Do You Remember?

Do you remember that day when you got into difficulty, when someone bigger and stronger than you had picked on you, and you wished that you were safely at home with father and mother? Then, suddenly, when you feared defeat and harm, your big brother or big sister appeared around the corner to take your part. Do you remember that day?

I well remember an experience in my early school days, when I was a little fellow. On my way home from school, a boy several years older than I, waited outside the school gate to whip me for some slight grievance. I was so small that I was powerless to resist him, and was quite resigned to get the worst of the encounter. Suddenly, reinforcements appeared in the form of my big sister, who immediately took the bully in hand and refused to let him go until he had promised that he would never molest me again. It is needless to say that I was always proud of my big sister and was always ready to take my troubles to her.

Do you know that there are many boys and girls, who day by day need champions—not only to meet such foes to their happiness, but to help them meet Satan, that wily arch-enemy of their happiness and their Christian progress and development. Our small boys and girls do need big brothers and big sisters today.

Do you remember that day years ago, men and women, and older people? And will you be a big brother or a big sister to some boy or girl each day?

"Look all around you, find someone in need,

Help some Junior today.

Though it be little - a neighborly deed,

Help some Junior today.

"Some are discouraged and weary in heart,

Help some Junior today.

Someone the journey to Heaven should start,

Help some Junior today."

This is a good work for the members of our Missionary Volunteer societies to engage in. We need more real association with our Junior and younger people. N. A. Saunders.

Foreign Literature Campaign

At a recent meeting of the Columbia Union Conference Committee, the great need of literature for foreign speaking people was considered.

The Brookfield Publishing House is being established for the purpose of printing literature in the foreign languages. In carefully considering this need and also the deficit on the Mission Funds for 1920 it was "Voted, That we ask every church member in the Columbia Union Conference to solicit funds for Home and Foreign Missions during the month of May to the amount of $3.00 each, by the distribution of magazines, small books, Present Truth, or other suitable literature now in the homes of our people, or that can be secured from the Conference Tract Society. The distribution of these funds shall be as follows:

"One dollar per member to the Brookfield Publishing House as requested by the General Conference; two dollars for Foreign Missions to aid in making up the large deficit on the Fifty-Cent-A-Week Fund. Those who find it inconvenient to raise this amount by the way designated may contribute the same in cash."

I hope that our people throughout the Union will give their hearty support to this literature campaign by native service. The need is imperative, and eternity alone will reveal the result. F. H. Robbins.

Pittsburg Laymen's Convention

The Home Missionary Convention in the Pittsburg Church No. 1 brought together a goodly number of the Pittsburg and Allegheny brethren and sisters, April 9 to 11. Vital factors in the laymen's movement were studied. Brother E. R. Numbers was the leading spirit in the convention. He was assisted by Pastor Rees, Brethren Manry, Holst, and the writer. Brother Riemann, Sister Grace Taylor, and Brother Harry Dean and wife added much to the value of the meetings by their musical talent.

Brother Numbers sounded the keynote of the movement and convention on the "opening night. His subject was "Soul Winning." The lecture by Brother Panches on Saturday night enlisted the sympathy of all present for the neglected foreigners at our doors. Sunday morning was field day among the Italians, Jews, Poles and Hungarians. In a short time, men, women, and young people sold a large number of magazines. An enlivening report meeting was held in the afternoon. A number of the workers banded together for much stronger efforts in the future for the foreigners in Pittsburg. This band will grow and prosper in the Lord's work.

The last night of the convention Brother Numbers spoke about the advancement of God's work in both home and foreign fields and the providence of God being used in hastening the message for our day. An interesting feature of the convention was the literature display arranged by Brother Manry, home missionary secretary of the West Pennsylvania Conference. It is earnestly desired that the meetings will contribute much to the progress of the message in Pittsburg.

Missionary Volunteer Notes

During the first quarter of the year, fifty-one Reading Course certificates have already been issued to our young people. The Newark Juniors received more than any other one society.

Twenty-three societies reported for the quarter, or 260 out of 345 members reported work done. There are 126 taking the Reading Courses, and 113 who are pushing the Bible Year.

