HOME.

Home's not merely four square walls,
 Though with pictures hung and gilded;
 Home is where affection calls,
 Filled with shrines the heart hath builded!

Home! go watch the faithful dove,
 Sailing 'neath the heaven above us;
 Home is where there's one to love!
 Home is where there's one to love us!

Home's not merely roof and room,
 It needs something to endear it;
 Home is where the heart can bloom,
 Where there's some kind lip to cheer it!

What is home with none to meet,
 None to welcome, none to greet us?
 Home is sweet—and only sweet—
 When there's one we love to meet us.
 —Charles Swain.

GENERAL ARTICLES.

THE MISSIONARY CAMPAIGN.

We wish to call the attention of all our people to two features of the Missionary Campaign program published in the last issue of ECHOES.

The month of November will be devoted principally to the circulation of periodicals and tracts. The work for the Review should come first, as it will be most essential to all those who engage in this missionary effort. The special numbers of the Signs will be issued November 2, 16, 23 and 30. Four special numbers of the Southern Watchman will also be issued during that month. The November number of the Life Boat will be a special anti-infidel issue. With an attractive number of Life and Health, our list of periodicals is complete. In their attractive and forcible presentation of the last message to the world, they leave little to be desired.

In the matter of tracts, we have all the current numbers of the "Bible Students," and "Aptes of Gold Libraries," which have already been instrumental in bringing many thousands to a knowledge of the truth, and in addition to these we have the "Family Bible Teacher." A great need has been supplied in this publication, for we can place in a home practically all the fundamental doctrines of our faith presented in a forcible manner, with the expenditure of but ten cents. We have just ordered one thousand complete sets of the Bible Teacher, and we hope that all who are not acquainted with it will order one or more sets for examination. In this publication should be fulfilled the command to "Scatter the printed pages of truth like the leaves of Autumn."

The month of December is to be devoted principally to the sale of "Object Lessons," "Story of Joseph," etc.

No pains have been spared to provide the very best and most appropriate material with which to work. The only question is "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" "The harvest is great, but the laborers are few."

As a means of preparation for the work, missionary conventions will be held in all the churches Sabbath, October 29th. If earnest prayer and seeking God shall characterize this work, we may confidently expect the blessing of God, and prosperity and success to attend our efforts.

The Lord does not require of us more than we can do, but he undoubtedly will hold us responsible for warning those within our reach. Let us take up cheerfully and earnestly the work before us, rejoicing in the privilege of working in company with angels, hastening the coming of the day of God, and preparing a people to inhabit the glorious country soon to be presented to the triumphant church of God.

IN THE CHURCH-SCHOOL WORK.

Since the camp-meeting I have spent the most of my time in the interests of the church-school work. September 16-21 I was with the Trinity church. A school has been conducted here the past two years, but not with the real spirit of harmony that ought to exist in the work of the Lord. Some mistakes had been made and differences had arisen. Together we sought the Lord for wisdom and the spirit of the Master that the work might be started in such a way that the blessing of God could rest upon the school in a greater measure the coming year. I believe God will bless the work there. The school will be under the charge of Brother Elmer L. Kenny. I know of no church in the conference where the brethren and sisters sacrifice so willingly to support the school. Meetings were held each evening with good interest.

On the way to the Florence church I spent three days at La Junta and Rocky Ford. Brother John K. Lane is doing faithful work here with "Bible Readings." Some are very much interested and I believe will soon accept the truth. Three meetings were held while here, and I never saw people enjoy more fully the precious truths of the Bible. Elder Alway has a large scattered field and an excellent interest.

September 26 to October 2, I was with the Florence church, holding meetings each evening on the testing points of the message. One young man who has been studying the truth for the past few weeks took a decided stand, and will attend the church school there this winter. There are many in Florence who have studied and become convinced, but are halting in the valley of decision. I believe a good course of meetings with faithful visiting would add several to the church there. The church took hold of the school work with enthusiasm, and with very little effort raised sufficient funds to support a good school. The Lord gave favor in securing a good building in a good location, and in securing seats for the same. Several not of our faith will send their children. Sister Daisy Chatfield will have charge of the school, and Sister Lula Moore, while taking studies, will also assist in the primary department.

