circulated by raw-foods promoters, in an effort to explain the "protective quality" of raw foods.

Every type of plant and animal manufactures its own unique enzymes that it will use by and within its own body. We do not eat enzymes in order to create our own enzymes.

Enzymes are simple to complex proteins within a plant or animal that facilitate necessary biochemical reactions at low temperatures. They serve as catalysts. But while the enzymes of plants play a vital role in the life and growth of the plant, when they are taken into our bodies they are treated like any other protein molecule ingested. They lose their identity as enzymes and are simply another form of protein. When they arrive in the stomach where they are attacked by the hydrochloric acid they are deactivated as an enzyme just as they are deactivated by cooking.

Therefore, so far as enzymes are concerned, it makes no difference whether they are cooked or eaten raw. They are simply part of the plant's total protein content.

As a matter of fact, most foods are more nutritious, more digestible and safer when properly cooked than when eaten raw. Nearly all the vitamins and minerals are locked within the cell walls. The cell walls are composed of cellulose. Cellulose is not digestible by human digestive systems. In order for the nutrition to be released, the cell wall must be ruptured through chewing, cooking or mechanically as in a blender.

Because chewing is not as effective as cooking, cooked carrots may yield 70% more Vitamin A and other elements than raw carrots. Some fresh fruits cannot be tolerated by infants but when the fruit is cooked no ill effects appear.

There may be some benefits from eating raw foods, but it is easy to make some misleading assumptions. Some of the primary health benefits often overlooked are: 1) Many foods eaten raw are more filling than when cooked so that a person does not suffer the effects of overeating. 2) Raw foods usually require more chewing than cooked foods, again helping to prevent overeating and allowing time for salivary activity. 3) Oftentimes those who begin emphasizing raw foods in the diet are, at the same time, making many other changes that may contribute more to their improved health than the raw foods. The raw foods get the credit but properly prepared and eaten cooked foods, along with the other changes, might have produced the same or better results.

Incidentally, roasting nuts does not harden the oils. In order to harden or saturate or hydrogenate oils they must be heated in the presence of a catalyst such as nickel and have hydrogen bubbled into it. This does not occur in the roasting process.

Raw foods do provide a variety of flavor, texture and appetizing combinations and should not be discouraged in most normal diets.

And there is something more to ripe fruit plucked straight from the tree and eaten in all its freshness than just nutrition, as nutrition is usually defined. What could be better than a fully ripened Niagara peach straight from the tree, unless it was a second fully ripened Niagara peach straight from the tree.

News Notes

The Beauvallon MV Society sponsored an MV weekend campout August 4-6 at Camp Whitney, located at a beautiful lakeside setting. The Friday evening vespers, Sabbath services, afternoon nature hike and treasure hunt, evening campfire worship, Sunday morning pancake breakfast, boating, volley ball, canoeing and water skiing were some of the highlights of the enjoyable weekend.

Some of the Beauvallon church members are assisting in the evangelistic crusade meetings presently being held in Vegreville under the direction of Elder Verne Snow, Conference evangelist, and Pastor R. Dorchuck, local pastor. There are a number of people in the area who are searching for the Bible truth and it is our sincere prayer that they will be able to find it through the Bible studies at these meetings.

On Sabbath, August 26, Pastor R. Dorchuck, local pastor, officiated at the dedication service of five children of the Beauvallon church. The children presented for dedication to the Lord by their parents were: Curtis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Saylor; Gordon and Roland, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Misik; Laura and Gregory, children of Mr. and Mrs. Lovyl Marian.

The Ryley school began its second year of operation on September 5. There are eleven students in seven grades. Teacher for this year is Mrs. Gail Booth. Teaching Home Economics is Mrs. Ruth Smith while Mrs. Margaret Booth, Mrs. Don Sinclair and Mrs. Rita Price will be teaching art.

On August 5, the members of the Loyalist Church met for dinner at the home of Steve Sankey to wish Pastor Miller and his family God's blessing as he takes up his new duties in Edmonton.

We were happy to have our new pastor, Pastor Lehmann, minister to us not too long after.

