The Wonderful Story

L. D. SANTEE

I long as I grow older
For that far-off blissful shore,
Where the burdens from my shoulder
Shall fall to come no more;
No pain for friendship slighted,
Where teardrops never fall,
Where every wrong is righted,
And God is all in all.

When the eve is red with fire
Of purple and of gold,
I think of a home that is higher,
That soon mine eyes shall behold;
I think of the King in His glory,
Of the joys on that blest shore,
And I love to hear the story,
Though I've heard it oft before.

I ne'er am weighed by sadness,
For the story fills my heart,
And I think with untold gladness,
That dear ones never part.
I love the Master's presence,
His love to me is given,
And I look for His returning
In the radiance of heaven.

A Word to Everybody

The Review and Herald is our leading church paper. While the union papers, the Church Officers' Gazette, and other publications bring much information to our people which was formerly published in the good old Review, it is still our church paper. It brings us reliable news from the world-wide work. It points out the great dangers that confront us, discusses the many problems which we are called upon to solve, and outlines the policy and plans adopted and followed by God's people in all the world. No person can keep abreast with the rapid advancement of the third angel's message unless he takes and reads the Review from week to week.

The LAKE UNION HERALD is the organ of the Lake Union Conference. It is brimful of reports and newsy items from the different conferences. It brings us a weekly account of the work of the Lord in our Union. The amount of tithe paid by every church in the various conferences, the number of books sold, the meetings held here and there, not to mention a host of other things, are faithfully recorded in the LAKE UNION HERALD. This paper is meeting with very general favor among our people. Our faithful editor labors hard and patiently to give us the paper needed in our conferences.

The price of the Review and Herald is two dollars a year, and that of the LAKE UNION HERALD fifty cents. By a special arrangement with the Review & Herald Publishing House in Washington, we are able to offer both of these papers to all our brethren for $2.05 a year. This is certainly a good offer. We hope our church elders will speak of this to the members in their churches who do not take these papers. The offer holds good until September 20. If anyone who has paid for these papers until later in the year will send us $2.05, we will extend his papers for another year from the time they expire. All orders for these papers should be sent to the local tract society. As we understand it, the Review has never before been clubbed with a union conference paper. At least it has never before been given with the LAKE UNION HERALD at so low a price. This liberal offer ought to give us 1,000 new subscriptions for these two papers.

The Work of Our Colporteurs

We hear less and less of our "canvassers" and more and more of our "colporteurs." There may not be very much in a name, but we believe that this change of name indicates to some extent a change for the better in our work. It appears to us that our colporteurs' work is becoming more and more a missionary enterprise. While it is true that many of our colporteurs, or canvassers, if you wish to call them so, are working for scholarships, yet the motive power in their work is not gain but the winning of souls. We feel very much encouraged as we see the faithful work done by many of our canvassers in the various conferences. The amount of literature sold in the Lake Union Conference so far this year is by far in excess of the literature sold up to this time last year. It ought to be so. We are to advance in every department of our work. Still we fear that we are not accomplishing nearly as much in the canvassing work as we might. We wish that there were far more engaged in this blessed missionary endeavor. We hope that all our student canvassers will plan to stay by the work clear through the vacation. Quite a number have already secured their scholarship. It appears to us that this is no reason why they should lay down their work but rather a strong incentive to continue to earn another scholarship. The people need our books. Little do we realize how many hundreds and thousands of people in this Union are longing for light and truth in these troublous times. We hope that God may greatly bless our faithful colporteurs.

Early Observations—No. 25

Making Peace Between Brethren

Many years ago at one of our Indiana camp meetings, a good brother wished me to hear his recitations relating to trouble in his church. He thought that a number of their church members should apologize to him because of things which they had said and done. I consented to hear him but proposed that we retire to a lone spot in the forest and there together talk to the Lord about the affair and seek counsel from Him, because if we did not proceed in this way, there was great danger of rendering a wrong verdict. He consented and soon we were on our way to a place where we could be shut in with the Lord. When we were well separated from the bustle of the camp, I said to him, "My brother, do you love God's law?" He said, "I certainly do love the law of God. I delight in it." I then opened my Bible at the 119th Psalm and requested him to read the 165th verse, and he read: "Great peace have they which love Thy law, and nothing shall offend them."

