"Sharing the Good News"

Sharing the Good News!

God's church is established for just this hour, and its mission is to share the good news of salvation. The Ingathering effort is planned to help fulfill this mission. May you have joy and success as you help further the mission of the church.

Canadian Union Conference

Ingathering — Our Opportunity for God!

God has given us another golden opportunity to contact our friends and neighbours for Him. As we visit let us watch for souls as those accountable to God. Let us watch for souls whose load we may lighten. Let us watch for souls to whom we can speak words of loving comfort and encouragement. Let us see in every person a candidate for God's eternal kingdom. As we come close to the people in loving Christian ministry they will respond with their hearts and their money. Let us take a little bit of heaven to every home during our Ingathering campaign.

Elevating People on Planet Earth

World. Conference. Community. These areas are significantly affected by the broad outreach of the Ingathering Crusade. To elevate people on planet Earth is a program in which every member of the church can participate. Pray. Solicit. Encourage. These ingredients will guarantee success. During this special crusade let us all attempt great things for God knowing that He will bless.

Ingathering — A Spiritual Outreach

As we approach the people in our assigned territory during the coming Ingathering campaign we must ask ourselves this question: "How can I give glory to God in this outreach for souls?" May I suggest an answer? Take Christ with you. Talk to Him as you approach the door. Ask Him for courage and love for others, to surround you with a heavenly atmosphere to reflect His image.

Yes, Jesus wants to do Ingathering through you. Will you let him? Take Him with you as you knock on the doors and ask for a donation. The results will surprise even you. Our objective in Quebec is to make this Ingathering campaign a real spiritual outreach. Thank you for your prayers.

Ingathering — Souls for God

It was my privilege to have been introduced to the mission outreach of the church before I was baptized. We never saw our minister for six to eight weeks at a time and the same lay brothers (they were also my blood brothers) who gave my wife and I Bible studies, also taught us how to Ingather for God. The greatest thrill came when the first lady who gave us a dollar, also gave us the privilege of studying the Advent message with her. She became a Seventh-day Adventist. Therefore, I learned from the Ingathering program that it can be a soul-saving program in the church. Let us keep looking for souls as we ask for dollars in our 1980 campaign.

Lawton Lowe, President
Maritime Conference

"Lord, Here Am I . . . Send Me"

Ingathering time is here again. How does that statement strike you? "Oh, that time again!"—"Could the year have gone by so quickly?"—"Perish the thought!"—"I can hardly wait to do my share!"

Our attitude makes the difference. This program is God-ordained to bring millions of dollars into the treasury. And to give us an opportunity of telling what God is doing through the church locally and around the world. What will be your attitude this year? "Here am I, Lord . . . send me." I will faithfully do my part to find some soul for Thee this campaign.

Herb Larsen, President
Alberta Conference

Ingathering — Mobilizing for God

Ingathering is one time of the year when the greatest number of people in the church are mobilized for action. Goals are set. Territories are assigned. People are instructed and results are achieved. We want to use this model for an on-going program of lay involvement.

This year in Newfoundland we want to cover our territory and with the help of the Lord leave gospel literature in all the homes. By working for God we expect to find precious souls for God's eternal kingdom and we are counting on God to help us raise over $30,000.00.

Gerry Karst, President
Newfoundland Conference

Ingathering — A Spiritual Experience

Ingathering is a very significant experience in the lives of the members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Ontario and of the world. A community service centre in Toronto, and a score of centres throughout the field, need the financial support Ingathering brings, and the educational needs of this conference are partially supplied from Ingathering funds, as are the youth camp programs at Camp Frenda. Souls are gathered in through the prayerful and tactful approach of thousands of Seventh-day Adventists who become meaningfully involved in this evangelistic outreach.

Ingathering therefore, is a spiritual experience. It must be launched and carried forward in prayer and advanced under the guidance and power of the Holy Spirit. With that kind of approach souls will be won, and goals will be reached and surpassed. Canada and the world field can count on Ontario to do its part under the enthusiastic leadership of Rick Bacchus, our Lay Activities director and the able support of his secretary, Ouvril Gill. This will be another successful campaign. Our office staff will support our members in any way possible as we move into the campaign of 1980.

