down the work. Some of these are being paid from the Sustentation Fund. We are grateful for the plan by which these pioneers and veterans are paid a weekly wage. But these faithful servants and children of God need not money only, but our sympathy, kind words, and prayers. Their hearts are filled with holy zeal for the cause of God, even though their strength does not permit them to do much active work.

An Appeal for Old Ministers

Fanny Crosby, the blind poet who recently died, wrote a poem for retired ministers. In sending it in she said:

"Could I voice my inmost thoughts in words I am sure the appeal would touch every member of the church. I pray that what I have written will touch many." The following is the poem:

"There is a work of love and duty
That devolves upon us all.
There is a tender, pleading message
And its tones like music fall:
Help our weary veteran preachers,
Scatter roses o'er their way;
Rally round them, hasten quickly—
Not tomorrow, but today.

"From the well of deep affection
Now their hearts with gladness fill.
Do not wait their names to honor,
Till the pulse of life is still.
Break the box of alabaster,
Pour its oil upon them now,
Make their dwelling bright and happy,
Wreathe in smiles each furrowed brow.

"They have borne the royal standard
Of our Master and our Lord.
From the time of early manhood
They have preached His holy word.
But their strength has lost its vigor,
And their cheek its youthful glow;
For the frost of age has touched them,
And their locks are white as snow.

"Watchman on the walls of Zion
Though their feet no more will stand,
From the top of Pisgah's mountain
Faith beholds the promised land.
Soon triumphant like an army
Marching through the realms above,
They will shout the grand old story,
Robed in white and crowned with love.

In the Lake Union Conference we have quite a few ministers and other workers who because of ill health or old age have been compelled to lay

Early Observations—No. 19

A Long, Lonesome Walk, and a Successful Meeting

A third of a century has flown since I promised by letter to hold a certain series of meetings at Wolf Lake, Ind. Brother Charles Bartley had promised to meet me with team at South Whitley and carry me fifteen miles to the place of meeting. I arrived on schedule time, but that time was thirty minutes earlier than the previous schedule which Brother Bartley was using for his guide. When I got off the train, my conveyance had not arrived. I waited about the station fifteen or twenty minutes and yet no one came to carry me to Wolf Lake. It was getting late, so I thought best to start on the way and walk until I met Brother Bartley. My luggage including books, charts, and clothing was very heavy, and I made speed slowly over the bad roads, yet my anxiety to reach the place of meeting before the people dispersed quickened my pace when I lost hope of meeting conveyance. Night without a moon overtook me when the journey was in the middle. And as the way led through a big wood for a long distance where the mud was unusually soft on account of a March thaw, I wished more than ever that Brother Bartley had met me at the station. I was accustomed to the woods, to heavy loads, to long walks, and to bad roads; but that evening pull was probably the most trying that I ever experienced.

Well, it was not possible for me to reach Wolf Lake in time to conduct services that evening, but Brother J. S. Shrock, who had received word that I was to be there, came over from Ligonier to assist, and so he took charge of the services and had just pronounced the benediction when I got to the place. My first inquiry was about Brother Bartley, and friends were surprised to learn that he had not met me. But he returned to Wolf Lake from South Whitley nearly twenty-four hours after my arrival. He was in South Whitley resting and feeding his horses when my train arrived at 3 P. M., but the time table said that the train would be due at 3:30 P. M. When he went to the station on the day that I got there and did not find me, he concluded that I had missed connections, so he waited over thinking that he would meet me the next day. When he saw that I did not come on the second day, he drove home and was at meeting the second evening of the series.

Though we had a laborious time getting started, we enjoyed excellent meetings from the beginning. We continued for four weeks and much of the time we held two services each day. As a result fourteen converts asked for membership in the church, and ten of these were admitted by the ordinance of baptism. I have remembered with pleasure that series of meetings held at Wolf Lake thirty-three years ago. And some of those who sought and found the Lord then will no doubt soon find their mansion in the city of God. Some have finished their course long ago, and others are doing good work now.

When the meetings were closed and the time had come for me to go home, Brother Bartley proposed to carry me by team to meet the morning train at South Whitley. The distance from his farm home to the station was seventeen miles, and the train returning was due at 4 A. M. The distance and condition of the road made it necessary to start soon after midnight to be in time for the train.

