Two Questions

L. D. SANTEE

"Shall we recognize our friends in heaven?"
"Then shall I know, even as also I am known." 1 Cor. 13:12.
"Shall we grieve for those who are not there?"
"The former shall not be remembered nor come upon the heart." Isa 65:17 (margin).

In the change that shall make us immortal,
We shall lose not the dear ones we love,
With them we shall enter the portal,
Of the beautiful mansions above.
This thought dispels all of my sadness,
Though I walk down life's valley alone;
For full of unspeakable gladness,
Is the thought, "I shall know as I'm known."

The things whose remembrance brings sorrow,
The ones that were, and are not,
They come not to sadden the spirit,
They are lost to the mind and forgot,
In all of the ages of heaven,
The thought of them comes not again.
To the ransomed, no memory is given
That will sadden the heart or give pain.

That life will be free from all sorrow,
Through heaven's inexhaustible years;
No shadows to darken the morrow,
No sadness, no pain, and no tears.
In that region where sickness comes never,
All the joys of the blest we shall find;
There gladness will linger forever,
And sorrows ne'er come into mind.

General Meeting, Chicago

On Sabbath afternoon, December 7, a general meeting in the interest of city work in Chicago was held in the Baptist church at the corner of Monroe Street and Ashland Boulevard. The attendance was about 650, including representatives from all the Seventh-day Adventist churches in the city.

The immediate purpose of the meeting was to enlist workers to assist in the distribution of literature, and otherwise to arouse an interest in a series of meetings to be held in the same Baptist church, above mentioned, to begin the first of January, conducted by Elder K. C. Russell, assisted by Elder Serns and others.

Much enthusiasm was manifested by those in attendance at this preliminary meeting. A contribution of $36 was made for the beginning of the work, after addresses by Elder Russell, and others, outlining plans of work and the importance of a strong effort being made to reach the people with the truth at once.

The workers will meet daily for prayer and study, as well as labor beginning on Tuesday, December 10, in the Baptist church which the Northern Illinois Conference has rented with the hope that the vigorous effort to be put forth for the advancement of the truth among the people may result in establishing a new center of influence in this section of the city on the West Side. A million people in West Chicago have long been waiting for the messenger bearing the truth for these last days.

ALLEN MOON.

Conference in Chicago, Jan. 10-20, 1913

The Northern Illinois Conference will be held in the central part of the city of Chicago, where it will be of as easy access for all as is possible in such a great city. The officers of the South-Side church kindly invited the conference to hold the session in their church, but since we have leased a large Baptist church, 1600 Monroe St., corner of Ashland Boul. for a central evangelistic and medical missionary effort by Elders K. C. Russell, Dr. D. H. Kress, M. H. Serns, Prof. W. E. Straw, and other workers, during the months of January and February, it was thought best by the conference committee, in counsel with Elder Moon and others of our brethren, to hold the conference in this same church.

Combining the conference and evangelistic services will add interest to each and be less expensive for both. Further, all can attend both meetings without extra expense in car fare.

The church is one block south of Madison Street car line, on Ashland, and one block east of Ashland Street car line on Monroe, as cars run north and south on Paulina Street at that point instead of Ashland Boulevard. Ogden Avenue cars pass the church at corner or Monroe and Ogden Streets. The church is easily reached from any part of the city for one fare, five cents. Those outside of the city who will write to the office the time of their coming and over which railway, will be met at the station.

The conference sessions will be held in the forenoon, also a Bible study; in the afternoon will be preaching and departmental work; the evenings will be devoted to song and evangelistic services.

None who can possibly attend can afford to miss these meetings during the whole conference session. Pray for the work of the conference and the city effort, and come bringing the blessing of God with you. G. E. LANGDON.

Reminiscences of Pleasant Visits

The first of last week I went to Stockton. The school is doing good work with Mary Marsh as teacher. Their note books, picture frames, and paper work were interesting features. The children are happy over prospects of a new and larger schoolroom very soon.

