A Council at Washington

The first annual council of the North American Division Conference of Seventh-day Adventists is being held at Takoma Park, Washington, D. C., in connection with the General Conference council. The assembly is composed of the officers of the General and North American Division conferences, all the heads of the departments of the General and Division conferences, the presidents of union conferences in this country, and other individuals selected to serve on boards and committees. Elder L. R. Conradi, the president of the European Division, will also be present.

Very important questions will, in the very nature of things, have to be considered at this council. The separation of interests, in a measure, between the General and North American conferences involves some problems that will require time to consider. The council will be held from the 14th to the 29th of October, inclusive.

No doubt the angels of God are astir at this time when the remnant people all over the land are engaged in visiting from house to house, giving the people the special Review, which contains some of the history of missions and other valuable truth for this time, and at the same time extending an invitation to all to help spread the truth to earth's remotest bounds. If there is joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, must there not be joy over the activity of God's people to bring about the repentance of sinners? When means are provided, whereby the missionary may be sent to those who sit in darkness, it means that the gospel is to be preached to them; and it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth. The world owes to the Lord a debt that many are willing to acknowledge by a division of their means. Let us give them an opportunity.

ALLEN MOON.

Gleanings from the Field

It was my privilege last week to accompany Brother Van Fossen, the field agent of West Michigan, in some of his visits to the churches. We spent a day at Kalamazoo, where two sisters have been doing some work with the Home Workers' Prospectus. The Lord gave them success from the start. We visited Brother and Sister Beardsley who are expecting to enter the work soon. Sister Beardsley will take up work in the tract society office and Brother Beardsley will enter the field with our books.

Next we went to Grand Rapids where we attended the prayer meeting and visited several the next day who are thinking of taking up the book work. Two definitely planned to start out with the Home Workers' Prospectus. One or two others are planning to enter the regular work after the winter's institute.

We spent Sabbath at the Clifford Lake union meeting, where were gathered brethren and sisters from several of the surrounding churches. A number of the workers in West Michigan were present, and the Lord came near in the meetings.

At this writing I am at Cedar Lake Academy, and find that there are several young people here who have earned scholarships during the vacation by selling our books. The school is filled with a promising class of young people.

By the time this reaches the readers of the LAKE UNION HERALD, I shall be with Brother Williams, visiting some of the churches in North Michigan.

Many of our people who cannot spend all of their time canvassing, could do a good work right now taking orders for a holiday delivery of our Home Workers' books. Why not arrange with the librarian of your church for home territory, place one dollar with them for the prospectus, and go to work at once? Why not place this truth into homes instead of allowing the enemy to place trashy books into the hands of the young?

BATTLE CREEK HOME MISSIONARY BAND

The above picture was taken on Tuesday morning, September 30 at the door of the Tabernacle in Battle Creek just as the corps of workers were ready to start out upon one of the most thorough tract campaigns that has ever been carried out in Battle Creek. This effort was put forth on account of attacks made on the Seventh-day Sabbath by one of the leading pastors of the city. Owing to the fact that the people were somewhat aroused on the Sabbath question, the time seemed opportune to place in the hands of the people suitable reading matter on this most important subject. The city was districted by precincts and leaders appointed who, together with their workers, covered the territory in less than one day. The Young People's Missionary Volunteer Society acted a prominent part. The Sabbath before the campaign was devoted to a missionary rally at which time sufficient funds were raised to cover all expenses, and a missionary spirit prevailed which, if carried out, will put into effect the recommendation made at our last camp-meeting relative to this line of work. It is the aim of the Battle Creek church to continue this movement, covering the same territory in a few months with literature concerning the second coming of Christ. If the 24,000 tracts just distributed were read, as we hope and pray they were, there will certainly be some serious food for thought and further inquiry regarding the truths we hold as a denomination.

