Seventh-day Adventist Kindergartens

by George P. Babcock
Associate Director of Education
General Conference of S.D.A.

The Bible Kindergarten

"The Bible kindergarten has done a good work. It is no easy exercise, but it is doing good. . . . This is a large field to cultivate. Let his work be carried on. . . . After the morning lessons, on pleasant days, teachers and children take a long walk. . . and a short lesson from nature is given." Evangelism p. 583, 584.

As early as 1899 Ellen G. White penned these words in commendation of the week-day kindergartens at camp meetings in Australia. She indicated at other times that they should be extended past camp meeting so that the children might continue receiving precious truths from the Bible and nature.

"The work of education and training should commence with the babyhood of the child; for then the mind is the most impressible, and the lessons given are remembered" Child Guidance p. 26.

But how do you begin a kindergarten? Most churches or school boards find themselves at a loss when faced with this question. Fortunately, our Adventist educators have foreseen the demand for preschool education, and have been studying the problem for several years already. The General Conference Department of Education authorized the preparation of a complete manual for the operation of kindergartens. This document, written by Joan Summers in cooperation with Joan Barrows and Sharon Chamberlain, was published in the fall of 1978 and is entitled God, Creation and Me. It may be ordered through the General Conference Department of Education for $15 per copy plus postage.

Kindergarten is not, as some suppose, merely a babysitting service. Kindergarten is purposely designed to provide the child with experiences which will develop his mind in such a way that his formal schooling later will come more easily. In the field of Language Arts there are listening, speaking, and reading activities. This is not to say that children are to read in kindergarten. They are only given the tools necessary to learn the skill more quickly in first grade. In preschool they learn to listen attentively and discriminatingly, to distinguish between different shapes, to match identical letters, to express themselves clearly when speaking to others.

Mathematics at this level consists of developing ideas and vocabulary. Children become familiar with weights, measures, time, sequence of days, sequence of numbers, geometrical shapes, and money, among other things.

"Too much importance cannot be placed on the early training of children. The lessons that the child learns during the first seven years of life have more to do with forming his character than all that it learns in future years" Child Guidance p. 193.

The curriculum continues with nature-science, creative arts, music, social studies, and Christian living. This well balanced course of study combines instruction and play in just the sort of way described by Sister White. Many parents mistakenly believe that Divine inspiration dictates that a child should be left untaught until age eight or older. Nothing could be further from the truth. A careful study of both Scriptures and E. G. White writings will reveal that "Education begins as soon as a child is capable of forming an idea" Child Guidance p. 26. Mrs. White was opposed to sending a six- or seven-year-old child to the schools of her day. There the little ones sat on high benches, feet dangling, and learned Latin phrases by the stern discipline of the rod. Recess was short and school days were long. The Bible kindergarten, with its combination of play and learning through experience in nature and the Scriptures, was recognized by Mrs. White as one of the best ways of teaching very young minds truths vital to their future happiness and salvation.

"The early training of children is a subject that all should carefully study. We need to make the education of our children a business, for their salvation depends largely upon the education given them in childhood" Child Guidance p. 27.

If your church or school is seriously interested in beginning a Kindergarten, further information may be obtained from your local and Union conference education offices.

"Lifestyle"

by G. D. Strunk, Director Adventist Health Ministries

During recent weeks we have been conducting a pilot Health Ministry program in the Oshawa, Ontario area called "Lifestyle". The program enrolled about 100 persons from the community and 70 from the church. A statistical and strategy report will follow at another time. But this report was suggested to be of interest now.

Dr. Archie King asked one of his patients, Mrs. A. Mulder, a registered nurse at the Oshawa General Hospital, to give an opinion of the program and to share what benefits she has derived from attending. Her letter follows.

Canadians are overweight, underexercised, and assaulted by numerous ailments that stem from our overall lack of good health habits. Finally if we admit it, we grope around for some help.

One day in the mail I received a pamphlet, and one of the articles that interested me was one on Heartbeat. This is a Community Health Interest Survey, co-ordinated by Adventist Health Ministries.

I attended the Heartbeat sessions which is a screening program to determine your coronary risk factors. It included:

- A blood test to determine cholesterol and triglyceride levels.*
- A blood pressure evaluation.*
- An analysis of your coronary health history.*

Since this was a free community service I had nothing to lose but 30 minutes of my time, and I had a very great deal to gain. On attending the second session we received the test results and the recommended programs. Since my cholesterol level was elevated 300mg/dl, and I was overweight, the recommended programs were as follows:

- weight control*
- stress control*
- Nutrition Seminar for heart disease*
- physical fitness*

So it was I attended their program on Lifestyle. Lifestyle includes:

- The 10 evening Fitness & Food Seminar*
- The 10-Day Stress Control Clinic*
- The vital principles of weight management*
- For smokers, the 5-Day Plan To Stop Smoking*

This was a package for the entire family, there being no restrictions on the number in the family. The cost per family was $30. My husband became interested, and along with myself and my mother, we attended Lifestyle.

