SISTER NETHERY FATALLY BURNED

Mrs. Ellen Eliza Nethery, wife of Elder Jay J. Nethery, president of the Central Union Conference, was fatally burned Wednesday morning, July 11, 1928, at her home in College View. Sister Nethery had been cleaning some clothes in gasoline in the basement of her home. After hanging the clothes on the line, she returned to the basement and turned the electric switch on her washer, planning to wash some clothes which she had already placed in the machine. A spark from the motor ignited the gas in the basement and immediately enveloped Sister Nethery in flame. She ran into the yard calling for help. Neighbors came to her aid and succeeded in smothering out the flames, but not until practically her entire body was burned.

At the time of the accident Elder Nethery was in the union conference office, about a half block away. He reached his wife shortly after the flames had been extinguished, and immediately ordered an ambulance, which took Sister Nethery to a Lincoln hospital, where she passed away about six o'clock in the afternoon.

The funeral service was held in the College View church, Sabbath afternoon, July 14. Elder S. G. Haughey, president of the Nebraska Conference, conducted the service, assisted by Elder M. L. Rice, president of the Colorado Conference, and Elder H. C. Hartwell, president of the Missouri Conference. The pallbearers were: Elder J. W. Turner, president of the Inter-Mountain Conference; Brother R. T. Emery, secretary-treasurer of the Central Union Conference; Elder Charles Burroughs, home missionary secretary of the Central Union Conference; Professor C. W. Marsh, Missionary Volunteer and educational secretary of the Central Union Conference; Professor P. L. Thompson, president of Union College; and Professor D. D. Rees, editor of the Central Union Outlook and "The Christian Record."

Elder Nethery, his two sons, Ronald and Raymond, and Mr. A. G. Hedge-cock, father of Mrs. Nethery, accompanied the corpse to Riverside, Calif., leaving Lincoln shortly after the funeral service in the College View church.

Sister Nethery was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hedgecock, and was born in York County, Nebr., Jan. 31, 1878. At the time of her death she was 50 years, 5 months, and 11 days of age.

MRS. J. J. NETHERY

In 1888 her parents moved to western Nebraska. Here she made her home until she entered Union College about 1895. At the time of the first Seventh-day Adventist camp-meeting held in northwestern Nebraska, at Chadron, she was baptized and united with the church. After completing her work in Union College in 1898, she began teaching school in Topeka, Kans., and continued to teach until about the time of her marriage to Jay J. Nethery on Oct. 1, 1901. To this union were born two sons, Ronald and Raymond.

At the invitation of the foreign mission board, Brother and Sister Nethery sailed for England in October, 1902, remaining two years in connection with our denominational work in the British Isles. In 1904 they returned to America where they remained until 1906, when they were called to help open up the work in Egypt, and for two years they labored in that field. In 1908 they went to England and continued work in that field, laboring in the South and North England conferences until 1912, when they returned to America and were connected with the work in Portland, Ore. In 1914 they were called to connect with the work in Boise City, Idaho, where they remained two years. From 1916 to 1920 Brother and Sister Nethery and family lived at Walla Walla, Wash., while Elder Nethery was president of the Upper Columbia Conference. In 1920 Elder Nethery was called to take the presidency of the Southeastern California Conference. The family moved to Riverside, where they continued their united labors until Elder Nethery was called to the presidency of the Southern Union Conference in 1926. About a month ago the family moved to College View in response to a call for Brother Nethery to take the presidency of the Central Union Conference.

Sister Nethery has united in all the labors of her husband, standing by his side and encouraging him in every way. She has been a devoted and loving wife and mother; and wherever she has been called to go with her husband, she has endeared herself to the people by her faithful, Christian life, and her influence has greatly helped many precious souls, both in the Old World and in the American field. The sad accident which caused her death came as a great shock to the family and her large circle of friends.

She leaves her husband, two sons, an aged father, two brothers, and one sister, besides a large circle of friends who cherish her memory.

She sleeps in Jesus, "soon to rise,
When the last trump shall rend the skies;

Then burst the fetters of the tomb,
And wake in full, immortal bloom."

