"Big Week" in the Book Work

With great joy we are looking forward to July 13 to 19 as another "Big Week"—a time of special blessing to our colporteurs and people. The wiseman says, "There is a time for everything." We therefore feel that July 13-19 is the time for you, dear reader, to do your best in the sale of our message-filled books. See how much light you can place in the darkened homes of this Union.

Let the Church Take Part

We hope every church will organize and prepare to spend every hour possible during this seven days in the sale of either a large book or the small $.25 books, such as "World Peace," and others. At the end of the week let each church report to the Field Secretary the value of books sold and to the Home Missionary Secretary the number of books. The Lord will surely bless you. Not until God distributes His wonderful crowns will the results be made known. Sow the seed now, reap the harvest then.

The Colporteur

My dear colporteur, I hope you will make "Big Week" just what the name stands for,—"Big Week." If you do your best, it will be the biggest in blessing, biggest in hours, biggest in sales, that we ever had.

Sunday

Don't let the opportunities of Sunday pass by unimproved. Many of our colporteurs have had splendid success among the common class on Sunday. Their sales run up as high as $40.00 and $50.00. So begin on the first day of the week. Don't miss the opportunity of adding that much to your time and orders.

Conference Laborers

It was recommended at the Review & Herald Bookmen's Convention, to invite all the conference workers and ministers to supplement the work of the regular colporteurs at this time. Let none miss their privilege and blessing who can possibly go. When we start out July 13, knowing that a great force of workers are scattered every where in North America, I am sure we will enjoy our work.

Prayer Meeting

At the end of the week, we should have a good prayer and praise service, even if there are but two or three in some places. God will be with you.

H. F. KIRK.

Ready for Service

"A vestibuled express train stood on the track equipped for its first swift flight of fifty miles without a stop. It still lacked many minutes of schedule starting time, yet the locomotive, with all steam up, was attached, the engineer and fireman were at their posts, the brakeman on duty, the porters standing by the steps of their cars. 'Prepared for service' was written on every line of the glistening train."

Prepared for service! What a world of meaning in those three short words; and if this great throbbing machine needed to be prepared for the work it was to do, how much more does the individual require a preparation for service. To be ready to act one's part in the work of life, to be equipped thoroughly to do in the most efficient way the task God sets—what is there so important, so worth while for every young man or woman?

Preparation means education. An education in a Christian school is an absolute essential to the person who would be prepared for the service of Him who served others, who came "not to be ministered unto but to minister." We must have training to do our best work; and educational advantages are within the reach of all who will use the golden key that unlocks the golden gates of fortune—and that key is called Industry.

"Life's master word is Work. With this magic word in one's heart all things are possible. It is the touch-stone of progress—the secret of success." Almost without exception the lives of all truly great men have been lives of intense and untiring labor.

The great educator, Horace Mann, and Louis Agassiz, the Swiss naturalist of world renown, achieved their marvelous accomplishments only by a life of incessant labor. Thomas A. Edison is another example of one whose unparalleled service to his fellow men was and is being accomplished by the most strenuous and never ceasing industry. Biography and history have given us scores of other worthy examples and "one example," says Gladstone, "is worth a thousand arguments."

Statistics from the graduating classes of almost any school of advanced learning reveal the fact that a very large per cent of the students are partially self-supporting. Not long ago I read of a well known institution where fifty per cent of the students worked their entire way through school, while ninety per cent of the total membership worked at least part of their way. And the best part of it all is, that the student who works his way through college is better prepared for service when he leaves than his seemingly more fortunate class-mate who has had his expenses paid for him and has not learned what it means to work.

The scholarship plan, by means of which over two hundred of our students earned their entire expenses in school last year during the summer months, is one of the very best ways of securing money for an education. By selling our books in summer one secures the double advantage of doing real soul-winning work while at the same time he is earning his schooling. Five hundred students are in the canvassing field this summer, and it is not too late for others to enter. In these busy days there are scores of opportunities of every kind open to the young person who is determined to earn his way through school. The farm, the office, the trades, work in printing houses, or other institutions,—these all afford opportunities to the industrious, faithful worker. It may mean many a struggle, perhaps, but it is the struggle towards an ideal, constant endeavor to accomplish a worthy purpose that develops sterling character.

