Gladstone

After the good camp meeting at Gladstone which was reported in last week's paper, it was decided to hold the tent there to see what the interest would be. I was privileged to be with the brethren for one week and enjoyed the work very much. The weather was unfavorable during that week as it was cold, and rainy part of the time. Notwithstanding this a fair attendance from the town came out. There were practically the same faces each night. Some are already getting deeply stirred over the fact that they are not keeping the Sabbath and are turning over in their minds what they are to do about serving the Lord.

Brother S. C. Hannon, who has been with us for some time, will work for the French exclusively. Elder Roth is working with him. The work with them seems to go slow, but they find individuals who are interested.

I am sure the prayers of God's people will ascend for these companies at Gladstone, that success may attend all their efforts.

In the Lower Peninsula we have a tent at Gladwin. Brethren Fenner and Piper are in charge of this work. I earnestly hope and pray that a good strong company may be raised up there.

Joliet

Thinking that all the readers of the HERALD will be interested in hearing how we are progressing here in raising money to pay for our little church, that we all believe the Lord in His providence has given us, I will tell you a little about it.

We have in our church book the names of thirty-two members, but some of them are not here, and some that are here do not have an income to help very much in paying for the church, so it leaves the matter with the few to carry.

It seemed like quite an undertaking for us to buy a church, but we were paying out money every month for a hall, and then did not have a desirable location, so after reading what the Lord has spoken on this subject in Volume VI, pages 100, 101, and then consulting the president of our conference, we launched out by faith, and the Lord blessed in the raising of over $400 in less than three days.

We get a suitable little church, in a very good location, among a good class of people, for $1,600, and on easy terms. We paid $400 down, and are to pay $200 a year, with interest at six percent.

We desire to paint the church this fall, and as we have to make another payment in September, we will need to raise at least $200. Now if there are those who could help us (Read the testimony referred to above, Volume VI, pages 100, 101, and you will see the Lord says that the brethren in other churches should help the small churches in paying for their church) we shall greatly appreciate any amount that you can send us. The business men have helped to the amount of more than $160, and though times are very dull here just now, some of them tell me to call on them later in the season and they will gladly help us. I enjoy soliciting the business men for help for it gives an opportunity to tell them about our work.

I trust that this may not be passed by with little thought by our dear brethren and sisters, but that the Lord may put it into your hearts to read the testimony referred to, and help us by sending a liberal donation; and remember Joliet in your prayers.

In the two years, or a little less that we have been here, we have had baptism three times, and there are some now that will soon go forward in this rite.

J. C. HARRIS

Are They First?

We of the Princeton church were made sad Jan. 1, 1914, to find ourselves some twenty-five dollars short of raising our quota for foreign missions, and resolved, one and all, to do our very best toward warding off any reason for experiencing such feelings of remorse Jan. 1, 1915. So the church treasurer drew with pencil a thermometer on a sheet of card-board large enough to be seen by all in attendance, which would register as many degrees as our quota of dollars for the year. The names of the members of our Sabbath school were written on small cards and fastened with ribbon on the large card-board, forming a row on each side of the thermometer.

Each Sabbath the superintendent appointed some one to bring a text on giving, and after it had been read and discussed freely by the school, the text was written on the card under the name of the one who gave it. This little part of the program created and kept up a good interest in giving.

The treasurer of the church caused the mercury to rise by blackening with pencil as many degrees and fractions thereof as dollars and cents had come into her hands during the week, for foreign missions.

Last Sabbath, June 20, the thermometer burst and sixty-four cents was found to be in the hands of the treasurer which could not be registered. Some of us laughed and some cried and all rejoiced as we saw and realized what the Lord had done in enabling us to pay our entire quota for the year in less than six months. We have resolved to make our next task that of paying out for last year.

We wonder if we are not the first church in Northern Illinois, if not in the Union, to reach the goal. This report is written that you who read may rejoice with us, and also that seeing our good works you may glorify our Father in heaven by following our example.

News Items

Elder Langdon is holding Sunday night meetings in the Englewood Mission Hall, with good attendance.

Brother Will Harris recently joined our corps of faithful canvassers. He is located at Rockford with Brother Nixon.

Elders Voth and Fisher, German; and Johnson and Vicander, Swedish, pitched their tents in Chicago last week and began meetings Sunday night.