A large class of the Trenton young people have just finished a thorough course in Denominational History, and are ready for the examination. The Tuesday evening Educational Band meeting of this society is a very whirlwind of interest. The capable educational leader is further assisted by the pastor.

The Newark Seniors, twenty strong, have reorganized under competent leadership, and give us strictly to understand that they intend to do things this year.

There are five societies at present that have a 100% reporting membership. They are, Camden Senior, Swedesboro, Cape May C. H., Pleasantville, and Burlington.

The largest society, Patterson English which has thirty members. They report, among other things, 172 missionary visits, 1,596 magazines distributed, 146 books sold and given away, 232 hours Christian Help work, 46 articles of clothing given and $25.00 worth of food. Trenton, Jericho, and Camden Senior, were close seconds to this. The finest Junior reports came from Camden, Newark, and Pleasantville.

We are glad for this fine spirit of loyalty and service among the young people. We are all studying to broaden our vision and increase our usefulness. The passing of this year should see much done by our young people toward finishing the work.

News Notes

Elder Moffett spent Sabbath, April 17, with our churches in Paulsboro and Woodbury. These churches very much appreciated the good meetings which were held.

On Monday, the office was brightened by a visit from Elder Baum and Captain L. W. Wilson of the Newark Church. They enjoyed it as well as we.

The series of meetings being held in Paterson by Elders O. O. Bernstein and F. E. Gibson are being well attended. Well over a thousand people were present at the Garden Theater Sunday night. The subject of the evening was "The Sanctuary and Its Relation to Christ," and was illustrated by a mammoth painting of the encamped Israelites, together with an exact replica of the Tabernacle itself. A fine impression was made on the entire audience.

The Morristown Sabbath School headed the last last quarter with a per capita offering of 55 cents per week; Newark German came second with 50 cents, and Washington third with 48 cents per week per member. Five other schools reached the 25 cent goal, namely, Camden No. 2, Jersey City German, Burlington, Newark English, and Havenkopf Mt. Twelve more will reach this goal in the near future.

Mrs. Stipeck, of the conference office, is spending a week or two with her relatives and friends in Cleveland, Ohio.

Brethren Clark and Warren have just returned from a several days' sojourn with the Paterson Churches. Joint meetings were held on Sabbath and Sunday in the interest of home and foreign missionary work. About a dozen members were out for a field day on Sunday forenoon, and something over fifty dollars were secured for local work. This field work was continued on Monday and Tuesday.

The Sabbath schools of New Jersey which made the Thirteenth Sabbath, March 27, Dollar Day, are as follows:

Foreign Work

On Sunday morning, April 11, about sixteen persons met at the Rowan Avenue Church in Pittsburg, after which they went to the different sections of the city to work among the foreign people. Brethren Panches, Numbers, Corder, and the writer led the different bands to the sections visited.

In the house-to-house work that followed, many valuable lessons were learned. Surely the time has come when the hundreds of thousands of strangers within our gates should be reached. Many of them are here in the providence of God. Let us take the truth to them quickly, so they can return to their homes and enlighten others.

The experience meeting that followed was full of interest. The effort had been a success. One man was so pleased to get a tract in his own language that he gave one dollar and ten cents for it. Others smiled as they reached out for the literature in their native tongue.

A foreign band was organized with Brother Yohe as leader. This band will reach out after souls in the sections of the city where the strangers within our gates dwell. If we love the foreigners whom we have seen it will be easy to raise funds to carry the gospel to those whom we have not seen. The Pittsburg No. 1 Church is increasing its missionary activity. With the unsettled conditions all about us the conviction is fastening itself upon each member that every individual should be engaged in some line of missionary activity.

About fifty miles from Pittsburg is the little Indiana Church. The missionary spirit has reached this place so that a burden is felt for those out of the ark of safety. Six persons visited some of the mining towns, giving out several hundred foreign magazines and receiving almost sixty dollars. A sister who recently took her stand for the truth gave out Croatian tracts and received one hundred times the price of them. Mrs. Holst visited some of the same people who were so glad to hear her talk their own language that they gave her four dollars. They said they would buy any book in their language regardless of the price.