It may be that the remuneration for the work open to you is small and expenses high; perhaps only by the strictest economy is it possible to see your savings grow; but be assured that your patient efforts and constant adherence to a worthy purpose will bring results. Mary Lyon, the famous founder of Mt. Holyoke Seminary, began at fourteen years of age to save for an advanced education, working four years a week before she secured a sufficient sum for her first term in a school of higher learning. And how many advantages are ours today! Surely we, too, can win the prize of a good education and so be prepared for service.

Resolve that you will enter school this fall in spite of all seeming obstacles. Work steadily and perseveringly, improving every possible moment. "There is always room at the top" you know, but we must reach it by steady climbing, for "the elevator to success is not running."

"We build the ladder by which we rise
From the lowly earth to the lofty skies,
And we mount to the summit round
by round."

NEW JERSEY

200 Columbus Ave. Trenton
W. C. Moffett, Pres. Cora Felker, Sec.

Elder Moffett secured a house last week and returned to Virginia for his family and household goods.

Brother Warren made a trip to Wasington last week in the interest of the conference educational work.

By the time this paper reaches our people the workers will be in Trenton pitching the tent for camp meeting. If you are planning to come, we trust you have not forgotten to send in your order for a tent. We have plenty of tents and expect to be able to accommodate all our people this year, but your order should be in at this writing if you wish to have accommodations by June 26. Please do not let anything keep you away from this important gathering of God's people. We firmly believe that this privilege will be afforded only a very few years longer.

We take this occasion to express our appreciation to the church treasurers for sending in prompt reports for May. It is a great advantage to have these reports on time.

The Lord is blessing the efforts of our colporteurs in New Jersey and they report to us many rich experiences from week to week. Last week we recieved the following word from Brother Elvin C. Feltman who has recently entered the field.

"There were three women in one home which I visited. I canvassed the lady of the house and after quite a talk she said she did not want the book. But I began to speak of the importance of the work. In a short time it seemed as though the Lord was impressing her heart and mind as to the conditions that exist in the world today. Soon her countenance changed and shortly after ordered a cloth binding. In the meantime, she asked the lady next to her about it and she ordered one. Before I left she had influenced the third lady to give me an order. I recieved $.50 on each one. Surely, when we allow the Spirit of God to work, great blessings are recieved."

News Notes

As these notes are written it finds us all very busy getting the grounds in readiness for our coming camp-meeting. When the readers of the Visitor receive this, the meeting will have been in session several days. We sincerely hope that those who were not able to be present at the beginning of the meeting will come for the last few days of the feast.

Good reports are already coming in from the schools in regard to Rally Day. We believe that the Sabbath School work will be strengthened as a result of this endeavor. "Let us work for the schools with our hearts and our hands."

The Parkersberg Church was well filled June 7. Quite a number isolated people were present beside some who came early to pitch the camp.

Mr. Francis Parrish, a student from Washington Missionary College, has arrived in our field and will work in connection with one of our tent companies this summer.

Two more Mount Vernon students have entered the canvassing field, Brethren Schoonard and Sivey. They send in good reports for their first week.

Summer school opened in Washington, June 10, and will continue until August 5. This session will be of great value to those who contemplate teaching in our schools this year.

Thursday evening, June 3, the members of the Parkersburg Young Peoples' Society met at the home of Elder and Mrs. Westbrook to bid farewell to their beloved leader, Sister Hattie Robinson, who is leaving West Virginia to reside in Akron, Ohio. An interesting program was rendered consisting of a Standard of Attainment Question and Answer exercise. Each one present spoke a few words of appreciation to Sister Robinson for the earnest efforts she has put forth for them in the past. At the close of the meeting an earnest prayer was offered by Elder Westbrook.

Inasmuch as the camp-meeting is in session and many of the colporteurs are in attendance the report will drop down for a week or so.

Brother Ernest Mansell reports a one hundred per cent delivery. He says, "I ordered more books than my delivery called for and have delivered every one."

News Notes

We are receiving word at the office that many are pleased that the camp meeting has been postponed until fall. We are sure that the August 28 to September 7 date will accomodate many more of our people than the early date.

In a letter just received from Brother Holst he tells us that Mrs. Holst, who can speak the Croation language, (a language of northern Europe) is interesting a Croation family of Sharon in the truth. Brother Holst writes: "The evening my wife first visited them the lady was crying because no one came to see them." Brethren and sisters, how are we spending our evenings and Sundays? Can we not go out and comfort some souls, and lead them to Christ? Get some literature, and go out and compel them to come in; the supper is ready and few guests are coming.