The reading of the text made a favorable impression, and prepared the way for a season of prayer. After the prayer I requested him to proceed with his story. But the recitation of the troubles, which he had experienced, soon took away his peace of mind, and then I requested him to read the text again. So he read it again, and his peace of soul returned, and the way was open for us to calmly weigh the matter of a complete reconciliation. We studied other scriptures bearing upon the subject of peace among brethren, probably the third chapter of James. After a third reading of Ps. 119:165 we returned to the camp, believing that the Lord would bring peace into the church where these sore trials had caused such perplexity. And truly, a great victory was the result. For within one or two days of the time the brother and I had prayed over the matter out in the forest, the same brother came hastily where I was working at the book tent, and with his face bathed in tears he said: "Brother Covert, we want you to come to our tent where our church is having a joyful experience." He said, "We have the happiest people in this camp. I tell you, Brother Covert, that text changed me. That text got such a hold on me that I thought I must call our membership together and tell them how wicked I had been. But when we met and I began to confess, they began to weep and said, 'No, no, you have been good to us and we have been bad to you.' And the more I confessed the more they wept and confessed to me. And finally we could not finish our confessions to each other because of the happy reconciliation which came."

I went into the tent and they were overflowing with Christian love for each other and with thanksgiving to God for the great victory which had been gained over the sad condition which had so recently prevailed among them. They saw clearly the folly of the things which led them into the trouble. And what was true with that church is often true in other churches where trouble arises. And what is needed to effect a reconciliation is humility of heart and a willingness on the part of all to confess all the way out of darkness into the light.

Gladstone Camp Meeting

This meeting was held at Gladstone according to the appointment, June 17-27. The weather seemed to be every much against us the most of the time. It was cold and rainy the early part of the meeting. We did not have one warm evening all the time. In spite of the handicap of the weather there was a fairly good attendance from the outside. About one hundred of our people attended and a deep spiritual interest was manifested. The Lord came very near to us and I am sure much good was accomplished by the meeting. In all there were twenty-seven baptized. An interesting incident of the baptism might be mentioned. The administrator, Elder Bellows, led out into the water the candidates in groups of twos and threes. In two instances a family of three consisting of mother, daughter, and granddaughter all going forward in the solemn ordinance at the same time.

The laborers from outside the conference were Elder W. W. Eastman from Washington D. C., Elder L. H. Christian, Professor J. G. Lamson, and Brethren J. B. Blosser and J. W. Mace representing the book work.

The last Friday of the meeting Elder Eastman gave a talk on missions and showed the practical results of giving to missions; what has been accomplished, and what could be done by our giving to God's cause. A call was made for means; and although the people there are poor in this world's goods, $500 in cash and pledges was given for this sacred service. The next day in the Sabbath school the offering amounted to $100, making a total of $600 to missions in this meeting. I do not recall a time when the Spirit of the Lord was so manifest in the raising of means as it was at this time.

The brethren were much encouraged by the meeting and have gone to their homes full of courage to take up the work of another year.

Camp Meeting

Charlotte, August 12-22

The time of our camp meeting and annual conference will soon be here. In view of conditions in the world and the growing evidence of the awakening of our people to the situation, we have reason to expect the largest and most important meeting ever held in West Michigan. May we not expect this to be the time of a definite outpouring of the latter rain upon the people of God? No one can afford to lightly regard the spiritual feast. Do not let some little temporal loss or inconvenience prevent you from being present, and press in for a blessing.