Indeed the Kingston schoolroom is a pretty place with its decorations of blue and white; library, collection of fossils, drawings, etc. Although there are only two pupils, we had a splendid consecration service when the teacher, Mr. Stebins, and the pupils realized that Jesus remembers even the smallest schools with His Spirit.

Friday evening I met with the Elgin Missionary Volunteer Society. The tract work was discussed, and two thousand tracts on the Eastern Question were ordered. House-to-house distribution will be started immediately. These young people are doing great things for God, and expect great blessings in return.

The week of prayer has received special attention in our schools. As teachers we were so anxious that all the boys and girls might be drawn closer to the Saviour at this time. It has been my privilege to visit four schools this week; see the children give their hearts to Jesus, and hear their testimonies of love. Not a child turned from the Master. How true that prayer puts God's power back of our weakness as the ocean is back of the bay. We thank Him for this blessed week of prayer, and our heart's desire is to see our schools move forward in God's way.

EDITH SHEPARD.

Field Notes

The general colporteur institute for Northern Illinois will be held in connection with the conference, Jan. 17-23, 1913, the conference being Jan. 10-20. Let all the regular canvassers plan definitely to be present, and bring with them a number of recruits.

Brother Andrew Cederblade is enjoying the Lord's blessings canvassing in Chicago for "Great Controversy." Monday his sales were $14.

The Lord has been calling for years for workers to enter our large cities with literature. Two have now started in Chicago and the Lord is blessing them. He always rewards us when we do His bidding. Are there not others who wish to answer the call of God?

"Thanksgiving morning I was canvassing a woman for 'Bible Readings.' She took the prospectus from me, and went to the barn to see her husband. I bowed my head in prayer, asking the Lord to impress their hearts with the importance of the truth. On returning she asked me the price of the book. She then gave me an order for a book in the German. I received many other blessings throughout the day."—Lorenzo Clark. J. A. APPLGATE.

Notice

I particularly desire to hear from those whom God has been calling to the colporteur work. The week of prayer doubtless has brought conviction to several that they should "by the wise use of periodicals and books, preach the word with determined energy." The Lord is giving success to others, why not you? J. A. APPLGATE.

News Notes

Elder Allen Moon and J. W. Mace from South Bend were out-of-town callers at the conference office last Thursday. They were here on Lake Union and Review and Herald interests.

Elder J. E. Jayue, secretary of the Religious Liberty Department of the Atlantic Union Conference, has been staying at the mission home while attending the Federal Council of American churches in Chicago the past week.

Elder N. Z. Town and I. A. Ford from Washington, D. C., were guests at the Bible-Training School, 3418 Douglas Boul., Chicago, last week on business for the Review and Herald. On leaving they made a good donation toward the price of the new piano purchased for the home.

Special Notice

This is to call attention to our paper, the LAKE UNION HERALD. We would be pleased to have all send in their subscriptions by the end of December, so that all may get the first number of the new year. We think the HERALD has been better this year than it was last, and we promise to make it still better. Those who are already subscribers should renew their subscriptions, so that they will not miss any numbers. Please attend to the matter at once and send your subscription to the Wisconsin Tract Society.

Encouraging to Home Workers

Thirty-two years ago, while on a visit to relatives in western Canada, the Lord permitted me to place in the home of one of my sisters, books, papers, and tracts containing light on the third angel's message, regarding which most of them had known but little previous to that time. During the week or two of my visit I embraced every opportunity to arouse their interest in the literature, and shortly after I left my sister and her husband began to keep the Sabbath and were coming into harmony with other truths of the message. Aside from this I knew little of the influence of the reading matter left them until recently.

I again visited them a short time ago and was pleased to find in their home many of our good books,—“Daniel and Revelation,” “Great Controversy,” “Bible Readings,” and other smaller books. I also learned that some of the children of this Sabbath-keeping family, as they grew older, had canvassed, selling hundreds of our books in the adjoining townships and villages.

I spent several evenings with different families in the study of the prophecies, and it was good to be there as a sacred quietness pervaded these evening studies. I am sending them more reading matter. This incident is not related for self-praise, but for the encouragement of others, and because of thankfulness for what the Lord has been pleased to accomplish through one so humble. To him be all the praise.