West Pennsylvania has more foreigners than almost any other conference in the East. We want to reach every honest soul with our message. Soon we will have a worker devoting his time to these people. Reader, will you not pray that He who rules in the heavens will guide us by His wisdom to these poor souls for whom Jesus died?

News Notes

A most excellent Missionary Volunteer Convention was held in the First S. D. A. Church in Baltimore beginning Friday evening, and closing Sunday evening, April 9 to 11. Besides our own conference workers located in Baltimore, there were present, Prof. C. A. Russell, of the General Conference, and Elder C. E. Andross of Martinsburg, who has lately been elected to take the Missionary Volunteer work in the Union Conference. A splendid program had been arranged by Miss Mount, the secretary for the Missionary Volunteers of the conference. There was a good response on the part of the young people and we look forward to a good work being done by the young people of this church this year, as well as in past years.

Elder Robbins of the Union Conference and Elder James of the General Conference spent Sabbath, April 10, with the Third Church of Baltimore. Their presence was greatly appreciated.

Elder and Mrs. M. C. Strachan and daughter, Elder Leslie Muntz, Brother Ernest Atkinson and wife, and Miss Julia Cooper, the latter the Bible worker for Elder Strachan, are attending the convention being held at Nashville, Tenn.

Miss Anna C. Dewers spent a few days in Baltimore last week, visiting friends and attending the convention Sabbath and Sunday.

We have two new colporteurs in the field. They are Miss Ruth Ellwanger of Viola, Delaware, and Miss Flora Harter of Cheswold, Delaware, both members of the Dover No. 1 Church. We are glad to welcome them to our corps of workers.

Elder A. S. Booth attended the Union Conference Committee meeting at Takoma Park.

A meeting of the Chesapeake Conference Committee will be held this week, at which time definite arrangements, both as to time and place, will be made for the camp meeting. We are anxious that our people plan to attend this meeting. Begin now to make arrangements to do so.

News Notes

A very profitable Elders and Home Missionary Institute was held in the beautiful chapel at Sayre, Pennsylvania for the northern part of the conference. Out of eighteen churches in that part of the conference, fifteen were represented, and out of forty-four delegates invited thirty-nine were in attendance. Of these there were eleven local church elders and ten local secretaries. The convention opened Friday evening April 9 with a stirring talk by Elder H. G. Gauker on present day conditions, showing the need of more consecration and greater activity in the Home Missionary Department. Sabbath and Sunday were given to solid convention work. One of the most interesting meetings was that of the Sunday morning devotional hour, when Elder D. A. Parsons spoke on the importance of the spirit of prophecy. The help of Elders S. S. Schrock and H. A. Weaver of the Wilkes Barre and Scranton district was greatly appreciated. On Sunday evening Elder Parsons spoke to a crowded church on the subject of "Bolshevism."

Elder Parsons visited the church at Lancaster, Sabbath April 17.

Brother Baierle is now conducting Sunday evening meetings at the Allentown Church.

Brother and Sister Booth are still working at Greencastle.

The Lancaster Church leads in the amount per capita for missions during the first quarter of this year. They gave forty-seven cents per member.

A Word from the Sabbath Schools

Our hearts are made to rejoice, as time goes on and year by year the Sabbath schools of our denomination are sending hundreds of missionaries into the darkened lands of earth.

The members of the West Virginia Conference are happy to have a part in this glorious work. When we heard of our Sabbath School Goal, 25 cents a week per church member to be given in the Sabbath schools, we decided that with the Lord's help we would do it.

Knowing that our members are interested in this movement, the following is a list of our schools and the amount given by each for the quarter which closed March 27, 1920.

Where does your school stand? Did you go over your goal or not quite reach it? Then the question is before us, what will the record be for the quarter which closes June 26, 1920.

Brother V. O. Punches called at the office one day last week.

Elder Westbrook spent several days in Charleston last week. He spoke in the church on Sabbath.

Due to the high cost of paper after July 1 the Review and Herald will advance in price to $3.00 a year. All subscriptions received before that time will be accepted at the old rate, $2.50 per year or $4.50 for two years. Send in your order to-day.