CAMP-MEETING

Definite plans should be made from now on for camp-meeting. This year the meeting has been appointed for the fall, largely for the benefit of the farmers. Doubtless, most of our city folk could attend camp-meeting at any time. However, since there are so many farmers whose coming is more convenient in the fall we have arranged to have the camp-meeting late. It is necessary for you to send in your order for rooms or tent. The prices of the dormitory rooms are $6.00, $8.00, $10.00 and $12.00 each, ranging according to the size of the room.

We hope to make the tents not more than $5.50 apiece without the floor. The flooring will be just exactly what it costs us. The drayage for the baggage and trunks from Abilene is seventy-five cents; from Detroit, thirty-five cents; from Enterprise, twenty-five cents. There is to be no cooking in the rooms, but the higher priced rooms can have two beds. The orders for the rooms will be recorded in the order in which they come in. It is time to order your tent or room, for we will not hold ourselves responsible in giving you reservations for camp-meeting unless you send in word.

In the rooms, one bed, mattress and spring, a dresser and two chairs are being furnished with each room. Everything else is extra. Let us pray for a good attendance at this camp-meeting. C. S. Wiest.

KANSAS NEWS NOTES

Elder Wiest went to College View Tuesday evening, the 10th, to attend the Union College board meeting which was to be held the following day.

The special "Signs" number which has been previously announced has reached the mark of over 200,000 in circulation. Of this number about 2,500 have been used in our conference. This good number can still be had and your orders will receive prompt attention. Circulate it widely.

Miss Wallace spent last Sabbath with the Topeka II church.

Brother Wagner spent last Sabbath at Leavenworth.

Last Wednesday Elder Wiest was called to Leonardville to conduct the funeral of Brother Lynch.

Elder Sanderson, who has been in our conference for several weeks in the interest of the "Review and Herald," spent a little while at our office one day last week. We are always glad to have visitors come and call on us.

Brother Wagner has been at Phillipsburg assisting a few of our lady colporteurs up there. They are doing real well and have determined to stay by the job all summer.

Mr. Schlotthauer's father, of California, spent a few days with him this week.

Mrs. J. B. Aitken is in Topeka visiting her sister and friends.

If there are any who would like to make their Sabbath school offering, church expense, or to lay aside a little week by week to make up their thirteenth Sabbath offering and not use their own money, write in and ask for the formula. We have a splendid one. Several have tried it last quarter and it is successful.

CAMP-MEETING DATES CHANGED

For the benefit of the teachers, parents, and children who will attend the public schools, we have changed the dates of the camp-meeting so that the meeting will begin August 24 and close September 1.

I hope that this change will be agreeable to our people in general. Let us begin to plan to be there. May we all have the privilege to attend this annual gathering, and enjoy the good things given at camp-meetings. C. S. Wiest.

THE DENVER JUNIOR ACADEMY

For many years there has been a much-felt need for better school facilities in Denver. In past years we have conducted two schools in Denver; the first six grades were taught in connection with the West Denver church, and grades seven to ten in connection with the South Denver church. It was the conviction of the Denver members that a much better school and a stronger school spirit would prevail if the entire school could be placed under one roof with a good strong principal in charge. While the need has been felt for some time, it has been impossible to make a move toward securing a suitable building because of the financial condition of the conference. The conference committee felt as if it would not be advisable to launch a building program in Denver until after the debt on Campion Academy was paid. Following the paying of the Campion debt, study was given to the Denver situation.

A few weeks ago the writer, with Brother W. F. Field, the conference secretary-treasurer, made a canvass of the city of Denver in search of a suitable school property. In a providential way we were directed to a school building formerly used by the public schools. This structure is a large two-story brick building, containing four large sunny school rooms with a good basement containing living quarters for the janitor.

When this building was first found we felt at once as if this was the place God would have us secure. This property could not be duplicated for less than $40,000. This school building had passed from the Denver school board into private ownership. We at once set about to get in touch with the owner to see if the building could be purchased. After some negotiations with the owner we were able to buy this splendid building with an entire city block of land for the small sum of $4,500. To the people in Denver this seemed to be a providential opening. The matter was presented to the school board and then to the churches, the result being that the money was subscribed and the purchase made.

