"I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom, preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine."—2 Tim. 4:1-4.

How are we to know what to believe? "And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified."—Acts, 20:29, 30. This makes it plain why we should preach the word. "And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not; for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him; the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day."—John, 12:47, 48.

"So then, faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God."—Rom. 10:17. "Preach the word."—2 Tim. 4:2. "For the just shall live by faith."—Acts 15:14. "Sanctify them through thy truth; thy word is truth. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth."—John, 17:17, 19.

Where did the Lord say we should look for the fable teachers? "For I know this that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them."—Acts, 20:29, 30.

Therefore it follows that any man that preaches anything but the word of God is doing it to make disciples of his own, whether he is conscious of the fact or not. It further follows that every person that follows any teaching that is not taught in God's word, becomes a disciple of the man, and not a follower of Christ. Oh, you say, this could not be in the true church. Listen to the voice of God again: "Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them."—Acts, 20:29, 30.

The church is greatly strengthened and encouraged. Our meetings are well attended. Many others are deeply interested, and some are keeping the Sabbath. We expect to see some of these added to the church soon.

I have never seen the Lord work more effectually than He has here, and His name shall have all the praise.

My health is much better now than we expected it would be, as there is a marked difference between this and our Colorado climate. We expect to return to Colorado as soon as the Lord wills.

Durango.

It has been some time since I reported through the ECHOES. However, it has not been because I have been idle. When I came here last fall, I found the outlook from a human standpoint very discouraging, but with the help of God I am glad to say, now, that things look good.

Our Sabbath school numbers fifty, with a good number of visitors each Sabbath. The Baptist people kindly rented us their church in which to hold our services. Quite a number who, when we first came, were backslidden, began to attend our meetings, and as a result, have gotten a new hold on God, and some of these are now active workers. There are others on the point of deciding, and some await baptism.

Since coming here I have canvassed for our books and periodicals, taking several orders for both. I have made two short visits with the brethren at Farmington, N. M. I find them of better spirits than they have been for some time. They have some recruits, three good lively families having moved in from Montana. They are permanently located near the town, and are active workers, rendering help to those who live there. Two persons await baptism in this place also. At present there is a good opening in Farmington for meetings. Brother W. F. Hills, recently from Salida, has joined me in the work here. We hope, by the help of the Lord, to be instrumental in bringing many souls to the Lord. This is a needy field. Pray for the work here.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL.

For the Secretary.

The Secretary's office is a most important one. The idea that "anyone" can discharge its duties is a great mistake. As much care should be exercised in the selection of the secretary as in your choice of superintendent. When the right one has been chosen, he will bend every energy to make his work a success.

An important part of the secretary's duties is the preparation of the necessary reports. A report is of absolutely no value to anyone unless it is correct in every particular. Reports, like any other written, require careful account keeping, whether for foreign missions, orphan's home, annual offering, or any other fund; also, an account of the expense of the school. The quarterly report should contain an exact summary of the finances for that period. A volume might be written upon the duties of the secretary, aside from the ones referred to.

The secretary who fails to pay the most scrupulous attention to the detail and routine of the office, has failed in the very first step of secretarship. A part of the secretary's duty is to see that his successor is perfectly instructed in the duties of the office, that the work may continue to run smoothly.

Finally, when you have a good secretary, do not be in haste to change; so many times we elect a new one who has not had experience, just as the old one has become efficient. The office of assistant secretary should be a training school for the secretary's place, and assistants should be given every opportunity to assist.

Dr. Willard W. Hills.

Conventions.

We are pleased to be able to report progress in the effort to secure the holding of conventions in the various schools of the Conference, and while we deeply regret that all, both great and small, have not availed themselves of this most profitable means for the improvement of their school and scholars, yet we "rejoice with those who rejoice" in a successful convention, and wish to speak a word of encouragement to those who are about to hold such meetings. God will richly bless those who, depending upon the Great Teacher as their helper, move out in this work. Do not worry about your inexperience, or be overburdened with the formalities of your convention. Move out in faith. Follow the few suggestions given in the simplest possible way. Study what you have done and its results. Ask God what He would have you do for the future, and then when, through some later convention or discussion which follows, He shows you a plain duty, do it in His name.

