Chosen Lessons

In the way that He shall choose
He will teach us;
Not a lesson we shall lose,
All shall reach us.

Strange and difficult indeed
We may find it;
But the blessing that we need
Is behind it.

All the lessons He shall send
Are the sweetest;
And His training, in the end,
Is completest.

To Church Officers

The church is a divine institution. It was established and ordained by the Lord Himself. To it He entrusted a heavy responsibility and a very sacred mission. The church is the light of the world. It is the one means by which the Lord sends His word to all the world. The church is God's people organized for the great work of saving sinners. Many of our opponents, and especially such as have left us recently, ridicule and belittle the church. This is nothing new. Satan has employed the same tactics from the very beginning of the advent movement. But we must never forget that God is the author not of confusion but of peace, and that He loves the organized, well-ordered work of His own church.

A home is what the parents make it. The nature and influence of a school is determined very largely by the teacher. The work and character of a local church is determined by the elder and other officers of said congregation. It is no small task to be a church elder, the deacon, or the treasurer. These leaders in our churches have a difficult and perplexing work to perform. We ministers must pray for them, encourage them, and stand by them. We must do everything we can to help them in their efforts to build up the cause of God in their community.

Just now we are in the midst of the Harvest Ingathering campaign. This is a part of our annual endeavor to secure funds for the cause of God at home and abroad. If our people will be faithful in paying their pledges, if we push the Harvest Ingathering work, and if we do our best in other ways to secure funds, the Lake Union Conference will not only be able to raise its apportionment of the foreign mission funds, but we will go a long way towards getting out of debt in our own field. We ought to pay every dollar that we owe on our institutions and in our conferences. If we keep on as we have begun, this will soon be accomplished. We are already well on the way. We desire to send a personal request to every church elder, treasurer, and other officers to cooperate with us in this effort. We are greatly encouraged by the splendid cooperation which a large number have given in the past. But we are now in the most important time of this important year. We believe that one reason why God has given us peace and a measure of prosperity is that He wishes us to get our debts paid and to secure a liberal support for our foreign work. It depends on our church officers more than on any other Seventh-day Adventists in the Lake Union Conference whether or not we shall succeed in this.

L. H. CHRISTIAN

The Harvest Ingathering Goal Shall We Reach It?

The $100,000 goal is still before us unreached in our Harvest Ingathering work. For three years this same goal has been voted by the General and North American Division conferences. Shall we really try this year to reach it? The nearest we have come to it yet is $56,282.99. This goal is on the basis of $1.54 for each church member. Really it would seem that each conference ought to raise this. And it might easily do so if each church would gather in its share. And that depends upon whether each church member fulfils his part.

October 21, the Maritime Conference, Eastern Canada, sent us a telegram saying they were already out on their portion of the goal.

According to reports sent by conference treasurers, to the Union Conference treasurer, on December 31, last year, the Lake Union stood as follows:

	SHARE OF $100,000	AMOUNT RAISED	DUE
E. Michigan	2,359.28	2,243.12	116.16
Indiana	2,667.28	1,012.78	1,654.50
N. Illinois	2,160.62	1,463.92	696.70
N. Michigan	1,207.36	600.00	607.36
S. Illinois	945.56	490.69	454.87
W. Michigan	3,763.76	998.39	2,765.37
Wisconsin	3,994.76	1,936.23	2,058.53
Lake Union	17,098.62	8,745.13	8,353.49

Before the colder weather comes on is the most favorable time for work with the missions number of the Signs. Some people to whom we will go will help. Others will not. But there is a real blessing in doing our duty whether we feel like it or not. There is some work we must do for the Lord that we do not like to do. But shall we pick out that only which pleases us? The Lord did not do that way. "He pleased not Himself."

God needs the help of every one just now whose heart He has touched with the love of this truth. He has work for you that you can do. Will you not persevere in your work with the Missions Signs this year until you know your conference has reached its portion of the $100,000. Is this a too large amount to attempt to raise for God, when every field is open to us to give the message, and the Lord is holding, to to some extent, the winds of strife for us to finish our work?

If you are out of papers write your conference secretary for more. Let us resolve within ourselves to do more this year in gathering funds for missions than ever before. "God loves a cheerful giver" [and a cheerful worker too].

