A Kind Word

A kindly word and a tender tone,—
To only God is their virtue known;
They can lift from the dust the abject head,
They can turn a foe to a friend instead;
The heart close-barred with passion and pride
Will fling at their knock its portal wide;
And the hate that blights, and the scorn that sears,
Will melt in the fountain of childlike tears.
What ice-bound barriers have been broken,
What rivers of love been stirred,
By a word in kindness spoken,
By only a gentle word.

Spanish-American Missions

America was discovered by the Spanish. A very large share of both North and South America was first explored and settled by this nation. Even today Mexico, Central America, and by far the larger part of of South America as well as many islands are peopled by nations of Spanish descent. No language except the English is spoken by nearly so many people in the western hemisphere as the Spanish. About 10,000,000 use the German, and some 5,000,000 the Portuguese, but more than 40,000,000 in the Americas speak the Spanish. Since the war in Europe began, the different countries of North and South America have been coming together in closer unity. The prejudice against the United States, which has hindered cooperation in the past, seems to be disappearing. This coming together in a Pan-American movement means much for our missionary work in the Spanish-American fields. Generally speaking the population in these fields is Catholic, and yet the power of this church and its priests is decreasing. The revolutions in Mexico are really a protest against the power of Rome in that country.

We have established missions in every Spanish-American country. Our work in Mexico is prospering in spite of the unsettled conditions. Our work has a good start in Central America, Chile, Argentina, and other countries. In a very remarkable way the Lord has given us access to the South American Indians of whom there are said to be some 3,000,000. Brother Stahl's experience among these people reads like a chapter from the Acts of the Apostles. The work in these Spanish-American fields is very trying and expensive. Several of our most devoted workers have lost their lives in these lands. Others have sacrificed all that they might bring the light of the third angel's message to these benighted nations. It is our duty to care for these brethren and to give of our means to their support. The thirteenth Sabbath collection for this quarter, which is to be taken June 26, will be devoted to the Spanish-American fields. We hope that there will be a good program in every church concerning the work in these neighboring countries.

Last year our mission offerings were about $30,000 more than the previous year. Last year our receipts of our twenty-cents-a-week at the close of May were $21,986. This year the receipts for the same time are $29,186, or an increase of $7,200. We are grateful for this. Our receipts, however, for the month of May were the smallest we have received this year. This is a disappointment to us all. We hope there will be a large thirteenth Sabbath donation in June, and that all our churches will do their very best in bringing up our mission funds. We would also request all our church treasurers to remit every dollar of mission funds that they have on hand at the close of this month as the money is very greatly needed.

The Coming Convention

During the early part of June a very important educational and Missionary Volunteer convention was held at the Pacific Union College near St. Helena, Calif. The secretaries of the educational and Missionary Volunteer department of the Division Conference were in attendance together with leading educators and Missionary Volunteer workers from every Union in North America. The following were sent as delegates from this Union: O. J. Graf, C. A. Russell, H. O. Olson, Myrta Kellogg, Flora Williams, and Dr. O. R. Cooper. The plan of the divisional department is to conduct a series of educational and Missionary Volunteer conventions in the different Unions this summer. The convention for the Lake Union will meet at Emmanuel Missionary College July 19-26 inclusive. This will be a very important gathering. Plans will be laid for careful and aggressive work for our young people. Many questions of great moment to our schools and Missionary Volunteer societies will be considered. It would be very desirable if we could have a large attendance at this coming convention. During a recent meeting of the Union Committee the following recommendations were passed:

"1. We recommend, That the following persons attend the joint Educational and Missionary Volunteer Convention at Berrien Springs, Mich., July 19 to 26, 1915, and that their traveling expenses be allowed: Principals of academies, educational superintendents, Missionary Volunteer secretaries, academy and church school teachers who attend the summer school and thus are present during the convention.

"2. We recommend, That Missionary Volunteer societies send a delegate to the convention as far as practicable, paying his traveling expenses.

"3. We recommend, That lodging be furnished free to those in attendance, and that board be furnished on the order plan the same as to students."

We would call special attention to the second resolution. It seems to us that many of our Missionary Volunteer societies should plan to send a delegate to the convention. It would greatly strengthen our work for the youth if this could be done.

Another point. We believe that every teacher of our academies should plan to attend this convention. It is true that some of them would have to pay their own traveling expenses, but they will find this a very paying investment. The Division Conference at Washington will send us strong, experienced men, and we should do our utmost to unite with them in making this convention what the Lord desires it to be. The College will be glad to furnish lodging to any number who will come.