Milton Junction

A successful program was given by the young people and children of this church on Thanksgiving morning. In connection with the service, a thank offering amounting to $3.92 was taken.

The young people were entertained at the home of Mrs. Scholz after the program, while the children spent a pleasant afternoon with Mrs. Kittleson. In the evening Mr. Scholz gave a short study on the canvassing work, and several of the young people volunteered to go to Janesville the following day to sell “Ministry of Healing” in the interest of the sanitarium at Madison.

While not many books were sold, all of those who had part in the work returned full of courage and with a determination to prepare themselves to do better work in the future. They decided to meet once a week to carefully study the book and methods of presenting it to the people.

The Lord is blessing in the work, and we believe that much can be accomplished through the earnest, consecrated efforts of the young people who go out with these books.

HATTIE RATHBUN.

Canvassers' Institute

The Wisconsin canvassers' institute will be held at Eau Claire December 27 to January 5. Board and room will be furnished free to those who enter the work. The railroad fare of recruits will be paid by allowing an additional five per cent commission. To reach the church, take a car marked, "Shawtown" and go to the end of the line, the church is only two blocks away. Good help will be in attendance, and we desire every one to be present who is planning to enter the field.

News Notes

The Grand Rapids church enjoyed a good week of prayer season.

Hurry in your orders for the Memory Verse Cards for first quarter 1913. The stock is limited. They are better than ever before.

The Sabbath-school quarterlies for first quarter 1913 have arrived. Will our people please order at once to avoid delay and possible loss caused by congested mails at the holiday season. Promptness on your part will also relieve us of much of the rush of business common at the close of the year.

Many of our churches, companies, and isolated believers, are still busy working with the Ingathering Signs. Two zealous sisters at Frederic have set $25 as their aim, and, judging by their reports of progress, this amount will be reached by them. Others write of interesting experiences and more or less fruitful ingathering of funds. It is hoped that none will cease their efforts until every paper ordered by this conference has been distributed.

Miss Lottje Jasperson, well known in this conference as a former successful church-school teacher, is now in charge of the church-school at Hagerman, N. Mex., where the largest church and church-school in that conference are located. She teaches the sixth to the ninth grades inclusive. Miss Jasperson is also the educational secretary for the New Mexico Conference. She writes that her health is quite good, and that her work and the climate are both congenial.

Bethel Academy Notes

The electricity and physiology classes organized Monday morning.

Brother Chris Hanson has returned to Arpin much improved in health.

Friday, Mr. J. A. Dominski went to his home in Wausau to spend a few days.

Alfred Wood and brother of Richland Center, Wis., have recently entered the academy.

The academy chorus will render the sacred cantata "The Everlasting Light" Saturday evening, December 14.

Edward Bush has enrolled for the remainder of the school year after selling about $1,500 worth of "Bible Readings" in Canada.

"You cannot journey many days in the way of righteousness before you face the fact that it is much easier to be a Christian in some places than in others, and that, in the home, your religion is put to its severest test. Yet since the home is, in many places, and should be, in all, the normal training school for the Christian virtues, if you fail there, you fail everywhere. Since your highest duties are connected with those who are bound to you by the tie of kinship, then, in your home, let one and all be true Christians."

Among the Churches

The writer, in company with Brother P. Lamont Thompson, has recently visited the following churches: North Manchester, Jonesboro, Marion, Kokomo, Logansport, Barbers Mill, and Fort Wayne.

While at Kokomo a very interesting Harvest Ingathering exercise was rendered by the children. They had been given five cents apiece several months before to invest in some enterprise to earn funds for missionary purposes. It was certainly entertaining to hear the little ones tell how they, in a business way, had increased the little sum that had been intrusted to them. We hope many more of our churches will give the children a chance to show their business ability for the cause of truth.

At Logansport we found the church in a thriving condition, and the Sabbath-school was nearly $40 ahead on the Fifteen-cent-a-week Fund.

We plan to hold a series of meetings at Ligonier soon. Remember us in your prayers. THOS. F. HUBBARD.

