"LIGHT OF THE BIBLE" CRUSADE--The first two weeks of the campaign being held in Bodden Town, Grand Cayman, have been very successful. Evangelist L. V. McMillan and his team of workers are each night presenting the gospel to over 500 people who are attending regularly. The interest is very good.--Maxine Banks.

MISSIONARY MAILMEN GETTING READY FOR EVANGE-LISM '72--The missionary mailmen of the Antillian Union are sowing the seed that will bear fruit under Evangelism '72. Recently Prof. Fernando Cardona, Jr., in charge of the VOP Bible school for the East Puerto Rico Conference, held a rally at the Rio Piedras church, giving instructions to this special group.Our photo depicts those in attendance during a devotional message presented by Elder Salim Japas.--Hector J. Brignoni.

FOUR WON BY A COLPORTEUR--Four people were baptized recently at the Antillian Union colporteur institute as a result of the labors of literature evangelist Mario Lorenzo. From left to right, Elder Ernesto C. Santos, president of the East Puerto Rico Conference; Mario Lorenzo and the souls won by him, and the officiating minister and publishing secretary for the West Puerto Rico Conference, Elder C. Ingleton.--Hector J. Brignowi.

YOUTH EVANGELISM IN GEORGETOWN, GUYANA--A let ter received from Elder G.R. Thompson, president of the Caribbean Union, states that as a result of the recent evangelistic crusade conducted by Elder K. S. Wiggins in Georgetown, a church has been established, made up almost entirely of young people. They have organized a club called Socio-Cultural Club and are now publishing a fine newspaper entitled Maranatha. -- George W. Brown.

FROM WEST VENEZUELA--Forty-five literature evangelists met recently in the city of Cucuta under the direction of Elders Nicolas Chaij and Romulo Lozano of the IAD and the Colombia-Venezuela Union, respectively, for instructions and inspiration.

*More than 30 members who had left the remnant church a few years ago to join a "reform" movement, have come back after confessing the mistake they had made. This has brought joy to the mission and especially to the Yumare district where most of these dear brethren live.—Alfredo Gaona.

FROM THE NETHERLANDS ANTILLES--Mission president Jan Brinkman is conducting an evangelistic campaign March 12-April 6 in Curacao.