News Notes

Brother Beardsley is entering the canvassing work. Mrs. Flora Williams is moving to Otsego for the winter. Elders Anderson and White began meetings in Decatur October 19. Mrs. Ina Beardsley has accepted stenographic work in the conference office. Elder McVagh visited the churches at Clifford Lake and Mecosta recently. Sister Edna Walker reports an excellent interest among her readers at Hastings. There will be a general meeting attended by several conference laborers at Trufant, Sabbath, October 25. Elder McVagh and Wm. Reefman attended a general meeting for Oceana County at Shelby last Sabbath. There will be a union meeting attended by Elder McVagh, C. A. Russell, and other laborers at Allegan, November 1. Brethren Hoyt and Reefman report a good interest where they are holding meetings at the Pansy church near McBrides. Elder Jorgenson was in counsel with some of the Scandinavian believers last Sabbath. A report of his plans and labors will appear later.

J. L. Rumery was a caller at the conference office last week. He expects to spend the winter at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dr. Hayward at Graysville, Tenn.

News Notes

Elder Clark visited the Kingman church and the few members at Woodburn last week. Brother W. B. Maris is doing excellent work in Bond County with "Daniel and Revelation." Brother Dallas Newlan just finished a very successful delivery of "Coming King." He reports one book lost. Every mail continues to bring orders for the Harvest Ingathering Review. The campaign is only nicely started. Brother Lager sends word that he is working in hard territory, but feels like praising God that he is finding some precious souls. Brother Harry Bennett writes that he has been canvassing among the Seventh-day Baptists who have been trying to explain the Sabbath question to him. Brother Ferris writes that a deep interest is being mani-festated at Taylorville, but there are no definite results yet. Do not forget to pray for the work there.

Brother Fishell has been assisting Brother Maris this week in the field. He also called at Lovington to see Brother Lee Robins in reference to entering the work.

Brother Suda is moving from Mt. Sterling to Lincoln where he will continue the canvassing work in Logan County. Brother Frank Crail is located with him.

The Home Workers' Prospectus presents a splendid opportunity for our sisters to call on their friends and neighbors and arrange with them for their Christmas presents.

Brother W. B. Langston, who recently entered the work, writes that he is enjoying the canvassing work very much, and that his wife plans to work with the Home Worker's Prospectus soon.

Canvassers' Notes

During the past two weeks a corps of new workers have entered the field, and the Lord is blessing them with a marked degree of success. The prayers of our people throughout the conference are solicited in their behalf.

We are glad to welcome to our ranks Brother W. E. Bailey who is now working with "Bible Readings" in Indianapolis.

Six of our workers are now engaged in city colporteur work. Many more are needed to meet the crying needs of the cities in Indiana. Will you respond?

Brother James Croker of Losantville reports considerable interest manifested as the result of distributing a few tracts just prior to a series of meetings held in the village.

One of our home workers sold twenty-three books last week, spending just a few hours at work each day. Now is the time to work.

Brother W. Craig is working Decatur County with "Great Controversy." He will move his family there in a few weeks.

Miss Clara Weber will start work with "Coming King" next week.

Brother John Klose, one of our colporteurs of the summer, who recently suffered an injury, is now at home rapidly recovering.

Among the new workers in the field are Mrs. Etta Dudley, Miss Minnie Brown, Mr. C. Restorick, and Mr. Chester Holmes.

Brother Plake in sending in a recent report states that he enjoyed the best week in all his experience, and will work with renewed courage to win souls.

Our company of workers at Rushville, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Gipson and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Marshall, state that they are enjoying rich blessings each day at work for the Master.

Miss Ada Achor is working during her spare time in Muncie with our magazines. We wish her continued success.

Seven counties in Indiana are now being worked by our faithful colporteurs. The harvest in seventy-six more must yet be reaped. Where are the reapers? E. E. FRANKLIN.

Beechwood Academy Items

Willie Bradburn of Indianapolis went home Friday for a short visit.

The first load of coal has been unloaded, so we are fully prepared for the cold weather.

Several house plants have been presented to the academy which help to make things more homelike.

The two dormer windows that have been placed in the west end of the building are now practically completed.

Three sets of encyclopedias have recently been placed in the library. Our 1913 edition is something we appreciate very much as we had nothing but very old ones before.

Dr. B. G. Wilkinson of the Columbian Union Conference favored us with a visit on the eighth. He spoke to the students that evening and continued his talk till next morning, giving us some very helpful instruction.

