Resolve

To keep my health!
To do my work!
To live!
To see to it I grow, and gain and give!
Never to look behind me for an hour!
To wait in weakness, and to walk in power;
But always fronting onward toward the light,
Always and always facing toward the right.
Robbed, starved, defeated, fallen wide astray—
On, with what strength I have,
Back to the way!

An Important Letter

"ELMSHAVEN," SANITARIUM, CALIF.
February 19, 1915

EDITOR LAKE UNION HERALD:

A serious accident befell Mother, Sabbath noon, February 13. As she was passing through the door into her large writing-room, she tripped and fell. May Walling, her nurse, was near and endeavored to help Mother to her feet, but found that her left leg was injured. An X-ray examination at the sanitarium revealed a fracture of the femur.

During the last year, Mother's general health has been as good as could be expected of one eighty-six years of age. She has often said that at no other time in her life has she been so free from physical suffering, as during the last two or three years. While gradually showing more and more the feebleness of old age, she has freely walked up and down stairs without assistance, and has enjoyed her customary carriage ride every pleasant day.

It was about five years ago that she discontinued her constant writing of letters and articles for the paper. The last camp meeting she attended was the one held in Oakland July 6-16, 1911. Since then she has spoken a few times at the St. Helena Sanitarium chapel and at Pacific Union College; also a few times at Loma Linda and at the St. Helena church. As she gave up public speaking, her mind was more wholly directed to the work in her office, where her writings of former years were being gathered into form for publication.

Until July, 1914, she spent much time reading the Review and Herald and the Signs of the Times, and in studying her manuscripts and planning for their publication. Then, as a result of a complication of difficulties, she gave up steady reading, and has preferred much of the time since to have us read to her.

When I went to the General Conference Council last October, I thought to return quickly, but was detained till my absence covered sixteen weeks. During these weeks, I received many cheering messages from Brother C. C. Crisler about Mother's health and courage. December 2, 1914, he wrote:

"Today Sister White became reminiscent, which of late is rather out of the ordinary. She tried to recall the name of some brother of the long ago who expressed discouragement over the prospect of the very large work that would need to be done before the world had been warned; and she said that another brother, and of large faith, turned to him, his face white with emotion, and said: 'My brother, would you permit such a prospect to bring discouragement? Do you not know that God would have us press the battle to the gate? Do you not know He would have us labor on, and on, and on, knowing that victory lies ahead?'"

"Sister White says she feels continually the uplifting presence of the Spirit of God. She says she would not speak discouragingly, and yet she would not wish to convey the impression that no disappointments have come to her. The enemy will bring us disappointments, but these need never bring discouragement. When disappointed, we are to labor on until triumph comes; and this is working by faith."

His next letter contained the following:

"Sister White says that during the night season she hears voices, saying 'Advance! Advance! Advance! Press the battle to the gate!'"

"She seems to apply this to the completion of the work of the Lord in all parts of the earth; also to the completion of important book work. She rejoices that you are able to make real progress in your efforts to advance the book work in the South, by perfecting that which has been nearly ready for some time.

"I believe the Lord would have us all take courage, and press forward steadily."

Since the accident, Mother's bed has been placed in her writing-room, where she is surrounded by her familiar furniture and books.

Sara McEnterfer, who most of the time for thirty years was her traveling companion and secretary, is with her; and so is May Walling, who was brought up in her home, and who has been her faithful nurse for about two years. Mrs. Hungerford, a trained nurse from the sanitarium, is also with her.

Twenty-four hours after the accident, Dr. Klingerman said: "We find Sister White's condition very satisfactory this morning. The usual symptoms of shock are entirely absent, and we feel that no complications will intervene to retard progress." Thursday afternoon, he said: "Sister White's condition continues to be satisfactory in every respect."

Mother often expresses thankfulness that her sufferings are no greater. And this morning, in speaking with Sister Minnie Hawkins Crisler regarding the goodness of the Lord, she said: "I see light in His light. I have joy in His joy and peace in His peace. I see mercy in His mercy, and love in His love."