The building is being cleaned and redecorated and will be in splendid condition for the opening of school in September.

Professor C. C. Leinbaum, of Greeley, Colo., has been secured as principal. A good strong faculty is being assembled to work with him and we believe that a new era has come for the church school work in Denver. We anticipate the largest attendance that we have ever had.

This school property is located south and west of the main business section of Denver. The street car runs near the school property.

SUMMER EFFORTS

At the time of the camp-meeting several summer efforts were planned. Brother C. F. Lickey, assisted by Paul Bringle and wife and Miss Edith Brauchi, Bible worker, has pitched a tent in Fort Collins. They plan to hold a series of meetings in the heart of the city.

Brother R. C. Baker, assisted by George Chambers, has pitched a tent in La Salla. On Sunday night, July 8, they opened a series of meetings. Their tent was filled to overflowing on the opening night.

On the same evening, July 8, Elder G. W. Anglebarger opened a tent effort in the south part of Denver. Calvin Gordon is acting as tent master and music director at this meeting. The attendance has been good.

Alger Johns, assisted by Wesley Andress, has opened a summer effort in the American Legion Hall in Yuma. They are holding meetings four nights a week. According to the reports that have reached the office the attendance at these meetings has been good.

It is too early to determine anything about the outcome of these meetings, but we hope a number of people will be won to the truth. Let all our people throughout the conference remember these efforts in their prayers, that the Lord may give us a harvest of souls.

M. L. Rice.

THE BOULDER INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL

A very interesting program was given in the Boulder church Tuesday evening, July 10, to present the needs of the intermediate school building at Boulder. The program included special music, speeches, and original songs and dialogues written for the occasion.

Before the evening was half over it was very evident there would be an interesting climax to the program. So, when Elder Rice urged the listeners to help remodel the school building they were prepared and responded liberally. More than $300 was raised in a few minutes. This money with plenty of donated labor available, is expected to meet the present needs of the building.

The teachers in the Boulder intermediate school for the school year 1928-29 are:

Grades 1-4, Miss Dorothy Whitnack. Grades 5-8, Mrs. James Oss. Grades 9-10, Mr. J. H. Halverson. Let every Seventh-day Adventist parent in Boulder rally to the cause of Christian education and place his children in the church school there this coming year.

Reuben E. Nelson.

NEWS ITEMS

Elder C. E. Grant, who has been located at Ft. Collins since coming to the Colorado Conference about two years ago, has been transferred to Colorado Springs. He has already moved to his new location.

Brother C. F. Lickey will have charge at Ft. Collins and Bellvue, formerly supervised by Elder Grant.

Elder A. E. Lickey has been asked by the conference committee to take the supervision of the West and South Denver churches. He has moved to Denver and already has entered upon his work. Elder Lickey has recently been located at Pueblo.

The following workers from the General Conference were recent visitors in Denver: Elder J. L. Shaw, treasurer; Elder J. L. McElhany, vice-president of the North American Division; and Brother C. E. Rice, of the medical staff. There were also present from the union office Elder J. J. Nethery, president, and Brother R. T. Emery, secretary-treasurer.

Professor R. E. Nelson and wife recently enjoyed a visit from his mother and sister from Seattle, Wash. They stopped off a few days to visit en route to Kansas City.

Brother W. F. Field and family enjoyed a pleasant visit from his brother, Professor A. D. Field, and family, who are motoring from California to Berrien Springs, Mich., where Professor Field will be connected with Berrien Springs College.

Brother W. D. Kieser, who has been connected with the Colorado Conference for the past two years as field secretary, has accepted a call to the Inter-American Division Conference. He expects to sever his work in the Colorado Conference the last of July. With his family he will sail from New York to his new field the latter part of August. We wish these workers God's special blessing as they leave our shores to take up work in the needy portion of the great world field.

We are glad to report a gain of approximately $2,000 in our tithe for June of this year as compared with the same month last year. Our tithe for the first six months of this year was $4,000 more than the amount received for the first six months of last year. We greatly appreciate the faithfulness of our people in returning to God His portion. The Lord has promised to bless those who are faithful in their tithes and offerings.