October 3 to 13 I spent at Salida. While assisting with the plans for a school here Elder Kennedy and I held meetings in the church each evening for a week. At first it seemed to the brethren that it would be impossible to have a school, but we first studied the circumstances under which the Lord has said we ought to have a school, and finding that these conditions existed at Salida, we decided we should have a school there, but the plans were not completed without a conflict with the enemy. After raising the funds it was nearly a week before we could find a place in which to hold the school. Two of the brethren, living eight and nine miles from town, have moved their families into town that their children may have the benefits of the school. Sister Jessie Glasgow of Pueblo has charge of this school. I have been much encouraged with the work of the past few weeks, and I am sure that if all of our churches would make the same effort that these have to carry out the Lord's plans, schools would be started in many more churches. Other schools have been started which will be reported later, and we yet hope for more. May the Lord use these for the glory of his name.

PREPARING FOR THE CAMPAIGN

Just as the ECHOES is going to press a letter comes from Elder Wilcox, of Boulder, which we think will be of interest to our readers, and we take the liberty to insert it. The campaign is beginning, and this is the good work that should be done in every church.

"Dear Brother MacGuire:—

Yesterday I took up the Signs matter in the Boulder church. I felt that it was best to make a rally on yearly subscriptions with a view to re-establishing our missionary meetings on an old-time basis, sending out papers, etc. I am confident that a continuous effort is more productive of results than a spasmodic one, although I do not discount special efforts.

Yesterday various members of the church subscribed for one hundred and one yearly issues of the Signs, and two hundred and twenty special numbers. This will make us about sixty-five Reviews, one hundred and sixty yearly subscriptions to Signs and two hundred and twenty orders for special numbers.

Had we put our whole effort on the special numbers we could have obtained many more orders. Of course the yearly subscription will include the special numbers also, hence, on a weekly basis, we really took orders for five thousand four hundred and seventy-four copies. This is better than last year, when we took only about four thousand.

F. M. Wilcox."

FIELD REPORTS.

DENVER.

The cause of God is moving forward in this place. A few months ago some of the brethren here felt that the time had come for the work to be extended to that part of the city known as Capitol Hill. The president of the conference and the pastor of the Denver church were counselled with and it was decided to begin Sabbath meetings there.

The work has increased until it was decided to organize the company into a church. Evening after Sabbath, Aug. 8th, a number gathered at the home of Mrs. Proudfit for the purpose of organizing the Capitol Hill church of Seventh-day Adventists. Elder Watson, Elder Anglebarger and the writer were present. After prayer by Elder Anglebarger, the church was organized with a membership of thirty-one. Twenty-two of these had been members of the Denver church; three had been members of churches in the east; five of them had not been members of any church before, three of them being received subject to baptism.

The following officers were chosen: S. F. Svensson for elder; Horace Williams and Dr. W. B. Woodruff, deacons; Mrs. Ella Eagelton, clerk, and Mrs. Proudfit, librarian.

We feel that the Lord has greatly blessed in this work and are sure that the light planted in this part of the city will be a blessing to those who may be brought in contact with it.

Meetings are at present held in the Presbyterian church, corner of York and 13th street. Prayer meetings, Friday nights at 7:30, and Bible study at 8 o'clock. Services Sabbath at 10:30 a. m., and Sabbath-school at 11:30.

Sunday, Aug. 9th, three followed their Saviour in baptism. It was a solemn and impressive scene, and the Spirit of God was near. God grant that many may follow their example.

There is an excellent spirit prevailing in this new organization. The unity of love binds them together in the faith of Jesus; and may that love ever grow warmer and melt the ice of worldliness that chills so many hearts in this world, till the Master shall come and give a just reward to all who have fought the good fight of faith.

S. F. Svensson.

FT. COLLINS DISTRICT.

The work is moving all along the line very nicely. Six have been baptized and added to the Ft. Collins church. Brother Herman is working with Brother Aufderhar for the Germans at Hygiene and Wentz.