Wanted!

Wanted—young men! Who wants them? The world. The professions are calling them. The railroad corporations are asking for them. The manufacturing industries are demanding them. Young men who are clean; who can be trusted; who will not mix with the street corner crowd nor loaf in the saloons. The world is demanding such young men to do its work. It is willing to pay the price. Are you willing to accept the price?

Many of our young people have heard the call of God and are responding. In the schools of the Lake Union Conference more than 2,100 are enrolled as students; 2,700 are members of our Missionary Volunteer Societies. Both of these items show a large increase over the figures of one year ago.

Everyone should act quickly. Only those who step lively now, will be in at the finish. Encourage the young people. Do more than talk courage,—act it. Prove that you believe the message. Give to these youth and children a Christian education. Let the church pull together. "The lambs of the flock must be fed." They are your lambs, if you belong to the church, either by birth or adoption. "Let all share the expense," and share in the reward.

Christian education and the Missionary Volunteer work has done much to safeguard and save our youth. The leak is being stopped. He who fails to give to this work his hearty support is either ignorant or disloyal. You cannot afford to be either.

It is hoped that Educational Day was observed in the Lake Union Conference. And now comes the Missionary Volunteer Day. It is Sabbath, May 1. Begin now to plan for it. Make it the most inspirational day of the year. Read what Professor Kern and Professor Benson have to say about it in the Review. Also note the May Gazette.

The program and readings will appear in the Review of April 22. Three general topics are to be considered, namely:

"The Responsibility of the Church for the Youth." G. B. Thompson.

"The Purpose of the Missionary Volunteer Movement." C. L. Benson.

"The Missionary Volunteer Goal." M. E. Kern.

The Missionary Volunteer lesson for May 1 will be prepared with reference to this special day, by Miss Ericksen.

Let the young people themselves bear a share of the responsibility in making this day's service both an inspiration and a benediction.

News Item

Some of our men are having excellent success. Week before last Brother Kittlesen took orders for "Bible Readings" amounting to $107, and at the same time Brother Stoneman (who is not only a new canvasser but a new convert to the faith, having been baptized during the institute recently at Baraboo), took orders for the same book amounting to $70.25. This, indeed, is encouraging and who can say that the people are not more ready right now to purchase our books than they have ever been before.

Wolf Lake

In response to a call through the conference office, the writer was present and participated in a temperance rally under the auspices of the various churches of Wolf Lake. Our people were at the head of this campaign and did valiant work for the temperance cause. The judge of the circuit court was on the program but because of serious sickness was unable to deliver an address. Other attorneys and ministers spoke at the morning, afternoon, and evening services. The whole affair was a glowing success.

The Wolf Lake church has been holding services in the various churches in the township and as a result they have worked up an interest by which the liquor forces have been defeated. Seventh-day Adventists are looked upon, in that neighborhood, as a people wielding a strong moral power, and prejudice against us has been broken down.

Beechwood Academy News Notes

We are glad to have Ruby Lecklider of Marion, a former student, with us for a few days.

Two of our students, Hazel and Lee Ester Strickler, have been called to mourn the death of their grandmother.

Brother Franklin made a short call at the academy last week in the interest of the canvassing work. He expects to be with us again soon.

Several of the students and teachers met with the Boggs town church Sabbath for the quarterly services.

We were sorry to have Merle Coppock and Pearl Hawkins called home recently by the death of Mr. Hawkins' little brother, Glen.

News Notes

Elders Bristol and Sanders, and Brother D. A. Bailey spent several days at the sanitarium last week on business.

A Sabbath school and missionary convention was held at Muncie, April 3. Mrs. C. N. Sanders, Miss Rasmusson, Elder Bristol, and Professor Russell were in attendance. They report an interesting meeting.

Miss Rasmusson is at the sanitarium, taking a much needed rest.

Elder Lauda was called to Monroe, Ind., last week, to conduct the funeral services of Brother Hawkin's son.

Brother C. C. King reports that he has completed one year of work in the canvassing field, and has taken orders for over $1,000 worth of "Daniel and Revelation."

