Young People's Campmeeting Ideals

Why are you going to campmeeting? The answer to this question will determine very largely what you get out of the camp meeting. If it is merely for an outing, you may get the benefits of an outing and no more. Perhaps it is love of nature, social joys, the thirst for greater knowledge that comes from travel. These things are all right, and should come to us as a result of attending campmeeting. But is there not also in your heart a longing to know the secrets of the Most High, and a deep, earnest desire to live the Christ life? This is the supreme thing; and without this all knowledge and social enjoyment will eventually come to naught.

By all means, young people, come to camp meeting. There is a blessing waiting for you there. And let all who can conscientiously do so, make the following resolution before they come:

"Realizing that time is short and that I need all the help I can possibly derive from this camp meeting, I propose that this meeting shall mark the beginning of a deeper consecration in my life, and to this end I have determined:

"1. To break away each day from the presence of men and spend some time unhurriedly, alone with God, in meditation and intercession.

"2. To seek earnestly to know the will of God for me and not disappoint him or keep him waiting, but respond to his voice.

"3. To maintain conversation on the higher level, refusing to descend to silly, trifling, idle or sentimental talk, or faultfinding or personal criticism.

"4. To be thorough and unsparing in dealing with my sins and shortcomings, and to seek God till I am conscious of victory in Christ over every known sin.

"5. To give myself to the Lord for service and be more concerned about saving and encouraging others than having a good time myself.

"6. To lay all my plans for the future at the feet of Christ and go from here to give them up or carry them out as he directs."

If you cannot now sign these resolutions, remember that any desire for good which you now have in your heart has been put there by Jesus, "Steps to Christ," page 26, and endeavor to fan that flame into a consuming fire for truth and righteousness.

Every day is the last chance for somebody. Every camp meeting is the last opportunity for some of our young people. Come.

M. E. KERN

Thoughts for the Christian

When our blessed Lord took upon himself the form of a servant, girding himself and washing the feet of his disciples it was no new office he filled for the life of God is ever one of continual service. According to the gospel rule he who was the highest must be the lowliest. Our Saviour's life was but a revelation of the life that God ever lived on high. If we but learn the principles of that divine life, which filled thousands of homes with joy, we shall have a model after which to form our own service to God and to our fellow men. O that our Saviour may at this time incarnate himself in us that we may repeat those features of his earthly ministry, that God can crown us with the induement of the Holy Spirit,—modesty.

The Father is daily at work and yet we fail to see him. He directs the first rays of the morning sun. With the dews of evening he refreshes the grass. He feeds and clothes myriads in woods and ocean and, as a loving father, he cares for the children of men. After doing all, he steals away before we catch a sight of him, to whom we owe so much. We know he has been at work but all his work was done so quietly and with such reticence of his personal agency, that many have erred saying "there is no God."

The Son closed the mouths of the recipients of his bounty with a "see that thou tell no man." He stole away from those who proclaimed him king in Israel, and the paralytic knew not who had healed him. In vain we scan the wondrous portrait to see the artist's name. His one purpose was to glorify the father. "I have given them Thy word." "I have glorified Thee." To us he says "Learn of me." Christian, has God condescended to use you? Has love stolen forth through you and done its wonderful work upon the hearts of those around you? Let God be glorified. "Be still and know that I am God."

This quality is God's mark upon the work. Blessed words: "Thou art mine," and "I am with thee," and "I will never leave thee nor forsake thee." We are his witnesses, and as we bear testimony to the world, the Spirit witnesses with our spirit that we are the children of God. The Spirit bears witness: glorious privilege,—blessed assurance. As the faithful servant bears his testimony to the world the Spirit says "Yea" and "Amen." Therefore again I say let God be glorified.

Camp Meeting Notice

At the recent General Conference Council, special attention was given to the importance of the camp meeting in view of the conditions that are in the world today and the necessity of preparing for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit for the finishing of the work.

Sometime at one of these annual gatherings, this long expected outpouring will come. No one can afford to be absent. We earnestly urge our people to make definite plans to be present at this camp meeting and trust that all will pray daily that this may be an occasion of special blessing. As the perils of these last days thicken about us, each one needs all the strength and encouragement that we can gather from these meetings.