Ed Beck, President
Ontario Conference

Ingathering — The Better Way

One of the important programs of the church has lost its lustre. What has happened? May I suggest the following problems:

1. Most of the time it is the only visit of the year to our neighbours.
2. Too often our interest is the money — not the person.
3. The contact is too rushed.
4. The campaign too often is dragged out and therefore taking time that the church should be using otherwise and members lose their enthusiasm.
5. Often it is a pressure-program or is read as the most important one of the church.
6. It has lost its original purpose of a spiritual contact where literature is shared with the public.
7. Too often the integrity of our position is questionable.

Should we then forget Ingathering? NO! But let us develop Ingathering into a really effective outreach contact that will be a blessing to our neighbours. May I make the following suggestions:

1. Plan carefully the outreach contacts to our neighbours so they are visited at least twice more during the year.
2. Let us focus on the importance of the person, rather than the money.
3. Plan well the Ingathering campaign and keep it short.
4. Spiritualize the campaign — make it a fellowship adventure.
5. Involve the churches and pastors in setting goals.
6. Let us use the contacts to share the right literature with our neighbours.
7. Let us be openly honest in our appeal and solicitations.

God will bless us as we share Christ and give our neighbours an opportunity to give. Make Ingathering a joyous adventure.

Adventist Radio Television Services Host Video Taping for the Spanish of the World

ARTS studios became a beehive of intense activity the latter part of August as the Spanish Drama series, Ayer, Hoy, Manana returned to Toronto for a two week video-taping of a new set of films. Great changes were seen by the filming team as they entered the spacious modern setting of the new television centre as compared to their memory of the production in the cramped quarters of the old Portuguese church studio two years ago.

The New York City based telecast, Ayer, Hoy, Manana (Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow), headed by Pastor George Grieves and his wife, Nyla, is the only Spanish telecast produced by the Adventist Church for the vast Spanish-speaking populations of the world, and its ever-increasing popularity is noted by the constant requests for it to be aired in various parts of the western hemisphere. Currently, many thousands of Spanish people in Central and South America and the Caribbean can view the half-hour telecast while New York City, Chicago and Toronto are the major North American centres to receive the program. The filming team is comprised of no professional actors, but rather skillful and willing laymen, including members from the Toronto Spanish church, who are coached by the Grieves family. Practically donating his time, Jorge Souza Gaviria, one of the most reputed television film-directors in all Central America, attended this recent filming to direct the vigorous program in ARTS studios and to bring to the production his professional touch and expertise.

One of the productions entitled "Who Killed Christ?" was an enactment of a supposed judgement scene in Heaven. In full authentic costume the participants, depicting Pilate, the Captain of the Roman Legion, Caiaphas, Judas and others moved across the floor of the set as dry ice created a whispy cloud of white swirling at their feet—an intriguing look on film but a grueling task to achieve.

Adventist Radio Television Services is happy to participate in the production of this far-reaching series to help keep production costs to a minimum. Pray that God will use these telecasts to reach thousands of our Spanish brothers and sisters wherever they may live.

For 30 years, Ivan Romanoff has delighted and entertained millions of Canadians with his weekly CBC radio programs and television specials.

An acclaimed arranger, composer, conductor, violinist and mandolinist, Romanoff has drawn from a rich mosaic of musical idioms to express his creativity.

Since 1971, he has been conductor and host, annually, for many summer concerts at the FORUM, the "Carnegie Hall" of Toronto's Ontario Place, featuring his 26 piece orchestra, 14 male voice chorus and guest soloists. Eight albums and three decades of unwavering popularity attest to the enormous talent of this revered Canadian musician. A man of deep religious convictions, Ivan Romanoff has seen the value of the entertainment media as a means of reaching out to the spiritual values of people in all walks of life. Because of that conviction, he created the unique arrangements of the new sacred songs on this album.

Composer, Lesia Zubrack, is a former Opera and Concert artist, winner of the Canada-wide "Singing Stars of Tomorrow," and a CBC radio and television writer. Currently, she is creative and musical consultant for Ivan Romanoff Productions, as well as being a professional and spiritual partner to Ivan Romanoff himself.

Having written songs since childhood, she firmly believes that the Lord gave her a special inspiration for the words and music of these new songs.

The 10 voice male chorus, backed by the beautiful strains of harp accompaniment, pours out a message of hope and love that is absolutely unforgettable.

