ENCOURAGEMENT FOR WORKERS

LAST year's Thanksgiving campaign for missions was the greatest campaign ever undertaken by our people. The distribution of nearly 700,000 copies of our church paper, the Review, gave our neighbors and friends a much broader view of the third angel's message. Previous to this effort, many people had very limited ideas of our work.

This year's Harvest Ingathering campaign for missions begins Nov. 1, 1909. A full outline has appeared in the Review. I am sure all the people of Indiana will want to have a part in this campaign. To the timid, the Lord says:

Fear thou not; for I am with thee; be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of My righteousness.—Isaiah 41:10.

When Moses was to do an important work and felt himself utterly incapable of performing the task, the Lord said to him, "Certainly I will go with thee." To Joshua He said, "Be strong, and of a good courage." (Joshua 1:6) and as Joshua reached the place where he was to do the work, the Captain of the Lord's host met him and accompanied him.

Sister White says, in speaking of the first paper published by Seventh-day Adventists.

When my husband brought the first number from the printing office, we all bowed around it, asking the Lord with humble hearts and many tears to let His blessing rest upon the feeble efforts of His servants. . . Every number was taken from Middletown to Rocky Hill, and always before preparing them for the post-office, they were spread before the Lord, and earnest prayers, mingled with tears, were offered to God that His blessing would attend the silent messengers. Very soon letters came bringing means to publish the paper and the good news of many souls embracing the truth.

Now, my brethren and sisters, shall we not do the same before we start with the Review? The Captain of the Lord's host will go before us and prepare the way.

When the people come to the door tell them you are engaged in missionary work. After you are in the house, show the paper and tell the people the money collected is for the support of the missionaries. I am sure that all will want to give something after seeing the contents of the paper. You might mention the amount some of the neighbors have given, especially the larger amounts, and encourage them to give liberally, for you know it is all to be used in the Lord's work.

Do not forget that the Lord says, "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might," and His promise is, "I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

MORRIS LUKENS.

"THOU SHALT NOT STEAL"

DURING the time of slavery, a slave was preaching with great power. His master heard of it and sent for him and said:

"I understand you are preaching."

"Yes," said the slave.

"Well, now," said the master, "I will give you all the time you need, and I want you to prepare a sermon on the Ten Commandments, and to bear down especially on stealing, because there is a great deal of stealing on the plantation."

The slave's countenance fell at once. He said he wouldn't like to do that; there wasn't the warmth in that subject there was in others.

It is true, there is not always the response when we are told of our sins. That is coming too near home, but some things need to be stated over and over again. Many a person who would shrink from taking what belongs to another person thinks nothing of taking what belongs to the Lord. A tenth belongs to Him.

"Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings."

Unlike the slave in the story, the Holy Spirit convinces us of sin. John 16:8. Sometime ago after a sermon on the Holy Spirit, a man arose and said, as the tears rolled down his cheeks, "I am a lost man; I have been robbing God. I have not paid an honest tithe for two years." Nothing had been said about the tithing system. What made him feel that way? It was because the Holy Spirit had sent conviction to his heart.

The Holy Spirit does not convince us of sin to torment us, but that we might come to the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world.

My brother, my sister, have you been robbing God? Heed His Spirit's pleadings before it is too late. The Saviour said to the woman, "Neither do I condemn thee; go thy way, and sin no more."

MORRIS LUKENS.

THE FINAL RESULT

THE final result of an undertaking is always looked forward to with a large degree of interest. The question that our readers have been asking themselves and others with reference to the young people composing Indiana's Scholarship Periodical Company is, "Will any of them earn a full scholarship?" As the company has now dispersed, the final result of its work, so far as whether or not any scholarships were earned, can be told, altho so far as the final result of the influence of this company is concerned, we firmly believe that eternity alone can tell. Activity in the Master's service has a wide influence upon the lives of the workers, first, and then upon others. Both the influence that the company has had upon its own members and the influence that it has had upon those with whom it came in contact will continue indefinitely.

But to return to the question, "Will any of them earn a full scholarship?" Yes, six complete scholarships were earned by six young ladies, two-thirds of a scholarship by one, and one-third by another. Of these eight young ladies who began work in Cincinnati, Ohio, June 22nd, and completed their eleven weeks' campaign in Toronto, Canada, September 6th, four of them had had practically no experience in selling papers before they joined the company. All who had had any previous experience earned scholarships and two of the inexperienced ones also earned scholarships.