We are in the very midst of the Laodicean message. Let us all plead together for spiritual life and an unction from above. Orders for tents and furniture should be sent in to the conference office as early as possible. Also it is the duty and privilege of every church to be represented by its delegates in the election of officers and in the business of the conference. Each church is entitled to one delegate for organization and one more for every full twenty-five members on the church roll. We hope that the matter of electing delegates will be attended to at the earliest possible time, and credentials made out on the blanks furnished, and promptly returned to the conference secretary. As there are always some changes in the plans of those elected as delegates, I would suggest that in every case the delegates chosen by the church who appear on the ground be empowered to fill vacancies where there are other available members present.

Bedford and Battle Creek

The regular quarterly meeting was held at Bedford Sabbath. Every adult took part. It was truly a pleasant meeting filled with the sunshine of God's love. I also visited the families living at or near Bedford, also at Urbandale and found them rejoicing in the blessed hope.

Nearly all were very busy picking and marketing their strawberries, peas, lettuce, onions, etc.; also doing their general farm work. Although they have little time in which to read, they subscribed for books and periodicals to the amount of $115.95.

I returned to Battle Creek this morning, but as there is a Sabbath school picnic will be unable to accomplish anything today except to visit some who are sick.

I expect to finish my work at Battle Creek Thursday, after having visited almost every family.

I can truly say the Lord has abundantly blessed and prospered my labor here.

I expect my next place of labor to be Grand Rapids.

Tent Meetings at Portland

The tent effort at Portland opened Friday evening, June 25, with a discourse on "The Great War—Its Meaning to Bible Students," and despite the cool evening and a theatrical show under canvas in town which drew large crowds, we had a fair sized attendance.

We arrived in Portland about a week previous and spent the time in looking over the situation, securing a location, preparing the grounds, and erecting the tent.

Our location is excellent. We have a corner lot on the main street about one block from the business portion of town and within a block of the public library. The tent is lighted with electricity and we have the platform well decorated with ferns and flowers furnished by one of our sisters. The lot is well sodded.

The company of Adventists here is very small but we have the hearty cooperation of those who are able to attend. The outlook is good although it is yet too early to say what the interest will be. We need the prayers of those who are interested in the spread of this message to the world.

Hartford

June 12 was a day to be remembered by us as we witnessed the baptism of five to be added to our Hartford company. But June 19, 1915, was the day of all days when Elders McVagh, Anderson, and Garret were present and we were organized as a church, to be called the Hartford church. Twenty-one joined with a very good prospect of five adding their names soon.

When we look back and think how we have struggled along here to keep our Sabbath school and meetings alive, with sometimes only three or four, other times ten or twelve, and now to have so many we are led to exclaim, "The Lord is good and greatly to be praised." May we never cease to praise Him.

For sixteen years we held our services in the homes, but for nearly a year we have had a church building, provided by one who is not a member. This goes to show how the Lord leads. May we all be faithful and go through to the end bringing other precious souls to Him.

MRS. O. M. SMITH

Decatur

With great pleasure I report that we have organized a Sabbath school of twelve members with a good interest. The Lord impressed the hearts of two brethren to keep the Sabbath; one of whom never heard a sermon by a Seventh-day Adventist.

We are praying that with the help of Elder U. S. Anderson and family, who are to labor here this summer, we may have a company raised up so that we may again use the church which has been vacant for three or four years. We earnestly solicit the prayers of God's people for the work here.

News Notes

The Grand Rapids church and Sabbath school held their annual picnic at Reed's Lake, June 29, and an enjoyable program was rendered. An interesting missionary meeting was also held in the church on Sabbath, July 3.

Encouraging reports of the opening of the tent meetings at Albion, Holland, Portland, and Charlotte have been received. The last report from Elder Anderson indicated a delay in receiving the new tent which had been shipped to him from the factory.

The tent companies are requested to send in each week for publication in the HERALD a statement of the progress of the meetings.

