The Lesson from the Camel

The camel at the close of day,
Kneels down upon the sandy plain
To have his burden lifted off
And rest to gain.

My soul thou too shouldst to thy knees, When daylight draweth to a close, And let thy Master lift the load And grant repose.

Else how couldst thou tomorrow meet, With all tomorrow's work to do, If thou thy burden all the night Didst carry through?

The camel kneels at break of day
To have his guide replace his load;
Then rises up anew to take
The desert road.

So thou shouldst kneel at morning's dawn
That God may give thee daily care,
Assured that He no load too great
Will make thee bear.

Religious Liberty

The Bible clearly teaches us that a time of religious persecution is at hand. An image of the papacy will be erected in the United States. This does not mean that the United States will finally be dominated by the Catholics as a church organization, but there will be a union among the Protestants and the papal power in this country, which union will be an image of Rome. God has given us as a people precious light on this subject. He has also instructed us to study and defend the sacred principles of religious liberty.

From a recent letter sent out by the Liberty Magazine we take the following:

"Roman Catholics are boasting through their publications that at the next Congress they will again introduce bills, prohibiting from the mails anti-Catholic literature. They give a partial list of such publications, and in this list are found the Protestant Magazine and Liberty. Although Liberty has been particularly free from reference to Catholicism, yet it is included, showing that Seventh-day Adventist literature will come under Rome's prohibition from the mails.

"After our brethren in Oklahoma appealed their cases for Sunday work, we understand that a mob entered the premises of our people, and beat three of our brethren, one of whom is not expected to live. Brethren in Tennessee have also been indicted for Sunday work.

"The Lord's Day Alliance has decided to urge that all Sunday law exemptions in favor of Seventh-day Adventists be eliminated from the statute books; and that all Sunday laws, fines, and imprisonments, be doubled; and finally, that the property of Seventh-day Adventists be confiscated for violation of Sunday laws. These people also say that they are determined to get a Sunday law through Congress at its next session.

"These things, in a nutshell, are what are before us. We wonder if our brethren in your conference are acquainted with the real situation; and if so, why they are not circulating more copies of the Liberty Magazine? Surely the time is ripe. They should at least be subscribers, and we wish you would present the following proposition throughout the state:

"By the members clubbing together, four or more yearly subscriptions sent in at one time can be secured for 25 cents each, and mailed to separate addresses. Thus we hope greatly to increase the list of subscriptions in your conference, and hope that many will take hold to sell and distribute the magazine."

We hope our brethren will give attention to this important notice, and do what they can for the circulation of our religious liberty literature.

An Inspiring Example

We are much encouraged by the deep and practical interest which our people are showing in the Harvest Ingathering campaign. Many have not only begun on time, but they are keeping right on. Some say that they expect to continue the work until New Year's. It would be well if all could do this. We have received a large number of letters and reports that show us that our people are very hard at work giving out these good papers and asking for mission funds. We have received several letters from our older workers. of our ministers, who are over eighty-five years of age, have written us the last few days concerning the Harvest Ingathering. They all write that while they are feeble, and while it seems difficult for them to raise their goal of $25, yet they wish to do their full share in this work, and they are all planning to reach their goal. We desire to thank these faithful pioneers for this inspiring example. They have labored over forty years, and one of them nearly fifty, in this sacred cause. We hope that God will greatly bless these His aged servants. L. H. CHRISTIAN

Encouraging Reports in the Midst of Our Harvest Ingathering Campaign

In a recent communication published in this paper regarding the Harvest Ingathering work, a mistake was made in stating the highest amount yet raised in our efforts to reach the $100,000 goal. The statement read: "The nearest we have come to it yet is $56,282.99." It should have read: "The nearest we have come to it yet is $57,598.73."

We are glad to make this correction, for these figures reveal the difference between our work for 1913 and that for 1914. I am sure we are all becoming very much interested as to the difference, in our upward climb, between what we shall harvest this year and the $57,598.73 gathered last year. In other words, our gain last year over the preceding year was $1,315.74. What shall be the gain this year over $57,598.73? Our earnest work from now to the close of December will tell.

