Hitherto

When our soul is much discouraged

By the roughness of the way,
And the cross we have to carry,
Seems the heavier day by day;
When some cloud that over-shadows,
Hides our Father's face from view,
O'tis well then to remember,
He has blessed us hitherto.

Looking back the long years over,
What a varied path! and yet
All the way His hand has led us,
Placed each hindrance we have met;
Given to us the pleasant places,
Cheered us all the journey through,
Passing through the deepest waters,
He has blessed us hitherto.

Surely then our souls should trust Him,
Though the clouds be dark o'er-head,
We've a Friend that draweth closer
When all other friends have fled.
When our pilgrimage is over,
And the gates we're sweeping through,
We shall see with clearer vision
How He's blessed us hitherto.

The Earlier and Later Types of Immigrants

In the earlier period of our country the immigration was almost entirely from northern Europe, while in later years the majority come from southern Europe where conditions are quite different from Northern Europe; therefore in studying the question of dealing with the immigrant it is of the utmost importance that we know something about from whence he came; also the surroundings and conditions under which he has lived as well as his present condition in his new country. This will aid us in obtaining an acquaintance by which we may the better be able to reach out a helping hand.

In presenting this phase of the subject I take pleasure in quoting freely from "Aliens or Americans" by Howard B. Grose, D. D. under the heading "The New Immigration." The writer treats the subject in a very comprehensive manner. We ask the reader to give the matter the careful study its importance deserves.

"So great has been the change in the racial character of immigration within the last ten years that the term 'New Immigration' has been used to distinguish the present prevailing type from that of former years. By new immigration we mean broadly all the aliens from southwestern Europe—the Italians, Hungarians, Slavs, Hebrews, Greeks, and Syrians—as distinguished from the northwestern Europeans—the English, Scotch, Welsh, Irish, French, Germans, and Scandinavians. The ethnic authorities at Washington make the following racial division, which is used in the official reports:—

'Ninety-five per cent of the immigration to this country comes from Europe. Most of these different races or peoples, or more properly sub-divisions of race, coming from Europe have been grouped into four grand divisions, as follows:—

'Teutonic division, from northern Europe: German, Scandinavian, English, Dutch, Flemish, and Finnish.

'Iberic division, from southern Europe: South Italian, Greek, Portuguese, and Spanish; also Syrian from Turkey in Asia.

'Celtic division, from western Europe: Irish, Welsh, Scotch, French, and North Italian.

'Slavic division, from eastern Europe: Bohemian, Moravian, Bulgarian, Servian, Montenegrin, Croatian, Slavonian, Dalmatian, Bosnian, Herzegovinian, Hebrew, Lithuanian, Polish, Roumanian, Russian, Ruthenian, and Slovak.

'The Mongolic division has also been added, to include Chinese, Japanese, Korean, East Indian, Pacific Islander, and Filipino.

'Under "all other" have been included Magyar, Turkish, Armenian, African (black), and subdivisions native to the Western Hemisphere.'

"This new immigration has been commonly regarded as either decidedly undesirable or at least distinctly less desirable than the Teutonic or Celtic, which for so many years practically had the field of America to itself. It has not been uncommon to group the Italians, and Slavs, and denominate them as the 'offscouring and refuse of Europe,' now dumped into America, which is described as a sort of world 'garbage bin.' Extremists have drawn in gloomy colors the effects of this inrush of the worst and most illiterate and most unassimilable elements of the Old World. A distinct prejudice has undoubtedly been created against these later comers.

"There is unquestionably some ground for the feeling that the new immigration is in many respects less desirable than the older type. These peoples come out of conditions of oppression and depression, illiteracy and poverty. Far more important than this, they have had no contact with Anglo-Saxon ideas or government. They are consequently almost wholly ignorant of American ideals and standards. There is a vast difference between the common ideas of these immigrants and those from the more enlightened and progressive northern nations; so there is in the type of character and the customs and manners.

"We are sufficiently familiar with the older type, and do not need here to dwell upon it. We know how large a part has been played in the development of our national material enterprises by the Germans, the English and Irish, the Scotch and Welsh, the Swedes and Norwegians. Millions of them are among the loyal Americans of today.

