THE MEXICALI CAMPAIGN--Three simultaneous series with three weekly meetings, were conducted in Col. Revolucion, Zaragoza, and Col. Benito Juarez in the Pacific Mexican Mission. Evangelist Jaime Castrejon was assisted by three Bible instructors: Pedro Lara, Pablo Ku Gamboa, and Guadalupe Perez. At the end of four months 70 were baptized, a 56-member baptismal class was organized, and a new congregation was born.--Jaime Castrejon.

DUTCH-SPEAKING CHURCH DEDICATED--The first Dutch-speaking church of the Netherlands Antilles Mission was dedicated recently in a restored building.--Israel Leito.

PROGRESS REPORT FOR THE MONTH OF AUGUST, 1973

LAYMAN OF THE YEAR--Arcadio Colon of the Central Dominican Conference, distinguished himself by winning 50 souls in '71. In 1972 he was again at the head of the laymen of the conference having won 47 to Christ. We hope that Brother Colon's example will inspire others to do exploits for their Lord.--Eligio Contreras.

ferent person, thanks to the VOP and the young lady who enrolled me in this course."--Luis E. Leonor.

SUMMER SCHOOL--The Montemorelos Vocational and Professional College in Mexico staged a six-week summer school for the ministers of the six missions of the Mexican Union under the leadership of Elder Atilio Dupertuis and some of the college teachers. Three subjects were taught for which corresponding credit was given.--E. A. Marinkovic.

CHAMPION--Juanita Bisono, a student at Antillian College, receiving from Elder Benjamin Riffel of the Pacific Press, one of the three sets of the Bible Story she was awarded for selling several thousand copies of the Centinela magazine. Appearing in the picture is also Antillian Union publishing secretary Luis E. Leonor.--Luis E. Leonor.

REVIVAL--Elder Andres H. Riffel of the Inter-American Division, recently held a week of revival meetings in the Aguadilla district of West Puerto Rico. As a result three were baptized, several interests were found, and many were confirmed in their beliefs.--Luis E. Leonor.

SUCCESSFUL VBS--Fifty-eight children received certificates August 18, at the end of the Vacation Bible School conducted by Mrs. Linda F. Guerra in the city of Tepic, Nay., Mexico. During the ten-day school the children made many interesting articles which were on display at the closing program. Thus the gospel seed was planted not only in the hearts of the children who attended the school, but also in the hearts of their relatives. Leaving the end results with the Lord of the harvest, we will keep on cultivating the tender plants hoping to bring them to fruition.--Celerino Herrera.