The month of March was an exceptionally good one for our colporteurs. Over $2,000 worth of our books have been sold.

We were glad to have Brother J. L. McConaughey of the Southern Pub. Ass'n., in the conference a short time last week. Thursday evening, the 8th, he gave a stereopticon talk at the Indianapolis Sturm Ave. church, and left the next morning for Beechwood.

Several Beechwood students are planning on entering the canvassing work this summer, and it has been arranged that a canvassers' institute be held at the academy, April 25-29. This will be a splendid opportunity for any prospective canvasser to receive a short preparation for work. Correspond with the field agent and make arrangements to attend.

One brother writes: "My wife and I always gave twenty cents apiece each Sabbath while we were with our church, and we have mailed our Sabbath school offerings to them since we left." If all would do likewise, it would be a wonderful help to each church in reaching its mission quota.

Important

On account of some misunderstanding regarding the subscription rates to the Signs of the Times weekly, this statement of rates may be appreciated. Church missionary secretaries will please take notice:

Single copy, one year, $1.75; single copy, six months, 90 cents; single copy, three months, 50 cents; two or more copies to separate addresses, six months, each, 65 cents; one year, each, $1.25; two or more copies to one address, six months, each, 60 cents; one year, each, $1.20.

In order for churches to get the advantage of the club rates, all the papers for the church may be addressed to the librarian, and then distributed by her. To obtain the 60 cent rate, two copies at least must be ordered for one address. S. E. KELLMAN

Appointment

A Sabbath school convention is appointed for Vassar, including Otter Lake, Fairgrove, Reese, Arbela, Watrousville, and all isolated Sabbath-keepers who may be able to attend. The time is April 23-25.

Let us all come with a mind to help and give help.

It is expected that a minister will be present, also the conference Sabbath school secretary. A splendid time is anticipated, socially and spiritually.

"Protestant" Extra

"Rome and the War" is the title of a timely sixteen-page extra of the April Protestant Magazine. We have had several good campaign extras of our papers, dealing with the meaning of the war and its effect on the Turkish or Eastern Question. No less important is the influence of the war condition in Europe upon the healing of the deadly wound of the Papacy. We ought to distribute a million copies of "Rome and the War" in the United States. It is a very readable pamphlet,—just the thing to distribute among your neighbors. Price, $1 a hundred, $8 a thousand.

C. F. McVAGH

Shelby

Sabbath and Sunday, March 27 and 28, were days of rejoicing and special blessings for the Shelby and Rothbury churches and the brethren and sisters from Crystal Valley. Elders McVagh and Reefman being with us, were a source of great strength to all. We surely did appreciate the much needed help at this time. Following the Sabbath school we enjoyed a sermon by Elder Reefman, the ordinances of the Lord's house being celebrated in the afternoon. Elder McVagh gave us a very timely sermon the evening after the Sabbath. On Sunday we had three more sermons. A business meeting at which two deacons were ordained immediately followed the Sunday afternoon sermon. The Sunday evening service conducted by Elder McVagh was given considerable publicity and the church was nearly filled. Pray for us that our hope fail not and that we may remain steadfast unto the end.

MRS. A. R. HAYTON

News Notes

William Reefman filled the appointment at Holland Sunday night and spent a little time calling in Holland and Zeeland.

Elder E. I. Beebe passed through Grand Rapids early in the week on his way to Berrien Springs. The Lord is greatly blessing him in his work among the churches.

Grover Boody has closed a good delivery in Kent County, and after counseling with Brother Van Fossen, has taken Calhoun County for his next field of labor.

We are glad to report Mrs. Mae Boody making a good recovery from a surgical operation.

Married at the home of the bride's parents in Holland, Mich., March 31, 1915, Forrest Schoonard and Agnes Bylsma. They will reside in Battle Creek.

Three persons were baptized at Fremont, Sabbath, April 3, and another one desires baptism soon. The Christian church very kindly permitted us to use their church and baptistry for the day. The Fremont and Holton churches enjoyed a blessed union meeting, celebrating the ordinances of the Lord's house. Laborers present were Elders McVagh and Reefman.

Elder L. H. Christian was a welcome visitor at the office last week. He had planned a more extended visit in West Michigan, but was called home by a message telling of the serious illness of his aged father.