To the Romanoffs, "Good News" is more than just another album. It is a rare and precious gift for believers everywhere. When two immensely talented individuals like the Romanoffs channel their remarkable abilities into a recording dedicated to the Lord, that is Good News indeed!

Canada Welcomes New Secretary

Elder P.F. Lemon has responded favourably to the invitation of the Canadian Union Conference committee to serve as secretary of the church in Canada.

After working his way through, and graduating from, Kingsway College, (then known as Oshawa Missionary College) he went to the States for advanced training. Later he was called to serve God's church in North America, and for several periods in Africa in pastoral, evangelistic, departmental and administrative positions. He is well qualified for this very important responsibility in our field. Most recently Elder Lemon served as president of the church in Quebec where marked growth and progress were very evident.

Elder P.F. Lemon

We welcome Elder and Mrs. Lemon to their new work, and invite our members to pray heaven's abundant blessing on these workers. They have moved to Oshawa and Elder Lemon is already serving in his new assignment since the retirement of Elder A.N. How.

The Lemons have two children serving God's church as missionaries in Africa.

It Is Written Ferndale '80

"This has been a little bit of heaven here at Ferndale '80." "This has been the most wonderful week of my life." "I had the most wonderful week of learning! I know it will be with me all my life."

These were testimonies by guests attending the first It Is Written week-long, live-in seminar ever conducted. Ferndale, the Ontario Conference camp, was the location for this seminar held August 17-23.

The seminar was conducted by George Vandeman and Lonnie Melashenko. Lonnie had a devotional on the practical understanding of salvation and Christian living each morning, and George had a Bible study before dinner. Gary Strunk, director of Health Ministries for the Ontario Conference, had a Life Style meeting each day before supper. George Vandeman concluded each day with a Bible study in the evening.

The Spirit of God spoke to many hearts during the week. The response to the Bible studies was gratifying and interest was keen in the health talks. Several Ontario pastors served as counsellors, and many decisions were made for Christ, including several for baptism and church membership.

More than 100 attended the seminar from 14 major cities such as Toronto, Montreal, Las Vegas, Los Angeles, New York, Chicago, Detroit, and Houston. Approximately 1/3 of the guests were from Canada.

The footwashing and communion service Friday evening was very well received. One of the guests said, "I especially appreciated the opportunity to participate in the footwashing ceremony."

Tears were shed when the time came to go home and say good-bye to new friends.

New French Station

You are wonderful! That is how I feel about your support for the It Is Written TV ministry. Your support with prayer, donations, and follow-up visitation is appreciated.

Because of your good record in the past, and your interest in preaching the gospel by television, we have ventured out in faith to add another French station in Quebec about 125 miles north of Quebec City. I believe that you will support this new station. It will reach approximately 400,000 people.

In this column of the Messenger we will keep a running record for 12 months of special donations, over and above your regular donations, for French TV in Canada and new programs. We need more new programs in Canada. Our goal is $50,000 for French TV and $50,000 for new programs in the next 12 months. Donations which are especially for these two projects should be marked that way when sent it. We will keep you posted on the progress.

Thank you, and God bless you.

Maranatha Builds Prince Rupert Centre

For many years the church has thought to establish a firm presence in the growing city of Prince Rupert. Prince Rupert is a "Super Port" on British Columbia's west coast.

In 1978 proposals were made to establish a health education dental clinic in Prince Rupert. This was not only to establish the presence of the church but to meet the plea of the city for additional dental care. Many months were spent in planning a viable operation and in searching for a suitable site.

A prime location, we believe providentially, became available. This was purchased and prepared for building. The local chapter of Maranatha was contacted and they agreed to accept this as a chapter project for 1980.

June 16 the Maranatha volunteers arrived. A kitchen and eating tent were ready on site. The health department gave an unqualified approval of our eating facility and sent Victoria a fine recommendation for future Maranatha projects. Construction moved quickly - by the first Friday evening the shingles were on the 40 x 80 two-storey structure. The second Friday saw the building essentially completed. Some taping remained to be done in the dental offices on the second floor, the floor covering remained to be put on, a bit of painting and the light fixtures to be hung. The lower floor was ready for worship Friday evening - carpet, heating, and lights.