A Study on Matt. 24:36

With this study read the comments on the text in "His Glorious Appearing" commencing on page 69 (Revised Edition). Jesus declares that the Father only will make known the day and hour of Christ's coming, and associates with it a similar situation in the days before the flood. See Gen. 7:1,4. This association may be better understood by the following paraphrase:

That day and hour My Father only will make known, as He made known to Noah the day when the flood would come. It will be spoken to the hundred and forty-four thousand at the shaking of the powers of heaven. See Matt 24:29, 30; "Great Controversy," Vol. 4, pages 452-458; and "Early Writings," Second Edition (1884) pages 145, 146.

I have been told that Elder James White held this view of the day and hour of Christ's coming.

Question Box

Question.—What is the cause of and treatment for infantile paralysis?

Answer.—The exact cause is unknown but it is evidently due to some specific infection. The stable fly appears to play a large part in its transmission. Many of our most serious and deadly infections would be avoided if our children were not permitted to play around stables. Typhoid, lock jaw, infantile paralysis, etc., are often contracted from this source. The infection nearly always occurs before the third year of life and appears to have a certain predilection for the anterior gray matter of the spinal cord, with the resulting wasting and paralysis of muscles. Treatment consists in isolation of patient with disinfection of all excreta. The absolute rest in bed is essential. Keep mouth clean, if fever is excessive, cold sponging and ice bag to the head. An initial purge should be administered. After the first few weeks the parts involved should be kept warm by the use of woolen clothes and artificial heat. Fresh air, sunshine and the best possible surroundings are essential in the successful treatment of this infection. Later on the parts involved may be massaged and if necessary mechanical apparatus may be applied to the parts to prevent deformity.

Do It When It Needs Doing

The time to do a thing is when it needs doing. After a plant has died of drought it is useless to water it. While it needed water, perhaps a little water would have sufficed; now even a deluge would be utterly useless. The time to do a thing is, also, when we are able to do it. The time may come when opportunity will appeal to helplessness, and will necessarily appeal in vain. The ability to do may not be ours long. Perhaps the saddest pictures we can gaze upon are the visions of what might have been; but no tears can blot out our blunders, and no vain wishes can put life into bloodless limbs of the deeds we did not do. The time to do good is when opportunity appeals to ability; when God and humanity call us to do our best.—Selected.

Camp Meeting

After considerable difficulty in securing a location for our camp meeting to be held August 19-29, we are glad to announce that we have secured grounds in Indianapolis.

In the weeks intervening between now and the time for our annual gathering, a vigorous campaign should be carried on in every church to make this the largest meeting we have ever held in Indiana. Truly this ought so to be in view of passing events. Few more, if any such opportunities will be given us of meeting together in these annual encampments, and with the Lord's help the meeting this year should be one filled with spiritual help for all.

Begin the camp meeting campaign next Sabbath. A camp meeting prayer band will kindle the spirit. Talk of the coming feast as you meet for service and read what the Lord has instructed us concerning these important gatherings. Many who have grown cold in the service of the Lord are waiting for a kind word and invitation to come back to the Saviour. Get them to come to the meeting. There is the young man planning to work for the world and the young woman soon to be married out of the truth. The Spirit of the Lord at our meeting can give new decisions and inspiration for the Lord's work. Some of the aged brethren and sisters have not been to camp meeting for some seasons. Plan for them to be there and their hearts will be cheered by once more meeting with others of like faith. Some of your isolated members do not often meet with you; arrange for a church reunion at camp meeting. Special preparations will be made for the young people and children.

Give them the opportunity of receiving a special blessing.

Pray, plan, and push. Begin now!

Wabash Valley Sanitarium

When the Saviour was among men He recognized their needs and ministered to them accordingly. This work became a mighty asset to Him in carrying forward His work and He committed this same work to His disciples that they, through this ministry, might save some.

While Seventh-day Adventists believe they are called to preach the gospel in all the world, they have been led to see the necessity also of ministering to the diseases of the race. Recognizing these principles as from Heaven, they have sought by the use of simple means of bring health to many. These means are diet, the use of rational treatments,—that is, the use of natural agents as far as possible,—heat and cold, water and electricity, and the non-use of poisonous drugs. These, with pure air, rest, and regular hours, work wonders.

With these good things, the spiritual side is not neglected and while there is no proselyting, yet many patrons freely say that "Here we find religion lived out." One, a prominent minister in a leading denomination in Indiana, wanted to go to some place for recuperation where he would find a spiritual influence. The Wabash Valley Sanitarium was recommended. He came and afterwards gave warm praise for the spirit he found here.