News Notes

Elder Hubbard and Brother Thompson are still holding meetings at the Ligonier church.

Brother Grey spent several days during the week of prayer with Beechwood Academy and the Boggs town church.

We are keep very busy these day attending to the usual h of orders that come in during the holiday season.

Brother O. Richardson wrote us a good, encouraging letter last week accompanying his report which amounted to $60.

Those of our people who are isolated may send their annual offering to the conference office and the same will be promptly acknowledged.

Elder Montgomery attended the young people's convention held at the Middletown church, and from there went to Connersville where he held a meeting with our people.

Letters were sent last week to all our church clerks asking them to accompany their annual report with a full list of their members and their addresses. We trust that no church will overlook this matter.

From the reports that are coming in we feel that the week of prayer was a blessed time for our people in this conference. Surely these occasions help to prepare our hearts for the stirring scenes which are just before us.

Brother Morris was a visitor at the office last week. He had just been to Richmond and visited Brother Plake, who is canvassing in Wayne County for "Coming King." Brother Plake will soon complete his work in that county.

We are nearing the close of 1912 and we desire very much that all the tithe shall be paid in so as to reach the conference treasurer before January 1. Last December our tithe was more than $2,800; and if we reach that amount this year, it will take the united efforts of all our loyal people throughout the State.

We were surprised the other day to hear from one of our members who bought a Home Workers' prospectus last season. She sent us an order for 74 copies of our small books. There are now three of our people in the city of Indianapolis who are using this prospectus and selling books for Christmas delivery. Some of our people are planning to continue the work after the holidays.

The beginning of the week of prayer here was very encouraging. After the Sabbath reading, December 7, sixty responded to a call for those desiring prayer, and a closer walk with God. The children, too, are remembered in our programs. We expect Elder W. A. Spicer to be with us on the 15th.

S. B. HORTON.

Three Rivers

Surely the Lord has a people in this place in whose hearts the seeds of truth are taking root. We see the workings of God's Spirit among the people. The Sabbath-school attendance is increasing, our room being well filled each week.

The Lord has gone before and opened up fifteen homes for weekly Bible studies. Three ladies have taken a noble stand for this truth and several are in the valley of decision. How true is the statement that God's word shall not return unto Him void.

Canvassers' Institute

The West Michigan Canvassers' Institute will be held January 24 to February 2 at the Kalamazoo church, Kalamazoo, Mich. We are expecting this institute to be one of the best held in connection with our work. We shall expect all of our canvassers to be in attendance throughout this meeting, and any and all who may be expecting to take hold of this work at once, or in the near future. Write to me regarding entertainment and expenses.

A. L. VAN FOSSEN.

News Notes

Elder McVagh visited Carlton Center and Hastings the first part of the week of prayer and Cedar Lake the last part.

Wm. Reefman found a good interest at Moorland. He will return later and conduct a series of meetings in a school-house.

A very well written article on "Holding of the Winds of Strife" by Elder A. C. Bordeau appeared in the Kalamazoo Gazette, December 11.

The conference executive committee will hold an important meeting in connection with a meeting of the auditing committee at Otsego December 26.

Elder E. L. Stewart spent the first part of the week of prayer at Muskegon and later joined Elder S. B. Horton in a two days' meeting at Holland.

The week of prayer meetings at Otsego were well attended. The church is of good courage and Sister Nelson has more calls for Bible readings than she can attend to.

H. G. Bayley recently visited Buchanan and spent Sabbath and Sunday with the company there. He reports an interest and good opening for an aggressive effort.

This is the last month to work and pray for the making up of our quota of the mission funds. All money sent in on or before December 30 will be credited to your church for 1912. See that all Harvest Ingathering, annual offering, and other mission funds are in by that time.

Greenup and Casey

After our effort at Greenup, we moved our tent to Casey, September 24, and commenced our meetings at that place the 26th. Although late in the season, we kept our tent warm with two stoves, and the interest was good until the weather became too cold for the meetings to be held in the tent. Then we moved into a hall near by, and continued another month, closing the effort, December 1. On Sabbath, November 30, we organized a company of believers into a Sabbath-school of eight adult members with a superintendent, a secretary, and a tithe treasurer. We have hopes that a few more will yet take their stand with us to keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus. We now leave the company for a time to visit some of the churches during the week of prayer.