A Church For Sherwood Park

The Seventh-day Adventist church in Sherwood Park Alberta is in the midst of one of the most significant undertakings in its two-year history. In early September ground was broken for a new church building. It is planned that the sanctuary will eventually accommodate a congregation of 250. As well provision is being made to accommodate the spiritual needs of the residents of the Sherwood Park Nursing Home which is immediately adjacent to the new church site. The plans call for an enclosed ramp to join the nursing home to the church.

The church congregation, which now numbers 40, is currently meeting in the nursing home. The adult Sabbath School and the Sabbath Morning Worship Services are conducted in the basement multi-purpose area. The childrens Sabbath School divisions meet throughout the institution. As you can well appreciate these settings are less than ideal. It is with genuine enthusiasm that the division leaders especially look forward to the new church.

The new building makes provision for a 1600 square foot fellowship area in the basement and adjacent to it is a multi-purpose kitchen and Dorcas facility. In addition there are four large classrooms in the basement to accommodate the children's divisions.

The construction project is under the direction of Verne Langille, a well known Seventh-day Adventist contractor from the Maritimes. The construction has been somewhat hampered by the extremely wet weather that has been experienced in Alberta this fall but satisfactory progress is now being made. It is hoped that the building can be closed in before freeze-up so that interior finishing can continue during the winter. Occupancy is anticipated for early February 1979.

For the congregation at Sherwood Park this is an undertaking of faith. It is their hope that any who have a special interest in the work at Sherwood Park and would like to assist with it would contact:

Allen Fowler, Chairman
Sherwood Park S.D.A. Church Building Committee

2020 Brentwood Boulevard
Sherwood Park, Alberta
T8A 0X1

The prayer of the congregation at Sherwood Park is that God would use this new lighthouse to provide spiritual comfort to those of our early pioneers who reside at the nursing home and that it will become a centre for the evangelizing of their community.

The worship service, August 12, at the British Columbia camp meeting convocation, was fittingly begun with the ordination of three pastors: Frank Johnson, Brad Thorp and Dirk Zinner. The ordination service was conducted by General Conference vice-president, R. Thompson, assisted by Union Conference president, L. L. Reile, and Conference president, A. W. Kaytor.

Frank Johnson, who served 13 years in Education work in eastern Canada, was called to British Columbia to skipper the mission launch NORTHERN LIGHT. After a short period of time he was called to pastor responsibilities in the Prince Rupert-Terrace district, where he continues to serve.

Brad Thorp first came to the B.C. Conference, after studies at Newbold College in England. Having worked for almost a year in the Kelowna area as associate pastor, he joined the Southern New England Conference, where he continued the gospel ministry for 3 years in Evangelism. In 1977 he returned to British Columbia and, presently, leads an evangelistic team working in the large populated area of Vancouver and surrounding cities of the lower Fraser Valley.

Dirk Zinner, who graduated from Andrews University in 1974, began his ministry as an associate pastor in the Vancouver church, where he worked for approximately one year. After two years of pastoral leadership in the Prince George-Vanderhoof district, he began pastoral duties in the Trail-Nelson area of the Conference, where he now serves the Lord.

The church has recognized God's calling these men to the gospel ministry. We are confident of His blessings, through them, for the completion of His work.

Community Services Van Registers 5,000 In Vancouver

During the summer months a concentrated nine-week program with the Community Services Van operating at major shopping and community centres in the Vancouver area was coordinated by Joan Harter, Director of the Health Education Centres, Vancouver Region. Assisting in the program were, hostess Grace Pang; driver Basil Williams, and volunteer nurses from all Seventh-day Adventist churches in metropolitan Vancouver.

A total of 2,639 people registered to have their blood pressure, weight, and height taken during the daily operational hours, which were Monday through Friday from 1 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. (except Thursday when the hours were 1-9 p.m.)

From August 19 - September 4 the Van was stationed on the Pacific National Exhibition grounds, serving the public daily except Sabbaths. In the fourteen working days 2,437 people registered.

"It was a privilege to be able not only to listen as many told me of their personal problems with drinking and smoking, but to be able to assist them with information as to where they could receive help," stated hostess Grace Pang, who is preparing to be a dental assistant on completion of her education.

On the last day of the Pacific National Exhibition over 300 registered. Over 150 spiritual guidelines were requested and thousands of pieces of literature were given out.