"But what can be said about this new immigration? First let us see how great the change in racial character has been, and then differentiate these new races. It will not do to brand any race as a whole. Discrimination is absolutely we hope to make September 28 a "Dollar Day." We desire to see all the youth converted to God, and growing up as useful members of the church.

The Missionary Volunteers more than doubled their numbers last quarter. One hundred seventy-three dollars and eighty-eight cents was given for missionary purposes. All the societies plan to finish their quota on the African Fund by September 28. The Juniors raised over $60 with which to buy Bible books for the Garwhal Mission school in India. A society was organized at Rock Falls. The Conference Society is growing.

Ten church-schools with twelve teachers have been organized, besides the home schools taught by mothers. I will report this work at a later date.

I most earnestly ask for your prayers and cooperation that the work may move forward.

EDITH SHEPARD.

News Notes

Our midsummer offering for missions this year amounted to $406.23.

Keep in mind the time and place of our next annual conference and general meeting, November 1-9, at the Forty-sixth Street church, Chicago.

Our publishers announce that the religious liberty series of the Signs of the Times Weekly can now be secured in bound form for 25 cents, postpaid. Orders may be sent to this office.

We have just received the announcement of the Harvest Ingathering services to be held at the Forty-sixth Street church, Wednesday, October 9, at 7:45 P.M. All are invited to attend.

Prof. O. F. Butcher, principal of our academy, was called to Jackson, Mich., early this week by a telegram announcing the sudden death of his father at that place. We extend our sympathies to the sorrowing members of the family.

expect to spend the winter. It is hoped that the climate there will be beneficial to Sister Santee's health.

Brother C. E. Matteson, who has been one of our faithful canvassers for the past two years, and Miss Charlotte Henrikson were united in marriage at 213 Oak St., Chicago, Wednesday, October 2. They leave at once on a trip to Sweden. Our best wishes for their happiness and success in the work go with them.

Among the Churches

After the camp-ground was cleared I remained in the city of Kokomo visiting the people. I found them kind, and anxious to have a camp-meeting in the city next year. They stated, "We just began to get acquainted with you and your work when the camp-meeting was over and your people were gone."

I had a good time with our own people, having meetings on the Sabbath. They gave a large order for the Harvest Ingathering number of the Signs.

Friday evening and Sabbath forenoon, September 13 and 14, were refreshing meetings for the Marion church. A number reconsecrated their lives to God and the church gave a large order for Signs of the Times. Elder Roberts and others from Jonesboro were present.

In the afternoon of Sabbath, the 14th, I visited the Michael church and spoke to them twice. They were much encouraged to have a minister with them. They did very well in taking the mission paper.

At Tipton there are two sisters who are holding up the banner of truth alone. They were overjoyed to have a visit from a minister and gave orders for the Signs and also for the LAKE UNION HERALD.

I am now on my way to visit Sulphur Springs, New Castle, Kennard, and Middletown.

May God bless and prosper His dear people as they gather funds for the work in foreign fields. He has promised to go before us. Pray for the work and workers.

E. R. LAUDA.

Sabbath-School Convention

On Sabbath and Sunday, September 7 and 8, Elder U. S. Anderson and the writer attended the Sabbath-school convention which was held at Mount Zion Church, near Tell City, Indiana. It was an occasion of much pleasure and profit to all who attended. Subjects vital to the interests of our Sabbath-schools were presented by members of the church and by Brethren Anderson and Grey. The children and youth of the school contributed a large share toward making the meetings a success, their recitations and exercises all being instructive and illustrating some missionary idea.

People from the country for miles around attended every session of the convention and the evening preaching services. Those from the outside as well as our own people seemed to thoroughly enjoy the meetings.

On Sabbath afternoon a large company witnessed the baptism of one of the members of the school by Elder Anderson. The Mount Zion church is trying to realize the high purpose of the Sabbath-school work—the salvation of souls. Baptisms should be frequent among the schools with large membership of children and young people.

At the close of the exercise the children took up an offering which amounted to $1.62.

R. M. GRAY,
Sabbath-school Sec'y.

News Notes

Brother N. C. Rogers of the Pleasant View church was a caller at the office last Tuesday.

Are you planning to take the reading course? The books are very interesting and instructive.