Power for Service

"Take time to be holy, speak oft with thy Lord.

Abide in Him always, and feed on His word,
Make friends of God's children, help those who are weak,

Forgetting in nothing His blessing to seek."

These beautiful lines appeal to the innermost soul of every child of God. Why is it that we do not take more time in these directions? In the prosecution of the work of the third angel's message, a message demanding perfection of character on the part of every adherent, a message that must reach every nation, kindred, tongue and people, and according to Revelation 13, stand alone, or even worse, stand against the opposition of all the allied forces of evil, the heralds must receive power from on high.

This power is promised; it awaits our demand and reception. "If all were willing, all would be filled with the Spirit of God. Wherever the need of the Holy Spirit is a matter little thought of, there is seen spiritual drought, declension, and death. Wherever minor matters occupy the attention, the divine power which is necessary for the growth and prosperity of the church, and which would bring all other blessings in its train, is lacking, though offered in infinite plenitude. Since this is the means by which we are to receive power why do we not hunger and thirst for the gift of the Spirit? The Lord is more willing to give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him than parents are to give good gifts to their children."—Acts of the Apostles, page 60.

If we would have the rich treasures of heaven, we must have secret communion with God. Unless we do this, our souls will be as destitute of the Holy Spirit as were the hills of Gilboa of dew and rain. See "Testimonies for the Church," Vol. VII, page 251. "To every one who offers himself to the Lord for service, withholding nothing, is given power for the attainment of measureless results. The Lord God is bound by an eternal pledge to supply power and grace to every one who is sanctified through obedience to the truth."—Testimonies for the Church, Vol. VII, page 50.

The above quotations are in perfect harmony with the great commission. See Matt. 28:18-20. "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you, and ye shall be witnesses unto Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth." Acts 1:8. "Ask and it shall be given you." Matt. 7:7. With such rich and precious promises it must be apparent to all that any lack of power in our lives is due entirely to our own attitude.

The great God is searching for just such agencies. He wants to fill us with His blessed, soul-saving, sanctifying Spirit and send us forth as instruments of divine power. We surely have reached the time in this earth's history when this experience must be enjoyed by the remnant church—by every one expecting to hear from the lips of the Saviour the welcome words, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Early Observations—No. 14

Our Second Camp Meeting

We held our second Indiana camp meeting in September 1871. The location was six miles South of Kokomo in a country place by the Russiaville roadside. We had no canvas pitched except the old sixty foot Michigan field tent in which the meetings were held. Twelve cheap lumber shacks were erected in the grove by the same number of families who camped on the ground. These were equipped with double-decked sleeping apartments and so the campers were made fairly comfortable.

The one hundred persons on the ground brought provisions from their homes, and Brother Charles Edwards had a small grocery connected with his lodging. This was the earliest business recorded in the history of Indiana camp meetings. While pitching this camp I cut my first center pole for the big tent. Being untaught in that kind of work I was instructed by Elder E. B. Lane to cut and bring in a pole sixty feet long and eight inches in diameter at the top. After a long hunt I found a splendid tree of the measure given. We loaded it with each end on the uncoupled parts of a wagon and drew it into camp. But when we learned the facts about the height needed, we sawed the pole in the middle and managed to use the small end of it by reducing the size to fit the guy ropes and pulleys. We answered some questions relating to this huge pole, but have never cut another like it. For seating, we sawed blocks of stove wood length and stood them on end in the big tent, and placed on them the lumber from my barn floor, which I drew from my farm four miles away. Thus equipped, we were ready to begin our second camp meeting. Elder J. H. Waggoner, assisted by Elder Elbert Lane was present to conduct the services which lasted six days. The camp was a pleasant one and the attendance from the vicinity good. The preaching was excellent, and much good was done. The sermons of Elder Waggoner were profound with logic and deep thought. They were drawn for the most part from the book of Romans and treated upon the subject of justification by faith in Christ.

