Angels Are Present

We may fail to attend camp meeting, but the Lord will not fail to send His angels to these important gatherings. We read in the Testimonies: "Could our eyes but be opened we would behold the angels of heaven in our assemblies." The Lord desires to come near to His people at this time. He understands perfectly the many dangers that surround us. He knows how needy we are of a thorough preparation to stand in the day of God. Our camp meetings are seasons of solemn responsibilities for both our people and ministers. Our meetings this year ought to be the most profitable and most spiritual that Seventh-day Adventists have had since the "forty-four" movement. We believe that as ministers we should make careful preparation at heart and in our home for the camp meetings this year. We should ask the Lord to give us light for the people and power so that a thorough work of grace may be done. We would ask all our laborers to consider carefully the following words:

"At our camp meetings, sermons should be delivered of such a character as will prepare the hearers to give a reason of the hope that is in them with meekness and fear. I have been shown that but a small number of the people in our churches know for themselves what constitutes the third angel's message. This fact should enable us to realize the need of Bible classes. At our camp meetings especially, there should be daily classes for Bible study. Instruction should be given on the subjects of faith and Christian experience, and there should be seasons of earnest prayer. Then the influence of our camp-meetings would not be of so transitory a character, but would leave an abiding impression."

The Indianapolis Meetings

It may be of interest to our people throughout the Lake Union Conference to learn about the meetings held here in Indianapolis at the Shubert Murat Theatre, which seem to be blessed of God in bringing our message to the attention of the influential classes.

The first meeting at the theatre was on Sunday evening, April 30, and it is estimated that four thousand people came out to hear the lecture given by Elder Lee S. Wheeler, which was upon "God's Hand in the World-War. What started the conflict. What will end it?"

Long before the doors were opened a mass of people had gathered about the entrance to the theatre, which is said to be the largest and finest in the State of Indiana. Nearly 3,000 persons were able to get seats and standing room, and about 1,000 were turned away.

As the theatre was already engaged for the two following Sunday nights, the best that could be done was to hold the next meeting the following Sunday afternoon, and while it was recognized that this might seriously affect the attendance owing to the general desire to go out driving, and enjoy the first pleasant days of the season, yet it seemed the only thing to do.

This meeting was attended by about 1,500 people, many of them prominent persons, lawyers, doctors, professors, ministers, and a Catholic priest. The subject was, "God Signaling to the Nations, Signs Seen in the Sun, Moon and Stars," and the lecture was listened to with marked attention.

The music was an attractive feature at both meetings. At the first meeting there was a chorus of 100 voices trained by Prof. Birt Summers, Director of the Muncie Academy of Music, and the program included a portion of a beautiful cantata, "The Judgment," of which Professor Summers is composer. While the musical program was not so lengthy at the next meeting, it was excellent.

About 200 people signed cards requesting further light upon the subjects presented, and many purchased our books. During the campaign about 1,000 copies of "Armageddon" have been sold by our people. Governor Ralston gave a written endorsement of the book, and it is said that he attended one of the meetings.

Elder Wheeler and the members of the churches began preparations for the first meeting three weeks in advance. Each Sabbath was made a day of fasting and prayer. The noon hour daily was appointed for secret prayer, and appointments were made on Sabbaths, and privately, for little bands to meet for prayer nearly every day and night. A burden of prayer was upon the people. Three times each week the choir met for practice. On Sabbath, testimony meetings were held to recount the progress of the preparations. Coupons were printed entitling each purchaser of "Armageddon" to a reserved seat ticket, and our people were so active that the Tract Society could not get books enough to supply the demand.

Our people sold the books to their neighbors and friends and then went to the big office buildings, and even to the state house with them, canvassing the prominent men and inviting them to the theatre. Elder Wheeler says that they worked like bees everywhere, and he attributes the success of the effort to the co-operation of the people moved by the Spirit of the Lord. It was very interesting to note the various ways in which our people were inspired to work to reach the higher classes with the invitations.

E. A. BRISTOL.

"Armageddon"

Brother D. C. Horlacher of Frankfort writes that he and his wife have had excellent success with this little book in that city. He has sent us the second order.

Brother Ebert, of Elwood, says that the little church there plans to use several hundred each of "Armageddon" and "World's Crises." They have started well with an order for one hundred copies of each.

The Middletown church orders 100 copies, Anderson church 65, Muncie church 85, Boggs town church 97. These are orders received within the last few days.