I visited the school at Hygiene and find it doing good work. The Lord is my strength, and I love to trust him.

THE CANVASSING WORK.

During the camp-meeting at Longmont over twenty-five brethren and sisters promised to spend a part of their time the coming year in the canvassing work as the Lord should open the way. Since then I have been looking to see some of these take up the work at this the most favorable time of the year. All canvassers recognize the fact that the last few months before the holidays are the most favorable months of the year. The season's crops are being harvested, and as God has blessed Colorado abundantly the past year, it should be the best year for the scattering of the books containing present truth that we have ever seen. Some of our canvassers have left the field to enter school, others have gone to other conferences to work, and so we have but a few faithful workers left. Are there not those in every church who can and will give the time just now to the canvassing work? No other work gives larger returns in soul-saving than the scattering of the printed pages containing the truth. Of the forty members of a church which I visited some time ago, over twenty testified to having first heard of and become interested in the third angel's message through the work of the canvasser. Many can be reached in this way who could not be in any other. Is not God speaking to you to have some part in this work? May we not hear from many in the next two weeks who will take up this work?

E. E. Farnsworth.

DISTRICT THREE.

The outlook is better all over this District than at any time since I have been located here.

We have a Young People's Society here at Monte Vista that supplies reading matter to the interested ones all over the valley. We have also a church school that we are proud of. I shall visit all the Adventists in the valley right away, and will send a list of the isolated ones later.

PERSONAL.

It is now about nineteen years since I first united with the work in Colorado. I think it is seventeen years ago that Brother and Sister Anglebarger and myself united in tent work in the San Luis valley. Never since I connected with the work in Colorado so long ago, has there been a time when I have not taken my turn in the preaching until of late. When I was informed by medical counsel a few months ago that I must stop public work for a year or two, and give my tired nerves a chance to recuperate, it seemed almost like taking my life.

When thinking over my condition, and hardly knowing what to do, I got such a good letter from Brother Watson, written by request of the conference committee, advising me to leave my field of labor in the eastern part of the state and go to my home in Boulder, labor a little and make a business of getting well.

I wept as I read that letter, and felt that for all of my mistakes my brethren love me, and I felt as never before to ask God to bless the committee and the dear brethren and sisters of the Colorado Conference.

On arriving in Boulder our dear Brother Wilcox asked me to come and take treatment at our sanitarium whenever I desired. All these little kindnesses have been very restful to my tired nerves and have had a tendency to draw me closer to our dear people.

I am glad to say to our people that God is blessing me in my rest, and while I expect in the near future to go onto my little place near Delta and do much manual work for a year or more, yet I hope in time to fully recover. Brethren, the Lord is soon coming, and my faith was never stronger in the final triumph of this message. Perilous times are just before this people, and nothing will save us but an earnest study of the word, much prayer, and taking heed of the light God is giving this people through his servant, Sister White. I believe the counsel we are getting in regard to the Washington work is from the Lord and I trust our dear people of Colorado will stand in their place and lift in this important time.

"A few more storms shall beat, on this wild rocky shore,
And we shall be where tempests cease,
and surges swell no more.
A few more struggles here, a few more partings sore,
A few more toils, a few more tears, and we shall weep no more."

OBITUARIES.

Hartman,—Ruth, the little daughter of Brother and Sister E. R. Hartman of the Riverside Sanitarium, Montrose. She was five months old, and the only child. Death was caused by whooping cough and a complication of diseases. The sympathy of their many friends is extended to the stricken parents. Services were conducted by Elder Marsh at the sanitarium.

Canright,—Mrs. L. Canright, mother of D. M. Canright, died at Grand Junction, Colo., Sept. 8, 1904, at the age of ninety-three years. Sister Canright was born at New Salem, Mass., July 20, 1811. About 1851 she embraced the truth of the Third Angel's Message. In 1892 she moved to Grand Junction, Colo. Sister Canright's faith in this truth was never shaken in the least by the turning aside of her son. She died full of faith in the blessed hope of a soon coming Saviour, which should thrill the heart of every child of God at this time. Words were spoken from Job. 14: 14, by the writer. J. A. Rippey.