Send all orders to Miss Cora Felker, 200 Columbus Ave., Trenton, New Jersey. The management will do everything possible to bring expenses down for the benefit of the campers.

SPECIAL

We are pleased to inform our people that arrangements are being made for Elder D. C. Babcock to attend the New Jersey camp meeting at Trenton, June 26 to July 6. Elder Babcock has spent years on the fatal Gold Coast of West Africa and it is only through the mercy of God that he is still alive.

On his way back to America, the boat upon which he was returning, was torpedoed in the dead of night and Brother Babcock's story of their miraculous escape on this occasion will prove an inspiration.

Good help is being provided for the camp meeting by the General and Union Conferences. Nurses from the Sanitarium and Doctor Brown, the Union Medical Secretary, will be present to give medical counsel.

That Convention in Newark

When five ordained ministers, two departmental secretaries, six local elders, and representatives from fifteen churches see fit to attend and boost a local convention, it certainly indicates that a spirit of progress has seized the members of those churches. This was the case with the Sabbath School, Home Missionary and Young People's Convention held in Newark May 31 and June 1. Many pronounced this gathering as equivalent to a small edition of camp-meeting.

Surely the third angel's message is going forth with no uncertain ring; and the people throughout our ranks are coming to feel their individual responsibility in proclaiming that message. Elder Bernstein's appeal to warn our large cities was particularly timely, as in that small section of the state there are upwards of two million people. Other Home Missionary subjects given special emphasis were, the Home-Foreign work, Present Truth circulation, and the Harvest Ingathering. Those who spoke along these and similar lines of thought were from experience peculiarly fitted for the discussions.

On Sabbath forenoon, when the Sabbath School was under consideration, some three hundred people were present; and in all the other sessions a splendid attendance was maintained. Many young people were present to take a leading part in the program; and the Missionary Volunteer session held on Sunday was a meeting rarely equalled in enthusiasm and spiritual good. The illustrated lecture given Sunday evening by Brother G. H. Clark, was a special and very interesting feature. We are indeed happy to see the work thus going forward along all lines, and pray that it may not slacken, but ever increase, until all can at length say, "The work is done."

L. D. WARREN.

News Notes

The treasurer's reports are coming in very rapidly this month. We received a splendid report from the Newark Church amounting to over $1500 for one month. This is the best report we have received from any one church for many months.

Definite plans are being laid to accommodate all our people during the camp meeting. We trust you are planning to attend this meeting. You need the blessings which are in store for you, and we need your presence. We want you to join with us in praying for the best camp meeting that has ever been held in the state.

The Campaign is still on for "World Peace." One of our churches is planning to sell "World Peace" in order to raise $200.00 for their church school. Some are earning money in this way to enable them to attend camp meeting. We are sure there will be telling results from this campaign and all should have a part.

News Notes

Elder R. S. Fries is in search of a suitable location for his tent for the summer effort. No doubt our camp meeting will follow his meetings, and will be in the same location in Philadelphia. As soon as the location is obtained, notice will be given in the Visitor. Even though no definite information can be given at this time, it is well to plan to attend these yearly feasts.

Elder J. W. McCord, who has been in Florida on account of ill health, has not returned but is expected in a few more weeks. He and Sister McCord are gaining rapidly in health.

Elder Charles Braille visited the Stroudsburg Church last Sabbath and spoke to the company there.

Sister Anna Detwiler of Colmar has returned home from Washington Missionary College where she has been attending during the past school term, and is expecting to take up Bible work in this conference.

Sister Mary Booth of Lancaster had a slight operation performed last week.

Sister Parsons has gone to the Sanitarium in Takoma Park where she will undergo an examination. Her health has been failing of late, and it is feared an operation will be necessary.

Elder Charles Braille was called from Lancaster last Sunday night to the home of Brother and Sister Zearfoss in Philadelphia who recently resided at Souder-ton. Sister Zearfoss had been in ill health for some time, and passed away on the second of this month. Her obituary will appear later.