Elders Anderson and Garrett have closed their meetings at Glenwood after a very fruitful effort, and have begun meetings at Berrien Center. The outlook is encouraging.

Elder McVagh desires to secure a file of the Review and Herald from 1860 to 1870. Any one having them and willing to part with them will please address him at the Conference Office, 1214 Madison Avenue, Grand Rapids, Mich. He also wishes to get Josiah Litch's expositions of prophecy, Volume 2.

The Dearborn Street Church

The message is now making greater progress among the colored people of Chicago than at any previous time. Until last year, our membership consisted almost entirely of women, but since then eight men have been added—two by letter and six by baptism.

On Sabbath, April 3, the church was packed. Three soundly converted men were then buried in baptism. Two of these had been struggling under deep conviction for a long time, fearing their families would have to suffer if they obeyed the Lord; but finally they decided that the Lord who took care of them in disobedience would also care for them should they obey Him. The other of the three, a young man, was converted by means of a tract given to him by the superintendent of our Sabbath school. We rejoice over the conversion of these men.

When one of the number had decided to keep the Sabbath he went to his employer saying that he would not be able to work any longer on the Sabbath since he had decided to rest on that day. His employer became angry and expressed surprise at his seeming folly, then dismissed him. But before he reached the door he called him back and said that he might continue in the position and have Saturdays off. One of the other men had a similar experience. Are these not examples of God's providence? We ask the prayers of the people of God for the work among the thousands of colored of Chicago.

Again we also ask that help be given us at this time to erect a school-building for the twenty-three children who must go to the public school next fall if our brethren come not to our rescue. Our society is only a small one, eighteen in number, but we are thankful that we may have a part in this great work. We have been trying to work for the salvation of souls with our splendid literature. Our report for the first quarter of 1915 is as follows:

Letters written, 40; letters received, 17; missionary visits, 205; Bible readings, 44; subscriptions taken for periodicals, 11; magazines sold, 1,403; papers mailed, lent and given away, 732; books sold, 80; books lent or given away, 41; tracts sold, 41; tracts lent or given away, 594; hours of Christian help work, 37; articles of clothing given away, 8; number meals provided, 3; scripture cards given, 2; treatments given, 2; offerings for foreign missions, $16.05; offerings for home missions, $1.39; tithe paid to church treasurer, $45.64; number of young people added to the church, 2.

Seven are taking the reading course at present. At the March Standard of Attainment examination, five took examination in Bible Doctrines and four in both Bible Doctrines and Denominational History. We are of good courage. Our only desire is to do what God wants us to do in His vineyard. ANNA JOHNSON

News Items

Reports are beginning to come in from the colporteurs who attended the spring institute and have taken up this work for the first time. Their letters breathe courage and confidence in the Lord, who gives the victory. We are sure our people will watch their reports with interest.

We have just received word from the publishers of the Signs Weekly that after publishing the first three numbers of the Present Truth Series, issued as extras to that paper, that they have decided to discontinue them, believing that the Signs Weekly contains about the same matter as would be published in the series. They still have on hand a supply of Nos. 1, 2, and 3 of this series, but when these are exhausted no more can be secured. However, the P. T. S. issued as extras of the Review and Herald will be continued. We expect to receive a good supply of No. 4 very soon. Our people generally appreciate this live, up-to-date matter for missionary work.

We are delivering monthly to the Postoffice News Company of Chicago about 25 copies of the Protestant and Watchman. There has been an increasing demand for the Protestant through this source.

The Watchman has been increasing in popularity and sale in our territory. Our sales of the April number are 1,500. We just received an advance copy of the May number, and after looking it over, we feel free to say that it is the best one that has yet been issued. It is beautifully illustrated, the front cover giving a view of the bombardment of the Dardanelles. It ought to be a ready seller.

The publishers of the Protestant announce the publication of another extra called the Rome and War Extra. In view of the present activity of the Roman power in this country, this number should have wide circulation. We have already ordered a good supply for this office and will soon be able to fill orders. The prices are $1 per 100 or $8 per 1,000.

Notice

Let us remember that Sabbath, April 17, is the time when we take the donation for the Second Springfield school. May the Lord help you to be as liberal as possible, that this expense may be met.