Do not fail to send us a report of the good meeting you are sure to have, if you hold a convention. Some have written thus: "We are too few to have a convention." Don't be afraid of that, dear brethren. Two and God can hold a most wonderful convention. Try it and see. This work is for the upbuilding of the very smallest school among us.

Thus far, this year, the following schools have held conventions, or are about to hold one: Denver, Boulder, Colorado Springs, Pueblo, Leadville, Durango, Victor, Ft. Collins, Aspen, Salida, Wray, Peyton and Grand Junction. There are several schools that have not yet replied to our letter concerning conventions. We still hope to hear from them. Let every school take up this means of study and improvement without delay.

Willard W. Hills.

Young People's Societies.

We desire very much to make a report of the work done in this line to the General Conference secretary, and we would request the secretaries of the various societies wherever organized, to send to Mr. Flora Watson, 111 S. 11th St., Denver, list of members belonging, and the names and addresses of your officers. A prompt compliance with this request will be appreciated.

Willard W. Hills.

The Transfer of Agents.

From Review Supplement.

We greatly desire that a uniform system be established immediately with reference to the transfer of canvassing agents, (1) from one State to another within any Union Conference, and (2) from one Union Conference to another. We invite your attention to the following suggestions:

1. In transferring agents from one State to another within a Union Conference, application for help should be made by a properly authorized officer in the conference to the president and general agent of the Union Conference. These Union Conference officers will confer with the officers of the State or States from which the help is wanted, and if the transfer is considered desirable, the agents asked for will be communicated with by the officers under whom they have been working.

2. When a Union Conference desires agents from any other Union Conference, application for the same should be made by the proper officers to the General Conference president and the secretary of the publishing department, and these general officers will take steps to secure the needed help by applying to the officials of those parts of the field which are best able to furnish it.

4. Agents who have a burden for another field, or who for any reason wish to be transferred, should present their desires to the proper officers in their own State Conference, Union Conference, or to the secretary of the publishing department of the General Conference, as the circumstances may demand. In the event of publishing houses or local conferences receiving applications for employment from agents outside their territory, such applications should be referred to the State Conference or Union Conference in which the agents reside, or to the secretary of the General Conference publishing department.

This system may seem slow and liable to cause delay; yet while this may be the result in some instances, it will not require one tenth of the loss of time and energy caused by the confusion and disaster resulting from a disregard of the authority and rights of local organizations. The same careful consideration should be given to the transfer of agents as to the transfer of other conference workers.

The policy of the General Conference will be to search out good, reliable agents to supply the wants of needy fields as far as possible; but vigorous efforts will be made to prevent all secret pulling of agents from one field to another; for such irregular practices can bring only evil to all concerned. We earnestly invite the hearty cooperation of all our fellow-workers in this important matter, and we desire correspondence with all who may now be in trouble along this line.

E. R. Palmer,
NOTES AND ITEMS.

We can now fill orders promptly for the mid-winter Good Health. Send them in at once. Price, 5 cts. each.

Brother J. A. Rippey of Kansas has recently come to our State with his family, and will locate at Clifton.

We have sold all of the January Sentinel which we had on hand, and will not be able to fill further orders from this office.

Our Echoes readers will rejoice to know that Eld. Colcord is slowly improving, although it is still necessary for him to have a constant nurse.

Eld. Ziegler was called by telegram last Sunday to the bed side of his mother who is seriously ill with heart trouble. Her recovery is doubtful.

Elder Watson is now holding meetings in Crawford. We hoped to receive a field report from him for this issue, but it has not yet materialized.

We hear that excellent meetings have been held in the Salida church by Eld. Ziegler and Dr. Hills, and that victory is being shouted by all.

"Praise ye the Lord!"

