Charge to Missionaries

Go to the darkened land where hearts are yearning
For knowledge of the pitying Saviour's love;
Go to the heathen with your own hearts burning
And point them to that glorious home above.

Why should we be indifferent to their pleading?
Why shun the path that Christ for sinners trod?
Oh, bring the bread of life that they are needing,
And lead the erring to the Lamb of God.

Go to the heathen with the love of Jesus,
As they to us lift up imploring hands;
Remember that his eye of love e'er sees us
In halls of home or in far distant lands.

The Lord will come. The day is not far distant
When "seeking for the lost" will all be o'er;
Oh, while our Intercessor is existent,
T'ell darkened minds of the bright heavenly shore.

Soon will probation close, our work be ended,
Our ripened sheaves we'll bear with joy on high;
Soon shall we be by angels bright attended
To the eternal gardens of the sky.

Those Who Reached Their Goal

"I have finished the work thou gavest me to do."—
Jesus.

"I have finished my course."—Paul.

"The value of time is beyond computation. Christ regarded every moment as precious, and it is thus that we should regard it. Life is too short to be trifled away. We have but a few days of probation in which to prepare for eternity. We have no time to waste, no time to devote to selfish pleasure, no time for the indulgence of sin. It is now that we are to form characters for the future, immortal life. It is now that we are to prepare for the searching Judgment."—Christ's Object Lessons.

Here are the names of those who reached their goal in the time they covenanted to put in during the month of May. Many others nearly reached it, but their names do not appear in this list. Indiana: C. F. Colton, C. C. King, W. H. Plake, W. B. Ware, E. L. Young. S. Illinois: Katherine Drury, J. S. Falconer, A. D. Kaufman, G. W. Kimberlin, W. B. Maris, P. R.

March, Jerry Suda. A. P. Lager. N. Illinois: L. Clark. Wisconsin: Mrs. E. M. Bisbee, L. M. Peterson, H. Benit. N. Michigan: A. P. Friday. W. Michigan: Chas. Johnson, J. H. Mann, E. M. Phillips. E. Michigan: Walter Graham. These are the regular colporteurs who work all the year round. Our students who are working for a scholarship plan on putting in at least eleven weeks faithful time during the summer, hence they do not appear in the above list of those who reached their goal. Their work will be determined at the close of the summer.

Wisconsin Campmeeting

Dear Readers of the HERALD: Allow me to tell you about the forty-sixth Wisconsin annual campmeeting, which was held in Monona Park, Madison, June 8-18. I sincerely believe that in many ways this was the best campmeeting ever held in the great state of Wisconsin. I have many reasons for this belief. First, the grounds cannot be excelled anywhere in the state. They are high and overlook Monona Lake, are graced with beautiful trees of various kinds and sizes, interspersed with openings which are carpeted with living green, thus affording a suitable space for our different sized tents. Second, the weather on the whole was ideal. Just enough of clouds and rain, clear blue sky and sunshine, to give a variety of weather. Third, the outside help in conducting the various meetings was the best that our denomination affords. Fourth, our people were possessed of very much of the sweet and tender spirit of the Master. Many other reasons might be given.

The first preaching service was held in the large auditorium situated on a hill in the center of the grounds, and Elder Westworth of Chicago gave the address. The thoughts he presented came from a heart made warm and mellow by the Spirit of God, and were full of instruction for all.

Elder A. G. Daniells spoke in the auditorium three times. The pivotal point of his sermons being the Eastern Question, with which the present great war is closely connected, and this fact the speaker plainly demonstrated. On both evenings of his lectures he used the stereopticon with splendid effect. Much advertising had been done in the city with the result that quite a large number of the best citizens of Madison were in attendance at these meetings. A number of these people showed their interest in the themes presented and their desire for literature containing further light by signing their names to blanks prepared for that purpose. Among those interested was the Assistant Attorney-general of Wisconsin. It was estimated that two or three thousand people attended each of the evening lectures. Elder Daniells spoke in his usual clear, forcible, convincing, and dignified manner, and the most profound attention was given to his address.