Washington, October 26.

Everybody, Attention Please!

Seventh-day Adventists are at present undertaking one of the greatest missionary enterprises in their history—the raising of $100,000 for missions. This is all to be accomplished through the Harvest Ingathering campaign. Besides looking to every church member to do his duty, the leaders of this great movement are centering their attention upon the young people whom they expect to give a good, solid lift in this splendid work, and truly, this missionary undertaking is in itself one of the grandest opportunities that ever was offered the young people to assist in giving the everlasting gospel to all the world in this generation. Everyone can have a part, no matter how young or how inexperienced. The very work itself is a school of experience that is worth more than silver or gold. Lessons that some are anxious to learn will be found most emphatically simplified in this very school of experience, and they can be gained in no other way.

In our strongly organized Missionary Volunteer Societies we have a most powerful factor in the Harvest Ingathering work. Properly organized, and with the cooperation of ministers, church elders, and Bible workers, much more could be done by the young people in the raising of this Harvest Ingathering fund than has been done in the past.

To illustrate what one of our Missionary Volunteer Societies here in the Lake Union Conference is doing, I shall briefly refer to the work that is being done by the Humboldt Park Scandinavian society in Chicago. This society, which has a membership of twenty, decided at a special meeting held two weeks ago to make its goal $100, which would mean that every member would have to raise $5, which we believe is a very reasonable average for our young people. It was further recommended that every member should try to raise at least one dollar during every week that passed till the goal was reached. Everybody was most enthusiastic over this new undertaking. Another special meeting was appointed for October 25, at which time the experiences would be related and the results counted and added. It was a meeting with stirring and ringing testimonies—reports just fresh from the battle field.

All seemed to have enjoyed the work, to say the least, and notwithstanding hard work on the part of most of the members they had reached their dollar goal for the week. One member had even worked till one hour before the meeting when he finally succeeded in reaching and even passing his goal. Eleven out of the sixteen members present had raised one dollar or more, and of the remaining five, the sums collected varied from twenty to ninety cents. The sum total, in which is included what had been gathered previous to the first special Harvest Ingathering meeting, showed that $66.39 had been raised. This was a source of great inspiration to everyone present.

The goal for the next week was again set at one dollar per member, and so this good work will go on till the goal is reached. At first it seemed like a big undertaking for twenty members to raise $100, but as things stand, it will, with God's help, soon be an accomplished fact, and the society will probably set a new and higher goal.

Now what is being done by this Humboldt Park Society in Chicago can be done and should be done by every society throughout the Lake Union. No doubt some are working after similar plans, but I write this experience for the benefit of those who have not fully taken hold of this most noble work.

Encourage the young people and the children to have a part in this missionary undertaking. Let every young person rally to this Harvest Ingathering campaign and help reach the $100,000. We believe it can be done, and will be done, but the young people must carry their part of the burden.

Italian Work

We are glad to report that the Italian work here in Chicago is making steady progress. Sabbath, October 9, we had the privilege of burying three precious souls with Christ in baptism. These three have joined our church which now numbers thirty. We have quite a few interested ones, and a few more are ready for baptism.

The Italian church school is again in operation this year with an attendance of twenty-four. Seven grades are taught by Miss Amalia Eitel. If our schoolroom were larger, and we had more desks we would have more pupils. This church school is proving a great blessing to our Italian work, and we are anxious to see our children saved and have them trained in the Lord's work. Some of the children will in time become valuable workers in the Italian field.

Our publication, La Verita [The Truth] is meeting with splendid success. We sold the last issue of the paper so readily that we have decided to print one thousand more copies of the next issue which will be ready about the first of November. Most of the papers, of course, are sold here in Chicago, but brethren and sisters in other places where there are Italian communities have also circulated the paper to good advantage. Are there Italians in your neighborhood, dear reader? if so, we shall be pleased to mail you some of these truth-filled papers. The paper is a twenty-four page quarterly, with a beautiful three color cover. It is well illustrated. It contains a contents table printed in the English, so that you may know what the paper contains. Many of our American brethren and sisters here in Chicago have been selling the magazine without being able to speak one Italian word. The paper speaks for itself, but as it cannot walk, it only needs the assistance of the legs of somebody who believes in the divine goal: "The Third Angel's Message to all the World in this Generation." Now is the time to work. The Italians are everywhere, and their number is steadily increasing. We shall be pleased to furnish anyone interested in this most important missionary enterprise with sample copies of the paper. Only drop us a postal card and we shall be glad to furnish you with any information in regard to the Italians and our work among them, that we have in hand.