MCGEE CHURCH ORGANIZATION

It was my privilege last week to spend three days with a little company at McGee, Mo. Three or four years ago, Brother W. J. Maxwell went from the Oak Grove church to locate at McGee. Brother Maxwell has felt that more of our experienced Seventh-day Adventist families should be locating in the rural sections where our workers seldom go in order that they may live the truth and put forth missionary efforts so that people living in these isolated places may have an opportunity to hear the message for these last days. This was his reason for locating at McGee.

I have had occasional correspondence with Brother Maxwell since he went there and was glad to find an opportunity to visit this place. I find that they are conducting a Sabbath school of some twenty-three or twenty-four members. They meet regularly and carry out the full Sabbath school program and also have an after service the same as regularly organized churches.

It was felt that since the work had developed to the point where it seemed to be permanent that a church should be organized, and so on Sabbath, July 7, at the close of the morning meeting, a church of twelve adult members was organized with a full set of officers. Brother Maxwell was unanimously elected as elder of the church, and Brother J. L. Haddock as deacon. Brother Haddock is one of our colporteurs although he has not been devoting his entire time to the work.

There are several young people reaching the age where they will doubtless decide in the near future to be baptized and unite with the church, so that we expect to see the numbers increasing from time to time. We believe there are other substantial Seventh-day Adventist families that could do a good work by locating in small places where our work is undeveloped where they could let their light shine, and other little companies like this one could be raised up in different parts of the state.

H. C. Hartwell.

THE TENT EFFORTS

While we have not heard from all our tent companies since the meetings began, there are a few encouraging items that we are glad to pass on to our readers.

It was my privilege to be in Poplar Bluff last week, and I attended one of the services in the tent being conducted by Elder Crosier and his corps of workers. The meetings in Poplar Bluff began on Sunday night, July 1, with a splendid attendance. There were probably at least seven or eight hundred people present, and during the following week the attendance held up well in spite of the extremely hot weather and the interruption that came in as a result of the Fourth of July. Already the ministers are beginning to oppose the work and are warning their people against the meetings. I left Sunday before the evening service, but it was fully expected that at least one thousand people would be in attendance. There is every reason to expect a splendid interest and a successful effort in Poplar Bluff.

Elder Fletcher writes from Hannibal that the meetings have begun encouragingly although it had rained up there during the opening nights of the meetings so that the work was hindered for the time being. We understand, however, that the interest is increasing and the outlook for a good effort in Hannibal this summer is encouraging.

Elder Abney's meetings in St. Louis with the colored people have been going on for two or three weeks, and he reports a growing interest.

We have nothing as yet to report from the other two efforts, but by the time this paper reaches the field, they will doubtless have begun. We trust that each one who reads this article will be given a burden to pray earnestly for the success of our brethren who are carrying on these efforts. It is a trying work at best to meet the prejudice, indifference, and the opposition that the enemy creates when such efforts are being carried on. Our brethren need to be held up continually before the Lord that He may strengthen them and give them the wisdom so much needed in order that many souls may be brought to decide for the truth this summer.

H. C. Hartwell.

MISSOURI NEWS NOTES

July 10, 1928

Elder Hartwell returned to Clinton Monday, July 9, from his trip through the eastern part of the state, and left again the following Tuesday to attend a Union College board meeting at College View, and a Central Union Conference committee meeting at Wichita, Kans.

Brother Alva M. Ragsdale, our educational and Missionary Volunteer secretary, left Clinton the early part of last week for Springfield and Oak Grove in the interest of the educational work.

A telegram reached the office one day last week from Elder E. G. Crosier, of Poplar, Bluff, requesting us to ship twenty-five more seats, which will make him seating capacity of approximately eight hundred persons in his effort. He reports a good interest in his meetings.

Brother A. L. Perkins, who has recently had an operation on his tonsils, is recovering nicely. He requested his tent equipment shipped so that it would arrive in Kansas City, July 9. He probably plans to open his meetings Sunday night, July 15.

Word has been received at the office that the Sabbath school convention recently held at the Palmyra church, conducted by Sister M. J. Witsett, our Sabbath school secretary, proved to be an outstanding success. Our brethren from Hannibal, La Belle and other points near there all cooperated in a splendid way, and all who attended felt that they had been benefited in a definite way.