Kokomo Convention

The Sabbath school convention held here June 11-13 proved to be a most interesting and profitable occasion. Elder and Mrs. C. N. Sanders and Miss Rasmusson were present, also Brother V. J. Spaulding of Georgia and a number of our people from the surrounding churches.

The Spirit of God was present throughout the meeting and seemed to impress upon the minds of all their increased responsibility because of the things they heard and learned.

The papers showed careful preparation and contained less of mere theory than of practical ideas and suggestions for bringing our Sabbath schools up to a higher plane.

The convention closed with a testimony meeting in which the large majority present took part, expressing their appreciation of the convention and a determination to make every effort to follow up the good instruction.

As a result of this convention we hope to see Sabbath school officers and teachers of greater efficiency, rightly directed home influence, effort to reach the Sabbath school goals, the salvation of souls, and many other good things that might perhaps be classified under these.

It remains with those who were present to prove the measure of the success of this convention by immediately beginning to put into practice the things we have heard, thus making sure progress toward bringing our Sabbath schools up to where God would have them be.

News Notes

Don't overlook our canvassers' report this week. It is interesting. Watch it grow!

How many have seen and read the July Signs? It is fine. Also the Watchman. Order a supply of both. You will not be disappointed.

Brother C. C. King is spending a few days at the sanitarium taking treatment.

Brother John Vance is assisting Brother Franklin in his work, and recently visited colporteurs located at Attica, LaFayette, and North Liberty.

We are glad to receive word from the General Conference that the total Sabbath school offerings for 1914 amounted to $332,878.84. Of this amount Indiana raised about $7,000. You know the Sabbath school department of the General Conference voted in 1912 to raise one million dollars in four years for missions. At the close of the first quarter of 1915 this amount has been raised, it taking practically two years and two months. It took twenty-five years to raise the first million dollars for missions through the Sabbath schools, and the second million has required but a little over two years. What shall be our effort toward raising the third million?

Several of the student canvassers who are enjoying their first experiences in the canvassing work write that they are of good courage and expect to make every week count for real active service this summer.

Brother Walter Coppock, who had to give up the canvassing work for a time because of ill health, is much improved and plans to take up active work next week, locating near Attica.

Remember the time and place, August 19-29,

Indianapolis, and make plans to attend the camp meeting.

Good reports have been received from our tent companies. The Indianapolis effort is now well under way and good interest and attendance are the results of earnest efforts on the part of the workers here. Miss Bertha Wright has recently connected with this effort as a Bible worker.

Are you giving attention to the sanitarium pledge fund? Notice the increase this week.

Sanitarium Experiences

Late one evening the phone rang insistently. Upon being answered, a voice at the other end of the line informed me that the Christian minister had appended and wanted to know if we would receive him into the institution. Of course we did so and a most rapid recovery resulted. He appreciated the faithfulness of the nurse reading a chapter from the Bible and having prayer with him before beginning the duties of the day.

A year or so later, his wife was a patient at the sanitarium. She was loved no less than her estimable husband.

This minister has frequently spoken at our young people's meeting and Sabbath services. We count him as one of our very best and truest friends. Oftentimes we've had conversations upon the signs of the times. He, too, believes that Christ's second coming is very near and longs for the event. He has had some of our literature to read including the special Signs.

Women's Treatment Rooms

My home is in Tennessee, but I enjoy being up North having charge of the women's treatment rooms at the Tri-City Sanitarium. We are all so glad to have the bath-rooms repaired and repainted. The expense was considerable, but the increased patronage will soon recompense the outlay.

During the month of April we gave seven hundred thirty treatments. The ailments treated varied all the way from broncho-pneumonia in a child, rheumatism, diabetes, Bright's disease, and digestive disturbances to some extremely obese ladies who wanted to become less cumbersome.

Many opportunities are offered to speak the word in season. A smile, a cheerful word, and a reassuring pat on the shoulder sometimes helps as much as the treatment. May the Lord help us to be faithful in our work so that we may bring some souls into the kingdom through the medium of the treatment-rooms.

Experiences

The following extracts from personal correspondence with our colporteurs give some idea of the trials and blessings which come to them, as well as the benefits that are to be derived from the colporteur work. We earnestly request your prayers, daily, for these dear workers.

Jennie Anderson.—"I am still of good courage and am enjoying my work. I have not taken very many orders, $34.85 in twenty-five hours, but I am having good experiences. Sometimes I get so interested it is hard to stop working."