Our Tent Companies

Since my last report, I have attended the camp meeting in Wisconsin, as had been previously planned. [It had been arranged that the president of the Wisconsin Conference and the president of the Southern Illinois Conference should exchange help in camp meetings this year.] Immediately upon my return from Wisconsin, we entered into our tent effort in Springfield, and I am glad to report that we have had a good interest from the start. On the night of the first meeting there was a very heavy thunder shower, but still over seventy-five people came out to the tent. Since that night our audience has ranged from seventy-five to one hundred fifteen, and it is a steady audience. Last Saturday night about sixty people were in the tent, and on Monday night, which is considered a very poor night, our audience was about seventy-five. Elder E. F. Ferris and Misses Wohlers and Hooker are the workers who are connected with the effort, and all seem to be of good courage.

Brother E. N. Sargent has recently come from Idaho to take up work in our field. We have asked him to connect with the tent effort in Danville. He and Brethren Nethery and C. J. Smith are the workers who are in charge of this effort.

The third company is located at Mulberry Grove. Brethren C. W. Curtis and J. O. Ferris are in charge. The work in the field seems to be progressing well, and I believe we have every reason to be of good courage. Brother C. F. Woertz who has been laboring in Quincy in the interests of the German work has lately moved from his field of labor to Chester, Ill., where he has taken up work.

Let us remember these different efforts in our prayers from time to time, for if all our people are earnestly praying for the advancement of God's work, it surely will be true that our fervent prayers will bring results.

Notes from the Field

Jerry Suda.—"I am of good courage in the Lord. Because of the condition of my eyes the past two weeks I did not canvass. It was hard for me last week, but through the help of the Lord I did what I could, and He blessed my efforts. My prayer is that God will send us more laborers as the harvest is ripe."

I. S. Falconer.—"I have received twenty orders for 'Coming King' in twenty-four hours. The people like that little book and I like to canvass for it, but I will canvass for 'Great Controversy' again next week. The Lord is blessing this field."

Frank Drury.—"I have had some grand experiences. I took orders in three homes where Brother Stearns had sold 'Great Controversy,' and they are interested."

M. H. Sexton.—"I canvassed a Catholic Monday who was interested in what I told him. He did not give me an order at first but told me I could stay over night as he would like to talk further with me. I explained to him the driving out of the Turk and some other things. The next morning he gave me his order and I hope it will do them good."

G. W. Peterson.—"This week I found many people who were very prejudiced, but with the help of the Lord I took orders. I give the Lord all the praise. I only carried the book around to the people and the Lord gave the orders. It is wonderful how He can work and give strength to His servants."

A. C. Ford.—"I am still of good courage and trusting the Lord for help. He is such a friend to me in His work. When I get homesick or tired I sing, 'I am a stranger here on business for my King' and read Gal. 6:9 and other promises to the overcomer. The Lord still blesses me."

C. P. Frieson.—"My report is not as large in dollars and cents as the one previous. I can praise the Lord for His goodness, and trust and pray that His work will be a blessing to us."

An interesting item from Brother C. N. Saunders shows the hours he has been canvassing to be 263 with orders amounting to $500.50 or $1.90 per hour.

The Carterville church now sends forth a band of eleven canvassers each Monday morning to help fulfill Joel 2:1. Are there not other churches whose elders and deacons are desirous of following the example of the Carterville church?

News Items

Brother John Hicks and wife have recently located at Sheridan, Ill. He announces his intention of entering the colporteur work again. We welcome his return to his home field, and hope and trust that the Lord will bless his labors as He has done heretofore.

The graduation exercises of the nurses' class at the Hinsdale Sanitarium will be held July 7-11. The exercises will be held in a large tent on the Sanitarium grounds. Our people generally are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

We hear that the Moline tent company, consisting of Elder T. F. Hubbard and Brethren J. D. Reavis and Will Harris, have their tent located near the Sanitarium and that the meetings are now in progress.