Elder Lane's preaching was warm and very tender. He was always reaching after the hearts of his hearers to draw them to the Redeemer, and he never labored in vain. His soul was stirred within him, and so were the people stirred that sat before him.

In those early times the purpose was to have every unconverted person camping on the ground come to Christ before leaving for home. This kind of labor bore much fruit, and many have pointed back to these meetings as the time and place where their feet first touched upon the Rock of Ages. Long lives the memory, and bright shines the light of these old-time camp fires.

Goals for 1915

Some of our conferences experienced the joy, the exhilaration, of sweeping away beyond their goals in every particular. Some lacked a little in reaching the financial goal. Others passed the mark sufficiently to make up this deficit.

The message moves forward. We must keep pace. New lands must be possessed, wider areas cultivated. This calls for deeper consecration; more prayers, more men, more means.

The North American Division Conference Missionary Volunteer Department has placed the goals for the Lake Union Conference as follows: 342 young people converted, 171 Standard of Attainment Certificates, 342 to read the Bible through, 513 Reading Course Certificates, $6,427.50 for missions, or $2.50 per member.

It will be noted that the per capita amount called for is the same as last year, $2.50 per member, or five cents per week. Remember, all of this counts on the twenty-cents-a-week for missions. The aggregate called for in this Union is $6,427.50 instead of $4,000 as last year. This means an increase of more than fifty per cent in our Missionary Volunteer membership in one year. All this is encouraging, so let not the largeness of the items called for stagger us. Some were staggered by the Anakims and were so dismayed that they forgot the God who was able to deliver them, and beat a hasty retreat into the wilderness where they fell out by the way. But Caleb said: "We are abundantly able to go up and possess the land." Let us all be Calebs, and say, We can do it, and by the help of God we will.

The goals set for 1914 and the actual results obtained through the prospering hand of God, are here given as an incentive to faithfulness and loyalty. These items were gleaned from the report of one of the conferences in this Union.

Goal set by Gen'l Dep't	Mark actually reached
Souls won	18 86
Standard of Attainment	6 14
Reading Course Certificate	12 42
For Missions	$300 $786.12

All money intended to apply on our M. V. goal should be so reported on the Individual Report blank, and should be made clear to the church treasurer when turned over to him by the society treasurer that it is to be credited to M. V. Missions. That is the way this account is entered upon the books of the Union Conference treasurer. All special pledges made to foreign missions by the young people as well as regular society mission offerings, and money collected in the Harvest Ingathering campaign can be applied on this goal. This is in harmony with word just received from the General Department.

Northern Illinois and Indiana are to support definite lines of work in Africa, while the young people of the other conferences are to carry on work in India.

Plans have been devised and are being put into operation looking toward the attainment of each of the definite goals for the various conferences in the Lake Union.

Where Are the Laborers?

All of our people are interested in the progress of the Lord's work and the laborers. Every few days letters come to the office asking where is this or that worker. This always reminds us of the duty laborers owe our people of reporting once a month, at least, to the LAKE UNION HERALD. If it is not more than a paragraph or two, it keeps the members in touch with the different workers and their efforts to reach souls. Brethren, report often.

G. E. LANGDON

Princeton

The writer just closed a ten days' meeting at Princeton and is greatly encouraged to be able to report that one backslider has been reclaimed, another person joined the church by letter, and four more were added by confession and baptism. The work carried on here by Sisters A. Hibben and J. Phillips and the church members is progressing.

A good interest was manifested throughout the meetings; outsiders were interested, and the brethren and sisters greatly encouraged. Pray for this little church.

Convention at Fox River Academy

Sabbath and Sunday, February 13 and 14, were devoted to the study of the Sabbath school and young people's work. Professor Russell, Elders Peterson and Burdick, Miss Gladys Seely, and Miss Edith Shepard presented the goals set by these departments. Many of the students joined the Sabbath school teacher's training course. Our Missionary Volunteers purpose to reach the goals set. They had a good record for last year but expect to make it better this year.