Prince Rupert Evangelistic and Medical Centre built by Maranatha.

God miraculously cared for the workers, protecting them from accident and providing the necessary equipment and help when needed. (There was one dislocated shoulder in an off-site accident.) The spirit of Maranatha really shone through there, for our dear sister, who was busy painting all the time, was not so concerned about a dislocated shoulder as she was about the fact that she was not able to complete the project.

Our American volunteers were not allowed to work because of some government regulations which, we believe, have since been changed. Others pressed in and filled the gap, thus the hindrance and delay which some expected, did not occur. All who had part in this project were convinced they were sharing with God in a divinely-guided work.

Dr. Ron Bassham will be practicing in the new building by the time you read this. He is being joined by Pastor Ron Gudwer in a Health and Evangelistic outreach for the city. Based on God's providential leading and erecting of this unit we believe that God has a special plan for His work in Prince Rupert.

Walter Rogers
Maranatha Director

No project can succeed without a superintendent and here is the big man, Don Stoyanowski, (in black) studying blue prints with Peter Wheatley. Peter is the recently-appointed Development Director for the B.C. Conference.

Maranatha includes everybody from 9 to 90. Here Reu Hoen, 92, is busy cleaning boards and pulling nails.

Florence Chadwick put a week of hard work in the project. She was painting most of the time but here she is pulling nails. Florence was a real trooper but had the misfortune to trip in the church and dislocate her shoulder.

Baptisms in Langley and Chilliwack

Members of the Langley Church rejoiced as five precious souls were baptized in an early summer baptism. Two of them were young people: Beverly Murphy and Ravina Chandra, whose parents are members of the Langley Church.

Brother and sister Dave Leason have had studies in the past from Elder Frank Johnson and literature evangelist Dan Basaraba months ago in Kamloops. The Spirit of God continued to work on his heart until he decided to go forward in baptism.

Chilliwack church members rejoice for the decision of two people: Sr. Anella Antosko and Br. Frank Galley who were baptized the last Sabbath of Camp Meeting.

Camping at Coureur de Bois

The Canadian flag and the fleur-de-llys of Québec were ceremoniously hoisted up the flagpole at Camp Coureur de Bois and the summer camp season began.

A European style format was followed. Each evening program carried a special theme. There was a game night, a story night, a talent night, a Chinese shadows program, and of course, the traditional campfire.

Wilderness survival, macramé, and plastercraft were offered to the campers. Swimming and canoeing were enjoyed at Lac Maskinongé. Much good food was prepared by the kitchen crew.

M. Kis, of Canadian Union College, was camp pastor. He spoke each day of the meaning of the ten commandments to young Christians.

Québec's new youth director skillfully transferred his many talents from the classroom to the campground, making camp an exciting place to be. Pastor Johnson promises that camp will be even better next year.

James Mays

Five Added to Edmonton Southside

Pastor G. Miller baptized five at the Edmonton Southside church, five from different races and backgrounds, but with one thing in common, a desire to serve their Lord.

Wallin and Veta O'Connor became acquainted with the truths of the Bible through viewing It Is Written.

Jim and Judy Anderson, upon moving to Edmonton, inquired from Pastor Miller if their children could attend Sabbath School. Bible studies and baptism followed.

Audrey Gray from Jamaica learned of the sacredness of the Sabbath from her grandmother. She was sponsored to Canada by an Edmonton lady and began to visit various churches. Because of racial prejudice, she discontinued her church attendance until she remembered about the Sabbath truth she had learned from her grandmother. She then contacted Pastor Miller and now is a welcome member of the Southside church.

Youth at the Helm

May 10 was Youth at the Helm day at Edmonton Southside Church. The youth of the church were responsible for the Sabbath School and church service from greeting the visitors at the front door, serving as deacons, to the final benediction.

The speakers for the main service were Michael Juse, Darrell Gabrys and Shah Pemberton. The service was enjoyed by the members and visitors alike, so much so that they were invited to repeat the program at the Stettler church where the hospitality provided was much appreciated.

Farewell to the Crook Family

On August 7 and 10, farewell parties were held for a family who will always be remembered by the members of the Tantallon and Fox Point churches. Having ministered in the Halifax area for nine years, Pastor David Crook, his wife Yvonne, and their two children, Lori and Stephen, are leaving for Alberta where Pastor Crook will finish his degree at Canadian Union College.