We recently sent blanks to our church clerks and librarians for their use in making out their quarterly reports to this office. We trust that they will be prompt in sending in these reports.

The Swedish tent company is now located at 111th Place and South State Street. Elder Johnson reports a splendid interest, the tent being crowded each evening.

The Chicago Danish tent company is composed of Elder Louis Halsvick, Brother V. E. Hellman, Misses Johanna Hendrickson, and Bertha Stokka. They expect to begin their tent meetings soon.

We hope many are planning on attending our camp meeting to be held at Joliet, August 26 to September 5. The conference committee is making careful preparation for this meeting in order that all who attend may be comfortable. New flies for tents, and some new tents are being ordered; also additional tents are being rented. Detailed information concerning this meeting will soon appear in the HERALD.

We now have a supply of the new song book, "Songs of Zion," in both bindings; board at fifteen cents and cloth at thirty cents. This is a very choice collection of songs, which all lovers of music will appreciate.

Brother E. S. Richmond, superintendent of the Review and Herald Pub. Assn. of Washington, D. C. made us a pleasant visit last week.

Mr. H. A. Tucker and Miss Francelia Parks, both of Chicago, were united in marriage Thursday, June 24, at the home of the bride.

Honey Creek Church

On June 29 the Honey Creek church celebrated the ordinances of the Lord's house. About forty members, besides many visitors, were present and the house of worship was filled.

Sister Nordike, an aged lady, who at one time was a colaborer with Mrs. E. G. White, gave a very inspiring message, admonishing all to turn to the Lord and prepare for His soon coming. As a result nearly all consecrated their lives for the Master's service. At the close of the meeting, the invitation was extended to others to join the church and four came forward on confession of faith and baptism.

The Spirit of the Lord is impressing hearts as never before and many are being called out of Babylon.

JOHN C. KLOSE

Gathering Fruit

This fruit gathering was not for time, but for eternity. The fruit appeared, not on a living vine or tree, but was the product of the artist's crayon on a black surface, representing a very natural looking apple tree, loaded with red fruit. The fruit was valued at ten dollars, five dollars, and one dollar each, according to the size, and totalled one hundred ten dollars, the amount of the Thirteenth Sabbath offering needed to complete the goal of five hundred dollars set for the first six months of 1915, by the Sabbath school of the Twenty-third Street church of Indianapolis.

After the children had rendered a very interesting program, including a cornet solo by a boy only eleven years old, and a song by a little girl only four, the superintendent began the fruit gathering by taking the children's offering and allowing them to tell how they earned the sum given. Eight of them had one dollar each, the sum for all amounting to over seventeen dollars. When the work began with the adults, the tree was soon stripped and imaginary fruit not represented on the tree, was gathered till the sum amounted to $135. cash with several dollars pledged.

It pays to set before the Sabbath schools the needs of the fields to which the offerings are to go and to expect liberal offerings. It pays to have a definite goal set before the school and to have some device to catch the eyes as well as the ears of the pupils whether old or young. It pays to interest the children and give them a part to act in this important work.

It is encouraging to note that two schools in this city gave on this thirteenth Sabbath an amount equal to what was given by all the schools of this state on a thirteenth Sabbath only two years ago.

It will pay to take courage, to work and pray that our Sabbath schools may grow in membership, in their offerings, and in their spirituality.

News Notes

Elder C. N. Sanders recently visited the Connersville church and reports that the members there are all of good courage and actively engaged in home missionary work. A number of these members were taken into the church at that place a short time ago following the tent effort which was conducted by Elder E. R. Lauda. The sanitarium at Connersville is enjoying a good patronage, and the workers and management are being blessed of God in their efforts to relieve suffering humanity.

Brother George Rader visited the office last week in the interests of the tent effort at Fortville. The attendance at their meetings is quite large, and a number deeply interested in our message.

Elder E. A. Bristol attended the Board meeting at Emmanuel Missionary College this week.