Sister Joy Murphy, who has labored faithfully at the conference office for more than a year as stenographer left us last week for her home in Indiana where she will spend a little time with her parents before going to school to finish her education. We regret very much the loss of the association of Sister Murphy, but we pray that heaven's blessing will continue to rest on her. She plans to work as a stenographer at Berrien Springs and at the same time finish her school work.

Ariel School

The closing exercises of the Ariel School were held May 18, beside a beautiful lake. As the day was too cool for the program to be rendered out of doors, two cozy summer cottages were used. The interesting speeches and songs were rendered in one, while the dainty picnic lunch was spread in the other. Nearly fifty of the parents and friends were present at this occasion. Not only did the school children show that they had received excellent training in their work under the guidance of their teacher, Mrs. Elsie Evans, but the little people, who are looking forward to the time when they too can enter the school as pupils, also took an active part in the program. Truly our churches who are heeding the counsel of the Lord in providing a Cristian school for their children are receiving rich blessings that they would not willingly give up.

Reading Intermediate School

The closing exercises of the Reading Intermediate School were held in the Reading Church, on the afternoon of May 25. The building was filled with parents and friends who were interested in the work that has been carried on during the past year.

The beautiful songs, and interesting recitations and dialogues spoke well of the careful training that has been given during the school months. The entire programme was enjoyed by every one present.

Four of the pupils received certificates granted at the completion of the eighth grade work. A still larger number are looking forward to finishing the tenth grade during the coming school year. If the hearty response which was given to the call for pledges is a token of what is to be given the coming year we are sure that the equipment to be furnished will be such that thorough work can be done in the higher grades.

Convention at Hagerstown

We held a Home Missionary Convention in the pretty little church at Hagerstown, Md., May 23-25, at which the members from Martinsburg, Ponds ville, and Smithsburg churches were in attendance. We were glad to see so many from these churches.

Friday evening, Elder H. K. Christman spoke on "Consecration for Service" to a large and appreciative audience. Sabbath morning, our President, Elder A. S. Booth, told us in a clear and impressive manner, what is the "Work of the Church," following this Elder Christman spoke on "Organization of the Church."

Immediately following these two addresses one candidate was baptized by Elder Booth. We trust this sister will prove a faithful home missionary worker, as she arose to walk in newness of life, in the very midst of our Home Missionary Convention.

Dr. Bordeaux-Sisco, our Conference Medical Secretary, spoke to the ladies alone at 1:30 and then to the open convention at 2:30 on the importance of "Health, Its Conservation." This lecture was timely, and the demonstration by ten young ladies was very impressive.

Sister Dewers, our Bible worker in Hagerstown, then gave us some excellent points on "Bible Readings, How They Should Be Given."

During our sessions Sunday, we were favored with some excellent papers and addresses: Brother Siler, "Reporting, Is It Essential?"; Sister Emma Newcomer, our Conference and Tract Society Secretary and Treasurer, "The Tract As Agency In Soul Winning"; Sister Lucy Bowers, "Why Should I Do Home Missionary Work?"; Sister Annie Newcomer, "Missionary Correspondance." Sister Bowers' paper aroused quite a discussion and favorable comments. Sister Siler, composed and read a Home Missionary poem about the Hagerstown Church, which I trust may soon be applied to every church in this conference.

Brother Walter Ralls, formerly of Kentucky, was present, and we appreciated the valuable help he gave us. His talk, "Is There a Work for Our Young People in Our Home Missionary Work," was both timely and to the point.

We held our literature sale Sunday afternoon, and while we only had a few of the small books on hand, we sold three cloth, and one leather full sets of the Testimonies, quite a number of tract racks and tracts for the racks, also the twenty-five-cent packages of tracts. In all our sales for the hour were $90.50

I take this occasion to express our sincere appreciation for the good music rendered during the convention by the Hagerstown Church, and for the genuine hospitality we enjoyed in the homes of the members.