H. Halenz.—"I have enjoyed my first week's work very much. The Lord certainly has blessed me."

Eugene Davis [age 16].—"I am enjoying myself. The people are very kind to me. I had a pleasant experience this week. On discovering that I had failed to leave a guarantee at one place, I went back. On my way a lady called to me and asked to see the book and she gave me an order. I did not canvass her, but she must have heard me when I was talking with her husband, because she said they talked it over after I had left. So this shows that God is guiding."

Tait Buck.—"I am very much encouraged by some definite answers to prayer the past week. It is my purpose to stay at this work until I am called out of it as definitely as I was called in."

Anislee Robbins.—"It was rather a hard week but above all the obstacles the Lord blessed me very much. Our lives must be lives of prayer to make this work win."

Antan Svenson.—"I have not had much success in my work. I prayed to God that He would show me what was keeping back His blessing; and I have found that which is more precious than anything else. I am glad that these experiences have drawn me nearer my Saviour and given me a greater longing to work for the salvation of souls."

E. R. Thiele.—"The Lord certainly blessed me last week. Thursday afternoon I sold a book in each of the last eight houses after 4:30 P.M. By this time it was seven and I didn't have a place to stay. I walked farther but found no one at home for over a mile. Then there were only small houses and the people could not keep me. By this time it was dark and I kept on walking but could find no one at home. I got one man out of bed but he said he could not keep me so I had to stay out over night. But I know it was the Lord's will because I had felt His presence near through out the day."

Harry Anderson.—"In the canvassing field is where a person can see dependence upon God and find out his real condition."

Arthur Oehl [age 16].—"I am sorry that this first report does not pass the $100 mark, but I have tried to do my best. As I search the Scriptures along the roadside I find many precious passages that encourage me. Please do not forget the canvassers in your prayers."

Oscar Olson.—"I had some trying experiences last week, and also some very good ones. It seems these go together."

Ruth Everett.—"I have had some grand experiences, and I am glad I am canvassing. C. J. TOLF

Sanitarium Gospel

Our sanitariums should be places where not only physical but spiritual healing should be offered to the people. Transgression is the cause of disease, in a direct or indirect way. This being the case, how necessary it is that forgiveness of sin and spiritual light should be brought to the soul in connection with the hot and cold applications applied to the body. The Saviour ministered to both soul and body. The gospel which He taught was a message of spiritual life and physical restoration. Deliverance from sin and the healing of disease were linked together. The same ministry is committed to the Christian worker in the sanitarium today. He is to unite with Christ in relieving both physical and spiritual needs of his fellowmen. He is to be to the sick a messenger of mercy, bringing to them a remedy for the diseased body and for the sin-sick soul. The blind, the lame, and the halt come to us from all quarters of the state, and from other states. Words of gratitude fall from the lips of these suffering ones, revealing the fact that advantages of the gospel offered them are doing as much for them as the means applied in the bathroom. Their appreciation of gospel privileges is shown by their faithful attendance at the worship services as well as at other services. Their interest in these services brings remarks or questions which open the way for further conversation along definite lines. Some of the many experiences we might relate are these: "Where are you reading for these morning lessons? I tried to find the lesson last evening, and I did not remember." These are the words of a man quite prominent in political ranks, and we believe revealed an interest in what was being studied daily as well as opening the way for further conversation. Another, a lady who is very prominent in social circles, said: "This is instructive and helpful. I never knew there was so much in the Old Testament. I am becoming very much interested." This was confirmed by her regular attendance at service, and she was led to ask for studies on the second coming of Christ, and also the Sabbath. Pray for us here, we are anxious to have our work bear the signet of heaven. Your prayers can help us to this end. MRS. D. L. CHRISTIANSON

Battle Creek

Another week is past, but on account of hindrances we could only put in four days in actual visiting. Sabbath I visited Bedford, seven miles from Battle Creek. As Elder McVagh was to hold a meeting in the afternoon, some thought the forenoon meeting was taken up, so did not attend; but we had a goodly number at the Sabbath school and forenoon meeting. It seemed some as it did twenty years ago when I visited this company. I expect to visit every home this time as soon as I finish the work in Battle Creek.

Orders taken this week, $93.11. I find some eight hundred Adventists in Battle Creek, and in many homes only one or two. They are scattered all over the city, and many times away at their work or down town, so it takes much time to reach them all. We hope to do them good not only by placing the literature in their hands for their own use, but in encouraging them to work for those not of like faith.