Brother R. M. Spencer was a welcomed visitor at the office this week. He came to ship out his tent outfit for the summer effort at New Castle. Let us turn our faces towards New Castle, and pray that the Lord will abundantly bless Brethren Spencer and Holst in their work this summer.

Brothe G. W. Lawrence reports a good interest in the meetings at Clearfield. Three more have taken their stand with God's remnant people.

Brother William Robbins is now settled in Johnstown, and reports favorably on the prospects there for a church school next fall.

Elder A. N. Durrant is planning for a strong tent effort this summer for the colored people. Let us remember him in our prayers that he may have an abundant harvest.

We are pleased to pass on to others the following extract of a letter from one of our new colporteurs which surely shows what the Lord will do for us if we but exercise faith and trust in Him:—"Last Friday my finances were very low, and I did not see my way clear to meet my expenses over the Sabbath; so I called upon the Lord for the fulfillment of His promises, laying my case before Him. The first woman that I canvassed bought a $6.00 book, and paid it in full, and a little later a woman gave me a $2.00 deposit on a $4.00 book; so I had plenty of money to meet my obligations. The Lord answers the prayers of those who diligently seek Him and who delight to know His ways."

We have just learned through the report from the McDonald Sabbath School that they, too, have a record of perfect attendance for last quarter. Another interesting item is the fact that they lacked only $2.00 of having the 13th Sabbath offering average $1.00 per church member. Clearfield lacked only $.90 of reaching the goal, and Coudersport went above the goal $2.62, while Dubois broke the record, and went above the goal $8.17.

Home Missionary work is not always to be counted in book or magazine sales. One sister who could not take long walks devoted her time to giving Bible studies. Four are now keeping the Sabbath. Another sister found access to hearts through helping in sickness. Three of the family are now keeping the Sabbath.

Our Missionary Volunteer Societies are doing excellent work. We expect to organize another society in Altoona soon.

News Notes

Elder R. S. Fries, who will connect with Elder J. W. McCord in a tent effort in Philadelphia commencing July 6, has obtained a splendid site on the corner of 57th and Walnut Streets, West Philadelphia. Elder McCord is still in Florida, and expects to return about the first of July. He writes that his condition is much better, and feels in fine shape for a strenuous summer's work. Elders Fries and McCord have labored together in California.

Elder Parsons and Bairle have been searching the city of Philadelphia for a camp meeting site, but have not decided on the location at this writing. There will be a committee meeting in a short time when this, with many other items, will be considered. Continue to lay your plans to attend.

Miss Anna Schneider has been visiting her parents in Philadelphia during the past week. She has now returned to Washington Sanitarium to continue her course there.

Brother Gauker and Sister Acton are planning a Home Missionary and Sabbath School Convention in Tioga County the latter part of this month. The time and place will be announced later.

Rally Day for the Sellersville Sabbath School proved an interesting one to all present. Some splendid reports were given of the work as it is being carried on in that school. First, it is on the Honor Roll because every church member is a member of the Sabbath School; then too, every teacher and officer is taking the Training Course. Every class took an active part in the rally, each striving to do his best. A pleasant surprise was given by the German class singing one of our songs in their own language. Little tots who spoke the first time inspired all with the messages that they had to give.

The Philadelphia Colored Sabbath School reports a large class taking the Teachers Training Course. Their aim is certainly a splendid one. More and better teachers will build up the Sabbath School work as nothing else can.

One enthusiastic Missionary Volunteer in the West Philadelphia Church has set a goal, the reading of all the books in the Senior Reading Courses. He has already obtained eight certificates this year, and lacks but seven books of completing them all.

Brother C. E. Reichenbaugh has been failing in health for some time in the past, and was compelled to undergo an examination at the Sanitarium in Takoma Park on one of his recent trips there. Dr. Miller pronounced his trouble as ulcers of the stomach, and an operation is necessary. Brother Reichenbaugh is now arranging his work to have the heavy summer's work of his department comes on.

We regret very much that so many of our laborers are hindered in their efforts as a result of ill health, and feel that the enemy is working his hardest. Let us remember these brethren and sisters in our prayers.

June 28 a special program will make the opening of the Review and Herald Campaign for the month of July. This program can be found in the June number of the Church Officers' Gazette. Let all the churches on that day devote their services to the "good old Review" in celebration of its seventieth anniversary. Church officers, lay your plans now.