Another Worker at Rest

No doubt it will be a surprise to the brethren and sisters in Southern Illinois to learn of the death of Sister Ethel M. Proctor. Sister Proctor, who was teaching the church school in Springfield, was taken with the measles about a week ago, which developed into bronchial pneumonia, and she passed away Sunday morning, April 4, at 11:40 o'clock at the home of Brother Ivan S. Falconer. She was taken to Stewardson, Ill., her home, and the funeral services were conducted by the writer Tuesday, April 6.

Sister Proctor died in the full hope of the resurrection morning. The last night she was conscious she spent in prayer with the sister who was her nurse, and when morning came she made this statement: "We have had a good night tonight, and I know that the Lord has been here." Sister Proctor will be greatly missed.

Thus another worker has been taken from us, but I believe her rest will be short, for in just a little while we shall hear the voice of the Archangel, and our sister will come forth. May it be our lot to live faithfully here, that we may be able to have a part in that blessed day.

Pana and Ohlman

Sabbath, March 27, nearly forty attended a quarterly service held with the Pana church. After a short discourse, opportunity was given for any desiring to unite with the church to express their intention. Two brethren and two sisters responded and were added to the company. Two of these had been baptized previously and the others were taken in subject to baptism.

I am following up the interest at Ohlman by holding meetings in the home of Brother and Sister McNeal each Wednesday evening. Pray for the new members and the interested ones.

News Notes

Brother Bennet is now located at the Phoenix Rest Home, Phoenix, Arizona. His wife is assisting as cook in this institution. Let us pray the Lord to restore him to health, that he may return to the work which he loves.

Mrs. A. J. Clark spent Sabbath and Sunday, March 27 and 28, with the Decatur church in the interests of the young people's work and on Sabbath she plans to meet with the Peoria young people's society.

Sister Minnie Hooker has arrived in the conference. We hope she may soon be actively engaged in the work.

The first three months of 1915 show a slight increase in tithe over that paid during the same months of last year, also considerable gain in mission funds. During the first three months of last year we had raised $910.26, and this year we have raised $1,141.60. This is encouraging. But our two-per-cent seems to be falling off a little. We wonder if all remember that those who pay two-per-cent receive their camp-meeting tent rent free.

Dr. W. C. Dalbey has given to the conference the deed of the house which he promised at our last camp meeting to donate to missions.

Obituaries

CARPENTER.—Alexander Carpenter died in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lincoln Shepard, at Mesick, Mich., Feb. 27, 1915, aged 88 years, 2 months, and 25 days. He was born in Tyrone, New York and came to Michigan when a lad of eight years. In 1854 he was married to Amanda Hager who died in 1902. For many years he was a member of the Baptist Church, but in 1862 accepted the doctrines held by Seventh-day Adventists. For fourteen years he served as missionary director, many being blessed by his faithfulness. Three sons, three daughters, one brother, and one sister are the near relatives who are left to mourn. He was brought to Otsego for burial, the funeral being conducted in the church where he had worshiped for so many years. He was laid to rest beside his wife to await the call of the Life-giver.

PUTMAN.—John H. Putman was born in Exford, Mich., Sept. 14, 1843, and died near Weidman, Mich., Feb. 26, 1915, aged 71 years, 5 months, and 12 days. At the age of nineteen he enlisted in Company 1 of the 27th Michigan Infantry, and served till the close of the war when he was married to Miss Emma Granger, who died in 1882. To this union were born five children, four of whom survive. December 25, 1883 he was married to Mrs. Hattie E. Wilsey. Two children were born to this union, who with their mother survive. The deceased was a member of the church at Horr, Mich., and the funeral was conducted from the church, Sunday, Feb. 28, 1915. It was the privilege of the writer to use during the service the well marked and apparently diligently studied Bible of Brother Putman. Those who were with him during the closing hours of his life, testified that he died with the full assurance of a part in the first resurrection.

Do You Dread Review Day?