The first evening was on stress which was held on Monday nights. We found that the pressures of day-to-day living need not intimidate us. We learned coping techniques that make it more possible to survive in this highly complex and demanding world.

The second evening was on Fitness & Food. In the weight management we were given a Fit Test. This was put on by the Ontario government's Fit Test van. The University of Toronto's professional staff of physiologists and health educators take you through a comprehensive fitness evaluation that also includes personal consultation. The assessment involves a cardio-vascular fitness test with electrocardiogram monitoring, the measurement of percent body fat, flexibility, lung function, muscle strength and endurance, blood pressure, height and weight. We received a basic exercise program suited to our needs and likes.

We have incorporated this the last three or four weeks now, and we have noted a profound change in our lifestyle. We are less tired and noted a sense of well-being. And we have noticed more of a balance in our emotions. We get more thrill out of living, have a more positive attitude, as well as the loss of weight!

We have learned details about the use of exercise, fresh air and water, rest, recreation and eating habits. This will result in a healthier and longer life span.

In the Weight Management and Food Seminar we are becoming more and more convinced of the value of a vegetarian diet and are becoming stronger advocates for it.

The adequacy of a diet containing little or no meat was put to the test in Denmark during World War I. The Danish people came through the war with improved health and lowered death rates. Norway went through a similar experience during World War II. From 1940 to 1945 their consumption of animal foods was drastically cut, and the use of cereals, potatoes, and other vegetables was increased. Deaths from circulatory disease were considerably fewer during this period of time. With the end of the war, however, the people returned to their prewar diet and the death rate promptly rose to prewar levels. There has been an increasing amount of scientific evidence that greasy meats, junk foods, coffee, sweets, alcohol, and cigarettes are major contributors to the high death rate from heart disease and stroke, today's greatest killers.

By checking a person's heart action, blood chemistry, exercise patterns, eating, drinking, and smoking habits (and a few other things) specialists can now predict serious disease years before they occur. What's more important, they can tell you specific ways to avoid these diseases — if you're willing to change some of your habits. The first thing a person has to do is to WANT to change. And you can drastically alter the odds in your favor.

How you live, hour by hour, day by day, more than anything will determine what will kill you and when. I think that we have had for several years, for example, the information about whole grains. We have had for years the knowledge about exercise and its beneficial effects. The

Elder Kaytor Announces Retirement – Farewell at Camp Hope

After 37 years of denominational service Elder Kaytor at the 45th Session of the British Columbia Conference announced his plans to retire. He started his ministry as pastor in Ontario in the following churches: Windsor, Chatham, Dresden, Leamington, Ottawa, Carlton Place and Pembroke. Following his pastoral assignments he served the Ontario Conference and East Pennsylvania Conferences as departmental secretary. In the spring of 1955 Elder and Mrs. Kaytor and their daughter, Lyn moved to Toronto where Elder Kaytor served as administrator of the North York Branson Hospital for almost eight years. In 1962, Elder Kaytor and his family moved to the west and served as president of the following conferences: 1962–1966 as president of Manitoba-Saskatchewan Conference, from the fall of 1966 to the fall of 1974 as president of the Alberta Conference, and for the past four and a half years as president of the British Columbia Conference.

During his ministry and leadership the following projects were undertaken: Camp Frenda at South River, Ontario; Branson Hospital in Willowdale, Ontario; Sunnyside Nursing Home in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan; Swift Current Nursing Home in Swift Current, Saskatchewan; Park Manor Personal Care Home, Winnipeg, Manitoba; Sherwood Park Nursing Home, Edmonton, Alberta; Foothills Camp in Bowden, Alberta and Camp Hope in British Columbia.

We thank the Lord for His abundant blessings through the ministry of Elder Kaytor, his wife and daughter.

Conference workers and friends expressed their deep appreciation of his leadership and personal friendship at a farewell gathering held at Camp Hope on March 22.

A very special evening was climaxed by a presentation of three return tickets for a Hawaiian vacation, plus cash for expenses, and a camera to record their trip. This unique retirement gift was given to the Kaytor family by close friends as a token of love and respect, and in appreciation for his many years of productive service for God and Canada.