Elders Hubbard and Lewis pitched their tent in Batavia last Thursday. They have a lot on the main street, one block from the center of the city.

Brother H. P. Waldo, who will join Elder Bernstein in tent evangelistic work in Chicago this summer, is now in the city looking up a site for meetings.

Last Sabbath Elder Langdon preached at the Humboldt Park Danish-Norwegian church in the forenoon and at the West Side English in the afternoon.

Brother A. E. Johnson and wife of Lawrence, Kansas, have come to Chicago to take charge of the Swedish Mission and Sanitarium treatment rooms, 213 Oak Street. His wife is a graduate nurse from College View (Nebr.) Sanitarium.

Elder W. D. Ford is meeting with success in the field gathering offerings to start the colored church in Chicago. It will be an adjunct to the church as a missionary enterprise. We want all our brethren to have a part in this good work.

One of our large tents was pitched on the grounds at the Hinsdale Sanitarium early this week. A series of very interesting meetings is now being conducted in this tent. They began with the graduating exercises of the nurses' class Wednesday evening.

Elder L. H. Christian, president of the Lake Union Conference, stopped over a few hours at the conference office last Sunday to meet the building committee of the new Danish-Norwegian church building at Humbolt Park. They have sold the old church to the Salvation Army.

A mission fund clock was sent to each of our churches. This clock is to be placed in a conspicuous place in the church where all the members may see how the church stands on its mission offerings. We hope this will be the means of arousing our people to the needs of the work in the needy fields abroad.

Elder Langdon visited Batavia last Wednesday in search of grounds for camp meeting, September 3-13. If suitable grounds can be found, and other necessary arrangements made, the camp meeting will be held at Batavia, thirty-five miles west of Chicago on the inter-urban line, Chicago Northwestern C. B. and Q. railroads.

Six of the Hinsdale Junior Volunteers recently sold fifty copies of the Temperance Little Friend in about two hours. They were under the guidance and direction of one of their leaders, but the juniors made all the sales. They were indeed a joyful and happy band after such an accomplishment. Who will be the next to try it?

Our tithe receipts for the first five months of the present year amounted to $13,924.46, an increase of $3,149.48 over the receipts for the same period of the previous year. There was also an increase of $1,531.32 in mission fund offerings for the same period. We are very grateful for this evidence of the Lord's help and blessing in our work.

A Good Report

For some time we have been having special interest in the West-Side church in Indianapolis. Seven have been added to the church, five by baptism, two had been baptized. Seven others are keeping the Sabbath and will unite with the church soon; five of these are very zealous, and (all are adults of one family) have special Bible studies every day led by the husband and father.

God has been blessing our work in this church. We are busy, happy and thankful.

Dillsboro

When on May 7 I arrived at my appointed field of labor, Dillsboro, I found that on account of the funeral of a prominent citizen I would be unable to begin meetings for two days. During the delay I procured the Ent's schoolhouse, and on the night of the 10th held my first meeting.

The farmers had been delayed in their work by unfavorable weather and so they were busy early and late, which made our attendance rather small, but the Lord added His blessing.

After three weeks I closed to engage in a tent effort. Three took their stand for the truth, two being young men of promise.

I ask for the prayers of all for the work in this place.

Sabbath School Convention

A Sabbath school convention was held at South Bend, Indiana, on Sabbath, June 13. The first session followed the Sabbath school, closing at noon. After an intermission for lunch, a small company gathered at three o'clock to continue the consideration of subjects which are of deep interest to all Sabbath school workers.

Several interesting and helpful papers were presented upon such subjects as the duties of officers and teachers in the Sabbath school, how to increase and maintain the attendance, the Thirteenth Sabbath Offering, importance of home influence, personal work and consecration services.

A question box was an important feature of the program.

Mrs. C. N. Sanders, the secretary of the Sabbath school department of the Indiana Conference, was in attendance, and rendered valuable assistance.

If all the good instruction given at this time is put into practice our school will be greatly benefited by the convention.

Words of Courage

Miss Irene Prissnall, who is working with "Coming King" in Indianapolis, in sending in her first report, writes, "How glad I am for such a profitable way in which to spend the summer. The people seem anxious to hear about Christ's soon coming."