The work reported so far this year is: letters written, 133; letters received, 28; subscriptions taken for periodicals, 12; papers sold, 142; papers mailed, lent, or given away, 769; books sold, 47; books lent or given away, 15; tracts sold, 30; tracts lent or given away, 717; hours of Christian help work, 23; articles of clothing given away, 12; number of meals provided, 2; treatments given, 3; signers to temperance pledge, 23; Morning Watch calendars given away, 4; offerings to home missions, $4.75; offerings to foreign missions, $114.45; missionary visits (personal work), 9.

In addition to this the students have subscribed for over 650 Review Specials No. 1 and No. 2, 100 Free Press Specials, and 40 of "The World's Crisis." Saturday evening Elder Peterson gave an impressive study on the Eastern Question. Sunday evening Professor Russell spoke on current events. By special invitation of the students a number of neighbors were present. Professor Russell remained Monday to visit the classes. We certainly enjoy the visits of the conference workers and hope that others will also come to see us. Pray for the success of our school. REID S. SHEPARD

Fox River Academy News Notes

Two new students, the Misses Weible, have entered the school.

Miss McWilliams was visited over the Sabbath by her sisters.

The students expect to spend a day in the near future selling the Temperance Instructor.

Eleven students are now busily engaged in the book-keeping class.

A number of new books have been bought for the library. Any of our friends who have books they would like to give the school, please write to us about it.

Brother A. N. Anderson visited the school last week. He prepared a statement of the standing of the school for the school board, which meets here February 22.

With the help of every student now in the school and the support of every loyal Seventh-day Adventist in Illinois we hope to see our school filled to its capacity next year.

Adelphian Academy Notes

Professor J. G. Lamson was a visitor at the academy last Wednesday. He addressed the school at the chapel hour.

Elder D. P. Wood of Jackson spent a recent Friday and Sabbath at the academy. As there are thirteen students from Jackson in the academy his visit was appreciated.

Mrs. Mary A. Hoag, matron of the East Hall at Battle Creek Sanitarium, was a recent visitor at the academy. Her granddaughter is in school here.

Since the old well no longer furnishes sufficient water for the school, the board authorized the drilling of a new one of much larger capacity.

Six new chemical fire extinguishers have been ordered and will soon be added to our fire-fighting equipment.

The Adelphian Academy board held its annual meeting from February 17 to 19. In addition to the regular members, Elder Christian was in attendance.

He led out in the Friday evening vesper services and spoke to the church Sabbath morning.

Mr. Loys Kader, who is canvassing at Otter Lake, was a recent visitor at the academy.

Mr. John S. DeCamp of Flint recently visited his sister at the academy.

Mr. Norman Alkire of Bear Lake, Mich., was with us a few days last week. His brother Ralph has been a student here for the past two years.

Notice

The Present Truth Series which commenced in January has proved to be a wonderful help in entering the homes, and we wonder if it is not possible for every family in our conference to use at least fifteen copies of each issue. You can secure fifteen copies for ten cents, or one hundred copies for fifty cents, and better still one thousand copies for four dollars. If you have not received the leaflet describing the series, please write at once, and we shall be glad to send you one. F. H. JOHNSON

Report

I came to Grand Rapids a week ago Friday to attend a missionary rally. Sabbath, February 13, we had an excellent meeting.

I began my house-to-house work Sunday, February 14, and continued to visit until Sabbath, the 20th, when we had another soul-stirring missionary meeting which resulted in the giving of from $150 to $200 for tracts to scatter in this large city of 125,000 inhabitants. Brethren, pray for those in Grand Rapids, as the burden is heavy and the responsibility is great.

My house-to-house canvass has resulted in many good visits, the encouragement of some in more aggressive missionary lines, finding those who are sick, and praying for them; also the increasing of the Signs club by many copies, and the sale of many dollars' worth of our good soul-inspiring books.