MORNING PRAYER.

The morning is the gate of the day, and should be well guarded with prayer. It is one of the threads on which the day's actions are strung, and should be well knotted with devotion. If we felt more the majesty of life, we should be more careful of its mornings. He who rushes from his bed to his business and waiteth not to worship, is foolish, as though he had not put on his clothes or cleansed his face, and unwise as though he dashed into battle without arms or armor. Be it ours to bathe in the softly flowing river of communion with God before the heat of the wilderness and the burden of the way begin to oppress us.—Spurgeon.

Only seventeen, out of the forty-eight church clerks have sent in their reports. Let us be "diligent in business," especially the Lord's business.

Elder Watson and his son O. B. left Denver in their private car for Palisade the evening of the 10th. May prosperity attend them in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Woodward, of Aspen, were in Denver last week, and met with the church on Sabbath. We were glad to have them with us.

"Our Little Folks' Bible Nature" is just the book for the little ones, and should be in every home. It is what our church school teachers have long been wanting. Price 25 and 40 cents.

Fourteen subscriptions to the Review were sent in this week by one of our church librarians. We wonder if others could not do as well. No Seventh-day Adventist should be without the Review.

Brother L. R. Houpt of Burlington, Colo., called at the office last week, and took out a supply of helps. We wish him success and the blessing of God as he engages more fully in the canvassing work.

Miss Lida Moore, who has been working in St. Louis for several months, has returned to Colorado. She will spend a few days at her home in Boulder, then go to Las Vegas, New Mexico, to engage in Bible work.

The Colorado Tract Society has just ordered one thousand sets of the "Family Bible Teacher." Do not delay in sending in your orders, but order early and enter earnestly into the missionary campaign just before us.

We sent out an appeal to all the church elders to do all they could to place the Review in every family in the church. The first response came from the Boulder church with fourteen subscriptions. Other good reports are coming in.

Quite a number of the Sabbath-school secretary's quarterly reports have not yet been received by the state secretary. Please do not delay sending them in, as it is important to have them as soon as possible after the close of the quarter.

Brother E. E. Farnsworth has returned to Denver after a very encouraging trip among the churches in the interest of the church school and canvassing work. He will remain in Denver a few days to push the church school to completion.

Dr. Wade, who has been at the Boulder Sanitarium for several months trying to regain his health, passed through Denver last week on his return to Canon City. He does not expect to take up his practice again for some time. Mrs. Wade is just recovering from a serious illness at the sanitarium.

We had a pleasant surprise in the way of a postal card written in Graham's shorthand, from Elder States. We are glad to learn from it that the last month, which he has spent on the ranch, has benefited his health. He is striving to bear his affliction with patience and desires your prayers.

Mrs. Flora Watson went to Boulder last Monday for a brief visit with her brother, Dr. Washburn, of the Place Sanitarium. She started on Wednesday to Palisade, where she will join her husband and the other members of the family. Palisade will be their future home, and though we shall miss them in the work here, we pray that God's richest blessings may attend them.

We trust that every Seventh-day Adventist in Colorado is preparing to enter heartily into the missionary campaign during the month of November, and until the work is finished. Let us consecrate ourselves anew to the Lord, and to his precious truth, and let us seek him until he shall endue us with his own wisdom and power to work for perishing souls, and let us finish, quickly, the work which has been entrusted to us. We long to see our Saviour; let us hasten his coming by our faithfulness.

We wish, through ECHOES, to say just a word in protest against the increasing practice among our people, of sending individual orders to this office without the cash. All orders should be sent through the librarian of your church. Please remember this, brethren and sisters, and do not send individual orders unless you accompany them with the cash, as we cannot open accounts with so many of the individual members of the churches. Sabbath-school secretaries and church-school teachers please note this request. In the future we shall refer individual orders, not accompanied by cash, to your librarian, and this will cause a delay in filling the orders.