Brother J. C. Klose, when sending in his report amounting to $181 for fifty hours spent in the field last week, wrote, "Wednesday I took fifteen orders from twenty houses. Thursday I placed six books in five homes. At six places I took double orders where neighbors were visiting. Friday I canvassed a lady on her front porch and after taking her order I heard a voice from upstairs where a lady had been looking through a screen at my book, unobserved by me. She said, 'I heard the whole of your canvass, place my order for a half-morocco binding.'"

Brethren Cooper and Carver, who are located at Auburn are sending in some excellent reports. They relate some interesting experiences.

The workers at Rochester, Brethren Peters and Vance, write that they are enjoying their work and feel that the Lord is directing there.

This comes from Brother H. Butler: "Have just finished another week of toil in the Master's vineyard, in which He blessed me much."

Brother Rex Coble reports two recruits ready to start from Anderson. Brother Paul Ford writes that he met an isolated Sabbath-keeping family who had accepted the truth thirty years ago, and ever since they have been praying that some Seventh-day Adventist would visit them. What a grand reunion will take place in the courts of heaven!

Good news comes from Terre Haute. Brother Walter Bergherm writes: "I have had some fine experiences in the work the past week. I placed books in the hands of four ministers. With one young minister I had prayer that the Lord would bless my efforts. His cooperation was solicited in behalf of others."

News Notes

Elder Bristol was recently called to Louisville, Ky., on business. He reports a pleasant visit with Elder S. E. Wight.

Brother and Sister Lauda were in the office last week. They report a good interest and attendance at their meetings in Greenfield. The people are especially interested in the cooking school which is being conducted.

You will notice by the canvassers' reports that the Lord is surely blessing this branch of the work. Our report last week nearly reached the $1,000 mark; we received one report amounting to $181 as one week's sales.

Elder Bristol was in Logansport last week in the interest of the camp meeting. It is time for us to make the necessary preparations to attend, and we trust that all will make a special effort to be there. Remember the place and date, Logansport, August 6-16.

Brother G. W. Rader visited us last week, and reports good success in the meetings at Jasonville. The attendance is good, and he feels there are a number who will take their stand for the truth.

Colporteur Gleanings

We now have thirty colporteurs in the field and the prospects are good for at least three more soon.

It will be refreshing to those of our veteran colporteurs, who are personally acquainted with Brother J. R. Howard, to learn that he will soon be on the battle field again with the new "Bible Readings."

Brother Wall informs us that during the last ten days he has secured orders amounting to $206.

Brother Ray Logan writes us that during the four weeks he has been canvassing, he has secured his scholarship with "Coming King." Brother Logan is only fourteen years of age and to my knowledge is the first one to secure a scholarship with "Coming King" in this conference. May his future efforts result in as much good.

Our sales for last week were nearly $1,000. We expect much larger sales after these rains.

Owing to the extremely dry weather at Belleville it was thought best to relocate Misses Hein and Henke at Peoria. They will make their home with Brother and Sister Dillon. As far as I know each colporteur is endeavoring to put in forty hours every week. Pray that none may break the ranks by failing to get in full time.

As far as we can ascertain Brother Stibbs of Danville carries the record for "Coming King." He writes that he is the right man in the right place.

Alton

We had difficulty in finding a location for our tent, and when we did finally secure one it was sold before we could get settled; but we believe the Lord had a purpose in it, for then we were able to secure another for one-fourth the price and in just as good a location, but we would not have been able to secure the last one day sooner.

We began our meetings June 7 with a small attendance, which increased to a fair attendance by the end of the first week, and now the outlook is encouraging.

There are several awaiting baptism here as the result of a series of meetings held last winter in East Alton by Brethern Ferris and Williams.

We solicit your prayers that God may give us fruit for our labor here.

The Grand Rapids church enjoyed a pleasant outing at Manhattan Beach June 25.

Elder W. A. Westworth attended the Wisconsin camp meeting and Professor Lamson occupied the pulpit at the Tabernacle in his absence.

We are sure that the readers of the HERALD will enjoy Brother VanFossen's letter to the office so we are sending it in full. [The letter will be published next week.] Our colporteurs sold nearly one thousand dollars' worth of literature in May.