A Home Missionary and Young Peoples' Convention will be held in the church at Parkersburg, April 30 to May 2. There will be a meeting Thursday evening April 29 to which all are invited. Bring lunches for Sabbath and Sunday as there will be all day meetings on these dates. The Kanawha people are invited to attend. There will be Union help provided.

Elder H. B. Westcott spoke in the interest of the young peoples' work at Parkersburg, last Sabbath.

The Charleston Institute

The Colporteur Institute in Charleston's new church was a great spiritual feast to the colporteurs and visitors who were present from the different parts of the state. Ministers and people expressed in their testimonies that they had been wonderfully helped by the meetings from day to day. Many new points were brought out in the general instruction by Brother Kirk. The medical instruction, which was given by Dr. H. S. Brown, was much appreciated. Elders Westbrook, Parish and Adkins preached at the evening meetings. Several outside people attended each evening.

Another new feature was a marriage ceremony. On Thursday afternoon, Brother C. G. Mays and Miss Tucker were united in marriage. After the ceremony we marched to the basement where Sister McHenry and others had prepared a splendid lap supper. This couple consecrated themselves anew to the colporteur work.

The prospects for West Virginia during 1920 look most bright. The last night of the institute, Brother

Kirk gave a stereopticon lecture, showing some interesting pictures from the canvassing field.

OHIO

Box 8, Mount Vernon, Ohio

N. S. Ashton, Pres. H. D. Holtom, Sec.

The following interesting paragraphs are taken from the letters received from two of our colporteurs, Brethern Ingersoll and Taylor:

"While at Jackson I received a fine report of Brother Hannah's work in Guernsey County. He sold 'Our Day' to a Mrs. Ed. Keller there who has since moved to Jackson. There she loaned the book to her neighbor, a Mrs. Wm. Stiffler and together they discovered the true Sabbath and began to keep it at once. It was my privilege to meet them at Sabbath school that Sabbath. Miss Morris, our Bible worker there is now giving them systematic studies on the Bible and they seem ready to embrace the whole message, another evidence that the tireless, faithful work we do will bring results."

"Some time ago I attempted to show my book to a groceryman, but was met with little interest and slight remarks about the Bible. He had very little faith in the Bible. Later when I was delivering the man chanced to see the great stack of books I had and asked me if I had sold all of them there. I told him that what he saw was not a fourth of what I had sold there. This seemed to interest him, so he asked to see one of the books, and then purchased it. Upon seeing him later, I found him a very different man. His skepticism has been turned to faith and he said that he now felt that he wanted to give his life to the Lord for his service. He inquired about our schools and is considering entering one to learn more of these wonderful truths."

The Only One

In order to properly illustrate Elder C. B. Haynes' latest book entitled "Satan, His Origin, Work and Destiny," it was found necessary to print it in color throughout. This is an entirely new feature in our 25 cent books, it being the only one of the series that is printed in colors. This makes it all the more attractive and striking, and therefore a most ready seller.

Again, Elder Haynes has frequently stated that of all the subjects upon which he speaks in his evangelistic efforts he finds none in which the people seem more interested than that pertaining to the origin, work and destiny of Satan. Some who have read this book pronounce it the author's masterpiece. At any rate, it is extremely interesting, while it also forcefully presents the truth from a new viewpoint. To sell it all one needs to do is to show the cover and a few of the many colored illustrations which the book contains.

Single copies 25 cents postpaid; in lots of ten or more 12½ cents each, transportation extra. Order of your tract society.

This book not only breaks down prejudice, but it is perhaps one of the most effectual in interesting people in the third angel's message of our smaller publications.

The Promise Holds Good

The following promise recorded in Isaiah 55:10,11, is being fulfilled in a remarkable way in connection with the circulation of Present Truth:

"For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it."