There is one important matter we should not overlook, and that is, not to have papers left over. One brother who came into our office the other day stated that in two or three churches in a certain conference which he recently visited, he found large quantities of the Ingathering Review down in the basement, left-overs from two of three campaigns. Every such bundle represents a direct loss to the cause of missions, to the amount of the cost of the papers. It is sufficient, no doubt, simply to mention this, in order to make sure that these good papers are all judiciously used and not allowed to accumulate in our churches, our conference offices, or our homes, but instead are distributed in such a way as to prove an asset to God's cause.

Most encouraging reports are coming in, a few of which we pass on.

The secretary of the Virginia Conference, Brother F. N. Johnson, writes of his joy in receiving a check for $25 from their bank president.

Another brother, in business, called on his banker, who had given an offering last year, of $25, we judge. The brother told him that last year we gathered $57,000 for missions, but were attempting this year to raise $100,000, and suggested that he would have to double his offering this year. The banker entered into our enthusiasm to reach the goal, and wrote his check for $50.

South Lancaster Academy set out to harvest $1,000. The principal, Prof. B. F. Machlan, set for himself one tenth of the school, and on October 24 had secured half of his portion.

Brother William Covert, in Illinois, is at work systematically again this year. One day his records showed twenty-eight contributions, amounting to $24. Another day, forty-six people visited gave $18; and on another, forty-two gave $22. Up to November 5 he had gathered $142.90.

The Swedish Seminary, as a result of two days' work reaped $170, or about $100 more than in any previous effort.

The Battle Creek church is alive and determined to do its share. Brother McVagh, the president of that conference, had $24.70 in hand when last heard from. Last year the following conferences reached, or passed, in the order named, their portion of the $100,000 goal: Newfoundland, Maritime, Quebec, Ontario, Mississippi, Nevada Mission, Northern California, Utah, Maine, Saskatchewan, Iowa, District of Columbia.

So far this year [November 11] Maritime and Maine are out.

The Harvest Ingathering by Correspondence

Some of our members are feeble, some are invalids, and unable to get about, but they want a part in this Harvest Ingathering effort. Requests have come in for suggestive letters, and in response the following suggestive letters are given:

To a Relative

My dear Uncle:

I have at last found a way to do a little in behalf of the mission work in which I am so much interested, even though I am confined to my home, and the most of the time to my bed.

Our missionary society has issued a Harvest Ingathering number of our missionary paper, which contains a sketch of the progress of our mission work in eighty-five different countries. It contains a number of pictures, most of which were made from photographs taken by our missionaries.

We are now supporting nearly three thousand missionaries in foreign lands. In addition to what they secure in their fields, we raise nearly eight hundred thousand dollars a year, or more than two thousand dollars a day, for their support.

The Lord has blessed you and your family with health during the past year, and has prospered you in your business, and I feel sure that you will appreciate the privilege of making a little donation in behalf of the mission work represented by our paper.

I am sending you a copy of the paper by today's mail. The enclosed Solicitor's Card will show you that I am authorized to collect funds for the Mission Board. Whatever donation you send me will be forwarded promptly to the Mission Treasury.

Thanking you in advance for whatever gift you may send,

Affectionately yours,

To a Business Man

Dear Sir:

I am taking the liberty of sending you by this mail, under separate cover, a copy of the special Missions Number of the Signs of the Times.

My reason for doing this is to interest you in the work we are doing in eighty-five different countries, to Christianize, civilize, and educate the people of these lands. As a business man, I am sure you will appreciate the value of this work of raising the standard of living among these people and teaching them habits of industry and thrift.

This year has been a year of war and bloodshed, which has made it more than ever necessary that the citizens of the United States should rally to the support of Christian missions. This country has been blessed with peace and a good degree of prosperity, which is fast making it the leading nation in the world. These privileges may well call out from us grateful acknowledgments of God's goodness.

The enclosed "Official Solicitor's Card" will show you that I am duly authorized to solicit donations for foreign missions. I am one of 75,000 persons who have volunteered to assist in this way.

If you are interested in this work of uplifting the less favored nations, you may be willing to contribute to its support by sending me a donation. Please write your name and the amount on the card and return it with the donation. Every amount will be gratefully received and forwarded to the Mission Board at Washington, D. C.

Wishing you prosperity in your business, Yours respectfully,

To One Whose Occupation Is Unknown

Dear Sir: (or Madam)

I am taking the liberty of sending you by this mail, under separate cover, a copy of the special Missions Number of the Signs of the Times.

My reason for doing this is that I believe you will be interested in this report of the work we are doing in eighty-five different countries, to Christianize, civilize, and educate the people of these lands.