Sister Adams of Telluride, writes:—

"Elder Watson has quite recently favored us with a few day's visit, during which time, the church was much strengthened."

Sister Celia McDonald has gone to Idaho Springs to engage in Bible work and canvassing. May she have the prayers of all her fellow-laborers as she enters the work at this place.

The present liberal club rates of the Signs make it possible for everyone to get a club at the same rate, 70 cents per year. Who cannot afford to take at least five copies for missionary work?

We have been obliged to drop several names from our Echoes list because renewals have not been sent in. Will not someone in each church secure renewals, and also take new subscriptions for Echoes?

In sending money to this office, please address either Mrs. Berlie L. Herrell, or Colo. Tract Society, and no other. All money orders or checks should likewise be made payable to either of the above names.

Our people in the Conference will be glad to know that 1124 copies of the Signs are being taken in the states of Colorado and New Mexico. We received a letter from the publishing house stating that their list now stands higher than it has for six months.

Swedish meetings are still being held by Eld. Svensson in East Denver. English meetings are occasionally held in the same locality for the benefit of some who do not attend those held by Eld. Richards on the west side.

The Sunday evening meetings in Denver are being quite well attended by those not of our faith. Last Sunday, the subject of the "Conscience—Is it Safe to Follow?" was considered by Eld. Richards in a most interesting way.

Sister Leedy of Pueblo says with reference to the "Special Testimonies on Sabbath-school Work": —"We have received our little books and they are indeed a blessing to anyone who will study them." We wonder how many others have the same testimony to offer.

At the home of the bride, seven miles east of Loveland, Wednesday the 12th inst., occurred the marriage of Miss Mabel Ragan and Wm. F. Grunkemeyer, Eld. H. M. J. Richards officiating. We wish these happy young people much joy and a life of usefulness.

We are told that if every Seventh-day Adventist had sold six copies of "Christ's Object Lessons," the great debt resting upon this denomination would have been paid long ago. Reader, have you done your duty? If so, have you helped your brother or sister to do theirs?

Elder Richards preached a most impressive sermon last Sabbath, closing with the thought that opportunity comes and goes quickly, leaving us to decide in a moment for or against Christ. A call was made to those who wished to improve the present opportunity by accepting Christ, and one gentleman who had long known the theory of the truth, came forward, thus acknowledging the saving power of the message spoken.

"God does not merely give us the knowledge which enables us to recognize our failure, and leave us to mourn over it. The gospel does not leave us to hopeless regrets, but begets us unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, making us 'partakers of the divine nature.' Being born again, born from above we have the privilege of beginning life anew. Is it not a glorious prospect? How often we have said, 'If I could live my life over again,'—but if we could, we should, without doubt, do the same things again that we have done. God provides something far better than that, in giving to us an entirely new life, so that we may begin again under entirely new and better conditions."

Coming.

"Did you know that there was a marked aggressiveness of late throughout the United States and Canada for the compulsory Sunday closing of all places of business, amusement, etc.? The "Sunday Enforcement" department of The Sentinel of Christian Liberty will keep you fully informed in regard to what is being done in this direction. This department in the March number of that magazine will be especially full.

A very timely article in the March number will be one applying the principle of trade-mark laws to the present live Sunday question. It deals with a fact that has a most vital bearing on this question.

Twelve numbers—one year's subscription—all of which will be equally as good as this one, can be secured for only $1.50. Every individual should be a subscriber; every church should have a club for missionary work.

Address orders to Colo. Tract Society, 1112 S. 11th st., Denver, Colo.

At Rest.

Last week we received the sad news of the death of Sister Ethel Grover, the only daughter of Brother and Sister C. E. Grover, of Boulder. Sister Ethel had been ill for nearly a year, but it was expected she would recover until recently when tuberculosis took a strong hold upon her. All who knew her mourn her loss, and the entire Echoes family will unite in expressing sympathy to the sorrowing parents. We are sure the Blessed Hope will comfort them in this time of deep affliction.—G.

Notice.