I hope that each one will long remember and put into practice the excellent instructions and timely counsel given us by Elder Christman, and that we may all be found more faithful Home Missionary workers as a result of this convention.

Blythdale

Sunday, June 1, as the result of a series of meetings held in Blythdale during the early spring, eleven have taken their stand for this truth, five of these were buried with their Lord in the sacred ordinance of baptism and four others will go forward in the near future.

There was a short business meeting of the church followed by a sermon to two hundred persons, then we proceeded to the pond where there was a large crowd gathered. Estimated to be at least four hundred people. The very best of order prevailed during the service as these believers took their stand for God.

There is quite an interest prevailing throughout this community. Others are in the brink of taking their stand for the truth with a little further instruction. We have secured a beautiful lot in Perryville for a tent, and expect to start meetings June 22 in order to follow up the interest created. This will also reach and give opportunity of hearing the truth to the people of Harve-De-Grace. The prayers of our brethern are solicited in behalf of this work that many others may be added to the church in this part of the Harvest Field.

G. MEDIARY.

News Notes

Elder A. S. Booth closed his meetings in the Queen Theatre on Sunday night. The interest in these meetings has been very good all through the effort, and there are twenty or more who are ready for baptism, and will go forward in this rite in the near future.

Elder E. F. Collier conducted the prayer service in the First Church in Baltimore last Wednesday night. There was a splendid attendance and his timely remarks were much appreciated,

Our colporteurs are doing splendid work in their respective fields and some are already reporting Sabbath keepers. Word comes from Calvert County that in the section where Miss Hazel Leach placed so many "Bible Readings" last year a company of seventeen are keeping the Sabbath and others are very much interested. These are colored people. They are very anxious for a place to hold meetings and have already offered to donate ground, lumber, labor, and money for the erection of a church, and would be glad to deed such property to the conference.

We also have a report that there are a number of colored people in or near Chestertown, Md., who have begun to to keep the Sabbath. Thus the message is going, and hearts are being turned to the truth for this time.

The Smithsburg Church held its dedicatory services last Sabbath and Sunday. Elder Booth and Elder B. G. Wilkinson were there Sabbath, Elder Wilkinson remained for the Sunday service. The church was dedicated entirely free from debt. They have a very neat and attractive building.

WEST VIRGINIA

Third & Juliana Sts., Parkersburg
T. B. Westbrook, Pres. L. B. Taylor, Sec.

The camp-meeting will be open in Parkersburg, Thursday, June 12. We are planning to make this the greatest spiritual uplift to our people that has ever been held in the state. This is in harmony with the recommendations of the General Conference Council and we sincerely hope all will come to enter heartily into this consecration service preparatory to receiving the baptism of the Holy Spirit.

We sincerely hope that every young person in our conference will be present at the camp-meeting this year. Special efforts will be put forth, and we believe that the Lord will give us a great blessing. Let everyone be present for the opening meeting.

News Notes

Elder Westcott baptized five new converts in Fairmont, Sabbath, May 31.

Elder U. D. Pickard reports four new Sabbath keepers from his effort in Augusta, and many others are interested whom we hope will soon take their stand.

The new mayor in Charleston has issued an order that all stores be closed on Sunday. We expect to hold a meeting on the subject of "Sunday Legislation and Religious Liberty" next Sunday night that the people may know the facts concerning this kind of legislation, and that in the end, it will surely lead to religious persecution.

Elder W. L. Adkins baptized two new members in the Cumberland Church, Sabbath May 31. He reports good meetings both in Cumberland and Corriganville.

WEST PENNSYLVANIA

Indiana, Pa.

I. D. Richardson, Pres. J. S. Neely, Sec.

News Notes

Owing to the fact that the date of June 19-29 is most always accompanied with several days of chilly, wet weather; and because of so many being unable to attend on account of their children having final examinations in public school; and as we are admonished by our General Conference brethren to plan for bringing our people up on higher ground, spiritually, because of the seriousness of the times; it has been thought best, after careful consideration on the part of the committee, to postpone the West Pennsylvania camp meeting until August 28 to September 7. This date will accommodate practically all of our people.