Elder J. M. Ellis visited several of our churches in the northern part of the State last week.

We are beginning to receive inquiries from persons who are planning to spend some time this fall and winter in selling our small books.

Orders for Memory Verse cards should come in early before the supply is exhausted. The price is five cents a set when five or more are ordered together.

Last week we received an order for twenty-four copies of the "Gospel Primer" from a member of the Baptist church. She spoke in the highest terms of this book.

The missionary society of the Logansport church recently sent in an order for a $5-tract package. There is no better way to do missionary work than to distribute tracts.

Brother P. L. Thompson was in the office last week preparing to take a trip through the southwestern part of the conference where he will visit our churches and companies.

Up to Friday, the 27th, orders for more than 5,000 copies of the Harvest Ingathering Signs had been received. If you have not ordered any yet, do not delay but join in this good work.

Brother C. L. Campbell, who has been connected with the tent efforts for the colored people of Indianapolis this summer, left last Friday for Berrien Springs where he will attend College.

Our church librarians and elders should encourage every member of their respective churches to take part in the Harvest Ingathering campaign which is upon us. If you need solicitor's cards, instruction leaflets, or papers, send in your order to the conference office at once.

Who Will Go Forth Now with Our Publications?

Please read the reports of those who are going.

"Dear Brother:—

"I will write you again to let you know the result of last week's canvassing. I canvassed four days. The first two days I secured $27 worth of orders. The next day I worked all day and did not get an order until evening. When I secured that I was waiting for my car, and I told the man to hurry up and sign his name, for I was afraid I would miss my car and would have to wait an hour before I could get the next one. Well, I thanked my Father in heaven for that. I had been among Catholic people all day and just got among Latter Day Saint people. I secured my order from one of the latter.

"Friday I went out again. I started about 6:45 A. M. and worked until about 11 A. M. without getting an order. I went aside and had prayer, asking God to give me success. I then felt stronger, and I tell you, brother, the very first canvass I gave I secured an order. I worked until Sabbath was drawing near, and the results were $10 worth of orders that day. I secured sixteen orders amounting to $40 that week. The mine has not closed down, but do not think I will go back. You may come to assist me as soon as you can. Pray for success.

"IVAN S. FALCONER."

I send this letter of Brother Falconer's verbatim to show how God works when an individual fully submits himself to the Master for service. Brother Falconer has followed the occupation of a miner the most of his life, but when the knowledge of the truth came to him by the reading of our good books and the aid of a few Bible studies given by one of our canvassers, he had a burning desire to take the same truth that had done so much for him, to others. He is meeting with marked success in the canvassing work, not because of the instruction and experience he has had, but rather because of his faith in God's promises.

E. M. FISHELL.

A Canvasser's Story

"The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it."

Brother S. F. Mohr, who has now returned to school, writes a very encouraging report of his work among the German people. He said: "If God wills, I shall be in Southern Illinois next year again. I delivered in forty-four hours $294 worth of books. The people were very anxious to get their books. They asked me why I did not come sooner (as my delivery was delayed), and why I did not come and stay over night with them. They also invited me to come back again. Some wanted my address so they could write to me, and they wished me the greatest success in my work. Some places I had to take lunch with the people whether I wanted to or not. They would feed my horses free of charge. In Percy I delivered every book, and the man I stayed with there was so deeply interested in my book that he wanted to deliver some of them for me. He said, 'I never heard such wonderful truths, and I want someone to instruct us more in regard to them.' This man and his daughter want to sell 'Great Controversy.' They said they knew they could sell it. The people at Percy want us to use their church to preach in, free of charge.

"O as I think of the thirst on the part of the people for the Word of God, I want to go to Illinois to take the truth contained in our books to the people. I want to bring as many students from Clinton as I possibly can to help the work along in your conference. Illinois is ripe for the harvest, and very little has been done among our German people."

"The work of the canvasser evangelist whose heart is imbued with the Holy Spirit, is fraught with wonderful possibilities for good."

E. M. FISHELL.

More Papers Wanted

Through the kindness of the LAKE UNION HERALD, we wish to thank the unknown friends who have sent papers for our reading-rack in the interurban station. The wrappers were unmarked, so we could not send a personal letter.