This year has been a year of war and bloodshed, which has made it more than ever necessary that the citizens of the United States should rally to the support of Christian missions. This country has been blessed with peace and a good degree of prosperity and been spared much of the suffering other countries are enduring. These privileges may well call out from us grateful thank offerings for God's goodness.

The enclosed "Official Solicitor's Card" will show you that I am duly authorized to solicit donations for foreign missions.

If you are interested in this work of uplifting the people in those lands where the gospel has as yet made small progress and where they have had few educational and other privileges, you may be willing to contribute to its support. Please write your name and the amount of the donation you desire to give on the card and return it to me with the donation. Any amount you may feel free to give will be gratefully received and forwarded to the Mission Board at Washington, D. C.

Wishing you the continued enjoyment of the blessings of peace and prosperity,

Yours respectfully,

It is not expected that these letters will be copied just as they are, but that they will give ideas of how such letters may be written. With these suggestions in mind, after a careful study of the paper, and earnest prayer for help, letters can be written that will touch hearts and lead them to assist in the work.

Untangling a Tangle

In the past there has been considerable misunderstanding in regard to the matter of reporting both missionary work done by the young people in our Senior and Junior societies and the missions' money raised by them.

All this will be eliminated if the secretaries of our societies will only remember to make out their reports in duplicate, giving one copy to the missionary secretary, or librarian of the church, and sending the other to the Missionary Volunteer secretary of the conference.

Since the young people's society is a department of the church, all work done by them, and money raised on their missions' goal, should be reported to the church. It should also be reported to the conference M. V. department, so that it may be determined just how much has been accomplished by our young people's societies in active missionary work, both at home and abroad.

It is truly encouraging to witness the willingness with which both Seniors and Juniors are taking hold of the Harvest Ingathering campaign. The teachers and pupils in nearly all of our church schools are engaging in this work, and some already have attained their goal.

Be sure to report all funds gathered in this campaign not only to the society but also to the church. It might appear to some that this would lead to confusion, and an inflated report of the work done by our young people. Not at all, since the statistical report compiled at Washington is taken from the church records only, which comprise the work done by all members of the church this including the Missionary Volunteers. However, the Missionary Volunteer department desires to know what is being done by the societies, and hence the necessity of the two reports previously referred to.

The following quotation is from the North American Division Conference:

"(b) That in instructing the young people in their Harvest Ingathering efforts with the missions Signs that the proceeds will apply upon their Missionary Volunteer financial goal, they be told that it shall not be counted out of the general Ingathering goal; but when the money is sent in to the conference treasurer, it be noted as from the young people's society, the treasurer indicating this in some manner as he enters it upon his regular Harvest Ingathering account. Thus the amount raised by the young people can be reported later, but the money count, as it should, on the general Ingathering goal."

Our Higher Schools

A glance at the brief statistical report at the close of this article reveals the fact that our College, Seminary, and academies are meeting with a degree of prosperity. It will be observed that there is an increase in the number of students enrolled over last year of one hundred three. We are not satisfied with this. While it is encouraging and we are glad to note a growth, our hearts go out to the hundreds who ought to be preparing for a place in God's work, but who are in the world's training schools. We have not worked hard enough, prayed long enough, sacrificed freely enough. Had we done this, our schools would not be able to accommodate the students knocking at their doors, and we should have to build larger.

Some fathers and mothers need converting on the subject of Christian education; some of our young people need a broader vision of their life work; and we all need that consecration of heart and life which will place first things first no matter at what cost.

Very few changes have been made in the personnel of the College faculty during the past few years.

Thus a degree of permanency has been secured which is essential to the success of institutional work.

One change in the faculty at Fox River Academy was made necessary because of the fact that the preceptor and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Reid Shepard, have come to the College. Professor Johnson and wife, who for some time had been connected with the Danish-Norwegian Seminary, accepted a call to take up the work laid down by Mr. Shepard. Two days were pleasantly, and I trust profitably spent at this school in October.

It was my privilege to spend three days each at Bethel and Walderly during the latter part of the month.

At Bethel, I found a spirit of harmony and cooperation prevailing among both faculty and students.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wohlers and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Straight have recently come to this school from Berrien Springs. Mr. Wohlers is farm manager and Mrs. Wohlers, matron. Mr. Straight is the accountant and store manager. Everyone of the faculty has some definite classroom work to perform and is thus kept in close touch with the literary work of the school.