This promise is being fulfilled in a marked way all over the field. Present Truth, when it is sent to people who for various reasons, fail to receive it, or refuse it, else read it a little and throw it away, it seems to providentially fall into the possession of those who are benefited by it. The following incident is one of thousands that prove this to be true:

"Having noticed in a recent number of the Review a notice of a postmaster being interested in Present Truth, I thought perhaps you would be interested in one of our experiences along this line. We are sending out 25 copies of Present Truth each week, to as many leading families in our neighborhood. One day the postmaster called me into his office in order to help me revise one of our mailing lists. Several of the people had moved away. Their papers, therefore, were not taken at the postoffice, but the postmaster assured me that none of these papers were being lost, as he was placing them in the hands of interested readers. While this postmaster is not yet keeping the Sabbath, he is our friend and thoroughly convinced upon the Sabbath, question. He is very active in talking to the people of the city concerning the important truths taught in Present Truth. He has many interested in this little paper, and doubtless will, in time, accept the truth himself and bring others with him."

What Says The Bible

Do you know? Ought you to know? How do you know? Have you read it? Yes, of course you have. The beautiful Psalms; the imagery of Isaiah; the symbolism of Daniel and the Revelation; the love letter of John; all these you have read many times no doubt; but Jeremiah's prophecy; Job's pastoral; and possibly even the Genesis of all things are not so familiar. We don't treat even a book from the public library after that fashion. A worthwhile book we read from cover to cover. The only way to know what's in a book is to read it, - so with the Bible.

Without food, weakness, starvation, death. Without Spiritual food, discouragement, defeat, death.

"Thy words were found and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart."

Jeremiah.

"I esteem the words of thy mouth as more than my necessary food." -- Job.

Are you enrolled among the thousands of our young people who are reading the Bible through? Are you up to date? If you began at the beginning of the year you should finish Second Kings by the last of April.

If you have not begun, why not do so at once? You owe it to yourself; you it to God to know what is in his book. Join the ranks of the Bible readers!

C. A. Russell.

A Good Illustration

The Bible worker was endeavoring to present clearly the claims of the seventh-day Sabbath.

"You mean to say that I am not keeping the Sabbath if I keep any other day but the seventh?" the man asked.

"No," replied the Bible worker, "you cannot keep holy, time that is not holy to begin with. To illustrate: Suppose I give you seven samples of cloth of these colors, red, orange, yellow, green, blue, violet and white, and I tell you to keep the white one, white. You say, 'No, I will keep the red one white.' This is impossible, for it was not white when I gave it to you. So with the seventh day Sabbath. God made it holy time when he gave it to man at creation, as we read in Genesis 2:2,3, and in the fourth commandment he tells us to keep it holy. No other day of the week is holy time."

SCHOOL NEWS

Washington Missionary College

April 12 to 18 was the students' week of prayer, and it was a week long to be remembered. Elder G. B. Thompson was given the chapel hour every day, and his plain, spirit-filled talks brought many students to a decision. Every morning a group of young men arose at sunrise and pleaded earnestly for an outpouring of God's Spirit. Some students said this was the best week of prayer they ever enjoyed. We were glad to see Mr. Kamoda, from Japan, take his stand for Christianity. He is studying the truth earnestly. Many students dedicated their lives anew for a deeper Christian experience and for a life of greater usefulness in the Lord's work.

It seems an epidemic of operations has struck us. Some time ago Mr. Beem was operated upon. Later, Miss Cully followed, and last week Dr. Field and Mr. VanVoorhis. Dr. Field's recovery was rapid and he is now going around in a wheel chair and walking occasionally.

Mrs. Emma Corder, nee Silber, a former M. V. A. student, has successfully undergone an operation and is recuperating nicely at the home of Brother E. D. Miller on Flower Avenue.

Mr. Clyde Newmyer spoke at the city mission Sunday evening, April 18, and reports a good meeting.

Elder Haskell is to be with us for a few days and we are looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to his chapel talks.

The senior class motored to Gettysburg on April 19 and say they had an interesting trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gant spent the week-end at Taylorstown, Virginia, holding a short series of meetings. They report large crowds and a good interest, despite the inclement weather. The interest at this place was created by a book that Mr. Guild, one of our students, sold last summer.

The advanced rhetoric class enjoyed a talk given by Mrs. Roth on April 19. She has been a missionary in Haiti since 1916.

