The Dangers of Debt

by Perry A. Parks, Director Stewardship and Development, Canadian Union Conference

We have come to a time in the history of the western world when it is the "in thing" to be in debt. Most of the automobiles people drive and most of the houses they live in are on time payments. With the terrible inflationary trend of the economy today, a family is unable, in most cases, to operate on a cash basis. Credit seems to be the only other route to take. Our whole economy is based on credit. The credit card has made it especially easy for a person or a family to incur debt beyond their ability to pay. Debt can become a trap which Satan will use to destroy a Christian's giving to God and to weaken his faith. However, if the credit card is used properly and paid on a monthly basis, he can control credit instead of credit controlling him. One must be very careful to know how far he can extend himself without danger, and how much he is paying for the credit and carrying charges.

For the Seventh-day Adventist Christian family, financial planning and budgeting is vital. The less interest one can pay to those of the world, the more he will have to give to God's cause. In Counsels on Stewardship, p. 67, we have this inspired instruction: "All must practice economy . . . When one voluntarily becomes involved in debt, he is entangling himself in one of Satan's nets which he sets for souls."

Another danger that confronts the Christian when he is in debt is his tithe and offering responsibility to God. When one is burdened down with bills he may be tempted to withhold his tithe and feel that he cannot give an offering to God. Debt then becomes a dangerous yoke around his neck, which will choke off the rich blessing that God desires to give those who are faithful in returning an honest tithe and a freewill offering.

"Some have not come up and united in the plan of systematic benevolence, excusing themselves because they were not free from debt. They plead that they must first 'owe no man anything.' But the fact that they are in debt does not excuse them. I saw that they should render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. Some feel conscientious to 'owe no man anything,' and think that God can require nothing of them until their debts are all paid. Here they deceive themselves. They fail to render to God the things that are His. Everyone must bring to the Lord a suitable offering. Those who are in debt should take the amount of their debts from what they possess, and give a proportion of the remainder." Testimonies, Vol. 1, p. 220

As individuals who are looking for the soon return of our Saviour, let's pray for wisdom and good judgment in managing our finances, and avoid, as far as possible, the danger of debt.

The first and most essential ingredient in Christian leadership is faith. The Bible emphasizes this vital fact, and God reminds us that "without faith it is impossible to please God." (Heb. 11:6) Fellow-worker for the Master, as you look at your own local church, is your faith big enough to really believe your church can grow? — or have you given up and resigned yourself to things as they are?

May I share something about the growth of the church with you? I believe the greatest obstacle in the path of the growth of God's work today is not the lack of money, talent or energy. The greatest obstacle in our way is our own unbelief — unbelief in God's power to make His work to triumph where we are, and unbelief in the fact that He will use us to do the job and to finish the work now. Satan does put his roadblocks in our way. The Bible says that he is come down unto us "having great wrath" because he knows he has but a short time (Rev. 12:12), and further that "evil men and seducers will wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived." (2 Tim. 3:13) But there is nothing wrong with your church or the situation in your community that God can't cure. What we need the most at this time is a large faith to believe in our great God to do something really BIG for us, and to do it NOW. "Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." (Heb. 11:1)

One of my dreams is that by 1990 (10 years from now, if time lasts!) our membership in the provinces of Canada will have doubled, better still even tripled, and that tens of thousands of new, energetic believers will be sitting in the pews with us and joining us in carrying this glorious, saving truth about Jesus to our friends and neighbours. It can be done. Our dreams can be a reality — if we believe God for it and move to make that faith and those dreams come true.

This means we must reach out in faith now. It means we must prayerfully prepare ourselves, the ministry in our own church, and our present facilities for these precious people. It means we must begin looking for places in nearby communities where new congregations should be started and lay large enough plans, establish great enough goals, and start working now in such a way as to accomplish what we are seeking now by faith. What a tragedy if we let money or glass or steel or mortar hinder our winning these lost to Christ and having a broad ministry for Him together.