Elder Kaytor and his family plan to retire in Abbotsford, B.C. the place of their last post of service. We are confident that the Lord will continue to use this dedicated family as day by day they live and serve the Lord who has graciously led in their lives over many years of faithful service.

Alex Ramsay, *Director
Department of Communication
B.C. Conference of S.D.A.*

Elder Kaytor with his wife Evelyn and daughter Lyn.

Farewell for Ray and Aileen Matthews

Ray and Aileen Matthews were guests of honor at a farewell dinner held in the Board Room of the Canadian Union Conference on April 16. The Matthews have served in the Canadian field for thirty-two years, starting in pastoral work in the Maritime conference, where they served for thirteen years. The next move was to pastoral responsibilities in Winnipeg, where they remained for three years before accepting a call to the Ontario-Quebec conference to connect with the Church Development department. The next call was to the Presidency of the church in Newfoundland, where they served for eight years. Since 1975 Elder Matthews served all of Canada as Trust Services Director for the Canadian Union.

Ray and Aileen Matthews hold a picture of Pouch Cove, Newfoundland, presented to them at a farewell party in the Canadian Union Conference office Board Room on April 16.

The farewell party was attended by the Union Conference staff and their families, Mrs. M. (Grandma) Longard, Aileen's mother, Ray and Aileen's daughter Janette with her husband Harold Dooks and their family.

Beside a number of "gag" gifts for their retirement, Ray and Aileen were presented with a beautiful picture of Pouch Cove in Newfoundland, a place that they visited a number of times during the years they were living in St. John's.

Elder and Mrs. Matthews will be living in a new home they are completing in Port Hastings, Nova Scotia.

New Churches — New Schools

by Ray A. Matthews, Secretary
Building Committee

In Canada the Seventh-day Adventist Church is growing. With growth comes new challenges. Somewhat as a growing child needs larger shoes and larger clothes, a larger bed to sleep in, so the church needs new churches and new schools. But here is where the analogy breaks down. The church is not to be put to sleep in a larger bed. It is time for the church to awake as that great and glorious day approaches — the coming of our Saviour.

But while we work and wait for that day, we have to occupy, so new churches and new schools have to be built.

At a Union Conference Executive Committee Meeting held at Canadian Union College, Lacombe, March 26, 1979, guidelines for the construction and purchase of church buildings and school buildings in Canada were adopted. To acquaint church members with these guidelines the MESSENGER will carry a series of three articles. This is No. 1 and it has to do with General Guidelines, which are as follows:

1. (a) No organization of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada should begin construction upon a building project or the purchase of an existing structure before the building plans and the financial plan have been studied and approval given by the Union Committee.

This applies to any project of $35,000 and above. Donated labor and materials are to be counted when evaluating the overall cost. (Sometimes $35,000 cash can develop into a church worth $70,000 or more.)

- (b) Project plans are to be approved by the building organization's committee or governing board and its parent organization before being forwarded to the Canadian Union Conference for consideration by the Building Committee and the Executive Committee.

- (c) At least one copy of the financial plan is needed, and when the proposed project has reached that stage where the local conference has authorized the project, then the "Canadian Union Conference Building Program Application" should be filed with the Union office.

Any church group contemplating the construction of a church or a school should get in touch with the local conference or the Canadian Union Conference for a copy of this form. Also by writing to your local conference or to the Canadian Union Conference you may receive free a little book giving detailed guidelines for those who are considering building a new church or school.

Summer Camping Builds

Bill Edsell, Director
Youth Department
Canadian Union Conference of S.D.A.

Nature's luscious green meadows have a transforming effect on camper and staff alike. Seven days of compact co-operation are sure to build in all participants a balanced growth that equips each for present and future needs.

By using the building stones of self-confidence and co-operation each youthful heart develops leadership and a knowledge of nature and its laws. Service, obedience, and team spirit are encouraged. Recreation and crafts build motor skills and add to the ever present sense of accomplishment. Proper social adjustments and a clear understanding of eternal values makes summer camping a therapeutic force. Yes, summer camping builds! It builds good citizenship for today and tomorrow.

New Sabbath School Film Features Southeast Asia

In Southeast Asia so many big tragedies are born from little things.

Her inability to read makes a mother unable to administer medicine to her feverish, dying child. Illiteracy keeps a daughter from knowing her father is dying and wants her to visit him for the last time.

In Bangladesh, a child contracts typhoid because he took a drink of water from a common cup.