News Notes

Our tent companies are located as follows: Charlotte—Elder J. M. Hoyt, Fred Wright, Beatrice Smalley; Albion—Elder R. U. Garrett, Clinton Lee, Frances Goodwin. These companies will be assisted also by Elders Langdon, Hart, and other workers from Battle Creek. Portland—Lyle Shepard, Floyd Smith; Decatur—Elder U. S. Anderson and family; Holland—Elders C. L. White, M. H. Serns, and Jennie DeYoung.

Our mission funds for the first five months of 1915 are over $2,700 better than for the same period last year. Many of the elders have reported that their members are planning to make up a full quarter.

Five candidates were baptized at Battle Creek, Sabbath, June 12, by Elder G. E. Langdon.

Elder McVagh visited Battle Creek and Bedford last week.

The response to the appeal to clear all our conference debt before July 1916 is meeting a most encouraging response. Elders McVagh and Reefman are presenting it to the churches.

Though the Present Truth Series was not launched until January this year, it now has a subscription list for 60,000 copies, besides having orders for copies in bulk amounting nearly to one-quarter million copies per month. Up to June 1 six numbers had been printed with a total of 1,064,000 copies.

Our English speaking home missionaries as well as our German and Scandinavian members will be glad to know that the Signs of the Times magazine in German, the Signs of the Times magazine in Swedish, and the Health and Temperance Danish-Norwegian magazine come out this [third] quarter, each with a line of very strong articles on current events in the light of the Bible and other subjects relative to the message at this time. Order of your tract society.

Morning Watch Calendar

The Morning Watch Calendar is not only a calendar in the ordinary sense, it is much more than that.

It suggests a Scripture text for every day in the year.

It encourages the study of the Bible and prayer and personal missionary work,—the three essentials of a growing Christian experience.

It contains a blank for recording missionary work done each day.

It has a sunset table showing when the Sabbath begins anywhere in America.

It is a daily calendar that contains all these helpful features which are such a blessing.

It surely is "much in little," and the price is only 5 cents per copy postpaid. If you do not have one, order it from your tract society.

College

Summer school opens Wednesday, June 23. The prospects are good for a full attendance.

The dormitory family enjoyed a very pleasant day's outing at Lake Chapin Wednesday.

Miss Grace Evans reports splendid experiences and good success in her canvassing at Mishawaka, Ind.

Mr. E. M. Fishell has been at the College this week getting recruits for the field.

Miss Ruth F. Peel was a welcome visitor Wednesday, on her way from her school in Chicago to her home in Grand Rapids.

Mr. Milton E. Hitchcock and Miss Mae Marsh, former students of E. M. C., were married at the home of the bride in Otter Lake, Mich.

Miss Augusta Blosser spent a day in Fort Wayne, Ind., canvassing for "World's Crisis." In seven hours she placed forty-five copies.

Loren Shepard writes, "The battle is on in the canvassing field down here. I had fine success last week and now have my debt plged."

Mr. H. J. Klooster, after speaking of definite plans for work in the Student Movement, says, "I think we all feel the need of prayer in this campaign, and for my part, I have set aside a little time each day for that purpose. Let us all pray continually that the work may be accomplished."

Mr. Durward Williams writes, "This evening I am sending out letters to old students. I shall be glad to see the items that will appear in the HERALD. I am very busy here with canvassing and other work. E. M. C. often has my thoughts, and I hope to spend many more months there if the Lord will."

Arabella James writes, "I have written to a prospective student and expect to meet her at E. M. C. this fall."

C. B. Keppler says, "I certainly am glad I have entered this work this summer. The rich experiences I enjoyed in the field last week alone paid me for my efforts. The conditions existing today are causing people to wonder what these things mean, and an answer is welcome. My orders last week amounted to $66."

Mr. C. E. Loughlin of Strode Academy [Kansas] is employed on the farm. He plans to be in school here next year.

Ben Marshall, who is now secretary and treasurer of the Mississippi conference and Tract Society, in renewing his subscription to the HERALD, writes, "It would be almost impossible to do without this paper as through it we are enabled to see where several of our fellow students are laboring.

"The work is onward in Mississippi and we are of good courage. We are at present erecting a church here in Jackson which will be a great help to our work as this is our headquarters.

"I notice the movement to remove the College debt is still onward and I hope it will never cease until the entire amount is paid.

"May the Lord continue to bless in the efforts that are being put forth in the Lake Union Conference and may you ever remember the work in the Southland in your prayers that this message may speedily go to those in darkness."