As I looked over the great congregation of Sabbath keepers yesterday and saw only one here and there that I had visited, I thought what a mighty army for the Lord, and what can be accomplished, if all sensed what it means for the fortifications to be thrown down on the Dardanelles, and Constantinople to be soon taken from the hands of the Turkish power. To me it means the end, the standing up of Michael, and before that time my name called in judgment. What does it mean to you, dear brethren and sisters? Are you ready? Have you laid aside every weight, and the sin that doth so easily beset you, and are you running with patience the race that is set before you, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of your faith? I trust you will answer this question by increasing orders for literature, and working faithfully in distributing it among your neighbors both near and far.

Volumes one to nine of the Testimonies are filled with just the encouragement we need in this hour of trial. If you do not have them or if you lack any of the volumes, send for them, and let us study them faithfully.

Standard of Attainment Examination

The first week in March is the time for the Standard of Attainment examination. Be sure to let the M. V. secretary know how many copies of the examination questions will be needed at your church. Do not fail to give every one who is ready an opportunity to write on this examination.

Alden

This was one of the first churches organized in this conference and has been favored with the labors of many of our pioneer ministers. Elder G. I. Butler spent one summer at this place.

Last Sabbath and Sunday I had the privilege of being with them and meeting Elder R. C. Horton again. He had started meetings a few days before and there seems to be an interest. It was decided to continue the work and I will be with him for a week or two. It is indeed a privilege to be associated with Elder Horton again in labor. Nearly my first experience in the ministerial work was with him and I appreciate his counsel and help very much.

One very interesting thing in connection with the Alden church is that they are planning for their mission offerings for the year. They have decided to raise twelve cents a week per member in the Sabbath school, and with the other offerings during the year they will undoubtedly make their full apportionment. The members are actively engaged in missionary work among their neighbors and we hope and pray for good results.

J. J. IRWIN

News Notes

The new book, "The World's Crisis," is meeting with a grand reception. One brother, who said he could not sell gold dollars for fifty cents, sold five books in a few minutes. This is a bright 128-page book, filled from cover to cover with present truth. Nicely illustrated and sells readily at twenty-five cents; $1.40 will bring ten copies to your home postpaid. Try ten to begin with.

Elder Webster on his return to Mt Pleasant commenced a series of meetings in the country, and reports a very enthusiastic company of sixty, anxious to study the Word. Pray for the success of the work.

Brother Fenner is holding regular meetings with the Onaway church. He reports a good interest, and hopes to gather some for the Master's service.

We have just received a supply of the new extra Present Truth Series No. 3. The subject is "The Great Image of Daniel 2." These extras are the finest thing for home missionary work. Every one should invest a little in these good papers. Orders will be filled promptly from the office.

S. E. KELLMAN

Important Notice

Our annual colporteurs' institute will be held at Mesick, Mich., March 5-14. The church will entertain those who come planning to enter the work. Those who have prospectuses should bring them. Let us come praying that this may be the best institute that we have every attended.

Dear reader, if you feel the call of the Lord to this branch of the work, and have not previously planned to attend this meeting begin to do so at once. Let us each plan to be there for the first meeting at 7:30 P. M. Friday, March 5. Preaching services will be held each evening.

B. F. WILLIAMS

Young People's Work

The readers of the HERALD will be interested to know that the young people in North Michigan are working toward the M. V. goals for 1915. Our membership has been increased. We are glad for this, and we readily understand that this will raise our apportionment.

Goals for 1915

Twenty-eight young people converted, 14 Standard of Attainment members, 28 to read the Bible through, 42 Reading Course members, $2.50 per member for missions.

We are gratified with the number who are reading the Bible through. Several are planning to write on the Standard of Attainment in March. The members of one society meet one evening each week to study and review for the examination. We are glad to see the eagerness of our young people for the study of God's word.