An Explanation

Since my article in the HERALD, entitled "Further Information," appeared, I have been informed that when the matter of the two per cent was adopted it was agreed in the Lake Union that it should be two per cent of the whole amount, that is, twelve per cent of $50, the tithe and two per cent together, instead of ten per cent of $50 and then two per cent of $45.

I was not aware of this plan, as it was formulated before I came to the conference. This being the understanding in the Union, I am perfectly agreeable to this plan and will concur in it.

We must be united in our efforts and all work together, in order to succeed. In "Patriarchs and Prophets," page 362, is this statement: "God is a God of order. Everything connected with heaven is in perfect order; subjection and thorough discipline mark the movements of the angelic hosts. Success can only attend order and harmonious action. God requires order and system in His work now no less than in the day of Israel."

Let us all commit the above statement to life and so do. Now, brethren and sisters, let us consider the needs in the home field and in other lands and all be faithful in tithe paying, and in paying two per cent, and in offerings as we are able. When all do this there will be sufficient funds for gospel work and for conference expenses, such as furnishing tents, caring for the poor, etc.

Since the two per cent plan has been adopted, many churches do not contribute anything to the poor fund, and the majority do not as yet pay the two per cent. On account of this our poor fund is very low. This condition ought not so to be. Come, believers, one and all, let us wake up to the needs and help to supply them as we are able. This is life and salvation.

W. H. THURSTON.

The Children and Missions

We are told in "Testimonies on Sabbath-school Work" that "If they were encouraged to do so, the children would earn means to devote to benevolent purposes, and to the advancement of the cause of God, and their interest would be increased by the fact that they had invested something in these enterprises. Their small donations would be a material aid, and the children themselves would be far better, physically, mentally, and morally, for the effort they had made." Also that "Through their diligence and self-denial they would gain a valuable experience, which would help them in making a success of this life as well as in securing the life to come."

All who have thus encouraged and helped the dear children to start little missionary enterprises for earning money for the cause have found the foregoing statement to be true in every detail, and the only wonder is that so many of our Christian parents and others still fail to avail themselves of this important means of character-building for the children entrusted to their care and guidance. As a result of a special letter sent out last spring by the Sabbath-school department, at least one live missionary band was organized and in many cases children have endeavored to do something with gardens, chickens, etc. A few reports of this work may encourage others, both old and young, to greater effort.

A mother writes: "Our little children put in a small garden each, but we live so far from town and with no road as yet, except in the winter, that it is very difficult to get our garden produce out, and so the children only got to sell a few pumpkins, for which Lloyd received ten cents and Sarah fifteen cents. Alfred raised cucumbers and beans, but could not sell them this year. . . . Next year they will each have a hen to set. They want the two babies to have a hen apiece, promising that they will care for them." The two eldest children each have traps also with which they do quite well in the winter, and are planning to devote a part of their proceeds to missions. These children did not make a financial success of their first effort, but the undaunted courage with which they are laying new plans, shows something still better in the building of their characters.

A most enthusiastic mission band was formed of the Bethel Sabbath-school children, meeting faithfully each week until the close of the third quarter, and giving on September 27 before the entire school a most interesting and creditable little program. Their superintendent wrote, "Our Heavenly Father certainly blessed our little missionary band this summer, they all seem to work with such earnestness. . . . Their offerings through the summer amounted to $10.34, and last Sabbath (September 27) they put in the amount procured by their gardens and chickens. At the close of the program they all sang 'Hear the pennies dropping,' marched to the little boat with Korea printed on the side, and I wish you could have seen the joy on those dear little faces as they placed their earnings amounting to $24.16 (or $34.50 in all for the summer) on the boat." The superintendent well adds, "If the lambs of the flock can work and practice so much self-denial, we older ones ought to try to do our part."