The young people of the Clinton Missionary Volunteer Society visited an old couple Sabbath afternoon, July 7, who live about nine miles from Clinton. The woman, who used to belong to the Cabool church, which was disbanded some years ago, was especially glad for the visit. Her health has been failing lately, until she is confined to her bed most of the time. She requested that her name be placed on our church records. The young people were encouraged to do more work along this line as a result of this good experience.

A LARGE RALLY DAY PROGRAM

On June 23 it was my privilege to meet with the members of the Decatur, Tekamah, and Blair churches. The services were held in the newly renovated building of the Decatur church. These churches had decided to unite for the Sabbath school rally day program, and it was very gratifying to see all turn out en masse for the occasion. The committee in charge had worked diligently, so that the entire program was a veritable feast of good things.

The Sabbath school met at 10:30 a. m. with more than one hundred present to join in the exercises of the day. Following the Sabbath school the program was opened with several well rendered musical pieces of real merit. At 3:00 p. m. another program was put on in the interest of our world wide mission fields.

Such programs are of inestimable value to the cause as a whole, and they also serve to stimulate an awakened interest in the individual members of our various churches. We believe that the rally day program as rendered by these three churches was a real help and blessing to all present. It brought the members of these churches together in closer contact of Christian fellowship, and it provided an opportunity for many of the younger members of the congregations to reveal and put into practice much latent talent that surely can be developed and utilized in the great work of giving the final warning message to a perishing world. Such programs also arouse interest in the great needs of those who are without the blessings of the gospel, for who can listen to the pleas that come from distant lands, where hearts and sad minds are clouded and souls are unsaved, without having dormant desires to be aroused to the point of active interest?

Just a word about the Decatur church. As many already know it is one of the very oldest churches in the Nebraska Conference. The present building has done service for forty years, having been erected in 1888.

For many years the church supported the largest church school in the conference outside of College View. Brother M. W. Blue sponsored this phase of the work very energetically. As a result, many young people of the church were given a training that opened up the way for them to become workers in the cause, both of brother Blue's sons being among those whose life work it has become to help give the message to the world in this generation. Elder L. B. Porter, deceased, received his early training in the message right in the church at Decatur, and for many years was a loyal and devoted minister in the Nebraska and Wyoming conferences. Others might be mentioned if space permitted.

After having stood as a witness to the message for so long it is obvious that the building needed some repair. Brother Blue led out in this and was given the whole hearted support of the church with the result that the congregation has a splendid place in which to worship. Individuals in the community who are not members of the church gave willingly and liberally to this work of improvement. A new coat of tinted plaster now graces the inside of the building, while new paint on the outside has added materially to the external appearance of the structure.

The church school building, which has not been in use for some time, has also been improved and renovated and makes a splendid place for the Sabbath school kindergarten department. We trust that this building may soon serve the church as the home of a church school for the children of the church who soon will be old enough.

May God continue to add His blessings to the Decatur church as a whole and to each individual member, that His work may prosper in that community until Jesus comes.

James D. Johnson.

OMAHA OBSERVATIONS

Already a number are planning on attending the camp-meeting in Lincoln.

We were glad to have Brother Haughey with us at the opening night of the tent meetings.

We were glad to have Brother and Sister Lester Taft with us for a day or two recently.

The first time literature cards were passed out at the tent sixty-five names were secured.

Every one has appreciated greatly the Sunday night music program by the Humann Brothers Quartet.

The week night attendance at the tent has been about as large as the Sunday night attendance last year.

Several from Blair, College View, and Nebraska City, are attending the Sunday evening services at the tent.

The members of the church are cooperating with the workers in every way possible, to make the tent meeting a success.

The tithe for the first six months of 1927 was $3,308.71; for the first six months of 1928, $5,655.01. The gain was $2,346.30.

The Sabbath school offerings for the first six months of 1927 were $1,129.68; for the first six months of 1928, $1,181.11. The gain was $51.43.

The average attendance in Sabbath school for the first six months of 1927 was 155; for the first six months of 1928, 176. The gain was 21.