Progress of Canvassing Work

"I have met with some excellent experiences. One woman slammed the door in my face and ten minutes afterward bought a book and persuaded her neighbor to buy one also. I am selling books in the best homes in town. One lady said she wished I could stay all the week and explain the Bible to her."—Aug. Diehl.

"I had a successful delivery of $120 worth of books. I did not lose an order. I sold one book besides securing orders for $25 worth during the week. Let all praise be given to God."—Hugo Mitselfelt.

"I took a minister's order for a full-morocco binding, I also took an order from a doctor. I have worked 1,177 hours and have delivered $633 worth of our books. Praise the Lord."—H. Stearns.

Our Southern Illinois brethren will be glad to learn that Brother E. J. Robbins will soon be in the field again.

"Thursday I visited the Methodist minister, whom I have been keeping in touch with ever since I embraced the message. The Lord has been working with him, although he never could agree with me on the Sabbath and the state of the dead. He did not know of my being in the canvassing work, but after looking over the prospectus, asked if it contained the Sabbath question. Being told that it did, he read the preface, which he very much approved. Though I did not ask him, he gave me his order for the $4 binding. I thank the Lord for this."—Ivan Falconer.

News Notes

Miss Edith McClellan visited Carterville last week, in the interest of the church-school.

Brother M. S. Grim, who has been canvassing in Pike County, was called to his home in Indiana by the illness of his father.

Elder E. A. Bristol was called to Beecher City Friday, the 13th, to conduct the funeral services of Brother John Hubbart.

Brother H. M. Kelley writes that they are having some good meeting at Herrin. One man of influence is attending every night and is free to ask questions. He seems favorably impressed with the truth.

Elder Bristol and Brother Fishell visited Brother Falkner's family at Belleville, Sunday, the 8th. The neighbors were present in the evening and Elder Bristol spoke on the Eastern Question. A good interest was manifested.

Elder Stureman reports some excellent meetings in Twin City last week. Hearts were made tender by the influence of the Holy Spirit. Sunday evening he spoke on the Eastern Question. Several not of our faith were deeply impressed by the truth presented.

Brother Henry Haeft and wife will leave Maeystown December 16, for Washington D. C., where they will prepare for work in a foreign field. We are sorry to lose them from this conference. The brethren at Maeystown are of good courage and the prejudice is somewhat broken down.

Elder Wm. Woodford spent part of last week with the First Springfield church. He visited the members during the day, and held a service at the church each evening. The attendance was not large, but those who did attend were blessed. Quite a number live at a distance, making it difficult to attend evening services.

Adelphian Academy Notes

Our attendance is excellent. Every seat in the chapel is now filled.

November 25 Professor Taylor paid a visit to Emmanuel Missionary College.

On November 16, Brethren Forshee and Kelley were ordained deacons of the Holly church.

The second term of school has now commenced. This is an opportune time for students to enter.

Miss Lamson spent the short vacation at the home of Miss Edith Martin at Bad Axe. Miss Grace Martin returned with her, and has enrolled.

Our students enjoyed their Thanksgiving vacation from November 28 to December 2, and are taking up their studies again with renewed zeal.

The halls and stairways of the ladies' dormitory are looking cheerful and homelike in the pretty new matting and the neat rubber treads for the stairs.