Notwithstanding the help we have received, our rack is frequently found empty. The Illinois Traction System connects most of the cities and towns of the State. The junction which connects the southern branch with Bloomington and Peoria is at this place, and the cars run hourly, thus bringing travel from Saint Louis, Springfield, and other points. We certainly feel that this station is a very important one. If the Spirit of God prompts any to send, please address to either Mrs. B. R. Flesher or Mrs. S. L. Stout, Mackinaw, Ill.

News Notes

The quarterly services at Lovington were conducted by Brother J. E. Hanson.

Meetings were held at Twin City church last Sabbath and Sunday by Elder Stureman.

Brother Fishell assisted Brother E. R. Collins in the book work in Edgar County, last week.

Elders Woodford and Stureman have closed their work at Greenup and pitched the tent at Casey a few miles distant.

Brother E. F. Ferris closed his meetings at Chatham last week and held quarterly services with the Carterville church last Sabbath.

Brethren E. A. Bristol and H. M. Kelley visited the Sabbath-keepers at Astoria Sunday, the 29th, where baptismal services were held.

Brother Martin Grimm who has been at Chatham since camp-meeting has located near Pittsfield where he will canvass and hold some meetings.

Elder E. A. Bristol was called to St. Francisville the 27th to conduct the funeral services of Robt. F. Carroll, husband of Sister Laura Carroll of that place.

Miss Bertha Ford reports that the school work is progressing nicely at DuQuoin. The school at Mattoon has started with a much larger attendance than last year.

Brother J. E. Hanson writes that the Decatur church-fund is growing. We hope it will not be long until the church can have a suitable place of worship in that city.

Brother Hugo Mitzelfelt, who recently located at Dallas, writes: "We like our new home very well. The Lord is blessing me in the work. He gave me fifty-one dollars' worth of orders last week."

A Call to Service

"And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory." Rev. 18:1.

I believe we have reached the time when this prophecy is meeting its fulfilment. Today the earth is being illuminated with the truth of God's word as never before, and still the call is continually coming for more light bearers. "From the light given me, I know that where there is one canvasser in the field, there should be one hundred."—"Manual for Canvassers," page 7. Dear brethren and sisters, can we prove from God's word that we should not be among this number? If we can not, we are in doubt, and can no longer say with the Psalmist,—"My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed." One unmistakable evidence the Lord has given concerning our call to this work is the need.

I shall be glad to hear from a number of our brethren and sisters who want a part in this work. Our student workers are returning to school. Some one must fill these vacancies.

Will you not read the call given in 1 Chron. 29:5, and then decide which answer you will give, Exod. 4:10, 13, or Isa. 6:8. If you choose the latter, please write me at once concerning territory.

B. F. WILLIAMS.

Canvassers' Notes

Brother E. C. Collard is starting in the work in Leelanau County. He has been working for some time at the Soo.

We are glad to note that our student workers are getting along nicely with their deliveries. Truly Christ is by the side of these young people as they go from door to door. He is knocking at the heart's door of each soul with whom they come in contact.

Sister Goff writes that she is having excellent success in delivering. She is of good courage and intends to press on in the Lord's work until it is finished.

As a result of Sister Kirby's work during the summer at Traverse City one has accepted the truth, and others seem about to begin keeping the Sabbath. It is true that the weekly report blanks do not reveal all that is being done by one engaged in this work.

Ralph and Harry Denton have earned their scholarships and will soon return to school.

B. F. WILLIAMS.

Portage

I was with the church in Portage Sabbath, the 21st, and pleased to find the work moving on very encouragingly. They have secured a good place for the church-school, and school began September 10 with Miss Laura Antisdal as teacher.

Sister Armitage has been doing Bible work in Portage the past year, but now has gone to Berrien Springs to school, so we have arranged for Mabel Wampole to make Portage her field of labor. They have a good hall for public services and the outlook for the work in Portage is hopeful. A few united with the church last year and others are studying the truth. Sister Wampole will begin work the first of October, and with the cooperation of the church results will follow. Much good will be done by thoroughly working the cities with the special number of the Signs. Let all have a part in this campaign.