Will all who are engaged in selling our publications in this Conference, please report to me so that we can tell what territory is being worked, and for what books? This will enable us to give the desired information to others who wish to canvass.

GENERAL ARTICLES.
CHARGE TO THE MINISTRY.

"I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall appear in his glory, and the world, and the kings of the earth, and of the princes, and of all things that now are written. And the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and shall turn away their ears, and shall be turned unlearned and foolish. For, as the grass withereth away, and the flower thereof falleth away; so the people that trust in the, vanities of a lieing idols, which can neither save themselves, nor the earths of their own; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine." 2 Tim. 4:1-4.

Why are we to know what to believe? "And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified." Acts, 20:29, 30. This makes it plain why we should be gathered for instruction along the line of Sabbath school and missionary work. The Medical Missionary Board will furnish competent help to look after and give instruction in the various lines of medical missionary work. The subject of establishing hygienic restaurants and bath rooms in the cities, and the benefits to be derived therefrom will receive attention. You who are able will find it very beneficial to attend this meeting. We expect about all of the workers in the State Conferences to be present. We will be glad to see as many of the brethren and sisters there from the various churches as can possibly come. Ample provision will be made for the entertainment of all on the very best possible terms. C. McKaREy.

REPORT OF IMPORTANT BUSINESS.

The following is a condensed report of the Conference Committee meeting held at the Colorado Sanitarium, Boulder, Colo., Dec. 30, 1901:

Present—Elder Watson, President; Elders Ziegler, Wilcox and Hills.
Sister Bertie L. Herrell and Sister G. F. Watson were invited to meet with the committee and represent their respective departments of the work.

The following motions were made and carried:

That the secretariest Sister Bertie L. Herrell and Sister G. F. Watson be invited to attend the Union Conference in Denver.

That a full delegation of nine be sent to the meeting of the Southwestern Union Conference to be held in April, and the following were chosen: President, Elder Watson; Elders Watson Ziegler, Wilcox, Mackintosh, Richards and Hills; Brother F. J. Hartman, of Montrose; Judge C. C. Holbrook, of Alamosa, and J. F. Pearson, of Pitkin.

That the secretaries, Sister Bertie L. Herrell and Sister G. F. Watson also be invited to attend the Union Conference meeting, representing the Tract Society and Sabbath-school departments respectively, and at the expense of these departments.

That Brother L. A. Spring and Sister Celia McDonald be placed upon the Conference pay roll, they to report only half time, supporting themselves the other half by canvassing for our publications.

That Elder Watson, assisted by Elder States, should hold a meeting at Uncompahgre in the near future.

That Elder Henry Shultz be invited to hold a German meeting in the Love-land church, assisted by our German worker.

That Elder Ziegler and company hold a tent meeting at Ouray next summer.

That Elder Spring be asked to make Grand Junction his field of labor, and hold tent meetings in Palisade and Fruita during the summer.

A suburb of Denver was chosen for the place of the next camp meeting.

The Sabbath school work was discussed, and it was voted to carry out the plan for the young people's work presented by the General Conference.

It was voted to again call the attention of our laborers to the importance of assisting our churches in the holding of local Sabbath school conventions.

Dr. W. W. Hills, Sec. of Com.

FIELD REPORTS.

Peyton.

The Lord has blessed in the presentation of the truth in this part of His vineyard. The weather has been favorable. The people have been slow to accept of the light, only three having begun to walk in the way of God's commandments. I have been very busy, having held fifty-two meetings, fifty-eight Bible readings. I have also made fourteen missionary visits, and sold twenty copies of our good books.

J. F. Janson.

Pueblo.

How glad I am that God's people are beginning to realize that Jesus is soon coming and something more than has been done must be done before that time. Our young people's meetings are interesting, and I hope they will continue until all see the importance of helping the message go to all nations in this generation. I rejoice in the blessed truth, and my only desire is to help promulgate this message. I know that God will help all who come to Him for strength, for His promises are sure. I know that He will help me and give me strength to work for Him. Remember the work here at the throne of grace.