Jesus, over and over again, emphasized to His disciples the necessity of exercising faith. Do you remember the story of the man who had an epileptic son? The disciples tried to cure him, but they sadly failed. Then Jesus cast out the demon and the child was instantly made well. Later, when the disciples asked why He could do it and they couldn't,

Seeing Your Church Through the Eyes of Faith

Jesus said, "Because of your unbelief. If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed . . . nothing shall be impossible unto you." (Matt. 17:20)

When Peter walked on the water on a stormy night, he started out to do it — and it worked! But he lost his nerve and began to sink. What did Jesus say in rebuke? "O thou of little faith." (Matt. 14:31) As Jesus comes by your side today, as He looks over His present-day disciples, particularly those whom He is holding responsible as leaders in His churches, He must frequently say, "O ye of little faith."

Without faith it is impossible to please God. Without faith it is also impossible for churches to grow and souls to be won. If you as an individual Christian do not look ahead in faith and see your church growing, it will not grow.

Keep in mind that faith is a quality which must be set into concrete provisions. Faith means we set goals in terms of things hoped for and things unseen. Every goal is a statement of faith and it is a very direct, a very intentional exercise of faith. Pastor, church or conference worker, church board member, Sabbath School worker, why not exercise your faith? Why not begin believing God for greater things, and in laying your plans for your church, work those plans in a more concrete and definite way than ever before? Remember this — an indispensable condition for a growing church is that it must want to grow. This doesn't mean that a church will grow by just wanting to. But it does mean that if you don't want it to grow, if you don't plan for it to grow, and set goals for it to grow, nothing is likely to happen! It means setting measurable objectives to grow and working to fulfill these growth objectives. Goal setting and measurable objective planning is another way of applying Biblical faith.

Someone has said that the fact is that some Christians do not want their church to grow. Somehow they have learned to rationalize their lethargy toward winning the lost to Christ, and they have learned to live with it in such a way that they can be comfortable about not winning the lost and can be content about not doing very much about it. Some have even developed a very special remnant theology of their own. We are God's Remnant Church, of course, but we can take an undue satisfaction in being a minority, despised by unbelievers. We can centre down on the idea that our religion is supposed to be unattractive, and enjoy being seen as "separate from the world" and a small people. This is certainly not God's purpose for us. He has given us a command to go to every town and hamlet in the world. This message is to cover the earth "as the waters cover the sea." (Isa. 11:9) It is to go to every nation, kindred, tongue and people, and this is the major work we have to do.

I want you to think about this. Things do not have to remain as they are in any local church. They can be changed. Commit yourself to Christ. Begin there, because this is first. Next, commit yourself to your brothers and sisters in Christ for a finished work. Just nice and decent people will never get the job done. Only those who are totally given to Christ and to His Body of believers will do this kind of front-line work.

"Some look always at the objectionable and discouraging features, and therefore discouragement overtakes them. They forget that the heavenly universe is waiting to make them agencies of blessing to the world; and that the Lord Jesus is a never-failing storehouse from which human beings may draw strength and courage. There is no need for despondency and apprehension. The time will never come when the shadow of Satan will not be cast athwart our pathway. Thus the enemy seeks to hide the light shining from the Sun of Righteousness. But our faith should pierce this shadow." Gospel Workers, pages 265, 266.

My friend, are you seeing your church through the eyes of faith? How is your faith today? Is it big enough? To every fellow-worker in Canada I say, "Take courage, brother. Take courage in the Lord, and let's move out together — in faith!"

Nutrition Week Goes Canada Wide

by E. Sokol, Dietary Dept., Branson Hospital

This year marks the introduction of Canada's first National Nutrition Week, March 2-7, 1981. Activities are being co-ordinated by the Canadian Dietetic Association through provincial planning committees. The theme is Energy Balance and the slogan "Energy In - Energy Out" has been coined. The topic of energy balance is most often associated with excess "Energy In" causing overweight. This is quite understandable because of the prevalence of obesity in our country. However, the other side of the story is imbalance in the form of excess "Energy Out" causing underweight and undernutrition. True energy balance has to be considered from both sides, and we would like readers to give some thought to this simple but logical slogan.