In Sri Lanka, a student cannot complete his Christian education because he lacks a few dollars.

A new, 12-minute, full-color motion picture, DOORS OF HOPE, shows how the Seventh-day Adventist Church is helping to change many of these "little things". This documentary film vividly shows how Christian love and care are opening doors in India, Nepal, Pakistan, Burma and Bangladesh.

For many years the Gospel could not easily penetrate most of these lands. Now, DOORS OF HOPE shows fascinating changes and experiences, like that of a young native pastor who had just graduated from seminary. He returned to his home town. Within six months he raised up a church of 105 newly-baptized members.

DOORS OF HOPE is designed to strengthen the Sabbath School member's commitment to the third quarter Sabbath School overflow offering. This offering is scheduled to go to urgently needed projects in Southeast Asia.

Your Sabbath School may reserve a showing of DOORS OF HOPE by contacting your conference Sabbath School Department. This film is also available for a $98 purchase price.

Evaluations and Reports on Maritime Schools

by Malcolm Graham, Director
Department of Education
Canadian Union Conference of S.D.A.

Seventh-day Adventist schools in the Maritimes are established for the purpose of helping the children of the church to identify as sons and daughters of God. The following educational goals as outlined in the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada Education Code book are subscribed to by the church schools of the Maritime Conference.

1. Spiritual: The child
 - a. Studies the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy in the spirit of the learner and reads them for personal communion, guidance, and information.
 - b. Chooses Christ as his personal Saviour and accepts as his own the principles of Christian living as taught by the Seventh-day Adventist Church.
 - c. Enjoys a deeper, richer Christian experience and has a better understanding of God and the plan of salvation.
2. Social: The child
 - a. Enjoys associations with others and cooperates harmoniously with them in common enterprises.
 - b. Considers opinions of others, chooses what is right and stands for principle.
 - c. Understands other people, their needs, and ways of life. Discovers that mutual sharing of responsibilities and ideas brings satisfaction.
 - d. Dedicates his life to service for Christ.
3. Physical: The child
 - a. Understands his own body and how to care for it.
 - b. Develops and maintains good physical and mental health.
 - c. Cooperates in community plans for more healthful living.
4. Mental: The child
 - a. Thinks effectively and constructively in dealing with both intellectual and practical problems.
 - b. Develops his capabilities and reaches the highest possible competence in fundamental skills, understandings, and appreciations.

Plans are presently being made to open a new Seventh-day Adventist school at Fredericton for the school year 1979-80.

Sedgewick Church Hall Opens

The newly-built Sedgewick Seventh-day Adventist Church hall, situated beyond the evergreens beside the church, was officially opened the evening of April 14 by Blanche Hagen of the County Council, in an indoor ceremony.

The 32- by 80-foot building contains a 60-foot multi-purpose area for social, cultural, and recreational events, plus a kitchen and a classroom in addition to the washrooms and entry area.

John Anderson, who promoted the project, says the building will be used extensively to provide good activity for the youth.

Construction of the hall was begun on January 22. Only volunteer labor was used in construction.

After a musical program, which included a short band concert and a demonstration of gymnastics, lunch was served by the Pathfinder Club.

Ryley Pathfinders Organize

Ryley's new Pathfinder Club, led by Don Sinclair, is growing rapidly. Our first meeting was held on February 22, with 11 youth from ages 10 to 15 attending. Since that time we have more than doubled our membership and most of these members are non-S.D.A.'s.

The Club is very active and has already been on a hike and fire-building lesson. Presently the Pathfinders are learning Electronics and Macrame.

The Club is now planning to earn money to go to the Pathfinder Fair in Kelowna by having a garage sale and collecting old batteries. We hope to have new experiences there and broaden our knowledge of the world-wide Pathfinder movement.

Have You Interests in Red Deer or Innisfail?

Do you have someone in the Red Deer or Innisfail area of Alberta that you would like to have visited by someone representing the church, be it pastor or otherwise? Perhaps they are former Seventh-day Adventists, perhaps children who have grown up and left the church, or others who you feel have a certain depth of interest.

Please send their name and address along with a few particulars that might be of help. We promise you that they will be visited shortly.

News from Beauvallon

Elder Elmer Koronko, from Calgary, presented the message at a Community Visitor's Day in the Beauvallon church on March 24. Many visitors attended the services of the Sabbath day and enjoyed a fellowship dinner which was served in the church auditorium. In the evening the Coralwood Academy chorus and band presented Vespers and a secular concert under the direction of Larry Gascoyne, Principal of the Academy.