For the first time the church went over the dollar a member goal for the thirteenth Sabbath. Our membership is 220. The offering was 229.86.

One man began paying tithe the first night of the tent meeting as a result of the sermon preached in the tent on tithing last year. He is not even keeping the Sabbath.

C. G. Bellah.

FROM THE OFFICE VIEWPOINT

Elder Haughey returned from the Alliance meeting Monday and left Tuesday evening to attend the college board meeting at College View.

We are glad to report that our tithe for the first six months has made a large gain over the same period of last year. The statement in next week's Outlook will give the details of this gain. We very much regret, however, that our offerings show a decrease.

Professor Kirk, accompanied by Elder E. A. Johnson, is visiting the northwest district in the interest of Shelton Academy.

Professor Deapen is visiting a number of the churches in the northwest in the interest of the church schools. We are in hopes of having several new schools in that part of the conference this year.

The meeting at Alliance closed Sunday night and was well attended. The total mission offerings, including Sabbath school, were over $1,600. The book sales amounted to almost $300.

Brother Marshall, accompanied by Elder Hay, visited Chadron after the Alliance meeting. Elder Hayes is doing a good work there. They are now starting their new church building. They have secured an excellent lot and we are hoping they will soon have a church home erected. Pray for the work in Chadron.

Our colporteurs are doing good work, and we hope our people will remember these faithful workers in their prayers.

MID-SUMMER OFFERING

Sabbath, July 21, the Mid-Summer offering will be taken throughout the world. We are very anxious that the churches in the Inter-Mountain Conference do their best and try and reach the Mid-Summer offering goals that have been sent to them.

During the first six months of the year the conference has been very low in its mission offerings. If every member in the conference will do his best when the collection is taken I feel sure our mission statement will show up much better.

If there ever was a time when our people ought to do all they can for the fields beyond it certainly is now. Soon we will not have the privilege of giving, so let every person feel keenly the responsibility in helping spread the gospel in foreign lands, and give as God has prospered.

In a little while God's people are going to their heavenly home to wear the victor's crown. Many will be there from all parts of this old world as the result of the faithful missionary and those who did their part in supporting him. At that time we will not be sorry if we have all been faithful in doing all we can, so may the blessed Saviour help us all to do our part in telling the story of a soon coming Saviour. J. W. Turner.

KNOWLEDGE AND HEALTH

The value of outdoor exercise in the form of work or healthful exercises cannot be overestimated. Labor was appointed as a blessing by the Creator to keep man from going deeper into sin and also to cultivate the habits of industry and thrift.

In the book "Education," page 219, we read, "No line of manual training is of more value than agriculture. A greater effort should be made to create and to encourage an interest in agricultural pursuits. Let the teacher call attention to what the Bible says about agriculture: that it was God's plan for man to till the earth; that the first man, the ruler of the whole world, was given a garden to cultivate; and that many of the world's greatest men, its real nobility, have been tillers of the soil."

So we, here at Inter-Mountain Academy, are thankful for the large farm in connection with the school. We are enabled to teach the boys practical knowledge as well as theoretical. The girls care for the products as they mature. By these methods we are endeavoring to combine knowledge and health.

Wm. A. Nelson.

ACADEMY NEWS NOTES

Miss Michael accompanied Elder Long and family to Craig Sabbath, July 7. She reported a very pleasant trip.

Prairie King, of Collbran, arrived Sunday. He is working on the farm.

The summer here is very hot and dry. The berries and other crops are suffering for want of rain.

We are glad to report that twenty-two of the twenty-five young people that met after services at Rulison church, July 7, are planning to attend the academy this coming year. The prospects for a large enrolment are very encouraging.

School starts September 11.

WYOMING NEWS NOTES

Last week we closed a very successful camp-meeting. The meetings began and closed with a good attendance. Elders Boettcher and Nichol were with us from the General Conference, and we were also favored by having Elder Nethery, our new union conference president, and Elders Meyers and Burroughs here from the union. Professor Marsh was here in behalf of the educational work, and Professor Heim, from Champion Academy, visited in the interest of the academy.