In North York, Ontario, Mrs. E. Sokol sat in the North York Nutrition Committee - planning the promotion of this theme. As ideas for activities involving schools, hospitals, the public, etc. were being tossed back and forth, a suggestion was made to include churches. This impressed her as being a golden opportunity for the Seventh-day Adventist churches across Canada to be examples of a people living by God-given health principles, and thereby concerned enough to get involved in this national health-related activity of Nutrition Week. It is as if a door has been opened wide and all we need to do is step in. We would like to suggest that wherever possible, in all churches across the country, we accept the privilege and step in through this door of opportunity and get involved by setting aside of a day by the church during Nutrition Week (be it Sabbath or a weekday) for a Health & Nutrition-oriented program. Furthermore, it's an opportunity to publicize our concerns, promotional projects, and involvement in the National Nutrition Week - through the local mass media, and by feedback to the Canadian Messenger. We believe that this is one method we can use to back our claim of having the "Health Message," for blessed are they that "DO."

Prayer Care Partners

It Is Written

I want to thank each one of you who are praying for It Is Written and also those who have become special Prayer Care Partners by supporting It Is Written and with donations too.

Donations from viewers are the only way we have to finance the It Is Written programs. We are wholly dependent upon you.

I think all of the Prayer Care Partners have been notified by mail that there is a delay in the shipment of the Prayer Care Bible. The Bibles were not properly made. We did not want to give you a poor Bible. The Company is reprinting the complete order at their expense so you will have a nice Bible. You should get it in April. We apologize for the delay.

If you have not yet sent in your card for this beautiful Prayer Care Bible, you should do so now. If we get your card and first donation soon, we will be sure to order enough Bibles for everyone.

Read this: One viewer wrote in for the book Tying Down the Sun. In her request she said, "I hope this will help to answer the many questions in my mind." Are you searching for answers too? Many are. Help keep the program on every station by your continued support.

Evangelism in Vernon

A profound Seminar, "The End of Time Prophecy," has just been completed in Vernon by Pastor H. Heghesan. This seminar was held in conjunction with the Lay Activities and Visitation program by Brother D. Wake-man and some of the elders.

The seminar was held three times a week for six weeks. As the pure and simple truths were presented to the congregation in such a clear, easily understood way, the attendance indicated the thirst for the Truth, the know-ledge of things to come. There were several baptisms held with nine persons baptized.

The second baptism, held December 6, 1980. Rear row - Mr. Bruce Prokopetz, Pastor H. Heghesan, Mr. Roy L. Searle and Mr. Ron Miller. Front row - Mrs. Jean Prokopetz, Mrs. Gloria Kelly, Mrs. Zelda Penney and Mrs. Ron Miller.

70 Years Married!

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Carswell of Vernon, B.C. in their home on their 70th wedding anniversary. Greetings of congratulations were received from their many friends, Her Majesty, The Queen, Prime Minister Trudeau, Premier Bennett, MLA Pat Jordan and MP V. Dantzer. May the Lord continue to bless them abundantly.

Cranbrook Church Dedicated

The Cranbrook British Columbia church is now debt free. Many friends came to share in the joy of the dedication service.

The Cranbrook group first formed into a company in January, 1971 with the help of Pastor John Popowich.

In 1978, our offer to buy the Mormon church was accepted and in 1979 our group was organized into a church with 34 charter members. Several members have since en-larged our church membership.

We are grateful to many who have made this dedication possible by their giving of their time and finances.

Witnessed by family and members of the Fort St. John and Dawson Creek churches, Ivy Mazanek was baptized in the beautiful Peace River. This occasion was also a farewell to Pastor Pat Scott and his family who's new pastorate is at Salmon Arm, B.C.

Twenty-six Baptized in Ponoka

Group at Ponoka baptized by Mel Pond

"Unbelievable." This is the way Brother Kennedy, head elder of the Ponoka church described it. Brother Albers, a dedicated layman, who was one of the first to be baptized in the Ponoka church thirteen years ago said that since that time he has never witnessed anything like it before. "We are surely living in the last days," he said. And the Pastor, Mel Pond, who was praying for at least fifteen baptisms, baptized the largest group in one evening since his ministry began.

If you were to visit the Ponoka church on a Sabbath morning you would see people sitting in aisles and on the rostrum. There is just not enough room. A major project is planned for Ponoka — a church school in the Ponoka area and a new church in the near future.

God's Word does not return unto Him void. Preaching God's last warning message, the three angels' messages, and winning souls is the priority of the church. May we, "the church" arise and shine before it is too late.

Eight Form Nucleus of New Church at Grand Centre

Grand Centre, Alberta was the location of Dr. Wadie Farag's It Is Written series. At the conclusion of these meetings eight persons joined the church by baptism. They are: Jeanette Whitford, Eva and Mike Fujczak, Margaret Gales, Lorne Craige, Rienhold and Charlotte Richter, and Don Ollenberger.