The Tract Society has shipped approximately 4,000 copies of "Armageddon" to the various churches in the conference. This shows that our people appreciate this opportunity of doing home missionary work and are taking advantage of it. The Indianapolis churches have used about 1,000 copies, making a total of approximately 5,000 copies ordered to date. Because of the great demand for the book, the publishers have been unable to fill our orders promptly, and it is necessary for us to hold some orders in the office until our stock arrives. We shall notify you if your order is delayed, and ship your books just as soon as our shipment reaches us.

A Call for Colporteurs

Is it not now the time that our people, young and old, should come with a rush to enter the Lord's service in giving the last great warning message to a world in gross darkness? We have the most attractive, and carefully prepared literature to offer the people. Many are willing and anxious to buy our good books.

I will relate one experience. I called at the home of a poor family who were so desirous of obtaining books to help them understand the Bible, that a few days before they had sent $15 to Sears, Roebuck, and Company for five books on Bible subjects. They were sorry I had not called before they sent their money away, as this was all they had to spare for books.

The vineyard certainly is short of laborers, and can it not now be said, "Why stand ye here all the day idle?" The Master is soon coming and He can only say "well done" to those who have been faithful. Then let us be about our Father's business.

Wisconsin Camp Meeting

Who Should Attend

As you have learned through previous notices this year, the annual conference and camp meeting will be held in Monona Park at Madison. Madison is a beautiful city, the capital of the state, located on a slight elevation overlooking four lakes. Having three railroads—the C. & N. W., C. M. & St. P., and the Illinois Central, it is of easy access from all parts of the state. The C. & N. W. has a station at South Madison, which is near the camp ground. The C. M. & St. P. has conditionally promised to stop their trains from the south to let off passengers at South Madison on Thursday and Friday, June 8 and 9. When you can do so, have your baggage checked to South Madison as it will shorten the haul to the camp.

If you have not received an order blank then make out your own order for tents and other needs without delay. The old tents will rent for $2.50 and the new ones for $3.50; bed springs 50 cents; single cots 50 cents; double cots 75 cents; chairs 15 cents; tables 25 cents; straw per tick, 25 cents. Lumber will be furnished at as reasonable rates as current prices will allow.

The use of the Park auditorium has been secured, in which we will hold our meetings usually held in the large pavilion. Separate tents will be pitched for German and Scandinavian meetings. The young people and children, and even the kindergartners will have their own places of meeting. We will not pitch a dining tent as there is a large dining hall where meals will be served on the cafeteria plan. There will be a book tent filled with our message-laden literature. Then there will be the office and reception tents and as many family tents as ordered.

As weather conditions cannot be depended upon, each should bring sufficient clothing in which to appear neat and comfortable for any kind or change of weather.

er. Bring a liberal allowance of bedding, some dishes and cooking utensils, and if you do not desire to board at the dining hall you can buy your groceries at the stand and care for yourselves. Be sure to bring a generous allowance of patience and of the Spirit of God, as you may need to share with others.

You should come early and stay to the close of the meeting. Those arriving on Thursday and Friday, June 8 and 9, will be met at the station by Elders Wellman and Drews, who will assist you with your baggage and to your street car. If no one should meet you take the street car up town and transfer to South Madison, go to the end of the line and you will see the camp just ahead of you. Those buying their tickets to South Madison will be in sight and walking distance of the camp.

This should be the best meeting ever held in Wisconsin, and all should plan to attend. Father and mother, grandfather and grandmother, young people and children, all should be there to be a blessing and receive a blessing. Good help has been promised from the Divisional and General Conferences. Pray for a successful meeting.

P. A. HANSON.

Who Will Help?

Several strong men are needed to help prepare camp at Madison. It is real missionary work. Are there not some men in Wisconsin who for the love of the truth in your home conference would like to donate a few days' work helping to prepare for our camp meeting? We will give you good food to eat and a place to sleep (providing you bring your blankets). If you decide to help just drop me a line here at the office early, so we may know who to depend upon. Work will begin May 29 and there will be plenty to do from then till the opening of the meeting June 8.

P. A. HANSON.

Change at Walderly

A change in the faculty at Walderly has been made. For a number of years Prof. A. W. Hallock has been laboring untiringly to build an industrial school at Walderly. This school, as most of the people in Wisconsin know, is located about eighteen miles southeast of Superior in a very rural portion of the state.

The school has enjoyed a most gratifying patronage considering its facilities for entertaining. Many young people with limited means have labored faithfully with the teachers in clearing the land and erecting buildings, thus earning enough to partly keep them in school.