Mrs. Jessie Leedy.

Way.

We are preparing for a Sabbath-school convention to be held March 15. I hope that you will remember us in your prayers, that we may be successful in the work.

We have good meetings when the weather is so that we can get to the church, but the last three Sabbaths have been very stormy.

We hope to have the church dedicated at the time of our convention, if the Lord is willing. There is one soul waiting for baptism at that time. All of the members are of good courage in the Lord.

B. E. Parkins.

Greeley.

"To you that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ," are these lines addressed.

We are a little company of workers who are endeavoring to lift up the standard of our King here in Weld county. We are at work in a community of colonists from the eastern states whose moral, intellectual and financial interests are unsurpassed. Greeley, the location of the Colorado State Normal School is, as you probably know, in the heart of the great potato belt; consequently, intelligence and prosperity abound. The streets of this beautiful little city are daily thronged by the best young men and women of Colorado, the future molders of public opinion, the instructors of our boys and girls.

The citizens of Greeley are religiously inclined. They are a people whose strong temperance sentiment has ruled alcohol out of her limits since the foundation of the colony, more than thirty years ago. They are just the people whom we should reach; but there exists an intellectual pride among them which forbids their being moved by every wind that blows, hence our tent meetings have been almost a failure, since there has been nothing of a permanent nature to give character to the work.

Florence Welty.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The Lord is still greatly blessing in the work here. We feel that it was indeed the Lord's will that we should come here. Since coming, twenty-eight have united with the church, eighteen on profession of faith, eight by letter, and two have been reclaimed. The church is greatly strengthened and encouraged. Our meetings are well attended. Many others are deeply interested, and some are keeping the Sabbath. We expect to see some of these added to the church soon.

I have never seen the Lord work more effectually than He has here, and His name shall have all the praise.

My health is much better now than we expected it would be, as there is a marked difference between this and our Colorado climate. We expect to return to Colorado as soon as the Lord wills.

For the Secretary.

The Secretary's office is a most important one. The idea that "anyone" can discharge its duties is a great mistake. As much care should be exercised in the selection of the secretary as in your choice of superintendent. When the right one has been chosen, he will bend every energy to make his work a success.

An important part of the secretary's duties is the preparation of the necessary reports. A report is of absolutely no value to anyone unless it is correct in every particular. Reports, like Christians, should not be hypocritical, pretending to be something when they are not; even a correct report is of little value if it does not reach its destination in time.

A true secretary will grasp this point at once, and will not fail to master every detail, and to be prompt and thorough in their execution.

In addition to the membership record, a careful account should be kept of the donation, showing plainly in the record for what the donation was made, whether for foreign missions, orphan's fee, a part of the secretary's salary, the annual offering, or any other fund; also, an account of the expense of the school. The quarterly report should contain an exact summary of the finances for that period. A volume might be written upon the duties of the secretary, aside from the ones referred to.

The secretary who fails to pay the most scrupulous attention to the detail and routine of the office, has failed in the very first step of secretarialship. A part of the secretary's duty is to see that his successor is perfectly instructed in the duties of the office, so that the work may continue to run smoothly.

Finally, when you have a good secretary, do not be in haste to change; so many times we elect a new one who has not had experience, just as the old one has become efficient. The office of assistant secretary should be a training school for the secretary's place, and assistants should be given every opportunity to assist.

Conventions.

We are pleased to be able to report progress in the effort to secure the holding of conventions in the various schools of the Conference, and while we deeply regret that all, both great and small, have not availed themselves of this most profitable means for the improvement of their school and scholars, yet we rejoice with those who rejoice in a successful convention, and wish to speak a word of encouragement to those who are about to hold such meetings. God will richly bless those who, depending upon the Great Teacher as their helper, move out in this work. Do not worry about your experience, or be overburdened with the formalities of your convention. Move out in faith. Follow the few suggestions given in the simplest possible way. Study what you have done and its results. Ask God what He would have you do for the future, and then when, through some paper read, or the discussion which follows, He shows you a plain duty, do it in His name.