Let me hear from others, old or young, who may be desirous of writing on one or both of the subjects—Bible doctrines and denominational history.

News Notes

Elder Bristol has been on the sick list for the past week and for this reason has been unable to fill several of his appointments.

The tract society has shipped over 800 of the new Temperance Instructor this week, and orders are being received daily for this excellent paper. The 1915 Instructor is the best ever published and we want all of our churches to use a number of them.

Baptismal services were conducted at Maxwell last Sunday, and ten new members were added to the church there. Brother H. M. Kelley and wife have been laboring in that vicinity the past few months.

Elders Sander and Young were called to Winchester

Tuesday to pray for the recovery of Mrs. T. C. Achor. Sister Achor has been ill for some time and if it is God's will we hope she will soon be restored to health.

Over 27,000 Protestant Extras have been sent out from this office since the campaign began.

We are having some new tract lists printed and plan to send several copies to every family in the conference. When you receive yours we trust you will return it promptly ordering a good supply of tracts for home missionary work.

Elder Lauda reports that a number are deeply interested in the truth, and asks for the prayers of our people for the work at Connersville.

A deep interest is being manifested in the meetings at the Union church of Indianapolis. A number have taken their stand for the truth. Services are held Sunday and Wednesday evenings.

Elder Bristol conducted the funeral services of Sister Samuel Wells at Shelbyville Sabbath. Sister Wells passed away very suddenly of heart failure.

We are receiving a number of orders for the March numbers of the Signs Monthly and, Watchman. These are both excellent issues and good sellers.

Appreciation of Beechwood

Seeing the great need of trained workers in the cause of God, I sought a school in which I might prepare for service. My attention was called to Beechwood by several loyal students who had been in attendance here, and I resolved to come as soon as the way should open.

I have never regretted a single day spent here. I love the school as a school. I love the stately old beech trees scattered over our campus, and I find that living close to nature brings one close to God. Most of all I appreciate the Christian teachers who take a personal interest in each student.

I feel thankful for the privilege of having spent the past two years in this school. I have not been disappointed in Beechwood for my purpose in coming here is being realized.

IRENE PRESNALL

What Beechwood Has Done for Me

Beechwood Academy is a school planted by God to educate the young people of Indiana. Satan has threatened its existence, but I am thankful that it is still in operation. Before I came to Beechwood I had no desire to become a Christian worker. I came here as a result of hearing many appealing talks at the Hartford City camp meeting. I now realize my need of an education to fit me for the Master's work.

My first choice of work was that of a musician, but I have now decided on other work that will place me in direct contact with the people and permit me to carry the Saviour to the suffering.

Beechwood is a good place to be. My purpose in life has been changed in this school. I hope many young people will plan to come here.

CHARITY LEGG

Beechwood Academy News Notes

Miss Margaret Smith has been spending a few days with her sister Thelma.

Mrs. von Pohle was visited by a South Lancaster classmate, Miss Cherry, who is nursing in Indianapolis.

Lillian Gibson's brother Thomas visited her recently.

Charity Legg was called home Sunday to attend the funeral of her grandfather.

Last Wednesday night our students went to Boggstown to hear Elder Tindall speak. Thursday he visited the school and talked to us about the necessity of linking consecration with education. His earnest appeal to surrender all to God was an inspiration to those who heard him.

To the "Herald"

I see my subscription has expired. I enclose a dollar that I may not have to miss any of your pleasant weekly visits. I enjoy reading in your columns about the various churches and seeing the progress they are making. The encouraging reports give the less fortunate new hope in fighting the battles that come each day.

There is no reason why we should not see great things done in Wisconsin. When we are awakened there will be some real victories to report, and I trust that Janesville will be one of the places heard from. We are few in number but are of good cheer and know that God will reward us for our labors.