Professor Hallock, believing his work at Walderly to be done, tendered the board his resignation as principal and manager of the school last fall. As he did not wish to reconsider this move, his resignation was accepted, and Prof. E. A. von Pohle of the Beechwood (Ind.) Academy was selected as principal and business manager. Professor von Pohle has had a number of years' experience in our schools and has proved a success as an educator in our work. It was only the dire need of a strong man for Walderly that prevailed on Indiana to release him.

The school at Walderly has many needs, but at present the most urgent is for some faithful young men who may have limited means but are desirous of getting a preparation for service in the Lord's work to come at once and help work on the farm, about the sawmill or completing buildings, taking out their wages in tuition next winter. As a number of the boys formerly doing this work have decided to canvass for our books this summer, opportunity is thus afforded for others to come in and get a start in the work. All who desire to avail themselves of this opening, should immediately write to Prof. C. W. Hess, R. F. D. 2, South Range, Wis.

Home Missionary Work

Quarter Ending March 31, 1916

Although this Report is much better than it has been for some time in the past, it would be considerably larger if all the report blanks that were sent out were returned filled in instead of blank as many were. We have received reports from fifty churches in all, and the reason the report of all does not appear in this quarterly report is because they came in too late to be entered in our report to the Lake Union Conference. We have ninety-two churches in all and we shall expect to receive a report from each of these for the second quarter of the year. A report blank has been sent to the isolated Sabbath-keepers and we hope to receive a report from each one, no matter how small it may be, for when all are put together, it makes a large aggregate.

The following is the report of the first quarter:

Canvassers' Notes

Lloyd Frasier says, "I am certainly having some grand experiences."

Brethren March and Watson have each just made a good delivery of "Bible Readings."

Francis Teas writes, "I am still of good courage. I went into one house this week where there were two women and the Lord blessed me with an order from each. Praise Him for it."

Brother C. W. Saunders has begun work in Marion County and Brother John Saunders expects to start within a few days. Remember these brethren in their new territory.

R. O. Dickson writes: "I met a lady who accidentally got a copy of the Review and Herald in her mail. She was so much interested that she became a subscriber. She insisted on having "Bible Readings" in spite of her husband, who finally consented. I shall be interested in watching results."

Brother and Sister Edw. Drury write encouragingly of their work in Moultrie County.

Brother W. B. Maris sends in another good report of his work in Pike County—forty-seven hours and $96.75 worth of orders.

A number of student canvassers are now arranging for their territory.

Dear reader, God's great clock is now striking a tremendous alarm. Are we dull of hearing? Listen for the footsteps of our Captain as He leads the march to the uttermost parts of the earth, and join the ranks and enter into His purposes and plans. This gospel of the kingdom shall be published in all the world as a witness unto all nations.

A. L. VAN FOSSEN.

News Notes

Elder E. F. Peterson has returned from Berrien Springs, Mich., where he attended a meeting of the Lake Union Conference Committee.

Elder P. C. Hanson, who has been laboring in Springfield, is now located in Bloomington. He has recently moved his family to that place and will labor there during the summer in connection with the tent effort which is to be conducted.

Mrs. Geo. Pringle and daughter of Carlinville, visited with friends in Springfield, Sabbath, May 6. Other visitors in Springfield the same day were Miss May King of Decatur, and Mr. Lemon of Grand Rapids, Mich.

The new book entitled "The Other Side of Death" is now ready for distribution, and orders will receive prompt attention. Prices, paper, 25 cents; cloth, 50 cents. Special discounts to agents on quantity orders. Send all orders to the Tract Society.

Brother C. W. Curtis reports a growing interest at Vienna, where he is holding meetings in the City Hall. The attendance is growing, and it is expected that some will accept the truth as a result of the effort.

Elder E. N. Sargeant has recently moved his family to the city of Peoria, where he will labor for a little time before taking up work at Martinsville prior to the coming camp meeting.

Brother C. J. Smith has been conducting a series of meetings in the Eagle Hall, Witt, Ill., where there seems to be a lively interest.

We have just secured a lease for the old fair grounds at Martinsville for the camp meeting to be held at that place August 10-20. It is not too early to begin laying your plans for attending. Brother Claude Taggart, who lives in Martinsville, recently visited the office, and reports that the people there are manifesting considerable interest in the coming meeting. It is hoped that the outside attendance will be good, and surely all of our people who can possibly do so will plan to be present.

We hope that all our people will watch the reports of the colporteurs as they appear in this paper from week to week, and then as you surround the family altar from day to day remember to pray for their success. We are told that the prayers of the righteous avail much, and these faithful workers need all of our help and sympathy as they go forward in their work.