Do not fail to send us a report of the good meeting you are sure to have, if you hold a convention. Some have written thus: "We are too few to have a convention." Don't be afraid of that, dear brethren. Two and God can hold a most wonderful convention. Try it and see. This work is for the upbuilding of the very smallest school among us.

Thus far, this year, the following schools have held conventions, or are about to hold one: Denver, Boulder, Colorado Springs, Pueblo, Leadville, Durango, Victor, Ft. Collins, Aspen, Salida, Wray, Peyton and Grand Junction. There are several schools that have not yet replied to our letter regarding conventions. We still hope to hear from them. Let every school take up this means of study and improvement without delay.

Young People's Societies.

We desire very much to make a report of the work done in this line to the General Conference secretary, and we would request the secretaries of the various societies wherever organized, to send to Mrs. Flora Watson, 112 S. 11th St., Denver, number of members belonging, and the names and addresses of their officers. A prompt compliance with this request will be appreciated.

From Review Supplement.

We greatly desire that a uniform system be established immediately with reference to the transfer of canvassing agents, (1) from one State to another within any Union Conference, and (2) from one Union Conference to another. We invite your attention to the following suggestions:

1. In transferring agents from one State to another within a Union Conference, application for help should be made by a properly authorized officer in the conference to the president and general agent of the Union Conference. These Union Conference officers will confer with the officers of the State or States from which the help is wanted, and if the transfer is considered desirable, the agents asked for will be communicated with by the officers under whom they have been working.

2. When a Union Conference desires agents from any other Union Conference, application for the same should be made by the proper officers to the General Conference president and the secretary of the publishing department, and these general officers will take steps to secure the needed help by applying to the officials of those parts of the field which are best able to furnish it.

4. Agents who have a burden for another field, or who for any reason wish to be transferred, should present their desires to the proper officers in their own State Conference, Union Conference, or to the secretary of the publishing department of the General Conference, as the circumstances may demand. In the event of publishing houses or local conferences receiving applications for employment from agents outside their territory, such applications should be referred to the State Conference or Union Conference in which the agents reside, or to the secretary of the General Conference publishing department.

This system may seem slow and liable to cause delay; yet while this may be the result in some instances, it will not require one tenth of the loss of time and energy caused by the confusion and disaster resulting from a disregard of the authority and rights of local organizations. The same careful consideration should be given to the transfer of agents as to the transfer of other conference workers.

The policy of the General Conference will be to search out good, reliable agents to supply the wants of needy fields as far as possible; but vigorous efforts will be made to prevent all secret pulling of agents from one field to another; for such irregular practices can bring only evil to all concerned.

We earnestly invite the hearty cooperation of all our fellow-workers in this important matter, and we desire correspondence with all who may now be in trouble along this line.

NOTES AND ITEMS.

We can now fill orders promptly for the mid-winter Good-Health. Send them in at once. Price, 5 cts. each.

Brother J. A. Rippey of Kansas has recently come to our State with his family, and will locate at Clifton.

We have sold all of the January Specials, but we need our orders, and will not be able to fill further orders from this office.

Our ECHOES readers will rejoice to know that Eld. Colcord is slowly improving, although it is still necessary for him to have a constant nurse.

Eld. Ziegler was called by telegram last Sunday to the bedside of his mother who is seriously ill with heart trouble. Her recovery is doubtful.

Elder Watson is now holding meetings in Crawford. We hoped to receive a field report from him for this issue, but it has not yet materialized.

We hear that excellent meetings have been held in the Salida church by Eld. Ziegler and Dr. Hills, and that victory is being shouted by all.

"Praise ye the Lord."

Sister Adams of Telluride, writes:—

"Elder Watson has quite recently favored us with a few day's visit, during which time, the church was much strengthened."

Sister Celia McDonald has gone to Idaho Springs to engage in Bible work and canvassing. May she have the prayers of all her fellow-laborers as she enters the work at this place.