Request For Workers On B.C. Coastline

The following appeal for workers is quoted in part from Cliff Drieburg. If interested contact him at R.R.1, Half-moon Bay, B.C. V0N 1Y0 - Editor.

"Greetings from beautiful British Columbia! As you might know we have just moved out of The North Shore District to our new pastorate on The Sunshine Coast, which has not had a resident worker for a long time.

"We have just written to Elder Krenzler requesting a computer print-out of the I.I.W. interest names in this area, and under God we shall seek and find. With this in mind, I am desirous of appealing through MESSENGER for a volunteer worker or workers to share in the pastoral and soul-seeking outreach along this secluded 100 mile coastline. As you know it is tremendously beautiful country with equally beautiful people, but they have to be sought out from among the rocks and the caves.

"We have two small church groups, one in Powell River and the other in Sechelt, so parking a trailer or a mobile home will not be a problem, in fact accommodation of any sort is not a major problem. Both Powell River and Port Mellon offer job possibilities in the mill and for those seeking to set up in private business, there is much scope, climate is mild and the scenic beauty is the best.

"Above all this, there are souls who have left the rush and tear of city life for the peace and serenity of nature in this quiet seclusion and they have to be reached!"

News From Trail And Castlegar

Members of the Trail Seventh-day Adventist Church recently sponsored gift copies of Rene Noorbergen's book: Charisma of The Spirit to area ministers of other churches.

One minister promptly responded stating his sincere appreciation for the book and said that of all the books on that subject that he had read it was "the best book so far".

He later purchased additional copies for some of his church members, as well as gratefully receiving some other material on the same subject.

* * *

As a result of reading articles in the Castlegar newspaper on the Ingathering program and of the various community services of Seventh-day Adventists, a prominent resident of Castlegar went to a church member that she knew and presented her with a sizeable donation. What a lesson! People are reading, watching and waiting for us.

Investment Project — Armstrong, B.C.

The Flea Market held in the Armstrong Country Court Mall on September 29, was of special interest to members of the local S.D.A. Church. The proceeds from their table were dedicated to this year's Investment for Missions project, headed by Mrs. Bert Marshall, who planned this means of swelling the fund.

From the little children who parted with out-grown toys to the two Willowdale ladies who offered their beautiful handiwork, old and young participated. Homemade bread and goodies, huge twelve-pound cabbages, golden carrots, and other garden produce, with the usual miscellaneous items, made an attractive display, resulting in over $170.00 for the Missions project.

Mrs. Marshall and her helpers are enthusiastic about the Flea Market and look forward to the promised one in the Spring as another opportunity to swell the church's mission fund.

Before then, however, the church will be having a similar table at the upcoming Flea Market in Ashton Creek later this month, proceeds going to the same project.

Cornerstone Laying At Kingsway Pioneer Home

It was an overcast dreary day for an outdoor ceremony, but just a few hours before the program was to begin the rain stopped and the sun even broke through the thick clouds for a few minutes at a time.

The occasion was the cornerstone laying ceremony for the Kingsway Pioneer Home for senior citizens in Oshawa on October 26, 1978.

Consisting of 80 self-contained units, 39 of the units will be bachelor quarters with a combination living/bedroom; while 41 of the units will be one bedroom suites.

For many years the members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Ontario have been working toward the realization of a senior citizens residence. The first action recorded on the minutes was that of November 13, 1966, which read, "To authorize R. A. Matthews and available members of the Executive Committee to make a study of the proposed Senior Citizens Residence and Nursing Home to be placed on the Kingsway College property near Townline Road."

After this study the attention of the committee turned toward establishing a Nursing Home in Oshawa. The many obstacles confronting the committee prevented further development at that time. In 1973 the committee asked Mr. Salt and Mr. Dinning, former Oshawa residents now owning and operating nursing homes in California, to give serious study to establishing a Senior Citizen's Residence.

On April 23, 1974, it was voted to approve sponsorship of a Senior Citizen's Residence in Oshawa.

Another committee was set up on March 30, 1975 to give further consideration to a home for senior citizens. The Senior Citizens' Residence was incorporated to become Kingsway Pioneer Home, Inc. The building committee under the chairmanship of Ray Matthews and support of the Ontario Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, began working on the development of the present project in August of 1976.