January 21-27 was a highlight of Beauvallon church area activities when Elder W. Lehman conducted a "Righteousness by Faith" Seminar.

Over 400 copies of "The Crucifixion Story", an abridgment of Chapter 78 of The Desire of Ages, along with an It Is Written log, were sent to the homes of the residents in the Beauvallon area before the Easter weekend.

The annual Youth Talent Hour program was presented by the young people of Beauvallon church on April 14.

The members of Beauvallon church were privileged to have the 50-member band from C.U.C. present a sacred concert on Friday evening, March 16, under the direction of Dr. Curtis Wolfe. The band was touring through Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba.

Investment Silver

When Elder Howard our Conference Sabbath School Director asked me how long I had continued with my particular Investment Project, I thought a moment and then I realized that it had been 15 years since I had first extracted silver from the fixer bath collected from various X-ray departments around town. I work in the field of X-ray and most people are really not aware that one of the ingredients on an X-ray or photographic film is silver. In the course of processing a film, the silver that is in the emulsion is deposited in the fixer. There are several ways that you can recover the silver from the fixer bath, but the method I chose to use was the electrolysis method. This silver that is deposited on the metal plate is sold to one of the metal companies. It is interesting to note that this silver that I've been able to recover for Investment, is 98% pure. At today's silver prices the metal is very precious. Silver is difficult to come by and the price of silver, along with gold and other precious metals, is going up all the time, so I feel that I've been very fortunate indeed in my Investment project and I'm sure that the Lord has had a hand in the way things have gone. I was able to get half an ounce of silver from every gallon of fixer. At approximately $7.00 an ounce, this amounted to a considerable amount of money.

Now, not all the money I get goes to Investment. I split it 50/50 with individuals I collect it from. My expenses are almost negligible but I do deduct them before I give my Investment. The Lord had been good to me in my project this year and with His help, I've been able to raise approximately $500.00.

Elder Howard asked me how much I received the first year of my Investment project — 15 years ago. I don't recall exactly how much I received, but I do remember that the price of silver was about .40 and ounce. As I think back, I realize how the Lord has blessed this project over the years. I'm so happy that He is able to use me in this Investment Project and I hope that it might give others some ideas so that they also can Invest for the Master.

New Youth and Education Director for the Maritimes

Brother Douglas Hosking has accepted the call of the conference committee to become the Youth and Education Director of the Maritime Conference. He is presently principal of the Paris, Ontario church school, but will arrive in Moncton as soon as his duties are consummated in June. Brother and Sister Hosking are natives of Ontario and have given service both in the church and as civil servants of the Ontario Government. We are looking forward to their arrival here and his energetic promotion of the work of God amongst the youth in our conference. We invite your prayers in behalf of Brother and Sister Hosking and their two children, Chenoa and Keenan.

Truro Baptism

Two members were added to the company in Truro, Nova Scotia through baptism on February 24. Evelyn Dunlap made her decision to follow the Lord during a series of evangelistic meetings held in Truro in September. Birgit Alstrup became acquainted with the church by studying the Encounter lessons. The baptism was a high day for the Dartmouth church members as it was the first baptismal service conducted in their new church. Pastor Dave Crook from the Tantallon-Fox Point district conducted the service.

Restoration in Maple Ridge

Seventh-day Adventism is being revived in the district of Maple Ridge, thirty miles east of Vancouver. Maple Ridge was one of the earliest Adventist outposts in British Columbia, but the families dispersed when World War II came along and called many men into military service. This brought an end to the organized work in the area. "Advent Road" in Pitt Meadows remains as a link with the past.

Late in 1978 a new company was organized to re-establish the work in Maple Ridge. Under the energetic leadership of Pastor Howard Homenchuk, two very successful Five-Day Plans and a Wa-Rite program have already been undertaken. In late April the first evangelistic seminar will be conducted. The tiny nucleus of charter members ask for your prayerful support as they work to rebuild the old waste places.

If you know anyone in the Maple Ridge or Pitt Meadows area who may be interested in this evangelistic outreach, please contact Pastor Howard Homenchuk at Box 1000, Abbotsford, British Columbia V2S 4P5.

Mount Arrowsmith School Rally

The second annual Island youth rally, sponsored by the Mount Arrowsmith Adventist school was held over the weekend of March 30—31, 1979.

The vesper hour program at 7:30 p.m. Friday featured Pastor Gordon Pifher, Youth Director for the Ontario Conference and youth pastor at Kingsway College, Oshawa, Ontario. The theme for the weekend was "Because He Lives". Pastor Pifher pointed his remarks to the importance of "a personal, first-hand relationship with Christ".