Stirring testimonies were related by those newly baptized folks who are convinced that the day of miracles is not past.

With the addition of these sincere and enthusiastic new members, the realization of a church in Grand Centre seems certain in the near future.

Portuguese of Edmonton Hold Five-Day Plan

The Portuguese members of the Edmonton Central Church wanted to help their fellow countrymen to a better and more healthful way of living. Plans were laid to invite Pastor Benito Raymundo with his wife and daughter from the Toronto Portuguese church, to lead out in a 5-day Plan to Stop Smoking.

The plan turned out to be a great success.

Lay Team Holds Thirty 5-Day Plans in Seven Years

by John Boardman, Temperance Director,
Manitoba-Saskatchewan Conference

The 5-Day Plan to Stop Smoking team in Saskatoon have just completed another program at the St. Paul's Hospital. Among the 56 people who have registered were Mr. and Mrs. Tyrell who had their registration fee paid by a concerned friend as a gift. The smile of victory on the faces of this couple are representative of the happiness experienced by the 52 people who claimed victory over their habit.

As I attended the program one evening, it was a thrill to witness the dedication and enthusiasm demonstrated by this team of laymen as they went into action and learn they have been working together for almost 7 years. The coordinator and director of the group is Brother Lou Williams, a registered nurse, working with the Saskatchewan government and who is the head elder of the Mount Royal Church. His team includes his wife, Joyce, also a registered nurse, Jake Lebedoff, a retired school teacher, Marjorie Akre, housewife and active temperance leader in the Central Church, and Olive Tkachuk, housewife and retired nursing home worker. Dr. Houston, a Radiologist from the University Hospital, ably assists the group one night during the week to demonstrate the destroying effect of tobacco smoke on the human body.

During the past seven years a very impressive record has been set by Brother Williams and his faithful helpers. They have held approximately 30 programs with a total attendance of about 1,400 people. Among the hundreds who have gained victory over smoking have been a doctor, a dentist, nurses, educators plus many other professional people. The temperance department commends these active members of the Mount Royal and Central Churches for such a fine record.

Two Million Through Introductory

by Lewis A. Shipowicz
Canada

Two million homes are being lit for God across Canada through the introductory issue of Signs of the Times. This is the first step in lighting all homes in Canada. Within three years we are hopeful to place in every home in Canada a free introductory copy of Signs of the Times.

How I wish you could see the hundreds of return cards coming across my secretary's desk. We are confident that a great multitude will be gathered for God as a result of our seed sowing through the Signs of the Times.

Some churches are covering their entire mission field this year; some next year, but let us all plan to have every home covered for God by 1983.

Signs helped Janet Froehlick know God better. Here is a brief account of how God guides and used Signs in the lives of Janet and her family.

Janet's Story

Janet was attending the University of Saskatchewan, enrolled in the nursing course in 1975-76. That winter the Campus Crusade for Christ held meetings and Janet accepted Christ. This first love experience gave her a desire to study the Bible.

Within a few weeks, Mrs. Sarah Carbert from the Saskatoon SDA Church distributed Signs of the Times in the apartment building where Janet lived. In the Signs was a card for Bible Study Guides. Janet says this was providential, because she wanted to study the Bible. The Bible studies were followed up by Mrs. Bill Brucks of the Saskatoon Church. It was Mrs. Brucks who encouraged the members to distribute the Signs.

Several months of Bible studies were followed by Janet's baptism in November, 1976.

Signs Opens the Eyes

In the late 1930's, a tottering, feeble old lady visited her neighbours in Springfield, Massachusetts. Visited, that is, when her daughter and son-in-law were not home to restrain her. They were embarrassed with mother's religion and fervor. Yet mother would meet the bread man and milk man at the back door with her literature in hand whenever she had opportunity.

She noted the arrival of new neighbours with young boys and week after week she slowly climbed those backsteps to the second floor tenement with her favourite paper in hand. Not wanting to hurt the feelings of Mrs. Scherer, the papers came periodically and piled up. But as time went on, the mother and oldest son began to read.