Here at Grand Rapids we distributed tiny barrels at the beginning of the third quarter, to old and young, asking that they be filled for the thirteenth Sabbath offering. A good interest was taken in this, and many were the pennies and nickels that found their way into the barrels that would otherwise have been spent for candy and other things. Many of us older ones, too, found ways in which we could deny ourselves that Christ's ambassadors might be transported to distant fields of labor. When the contents of the barrels and some which was placed in the envelopes on that day were counted, over eighteen dollars was the amount, and our aim of $40 for the quarter was surpassed by $10.90. Our hearts are glad, and the children are sharing very largely in this joy. From one of our isolated homes comes an offering of one dollar, the gift of the young son who raised ducks and sold them, thus earning money for the Lord. May we put no stumbling blocks in the way of the loving-hearted children, but "suffer (or permit) them to come unto Me."

MARY HOWELL.

"No tears are shed that God does not notice."—"Steps to Christ."

Extracts from Good Letters

The following letter from an isolated sister breathes out so much of consecration to God's word and work that we print it almost entire: "Enclosed you will find money order for our tithe for the past four months. I will be more prompt after this and send it at the end of each month, if possible.

"Thanks for your kind words of encouragement. Yes, the Lord surely knows how gladly we would give more to missions if we had it. Our only income is the milk we sell from one cow, the eggs from less than fifty hens, and a small garden. But the Lord has wonderfully blessed us in the abundance of eggs, and we could sell all for the money which has enabled us to get the money for the tithe. I praise His blessed name for all His benefits and want to be sure to pay an honest tithe anyway, and offerings too when it is possible. I hope to have something for that before long.

"We are seven miles from any one of like precious faith, but praise the Lord, He is not far from every one of us. We have the good old Review and Herald, and gain much strength and courage from that. It does our hearts good to hear of His mighty works in all lands and of souls rejoicing in the love of the truth. How our hearts are knit together by it. Black or white, it is all the same sweet love for each other."

Another sends us an order for fifty of the special Ingathering Review, and assures us of his appreciation of missionary letters sent him from the office, and of his prayers for all God's people. He writes, "We should work all we can and be glad that we have such an opportunity to work for the Master, and be as the wise virgins going forth to meet the Bridegroom. It is no time to slumber and sleep, but to be awake and pray and work, that we may rejoice at His coming."

TRACT SOCIETY.

Bethel Academy Items

Miss Lydia Rose of Arcadia, arrived last week to take up school work.

The Young People's Missionary Volunteers elected new officers last Sabbath for the coming six months.

Examination week has just passed its joyful hours.

Mr. F. Passer is in Bethel for a few days visiting his daughter who is attending the academy.

The Bethel church held its regular quarterly business meeting last Saturday evening.

The yield of potatoes per acre is the greatest we have ever had, one plot averaging over two hundred fifteen bushels per acre. Over 535 bushels have been dug and stored. Part of these will be sold later.

Mrs. A. D. Thornton has been spending the last few days at the academy visiting her son and daughter. She resides at Anson.

Elder W. H. Thurston is in Bethel for a few days. He spoke at the church Sabbath morning on the Harvest Ingathering campaign.

The canning of apples and tomatoes is still going on.

A car load of coal has arrived and been hauled to the academy.

Elder J. C. Mickelson and wife have returned to their home in Florida.

Conference Notes

Brother A. A. Livingston from North Sidney, Nova Scotia, who, with his wife, is now on his way to Southern California, has been stopping at the conference home, No. 48 Sacramento Boul., Chicago, for several days. Brother and Sister Sheffield were also at the home over Sabbath.

Camp-Meeting

This is not a coming camp-meeting notice, but to say what a good step was taken at our last camp-meeting. All present voted to take up the plan of paying two per cent of their earnings (aside from the tithes) to carry on the conference work—tent and camp-meeting fund, school work in the academy, and other work where the tithe can not be used. We are glad to note the increase. Why not all join in this good work and make it a complete success. Why not? Can you name a better plan than the Bible plan? Try the Lord's plan the remainder of the year and see if you are not blessed.

Do You Read the "Signs"?

Then you noticed the plan to begin November 11 of having a course of lessons on present truth to run six months. "While the day lasts." Now is the time to take a club of the Signs for six months at least. Winter is coming and the people read more during the long evenings. God can use you to save souls if you place yourself in His providence. Take a club of ten Signs for six months and do missionary work with them. The Signs has brought thousands into the truth. Clubs of ten or more cost only one dollar a month, six months six dollars. Five copies per month fifty cents, six months three dollars.