Have They Entered School?

These young people have all entered upon their studies, as follows:

Misses Ada E. Achor, Ora Bush, Alta M. Clapper, Blanche E. Hicks, Fay Korn, and Ona Marshall, in Beechwood Academy;

Miss Elizabeth L. Kern, in Emmanuel Missionary College; and Miss Frieda Huber in Union College, Nebraska. Miss Huber had expected to go to Emmanuel Missionary College but her plans were changed by the removal of her home to Nebraska.

A Complete Success

Thus the Scholarship Company plan of earning an education by the sale of our denominational periodicals must be counted a success. The mere earning of the education is an education and a valuable training for any young person.

In addition to those who worked regularly until the company disbanded, four other young ladies spent a part of the summer in the Scholarship Company. They are: Miss Hazel Vance of New Castle, Miss Vella Sparks of Gary, Miss Clementine Ford of Vincennes, and Miss Edith Nash of Tell City. They assisted materially in making the company's sales large the first half of the season.

Let us notice the amount of work accomplished and the scope of the company's influence. Beginning work in Cincinnati, Ohio, and nearby cities in Kentucky, about 6000 magazines were placed in the two States, each being in a different union conference. While encamped in Louisville, about 4000 papers were sold in Kentucky and 1000 in cities across the river in Indiana. This and subsequent work in Indianapolis and other cities en route to Indianapolis and en route from there to Bluffton, and in cities near Bluffton, placed the truth in many homes in our native State, a part of the Lake Union Conference. When they went to Toledo, they again entered the Columbia Union Conference; when they went to Detroit, Michigan, they were working in the Lake Union; when they went from there to Buffalo, the Atlantic Union Conference was reached, and when the final work was done in Toronto, it was the Canadian Union Conference whose territory was entered.

Why Go So Far?

Thus Indiana's Scholarship Company visited five union conferences and two nations and scattered the truth of God in more than fifty cities in five States and one Province of Canada.

But why was it necessary to go so far away? All the reasons need not be given, but it may be stated that a company of experienced workers needs large cities for its field in order to avoid the constant expense and loss of time in moving. Every move required time in packing and unpacking and getting settled and whether the move was great or small, the greater part of one day's time was lost thereby. The large cities afford opportunity for night work on the streets and in hotels for a large number of workers for a number of successive nights. Saturday night and Sunday work can be done in large cities by a large company. Small places afford room for only two or three workers on such occasions.

Furthermore, some of the longest moves were made at little expense and loss of time. From Cincinnati to Louisville, being a water trip, the expense was not large, and being made at night, the time of the trip, or part of it, was occupied in sleeping. Similarly the trip from Detroit to Buffalo was made on the water from 5:00 P. M. Monday to 8:00 A. M. Tuesday, so little time was lost from work. On account of the Canadian National Exposition in Toronto, a special excursion ticket was secured at Detroit for the round trip to Toronto at the same price that a ticket to Buffalo and return could be purchased. Hence the trip from Buffalo to Niagara falls and Toronto was no extra expense to the company.

The Best Records

It was productive of great encouragement to all, however, in that the best record of all the summer was made in Toronto, when in about four and one-half hours' time the eight young ladies sold 723 magazines, two of the eight not even working all of that time because of severe colds.

The best single day's sales after leaving Bluffton were made in Detroit, Michigan, on August 26, 772 magazines being sold. This was also the day when the highest number was sold by a single individual, Miss Ora Bush reaching a mark of 155.

During the summer, four of the workers sold more than 3000 magazines each. They are: Ora Bush, Elizabeth Kern, Blanche Hicks, and Frieda Huber. Last summer the largest number sold by one individual was about 2000.

Expenses Fully Paid

It should be borne in mind that these people paid all their traveling expenses as well as tithes on their earnings from their paper sales, in addition to securing money for their scholarships. These expenses were never less than $3.00 a week and often much more; so they earned from $35.00 to $50.00 more than the amount that they had at the close of the summer to apply on scholarships and the one who earned the most had more than $125.00 to her credit when she went home September 9th.