Our literature offers a splendid opportunity for every member to be an active missionary, and as the foreign work in this country is a most neglected part of this great cause, we appeal to you, dear reader, to help us give the message to the hundreds of thousands, yea, millions of Italians in this country. All requests and orders should be sent either to the North American Foreign Department, 3645 Ogden Avenue, Chicago, Ill., or to Elder R. Calderone, 1419 W. Austin Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

The Goal Reached

The results in any enterprise are always better if one has a goal before him and then bends every energy to reach the mark. This year when the Harvest Ingathering work was planned for, I set my goal at $50, an amount in advance of what I had raised in any past year in this work. Following the motto of one who said, "Attempt great things for God and expect great things from God," I went out after earnestly seeking God to direct me to the right persons at the right time. A list was made up of names of friends and those we have business transactions with. Nearly every visit brought returns. Offerings were made as follows: one at 15 cents, six at 25 cents, ten at 50 cents, twenty at $1, four at $2, four at $5—a total of $54.65. Work was done in Chicago, Ottawa, and Streator to obtain the above results.

At Ottawa and Streator a meeting was held with the companies in the evening and the following day, accompanied by one of the brethren at each place to introduce me, the soliciting was done. We met with varied objections, but in nearly every case secured an offering before leaving. At Ottawa $15 was secured, and at Streator $19.25. This is included in the above $54.65. Plans were also laid for the work to be continued at these places by the members.

In the West Side church of Chicago, better results are being obtained this year than heretofore. One sister, recently baptized, has gathered in over eleven dollars. Another one who in past years gave away and paid for them out of her funds, this year, after being encouraged, solicited donations for the papers and thus far has succeeded in getting nearly ten dollars, and is still working with enthusiasm.

This work certainly affords the churches an excellent opportunity to make up the deficit on the mission funds, and at the same time give those going out a good experience in missionary work. It ought to be but the beginning of an all-the-year-round campaign in earnest missionary endeavor.

Tri-City Sanitarium News Items

Misses Alice Kegebein and Myrtle Johnson of Chicago have recently entered the nurses' training class. Miss Lelia Newbiee of Madison, Tenn., has arrived to take up the second year's nurses' course.

Elder L. A. Hansen of Washington, D. C., made us a short call one day last week. Since the meeting of business managers and superintendents of our sanitariums at Washington, D. C., a year ago, Brother Hansen has been working up a central purchasing bureau for the associated sanitariums of the United States. In this way each sanitarium can purchase all supplies at a greatly reduced price and save thousands of dollars.

Dr. B. E. Nicola of the Attleboro, (Mass.) Sanitarium, made us a very pleasant call last week. He was off for California on a six weeks' vacation.

Mrs. Carl Haggenjos of Galesburg is making a good recovery from a serious operation. Her daughter, Miss Irma, is nursing her.

Since dividing our gymnasium up into rooms for patients, we have been at a loss for a proper meeting place for vespers, worship, young people's meeting, and prayer meeting. We finally decided to fix up the front part of the basement, where the old treatment-rooms used to be, for an assembly room. The room is painted a light gray, and is well lighted by the large plate-glass windows in front.

At last we have secured a lot for our church. After we had almost despaired of obtaining a suitable location, our attention was called to a lot about one block from the sanitarium. We feared the price would be beyond our reach as a corner lot in the same block recently sold for $3,565. But upon learning that the lot could be had for $1,800, with all taxes and paving assessments paid, we secured it at once. Work on our church will be started very soon. We are planning to build a stucco chapel containing a baptistry and seating about two hundred and fifty.

Astoria and Farmington

It was my privilege to spend Sabbath and Sunday, October 16 and 17, with the little company at Astoria. One brother and his wife have recently moved into that city from Pennsylvania, and will be a great help to the company there. At present, there are eleven Sabbath-keepers living in and around Astoria, and they had requested organization into a church, so it was my privilege to baptize two and then organize a church. I am sure the days I spent with the Astoria company will long be remembered by them.