One unusually interesting feature of this camp-meeting was the fact that the North American Division Medical Council was being held at the Madison Sanitarium during the first few days of the meeting, thus giving us the benefit of the instruction of our leading medical men. Among those who thus participated were Doctors Kress, Evans, and Harry Miller, who gave us some most interesting talks.

Elder I. H. Evans, president of the North American Division Conference, was with us during the entire time and rendered most efficient and valuable help. His sermons were of a practical nature, ennobling and upbuilding, and greatly appreciated by our people.

For the first few days Elder F. M. Wilcox, editor of the Review, was present at the meetings, and his sermons were filled with instructive and highly spiritual counsel, which will no doubt bear much fruit in the hearts and lives of his hearers.

Elder L. H. Christian came during the workers' meeting which preceded the campmeeting one week, and remained with us during the greater part of the campmeeting. His counsels in both business and spiritual matters were as usual greatly valued. One of his sermons preached Friday evening on the Sabbath and how it should be observed was both practical and timely.

We were glad to have Elder O. A. Johnson of Walla Walla, Washington, with us a few days. He occupied the hour at one of the evening meetings, and spoke on "The Coming of the Lord."

Professor Fattic had strong helpers for the young peoples' work at campmeeting, Elder Meade MacGuire and Professor Russell being there the greater part of the time. Some fruits of their labors were seen at the baptismal service held the last day of the meeting, when thirty-nine followed their Lord in baptism, the majority of them being young people.

The book work was represented by Brethren Palmer of Washington, Blosser of this Union, Mace from South Bend, and Franklin the state agent of Wisconsin. The report for last year showed the sales of our colporteurs amounted to over $12,000. A substantial gain has been made in the work of the first five months of this year over that of last year, and with the large corps of fifty workers that we have in the field this summer, we expect the sales to be greatly augmented.

The bookstand was well patronized, and the sales were estimated at about $1,000. The special tents on the grounds were the medical missionary, conducted by the Madison Sanitarium, where free consultation and treatments were given to those desiring them; Emmanuel Missionary College, represented by several of the students from the College who did a good work in taking subscriptions for The Student Movement; The Educational and Missionary Volunteer, in charge of Professor Fattic; the Sabbath school, supervised by Miss May Bell; and the Bethel tent, presided over by the Bethel Academy faculty. This tent was especially noticeable because of the brave efforts put forth by the students to reach the goal of one thousand dollars set by them to reduce the academy debt. This goal was reached during the meeting and we all join the Bethel delegation in their happiness.

The Sabbath school under the direction of Miss Bell, the conference secretary, was very interesting, and was a model for our local schools in promptness and method. Elder Hicks acted as superintendent, and Prof. Elliott, who was also campmeeting chorister, conducted the review in the pavilion on the first Sabbath. Prof. O. J. Graf reviewed the school and also conducted the lesson recitation for seniors and juniors on the second Sabbath. The total attendance in all divisions, including the English, German, and Scandinavian departments on the last Sabbath, was seven hundred seventy, and the total amount of offerings for both Sabbath schools was $470.81.

A special missionary service was held on the last Sabbath afternoon, with Elder I. H. Evans as speaker. At the close Elder L. H. Christian presented the needs of the mission fields and our relation to the same, asking for offerings. A large amount of money was quickly given in cash and pledges for the foreign work, bringing the entire amount given during ten days for foreign mission up to about $4,000. This does not include some real estate given at the same time which will probably increase the amount to above $5,000. At the consecration service on the last Sabbath forenoon a large number responded to the call for reconsecration.

One of the important steps taken at this meeting was the division of the Wisconsin Conference into two conferences, named as follows: North Wisconsin Conference and South Wisconsin Conference. The former has thirty-one churches with a membership of about six hundred and fifty, and the latter has nearly seventy churches with a membership of about nineteen hundred. Another action passed by the conference was that hereafter our conference sessions will be biennial instead of annual. This will not affect our yearly gatherings for spiritual help.

Elder P. A. Hanson, the conference president, occupied the pulpit the last evening, speaking to an audience of about four hundred on the subject of "Loyalty to God."