What the Workers Themselves Say

Our readers will be glad to read expressions from the young people who did the work of which we have given an account. It will be observed that they are unanimous in the opinion that the summer was profitably spent.

"My summer's work has been of much benefit to me. The eleven weeks spent in the Scholarship Company were full of new experiences for me, and now, as I think of the summer's work, the pleasures are so much greater than the disappointments that I can think only of them.

"The Lord greatly blessed our work and I am thankful that I had the privilege of sharing in the company's work the past few months."—Alta M. Clapper, of Hartford City.

"The summer is over and I want to express my appreciation of the privilege of being with the Scholarship Company. I have had many good experiences by which I hope to profit. I am especially glad for the trip to Niagara Falls and across Lake Ontario to Toronto, Canada, where over seven hundred papers were sold, enabling me to reach a figure above the amount required for my scholarship.

"Now I am looking forward to the school year and hope to receive a better preparation for the Master's work."—Ona Marshall, of Boggs-town.

"I am very thankful that I joined the Scholarship Company this summer. It not only was a privilege but I consider that I have profited by doing so. While working to earn a scholarship, I was receiving as broad an education as if in school, for much is learned by traveling from place to place and meeting many different classes of people.

"Sometimes I have been discouraged and tempted to go home; then I would think of the pleasant associates and surroundings and the blessings that were mine and would take up the work with renewed energy. Now I am glad and thank the Lord for the experiences that came to me."—Fay Korn, of Barber's Mill.

"Never have I spent a more pleasant summer. Both the discouraging and encouraging experiences have been a source of strength to me. We can see how the Lord has answered our prayers in sending angels before us and opening the hearts of the people to receive the precious pages of truth. I can not express my thankfulness for the blessings which the summer's work has brought to me. I am determined to be more true to the Master and be permitted to meet those who enter the pearly gates as the result of reading the pages of truth which we have scattered."—Elizabeth L. Kern, of Wolf Lake.

"The past few weeks have been very enjoyably spent by me altho accompanied by much hard work, but I would not have changed the summer if I had it to do over again. I have enjoyed especially the last few weeks as we traveled through a section of country in which I had not been before. Our boat trips and the visit to Niagara Falls were especially enjoyable.

"I attended two camp-meetings, the one at Bluffton and one at Buffalo, New York. From there we went to Toronto, Canada, arriving on Monday evening, about six o'clock. Between that time and eleven o'clock the company sold over 700 papers. As a whole, the summer has been very profitably spent."—Mrs. Minnie Jackson, of Terre Haute, Chaperon of the Scholarship Company.

"I have enjoyed my summer's work very much and am truly thankful for the privilege of being one of the Scholarship Company and would be very glad to go with a company again next year. Was also glad for the opportunity of visiting so many large cities and Niagara Falls, which I had never seen before.

The Lord has certainly been with us and blessed our work."—Orra Bush, of Northfield.

"It has been a real pleasure to me to be with the Scholarship Company this summer. It has been an education in itself to become accustomed to meeting the different classes of people. The trips which we took and the places we saw were worth our whole summer's work and besides we received payment for many papers sold and hope they will accomplish much good.

"Tho at times the work seemed rather hard and discouraging, as I look back at my summer's work, I really enjoyed it."—Frieda Huber, of Buchanan.

"I am thankful for the privilege of being with the Scholarship Company during the summer. I feel that my association with the company has been a benefit to me in many ways. The experiences we have had in traveling and meeting the people have given us a better idea of how much the people need the truth we have to give. I am thankful that the Lord so abundantly blessed me in earning a scholarship.

"We expect to see souls in the kingdom of heaven as the result of this summer's seed-sowing. Any young person desiring an education will find this an excellent way to get it."—Blanche E. Hicks, of Mount Zion.

"This has been a pleasant summer for me. I have enjoyed the work and believe the Lord has been with us and blessed us.

"Not only have I succeeded in earning a scholarship but have had the privilege of placing the truth in many homes. We have had many pleasant experiences in our travels. One Sunday while we were located in Buffalo, New York, I went to Niagara Falls and sold 115 papers in four hours. I am much encouraged over our summer's success."—Ada E. Achor, of Muncie.