The church is not large, but the brethren and sisters are united, and are thoroughly grounded in the message, and I believe that the organization of the church will mean the upbuilding of the work at that place.

From Astoria, I went to Farmington and spent two days with the church in the interest of the Harvest Ingathering. They have done nobly in this work, and I believe will make the best showing they have ever made. We had some good meetings and a very good spirit was manifested.

A. J. CLARK

At Emmanuel Missionary College

Some of the readers of the HERALD may have missed my reports and wonder why. I entered school here September 21, and the Lord willing I expect to remain until the close of the school year, May 23. At that time I plan to return to the Southern Illinois Conference to labor.

Sabbath, October 23, I had the pleasure of organizing a Young People's Missionary Volunteer Society in the Berrien Springs Village church. This society has a membership of forty-six promising young people. I have been chosen as elder of this church. Brother Mulligan, also of Southern Illinois, is the other elder.

C. J. SMITH

East Alton

We are glad to report that the message is onward here and that souls are still deciding for truth.

Sabbath, September 18, Brother Clark met with us, and three sisters went forward in baptism. We plan to do all we can in the Harvest Ingathering campaign, and thus continue to spread the message in this place.

Mishawaka

Since our last report we have been working in the city giving Bible readings and are now holding a series of meetings in the M. E. church. The opposition from the ministers has been in a silent way but it has not failed to have an influence. However we have a few substantial people who have taken their stand. One is business manager of the cooraperative printing house, who at one time worked with Billy

Sunday in his revivals. Another is a boss in the Dodge Factory and is the only mechanic who can make dies in the factory. We have four families who are greatly troubled and we hope they will take their stand.

We are informed that over one-half of the women of the city work in factories, and that over one-half are Catholics.

We may be compelled to close our work in this place and open a series of meetings in the city of South Bend. We have received fair sums on the Harvest Ingathering papers.

Church Schools Visited

Our Indianapolis church school is taking time off each week for the Harvest Ingathering work. Some of the pupils do very well in this campaign. Miss Clapper and Miss LeFevre have their Junior Society meetings together on Wednesday mornings. Miss Clapper has charge of the higher grades and Miss LeFevre the primary room.

The Middletown school began its first session September 6, with an increase in attendance over last year. I spent three days there. Miss Hughes is teacher.

Miss Jacobs has the eight grades this year. Every seat is filled with bright boys and girls. I spent three days at Muncie at the beginning of school.

Maxwell has a new church school this year. At first the attendance was small, but it is gradually increasing. The church is well pleased with the school. Miss Pressnall often expresses the real joy she realizes in her work.

I visited the Boggstown school on September 17. The children all seemed very enthusiastic over their work, together with their teacher, Miss Misner.

Miss Murphy began the Junior Reading Course work early. The Andersen boys and girls are all working for a certificate at the close of school. I was glad to note the good spirit that pervaded this school.

Miss Blake has a very enthusiastic Junior Society at Noblesville. I spent the first day of school here, and was glad to see how systematically they had arranged their program for the year.

I spent two days in the Wolf Lake school. It is a bright, busy place to be. Mr. Orville Dunn is teaching there.

We have a private school at Mishawaka. They have a comfortable room, and the pupils enjoy their work. Miss Maggie Hicks is teacher.

The Kokomo church school is occupying a new room this year. Miss Priddy has organized a strong Junior Society, and the children seem anxious to work.

This is the fifth year Brother Fellow has carried on his private church school at Greentown. Miss Lois Johnson is teacher.

As usual, I found a large attendance at the Hartford City school. This is one of our best equipped school-rooms in the state. Miss Hicks tells me that her school expects to do its share in the Harvest Ingathering work.

I plan to visit our other schools in the near future. These teachers report that they are enjoying their work. In the schools where I have visited, I found an excellent missionary spirit.

News Items

We regret to record the death of Brother George Kitson, the elder of the Marion church. The funeral services were conducted by Elder Irwin, October 21. Brother Kitson was a valuable leader and devoted in every way to the third angel's message.