Three in One

The Harvest Ingathering work is under good headway. Good, encouraging letters are coming in from the mission offerings. How are you doing? Splendid weather to work now! This work is doing more good than we realize at first thought. It is a real "three in one" work. You see it is a great help to us in learning to approach the people, and it helps us in spiritual blessings, it blesses the one who reads the paper and lends his money to the Lord, and it helps to send the message to the far-away lands where they are less favored than we are!

Mason-Dixon Line

Next Sabbath is the day on which all our people remember the 8,000,000 colored people in the South Land. Soon the last Emancipation Proclamation shall have been given—from death and the grave, from sin, and from all bondage in this world. Let us be liberal in this offering, October 25. "Thou shalt be recompensed in the resurrection of the just." Luke 14:14.

Ministerial Institute Nov. 11-17, 1913

Are you coming? It will be an important gathering. Good help from abroad is promised and the Lord promises to be with those who gather in His name to study His word. We are sure it will be a real spiritual feast. Brother H. E. Moon with other help will be there with a good supply of our books. He will give all help on their new church books and conduct studies for librarian, clerk, and others.

The new church in Aurora will be a very central place, and you will want to see the house for which Brother and Sister Covert and others have worked so faithfully. It surely meets a great need in Aurora. The church is located on the corner of Plum and Iowa Street on the West Side. Arrangements will be made to serve meals in the basement of the church, five meals for a dollar. As soon as plans for lodging are completed, announcement will be made in the HERALD. If those planning to come will write to our conference office, 3645 Ogden Ave., Chicago, it will help us to know how many to plan for. G. E. LANGDON.

Swedish Work in Chicago

We thank the Lord because the work among the Swedish people has been making some progress this summer. The interest both in the church and outside is good, and has resulted in additions to the church.

We pitched our tent in a Swedish settlement on North Clark Street and Berwyn Avenue. The attendance and interest were good from the first. Since we took down our tent five have been baptized and six have joined the church. One man who left his family in Sweden and came to America to work, became interested in the truth. He asked for some literature to send to his wife, which we were glad to give him. She wrote back that she rejoiced to read the truth sent her. This man has now decided to keep the Sabbath and go back to Sweden to live the truth together with his wife. Thus we see how God will watch over His word and water the seed sown. Several others are planning to join the church.

In the vicinity where we had the tent, six Swedish churches have joined in an evangelical campaign. While this is going on, I am doing house-to-house work—visiting and holding Bible readings. As soon as the campaign is over, I shall begin meetings in a hall in the same neighborhood, but a few blocks west.

We ask the HERALD family to remember the work here when they send their petitions to the Throne of grace.

ADOLPH JOHNSON.

News Items

So many orders have been received for the Home Workers' Prospectus that it has been impossible to keep all supplied. We hope to send out those already ordered in a few days.

Sister Devereaux sent in a report for the Home Workers' books that is encouraging. In eleven hours she sold fourteen books, amounting to $8.45 in value. Her report shows that she sold eight different kinds of books. This is a feature that will appeal to the people—the privilege of a choice of books.

We trust that all who have their prospectuses will lose no time in seeing their neighbors with these good books. These are harvest days.

Word received from Brother Chas. Andrews indicates that he may be in the colporteur field this winter. We are sure that all will welcome him to this good work.

J. A. APPLIGATE.

News Notes

Elder Wm. Covert spoke at both the Englewood and Central churches last Sabbath.

We learn that Elder Wm. Lewsadder and family have returned to their home at Rockford after having spent several weeks at Wellman, Ia., on account of the illness and death of Sister Lewsadder's father.

We learn through a newspaper clipping that the city of Pontiac has vested authority in the Ministers' Association of that city to grant permits to solicitors of all kinds. This will eventually have some effect upon the work of the members of our church there in the Harvest Ingathering campaign. We are looking forward with interest to the result of their effort to overcome this obstacle.