During the first term the following students have enrolled: Frances Ammon, Etta Binding, Beulah Boist, Harley Botimer, Verna Bird, Inez Bird, Myron Brace, Amy Cardey, Katie Carty, Beatrice Connor, Joseph Craig, Walter Crampton, Philip Charlton, Violet Craig, Harvey Darling, Zella Dean, Norris DeCamp, Kenneth Deno, Rose Deacon, Clifton Day, Vivia Edwards, Owen Erhard, Arthur Fellows, Alta Ford, Clayton Palmer, Clayton Forshee, Doris Forshee, James Fowler, Charles Glidden, Alvin Goff, Gilbert Goff, Myra Gordon, Hazel Greene, Harold Graham, Burton Guthrie, Vesta Hagle, Sylvia Herrick, Donald Hiner, Richard Hiner, Mae Hillis, Frank Hicks, Edgar Hunt, Persis Judd, Raymond Kinsey, Orris Kinsey, Gladys Kinsey, Eleanor Kellogg, Pearl Kent, Anna Kerton, Willis Kinsey, Loys Kader, Lona Lamb, Leo Lamb, Frank Lambert, Arthur Leonard, Celia Ledford, Carter Ledford, Katherine McGee, Walter Mellor, Edwin Marietta, Bertha Martin, Helen Medford, Olive Medford, Marie Mogg, Grace Morrison, Pearl Morrison, Mildred Martin, Edythe Martin, Lizzie Martin, Gertrude Martin, Herbert Martin, Mac Parliament, Floyd Patten, Dewey Potter, Glenna Reavis, Mary Reavis, Lottie Richardson, Mabel Richardson, Ruth Richardson, Helen Richmond, Matilda Russell, Walter Selley, Effie Shepard, Grace Shepard, Ruth Shepard, Noble Snyder, Harry Strego, Timothy Summerville, Paul Shuster, Leo Stevens, Levi Steele, William Tasker, Ethyl Taylor, Lester Vail, Kate Van Tine, Jessie Valleau, Ruth Wortman, Bernice Warnemunde, Hazel Warren, Wanda Westcott, Ivan White, Theta White, Bessie Birmingham.

"These All Died in Faith"

Stephen, stoned to death. About 2,000 Christians suffered martyrdom during the "persecution which arose about Stephen." A. D. 34.

James the son of Zebedee, beheaded by Herod Agrippa. A. D. 44.

Philip, scourged, imprisoned and crucified at Heliopolis in Phrygia. A. D. 54.

Matthew, slain with a halberd in the city of Nadabah, Ethiopia. A. D. 60.

James the Less, at the age of 94, was beaten and stoned by the Jews, and finally had his brains dashed out with a fuller's club.

Matthias, stoned at Jerusalem and then beheaded.

Andrew, crucified at Edessa.

Mark, dragged to pieces by the people of Alexandria, at the great solemnity of Serapis, their idol.

Peter, crucified by Nero at Rome, with his head downward, at his own request.

Paul, beheaded by Nero at Rome.

Jude, crucified, at Edessa. A. D. 72.

Bartholomew, beaten and crucified by the idolaters in India.

Thomas, thrust through with a spear in Persia or India, at the instigation of pagan priests.

Luke, hanged on an olive tree, by the idolatrous priests of Greece.

Simon, hanged in the British Isles. A. D. 74. Very uncertain.

John, banished to the Isle of Patmos, by Domitian, recalled by Nero. The only apostle who escaped a violent death.

Barnabas, uncertain, supposed to have died. A. D. 73.

Obituaries

BOGARDUS.—Arista Bogardus was born at Dallas, Penn., Aug. 4, 1843, and died at Hastings, Mich., Nov. 11, 1912. She was married to John Fleming Dec. 31, 1865 and to this union were born three children. She is survived by her husband, two children, a brother and sister. For over fifty years she has been connected with the Seventh-day Adventist church. Her last words were, "'Tis so sweet to trust in Jesus." Words of comfort were spoken by the writer assisted by Elders Van Deusen and U. S. Anderson.

W. C. HEBNER.

HART.—Walter Hart was born in Norage, England, Feb. 27, 1833, and died at Pontiac, Ill., Nov. 26, 1912. In the year 1860 he was married to Sarah Springer. In his youth he was a member of the Methodist Church. April 1907 he and his wife became members of the Pontiac Seventh-day Adventist church. He leaves a wife, two sons, and two daughters to mourn the loss of a faithful husband and father. The funeral service was conducted by the writer, assisted by the Methodist minister. Words of comfort were spoken from 2 Sam. 14:14.