For canvassers credentials: G. H. Mc Clenathan, F. E. Nurnburger, E. V. Sykes, G. W. Brickey, R. A. Holman, Floyd Meyers, Mrs. Lee S. Wheeler.

The Committee on Plans brought in the following resolutions which were adopted by the conference:

Whereas during the past year the loving favor of our Heavenly Father has been over our conference, making possible a large increase in our tithe and a goodly addition to our church membership; therefore,—

1. Resolved, That we as delegates of the East Michigan Conference hereby express our sincere thanks to God for His blessings, and loyally pledge ourselves to unite, both conference laborers and lay members, in one continuous campaign to carry the message to the world until the work of God shall close in triumph.

Believing that the hour has come when our people must devote themselves most earnestly to "the finishing of the work," and desiring that every Seventh-day Adventist in the East Michigan Conference shall take an active part in getting the third angel's message before the people of this conference, we recommend the following:

2. That a special missionary campaign, beginning with Oct. 1, 1914 and continuing until the following spring, be definitely planned for by all our people.

(a) That each church be organized into missionary bands with suitable department leaders.

(b) That those bands carry forward cottage meetings, Bible studies, medical missionary work, missionary correspondence, the selling and lending of our small books, and the distribution of tracts, pamphlets, periodicals and magazines, and all other lines of missionary endeavor.

(c) That we encourage every church member to engage daily in definite prayer for the salvation of some particular person or persons for whom the Lord may give a special burden.

(d) That during the Sabbath services of the coming year we unite in prayer, beseeching the Lord's blessing upon the communities in which we live, praying that the Lord may lead souls to Himself,—and also for our ministry, that there may be a large ingathering of souls.

3. That the Union and local conference executive committees unite their efforts in effecting the organization of our churches into missionary bands, and to give definite instruction regarding field work.

(a) By carrying on a vigorous correspondence, keeping before the churches the importance and possibilities of this home missionary work.

(b) By soliciting large clubs of the campaign number of the Signs of the Times, endeavoring to reach the goal of not less than an average of two copies of the paper for each church member.

(c) By encouraging the church to order in time so that a good supply of literature may be on hand for this work.

(d) That monthly donations be taken from now until the campaign closes, in order that ample funds may be in hand to pay for the missionary literature.

4. That in addition to the use of the mails, we organize our churches for effective house-to-house work, territory being assigned to individuals as in the book work.

5. That in conferences where there are a large number of foreign-speaking people, and our foreign papers can be used to advantage, we recommend they be distributed, and that the publishers be urged to prepare these papers with special reference to this campaign, filling these periodicals with live matter dealing with the vital principles of Christianity and the great fundamental doctrines of the third angel's message.

That this conference place a strong organizer and leader in charge of this Missionary Campaign, devoting all his time, and that all conference officers and laborers unite their endeavors to make this campaign a great success.

Whereas the Harvest Ingathering campaign has proved a great blessing in acquainting the people with this world-wide message, and at the same time supplying means with which to continue and enlarge the work; therefore,—

6. Be it resolved, (a) That we raise in this conference this year, through this medium alone, an amount equal to $5 per capita.

(b) We recommend, That all our conference Workers spend one week or its equivalent in actual field work in the Harvest Ingathering before Jan. 1, 1915.

Whereas the Review and Herald, our church paper, has been a great factor in keeping our people abreast of this world-wide movement, and whereas the LAKE UNION HERALD is accessible to every family in the conference and furnishes interesting items, calculated to inspire confidence and beget faith; therefore,—

7. Be it resolved, That we urge all our people to supply themselves with these two most excellent spiritual helps and faith builders.

Whereas we have been instructed that, "As a church, as individuals, if we would stand clear in the judgment, we must make more liberal efforts for the training of our young people that they may be better fitted for the various branches of the work committed to our hands."

8. We most earnestly urge upon our members the importance of training of our children for God, by establishing and supporting church schools where there are children to form a school; by filling Adelpian Academy to its capacity and by seeking to influence those who have finished the work at Holly to continue their education at Emmanuel Missionary College and by encouraging other persons of proper age and qualifications to attend such college.

9. We urge upon our school boards the importance of the closest cooperation with the conference educational department in the selection of teachers, and that no teacher be elected who does not hold some form of certification.