The present liberal club rates of the Signs make it possible for everyone to get a club at the same rate, 70 cents per year. Who cannot afford to take at least five copies for missionary work?

We have been obliged to drop several names from our ECHOES list because renewals have not been sent in. Will not someone in each church secure renewals, and also take new subscriptions for ECHOES?

In sending money to this office, please address either Mrs. Bertie L. Herrell, or Colo. Tract Society, and no others. All money orders or checks should likewise be made payable to either of the above names.

Our people in the Conference will be glad to know that 1124 copies of the Signs are being taken in the states of Colorado and New Mexico. We received a letter from the publishing house stating that their list now stands higher than it has for six months.

ECHOES FROM THE FIELD.

Swedish meetings are still being held by Eld. Svensson in East Denver. English meetings are occasionally held in the same locality for the benefit of some who do not attend those held by Eld. Richards on the west side.

The Sunday evening meetings in Denver are being quite well attended by those not of our faith. Last Sunday, the subject of the "Conscience—Is It Safe to Follow?" was considered by Eld. Richards in a most interesting way.

Sister Leedy of Pueblo says with reference to the "Special Testimonies on Sabbath-school Work": "We have received our little books and they are indeed a blessing to anyone who will study them." We wonder how many others have the same testimony to offer.

At the home of the bride, seven miles east of Loveland, Wednesday the 12th inst., occurred the marriage of Miss Mabel Ragan and Wm. F. Grunkemeyer, Eld. H. M. J. Richards officiating. We wish these happy young people much joy and a life of usefulness.

We are told that if every Seventh-day Adventist had sold six copies of "Christ's Object Lessons," the great debt resting upon this denomination would have been paid long ago. Reader, have you done your duty? If so, have you helped your brother or sister to do theirs?

Elder Richards preached a most impressive sermon last Sabbath, closing with the thought that opportunity comes and goes quickly, leaving us to decide in a moment for or against Christ. A call was made to those who wished to improve the present opportunity by accepting Christ, and one gentleman who had long known the theory of the truth, came forward, thus acknowledging the saving power of the message spoken.

"God does not merely give us the knowledge which enables us to recognize our failure, and leave us to mourn over it. The gospel does not leave us to hopeless regrets, but begets us unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, making us 'partakers of the divine nature.' Being born again, born from above, we have the privilege of beginning life anew. Is it not a glorious prospect? How often we have said, 'If I could live my life over again,'—but if we could, we should, without doubt, do the same things again that we have done. God provides something far better than that, in giving to us an entirely new life, so that we may begin again under entirely new and better conditions."

Coming.

"Did you know that there was a marked aggressiveness of late throughout the United States and Canada for the compulsory Sunday closing of all places of business, amusement, etc.? The "Sunday Enforcement" department of The Sentinel of Christian Liberty will keep you fully informed in regard to what is being done in this direction. This department in the March number of that magazine will be especially full.

A very timely article in the March number will be one applying the principle of trade-mark laws to the present live Sunday question. It deals with a fact that has a most vital bearing on this question.

Twelve numbers—one year's subscription—all of which will be equally as good as this one, can be secured for only $1.00. Every individual should be a subscriber; every church should have a club for missionary work.

Address orders to Colo. Tract Society, 1112 S. 11th st., Denver, Colo.

At Rest.

Last week we received the sad news of the death of Sister Ethel Grover, the only daughter of Brother and Sister C. E. Grover, of Boulder.

Sister Ethel had been ill for nearly a year, but it was expected she would recover until recently when tuberculosis took a strong hold upon her. All who knew her mourn her loss, and the entire ECHOES family will unite in expressing sympathy to the sorrowing parents. We are sure the Blessed Hope will comfort them in this time of deep affliction.—G.

Notice.

Will all who are engaged in selling our publications in this Conference, please report to me so that we can tell what territory is being worked, and for what books? This will enable us to give the desired information to others who wish to canvass.