The tract society is making a special price on cooking oil of $3.85 per five-gallon can. This is not a second grade oil, but the same as they have been selling for $4.20 per can, and this price is in effect until the 15th of July only. Order your supply now.

Brother C. E. Garnsey is visiting the East Michigan camp meeting at Holly this week in the interest of the medical work.

Remember the date of camp meeting, August 19-29.

Our faithful canvassers are being wonderfully blessed in their work. Our report this week is the largest ever sent in from Indiana. Let us remember these brethren in our prayers that many souls may be brought to a knowledge of our faith by their efforts.

Wisconsin Camp Meeting

We are very glad to report that the camp meeting at Stevens Point, Wis., was a success. While the weather was unfavorable the attendance of our people was large. The Lord came very near to us in our meetings, and He greatly blessed His servants in presenting the word of truth. There was an excellent interest manifested by the people. The daily papers of Stevens Point gave us sufficient space free to publish quite a full synopsis of each evening sermon.

With the exception of a few changes in the executive committee, the officers of last year were all reelected. Sister Case had received a call from West Michigan to take up the work in Battle Creek. Our brethren in Wisconsin have greatly appreciated the faithful work of Sister Case, but they decided to release her and elected Sister Bertha Wohlers as educational and Missionary Volunteer secretary. S. Mortenson, secretary of the Swedish Department, brought the request to the conference from the Northern Union for an exchange of laborers between Elder Hoffman of Wisconsin and A. W. Erickson of Minnesota. The brethren in Wisconsin regretted to part with Brother Hoffman, but in view of the needs of the Swedish people, they were willing to do so and extended a very hearty welcome to Brother Erickson.

For many years it has been recognized that our conference offices were inadequate and were located in a city with most unfortunate railway facilities. It was proposed to move the Wisconsin Conference and Tract Society offices. The brethren considered this question in the light of what our work really needs at the present time. A committee of fifteen experienced and reliable men were selected to study the question of conference office and its location, with the distinct understanding that they are neither to build nor to buy, as the conference does not desire to increase its indebtedness. Wisconsin is a large state, and it is very difficult for the conference president and other conference officers to get around to the various churches and companies. It will greatly facilitate our work in that conference, if the offices in due time could be located in a place of first-class railway connections. However, this committee will not act until they have carefully considered the whole question and are fully agreed as to what to do. A year ago the tithe fund in Wisconsin was overdrawn nearly $5,000. This year it was only overdrawn $100. The brethren were all agreed to the principle of having a working capital in our treasury.

I have attended many camp meetings in this and other unions, but I have been to but few of these gatherings where the Spirit of the Lord was so manifested in the meetings, and where the people seemed more desirous of seeking God and of better courage in His work. Wisconsin needs a strong aggressive ministry and a safe financial policy. The Madison Sanitarium paid off more than $9,000 on its debt last year. We believe that this shows what our people can do and will do with other debts resting upon the Wisconsin Conference. Thursday morning a meeting was held on the subject of foreign missions. In all, as nearly as I learned, about $4,400 was pledged, of which only a small part I believe was conditional. I hope God may make the coming conference year in Wisconsin one of substantial prosperity and great spiritual blessings.

L. H. CHRISTIAN

Resolutions Passed at the Recent Camp Meeting Held at Stevens Point

1. Resolved, That we express to God our sincere gratitude for the blessings which have attended the various departments of our conference work during the past year, and that with renewed consecration, and increased faithfulness, we strive for the future to foster and promote the message committed to us.

"Review and Herald"

Whereas the Review and Herald is our general church paper, and the only journal representing the various features of this movement throughout the world, and

Whereas if we would maintain the spirit of the third angel's message in our hearts we must keep intelligent regarding its world-wide progress and the leadings of God in opening doors before it, and

Whereas the LAKE UNION HERALD represents our local work, acquainting us with its needs and progress, and

Whereas the Review and Herald Publishing Association offers the Review in club with the LAKE UNION HERALD for $1.75 a year; therefore,—

2. Resolved, That we club the LAKE UNION HERALD with the Review for $2.05 per annual subscription.

3. Resolved, That we make an earnest effort during the next conference year to place the Review and the LAKE UNION HERALD on a subscription basis in the home of every Sabbath-keeping Adventist in the Wisconsin Conference.