What was read made sense. Soon, Mrs. Scherer began inviting mother and son to some "meetings." Slowly it came out this old German lady with broken English worshipped on Saturday instead of Sunday and the name Seventh-day Adventist was heard for the first time.

She was persistent. After repeated invitations, again not to hurt her feelings, mother and son accompanied Mrs. Scherer to the "meetings." Part of the persuasion was that she had no other way to get there. The papers still came and were read.

It was with great joy that Mrs. Scherer saw her neighbour lady and son baptized into the church that meant so much to her. She did not live to see the rest of that neighbour family baptized. But some day she will see the reward of her labour, results that no doubt span the globe as one life touched another over the years. All these grateful ones will thank her for those weekly Signs of the Times that opened the eyes of the Herbert E. Douglass, Sr. family, forty years ago.

Signs at Every Door

by G.C. Hermans

The Seventh-day Adventist Church exists for only one purpose: to tell mankind that they need to get ready to meet the Saviour. If we ever lose sight of the reason why the Lord has called us into existence, it would be better to disappear.

The world is full of confusion today. We should give serious thought to the responsibility placed upon the shoulders of each Adventist by God. Luke 1:17 words it this way "... prepare a people for the Lord."

One cannot give what one does not have. Our first duty then is to "... Work out our own salvation with fear and trembling" Phil 2:12 and to "... make our calling and election sure." 2 Peter 1:10. In other words establishing and maintaining a personal relationship with Christ must be our first objective. To neglect this is to lose everything (Matthew 25:1-13). We cannot be saved because we are church members but only if we are new beings in Jesus.

We often say that we are happy because we are in the truth. I believe that we should rather say: "I am happy because the truth is in me." This is altogether different. The disciples were one day telling Jesus about how successful they had been in the missionary campaign. They rejoiced to see that even "the spirit (Satan) submitted to them." How surprised they were when Jesus replied "... but rather rejoice because your names are written in heaven." Luke 10:20. The important thing is to be a member of God's family through Christ.

To know the truth, to be in it, is good, one may add that it is even important. But this alone does not save. What saves is the work that truth performs in us, changing our characters, preparing us for eternal life. The second aspect of the work is to "make ready, people prepared for the Lord."

During the months of Bible studies, Janet would tell her mother and sisters of her new beliefs. This aroused an interest and in July of 1979, Sandra was baptized in Saskatoon by Pastor Rudy James.

Janet also studied the Bible with her fiancé during this time and he was baptized in December, 1978, and they were married in June of 1979.

Sandra and her mother and other sisters continued to study. Mrs. Inez Froehlick and daughter Terri Bruce were baptized in Moose Jaw in October, 1979, by Pastor James, and Brenda Froehlick was baptized in March of 1980.

Another sister, Yvonne Kerr is attending church, also Gail Froehlick.

There has been and is opposition, but all are rejoicing in the love of God and the redemptive power of Jesus our Saviour.

We hope that the chain reaction of the gospel and the Holy Spirit will bring others in to baptism.

Up to the 1980 Camp Meeting, the following have been baptized beginning with Jane Froehlick-La Londe: Mike La Londe, Sandra Froehlick, Mrs. Inez Froehlick, Terri Froehlick-Bruce, and Brenda Froehlick. Attending church are Yvonne Froehlick-Kerr and Gail Froehlick.

"Enclosed is our order to renew our subscription to Signs of the Times. We find Signs to be one of the best of all religious publications, even better than we have in our church. We don't want to miss even one copy of Signs of the Times. Many thanks and may God bless your work."—Mr. & Mrs. E.C.H.

It is encouraging to know that there are over 30,000 Adventists in Canada. But we should not bask in the warmth of that knowledge. Out there, are 24,000,000 who must hear the last message.

Romans 10:13-14 says "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher?"

It Is Written, The Quiet Hour, Faith for Today, The Voice of Prophecy, Destiny, preachers, pastors, teachers and the lay members, all try to meet this responsibility of preaching the Word to the world. Colporteurs with persevering efforts participate in the proclamation of this message also.

But it is not enough yet. There must be something for each door. Every family in Canada must have in hand at least once, a message to understand, clear, precise and free. We are happy to say that we now have just that.

"May I say that, while I am a member of another church, Signs of the Times gives me more spiritual value than anything my church publishes. Enclosed is my order to renew my subscription. Be assured that you have a new and faithful reader."—P.F.C.