Sister Esther Zimmer of the North Philadelphia Church, is assisting in the office in the place of Sister Joy Murphy who left us a short time ago.

News Notes

We are sorry to learn that Clifford Hubbell has been compelled to give up the colporteur work, and return home because of his health. He is taking treatments at the M. & S. Sanitarium.

Miss Goldie Hixon visited the Sabbath School in Massillon last Sabbath.

Mr. R. C. Gabin, one of our colporteurs, with his wife called at the office last week for a short visit.

Brother T. H. Barritt has just returned from the Virginia camp meeting where he directed the music. He reports a splendid meeting. Brother Barritt has been asked to take the position of singing evangelist and assistant to the Home Missionary Secretary of this Union Conference. He will take up his new duties in the near future.

Brother Barritt recently received a letter from his sister, Mrs. F. H. Loasby, of the Punjab, India, in which she writes of the terrible uprisings and how they had to flee from the mission. Let us remember them in our prayers.

Prof. and Mrs. Welch have gone to Battle Creek to attend the golden wedding anniversary of the parents of Miss Minnie O. Hart.

Mrs. King and her helpers at the Academy have canned over three hundred quarts of strawberries this week and there are many more to can.

Lillian French stopped in Mt. Vernon a few days on her way to summer school.

Mrs. Heckman accompanied Elder Heckman on his return to Mt. Vernon, and they will soon be settled in their new home.

O. S. Hershberger went to Washington for the opening of summer school.

Miss Bernice Coe, who has been stenographer in the Conference office for the past two years, has decided to return to her home in New York. Miss Nora Atkins of Berrien Springs, Michigan, will fill this vacancy. Miss Gertrude Alger, of Saginaw, Michigan, has also connected with the office as stenographer.

Raymond Wolf, who has been assisting in the Tract Society during the school year, has returned to his home in Pittsburgh where he will take up other employment during the summer.

Rally Day at Mount Vernon

In harmony with the program outlined by the Sabbath School Department of the General Conference, Sabbath, June 7 was observed as Rally Day by the Mount Vernon Sabbath School. A good round program for both the forenoon and afternoon services was rendered. Elder Heckman, the new president of our conference, led out in the discussion of the important topic "The Sabbath School a Recruiting Station." Much importance was attached to the need of making our Sabbath schools a real soul saving factor in our work.

The various topics, songs, recitations, etc., were enjoyed by all. We are sure that many went home from these services with a broader vision of the great possibilities of the Sabbath school work. Great emphasis was placed upon the need of every church member being a member of the Sabbath school. All were invited to become regular members, and contribute regularly to the advancement of the work. We sincerely hope that the various Sabbath schools throughout the state enjoyed the same rich blessings as the Mount Vernon Sabbath School.

News Notes

Most excellent word comes to us from Wilmington, Del. No. 1 Church. A number of companies went out with literature Sunday, June 8, and returned with about $150.00 as a result of the days experiences. One company of four headed by the pastor, Elder E. F. Colleir, secured $33.00. They would have done much better than this but they had no more territory. A company of four went to another town and returned with $45.00. All are very much enthused and are planning to go again, the following Sunday. If this good work keeps up the Wilmington No. 1 Church will soon be in the lead in this splendid home missionary work. They are planning to pay off their church debt and this money is being solicited for that purpose.

The tents for the various tent companies are being gotten out of the storehouse this week. It is planned that six of our tent companies shall begin their meetings June 22. Let all remember these various companies in your prayers.

Elder Booth will conduct a tent effort in South Baltimore. Elder E. F. Colleir will conduct an effort in Wilmington, corner of Broom and 4th Sts. Elder A. G. Stevens will conduct an effort in Dover, Delaware. Elder C. E. Andross will hold an effort in Martinsburg, W. Va. He will be assisted by his brother, E. M. Andross. Brother G. Medairy will hold a tent effort in Perryville, Md. Elder M. C. Srachan will hold a series of meetings for the colored people in Baltimore, and is trying to secure a lot somewhere in South Baltimore. No special efforts have ever been held in South Baltimore for either the white or colored people, and it was thought advisable to hold both efforts to be held in this city in that section this year. Elder Leslie Muntz will hold an effort for about six months in Dover, Del., for the colored people and then expects to go into Sussex County, for the remainder of the summer. Of course so many efforts will mean heavy expense, and we especially urge that all our brethren and sisters be very faithful in the payment of their tithe this year. Also that the offerings be faithfully paid as the mission fields need the funds.