Miss Mable Hicks, who is well known to all of our people in Southern Illinois as a former conference laborer, spent a little time recently visiting friends in Springfield.

Sister Cora B. Hicks returned to the office the first of the week after spending several weeks among the churches in the interest of the Educational and Missionary Volunteer and Sabbath school work.

Brother A. L. Van Fossen has been spending a little time at Emmanuel Missionary College with the student colporteurs who expect to work in Southern Illinois during the summer. We hope to secure a number of good workers from that place.

Mr. Lowell Johnston and Miss Grace Emerick, both Southern Illinois Canvassers, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents in Lincoln, Sunday, May 7, Elder E. N. Sargeant officiating. Brother and Sister Johnston have gone to Indiana, where they will make their future home. We wish them every blessing as they journey through life together.

Aurora Church

We enjoyed an excellent meeting Sabbath, May 6. Six were baptized and added to the church, another was taken in subject to baptism, and two more are waiting for baptism. Others are interested in the truth that we hope to see added to our church later. We have not had a more encouraging day since the church was organized than this occasion. It was expected that three would be present from Princeton to be baptized, but on account of rain they failed to come through in an automobile as had been planned.

Our church school and our Sabbath school are doing excellent work. The members are taking more interest in circulating our literature than they have in the past. The reading matter put into the hands of the people is creating some interest, and we hope to keep it up.

WM. COVERT

News Notes

In harmony with a recent action of our conference committee, the date of our coming camp meeting to be held at Joliet is June 15 to 25, one week earlier than originally announced. This will give us about a month to prepare for this important meeting. We hope many are planning to attend and that they will order their tents and furnishings early.

The beautiful new church at Moline was dedicated last Sunday. The meetings in connection with this event began Thursday evening of the previous week. Full announcement of the exercises will appear later.

We are now quite fully installed in our new office rooms at 116 North California Ave. Our temporary phone number is Garfield 8362.

We received last week an order from the Galesburg church for 15,000 tracts. This is the way we like to see our good literature distributed.

The June magazines are now ready. If any of our students are planning to sell our magazines during the coming vacation they should correspond with us at once in order that we may prepare to fill their orders promptly.

Elder W. C. White recently spent several days in Chicago and vicinity. He has been making his headquarters at the Hinsdale Sanitarium. He spoke last Sabbath afternoon at the West-Central church. His help and counsel were much appreciated.

New M. V. Reading Course Books

The committee has made a splendid selection of Reading Course books for our young people, and these books will prove exceptionally entertaining as well as instructive. (See list and price published in this issue).

These books and the special camp meeting price ($1.90 instead of $2.15) are announced thus early so all can plan definitely to take advantage of this price at the camp meeting. In the past, many who wanted to take the Reading Course have been hindered because they could not afford the books; so I trust that many this year will lay aside $1.90 for the definite purpose of taking the complete set of these splendid Reading Course books home from the camp meeting with them.

I trust a large number of the young people will plan to attend the camp meetings to be held in North Michigan this season, and that these meetings may prove a real spiritual blessing to us all.

Recent mails have brought us several inquiries regarding the magazine work, from prospective agents. We have plenty of territory for a number of workers in this line and would be very glad to hear from any who could spend all or a part of their time in this way. The magazines can also be handled nicely in connection with the distribution of the smaller books, such as "Armageddon," "World's Crises," "The Other Side of Death," etc. We ought to have a number of agents spending all of their time selling these books and magazines. Let us hear from you.

AUGUSTA BLOSSER.

News Notes

Brother Lee R. Stevens had a very successful delivery last week. He delivered $104 worth of "Bible Readings" and not one lost or postponed order reported.

Brother Hugh Stearns writes that a number of students from the Swedish Seminary are planning to canvass in North Michigan this coming vacation.

Brother F. L. Harrington's sales last week reached an average of almost $2 per hour.

Although Brother A. P. Friday is working in Catholic territory, he writes he is having some very encouraging experiences with "Practical Guide."

Brother and Sister Worrell are having some rich experiences in the colporteur work. Sister Worrell, who had a small delivery last week, writes that the Lord's blessing was with her and the people were very pleased to get the books.

We want 1916 to be the banner year in the sale and distribution of our truth-filled literature. Are you going to help? Do not forget to pray for this important part of the Lord's work.

Did you read the May Life and Health? There is something in it for you.

The new book, "The Other Side of Death," is now ready for mailing. Single copies, 25 cents, paper; 50 cents, cloth; ten or more copies to one address, 50 per cent discount; transportation extra.