Toronto Japanese Church Celebrates Tenth Anniversary

トロント日系セブンスデーアドベントリスト教会
教会十周年記念
祝賀会 1978年10月21日

On October 21, the tenth anniversary of the Toronto Japanese Seventh-day Adventist Church was held. Elder E. C. Beck's greetings from the conference were translated for the benefit of those who understood no English by Pastor Koei Aka. A number of musical selections were rendered and a history of the Toronto Japanese Seventh-day Adventist Church was given by Brother Hideo Okamura and is quoted below—

In fulfilment of the Words, "This gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; . . . the evangelistic work for Japanese Canadians was begun 42 years ago in 1936. Pastor Kumaji Inouye of the Seattle Japanese Seventh-day Adventist Church, who now is at rest with the hope of the Resurrection Morning, was called by the British Columbia Conference to start evangelistic work in the Vancouver area. In those days, the Seventh-day Adventist Church was not well known by the public, and as a result, the work was very hard. However, after about seven years of seed sowing 15 Japanese people were baptized into the Adventist Church.

In 1942, with the outbreak of the 2nd World War, all Canadians of Japanese ancestry living along the Pacific coast were ordered to voluntarily evacuate at least 100 miles from the coast or go to one of the Government relocation camps. At that time, many of the church members moved east to Ontario.

Because of this disruption, the Light of Truth seemed to dim for a while, but after the War, the Light regained its brightness. So, it was in 1950 that several people gathered together at the home of our church member residing on Bathurst St. and held Sabbath School during which they studied the Bible without the guidance of a pastor.

Some members from Hamilton joined this group, swelling the number. The private home became too small for meetings, so the group rented space in the Ukrainian Seventh-day Adventist Church on College Street in order to hold services on Sabbath afternoons.

In March, 1952, with the help of Pastor Ichiro Shimomura, a graduate of Emmanuel Missionary College, full-fledged evangelism was begun among Japanese Canadians. On August 9, that same year, the Toronto Japanese Seventh-day Adventist Church was organized with 16 charter members.

In February, 1955, Pastor Shigeru Aso of the Denver, Colorado, Japanese Seventh-day Adventist Church was called to hold an evangelistic series. He caused quite a sensation among the Japanese people in Toronto and was instrumental in a rich harvest of 15 souls at the end of the effort, doubling the membership. In August the same year, Pastor Aso started a radio program in Denver in the Japanese language called "The Good Tiding". This program was broadcast in Toronto and gained a substantial audience of Japanese listeners for eight years.

In May, 1959, when Pastor Shimomura went to the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary for further study, Pastor Aso was called to take pastoral responsibilities here. And the work continued strongly under his direction.

It was in August, 1967, that Pastor Aso accepted the call from the Chicago Japanese Seventh-day Adventist Church and was replaced by Pastor Hiroshi Shibata who came from Japan. Under Pastor Shibata's leadership, in 1968, the present church building was purchased from the Yugoslavian Seventh-day Adventist Church.

When five year pledges were honored by the end of 1972, the church was dedicated with happiness and joy on May 12, 1973, with the help of Elder Phillip Moores who was the Ontario Conference president.

In September, 1971, when Pastor Shibata took a leave of absence to study at Andrews University, his place was taken

Ontario — First Conference In North America To Reach One Million Dollars

During the past fiscal year from June, 1977 to June of this year, the Literature Evangelist team of the Ontario Conference passed another milestone in its experience. During that period of time the Ontario Conference was the first to deliver over one million dollars worth of literature in the North American Division. The exact total was $1,288,871.89. Although the success of a Literature Evangelist program is often determined by the value of books sold, yet the true goal of the Literature Evangelist is to win souls for the kingdom of God. During this same period of time over one hundred souls were baptized into Christ and His Church through Literature Evangelist contacts.

The Literature Evangelist team in Ontario now numbers approximately 50 regular and part-time colporteurs. This number was swelled to over 150 as student literature evangelists took to the field for the summer. This courageous team of literature evangelists has undertaken the goal of delivering over one million dollars worth of literature during the current year of 1978. The figure now stands at over 850,000 dollars in sales. It is very apparent that by God's grace we will go far beyond our expectations as we look forward to the day when thousands will be converted, many of whom will trace their first convictions to the reading of our publications.