The special issue of the Signs of the Times is an answer to an expectation. They are inexpensive so they can be widely distributed. Reading it will raise questions, cause discussion and bring solutions. God wants us to spread the gospel in an aggressive but polite way, not to hurt but to create interest. Then His Spirit will be able to work in the hearts of the people and influence them to do what is right.

The French-speaking Canadians — and there are quite a few outside Quebec — have always been the burden of some of us. We know that Christ cannot come as long as 4,500,000 French-speaking Quebecers have not been warned. They are still waiting. The doors are wide open. The response to the French program Il Est Ecrit proves that beyond any doubt. But the province is so big, distance so great and the workers so few!

Now our church members have in hand simultaneously in English and French this special issue. For legal reasons this magazine is known here as The Sentinel and not Signs of the Times. But its impact will be the same. One condition must be met though. This paper must be distributed. I am not talking of just placing one number in a letter box. The result would be scanty. It must be handed to people with an invitation to read and pass to others. This is the needed tool to work in our individual territories. We must make sure that each door receives one of these special issues in the months ahead.

Then we must be ready to keep in touch with these people who show signs of interest. There will be many of them in Quebec and the other provinces. More than we may have ever imagined. Lots of work? Yes. Lots of time? Yes. Lots of bother? Yes. Less time to watch our favourite program on TV? Certainly, but is that so bad?

There will also be happiness, a great satisfaction of work well done. The privilege of working with God, and the happiness of seeing new groups and new churches formed. Is there any greater happiness for a follower of Jesus?

The ultimate joy will be meeting people in eternity, people we never met before, people we knew not and yet for whom we have worked and prayed. What a reward!

Friends, I am not dreaming impossible dreams. I am just thinking about what God wants to do and can do if we just do our part.

Does not E.G. White write that there are no limits to the possibilities of the humble soul who surrenders fully to the divine influence? Then why wait so long? Let's seize the opportunity to share this special edition. Many souls will be in heaven as a result of this work. In their name I wish to say "thank you."

Welcome to Pastor and Mrs. Abel and Family

Pastor and Mrs. Marcel Abel and daughter Karen.

The welcome mat is out for St. Leonard's new pastor, Marcel Abel. He and his family come to us from the Inter-American Division where Elder Abel served five years as field Secretary and the last five years as Division Temperance Secretary.

Holding a degree in accounting from an institution in Haiti, Abel is also a graduate of West Indies College in Mandeville, Jamaica.

Elder Abel has a vast range of experience, having served as conference Youth Director, Bible teacher, district pastor, MV Director, and Education Superintendent in Haitian fields. At the Union level he directed the radio and television work while producing programmes for broadcast and supervised the educational work throughout Haiti, Guadeloupe and Martinique.

Pastor Abel met his wife Franzie while teaching at the Seminary in Haiti. They have four children; one resides in New Jersey, two daughters are students at Andrews University, and Karen is at home.

It is a privilege to have this dedicated and versatile family join hands with the workers of the Quebec Association.

James Mays

The congregation at Westmount are most appreciative for this emphasis on health week.

Farewell to Pastor Samms

Pastor Samms and family have moved to LaSalle, Quebec where he has taken the responsibility as pastor of the church there.

The Samms family, at the Westmount Church since 1973, have made many friends whose prayers go with them in their new location. Under Pastor Samms leadership, the LaSalle and Point St. Charles churches were formed, the Westmount church grew in membership and the elementary school obtained secondary status.

At the farewell gifts were presented to the family in appreciation of their service.

More News from Quebec

Pastor Morosoli, who is well known for his promotion of 5-Day Plans, conducted another one at Westmount in December.

At the Health Emphasis Week at the Westmount Church there was interest, feedback and enthusiasm. Specialists in several areas held the audience in rapt attention with their lectures on different aspects of keeping good health.

Gary Strunk of the Ontario Conference gave a lot of food for thought with his "Advantages of Vegetarianism." Heart and chest diseases, and their relationship to smoking were also discussed.

Dr. Ian Malcolm, heart specialist and speaker at Westmount, is seen here with Miss L. Peters and M. Lee.

“Our Mission in Ontario” Theme at Camp Frenda Meetings

Elder Bacchus thanks the workers for their part in surpassing the Ingathering objective.