10. We recommend, (a) That all our primary teachers and prospective teachers be urged to avail themselves of the privileges of the summer school, and,

(b) That a teachers' institute be held annually at some convenient time and place in this conference, the traveling expense of sending the teacher being borne by the conference, and the churches employing such teachers be asked to continue their salary during the time of the institute.

Whereas the results already seen in the increased efficiency of our teaching force are largely attributable to the work of the normal department of Emmanuel Missionary College; therefore,—

11. We recommend, That our laborers in all departments unite heartily in urging young people of ability to avail themselves of the advantages offered by the normal department in the training of teachers. And we request the board of managers of the normal department to give more attention to the practical things required by teachers.

12. We recommend, That all our churches observe the two educational Sabbaths appointed each year by the North American department of education.

In view of the importance of our church schools maintaining a high standard spiritually and the position the teachers hold in influencing the children in their charge,

13. We recommend, That great care be taken in selecting teachers, special consideration being given to the spirituality of the one selected for the school.

14. Resolved, That we recognize as a standard of scholarship for our church school teachers at least a twelfth grade education, and that we earnestly endeavor to provide teachers for all our schools who measure up to this standard; and further, that we hold the completion of at least the advanced normal course as an adequate preparation for our church school teachers.

15. Amending Article 7, Sec. 2 as follows:

The executive committee shall consist of seven persons of whom the president shall be one and whenever practicable the departments herein mentioned shall be represented on the executive committee.

Recognizing the need of more thoroughly learned Sabbath school lessons,

16. We recommend, That Sabbath school officers and teachers strive to get each member of their schools, of understanding age, to reach the goal of daily study of the Sabbath school lesson.

Since the ultimate aim of the Sabbath school is to win souls to Christ,

17. Resolved, That we pray, study and work to meet this God-given responsibility by

- (a) Consecration services,
- (b) Class meetings,
- (c) Personal work.

Whereas fifteen cents a week per member is our Sabbath school financial goal, and in view of the great need of our mission fields,

18. Resolved, That we as delegates pledge ourselves to do all in our power to bring our Sabbath schools up to the mark.

Whereas the Missionary Volunteer work has brought splendid returns in proportion to the efforts put forth; therefore,—

19. Resolved, That we urge all our conference laborers and church elders to acquaint themselves with the plans outlined for young people's work and that they endeavor to secure a more general observance of Missionary Volunteer Day.

Whereas the Spirit of God has said much regarding the importance of qualifying ourselves for service in the Sabbath school field; therefore,—

20. We recommend, That all Sabbath school officers and teachers and all others interested take the Training Course prescribed by the General S. S. Department.

21. Resolved, That we reaffirm our pledge made one year ago to assist our Colored church in Detroit in erecting a house of worship.

(Concluded next week.)

College

Extracts from Student Letters

H. B. LUNDQUIST.—Somehow the College Debt weighs very heavily on my mind, and more so since reading Elder Wilcox's editorial in the Review of June 11. I am praying,—publicly and privately,—writing, talking, and hoping for something definite on the College Debt. I have dedicated the next week which goes above $100 to E. M. C. Pray that it may be a good one. Tonight I wrote a benevolent hearted brother in — for a lift. May get something.

JOHN KLOSE.—I was especially blessed the past week. I started out with "Bible Readings" in a German settlement and took orders amounting to $181. This is the best I have ever done. I believe every one of these orders is as good as gold. From past experience I have found that an order from a German farmer is almost invariably as good as his word. This is a characteristic quality of this nationality. My little knowledge of German helped me very much this week.

I have a sister nearly seventeen and if I am able to secure an extra scholarship she will come along with me to Berrien. I had some interesting experiences. The hearts of the most hardened sinners seemed to melt, and one lady broke down weeping as I told her of the promise to the overcomer and of the home over there. Friday was my best day. I secured $49 worth of orders.

JOSEPH NIXON.—When I was at Berrien I did not promise that I would give one week's work toward the College Debt, but since I began work I promised the Lord I would give the second week's work to the school. My sales that week were $39.60. I wondered if I could get back to school and still work one week for the College. Then I decided that the Lord would help me get back if it was His will and I would leave it to Him. I know He will help me for He has promised to do so.

LOREN SHEPARD.—Up to June 19 I have taken orders for $630 worth of books. One night last week I had to ride six miles to get a place to stay over night, and then six miles back to my territory in the morning. That day I took $52 dollars worth of orders, and at the end of the week I had orders for $185.50 worth of books.