His message was timely and greatly appreciated by young and old.

On Sabbath, March 31, at the Parksville Community Hall, the feast of good things continued. In the morning service, Pastor Pifher tuned in to the life of David and the poignant experiences of his life from shepherd boy to King of Israel.

Interspersed with these talks were a fellowship luncheon, under the direction of Mrs. Roland Stickle, and a musical program planned by the student committee.

This Annual Island Youth Rally idea all started on a cold February night in 1977 as Mrs. Judy Walper sat in her home browsing through materials for her English class. The article she had been reading had captured her imagination. Her appraisal of the content and style of that essay on "Time" had influenced her decision. Tomorrow she would share it with her class and attempt a group discussion. The result was beyond her wildest expectations. Their response was stimulating, the request that followed most gratifying. They wanted to take this theme, plan a Youth Rally, and hold it in the spring, inviting Adventist youth from the Island churches and the Vancouver area.

"From Tree to You" at Mount Arrowsmith

March 27 was an ordinary day at the Mt. Arrowsmith Seventh-day Adventist School, but it had an extra-ordinary ending. At 3:15, just as the school bus was pulling out, a "Sun Sweet Citrus" fruit truck pulled in.

Mrs. Unner Murdoch, the key figure in the act, intercepted the bus, called for volunteers among the older children, and started the action. The human conveyor belt began unloading 22,000 pounds of oranges and grapefruit in 44 and 22 pound boxes.

The Home and School Association has been busy for several months planning

Pastor Gordon Pifher preaches to a captivated audience at the Parksville Youth Rally — Vancouver Island.

The 1978 April rally was a success. They came from New Westminster, Vancouver, and all the way from Port Hardy to Victoria — three hundred strong — youth of all ages!

The day was spent enjoying good music, good speakers, and good company. It was not a surprise when February 1979 rolled around and the school's upper grades planned a second rally, and now a tradition is established.

Appreciation and credit goes to the Student Council of the Mount Arrowsmith Adventist School under sponsorship of Principal John Haakmat, Mrs. Judy Walper, and Marc Stickle, Student Co-ordinator, and his committee: Russell Nielsen, Kathy Nielsen, Dawna Toombs, Nathan Van Appelen, Debbie Elliott, Wanda Teed and Paul Tutyko.

this project, and at last the day "from tree to you" had arrived.

The sale will continue as long as the fruit lasts. Big succulent, sweet, tree-ripened oranges! The proceeds of this sale will be used to meet some of the needs of the school's future development program. Hopefully Mt. Arrowsmith Church School will be the happy recipient of approximately $2,000.00 for these future plans.

Welcome to the Ruskjer Family

We'd like to introduce you to the Ruskjer family. Pastor Ron, his wife Sandra, and their sons, Donovan and Charles, joined the British Columbia Conference staff in January. As Director of Adventist Health Ministries, Pastor Ruskjer is providing leadership in the Health, Temperance, and Family Life activities of our Conference. Though he is currently spending a good deal of time in developing a master plan for health ministry in B.C., he and his family have already visited a number of churches, giving presentations on both healthful living and marriage and family enrichment.

The Ruskjers come to us from the Michigan Conference where Ron served as a pastor and health educator for several years. He is an author, having developed the systematic reading guide to the writings of the Spirit of Prophecy, Ellen G. White: Prophet of the Last Days, published by Pacific Press. He has also written for the Review and Ministry magazine.

Sandra, a bachelor of science in nursing, works closely with her husband in both the health and family life ministries.

Pastor Ruskjer grew up in Battle Creek, Michigan; Mrs. Ruskjer, nee Mabley, in Calgary, Alberta. Ron's grandfather, Elder S. A. Ruskjer, is remembered by many as an evangelist and church leader here in Western Canada.

Pastor Ruskjer received his undergraduate training at Andrews University, and holds, as well, two graduate degrees from that institution, a Master of Arts, and the Master of Divinity. In addition he holds the Master of Science in Public Health from Loma Linda University. More recently he has been engaged in doctoral study at Andrews University in the Doctor of Education program.

Happy to be in B.C., the Ruskjers look forward to working closely with our entire church family, and especially our health and faith professionals. Currently, they make their home near Hope, together with Sandra's father, Mr. Warren V. Mabley formerly of Calgary.

Pastor Ron Ruskjer with his wife, Sandra, and two sons, Donovan and Charles. Pastor Ruskjer is Director of Health Ministries for the B.C. Conference.