We recently received letters from Elder and Mrs. R. T. Baer, and also from Lilah and Frank. All are quite well except Sister Baer who was having the "flu." She was better when they wrote, April 21. They ask to be remembered to all their friends. Elder Baer was recently elected president of the Chile Conference and as soon as some one can be procured to take his place in Argentine they will move across the mountains into the Chile Conference. The work in Argentine has gone splendidly, and they are reluctant to leave their many friends there, but are willing to go if it is for the best.

Brother Ellsworth Andross, who graduated from Washington Missionary College recently, came to the office the other day, and will now take up work in this field. He visited his brother, Elder C. E. Andross, at Rock Hill over the Sabbath.

Elder Virbrook Nutter went to Rock Hall Sabbath and will continue the work Elder Andross has been doing there, for some little time at least.

Elder J. H. Wierts and family who have been visiting her parents in Pennsylvania have returned to their home.

Brother G. Medairy baptized five persons at Blythdale last week, as a result of the effort there. A number of others are about ready to go forward. Mrs. Medairy spent Sabbath and Sunday with him.

Brother H. E. Wagner has returned to his home here in the city, having been in attendance at the College all winter.

Brother Ernest Atkinson called at the office the other day. He told us of the splendid progress of the work in Wilmington in the Second Church. They are working hard to get a suitable place to hold their meetings. The building they are in is in very bad condition, and they are in great need of more commodious quarters.

The Sabbath in Heaven

"It shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the Lord." Isa. 66:23.

How sweet the Sabbath days in heaven will be,
When all God's people come with one accord,
Unto the holy city of our God,
To worship and adore our glorious Lord.

Where all see eye to eye, and heart to heart,
And know and do God's blessed holy will,
The joy and sweet delight of every heart,
Our Father's loved commandments to fulfill.

O what a fellowship of kindred minds,
In that blest home of happiness and joy
Without a fear its peacefulness to mar,
Without a pain its pleasures to alloy.

Our hearts with love o'erflowing, each for all,
And love to God supreme in every breast,
Twill be indeed a day of perfect joy,
A day of perfect happiness and rest.

Like to the angels that excel in strength,
We swiftly to that meeting place will speed,
And keep the holy Sabbath of the Lord
With joy that shall all earthly joys exceed.

We'll cast our golden crowns before the throne
Of Him who gave His life that we might live.
And for that blessed boon of peace and rest,
All praise and honor unto Him we'll give.

With skillful touch we'll touch our golden harps,
And join with angels in their songs of praise,
As week by week through blest eternity
We come to worship on the Sabbath days.

Dear Saviour, help us now to trust Thy word,
And for thy blest commands stand firm
and true;
That we may join that glorious happy
throng,
And keep Thy Sabbaths in the earth made new.

The cover pictures Uncle Sam as a school master with a class of immigrant children before him instructing them in the fundamentals of democracy. The cover compels the interest by magnifying the eye. It tells the story of the millions the world over who have stepped out from ignorance, subservience, oppression, and who are looking to America as the pole star of freedom.

Two articles, "America, The World's Burden Bearer" and "Civilization's Last Straw" tells why America has come into leadership in such a time as this, the work that faces her and the ultimate outcome.

Other contributions which contain a message that the world needs are—

"Is Armageddon Past or Future?"

"Black Heroes"

A romance of missions.

"Is Roman Catholicism Democratic?"

Evidence submitted consists of quotations from standard works of the Church.

"Can You Change Your Birthday?"

A lesson on the world's birthday, the Sabbath.

"Czecho-Slovakia, A Pedigreed Republic"

The story of the Protestant Reformation in Bohemia.

"China's Spirit World"

"The Decalogue and Fashion"

These truth-laden articles together with Dr. Thomason's health page, the Melting Pot of Opinions, and two pages of illustrated editorials on current affairs constitute a magazine that will sell and that will convince, for it is a magazine with a message.

The Busy Colporteur

Colporteurs are judged and this is surely true,
By the time they put forth, and the work that they do:
From earliest dawn until late in the night,
These soldiers of Zion press on with the fight.
The comforts of home and the punkah-side pleasures
Are counted but dross beside heavenly treasures,
But their faithful reports bring comfort and cheer
To the watchers at home and the loved ones so dear.
There is naught that can alter them, nor tempest, nor rain,
As they carry God's message to earth's farthest plain:
And those who accept of the message they bear
Shall be stars in the crowns the colporteurs shall wear.
W. H. Stevens, in India Union Tidings.