Doubtless the REPORTER readers join us in wishing these young people the continued blessings of the Lord as they enter upon their winter's studies, believing that they will apply themselves as earnestly to their school tasks as they have during the past few months to the task of selling thousands of denominational magazines.

BEECHWOOD ACADEMY

NOTES

THE Academy Sabbath-School officers for the first term are: Sup't, Susie Blake; Ass't-Sup't, Rex Coble; Sec'y, Marie Craig; Ass't-sec'y, Olin Crary; Organist, Pearl Miller.

THE Academy is planning for a vigorous Harvest Ingathering campaign. A report of last Sabbath's meeting is expected to appear in the REPORTER.

DID the REPORTER readers observe the gain which our Auditor, Brother W. H. Edwards, reported in the last issue? We give praise to God that this was made possible by His good providence.

A NUMBER of visitors called last week, among them being Mrs. Susie West of Greenfield, Mrs. S. D. Bossing of Louisville, and her mother; Mrs. Lucy Rutherford of Indianapolis, Mrs. Laura Bradburn of Indianapolis, and Brother E. A. Woodard of Lebanon.

FIFTEEN new beds, springs, and mattresses were placed in the dormitories Sunday of this week and a general reception was held in the afternoon to observe the new furniture in place. The students greatly rejoice upon receiving new home comforts of this kind which have been needed for some time.

TWO CHORUS classes have been organized this year, both being in charge of Brother Lowell M. Knapp. The first class is using Prof. G. Geritsen's Sight-Singing Course. Those in the advanced class have chosen the name of "Beechwood Choral Union" and are practicing on the cantata, "Saul," which they hope to render later in the school year.

IN the hall just back of the stairway on the main floor a magazine rack was installed last week, on it being placed about twenty of our denominational magazines and papers so that students may conveniently have access to them at any time. This also was a much needed improvement to the Academy facilities for helping its students.

AS RAPIDLY as circumstances permit, new conveniences are being installed. The latest improvement is a treatment room in the girl's dormitory, which is just being fitted up.

THE Young People's Society has been duly organized with the following officers for the first term: President, William Hopkins; Vice-pres., Alta Clapper; Sec'y, Ethel Toll; Ass't-sec'y, Frank Harrison; Organist, Orra Bush; Chorister, Lowell M. Knapp.

ENROLLMENT

THE following list of students in the Academy shows that fifty-nine students have entered school, bringing the enrollment nearly up to that for all of last year. As additional students are expected soon, the prospect is good for a higher enrollment than last year.

THE names are arranged according to the counties in which the students live, names of counties being arranged alphabetically.

CHURCH SCHOOL NOTES

THE church-school at Anderson opened on the 20th ult. with Brother Harvey J. Shrock, who taught at Farmersburg last year, as teacher.

A FAMILY school in the country near Anderson is being conducted by Mrs. Elizabeth Lawson. It began last week.

THE Barber's Mill school, which for the past two years was taught by Miss Bertha Bartholomew, is this year under the supervision of Miss Beatrice Murphey, having begun last month.

THE Boggstown school secures the services of Miss Bartholomew this year.

THE church-school at Dana opened about two weeks ago with Miss Lena Vance as teacher.

ON the 20th ult. the Indianapolis school year began with Miss Mayna Miller, who taught at Petersburg last year, teaching.

THE Middletown school opened on the 22nd ult. with Miss Belva Vance, for two year's Anderson's teacher in charge.

THE Montezuma school, at the home of Brother O. B. Price, is conducted by Miss Sylva Vance.

LAST month Miss Alta Custer, of South Bend, began teaching the Muncie church-school.

BROTHER GEO. F. KNAPP is to begin the Mount Zion church-school within a short time.

MISS LINNIE VANCE is conducting a home school near New Castle.

A NEW school opened September 20 at Noblesville with Miss Myrtle Robertson in charge.

THE Petersburg school, at the home of Brother W. E. Vaughn, is being conducted by Miss Aurie Johnson, began last week.

MISS GLENN G. HARRIS, who taught at Boggstown last year, is in charge of the school at Pleasant View.

TERRE HAUTE is to have a school this year, Brother Harold A. Lukens being teacher. The school opened the last Monday of September.