Hikes are common occasions now that spring is here.

Mrs. Whiteis, of Columbus, Ohio, stopped here after visiting her son in New York. She is proud of her little grandson.

Spring is here now for sure, with all its attendant charms. The foliage is coming out and the campus is looking very attractive.

Mr. James Lippart, M. V. A. '19, is responsible for the news notes of this week.

Mount Vernon Academy

Rain. Rain. Rain. It really began to look as though we were going to have rain unceasingly, but the sun began to shine on Wednesday and we were glad to see its bright rays again.

An interesting program was rendered in chapel on Saturday night which showed some home talent in writing poetry, and prose and musical compositions.

A pretty church wedding took place in Hamilton, Ohio, when Miss Elenore Keuble and Mr. John Lilly were united in marriage, on Saturday evening at eight o'clock.

On Saturday evening at eight o'clock, in the Hamilton, Ohio, Seventh-Day Adventist Church, Mr. John Lilly and Miss Elenore Keuble were united in marriage, Elder Behrens officiating. Miss Elsie Tatman was bridesmaid.

Shenandoah Valley Academy

On the evening of April 3, the junior class entertained the Seniors in the new chapel. Although everything was not fully finished, the artistic arrangement for the evening made everyone seem at home. A well-prepared program was carried out, and dainty refreshments were served. We believe the Juniors deserve much praise.

While the Seniors and Juniors were enjoying the evening the other students were not forgotten. Various games were played in the old chapel, after which all took part in an old-fashioned taffy pull.

The Canvassers' Institute was held at the academy during the week before last. Brethren Hankins and Wright took charge of the work. The last night a very interesting dialogue was given in the chapel to illustrate the faithful colporteur.

Brother C. V. Woods has returned from his trip to Florida, which he enjoyed. We are glad to see him back.

The carpenters are busy cutting up the old chapel. Although the new chairs have not come for the new chapel, we have moved in and feel at home.

Brother J. W. Siler, from the Chesapeake Conference visited the academy over Sabbath and Sunday. We appreciated his words at the Young People's Meeting.

The English Department gave its annual program on Saturday night, April 17. They showed a number of phases of the work they are pursuing. The evening seemed to be enjoyed by both young and old.

The Ministerial Band held meetings at Harrisonburg and Soliloquy on Sunday night. At Soliloquy, the school house was more than filled—three sitting in a seat. We hope the seeds sown will bring forth a harvest.

"Think what it is to be full of love to every creature; to be frightened at nothing, to be sure that all things will turn to good, not to mind pain, because it is our Father's will; to know that nothing could part us from God who loves us, and who fills our souls with peace and joy, because we are sure that whatever He wills is holy, just and good."

"Never lose an opportunity of seeing anything beautiful. . . . Welcome it in every fair face, every fair sky, every fair flower, and thank Him for it who is the fountain of all loveliness, and drink it simply and earnestly with all your eyes; it is a charmed draught, a cup of blessing."

Address all subscriptions and make all money orders payable to your tract society.

To Contributors

It is our aim and desire that the Columbia Union Visitor reach its readers in good season each week. To accomplish this, it is necessary that the paper be made up Friday afternoon, and this cannot be done unless the copy be had by WEDNESDAY MORNING. We request, therefore, that all contributors send in their weekly reports typewritten, double-spaced at the time specified, and that the reports be short and frequent, rather than long and far apart.

THE EDITOR.

Attention!

The Mount Vernon Academy is in need of two Fords. To meet this need this call is sent out, especially to the Ohio readers of the Visitor with the hope that two of its readers will feel impressed to contribute these machines for service beginning about June 1. It will be impossible to do the exhaustive field work in Ohio that is planned for this summer in behalf of our young people unless we have the use of automobiles to reach the people in the more isolated districts.

Territory for soliciting in the Harvest Ingathering Campaign is limited near the school, but if two or three machines were available at all times the goal for the school could be more than doubled the coming year. If "your heart stirs you up" please communicate at once with the Principal of the Academy. A machine in good mechanical condition will be accepted, even if the appearance is not the best.

C. L. STONE,
Principal.