A good spirit prevailed throughout the meetings, and the blessings of God were poured out upon His people. Ten souls followed their Lord in baptism.

The mission offerings and pledges this year amounted to more than double the amount that was received last year. We feel that God richly blessed in the meeting, and we are very grateful to Him for all His goodness.

Elder C. A. Purdom is getting nicely located in the city of Sheridan, as he is taking up the work in that vicinity.

Brother A. C. Griffin is locating in Torrington for a short time, where he is conducting an effort. We hope soon to have some good reports of his work there.

Elder Metzger left the office this afternoon for College View to attend a Union College board meeting to be held there this week.

Kenneth Purdom is planning to take up the canvassing work this summer around Upton and vicinity. That will give us five colporteurs in the Wyoming field. Watch for their reports in the Outlook from week to week.

Miss Ruby Layland, one of the senior nurses, underwent a tonsillectomy July 9.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lysinger and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Stow, of the St. Helena Sanitarium, were welcome visitors at the sanitarium recently. Mr. Lysinger is business manager of the St. Helena Sanitarium and Mr. Stow is in charge of the X-ray department there.

C. E. Rice, associate secretary of the medical missionary department of the General Conference, spent Sunday, July 8, at the sanitarium on business.

Sister A. E. Burgess, of Cozad, Nebr., has been visiting her husband, who has been ill at the sanitarium for some weeks.

Elder J. L. Shaw addressed the nurses at chapel on the morning of July 9. All were glad to hear of the progress of our medical work in various parts of the world.

The Sunday evening services which are being held each week in the sanitarium parlor by Elder Andress, are being well attended.

IN MEMORIAM

(These lines are written in loving memory of our dear little girl, Ruby Irene Rogers, who was killed in an automobile accident July 4, 1926.)

Two years have quickly vanished;

But though time flows swiftly on,
It erase not our sorrow

For the dear one who is gone.

How sad and lone she left us,

When from loved ones she was torn;

She will rest now till the trumpet
Of the resurrection morn.

We meet, but O we miss her;

Our hearts are lone and sore,

For sorrow will not leave them

Till her dear face we see once more.

As we meet in family circle,

Our hearts with grief are filled,

To know that she's not with us,
And that her voice is stilled.

But her loving words and actions

Give us courage on the way,

That we'll meet in glad reunion

On the resurrection day.

J. W. Rogers and Wife.

Davis.—Menelvo Davis, nee West, was born near Galena, Ill., Nov. 25, 1855, and died at her home near Kincaid, Kans., May 20, 1928, aged 72 years, 5 months, and 25 days.

She came with her parents to Kansas, May 10, 1861, locating on a farm near Blue Mound. She was married to Chester Davis July 2, 1883. To this union were born eight children, two having preceded their mother in death.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis lived on a farm near Blue Mound during the first three years of their married life, then moved to their farm near Kincaid where they toiled together during the coming years. Mrs. Davis gave her heart to her Saviour early in life. She adhered to the principles of the Bible as taught by the Seventh-day Adventists, but did not join that organization until in January, 1908. She then became a charter member of the Kincaid church. To this faith she remained true.

Often during her recent illness she was found in prayer. She leaned heavily upon the promise, "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me."

Mother Davis will be sadly missed from the circle, but we sorrow not as those without hope.

Those left to mourn their loss are her husband, one son, and five daughters, beside other relatives and friends.

She was laid to rest in the family lot in Fairview cemetery, southeast of Kincaid, there to await the call of the Life-giver.

Funeral services were conducted by Elder J. R. Bagsby, of Pleasanton, Kans.

Hunzikes.—Mrs. Bertha M. Hunzikes was born in the state of Illinois in the year 1872, and died in Colorado Springs, Colo., July 7, 1928.

She has believed the message all her life.

A husband, three children, a brother and sister, and other relatives are left to mourn.

The funeral was conducted by the writer.
Emil R. Lauda.

COLORDAO CAMP-MEETING

The Colorado camp-meeting was a good meeting and was well attended. In fact, on the Sabbath days it was impossible to seat the audience. The Lord is blessing the workers and membership in the Colorado Conference. The efforts of Elders W. A. Spicer, F. D. Nichol, J. T. Boettcher, and J. A. Wasemiller, of Oklahoma, who worked with the union and local workers to bring messages to the people, were blessed. President Thompson and Professor Hilts, of Union College, represented that institution.