The statistical report for the third quarter shows the membership of the conference to be 1,000. We are now in the "four figure class." The steady growth of the membership indicates that the work our churches and laborers are doing has been blessed of God to the bearing of fruit. With the increase of membership, the future should show still larger returns. Let us take courage and press forward unitedly.

The Sabbath schools gave to missions a total of $716.89 the last three months. We are now in the last quarter of the year, and everyone is looking to the Sabbath schools to do their best in helping the conference to reach its goal on the Twenty-cent-a-week Fund. We should see at least $1,000 come from this source this quarter. Shall we not make the effort?

A number of the churches and a fairly large per cent of the isolated believers have sent in their quarterly reports of home missionary work, but we are not satisfied. The records are being made up and will show quite a number of churches without a report. Our church elders should consider this important phase of the church work, and urge all the members to be faithful in reporting their work; and should see that the missionary secretary renders the quarterly report promptly to the office. If our elders were to see the reports from their churches, we might see better and larger reports at the office.

Splendid reports continue to come in from those at work with the Harvest Ingathering. The isolated members are being especially blessed in the work. We shall surely reach our aim of $2,000 from the Ingathering if every believer is faithful in the campaign.

Orders continue to come in to the office for the valuable Reading Course books. Families can form evening reading circles and pursue one or both of the courses. It would be profitable for parents to join their children in reading, taking turns at reading the assignments each week. It would be hard to find more interesting books.

Is there any talk of your county voting on local option next spring? If so you have the very best opportunity for circulating that fine temperance book, "Shadow of the Bottle." If you have not seen it, send 25 cents to the office for a copy. I think Wexford and Otsego counties are preparing petitions. The churches at Cadillac, Colfax, Mesick, and Gaylord can now give a good account of themselves. We shall watch the mails for your orders.

We are planning for a heavy demand of the Berean Library of twelve standard books for $2.15, postage extra. These books retail for $3.60 and are very suitable for lending during the winter when the evenings are long.

The Ingathering Campaign

We were asked to take a tour in the southern part of this conference in the interest of the above work.

The brethren at Flint, our first place before going south, were anxious to do their part. One sister, only recently baptized, was very enthusiastic over the work. She took her ten papers the next day and started out. At an experience meeting held that night she said that her supply of papers was exhausted before she had covered half her territory, and that she wanted fifty more papers. Her face was all aglow because of her experience.

We found the Jefferson church of good courage. The Spirit of the Lord was manifest at the first meeting and though they were very busy, all decided to take hold of the work. We had three very profitable meetings with them. One good brother, who before would never take hold of this line of the Lord's work, got a victory and promised to do all he could.

From there we went to Hillsdale, where a small company came together. Nearly all were inspired by the words spoken. The next day we took two of the members and went to the country soliciting. We gathered in nearly six dollars. At the evening service it was surely interesting to hear those who had been out give their experiences.

We next visited the Prattville company. Already some had begun the work. After the preaching service all consecrated themselves anew to the Lord. One brother who had backslidden was so deeply impressed, that the next day, with ten papers, he took the train and solicited on the train. When he came back in the evening he had gathered over two dollars and had had a wonderful experience. Though one may feel discouraged and disheartened, it is good medicine to get out in the work. It strengthens the weak heart and kindles the little spark that still remains.

At Adrian we spent Sabbath and Sunday. How the Spirit of God came in our midst here! We found them of good courage and rejoicing in the blessed hope. One brother had already gathered several times his quota. As the result of our visit here one precious soul took her stand with the remnant people. A good interest was manifested by the outsiders, who desired further studies and asked an interest in our prayers. The time is now ripe for work to be done at this place. Pray that God will send a consecrated worker there.

We filled our appointment at Belleville. The members here had planned to get their work done before our arrival, that they might be free to visit along the lines of the message for this time. The faithful elder, who is a busy man, found some time to give to God in this good work, and in the odd moments of his time had gathered in $15. This should be a good example and an incentive to all our dear elders.

We then came to Willis. Several outsiders were present at the first meeting, and a deep interest was manifested. We have our last meeting tonight. There are several new ones here. They all love the truth, and there is a call for someone to come here and finish the work begun last spring.

Brother Floyd Rowland did faithful work here and those who took their stand are working for their friends.