We are glad to report that 10,275 copies of the Harvest Ingathering Review have been ordered from our publishers thus far. Our record last year was 11,615 copies, the year previous 16,140 copies. We hope that our record this year will exceed that of any previous year. However, this will mean that every one who is able should take hold of this work vigorously. We hope to receive some good reports from our churches and individuals.

Tri-City Sanitarium News Items

Brother H. S. Merchant, of Darien Center, New York, has been spending a number of weeks at the sanitarium. He has made a marked improvement since being here. Brother Merchant has spent considerable time of late years in Bible and colporteur work.

Elder William Lewsadder and family spent last Sabbath and Sunday at the sanitarium.

Sister Emma Doomes of La Rose has been spending a few weeks at the sanitarium and is recovering from an operation.

Sister Applegate and son, Paul of Chicago, and Sister Rees of Peoria are among the recent arrivals at the sanitarium.

Brother Jacob Arnold, of Aledo, returned to his home after spending about three weeks at the sanitarium where he underwent an operation.

Mrs. Albert Santee, of Virginia, Ill., spent two weeks at the sanitarium where she underwent an operation. She will visit Elder Santee's family before returning home.

Brother G. I. Watt, who has been connected with the sanitarium for nearly two years and a half, has removed to Rockford with his family. He expects to establish treatment-rooms in that city.

Elder L. D. Santee, who has been acting as chaplain of the sanitarium for the past four years, has decided to go to California early in November on account of Sister Santee's health. They plan to be gone at least a year.

The members of the new class are: Runa Walbert, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Laura Shippy, Ottawa, Ill.; Trella Sellers, Indianapolis, Ind.; Martha Loewen, Hitchcock, Okla.; Jaunita Arthur, Chicago, Ill.; Jesse Austin, Bethel, Wis.; and Charles Cable, Fredonia, New York.

The sanitarium has acquired by purchase an adjoining residence property which will be used as a nurses' dormitory. Heretofore it has been necessary to rent rooms at various places in which to accommodate the nurses. The house has thirteen rooms and can be arranged to house all the nurses connected with the institution. This supplies a long-felt need.

FOUND.—A lady's black jacket at Ottawa camp-meeting. Owner should apply to the Illinois Tract Society, 3645 Ogden Ave., Chicago.

COOKING OIL.—We carry in stock Wesson's Snowdrift Oil in quart cans at 30 cents and gallon cans at $1. We solicit orders for 5-gallon cans at $4.25. We also carry a supply of health foods. Send for price list. Illinois Tract Society, 3546 Ogden Ave., Chicago.

Harvest Ingathering

We are already beginning to see results from the use of the Harvest Ingathering Review. Up to October 3 we had orders for 8,115 copies. This is but eight hundred fifty-five less than we used during 1912. Before the work closes we shall have used 10,000 copies and our aim of $2,500 for missions should all be in.

A sister in the Jefferson church, who thought she could not do anything, was finally induced to take twenty papers. October 11, she handed in $5 that she had received for nineteen of these papers. A sister in Oxford has gathered about $8. Others are to be heard from who have done even better than these.

What report have you to offer? If you have not ordered papers, do so at once and help lift in this good work.

To the end of September we have paid to missions $6,724.57. This is a fraction less than one-half the amount we hope to raise during 1913. If each member will do a faithful part our missionaries will not suffer from want or neglect.

WM. GUTHRIE.

Jottings from the Field

The interest still continues at Hanover where Elder D. P. Wood is holding meetings. Two meetings will be held there each week for a time at least. Sunday, October 12, the Sabbath question was considered, and some expressed themselves as believing the word preached.

The tent is still up and meetings are being conducted at Detroit. A good interest is manifested by the people and already some have accepted the truth. Elders Wheeler and Nicola expect to hold meetings in the tent till October 26, if the weather will permit.

I visited the tent companies at Breckenridge and Sumner, October 4 and 5. The brethren are of good courage and expect fruits for their labor. They expect to close the tent effort October 12.

At Sumner, there is a fine interest and some are already rejoicing in the love of the truth. They expect to keep this tent up until the 19th, at least.

Sabbath, October 11, I spoke at Jefferson in the forenoon, and at Adrian in the afternoon. A good spirit was manifested in each church and we believe the Lord has rich blessings in store for them.