Fifty Years Married!

Following the Sabbath morning service, September 30, at which Elder A. H. Schleicher was guest speaker, a fellowship dinner was held in the Welland church hall in honor of Elder and Mrs. Schleicher's 50th wedding anniversary.

Seated at the head table were Elder and Mrs. Schleicher and Niagara Peninsula pastor, Ken Wiebe and Mrs. Wiebe.

A beautifully decorated anniversary cake was cut by Sister Schleicher. The bride and groom of 50 years ago were presented with a gold decorated anniversary plate by little Matthew Szabo on behalf of the Welland congregation.

Elder and Mrs. Schleicher were married September 16, 1928 in Zagreb, Yugoslavia.

Elder Schleicher embraced the Advent message in 1923 in Yugoslavia and entered the colporteur work. His bride-to-be was baptized in 1924. From 1931 to 1952 Elder Schleicher did pastoral work in Yugoslavia and Austria. From 1952 to 1959 he pastored the German and Yugoslavian churches in Toronto and Kitchener. In 1959 he was called to the pastorate of the German church in Cleveland, Ohio.

The Schleichers have two daughters Alice and Lillian and three grandchildren, all of Hamilton.

After retiring in 1969 the Schleichers moved back to Canada making their home near Vineland in the Niagara Peninsula. They are members of the St. Catharines S.D.A. Church.

Several guests from other churches joined with the Welland members in extending best wishes to the happy couple on this joyous occasion.

After the cornerstone laying by Pastor E. C. Beck, president of the Ontario Conference, and the platform participants and guests; the ceremony ended with Elder W. R. Bornstein offering the benediction.

Kingsway Pioneer Home, Inc. would like to thank all those who have contributed in various ways toward the progress and eventual completion of the Kingsway Pioneer Home.

Brockville Church Elects Building Committee

Brockville Seventh-day Adventists recently elected a building committee. Steve Levere, Claude Osborn, and Robin Senior are actively seeking a church home for the Brockville group.

A Conference-wide offering in December of 1977 boosted the Brockville Building Fund by $6,000. A Double Investment idea led by Investment leader Steve Knapp encouraged one project for missions and one project in support of the Building Fund. To date almost $15,000 is gathering interest in the Conference Revolving Fund.

Brockville members are hopeful that their search for a permanent place of worship will soon be over.

by Pastor Koei Aka, who was teaching at Japan Missionary College, and who is presently leading the church.

Until the recent times, the church members were mainly Japanese Canadians, but within the last few years, the breadth of the work was widened, and non-Japanese Canadians of the same faith, hope and message have joined this congregation. Presently, 53 members of different races are united in love without discrimination and are co-operating in declaring the Three Angels' messages.

By the guidance of God and the dedicated work of its members, the Toronto Japanese church will continue to grow, along with her sister churches in the city, to hasten the coming of the day of the Lord.

School Accepts Gift

The Seventh-day Adventist school in Perth-Andover, New Brunswick is pleased to accept a complimentary set of encyclopedia from the New Brunswick manager and the local representative of World Book Canada Limited. This timely gift will greatly enrich our growing instructional media centre. We thank God for this blessing on our school.

James Mays, Principal

Pastor O. Aaserude (school board chairman) is presented the books by the New Brunswick Manager, Mrs. S. Vienneau; and local representative Mrs. M. Inman.

Faith For Today

FAITH FOR TODAY REPORTS BIBLE SCHOOL RESULTS

"What would we do for soulwinning interests without those generated by our church's radio and TV ministries?"

These were words spoken by one of our pastors who has borne a very fruitful ministry. By following up radio and telecast interest names, he has discovered that our church media programs provide excellent assistance in local soulwinning. Faith For Today is pleased to have a part in these evangelistic efforts.

Faith For Today's Bible School, under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Fagal, offers 11 different Bible correspondence courses appealing to a variety of age groups and interests. A recent report indicates an impressive number of contacts are made by the TV outreach with many solid interests developed as a result.

Unfortunately, an average of 65 percent of the interests supplied by our radio and television ministries are not followed up by the local churches. Faith For Today requests that our members not only do their part, but encourage entire church participation in this matter.