Our prayer to God is that all may do faithful work so that we may soon go home.

A Glad Return

Twenty-two years ago last June, I held a series of meetings at Jefferson, Hillsdale County, which resulted in adding some twenty or more to the Jefferson church. In July of the same year we pitched our tent at Prattville in the southeastern part of Hillsdale County, and through the blessing of God succeeded in raising up a church. There were some in that place who were seeking most earnestly for light, and when the tent effort began they attended. It was not long until these honest souls accepted the truth. There were a number of Dunkard brethren at Prattville, and they had a very neat little church building. All the trustees and a large portion of the membership of this church took their stand for the truth, and since that time their little church has been used in the proclamation of the last message of mercy to the world.

Our dear old Brother Fargo, then president of the old Michigan Conference, assisted in organizing the work here. A church school was soon started, which was kept up until the youth were large enough to attend our larger schools. Nearly all of the large number who attended this school are in the truth, and some are working in the cause of God. After long years of absence, I was again permitted, a few days since, to meet with these dear brethren again and present to them the bread of life. It was indeed refreshing and encouraging to hear them tell how much more precious the truth of God is to them now than when they accepted it many years ago. They surely have been growing in grace and in the knowledge of the truth. Some have gone to rest, awaiting the call of the Life-giver.

In each of these places they are anxious for a series of meetings to be held, and believe that others will be added to their number. May the Lord bless these dear churches and keep them faithful.

Adelphian Academy News Notes

Mrs. Chas. Glidden, of Berrien Springs, began her work as teacher in the primary department last Monday morning, relieving Mrs. M. E. Hitchcock who has been filling the place temporarily.

As a result of cataloging the library which has recently been finished, we find that we have about 1,200 volumes. A number of the students have interested themselves in increasing this number so that other additions will be made to the library within a few weeks.

Sunday evening, Oct. 24, about fifty of the members of the church gathered at the home of Elder and Mrs. Morrison, who are soon to move to another part of the conference. A token of appreciation for their work here was given them just before the members separated that night.

A stereopticon lecture was given in the chapel Saturday evening, Oct. 16, by Elder Videto. The new lantern recently purchased for the school did good work and a large number of patrons and students present expressed their appreciation of this profitable form of entertainment.

Elder Guild spent a few hours last week with his daughter and son.

The new work shop, which the academy boys are erecting, is nearly completed, and will soon be in use.

The members of the school board met here Oct. 27 and 28. Elder Nicola talked to the students during the chapel hour, Thursday. His subject was "Obedience." This talk made a deep impression upon many who heard it.

The young people's society gave an interesting program Sabbath afternoon, Oct. 23. Lottie E. Bell gave a talk on "Membership," and just before the meeting closed many new names were added, as a result of her talk.

Harvest Ingathering

An active interest in the Ingathering work is being manifested in the churches in this part of the state, and a goodly sum of money has already been gathered in.

Elder Lewsadder and the writer spent four days soliciting the business men in the cities of Eau Claire and Chippewa Falls, and as a result $136.90 was gathered in for the cause of God. We are thankful for answered prayers, and we expect to see much more accomplished.

Our Schools

I have finished a tour of the Wisconsin schools including all but four. I am glad to report a progressive outlook for each of the schools. Our schools this year, practically without exception, are following the course of study outlined by the Department, and are working unitedly toward the same goal.

I can report twenty-eight centers. I have not had time to compile a report embodying the enrollment of each, but the following is a list of schools with their teachers:

- Moon, Miss Eliza Parfitt, Mosinee, R. 1
- Bethel, Mrs. Bertha Peake, Bethel
- La Farge, Miss Edna Sweet, La Farge
- Milton Junction, Miss Grace Jordan, Milton Jct.
- Leona, Mrs. Esther Kloss, West De Pere, R. 2
- Arpin, Mrs. E. A. Allen, Arpin, R. 1
- Cataract, Mrs. Louise Anderson, Cataract
- Walderly, Miss Gertrude Holmes, So. Range, R. 2
- Hines, Mrs. John Hoffman, So. Range, R. 2
- Poy Sippi, Miss Jennie Nelson, Poy Sippi
- Tunnel City, Miss Maude Bisbee, Tunnel City
- Waterloo, Miss Mabel V. Jensen, Cassville, R. F. D.
- Madison, Miss Grace Jorgensen, Care Sanitarium
- Clear Lake, Miss Lillian Kirschner, Clear Lake, R. F. D.
- Oakland, Miss Doris H. Johnson, R. 5, Box 71, Ft. Atkinson
- Raymond, Miss Mabel Parfitt, Franksville, R. 9
- Clearwater Lake, Mr. Geo. Crawford, Mrs. Mina Hege, Clearwater Lake
- Oneida, Miss Inez Brasier, West De Pere, R. 2
- Shennington, Miss Marian Engelbert, Valley Jct.
- Bear Lake, Miss Euphemia Macaulay, Chetek, R. F. D.
- Eau Claire, Miss Frances DeVinney, 429 Water St.
- Baraboo, Mr. Tate Buck, Baraboo, Wis.
- Marshfield, Miss Flora McChesney, Marshfield
- Almond, Miss Mary Beggs, Almond

I hope now that the schools have opened and the teachers been placed, to give some time and stronger application to the Missionary Volunteer Department. I most sincerely hope that we may have some returns soon from young people who will take advantage of the opportunity for self-improvement in the Standard of Attainment and Missionary Volunteer Reading Courses. We have a nice enrollment in both, but there are many other young people who ought to be pursuing these studies this winter, preparatory to the spring examinations. If you are not working on either of these, write at once for application blank. Do not forget to pray for the work in Wisconsin.

Bethel News Notes

Kenneth Macaulay enrolled this week.

Miss May Lewins visited friends and relatives at Bethel the past week.

The girls of the Home have received a set of the Senior Reading Course books. Their aim is a reading course certificate for every girl in the Home.

Prayer bands have been organized. These bands meet each Monday at the regular chapel hour.

The farm management is clearing the school land. Already the work is beginning to show.

New walks have been laid out between the various buildings. The old ways have been plowed to sow to grass seed. These new walks give promise of a more attractive campus in the future.

Early last Thursday morning, Professor and Mrs. Elliott started out with a company of students for the first day of the Harvest Ingathering campaign. This company went to Grand Rapids. The church of that city had assigned the business section, and the territory west of the river to the school to work. Many and varied were the experiences these young people met with—two of the number were stopped by a policeman, and sent to the mayor to explain their mission in the city, for the report had been sent in that these young men were collecting money "for the war." When their identity was established by the mayor's phoning to a friend of theirs in the city, and when sufficient explanation had been made the young men were released. These young people came home with more than their quota of the amount to be raised by the school. From the note of courage sounded in the enthusiastic reports rendered at the chapel hour the day following, all are ready to go again. This active service is an excellent spiritual tonic.

Notes on the Harvest Ingathering

Geo. Wikander, our Swedish minister in North Michigan, wrote October 14, "My Harvest Ingathering fund is now $27.28, and growing from now until Christmas."

From a letter recently received from C. M. Christian-son, the business manager of the Wabash Valley Sanitarium, we quote: "Most of the sanitarium family have been out in the Harvest Ingathering, and we are in hopes that before we get through with this good work that all who wish may have a chance to have a part in it. I expect to call our family together tomorrow evening and read your letter to them, for I believe it will help those who have already been in the field and stimulate those who have been rather timid and have not felt like taking up the work. Already quite a number have received a dollar and a half and three and one-half dollars and some will reach five dollars, and perhaps more. Personally, I am glad for the part I have had in the Harvest Ingathering campaign and I would not miss the experience for anything. I thank the Lord for the success that He has given me in raising money for these needy mission fields. So far I have obtained $52 in cash, and I am expecting to reach at least $75."

Our colored minister in Chicago, Elder W. D. Forde, writes: "I am glad to be able to report that the members of my church are taking hold of the campaign in earnest. Already I think that they have taken out more than six hundred papers. One of the recent converts who came to us direct from the Catholic Church, has manifested much enthusiasm. Though not yet a baptized member, she has been out and raised $5. I feel that if she were the only one who had responded as a result of the tent meetings, the effort would not have been in vain. I expect that we shall raise quite a goodly sum. The matter has been fully agitated in my church. I am setting the example by saying, "Come."