Brother H. H. Hicks is now at Memphis holding a short series of meetings. We trust his stay there may be strengthening to our dear brethren, and that some may be added.

Quarterly meeting will be held at Adrian Sabbath, October 25, at the close of the Sabbath-school. Elder A. F. French will meet with the church.

WM. GUTHRIE.

Tract Society Items

We fill no more orders for the LAKE UNION HERALD at twenty-five cents; it costs fifty cents now. We received over three hundred subscriptions at the twenty-five cent rate.

We will send you a letter next week in regard to the World's Temperance Day, November 2. I trust you will read this and proceed to agitate the question in your church. Order a goodly number of the Temperance Instructor to be used, not only on that day, but put them in the hands of school superintendents, Sunday-school superintendents, and pastors. One brother in Indiana went to the local school superintendent and sold him six hundred of the Temperance Instructor. What can you do? It is a wonderful opportunity afforded you.

We had the largest report from our canvassers last week that we have had for a long time. The battle is surely on for the winter.

Tract orders come in every day. One brother says, "Send us more tracts. We are on the firing line and need more ammunition."

Some of our church secretaries are sending in orders as often as three times a week. Surely the work is living up. We would rather die working, than for lack of exercise, so let the good orders come. One secretary says about every three or four days, "Another rush of orders." Mistakes at the office are getting less in number; no time to make them; but we have time to fill the good orders for books, tracts, and periodicals, filled with gems of truth.

Do you want the book, "Practical Guide to Health"? If so, send us $1.85 and we will send you one, bound in cloth postpaid. We have more than one hundred of them. More next time.

E. I. BEEBE.

Sandusky

Sabbath, September 27, was a good day for the Sandusky company, as quarterly services were held on that day. Elder M. Shepard, of Holly, was present and took charge of the meeting, assisted by Brother Vannest of Crosswell. Nearly all the members were present, and the Lord was with us to give us a blessing. Sunday morning a sister was baptized.

CHAS. W. CADOW.

Marlette

We are glad to report to our friends that we now have an organized Sabbath-school here. The first day enrolled only a few, but the occasion was enjoyed by all present.

We ask your prayers that this service may be of practical benefit to some who are looking for light.

MABEL RICHARDSON.

Adelphian Academy Notes

The enrollment in the academic department is now eighty-two, and the attendance is the largest in the history of the school.

The following students enrolled last week: Miss Verna Bird of Walled Lake, Messrs. Charles and Harvey Glidden of Beaverton, and Miss Lois White of Ithaca.

An electric motor was recently purchased for pumping water. The motor will only be used when there is not enough wind to run the windmill.

The basement of the barn is being changed to accommodate the additional cows being added to the dairy herd. Among the changes being made are, cement floors, new stanchions, mangers, etc.

Considerable interest is being shown in the new sewing department. The class in trade dressmaking is growing, and a class in drafting was organized recently. A drill class is also conducted weekly.

COOKING OIL.— The Adelphian Academy is now handling through its retail store, the cooking oil, ripe olive, and health food business formerly handled by the tract society. We are shipping Wesson's Snowdrift Oil in four can shipments to any point within 300 miles of Chicago at $4.25 per can, freight prepaid. In shipments of one can only the price is $4.25 per five-gallon can, f. o. b. Holly. Address orders to Adelphian Mercantile Co., Holly, Michigan.

Conference News

The conference committee met in Petoskey, October 14, when they planned the work for the fall and winter.

A recent letter from Brother Bjork reports a very successful delivery. Our faithful brother has now returned home after a very strenuous summer's work, in which God richly blessed his labors, and enabled him to place many books on the message in the homes of his countrymen.

Miss Crouch recently returned from a trip among the church-schools, during which she visited the schools at Onaway, Omer, and Whittemore. Her last call was at Gaylord, where she assisted Mrs. Harrington in opening a new church-school.

We have mailed five home workers' prospectuses since the last camp-meeting. We look to see a valuable work accomplished in reaching many homes in North Michigan with our literature. All can join in the good work. Many who can not give their whole time to canvassing can put in a few hours each week in visiting the people and taking orders for these books. Write for particulars and discounts.