OLIVER, B.C. NEWS

During the month of January, 1979, two Five-Day Plans were conducted by Pastor H. E. Reimche and members. They were held in Oliver and Osoyoos. Approximately 25 people attended each series.

The Adventist Youth Department of the church presented "A Better Living Series". Each evening for one week youth spoke on health and spiritual topics for 20 minutes. A health film was also presented. Speakers were Brian Mapplebeck, Simona Kroenke, Ruth Tilstra, Carmen Klatt, Wilfred Klein, Bonnie Wallace, and Mr. Bastien. To highlight the series, guest speaker was Pastor Kositsin, from the Grand Prairie church in Alberta. A youth potluck followed. Everyone gained a special blessing from this series.

problem doesn't lie so much in the knowledge as it does in how we handle that knowledge, and how important we think it is. It's important to clarify to the person his need to act on the information. Also to show the person that this is not difficult. This we feel Lifestyle has accomplished. What we do with this information is, of course, up to us.

We feel your lifestyle reflects what your health may be in the future. Our hope is that others would give serious consideration to such material, should it become available to them.

Let me end with this quote from Thomas Edison.

"The doctor of the future will give no medicine, but will interest his patients in the care of the human frame, in diet, and in the cause and prevention of disease."

MacIvor Elected President

Elder Don McIvor was elected president of the Manitoba-Saskatchewan Conference at the recent constituency meeting to succeed Elder W. G. Soloniuk who had served with dedication in the same position for 12 years.

Pastor McIvor comes to these responsibilities from Rutland, British Columbia where he was the church pastor. Previously he also served his God and church in various departmental and administrative positions in other conferences in the United States, though Brother McIvor is no stranger to these lands for he spent his childhood and youth in Canada where he also attended school.

Elder and Mrs. Don McIvor.

Brother and Sister MacIvor are dedicated workers. They need the prayers of God's people as they take up this important assignment. They will soon be moving to their Saskatoon home, then devote their full enregies to help finish the work of God in the Manitoba-Saskatchewan Conference.

The MacIvors have two children—a daughter, Mrs. McClain, whose husband manages a 100 bed nursing home, and a son, Nelson who is completing his studies in Bozeman University in Montana.

Transcona Investment

For their Investment goal device, thirteen juniors and primaries of the Transcona church in Winnipeg had a plastic tube mounted as a thermometer, for collecting dimes.

The goal was set at $50.00. By November 30, 1978 a total of $124.00 had been realized. $57.85 of this amount came from a toy sale sponsored by Keri Smith before she left Winnipeg for B.C. Congratulations, young folk!

Golden Wedding Celebrated

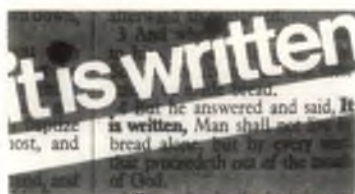

Evelyn and Nelson Wilkinson of Landmark, Manitoba, were the guests of honor at a reception held on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. Relatives and friends gathered at the couple's home on Sunday, February 25 and presented them with gifts, airline tickets and expenses for a "second honeymoon".

Nelson and Evelyn were married in Winnipeg and were long time residents of that city, only recently moving to Landmark. Evelyn was a member of the Young Street Seventh-day Adventist Church for many years and is now a charter member of the Silver Heights Church in Winnipeg.

The couple have two children, son, Donald and his wife Eileen of Toronto, and daughter Joyce, and her husband Joe of Landmark. There are seven grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Congratulatory messages were received from the offices of the Prime Minister, Mayor Robert Steen, Premier Sterling Lyon, and Lt. Governor Jobin.

JAY (an acronym for "Jeunesse Adventiste Youth") is the name of Quebec's newest youth feature: a bilingual newsletter. Edited by Miroslav Kis, associate youth director for the province, JAY is a direct result of the Pathfinder Officers Training Course held the weekend of February 23 and 24 at the S.D.A. French Boyer Elementary School in Montreal. Thirty people representing all eight of Montreal's churches were instructed by Bill Edsell, Canadian Union youth director, and Pastor Kis. At that time youth leaders expressed great interest in the idea of a newsletter which would unite and inspire French and English youth in a common interest. Three hundred and twenty copies of the introductory edition were recently distributed throughout the province. Future issues will feature appropriate church and conference level news, a question-and-answer column, poetry, and articles on how to organize different youth activities.

Russian Minister Visits Niagara Falls

Daniel Boos, a Seventh-day Adventist minister from the Soviet Union, was guest speaker at a recent prayer meeting in Niagara Falls. With the help of an interpreter, Brother Vic Kowalski, Elder Boos spoke of Christ's wonderful love toward man.