4. Resolved, That where there are found brethren and sisters too poor to pay the subscription price that we enlist the cooperation of the churches of which they are members in securing for them the regular and systematic reading of these two papers.

Religious Liberty Work

Believing that civil and religious freedom can only be guaranteed as long as there exists an absolute separation of church and state, and that Sunday laws abridge the free exercise of religion; therefore,—

5. Resolved, That we continue to protest against the enactment of laws by civil government for the compulsory observance of Sunday, or any other religious enactment which discriminates between the different sects as being contrary to the gospel plan and a departure from the fundamental principles upon which the American republic was founded.

6. Resolved, That we continue to protest against the enactment of laws by Congress and State Legislatures for the abridgment of free speech, a free press, and the freedom of the mails beyond existing statutes.

Whereas the Liberty magazine has done effective work among state legislators, executive officers, and judges of state courts, in moulding sentiment against religious legislation and the enforcement of Sunday laws; therefore,—

7. Resolved, That our conference continue to supply the Liberty magazine to the members of the State Legislature, the Governor and his cabinet, and the state supreme and circuit court judges, and that the necessary expense involved in this item be taken out of the annual collection for local religious liberty work.

8. Resolved, That we put forth an effort at our camp meeting to get our people to subscribe for the Liberty magazine at the club rate of 25 cents per yearly subscription.

Temperance and Prohibition

Whereas "The advocates of temperance fail to do their whole duty unless they exert their influence, by precept and example, by voice and pen and vote, in behalf of prohibition and total abstinence;" therefore,—

9. Resolved, That this question be given due attention and that our people everywhere prepare for united and effective action whenever the question of the prohibition of the liquor traffic shall be submitted to a vote of the people in the respective communities where they reside, and that our people be encouraged to circulate our splendid temperance literature on this subject.

10. Resolved, That we place ourselves on record as favoring the national prohibition of the liquor traffic as the most effective measure for the elimination of this national curse.

Recognizing the great need which exists for all classes of workers in the giving of this message to the world; therefore,—

11. We recommend, That the conference committee seek out suitable young men and women to take up canvassing, Bible reading work, and the ministry, as their talents and abilities will warrant and as circumstances require.

12. We recommend, That the churches cooperate with the representatives of the young people's and educational work in enabling these representatives to secure the definite information regarding the young people in the conference.

Whereas it is apparent that the greatest efficiency in the carrying out of the aims and purpose of the Sabbath school organization can be obtained by united efforts in a common purpose; therefore,—

13. We recommend, The three following goals:
(a) Daily study of the Sabbath school lesson,
(b) Personal work in behalf of Sabbath school scholars,
(c) $10,000 from Wisconsin Sabbath schools during the coming year.

Whereas the demand for more efficient workers in the Sabbath school is imperative; therefore,—

14. We recommend, That each and every Sabbath school urge upon its officers and teachers and others who may desire to prepare for a place in the Sabbath school work the importance of taking the Training

Course provided by the Sabbath School Department of the General Conference.

Whereas the aim of the Sabbath School Worker is to develop strong, resourceful, spiritual minded officers and teachers for the Sabbath school; therefore,—

15. We recommend, That efforts be put forth until the Worker is placed in the hands of each officer in all the Sabbath schools in our Wisconsin Conference, also each teacher.

And Whereas we believe that uniform consecration services would bring a great blessing to our Sabbath schools; therefore,—

16. We recommend, That the third Sabbath in May and the last Sabbath in December be set apart in every Sabbath school of this state for such services.