Faith For Today To Air In Winnipeg

Faith For Today will begin airing December 3, in Winnipeg, Manitoba, over CKND-TV, at 12:30 p.m.

Faith For Today's "Westbrook Hospital" series presents true-to-life stories in a Christian hospital where medical personnel are concerned with more than the physical needs of the patients. Solutions to contemporary problems—such as divorce, alcoholism, obesity, and moral decay—are offered.

The program, hosted by Pastor William A. Fagal, has served as a unique witnessing tool for those who generally care little for religious programming.

Encourage your friends to watch and please let the station know you appreciate the telecast. For Faith For Today to remain on the air, letters must be received by the station in support of the program.

Kingsway Symphonic Choir Sings For Annual Council In Washington, D.C.

The Kingsway College Symphonic Choir at the Parkwood Estate, Oshawa, June, 1978.

The weekend of October 14 was a highlight for members of the choir for, under the direction of choir master James Bingham, they were privileged to sing for the world leaders of the Adventist Church who were in session at the Annual Council in Washington, D.C. On Friday evening and Sabbath morning they were joined in concert by the New England Youth Ensemble at the Takoma Park Church.

The Beltsville, Maryland church was packed to capacity for the Sabbath afternoon concert. On Saturday evening at the Columbia Union College gymnasium they joined again with the Youth Ensemble for a secular concert.

Before returning to Oshawa, the choir and the Ensemble participated in the worship service in the magnificent National Presbyterian Church. Comments of praise were heard from many for the "heavenly" music rendered by these young musicians.

Invitations have been given to the choir to perform in various churches and cathedrals in numerous countries throughout the world field. Only the future and the Lord's blessings upon the group will determine how many of these invitations will become a reality.

Two weeks later another short tour included concerts at the Detroit Metropolitan Church and the Pioneer Memorial Church at Andrews University. The choir and the Ensemble linked together again to perform works by Beethoven, J. S. Bach, Faure, Handel, Pergolesi and Franck along with selections from hymnody.

Kingsway College Symphonic Choir will be giving their annual Christmas Carols and Lessons Evensong in several areas before the Christmas season.

It is the uniqueness of youth singing the great classics of sacred music that has made this choir such a popular group. The mission that truly great music is Divinely inspired, has become the thrust of the choir. Thus their interest in presenting programs to Seventh-day Adventist churches as well as those of other denominations.

The choir is fast becoming known as "the best". Kingsway College is justly proud of this talented group of singers who seek to rightly represent their school and their Lord through beautiful, sacred music.

Statistics — Canada

At the end of the third quarter the membership of the church in Canada reached 29,009. These members are distributed throughout the conferences as follows:

Volunteers Needed — Revenue Canada

This year, Revenue Canada, Taxation is again looking for volunteers for the Volunteer Tax Information Program. This program provides training for volunteers who will help those unable to complete their own returns. Training sessions will be held beginning in January to help volunteers learn how to complete an income tax return. They in turn will be able to go into the community to assist without charge senior citizens, recent immigrants, the handicapped, and others in filling out their income tax returns. In many cases, this special help may speed up the receipt of a much needed refund.

If you or your organization would like to help others at tax time, more information on the volunteer program is available by writing to:

Simcox. An inter-denominational group, Family Concern, was founded by J. Allan Petersen.

Dr. Robert A. Williams, dean of Andrews' School of Graduate Studies, dealt with problems encountered in counseling. He said he has found no substitute for prayer in overcoming problems or in helping others to overcome theirs.

Other sessions covered such topics as parent-child relationships and family finance.

The Family Life Workshop has become one of the most successful special courses offered on the Andrews campus, according to Dr. Rudolf E. Klimes, director of special courses.

The number of participants in special courses during 1978 more than doubled when compared to the previous year, says Dr. Klimes. Almost 1,600 people enrolled in a seminar or workshop this year compared to less than 800 last year. More than 2,600 credit hours were taken on both undergraduate and graduate levels.

For further information contact Ray Minner.

Family Life Workshop At Andrews University

The Family Life Workshop for 1978 met at Andrews University September 11 to 21. More than 100 people enrolled in the workshop which is jointly sponsored by the university and the Home and Family Service of the General Conference.

The sessions are designed to train people in the concepts and methods of organizing a church centred family life education program.