The June Signs of the Times Magazine is here, and you should not fail to read the article on "The Awakening of Asia," by Prof. R. B. Thurber, who has for years been engaged in our educational work in Burma. There are several other striking articles.

Sister Augusta Blosser visited Frankfort, Sabbath, May 6, in the interest of the Missionary Volunteer work, and expects to visit Traverse City the first of the week.

Have you seen the June Watchman? It has one of the most attractive cover designs and is one of the best illustrated numbers yet put out. You should increase your order for the June Watchman.

Brother Hugh Stearns returned to his home in Southern Illinois to make a delivery of books May 1, and also to ship his household goods and bring his family to Petoskey for permanent location.

Brother and Sister Keiser are now nicely located and Brother Keiser is getting hold of the work in the office.

Sabbath, June 3, is to be Sabbath School Rally Day. Many schools have been ordering supplies and are busy preparing for the program and a successful day.

Report of Labor

My visit with the Grand Ledge company was very encouraging and of much profit. I found all of good courage and ready to do according to their ability. Every adult member promised to faithfully report all missionary work. Amount of orders, $87.15.

There are over fifty families and parts of families belonging to the Charlotte church, yet under existing conditions, I could not do as well as at other places with a much smaller membership. I could get only six members to pledge themselves to faithfully report their work. One sister has promised to canvass the city for the book, "Armageddon." We expect good results, as she was a worker in days gone by. Amount of orders taken, $95.90.

E. I. BEEBE.

Charlotte

The Spirit of the Lord is still striving with the honest hearts in this place, where Sister Beatrice Smalley and I are working. As the solemn truths of the last message are presented, it thrills our hearts to see faithful souls yield to their convictions and obey God. The outlook is always bright, for the personal touch with Christ imparts courage, cheer, and confidence to meet every trouble and perplexity. This time is truly the harvest time for the word of God. The people everywhere are seeking a solution of the great world events of today.

Our young people here are doing a good work with the literature. We find this literature does bring people into the truth. The little book, "Armageddon," takes well with the people. We are also pleased to say that the Lord is blessing the church school in this place.

Mrs. Lou Kirby Curtis Editor

College

Messrs. Eastman and Hiner, treasurers of the West Michigan and Wisconsin Conferences, respectively, made short visits at the College during the institute.

Professor Kern was a welcome visitor last week.
His timely instruction was much appreciated.

The Executive Committee of the Lake Union had a meeting at the College on the tenth.

Elder S. E. Wight, president, and Professor Lynn
H. Wood, educational secretary of the Southern Union Conference, were with us on Tuesday the ninth. Elder Wight spoke of his experience as a canvasser at the synposium of the canvassers at the chapel hour.

Elder W. C. White made the College a short call last Tuesday.

Mr. E. L. Richmond, superintendent of the Review and Herald Publishing Association printing plant at Washington, D. C., made a short business call at the College Tuesday, the ninth.

Another "Liberty" Extra

Another press bill which, if enacted into law, would empower the Postmaster General to shut out of the mails any publication which might attack any religion or religious order, was introduced into the House of Representatives by a Catholic Congressman. A new Sunday measure, which is much more far-reaching in its scope than previous Sunday bills, also was introduced recently into Congress. This bill was introduced into the Senate.

The brethren feel that they ought to get out another Liberty Extra containing petition blanks, and request our people to put forth supreme effort to defeat these measures. If these bills be enacted into law they would take away the freedom of the press, and commit Congress fully to religious legislation.
Congress will adjourn in about a month, and we must act quickly, otherwise these bills will be "railroaded through Congress" during the last days of the session.

Personal letters written to Congressmen, protesting against these measures, will have even a better effect than the petition work. Our people ought to do this. S. 5677 is the number of the new Sunday bill, and H. R. 13778 that of the press measure just introduced.

Council Proceedings

Our teachers, Missionary Volunteer workers, and others who are specially interested in our educational and young people's work, will be glad to know that the long-expected report of the St. Helena (Calif.) Council is ready for delivery.

All will remember that this council divided its time between the two departments. No similar gathering has been so fully reported. The inspirational Bible studies given by Elder Evans are alone worth the price of the book. The papers presented, and many of the discussions are given. The recommendations passed are presented along with much other valuable information.

Until we are furnished a manual, this report will prove an indispensable guide to Missionary Volunteer leaders, secretaries, and other workers. These, as well as every teacher, should order a copy at once before the limited supply becomes exhausted. The book contains 400 pages. Price fifty cents, postpaid. Order through your tract society.