THE home school near Salem began two weeks ago with Miss Beatrix K. Spohr as teacher.

WOLF LAKE retains Brother H. C. Chapman who has taught there for the past three years.

SISTER McMAHAN, who is in charge of the educational arrangements of our Conference, has visited the Salem, Petersburg, Terre Haute, Indianapolis, and Noblesville schools within the past two weeks. Later she will visit the others in the State.

the Thanksgiving Ingathering last year were given. Beechwood distributed about 300 copies of the special Review last fall and received donations amounting to $9.50.

The Society ordered 1,500 Missions Reviews at its meeting last Sabbath, expecting to raise therefrom more than $100.00 to forward the mission work in foreign lands. Six of the students who have been engaged in periodical work during the summer, ordered 150 copies each. Another, who has had some experience in periodical work, ordered 75 copies.

Altho the students have very limited time to devote to this work, we are going forth in the name of the Lord, and we have faith to believe that our efforts will be blessed. We ask our people to pray for the success of the Beechwood students in the Christian endeavor work during the Missionary Harvest Ingathering campaign.
ETHEL TOLL, Sec.

NOTES

Up to last Friday, orders for 3,880 special Reviews had been placed by our office with the Missionary Department at Washington.

Last Sabbath many of the churches considered the matter of ordering Reviews. Before going to press we learned that Boggstown ordered more than 400 and Rocklane 150 copies.

Sometimes the Review can be mailed to those who can not be personally visited and a letter written to explain the campaign plan. Many contributions came by mail last year.

WHAT INDIANA DID LAST YEAR

Indiana received 19,185 papers last year and collected $1234, an average of 6.2 cents for each paper. In the Lake Union Conference the average donation for each paper was 6.3 cents and in the entire denomination, it was 6.7 cents. Let us strive to be above, instead of below, the average this year.

Twenty churches collected more than $20.00 each; their names and the amounts they collected follow:

GENERAL MEETINGS

"FORGET not the assembling of yourselves together, and so much the more as ye see the day approaching."

It was voted at our camp-meeting to have the business of the Conference in connection with our annual camp-meeting in the future. This will do away with the State meetings. Instead of this, we will have several general meetings. All are familiar with the excellent help received at the State meeting and will be anxious to attend at least one of these general meetings. We have tried to arrange them so as to be within the reach of all, especially of those who could not get to the camp-meetings.

The time and place of each meeting follows:

November 3-7, Ligonier,
November 3-7, North Liberty,
November 10-14, Grass Creek,
November 10-14, Middletown,
November 17-21, North Vernon,
November 17-21, Connersville,
November 24-28, Boggstown.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Eight acres of good ground, about a mile from Seventh-day Adventist church and church-school. Small house, barn, and other buildings on the place. Fences and buildings are all in excellent condition. Fruits of all kinds are found on the place; located near a good market; two wells of good water.

The owner will sell for $800.00 cash. Apply at the Conference office for further particulars.

COVETOUSNESS is the mother of many sins.

HARVEST INGATHER- ING ITEMS

BEECHWOOD'S PLANS

THE Missionary Secretary of the conference, R. C. Spohr, met with the Beechwood People's Missionary Volunteer Society, Sabbath, October 9 in behalf of the Harvest Ingathering Campaign for missions. He based his remarks on the text, "Thou therefore endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ." II Tim. 2:3. He brought out very forcibly the hardness that we, as Christians, have to endure, but exhorted us not to give up on account of these little trials. Soldiers expect hardness and Christians must also expect it. Altho not an easy task to do the work the Lord has planned for us to do, we will receive special blessings by doing it cheerfully.

Statistics of the work done during

NEWS AND NOTES

PREPARE for the Harvest Ingathering Campaign.

ARE you helping to swell Indiana's tithe receipts during October?

ORDERS for the special Mission Number of the Review should be in by this time.

THE Rocklane church enjoyed a visit from Brethren Thomas Hubbard and Burton White last Sabbath, the 9th inst.

UNTIL January 1 of next year, renewals for the Watchman will be received for seventy-five cents for a year's subscription. After that date the price will be $1.00.

HAVE you ordered a supply of the Mission Number of the Review? Every church and isolated Sabbath-keeper should take a part in this grand ingathering for missions.