At Walderly, I was greeted by an unusually large group of smiling, contented students. The girls' dormitory is completed and the new boys' dormitory is ready for the plaster. It is a commodious, well-proportioned building.

This school is following the same course of study and using the same texts as our other schools. There were no changes in the faculty. In fact, the only changes in the past have come as a result of the growth of the school, additions being made from time to time as the work progressed.

The following brief summary will prove of interest to the friends of Christian education:

Eau Claire Nearing the Goal

The report of our mission funds for the first nine months of this year showed that our church was behind on the twenty-cent-a-week plan $152, and should we continue as before we would, at the end of the year, be over $200 behind, and if Wisconsin came out even on their mission funds some one would, by their faithfulness, have to lift us out of the pit of unfaithfulness.

I was greatly ashamed of our position, and after counseling with the church we decided to raise $200 in the Ingathering work; and our Sabbath school, doing as faithful service as before, would bring in sufficient funds to reach our twenty cents per week per member. The annual offering we planned as an overflow fund so that we might help some one else rather than be helped.

As yet we have not reached our stakes but daily we are hearing them. To date [Nov. 8] we have gathered in $162 in the Harvest Ingathering, and if present conditions continue our Sabbath school will have a substantial overflow fund. What we are doing under God's blessing every church in Wisconsin can do, and it is possible for Wisconsin to wear the pleasing smile of success achieved through faithfulness and sacrifice.

Among the Churches

Since the workers' meeting at Appleton, the writer has visited several of the churches in the territory surrounding the city of Eau Claire.

I first visited the Jim Falls church, and although they are behind in their mission funds they promised to push the Ingathering work and reach their quota.

I next visited the Knapp church and found the missions thermometer very high and good prospects of their reaching fifty cents per week per member. Our people there are meeting with success in the Ingathering work.

The Lucas church was visited the next Sabbath. The members of the Knapp church met with us and we had a good day together. Sunday evening I spoke in the Methodist church on the "European War," and at the close made some remarks concerning our Ingathering campaign. A collection was taken and several dollars was given to our mission work.

The writer is firmly convinced that the greatest difficulties are in the minds of God's people and if we will take hold of this Ingathering work prayerfully and faithfully God will crown our efforts with success.

Correction

In the list of teachers submitted last week from Wisconsin Conference, the following additions and changes should be noted: Chetek, family school, Mrs. Maude Scott; Aaron, family school, Miss Myrna Nathe; Oshkosh, Mrs. John Armitage. Professor George E. Crawford is principal of the Clearwater Lake Industrial School, and Mrs. Mina Hege teaches the Clearwater Lake church school.

G. R. FATTIC

Bethel News Notes

Ansel Beggs visited friends at the school the past week. Mr. Beggs is a former academy student.

The new furnace is installed in the church.

The brethren of the church are spending some time in improving the church school grounds. The lawn is plowed and sowed to grass. Swings and other forms of outdoor recreation are to be provided. The plan is to make the playground attractive and thus keep the children where they belong during play hours.

An interesting program on China was given at the young people's meeting on Sabbath afternoon.

China's great need makes the appeal grow stronger each time we hear, and stirs us to greater mission effort.

The second day of the Harvest Ingathering campaign proved a succes for the young people returned with interesting reports, and a better average per student than did the first group. There are still several places to work and we trust that before the campaign is over every member of the school will have had a definite part in the work.

Five Orders in Twenty Minutes

There are many bright spots in the life of a canvasser. Sometimes we encounter discouraging experiences, but I truly thank God for giving me a real love for the work.

One evening as I was returning home about dusk, I prayed that God would help me get the printed truth into one more home. I saw a woman standing on her door step with a baby in her arms. I felt impressed to speak to her. She became interested at once when I told her of my work. I opened my prospectus for "Bible Readings," and was giving her a short canvass, when I noticed a commotion around me. Looking up I saw I was surrounded by a little company of interested people. Breathing a prayer to God for help and using my prospectus as a guide, I talked to these dear people about our Saviour's soon return. I received five orders from the company in about twenty minutes; so five of these helpful books will go into homes breathing the blessed third angel's message. This makes my heart rejoice.