Elder Beck discusses an “issue” with Elders Knoll, DeForest and Fischbacher.

“Our Mission in Ontario” was the theme of the Ontario Conference Workers’ Meeting held at Camp Frenda, January 4-7. Highlighting this theme were presentations by Dr. Fritz Guy, Dean of Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University, and Elder E.C. Beck, Ontario Conference President. After Elder Beck’s presentation on “Our Mission in Ontario,” there were separate group discussions, followed by a general session where reports from the groups were given.

The basic question addressed during the group discussion was, “Reasons Why Jesus Waits.” Some of the reasons were: insubordination, disobedience, selfishness, lack of surrender, the message has not been preached effectively, need for a living connection with Christ, pride, etc . . . Elder Beck summarized the discussion by stating, “Christ will come at the time He has appointed and there is a generation that will respond to God’s invitation to implement all the forces, factors and programs necessary to make that coming possible. I pray to God it will be in this generation.”

An Ingathering Victory Banquet was held on Monday evening, January 5, celebrating the attainment of $217,875.00 surpassing the objective of $170,000.00 This is the largest amount ever raised for Ingathering in Ontario. Elder E.R. Bacchus, Conference

Lay Activities Director, and Elder L.A. Shipowick, Canadian Union Conference Lay Activities Director, were present to extend congratulations to the pastors for their achievement. Elder Gary Grimes, newly elected Periodical Department Manager of the Pacific Press (which paid for the banquet), challenged the members of Ontario to carry on an active and effective soul winning ministry through the use of Signs of the Times and These Times.

Other guest speakers at the Workers’ Meeting were Elders P.F. Lemon and R.W. Wilmot, secretary and treasurer respectively, of the Canadian Union.

One hundred thirty-six Attend Five-Day Plan in Labrador

The Canadian Forces Chapel at Goose Bay, Labrador was the site of a successful 5-Day Plan conducted by Roy West and Bill Nepjuk of the Newfoundland Conference.

One hundred thirty-six smokers braved stormy weather on snowmobiles and cross country skis in order to kick the habit. By Friday night, 93 had gained the victory.

Public interest was high with daily media coverage on television and radio and the mayor of the town declared one day as "Smokeless Thursday."

Plans are for a second 5-Day Plan.

Corner Brook Baptism

It was a quiet New Year's Eve in the Corner Brook, Nfld. church as the members and non-members came together to give thanks to God for His goodness in 1980. The climax of the year-end came with the baptism of Shirley Murphy by Pastor James Sharpe. Shirley is a dedicated worker and will be an asset to the work in Newfoundland.

Sunflower seeds are used in abundance for livestock and poultry feed. In more recent years, the kernels are pressed and the oil extracted yielding a highly polyunsaturated oil. A few sunflower seeds filter their way to the grocery stores to be eaten as snacks – or in rare cases even to make it to the dinner table.

Sunflower seeds are less costly than nuts, and yet give dishes a nutty flavour as well as contributing a high quality of protein, iron and B Vitamins to the diet. The protein in sunflower seeds is more usable than that found in legumes – except for soybeans. When sunflower seeds are combined with grains or peanuts, the protein quality is markedly improved.

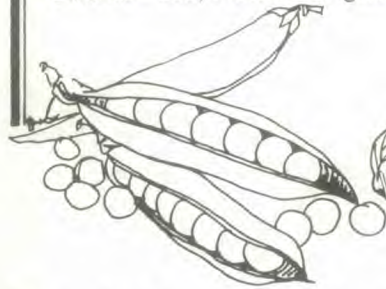

In this recipe, bread crumbs compliment the protein found in the sunflower seeds. Pumpkin seeds can be used as a substitute for part or all of the sunflower seeds. When pumpkin seeds are used, the iron content of the recipe is improved.

This recipe is best if it can be allowed to set awhile to allow for blending of flavours. It can be prepared one day, stored in the refrigerator overnight and baked the next day.

Sunflower Loaf

1/2 cup ground sunflower seeds	1/2 cup grated raw potato	1 cup skim milk
1/2 cup bread crumbs	1 tsp. salt	1/2 cup grated onion
1 cup ground walnuts

Mix all ingredients well. Bake at 350° F for one hour. Serves 6. Per serving: Calories – 260; Protein – 11 gms. – Iron – 2 gms.