THE final report of Indiana's Scholarship Company's accomplishments appears in this issue. Altho somewhat lengthy, we are sure it will be read with much interest.

ON the 1st inst., Elder O. S. Hadley returned to Indianapolis from Dillsboro, where he and Elder Luzerne Thompson concluded a series of meetings a few days before.

ATTENTION is called to the fact that subscriptions for the Sabbath-school Worker are not received for a shorter term than one year. Single copies are thirty cents; in clubs of two or more, they are twenty-five cents each, a year.

WE think our readers will be interested in happenings at Beechwood Academy and in the progress Indiana makes toward raising a large sum of money in the Harvest Ingathering campaign. Hence we are opening two departments in this issue in which to place such items.

THE first order for the Missions Number of the Review received at our office came from the East Side, Indianapolis, church. Five hundred copies were ordered besides fifty copies of the same number of the Christlicher Hausfreund. The second order, for fifty copies, was from an isolated Sabbath-keeper, Sister G. W. Cooper, of Geneva, Indiana. We very much appreciate these orders.

ELDER VICTOR THOMPSON and Brother Thomas Hubbard have closed their tent meetings at Bluffton.

UPON having the opportunity for missionary effort with the special Home Bible Studies series of the Signs of the Times set before them by their elder, Brother R. C. Wirth, the East Side of this city promptly ordered 100 copies for the period of six months.

THE tithe report for September is delayed until the next issue because our office force has been exceedingly busy since the close of last month and has not had time to prepare it. The promised statement of Indiana's offerings to missions during the first nine months of this year has also been delayed on that account.

THE Sabbath-school officer or teacher who attempts to do efficient work in his position without the aid of the Sabbath-school Worker is doing both himself and those over whom he presides injustice. In accepting Sabbath-school responsibilities, one ought also to provide himself with the helps that are obtainable for properly discharging those responsibilities.

AN interesting account of the Scholarship Company's work appears in this paper. While it is rather long, it tells of work which some of our young people have done, different from that of any others, so far as we are able to learn, in this country. The plan of an organized company of scholarship periodical workers seems to be original with Indiana and our company of workers has attracted attention in many places. We think, therefore, that all will read this account with pleasure and satisfaction.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY NOTES

"AND the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed which keep the commandments of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ. In the near future we shall see these words fulfilled, as the Protestant churches unite with the world and with the papal power against commandment keepers."—Test. No. 32, p. 205.

"A great crisis awaits the people of God. A crisis awaits the world. The most momentous struggle of all the ages is just before us."—No. 33, p. 239. "Church and State are now making preparations for the future conflict. Protestants are working in disguise to bring Sunday to the front, as did the Romanists. . . . By the decree enforcing the institution of the papacy in violation of the law of God, our nation will disconnect herself fully from righteousness." No. 32, pp. 205, 207.

AT the recent Winona Lake Institute of the National Reform Association, Dr. W. I. Wishart said, on August 13: "Nothing but the enthronement of Jesus Christ in national affairs will ever bring about the ultimate success of this great movement. Christ, the King of Nations, is the only hope of true national success. Christ should be enthroned. He should be confessed by the nation as its King. This acknowledgment should be made in the nation's confession of faith, the United States Constitution."

IN the same address Dr. Wishart further said: "It (the confession of Christ as King of the nation) ought also to be made to furnish a legal basis for Christian teaching in all national life. Without such recognition we can have no fixed standard of morals."

THAT the above teaching may be made effective the Johnston Sunday Bill has been introduced into Congress; also, a bill acknowledging Christ in the Constitution of the United States. The Lord has said in No. 33, pp. 241-242 "It is our duty, as we see the signs of approaching peril to arouse to action. Let none sit in calm expectation of the evil, comforting themselves with the belief that this work must go on because prophecy has foretold it, and that the Lord will shelter His people. We are not doing the will of God if we sit in quietude, doing nothing to preserve liberty of conscience."

BY our energetic petition work last year, and other measures the proposed Sunday legislation was defeated. Another attack is being made, shall we quietly rest in our former victories or again spring into action? Soon petition blanks will be sent to every church in the State, with the explanation deemed necessary. The Lord has said, His people shall be willing in the day of His power.