A Cheering Report

Sabbath, November 6, I had the privilege of speaking to a large congregation at the Berrien Springs village church, on the subject, "Why I Am a Seventh-day Adventist." The Spirit of the Lord was wonderfully manifested, and in response to a call, four precious souls firmly decided to stand with the remnant people of God. Baptismal services will be held in the near future.

We thank the Lord for this manifestation of His goodness, and pray that soon we may "come rejoicing, bringing in the sheaves."

A Report

The second week in October, I spent two days with the Gibson church in the interest of the Harvest Ingathering. The brethren being so scattered, they were unable to come together through the week for a meeting, consequently we were unable to take hold of the work in a united way. I worked with the leader two half days and as a result we received over ten dollars.

This seemed to greatly encourage him, and when I left he was talking of sending for more papers, though at first he told me they could never use what had been sent them.

[&]quot;Worry never lightened a single load."

I spent one Sabbath with the Midland church in the interest of this good work. It was a real pleasure to meet with this company again, and to see their neat little church building. The brethren asked that we put off the campaign as they were busy with their fall work, so I expect to meet with them again soon.

We were unavoidably delayed in Bay City in starting the Ingathering work. We began the last week in October and now have nearly $70. Our goal is $150. I have worked about a day and a half and received $22.

Last Sabbath was a good day for the church. Nine adults were taken into church membership—seven by baptism and two on profession of faith. Pray for the work here.

Northern Illinois Conference Office Address, 3645 Ogden Ave., Chicago, Ill. President, Wm. A. Westworth

An Appeal from Moline

"Now set your heart and your soul to seek the Lord your God. Arise therefore, and build you the sanctuary of the Lord." 1 Chron. 21:19.

There have been opportune times in the history of God's people to do a mighty work for Him in the erection of a place of worship where He could meet with His people and bless them. At such times the Spirit of God has impressed His people to seek Him more fully and to see the hand of Providence in opening up a door of blessing and salvation to themselves and the world.

The above text, and also Haggai 1, are incidents of this character which have been recorded for the comfort of the Lord's people in succeeding ages. Rom. 15:4. These scriptures are very precious to the company at Moline just now as we have decided to "arise and build" a humble sanctuary for the Lord.

I have labored here all summer, and by the help of the Lord and cooperation of other helpers a small company has been raised up. We feel the necessity of carrying out the instructions from the Lord found in Volume 6, page 100,—"Wherever a company of believers is raised up, a house of worship should be built. Let not the workers leave the place without accomplishing this."

The lots for building purposes here are very high, but we have secured one in a fine location, only one-half block from our sanitarium. This will be a great advantage to the nurses, helpers, and patients, and is one of the most convenient parts of the city to get a good attendance of outside people.

But, brethren, we need several hundred dollars, and inasmuch as many of you who are readers of the LAKE UNION HERALD are interested in the work here, I thought it would be a source of encouragement to you to hear from our effort and also receive a blessing by helping us a little financially on this much needed building.

We have at present no place to worship and have to pay $28 per month for a hall, but have a good interest and a growing church and are sure many more will join us later on.

In Volume 6, pages 100 and 101, the Lord has told us under circumstances where a company is not able to build, other churches should help them. So, brethren, we shall be glad to receive any amount from individuals or churches from $1 to $50 or $100, but be sure to help us a little at least, for we are needy. You can help us in two ways—by praying for the work and paying for the work. This has been written by the sanction of Elder W. A. Westworth, president of the Northern Illinois Conference. Send offerings for the above purpose to the writer, Thos. F. Hubbard, care Tri-City Sanitarium, Moline, Illinois.

T. F. Hubbard

School Report

The church school work in Northern Illinois started this fall in a very encouraging way. We have seventeen schools where two hundred thirty-two children and youth are taught by nineteen teachers. Perhaps the number would look better if you knew that when the schools opened in September every church, save one, having six or more children of elementary school age was providing a Christian training for the children. This one church is now waking up to the call of the Lord in behalf of its children and expects to start school within a few weeks.

The regular monthly parents' meetings and home work reports are building up a splendid cooperative feeling between the homes and schools.

Most of the school boards are working faithfully to provide necessary equipment and supplies to increase the efficiency of the schools.

Our schools have far passed the half-way mark in the Harvest Ingathering work.

The teachers are doing a faithful, earnest work and are located as follows:

News Notes

One sister who owns a Home Worker's Prospectus reports having taken orders for twenty books in two afternoons' work. We hope that others who have the prospectus will soon be sending us similar reports. Improve these beautiful fall days visiting friends and neighbors showing them from the prospectus what beautiful and valuable books we have. We would be very glad to hear from anyone who would like to take up this work and to supply them with the prospectus and all needed supplies.