Pastor Crook will always be remembered for his loving ministry and friendship to everyone in the community. Two debt-free churches, Fox Point and Tantallon, were built under his direction. He could always be relied upon for excellent leadership and organization. His smile and hearty handshake were an encouragement to visitors and church members alike.

His wife, Yvonne, was always willing to help with the youth or children's divisions or to assist with the music.

Lori and Stephen will be remembered for their willingness to use their talents for the Lord in many church activities.

The servants of God are we —
Faithful as we march along,

True to the themes of their Pathfinder songs, 180 Pathfinders and leaders from the Maritimes to British Columbia gathered at Winnipeg for a Canada-wide camporee. Twelve clubs were represented as they took part in each event that filled four action-packed days.

Leo Ranzolin, our church world youth leader, challenged each Pathfinder during campfire stories and a worship service on Sabbath to live for Christ.

Conference youth directors teamed up with their club directors and kept the timed events and other important parts of the program moving smoothly.

"Thank you for the camporee, and please have another one real soon." This was the sentiment of several club directors and their Pathfinders as they started for home Sabbath night or early Sunday morning.

Keith Heinrich to New Post

The Heinrich family — Yvonne, Debra, Cherrie and Keith.

Keith Heinrich is the new treasurer of the Ontario Conference Corporation, and manager of Kingsway Pioneer Home. He has served for some time as assistant treasurer of the conference.

Heinrich is a graduate of Union College, Lincoln, Nebraska, with a major in business administration. For about three years he served as assistant administrator of the Sunnyside Nursing Home in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. Before coming to Ontario, Keith was administrator of Swift Current Nursing Home in Swift Current, Saskatchewan.

Mrs. Heinrich (Yvonne) is a graduate of Union College with a major in Home Economics. The Heinrichs have endeared themselves to their fellow members in Ontario.

Welcome to Gerry Grant

We are happy to welcome Gerry Grant to the staff of the Ontario Conference office. Gerry is a graduate of Andrews University, with a degree in Business Administration. Before taking up his duties as cashier-accountant of the Ontario Conference, Gerry worked with OHIP. He is a member of the Toronto West church. It is a pleasure to have him at the office, where he has already done a fine job and has won the respect of his fellow workers.

Ottawa Church Studies Spirit of Prophecy

In the past months the Ottawa Church has been using the book The Desire of Ages as a study guide to the life of Christ, at the Wednesday night prayer service.

Church members read one chapter aloud, followed by a free discussion bringing out the high points of the chapter. Participants have been blessed with greater wisdom and insight into God's Word.

We invite other churches to study the Spirit of Prophecy books with greater fervor as our need for God's instruction becomes so much more intense as these last days come to a close.

Toronto Adventist Ministerial Association Announces Simultaneous Evangelistic Series in Metro

Initiated by the Adventist Ministerial Association, five churches will hold simultaneous meetings this September. Adventist families who attend these churches are encouraged to give their whole-hearted support. Any names of friends or relatives to be contacted should be submitted by phone to the Willowdale Seventh-day Adventist Church office (416)636-2471 or submitted by letter to: 555 Finch Ave. W., Willowdale, Ontario.

The series listed below are forerunners to a follow-up week of meetings hosted by the Destiny television series to be held in Convocation Hall (seating capacity 2,500) at the University of Toronto, October 11-13, 18, 19. Pastor Henry Feyerabend will be the speaker with Wintley Phipps as guest soloist.

Report of Camp Meeting at Six Nations

Several hundred people attended the local camp meeting and listened attentively to guest speaker, Dr. A. Leroy Moore, General Conference Coordinator Native American Work, who presented inspiring messages of faith and conviction.

"Tekawennake," the local Indian reserve newspaper, one of Canada's leading native newspapers, gave prominent coverage of the camp meeting and of Dr. Moore's visit to the Six Nations Reserve.

Six Nations Band Councillor Peter Smith, who deputized for Chief Wellington Staats, Head of the Band Administration, formed part of the rostrum party on Sabbath at the main service and spoke heartily as he welcomed Dr. Moore and the many in attendance. He conveyed warm greetings from Chief Staats and said he "was happy" to be present at the meeting. He was presented with a deluxe copy of The Triumph of God's Love and an advance copy of Meawata an evangelistic booklet written especially for the Indian culture.