The workshops were begun at Andrews in 1975 by Drs. John and Millie Youngberg of the education department. Dr. Delmer Holbrook and his wife, Betty, from the General Conference joined them the following year.

Lectures, discussions, films and group projects are among the learning exercises employed in the sessions.

Noted Adventist author Reuben Hilde lectured on child training and discipline, while Andrews' Dr. R. C. Smith presented a discussion of trends in families and Loma Linda's Alberta Mazat discussed the different stages of a marriage.

The evangelical family life organization known as Family Concern was represented by Norman Stolpe and Larry

"The coming of Elijah on the very day when the widow feared that she must give up the struggle to sustain life, tested to the utmost her faith in the power of the living God to provide for her necessities. But even in her dire extremity, she bore witness to her faith by a compliance with the request of the stranger who was asking her to share her last morsel with him.

Giving is synonymous with Christianity for it was giving that sent the Creator from heaven to become earth's Saviour. He gave His life for a degenerate, unrepentant and unthankful race.

"The plan of redemption was laid in sacrifice,—a sacrifice so broad and deep and high that it is immeasurable. Christ gave all for us, and those who receive Christ will be ready to sacrifice all for the sake of their Redeemer. The thought of His honor and glory will come before anything else.

ANSWERS TO YOUR PEOPLE PROBLEMS

(Harvest Series)

by John G. Kerbs

Dare we be unconcerned about unsatisfactory human relationships? Jesus sets forth love, which, usually, if not always, results in good human relations as the very test of discipleship.

Author John G. Kerbs received a B.A. (theology) at La

Sierra College and a M.A.T. (religion) at Andrews University. He had been Director of Literature Evangelism in Utah, California, and South Africa. He now is Bible teacher and chaplain at Pacific Union College Prep School. His hobbies are carpentry and snow and water-skiing.

will be light. For His sake we shall covet pain and toil and sacrifice. We shall sympathize with His longing for the salvation of men. We shall feel the same tender craving for souls that He has felt.

"This is the religion of Christ. Anything short of it is a deception." Christian Service p. 197.

Love for God and the sacrifice made by heaven in giving Jesus must motivate our stewardship.

Service rendered, or gifts offered that are not motivated by love are vain and unacceptable to God. Yet gifts of love that flow from the heart of the born-again Christian rise like sweet incense to God's throne.

"By their good works, Christ's followers are to bring glory, not to themselves, but to Him through whose grace and power they have wrought. It is through the Holy Spirit that every good work is accomplished, and the Spirit is given to glorify, not the receiver but the Giver. When the light of Christ is shining in the soul, the lips will be filled with praise and thanksgiving to God." Christian Service pp. 195, 196.

Thankfulness begets stewardship and stewardship stimulates the spirit of thankfulness.

We are approaching World Stewardship Day (December 9). As we reflect on God's mercies during the year that will soon close, let us reflect also on our stewardship and our commitment to our Creator and our thankfulness to God.

BUCHANAN — TATTERSALL

Sunday, July 16, 1978, Pamela Ann Tattersall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Tattersall and William Thomas Buchanan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buchanan, were united in marriage by Pastor Pearse.

It was a happy occasion as relatives, friends and members of the Sudbury church gathered from far and near. Joanne Maitland was the maid of honor and the other attendants were Kitty Freier, friend of the bride and Vivian Flowers, cousin of the bride.

The best man was Jim Robinson, cousin of the groom and the ushers were Mike Tattersall, brother of the bride and Robert Buchanan, brother of the groom.

May they experience all those blessings that will bring them happiness in the home they establish in Oshawa and prepare them for the eternal home in heaven.

Pastor F. C. J. Pearse

OTTO — ANDERST

The lives of Clifford Otto and Joanne Anderst were joined in holy wedlock at the Medicine Hat S.D.A. Church on September 3, 1978.

Clifford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allister Otto and Joanne the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderst, both of Medicine Hat.

The bride and groom were attended by Janice Otto twin sister of the bride, and Harlow

Otto, brother of the groom. Many friends and relatives attended this sacred occasion wishing them well as they launch out together to meet life's challenges.

Clifford and Joanne will be making their home in Elkwater, Alberta, where Clifford will be working for the government in the public works department.