According to a report recently received from our publishers, they have on their Review list only 302 Northern Illinois subscriptions. Our goal is 510 subscriptions. This shows that we are considerably short of having the Review in every family in the conference. Will not those who read this try to send in one new subscription to the Review and possibly to renew or subscribe themselves. If there ever was a time it is now, when we should keep in close touch with the progress of our work.

One good sister recently sent us $500 for missions, $400 for the advancement of the work in the Asiatic field and $100 for the Amazon River Mission. We trust that there will be others who will realize that now is the time when they should give of their means when it can be used to such great advantage in the advancement of the Lord's work.

We received during he month of October $772.84 on the Harvest Ingathering work. This is about $550 in excess of the receipts for the same month last year. This is encouraging. Keep the good work going.

We regret to hear that Brother T. E. Williams of Plano is seriously ill.

We hope none of our readers will fail to read the appeal from Elder Hubbard for the support of the work at Moline. We are sure that all realize the importance of having a suitable place of worship in connection with the sanitarium and its work, and that many will respond with offerings for the construction of the church building.

Wanted.—Two competent women to serve as housekeeper and caretaker. Four adults (employed) and two children, two and eight respectively. Wages right. Applicants must be in good health. Sabbath privileges. Address A. B. K., 32 No. State St., Room 300, Chicago.

If you are interested in the recent developments in Southern Europe you should read Elder Haynes' article in the December Watchman entitled "The Rush of Mighty Armies toward Constantinople." It will give you a new insight into this phase of the war. It has a most significant meaning.

One of the worldly publications has made some very interesting and remarkable statements regarding the work of Mrs. E. G. White. Don't fail to read these statements and what the editor has to say about them in the December Watchman.

A lady in writing concerning her subscription to the Sabbath School Worker says: "Times are hard, but I could go without a meal or two in order to have the Worker. I should certainly not try to teach without it if it were possible to get it. I always take it in a club when I can, and when I can not, I subscribe personally."

A beautiful 1916 Scripture Text Calendar 9\frac{1}{4}x16\frac{1}{2} inches in size and printed in harmonious colors is given free with every single full year Instructor subscription (\$1.25) and sent as long as the stock lasts for 15 cents extra for every calendar ordered with any six months' Instructor clubs. In order to be sure of securing this handsome and most helpful calendar, it will be necessary to order early, the stock being limited. Order through the conference tract society.

The College Debt Nearing the $5,000 Goal

The College debt has during the past few weeks been much like Tennyson's "tide that moving seems asleep." That it has had an awakening no one would doubt could he have been privileged to step in at the chapel hour last Wednesday morning. At that time a College debt program was given. Mr. Henry Klooster, the chairman of the debt committee, acted as chairman and opened the meeting by an enthusiastic account of the way God has blessed the missionary efforts of the school, mentioning especially the temperance campaign of last year and the work of the ministerial and Bible workers' bands. He stated his firm belief that God is in this movement and that through His help we shall be able to reach our goal.

Mr. Green then gave us a report showing what has been raised already on our $5,000 goal and on the entire debt and what remains to be paid. He made the statement that the interest paid out in the last five or six years would almost build the College building anew.

The next speaker was Mr. Harry Lundquist, whose words of courage and inspiration could not fail to appeal to the heart of every loyal student. He gave four reasons why we should respond to the call at this time: (1) Other schools are making an effort to free themselves from debt and we do not want to be the last. (2) We must not peter out after having set out to perform a task. (3) This is the psychological moment—but fifty days remain. (4) We should show our loyalty to E. M. C.

The students, also teachers, were then invited to express their feeling toward this movement. Student after student arose to his feet to manifest by words and in a more material way, his love for E. M. C. until one o'clock when we were dismissed.

Space does not permit relating all that was said and the sacrifice that was shown, but the following figures in a weak way represent the feeling in the hearts of those present. Total amount definitely pledged, $881; labor promised, $10; conditional pledges, $645; total, $1,545.

A large thermometer designed by Mr. Nathan Beebe was presented. This will be placed in the front of the chapel to record the cash as it is received.

Surely the outlook is encouraging and we can heartily say, "God hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad."