You need not dread quarterly review of the Sabbath school lessons if you have the March number of the Sabbath School Worker. Two excellent plans of review are given for the senior and junior divisions. A Memory Verse exercise is suggested which will be very impressive and easily managed in reviewing the children. A poem has been arranged with each stanza asking a question in verse, which is to be answered by the class by repeating the Memory Verse. The following is the first stanza of the poem and the Memory Verse for the answer:—

When the angel appeared unto Joseph,
As he dreamed of his promised son,
By what name was he bidden to call him?
What great work would by him be done?

"Thou shalt call His name Jesus: for He shall save His people from their sins."

In this way all the Memory Verses of the quarter are used, and the exercise would be a most interesting one in every school. The very small children can be reviewed by the use of the Picture Roll. If you are perplexed to know how to conduct effective reviews, subscribe for the Worker. It is full of suggestions which are practical and helpful.

Is Constantinople mentioned in the prophecies? Will prophecy be fulfilled when the Turk leaves his present capital? Perhaps you know. Does your neighbor? Give or sell to him a copy of the May Signs Magazine. It is brimful of answers to questions which so many are now asking.

The May Watchman Magazine is effectively illustrated by a striking cover design in colors. Another thing in the May Watchman which our people will appreciate is a full page relief map showing the Dardanelles, Sea of Marmora, and Constantinople. This will be particularly helpful to those who have been keeping up with the newspaper reports of the attack now being made on the Dardanelles.

With the June issue, Life and Health will appear under a new name, Health and Temperance, indicating the close relation existing between temperance and bodily health. Among the departments to be added are: "Christian Temperance," "Bible Hygiene," and "School of Health," the last dealing with home treatment of the sick, nursing, diet, dress, and general hygiene. Any one desiring to receive a leaflet containing an extract from Sister White's forthcoming book, "Gospel Workers," on health, or wanting to know more about the health magazine, should address Health and Temperance, Takoma Park, Washington, D. C.

Double Celebration at Emmanuel Missionary College

At nine o'clock on the evening of April 5, when the tolling of the College bell proclaimed the fact that the county had gone "dry," a jubilee meeting was held on the campus by the students of Emmanuel Missionary College.

The "double" celebration came about in this way. The girls had planned during the day to go over to President Graf's home in the evening and celebrate his birthday by a serenade, but upon learning that he was still at the office and would probably not return until late, they decided to take Mrs. Graf with them and proceed to serenade him at his office.

So it happened that these girls and the group of young men who were about to celebrate the victory for the dry cause in the county came together at the same time and a grand jubilee for both the serenading party and the enthusiastic boys was the result.

Books were thrown aside, the usual quiet of the study hour broken, and in a few minutes both dormitories were left nearly empty. The young people, with Professor Graf, Mrs. Graf, and one or two other teachers in their midst, gathered in front of the college building to hear the news in detail and rejoice over the victory of the temperance cause.

The girls' chorus sang several favorite pieces and some of the young men who have been carrying on an active and untiring campaign against the saloon in this county also gave several songs. At intervals the boys played lively tunes upon the drums. Professor Graf made a short impromptu speech commending the earnest effort which the students have put forth to help carry the county dry. When the estimate was made that fourteen counties in the state would go dry, the students cheered and applauded heartily. After an enthusiastic half hour the students bowed their heads there in the darkness and the president offered a solemn prayer to the God of victory, recognizing Him as the source of all victory of right over wrong. After singing "Blessed be the tie that binds" all returned to their rooms singing "Home, Sweet Home" as they went.

The sympathy of every student and teacher has been on the side of temperance and all that could be done by them has been done for the promotion of this cause. A STUDENT

Church Treasurers, Notice

Some time ago a letter was prepared to be sent to each of the church treasurers in the Union. This was in harmony with an action of the Union Committee passed at its January session. The letter had to deal with the foreign mission funds raised by the Missionary Volunteer Societies.

Shortly after writing this letter, we were advised by the North American Division that the record of funds to be applied upon the young peoples' foreign mission goal is to be made up from secretaries' reports, and not from the treasurers' books. It is not necessary, therefore, to indicate upon your books that certain funds were given by the young people to be applied upon the M. V. foreign mission goal.

The M. V. report blanks have been revised so as to make clear the amount reported on the foreign mission goal. All foreign mission offerings count on our goal, except Sabbath school offerings.