There was a Champion Academy hour observed on the camp ground, as well as a Union College hour. It is good to see our young people pressing into our schools and being trained for the work. The work of the church schools was studied, and the brethren are endeavoring to build up in a strong way the church school work in the Colorado Conference. The conference members are happy that their debts are paid on Champion Academy, and now they are turning their attention to increasing the mission offerings.

Other camp-meetings are to follow in the Central Union. We request our membership to pray that the Lord will bless in these convocations of our people. Jay J. Nethery.

USEFUL SUMMER MORNINGS

Morning hours are best for brain work. The mind is fresh and keen after a good night's rest, and study most delightful. Morning hours devoted to a Fireside course during the rest of the summer vacation will produce a credit of three or more college hours or an equivalent amount of academic work. Extra credits are always useful, and sometimes necessary. Enrol now, and be glad you did it when you enter school next fall. Our new catalogue is yours for the asking.

LITERATURE FOR THE FRENCH

Among the foreign language Harvest Ingathering papers our brethren will be glad to know that the French is also available. More than thirty thousand copies have been printed, and in order not to be disappointed your supply should be secured at an early date. Order through your local Book and Bible House.

A number of new publications have been issued in the French language during the past year, which will enable those who work for the French people to do effective, follow-up work. Complete information can be secured from your Book and Bible House.

 Oshawa, Ontario, Canada.

CHEAPER EVEN BY WEIGHT

Many publishers sell tracts by weight. They say they are too cheap to count out—that they just weigh them and ship by weight for fifty cents a pound. Tracts are cheap at fifty cents a pound; yet, estimated by the amount they contain, they are not so cheap as "Present Truth" would be were it sold at fifty cents a pound. As a rule, these fifty-cent-a-pound tracts weigh about a pound to the hundred, making the cost one-half cent each. That is the average weight of our one-half cent tracts.

While forty "Present Truths" weigh a pound, they contain as much reading as 120 of these tracts. Were "Present Truth" sold at fifty cents a pound, it would be one-fifth cheaper than the tracts at fifty cents a pound. Besides, there can be no comparison of the effectiveness of these two classes of material, for "Present Truth" is in attractive, illustrated, periodical form and contains enough to lead its readers to a definite conviction on the subject presented. "Present Truth" is, therefore, cheaper than the cheapest tracts printed by any publisher and in addition, it is in popular, periodical form, retaining the tract advantage of the topical method of teaching. There is nothing more attractive, effective, nor economical.

D. W. Reavls.

CHRIST ONLY

We read in Galatians 6:15: "For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature." To all of which probably every one of our church people will heartily assent and almost immediately turn from this principle to endeavor to do some good thing that will enable one to inherit eternal life. This teaching does not grant license, however, but it places Christ where He really is all in all.

As a church, we profess to accept righteousness by faith, even the faith of Jesus, and there is no discount upon the experiences of many faithful ones. But righteousness is a condition of being righteous, and when one is righteous his life's experiences bear witness of that fact. Thus the evidence of righteousness is one's daily life, for "if any man be in Christ Jesus, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are of God," 2 Cor. 5:17-18.

How can an individual claim he is in Christ Jesus, and that he is a new creature, if he refuses to follow the instruction of Jesus? From the earliest instruction to the latest, God and His Son Jesus command men to be honest in the matter of paying tithe. Tithing is not a means of salvation, but if one fails to pay his tithe he is written down in heaven as a robber. Can a robber argue he is in Christ, and a new creature? Robbing is a breaking of one of God's commandments. We read again: "He that saith he abideth in Him ought himself also to walk even as He walked." I John 2:6.

The theory that if all would pay an honest tithe, there would be sufficient funds in the treasury, can never be proved while a number fail. How can one say he loves God and still fail to return to God His own?

There are millions of people to reach with our message. How can this work be done? May each one of us glorify God with our bodies and spirits. —M. B. Van Kirk.