Orders are pouring in each day for the Harvest Ingathering Review. The reports being received from the field indicate a very successful effort this year. Our isolated brethren are also entering the field to carry the message where there are no churches. Now that the mission treasury is empty, every consecrated worker for God may help in this needy time in the Ingathering. Let all send their orders.

Elder Bellows recently reported a good visit at Ishpeming, Marquett, and Riverside. From each of these places large orders were sent in for Ingathering papers, and Brother Bellows reported a good interest.

While in Petoskey, Elder Guild stated that the interest in Traverse City continues good and the work is prospering. The brethren are endeavoring to raise their full quota for missions and are in a fair way of succeeding. Several will be ready for the ordinance of baptism at this place in a short time.

Brother Williams is touring the churches in the south part of this conference with Brother Blosser. They hope to revive the home missionary work, and to secure workers with the magazines and forty per cent books.

Sisters Peterson and McDonald are accomplishing a successful work at the Soo with our magazines. They are disposing of several hundred of these truth-filled periodicals.

The church-schools are taking an active part in the Ingathering campaign. At Harris, Miss Emily Crouch, the teacher, is leading one-half the children in the field, and Brother Hannon is accompanying the others. The children enjoy the experiences and it is an excellent training for service. Several other schools have ordered papers and will doubtless report their experiences for the HERALD.

Our Sabbath-schools should order the little pocket help on the lessons for each member. It is the text of the book of Romans, and can be carried in one's pocket. It will be on great assistance in meditating of the great apostle's instruction. Only five cents each.

A supply of new tithe and offering envelopes will be mailed to each church in a few days. We believe that if used faithfully it would result in the increase of funds for the cause of God.

S. E. KELLMAN.

Notes Here and There

Some time ago I left the Soo, where we have located for the winter, to visit some of the churches and companies and isolated believers in the Upper Peninsula.

Ishpeming was the first stop, where we had one meeting to encourage the few Sabbath-keepers. They always appreciate a visit from others of like faith.

Journeying on I went to L'Anse to counsel with our Indian brethren in regard to the work. Several visits were made and two meetings held, but as some of the brethren were absent from home, it was thought best to return again in a week or so.

The Wilson church was next visited, after spending an evening at Escanabe with Brother and Sister Hatten, in talking over the message and its progress. At the Wilson church an election was held in addition to a business meeting and other meetings. One meeting was held at the home of a Catholic family who seem ready to accept the truth. Some of the church-members have held Bible readings at the home of this family and worked up an interest in the message. Elder Bellows and Brother Hannon have also held meetings at this home. There are honest souls among the Catholics, and we should be diligent to give them the message in a judicious way. Many of our friends and neighbors can be won for Christ by prayerful, careful labor. Let every church-member rally to doing something for their friends and neighbors. The Harvest Ingathering papers had already been ordered by the Wilson church, and we shall look for good results from the campaign there.

Resuming the journey north, a few days were spent at the copper country. Here we found the copper miners' strike had the country in its grasp, and business men were complaining of poor business; but the King's business is not interrupted, as different members have been out soliciting for funds for missions with the Ingathering papers and were successful in their efforts. More papers were ordered and the campaign is just begun. So we see industrial disturbances paralyze the world's commerce, but God's work moves on triumphantly in spite of these things. One little boy was asked by the person he was soliciting for funds, how much to pay, and he answered, "As much as you think you owe the Lord." We can learn lessons from the children.

An election was held for the Hancock church, and the following elected and ordained: R. W. Coon, elder; Nealie Gross, deacon. A full corps of officers were also elected to other positions.

Returning to L'Anse, further plans were made for the work there. Papers had been ordered for the Harvest Ingathering campaign, though not as many as we should like to have seen. The brethren here hope to erect a church building this fall. Some money has been raised to help our Indian brethren, and we hope to see them soon have a house of worship.

We are now in the midst of our Ingathering Campaign at the Soo, and hope to secure a goodly sum for missions. Let our motto be, "All at, and always at it," and soon the work will be done.

E. F. PETERSON.