Elder Boos is not only a pastor but also an electrician. Although public evangelism is not permitted, members take advantage of witnessing to their fellow workers. His congregation is presently in the process of building a new sanctuary.

When asked if there were many young people in the Adventist Church, he replied that very few become unfaithful. The young people are active in the church and love to form musical groups which contribute much to their worship.

There are no Seventh-day Adventist publishing houses. Consequently, no Adventist literature is available. There are also no church schools or Adventist hospitals.

When Elder Boos first met Pastor Wiebe, he was overjoyed to meet a fellow worker. "You meet a brother and can't talk to him," was his frustrated response translated by a friend. How wonderful heaven will be with no more language barriers. Let us remember our brothers and sisters behind the Iron Curtain.

Niagara Peninsula News

Rather than exchange gifts at Christmas, Mrs. Debbie Pumford encouraged her students to think of the elderly. Delightful Santa Clauses were made from apples and marshmallows and distributed to the residents of one of the local senior citizens' homes. The children also joined in singing carols for these people, which was greatly appreciated. The following day a picture of the children singing carols appeared on the front page of the Niagara Falls Review. From this experience the children learned that it is truly more blessed to give than to receive.

During "No Smoking Week" in January, Rosemarie Davidson and Linda Irwin demonstrated "Smoking Sam" at Niagara Square. Numerous pieces of literature regarding the hazards of smoking were distributed to passers-by.

Members of the Welland church have recently completed renovating the interior of their sanctuary. The construction of a rostrum, newly refinished pews and red carpeting are the main new features. During the month of April, Pastor Wiebe conducted evangelistic meetings in the church.

"Know Your Bible", a fifteen-minute religious broadcast by Pastor Ken Wiebe, can be heard every Sunday at 9:15 a.m. over CHOW, Welland.

BOOK REVIEW

WAS JESUS REALLY LIKE US?

by Thomas A. Davis

Many questions concerning the humanity of Jesus are being asked in the Adventist church today. This book, with its fresh insights to key Biblical texts blended with clear Spirit of Prophecy statements, will help provide the answers. Writing primarily with the practical, rather than the theological, in mind, the author has explored, in the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy, the implications of the humanity of the Son of God in terms of the Christian who must meet life on his own level, with his own personality and problems. This is a book with profound implications for every Seventh-day Adventist.

Thomas A. Davis is currently an associate book editor at the Review & Herald Publishing Association. He has had wide experience as a pastor, missionary, editor, and writer. He has authored several other books, and his by-line has appeared in Ministry magazine, the Adventist Review, These Times, Signs of the Times, and other Seventh-day Adventist publications.

ADVENTIST INTERCOLLEGIATE ASSOCIATION MEETS

Sixty top student leaders of the Seventh-day Adventist Church gathered at Southwestern Adventist College April 1-4 for the annual convention of the Adventist Intercollegiate Association. The Association is a service organization that promotes greater cooperation and sharing between student government officers on Adventist college campuses in North America. Delegates from 11 of the 12 higher education institutions of the church in North America met for an intensive four-day schedule of program-sharing and discussion of issues facing young Adventists today. Included were delegates from Canadian Union College and Kettering College of Medical Arts, who had not been able to attend AIA conventions recently.

Major actions taken by the delegates at the convention included reorganization of the AIA's financial structure, voting AIA membership in the American Student Association, creation of an AIA Alumni Association, and increasing dues paid by member colleges to cover rising costs for the AIA. The delegates also went on record as favoring a joint convention in 1980 with ASPA, the Adventist Student Press Association, and expanding the AIA's services to eventually include the more than sixty Adventist colleges outside North America.

Rob Schwindt, a junior Mental Health major from Columbia Union College, was elected as the new AIA President, and will assume his duties in early June. In a separate action, delegates also voted to accept Columbia Union College's offer to host the 1980 convention.

YEUNG — WOO

On Sunday afternoon April 15, the Vancouver Central Seventh-day Adventist Church was decorated tastefully when Fanny Woo became the bride of Gordon Yeung. The maid of honour was Grace Pang, a friend of the bride, and the best man was the groom's brother, Joseph. The flower girl was Anthea Hii; the Bible boy was Caleb Lee.

Following the ceremony the reception was held in the church fellowship hall. May Fanny and Gordon's home be a foretaste of the joys of the eternal home.

A. W. Robertson, Pastor Vancouver Central S.D.A. Church