J. M. BURDICK.

BARHITE.—Eliza Singer was born near Brentford, Canada, June 22, 1857. Oct. 4, 1874 she was married to W. S. Barhite, and in 1877 they settled in Southern Michigan, later moving to the Northern part of the State where they have since resided. About twenty years ago she heard the truth proclaimed by Seventh-day Adventists and gladly accepted it. She united with the church at Wildwood when it was first organized, remaining a member till her death which occurred Sept. 24, 1912. The latter part of her life was marked by intense suffering, but she bore it all patiently. Funeral services were conducted by the writer at Wolverine.

J. J. IRWIN.

PESHA.—Louis J. Pesha was born in the Province of Ontario, Aug. 11, 1868, and was killed in an automobile accident near his father's home Oct. 1, 1912, aged 44 years, 1 month, and 20 days. In 1892 he was married to Miss Lena Faucher, and later moved to Marine City, Ill. Brother Peshe had been reared a Seventh-day Adventist and was a member of the Marine City church at the time of his death. A wife and daughter, his aged parents, one brother, and two sisters, together with many friends are left to mourn their loss. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer from Rev. 14: 13.

H. A. BOYLAN.

TRUE.—Sarah E., wife of Frederick D. True, born in Union County, Ind., Oct. 22, 1835, and died in Knightstown, Ind., Oct. 28, 1912. She was the mother of ten children, six of whom survive her. In early life she united with the M. E. Church. Oct. 22, 1879 she accepted the third angel's message. She loved all the various points of present truth and was always a zealous worker. For many years she was a patient sufferer, but she now rests, awaiting the coming of the Life-giver. Many neighbors and friends were present with the family to hear the words of comfort and assurance from God's Word.

W. A. YOUNG.

BARRETT.—A. Judson Barrett was born in Ridgeway, New York, August 5, 1833, and died in Edmore, Mich., Oct. 17, 1912. He served his country faithfully during the Civil War. Under the labors of Elder A. O. Burrill at Carson City a number of years ago he accepted the third angel's message, and has been a faithful worker of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Edmore ever since it was organized. June 6, 1852, he was married to Miss Eliza Dillree. His wife, three daughters, a brother, and sister are left to mourn, but not without bright hopes of a happy reunion.

upon the glad resurrection morn. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer, from Job 14:14, assisted by the pastors of the Methodist and Congregational churches of Edmore.

ROSCOE U. GARRETT.

KIRTLEY.—Mary Jane, wife of Lemuel Kirtley, the daughter of Daniel and Catherine Covert, died Nov. 4, 1912, aged 74 years, 2 months, and 7 days. She was the eldest sister of Elders Wm. and John Covert. She was the mother of twelve children, three of whom with her husband, have fallen asleep. Thirty-four grandchildren and several great-grandchildren survive her; also six sisters and four brothers. For about forty-five years she has stood with the remnant people, waiting for the Saviour's coming. Present truth and her family were the supreme attractions for her. She was buried in Tipton County, Ind., near where she had lived for more than sixty years. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer, assisted by three ministers of the M. E. Church.

W. A. YOUNG.

CORNELL.—Wm. Cornell was born Oct. 14, 1835, in Steuben County, N. Y., and died Oct. 6, 1912, aged 76 years, 11 months, and 22 days. He enlisted in the army Oct. 8, 1861 in the 6th New York Cavalry, and served three years. He reenlisted and served till the close of the war. He came to Michigan in 1867, and was married to Mary Chilston July 4, 1869. She died May 14, 1874. To them a son and daughter were born; the son dying in infancy. Aug. 18, 1885 he was married to Mrs. L. Standish and to this union a daughter was born. In 1897 he accepted his Saviour and united with the Seventh-day Adventist Church, and in this warfare death ended his service. He leaves a wife, two daughters, two grandsons, two sisters, and a large number of friends and comrades to mourn, but not as those who have no hope. Words of comfort were spoken from Hos. 13:14. Interment in Robinson Cemetery.