W. H. THURSTON.

Baraboo Camp-Meeting

A little more than one hundred of our own people attended the fall camp-meeting at Baraboo, September 5-11. From the very first the outside attendance was good; and because of the interest manifested Elder W. S. Shreve was asked to remain for a time after the close of the camp-meeting. The ordained ministers who assisted in this meeting were Elders Thurston, Hoffman, Gardner, Reed, Shreve, and the writer. At the close of a very earnest, spiritual discourse by Elder Thurston, Sabbath morning, the service was turned into a revival meeting. Some for the first time acknowledged their Saviour, and many consecrated themselves anew to the Master for service. Brother H. W. Johnson took charge of the Sabbath-school, Professor Gardner taught the class of 110 members who made an unusually good offering, a total of $51.05 being received. The day teaching was of a practical nature, designed to prepare our people for more efficient service. Doctrinal themes for the most part were considered in the evening services. The last days of the meeting we were favored with health lectures by Dr. Lindsay, medical superintendent of the Madison Sanitarium. His advice was timely and I trust that our future camp-meetings may be favored with much more instruction in the same line. Four were baptized at this meeting. In one respect, our fall meeting admits of criticism, that is, the matter of attendance. Now as never before, do we need to remember the admonition, "Not forsaking the assembling of yourselves together,..... and So much the more, as ye see the day approaching."

B. L. Post.

Richland Center

We are still here with the tent, and are having a fairly good hearing. Last Sabbath seven were buried with their blessed Saviour in the watery grave and arose to walk in newness of life. Others will be baptized soon. We expect to organize a company here. We plan to secure a place of worship where the meetings may be continued. We hope and trust that the work may continue to grow here.

Stevens Point and Milwaukee

Since my last report I have visited the church at Stevens Point, holding quarterly meeting with them Sabbath, September 22. Two evening meetings were also held, a few coming in to hear the message. This church needs help. I think a series of meetings could be held here this winter to good profit. From Stevens Point I came to Bethel to be at a committee meeting. On the way I made a brief call at the conference office in Grand Rapids. From Bethel my way leads back to Milwaukee to take up the work in connection with the Milwaukee Bible Training School which is to begin its six months' course October 1. There is still room for a few more consecrated young women of sound Christian experience to connect with the school and obtain a practical training in Bible work. Any who desire to take such a course should at once write to me at 868 Fourth Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

B. L. Post.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stone, who were formerly connected with Bethel Academy, will be pleased to extend congratulations over the arrival of Miss Marguerite Martindale Stone, weight eight pounds.

Study at Home

The army of wide-awake people who see in the correspondence school a much-longed-for opportunity of improving their personal efficiency, is steadily growing. Three years of experience has proved beyond question the value of studying at home during the spare hours under the direction of skilled instructors. The Fireside Correspondence School, Takoma Park, D. C., opens its fourth year of work October 7. If you feel an ever-present sense of educational need, and can not go away to school, write at once for a calendar of full information, and be ready to start in promptly with the new term. It is the best season of the year for study. Watch the Review for fuller announcements,

College

● Our two large silos were filled during the past week.

A metal ceiling is being put on the boys' assembly room in the basement of North Hall.

Fifty new oak chairs, twenty four folding chairs, and two dozen tablet-arm chairs have arrived.

A large number of assorting racks have been built for the laundry in order to accommodate the increase attendance.

Mr. Burdick has moved his family from Chicago to Berrien Springs, and his children are attending the training-school.

Miss Carmichael and Mr. Wohlers have been elected to act with Mrs. Curtis in nominating the Editorial Staff for the Bulletin.

N. Lonnie Taylor and Avery Davis of the West Michigan Conference enrolled during the week, bringing our enrollment to 193.

New dressers, commodes, bed springs, mattresses, and sanitary cots were ordered last week. All this indicates a rapidly growing family.

A laundry stove and a number of flat irons have been ordered which will make it possible for nearly a dozen girls to be ironing at the same time.

The chapel talk given last Monday morning by Professor Graf on "How to Study" was very timely and will be of great help to all during the whole year.

Miss Thallie Halvorsen, of the stenographic class of '12, now employed in the Chicago office with Elder Olsen, spent Sabbath with her mother and brothers at the College.

The talks given by Professor Spaulding at the Young People's Society and on Saturday evening in regard to the work in the Southern field were much appreciated by all.