News Items

We are just in receipt of the "Hygienic Cook Book" recently compiled by Jacob Arnbrecht. We have looked the book through and think it is certainly very good. Brother Arnbrecht's Wisconsin friends will no doubt be surprised to learn that he is now at the Nebraska Sanitarium, College View, Nebr., where some weeks ago he underwent an operation. He would be glad to hear from friends here, also to receive orders for this book.

The following letter was received today from Brother Jones of Lodi: "I received your letter containing the petition blanks for the Sunday legislation Bill No. 61, A. I secured sixty-nine signatures, which constitutes nearly the whole business section. I am personally acquainted with our Assemblyman, he resides here, and had an opportunity to talk with him, also to hand him the petition."

These blanks were sent to all our churches and the greater share of the isolated ones and we are thankful for the faithful work they are accomplishing with them.

Union Herald, Berrien Springs, Michigan.Approved advertisements will be published in the HERALD at the following rates: Forty words or less, fifty cents for each insertion, and one cent per word for each additional word. Each group of initials or figures counts as one word. Cash must accompany copy for all advertisements.

Mrs. Lou Kirby Curtis - - - - - Editor

Elder Robert W. Leach, formerly of this Union, writing from Sherman, Texas, says, "With pleasure I renew my subscription for another year. Each number is like a letter from home. We enjoy our work in Texas."

"World's Crisis"

This book on the present situation certainly has a phenomenal start. In a very short time our three publishing houses have sold nearly 60,000 copies and are now running large editions to supply the demand.

It is modern in every particular. Its popular style two-color card board cover, pictures a Turkish cavalry. Its nine interesting chapters are beautifully illustrated with appropriate engravings. It is written in an interesting narrative style. Its subjects are handled briefly but completely and cover prophetic history relative to the Eastern Question, Armageddon, the Second Coming of Christ, etc. These are all handled in such a way as to allay prejudice. It is about to be translated and published in German and Spanish.

It is a handy size, having only 127 pages. Last, and of great importance, its price is only 25 cents. Special discount is allowed on orders of 25 or more plus the postage. Help place 100,000 of these little books in this Union this summer. Ask your tract society for territory.

Year Book

The 1915 Year Book is now ready, containing, in addition to the statistics and directories of the denomination and its institutions, a general survey of the world wide field and the work done during 1914. As our work enlarges year by year, the Year Book naturally increases in value and importance, as well as in size. The present issue contains over 300 pages. It will be a help to all our people, especially those taking the Standard of Attainment, and is a necessity to every minister and worker. The price is 50 cents postpaid. Order of your Tract Society.

Courage!

Feeling that perhaps our friends in the Lake Union are wondering just what has been done for the College debt, we have gathered a few statistics which we believe will be an encouragement to you. God is answering our prayers. We are still praying and we are confident that He has many and even richer blessings in store for us.

Our interest in this institution which God has planted in the Lake Union has reacted upon us in a special way. Our school in turn is doing more for us this year than ever before. There is a more active spirit of service here this year.

Let us thank God together and take courage.

Of the student pledges 69 still remain unpaid. If these do as well as those who have already paid in, it will add $797.64 to the College debt total.

Of the summer school pledges 31 still remain unpaid, with as good an average as the first eight have, it will mean $143.22 more.

If all our friends in the Lake Union will keep pace with those who have already responded, we can soon stop publishing College Debt Items.

To Think About!

Would it not be fitting to make every Monday morning a time to pray at every family altar or school worship, for the "rolling away of every reproach" in the Lake Union Conference, and throughout our work.

The Spirit that Prompted the Pledges of Students

These are copies of pledges made last year: "One week's work for E. M. C.," "To give an equivalent of one week's work and a good word," "Proceeds of my best week's work in the canvassing field." "One-half month's salary." "First week's work this summer." "I pledge one week's work, a good word, and no criticisms for E. M. C. this summer." "I will give the proceeds from one-fourth acre of potatoes this summer and if it is not equal to a week's work, I will make it up."

This same spirit still lives in the hearts of students and teachers at E. M. C.