Elder Lewis Shipowick, Canadian Union Lay Activities Director, introduced the Sabbath afternoon program entitled "Call of the Six Nations." Several laymen participated, including Sister Enid Davis of Toronto East Church and all the souls she introduced to our message.

Elder Marvin Suiter, Ontario Conference Treasurer, spoke at Sunday's meeting and Miss Jean Robinson assisted with the children's Sabbath school class.

Allen Hrenyk, manager of the A.B.C., and his wife brought a supply of health foods and books. Crafts made locally by Six Nations Indians were on display throughout the camp meeting.

Camp meeting concluded with a tour of the Six Nations Reserve and other points of interest, including Her Majesty's Royal Chapel of the Mohawks and the Woodland Indian Cultural and Educational Centre.

With the help of Dr. Leroy Moore, the special booklet "Meawata," containing inspiring experiences written by a North American Indian Adventist, will be used as campaign literature to attract the native people to our special Bible studies based on Steps to Christ.

It is our hope and prayer that many homes on the Six Nations Reserve will be opened for Bible study to prepare the soil for an evangelistic series which Dr. Moore will hold on the Reserve next spring.

S.S. Teacher for 25 Years!

Mrs. Betty Kinney and her primary class.

How thankful we are for the faithfulness of our Sabbath School teachers.

Our primary division here at the Hamilton Mountain church has been privileged to have Mrs. Betty Kinney teaching for 25 years this year and she's not through yet! Many young people whom she has taught have been blessed by her Christian influence.

Three Baptized at Elliot Lake

"It is not the purpose of God that His people should colonize or settle together in large communities . . . God designs that they shall be scattered all over the country, in the towns, cities, and villages, as lights amidst the darkness of the world . . ."

Testimonies, Vol. 8, p. 244

A few years ago two couples decided to put this counsel into practice and moved to Elliot Lake, Ontario, to join the few believers there. They have worked together and prayed together unitedly. At times the work was discouraging but God's promises have not failed. This past spring an "It Is Written" Seminar was conducted by the writer in Elliot Lake. Three lovely young adults were baptized. We believe that there will soon be a church in this uranium capital of the world. Please pray for this area.

In Ontario alone this story could be repeated many times. However, it is not being repeated because of our lack of venturing forward for the Lord. Will you venture to an unentered area to plant the banner of Christ?

Mr. and Mrs. Rose Celebrate Diamond Wedding

On June 10, 1980, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Rose, of Glovertown, Nfld., celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding by renewing their marriage vows. The anniversary service was held in the Lethbridge S.D.A. Church in the presence of many of the couple's old friends. After renewing their vows, the Roses' testified, with thanksgiving and praise to God, of their satisfying life together. They have been through many trials, including the tragic death of one of their sons, but they were able to state that, with God's love, they have, through the years, grown closer to the Lord.

All present joined in wishing the Roses an eternity together with their Saviour.

Donald Johnson, Pastor

Quill Lake Reunion

The Quill Lake Seventh-day Adventist Church celebrated Saskatchewan's 75th birthday by hosting a reunion for all former members and pastors. Many families from Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba and Saskatchewan came home to renew friendships and enjoy the ministry of former pastors. Pastors James Burgess, Stan Gallant, Steve Yaceyko, William Soloniuk, Ed Teranski and David Friesen spoke during the weekend.

On Sunday an old-fashioned picnic was held at the youth centre. Games, races and dinner were enjoyed by all who were there.

During the weekend our thoughts were often focused on the reunion that will take place when Jesus returns and takes us home to the great reunion of the family of God.

John Gilbert, Pastor

13th Sabbath Offering to Build College in South Pacific

There is amazing growth in the South Pacific.

For ten years Ellen White lived in Australia and at that time the Avondale College was established for the training of local people as church workers and leaders. Today, more than 80 years later, another Avondale-type college is being built to serve the people of the South Pacific Islands.

Truly the scripture has said "The Isles shall wait for thy law" and the responses to the preaching of the Message has been so great that today 63% of the total church membership of the Australasian Division is found, not in Australia and New Zealand where the work began, but in the emerging island nations of the South Pacific area.