To Contributors

It is our aim and desire that the Columbia Union Visitor reach its readers in good season each week. To accomplish this, it is necessary that the paper be made up Friday afternoon, and this cannot be done unless the copy be had by WEDNESDAY MORNING. We request, therefore, that all contributors send in their weekly reports typewritten, double-spaced at the time specified, and that the reports be short and frequent, rather than long and far apart.

Sabbath Dawn

Day is dying in the west
Heaven is touching earth with rest,
A reverent rest,
Because tonight is Friday night—
Another dawn of Sabbath light—
By heaven blessed.

I think I hear the big bell ringing,
And now I hear the students singing.
Sweet Sabbath rest!
And now I hear "Sweet Hour of Prayer."
O, how I wish I might be there,
And be refreshed.

I see the students kneel and pray.
How sweet it is at close of day!
God, impress them.
Let them know you hear their prayers,
And take away all earthly cares.
Father, bless them.

O, how I long to be away;
Back at dear old M. V. A.
Again tonight.
But, Father, if 'tis not Thy will,
Help me to Thy will fulfill,
And to do right.

So when Thou comest by and by,
To take us home with Thee on high,
Great God, our King,
May all the students of M. V. A.,
Have a prayer meeting there, I pray,
Then shall we sing.

—Daisy Wheeler.

Notice to Subscribers

Daily there comes to us from post offices, notices of the changes of the addresses of our subscribers. Sometimes they give us a new address, but most often they say "not found," "left no address," or "refused." Once in a while they say "no such number." Many times these are written in such a way that the addresses are not readable.

It would be a great favor to us, when your address is changed, if you would send us a card with your new and old addresses designated on it. Please write these plainly and state whether or not the change is to be permanent. By granting this favor you will save us considerable trouble and expense, and you will get your paper every week

OBITUARIES

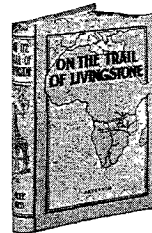

KLOPFENSTEIN.—Jennie Drake, aged sixty-six, died at her home in Bowling Green, Ohio, May 30, 1919. She was the widow of the late George Klopfenstein who died about a year ago. Sister Klopfenstein was a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church for nearly forty years. She leaves to mourn their loss two sons, Merle and Floyd, who is an employee of the Review & Herald, and two daughters, Miss Nora and Mrs. George Sterling, who with her husband, is engaged in missionary work in the Marquesas Islands of the Pacific.

DR. D. S. TETERS.

STEVENS.—Mary Jane Custer was born March 26, 1844. She was united in marriage to Benton Stevens in 1864 and to this union five children were born: Adella K. wife of Henry Stone; Anna Blanche, who died in 1893 while serving the Ohio Conference as a Bible worker; Dr. Nellie M. of Indiana; George Benton of Blooming Grove; and Pearl E. wife of Dr. C. E. Reed of Detroit, Michigan, where Sister Stevens was visiting at the time of her death which was caused by pneumonia. Sister Stevens embraced present truth in 1879 and was a charter member of the Corsica Church. Her remains were taken to Blooming Grove where she was laid to rest beside her husband who died in January, 1912. The funeral was conducted by the writer, assisted by Elder J. W. Watt, in the Seventh-day Adventist Church at Corsica. Words of comfort were spoken from Rev. 14:13. Sister Stevens had lived a faithful Seventh-day Adventist and looked forward to that blessed day when hope will be turned to sight.

Two New Books

Africa and India

Written by Men Now in the Field

Speaking of "On the Trail of Livingstone," Elder W. W. Eastman says:

"A copy of Brother Anderson's book 'On the Trail of Livingstone,' from your house, reached headquarters of the Publishing Department a few days ago. I began reading it at once, and could hardly stop until I finished it. Somehow there is something about the book and the way it is written that appeals to me from first to last more than any book I have ever read on missionary work in Africa. It should have a very wide circulation, both outside and within our denomination."

What one says of "On the Trail of Livingstone," others say about "Fruit from the Jungle."

Over 3,000 of each have already been sold by the publishers. They are both in the Missionary Volunteer Reading Course this year.