Mrs. Lou Kirby-Curtis

Editor

The week of prayer was a season of refreshing for the church and school at Berrien Springs. At the close of a special consecration service last Sabbath conducted by Elder Spicer, the annual offering for missions was taken which amounted to $269.22.

Turkey and His End is the title of a thirty-two page tract by Elder E. E. Andross, president of the Pacific Union Conference. It contains a two-page map showing Turkey 100 years ago as compared with its dwindled possessions of today; also a map showing the original territories occupied by the Kings of the North, and of the South. Price $2 a hundred. Order of your tract society.

We have just received a sample set of the Sabbath-school Memory Verse Cards for the first quarter 1913, illustrating beautifully and appropriately Old Testament history, beginning at creation. They are excellent this quarter. All schools should not only have them, but should order in time to begin with the first card on the first Sabbath of the quarter. Send your orders at once through the Conference Tract Society.

Miss Cassie A. Wilson, a former Emmanuel Missionary College student who has been laboring in South America during the past year, gives interesting experiences of her work. She is the only Bible worker in Uruguay and so finds plenty to do. Several have accepted the truth and are rejoicing in it. In a recent letter she says: "A lady came to church today who has been keeping the Sabbath for eighteen years and has tried all these years to find out if there was a people keeping the Sabbath, and only a few days ago heard about us. It would have done you good to see how glad she was to find us. Of course she does not know anything about other points of our faith but I am sure it will be a pleasure to teach them to her. It is wonderful to see how the Spirit of God is moving upon hearts in these days."

College

Miss LeFevre was called home on account of the illness of her mother.

A convention for the West Michigan teachers will be held here beginning the 18th.

The half-year classes which begin just after the holidays are botany, advanced arithmetic, and astronomy.

The zoology class has enjoyed three illustrated lectures given in the laboratory by Dr. Cooper, this past week.

Mr. Russell Carroll enrolled last week, thus making the total enrollment two hundred eighteen as compared with one hundred sixty-five for last year.

Elder Meade MacGuire and Miss Matilda Erickson plan to visit the College January 14. They will hold a series of meetings in the interest of the young people's work.

Recent visitors at the College were Mrs. Reed of Douglas, Mich.; Mrs. Rader of Marion, Ind.; Mr. Landis, also from Marion, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Selleck from East Michigan.

The program given in the dining-room by the Foreign Mission Band on the evening of December 4, was pleasing and profitable. The variety of the numbers made the entire program attractive. The verse John 3:16 rendered first in English then in Hebrew, Greek, Latin, German, Holland, Swedish, Danish, Norwegian, Spanish, and Italian was one of the unique features of the program. There were two tables of curios, one from many lands and the other mementos of a Pitcairn-Australian mission trip.

The week of prayer was a blessed season of refreshing for the school. Elder S. B. Horton of Grand Rapids was with us the first half of the week, and his talks on the religious liberty phases of our work were soul-stirring messages fresh from the field. At chapel time on Thursday Elder Spicer gave the first of his many good talks. His recent trip to South America made his tidings live with details of the rapid progress of the message. Elder Spicer left Sunday for brief visits to Grand Rapids and Battle Creek before returning to Washington, D. C.

The first number of the lecture course was given evening after the Sabbath by Elder Spicer. It was a vivid account of his recent trip through South America, via the Panama Canal. The pleasing views of the varied scenery and the pictures of workers made the lecture doubly interesting. Other numbers of the course are a lecture by Professor Salisbury, who is now in Burma, on the "Orient." Elder Gilbert writes that he will give his "Passover" lecture. A musical number will be rendered by the chorus. Other numbers equally attractive are promised.

Last Friday evening the young men's assembly room in North Hall was dedicated to the worship of God. The service was an impressive one and the room was filled to overflowing with students and teachers. The dedicatory prayer of thankfulness was offered by Professor Huffman, after which Professor Haughey gave an interesting account of the early growth of Emmanuel Missionary College. Professor Graf told of the "Evolution of North Hall," speaking of the many improvements that had been made in the building since its erection. He was followed by Elder Spicer who made some very appropriate remarks that seemed just suited to the occasion.