Fiji, Tonga, Samoa, Niue, Cook Islands, French Polynesia, Solomon Islands, Kirabati and Tuvalu, New Caledonia, New Hebrides and Papua New Guinea - all have churches and schools filled with thousands of enthusiastic and dedicated Seventh-day Adventists.

In the past ten years many previously dependent territories have moved peacefully into self government and independence.

With independence has come an increasing demand for greater self-reliance and for qualified local people who are able to give leadership in church and school and elsewhere.

Sharing the Word. The keenly intelligent young people of the South Sea Islands are eagerly anticipating the possibility of attendance at the New Pacific Islands College.

A tertiary level college for the training of our youth is an absolute and urgent necessity. The special project for the 13th Sabbath offering, September 27, 1980 is to raise funds for the building of such a college. It will be located at Port Moresby in New Guinea.

BOOK REVIEW

EPISODES AT THE OLIVE PRESS

by Don Pate

Those people that we most highly honour from the Bible had one experience in common. It is called theophany, (a visual appearance of God to man).

If we dig deeply, prayerfully, into the theophany experiences of the great saints in God's "Hall of Fame," we might just catch a glimpse of Jesus Christ. That view might just be the starting point in a new, unending walk with God. That vision might just accomplish for us what it did for those spiritual giants.

Order from your A.B.C., $5.20 plus 85¢ postage.

Doctors, Nurses Needed

There is an urgent need for general practice doctors and nurses to staff wards and surgery units in the camps for the Cambodian refugees in Thailand. Surgeons and OBGYN specialists, O.R. nurses and anesthetists are also needed.

Anyone willing to volunteer their services for at least one month, or more if possible, please contact Elder Don Hunter, General Conference representative at Loma Linda. Office phone: (714)796-7311, home: (714) 785-5707.

Visiting Washington, D.C.? Plan to tour the Review and the General Conference

Before or after touring museums and monuments, you can visit those buttresses of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, the General Conference and the Review and Herald Publishing Association. Located just across the street from each other, the two institutions have coordinated their tour times so that you and your group can easily spend a half day in Takoma Park and still see the Smithsonian, too. Their location on Eastern Avenue is an easy walk to the Metro station two blocks away.

For a morning tour, plan to arrive no later than 9:00. You can tour the General Conference and by 10:30 be in the Review watching paper fly through the presses. Or, take the Review's 10:30 tour first, have lunch at the General Conference skyview cafeteria (you can get a bird's eye view of Washington's monuments from there), and join the 2:00 tour of the General Conference. To tour in the afternoon, take the Review's 2:00 tour, and be at the GC at 3:30.

The Review tour takes you through the production process, with pauses at editorial and advertising offices. Walk through the dark forest of paper storage, where temperatures are specially regulated to keep the 4-mile rolls of paper from warping. See the modern slickness of the web press as it takes those 4-mile rolls through a complex "web" pattern, printing 4 colours on both sides all the while. Compare the old linotype machine to the sophisticated new TV-screens of the linotron typesetting computer.

At the General Conference, enter the cool marble lobby of the North Building for your orientation to the GC's 3-building complex. Feel the contrast as you move from the light of the lobby to the mysterious darkness of the Visitors Center, where you will see "The Great Conflict of the Ages," a panoramic mural with sound accompaniment. Feel renewed pride in your Church as you watch the special Mission Spotlight of Adventist efforts around the world.

At the Central Building, located next door to the Review and Herald, visit the Ellen G. White Estate, with its original writings and photographs of the SDA leaders. Feel the wonder of the oldness around you as you enter the tiny vault and the awesome weight of the 8½ pound Bible she held aloft for 30 minutes. See the changes in the author's handwriting from one of her early manuscripts to a later personal letter.

Arranging to bring your group is easy. Reservations are recommended, and one week's notice is suggested. Write a letter indicating the size of your group, preferred tour times for both the GC and the Review, and your date of arrival. Send the letter to both institutions at: Public Relations, Review and Herald Publishing, 6856 Eastern Ave., NW, Washington, D.C. 20012 and Communications Department, General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, 6840 Eastern Ave., NW, Washington, D.C. 20012.

In keeping with the Washington spirit of free attractions, tours of both institutions are free. Bus parking is available along Eastern Avenue.