I. D. RICHARDSON

The following is an extract taken from a letter written to the Signs Weekly:

"Here at the Mount Vernon Academy I have met a young man who, while out canvassing last summer, came across a family in Crawford County, Western Pennsylvania, that had been receiving the Signs weekly sent them by the Missionary Volunteer Society of the Pittsburg Church. This young colporteur secured a subscription to the Signs from the family, and also sold them a copy of 'Bible Readings.' The following Sabbath the colporteur and another brother visited the family and found them keeping the Sabbath. The family circulated their Signs and today six people in that community are in the Message, and others are interested."

OHIO

W. H. Heckman, Pres. H. D. Holtom, Sec.

News Notes

Elder Fairchild has been holding a short effort in a hall in Rome, a little town on the Ohio River. He says the people there are ready to hear the message. Plans have been made to continue the work this summer.

A tent outfit has just been shipped to Brother Rossin in Cleveland where he will conduct an effort.

EMMA SILBER - - - EDITOR

Entered as second-class matter March 25, 1908, at the post-office at Mount Vernon, O., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Address all subscriptions and make all money orders payable to your tract society.

The check mark here indicates that your subscription has expired. Kindly renew at once.

To Contributors

It is our aim and desire that the Columbia Union Visitor reach its readers in good season each week. To accomplish this, it is necessary that the paper be made up Friday afternoon, and this cannot be done unless the copy be had by WEDNESDAY MORNING. We request, therefore, that all contributors send in their weekly reports typewritten, double-spaced at the time specified, and that the reports be short and frequent, rather than long and far apart.

THE EDITOR.

Wedding Bells

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Silber, Cincinnati, Ohio, June 4, was solemnized the very pretty wedding of Mr. E. Ray Corder and Miss Emma Silber. After the wedding march had been played by Miss Catherine Koppenhoefer, the writer performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by a number of relatives and friends. Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Silber, the brides parents, and Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Silber all of Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corder of Dresden, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Linsey, of Tensassa, New York; Miss Anna B. Weickel, Mrs. Elizabeth L. Hayman, and Mrs. L. M. Beck, all of Cincinnati.

Mr. Corder was a member of this year's graduating class of Washington Missionary College and Mrs. Corder finished her work this year at the Mount Vernon Academy. She was the president of her class, and for the past three years has been editor of the Visitor. Thus both have spent several years in preparation for the Lord's work. A host of friends will join in extending to them their best wishes for a prosperous and successful future. After a short wedding trip to Niagara Falls and other points, they will spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corder of Dresden, Ohio, Route 3.

W. W. MILLER

C. S. Zebold of Dayton has entered the colporteur work. He says he had some good experiences last week and the Lord came very near.

Harold Burkholder, J. R. L. Randolph, and Clifford Hubbell are well established in Lawrence County where they are canvassing. The first week they were out their total sales amounted to $350.

Brother Cox will conduct a series of meetings in a hall in Newark.

Orders for tents and rooms are coming in steadily indicating that many are planning to attend camp-meeting this year. The rooms in the academy are all rented, and many rooms in the village. Owing to the fact that additional references for rooms in the village will be quite limited it would be best for all who possibly can to plan to tent. This will locate you right on the camp ground and, if you please, you can divide accommodations and costs with others. Order your tents and furniture at once so that we can have time to plan for the needs as far as possible.

MT. VERNON ACADEMY

News Notes

On Sabbath May 31 the members of the Mount Vernon Church enjoyed a sermon on "Our High Calling, Our Responsibility, Our Report," which was given by E. Ray Corder. Mr. Corder who is a former student of this school, recently graduated from the Washington Missionary College.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lindsey spent a few days last week with Elder Lindsey at the Mount Vernon Sanitarium.

Messers Carter and French spent the week end at Mount Vernon and reported a successful week in the field.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Cassell and family returned home Tuesday after a trip to Takoma Park, D. C.

Mr. Stipeck returned to the Academy Wednesday from a visit to Cleveland.

The berries are ripening in the school strawberry patch and there is promise of a bountiful crop.
