VOL. 6

COLLEGE VIEW, NEBRASKA, FEBRUARY 17, 1910

No. 4

Entered as second-class matter April 1, 1909, at the post-office in College View, Nebr., under Act of Congress of Mar. 3, 1879.

Leonard A. Rucker is working in his home town, Winfield, Kansas.

Gladys Andrews is taking the nurses' course in the Boulder Sanitarium.

Eld. E. T. Russell spent several days of last week in College View.

S. A. Twing, of Tekamah, Nebr., is visiting his daughter Clara, who is in school here.

Miss Alma Miller cut off the end of her thumb, in the bread-cutter, last Sunday morning.

Earl Bungor has gone to Des Moines, Iowa, to be bookkeeper in the Health Food Store at that place.

A. E. Schlotthauer has dropped his work in school and will soon return home to begin spring work on the farm.

Daniel Wahl, one of our South Dakota workers, is spending a few days visiting old friends and making new ones here.

C. F. Wineland and his baking class will have charge of the baking at the Sanitarium Food Company's plant after April first.

The Sorority Panel, by Townsend, is the latest and most attractive little portrait of the season. Students should see it. Studio 226 So. 11 St.

Street Commissioner F. A. DeWolf is now using a steel leveler to smooth up our streets. The new machine is quite an improvement over its predecessor.

The friends of Irvin E. Seibert, one of our U. C. boys, will be interested to hear of his marriage to Miss Dorthy Troutfetter, of Middletown, Ia., on the fifteenth inst.

Mrs. Mary Benson and daughter, Miss Ethel, left Feb. 14th, for Rock Hill, Mo.

Mr. Strother Abel has made an exchange of his College View property for a cafe in Lincoln, located on N. 11 St.

The time is ripe for class pictures. Townsend offers several specialties that are most attractive. Studio 226 So. 11 St.

President Lewis has gone to Kansas City on business connected with the location of the new German school. He expects to return to-day.

John E. Shively sends in his renewal and says he is enjoying this winter at home with his parents, doing the everyday duties of a busy farm life.

J. F. Nelson has moved his tailor shop into the new building west of the College, and the tailoring class meet in his shop now instead of the South Hall sewing room.

Myrtle Jacobson has been compelled to drop her school work on account of her health. She will visit at Strang before going to her home at Curtis, Nebraska.

Miss Pearl Irvine is taking the nurses course at the Mt. Tabor Sanitarium at Portland, Maine. She enjoys her work there, according to our news correspondent.

Mrs. H. U. Stevens has discontinued her school-work for a few weeks of much needed rest. Her health has been running down for some time. Leo Thiel has charge of her class in History I, and Gordon G. Andrews of her two General History classes.

Lincoln Damsgard is in school again after an attack of acute rheumatism.

Miss Grace Cady, '08, Nebraska Sanitarium, is doing private nursing at Forest Grove, Ore.

Elsie Estes, a U. C. student of '08-'09, is enjoying life in Hyannis, Nebr., as Mrs. Clarence Heigh.

Miss Ruby Owen was called to Nashville, Feb. 6th, by the news that her father was not expected to live.

The young people of the Boulder, Colo., church spent a pleasant evening at the home of Joe Lowry, Jan. 20th.

Dr. C. C. Hubly, of New Windsor, Illinois, recently made a short visit with his mother-in-law, Mrs. C. W. Dryden.

Miss Elizabeth Weeks, of Evanston, Ill., has entered school. She will make her home with her aunt, Mrs. Mary Moore.

Prof. M. E. Kern has spent the past week at Union College. It has seemed very natural to many of us to see him in our halls again.

An English Seminar is the latest organization at Union College. This club promises to be an enthusiastic organization of students literarily inclined.

Mary Hallock, a nurse in the Hastings Sanitarium, brought a patient up to the Nebraska Sanitarium Feb. 12th, and is visiting her brother Fred while here.

Mr. Charles E. Johnson is teaching the church school at Healdsburg, Calif., and is meeting with success. His older son is one of his pupils; he now has a second son, born last August.

William H. Johnson, U. C. , '00-'01, is now at his home in Hawarden, Iowa. For the past few years he has been on a claim in north-western North Dakota, where he now has three quarter sections.

Eugene Dunham is teaching in the Denver church school.

Mrs. B. M. Curtis has recovered from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Chas. Means has moved his tinshop to the old store building west of the International's plant.

Mrs. Julia Wood and daughter Millie, of Decatur, Ark., spent a few days last week with Mrs. Mary Moore and family.

Professor Crouse has organized a ladies' band. Quite an interest is being shown, though it will probably be some time before they give a public concert.

The McDaniels Bros. have closed up their meat-market and quit the business as far as College View is concerned. The town's meat trade is not heavy enough to support a shop.

Edna Marston-Hartzell, a former U. C. student, is taking vocal culture at the West Side Conservatory. Mr. Hartzell is continuing his work along medical lines at the College of Physicians and Surgeons.

Dr. A. G. Larson writes from Shanghai, that they are battling with the Chinese language, which is exceedingly interesting and difficult. They think often of Union College, and will tell us some of their experiences later.

From the Washington Sanitarium comes word that Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nethery are finding their new home and work very enjoyable. Incidentally, the Sanitarium people are well pleased with their new business manager.

Miss Edna Bickel will leave next week for Minneapolis to attend the Minneapolis School of Business. She will stay with her uncle, Mr. Frank Shepherd. Miss Bickel will be greatly missed among her many friends in school and in the village, and we wish her every success in her course.

George Kingman has gone to Oakdale, Nebr., to canvass.

Miss Fannie Adams has gone to Whitman, Nebr., to live on her claim for a week.

Mrs. J. L. Crouse has gone to Cedar Falls, Iowa, to attend the wedding of a sister.

Miss Gertrude Talmage has quit her wheel-chair and is now gaining strength by taking long walks.

Miss Esther Laubach was called to Quinnland, Okla., on account of the illness of a sister. She will remain out of school probably a month when we will be glad to see her back in school again.

Albion Kiehnhoff writes from Magnolia Springs, Ark., that he has arrived at home after a long visit in Kansas. He says it is the "Sunny South" indeed, for he can work outdoors every day without his coat.

Miss Ruth Guthrie, who has been spending the winter in Seattle, recently made a few days visit at the Dryden home, in College View. Sunday afternoon she continued her journey to her home in Illinois.

Miss Nina Teeple accompanied her mother to Nashville, Tennessee, last week. Mrs. Teeple will undergo an operation at the Sanitarium there. Miss Teeple has been engaged in private nursing during the fall and winter.

We were recently privileged to read an exceptionally interesting letter from Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Hall, written from Chio Chia K'o, Honan, China. They are to be connected with a training-school, as soon as they learn enough of the language. They say the work all through the province is going very encouragingly. They will write more about mission-station life later.

Frank G. Hallock writes from Kensington, Kans., that while he is not having great success in his canvassing, his territory being poor, yet he is determined to stick to what is not his work, but the Lord's.

Dr. McElfresh, Superintendent of the Educational Department of the International Sunday-school Association, spoke in the Scandinavian chapel to a large number of students and village people interested in Sabbath-school work, Feb. 14th.

Elder Thomas Branch visited his son, Paul, here last week. During his stay he spoke to the students several times concerning his work at the Cholo Mission Station, South Africa. This is the mission of which Elder Joel Rogers now has charge.

R. C. Reimche sends in the necessary fifty cents and says they cannot afford to be without the MESSENGER since by it they keep in touch with fellow students and old acquaintances. Mrs. Reimche is studying music and Mr. Reimche is working on his M. D. at Chicago.