The people seem hungering for the truth and I am thankful that I may have a part in giving this last message to the world.

Mrs. Lou Kirby Curtis - - - - Editor

The E. M. C. notes in the HERALD are very much appreciated, and always read with interest. My aim was $1,000 worth of orders for the summer, but I have changed it to as many orders as possible for the summer.

HAZEL M. MURRAY.—I enjoy the work more each day and my burden for sin-sick souls increases. The fields truly are ripe but the laborers are few.

Talk about reunion on September 16. I should say there will be! I'm getting homesick for E. M. C. The hard work will come first though. I surely will appreciate next year at the College.

ARBELLA JAMES.—One day last week I got into a Hungarian district where no English was spoken. Of course I could not do much there and had to put my prospectus in my bag and go on. Now when I meet Germans, and they think they can get rid of me by telling me that they can't understand English, I surprise them by speaking to them in their own language, and then they find that they have a different problem to handle.

Last Thursday I did the best I have ever done. I worked but five hours that day and took $10 worth of orders. The Lord surely blessed me more than I deserved.

I met a lady on the porch and asked to show her my book. She said, "Well, you can show it to me if you care to take the time, but I won't buy anything." I gave her my canvass and she soon became deeply interested and ordered one after all. Thus it pays to take time to show the book. I have had this happen several times.

F. ENOS PARISH.—I think that every Seventh-day Adventist, whether he is "cut out for a canvasser" or not, should spend a week now and then canvassing just for the experience and to observe the trend of present day thought, and then drop some seed by the way. My best week was $26.25, and I will give the commission of that week to E. M. C.

JOHN WORREL.—The report of my roommate, Milo Sawvell, in the HERALD did me so much good. This week has been a precious week to me. I took an order from a German Catholic for a "Daniel and Revelation" in German, then traveled half a mile and took an order from a new convert from the revivals. When I showed this convert the man's order he rejoiced and said he had been praying for him. This man also purchased a book. I give a few Bible readings on our faith, but time is too short to do justice to this work, so I take names and shall send literature.

THEO ROBINSON.—The Lord surely has been good to me since entering the canvassing field. I have already had experiences that I could not get in any other way; experiences that money could not buy. Now and then I meet with a whole-hearted Christian,—one who reads his Bible, and I can assure you that it is with no small degree of relish that I talk with him about the matters which involve eternity. These experiences strengthen me and help me to meet the evil one's oppositions.

I am indeed sorry that my first week's work did not net more than $7.50 for the College Debt. I feel as though it was a mere speck as compared to what some of the workers have been able to do; but I am sure the Lord will bless even the smallest contributions.

ROY SWARTOUT.—I had given up canvassing after being out a few days. You told me success came in taking the work up again at the place of failure. Well, I have done this. I know that it was the Lord's will. I have submitted and God is certainly paying me a hundredfold. My sales, though my territory has been well canvassed by our books, have amounted to $49.10 for thirty-nine and a half hours' work. Praise His Holy name.

LAWRENCE JORGENSON.—I am sure of being able to bring two new students to E. M. C. I have earned a first-class scholarship in fifteen days and am working on the second one.

MINA M. DAVIS.—Every bit of news concerning the canvassers, the College Debt and E. M. C. only makes my determination stronger to do my part. Mine doesn't seem quite as large as some, and not nearly as large as I wish it were, but I still believe there is a scholarship hidden away in the honest hearts and purses of Kalamazoo. My part is to hunt for it as for a hidden treasure.

I shall look for some news in regard to the College Debt and the attitude of the Board soon, as the calendar testifies that it is time for them to have met. I believe I have some better weeks coming, and I am saving them to apply on the College Debt. My faith in the movement is growing.

Professor Graf spent Sabbath and Sunday at the East Michigan camp meeting. He reports a very enthusiastic meeting with former students and prospective students. Those who led out in the singing of the "Free from Debt" song were Fred Anderson, Howard Wilcox, Howard Nicola, Milo Sawvell, Chester Truitt, Cecil Fowler, Floyd Meyers, Charles Marsh, Frank Harrison, Grace Martin, Clora Keiser, Esther Frank, Mae Marsh.