A most excellent spirit pervaded the entire camp from the beginning to the close of the meeting. Much of this may be attributed doubtless to the good spirit manifested by the leaders of our work whom we were privileged to have with us.

Bethel Students Pass One Thousand Dollar Goal

Recently I reported in these columns the plan set on foot by the Bethel students for raising one thousand dollars to apply on the Bethel debt. This amount has now been raised in cash and pledges.

At the campmeeting just closed the Lord blessed our people with a spirit of giving that was an inspiration to everyone. We held a Bethel meeting in which the work and needs of the school were spoken of by different teachers, and the report for the last year rendered by the principal. At the close of this meeting the writer presented the plan of the students for raising one thousand dollars and asked for the hearty and liberal cooperation of all. Immediately after the meeting we went to work and the people responded freely. By the end of the campmeeting we had raised $1022.50. We thank the Lord for this, and we also thank His people who have helped us so liberally in this campaign. This sum includes liberal pledges from both students and teachers as well as from the friends of the school.

The campaign is not going to stop here, for the students plan to continue their efforts until they have raised twelve hundred dollars. Many people in the local churches were not at campmeeting to help in this work, but they still have an opportunity.

The brethren and sisters responded gladly to a call for books for the Bethel library, and a great many valuable books were pledged. More will appear on this subject later, as we plan to have in our library the full fifteen hundred books called for in twelfth grade schools.

school teacher of considerable experience, but after one year in Christian schools says this is the happiest year of all.

Both Miss Bird and Miss Medford sent copies of final programs to the office with a letter describing the pleasure that came to them in planning for their closing exercises.

A little spice and snap put into the closing exercises means everything to a successful teacher. It is easy to see why some are invited to return for another year's work in the same schools. I could not visit all the schools during the last week, and others may have had just as excellent programs.

This community spirit is worthy of study by all of our teachers, and I trust another year will find every church school teacher alive to her opportunities in the very closing days of the school year.

Closing Work of Our Schools

It was my privilege to attend the closing exercises of the colored school in Detroit. They were conducted by the teacher, Miss Ida Parker. Elder Green kindly gave the Sunday night hour for the program, and the hall was well filled. The exercises savored of Christian education. The children had been well drilled and the parents were made to feel that they had made no mistake in transferring their children from the public school to this one.

At Ola I found well developed plans for a final program. Here the exercises were very different and seemed to be most beautifully selected from the daily work, including spicy readings, Bible drills, memory work, and songs. This program showed what could be done with little people, for Miss Smith has no children above the third grade.

At Lansing a group of about thirty with Miss Ina Hicks at their head, gave a very unique program. Miss Hicks converted the book "Making Home Happy" into a delightful dialogue, and I believe the author of the book was present when the program was rendered.

These three schools were started last September, and the reason for their success is self-evident. The teachers have caught the spirit of progress and have not spared themselves, but have worked whole heartedly.

I was also privileged to be in Holly and attend the closing program given by Mrs. Glidden and her group of thirty. Her subject was "From Eden to Eden." Each number merged into the one following, giving the story of the garden of Eden, the patriarchs, judges, kings, life of Christ and the disciples, and continuing until the Celestial City was reached. The numbers were varied in song, recitation, and other memory work, and the program was a grand success.

Then there was the little Greenbush school under the direction of Miss Frances Baldwin, who prepared a pretty outdoor program of songs, readings, recitations, and games, which was held in a near-by grove. It was good to see the keen interest of the parents in the progress of this school. Miss Baldwin is a public

News Notes

Brother Floyd Myers recently had the misfortune of being assaulted. He and Brethren Severn and Wilds are making their headquarters in Detroit while canvassing out some little distance. On Sunday they devote the day to selling magazines. Evening after the Sabbath, June 17, Brother Myers was walking along the street in Detroit, when some ruffian struck him from behind. As he fell he shouted, and a policeman soon reached him. We are glad to say that he was not seriously injured, and we hope may soon be at his work again.

One of our canvassers when delivering recently had a chicken crate made, so that the excuse of lack of ready money was not sufficient. We doubt not that books may be delivered a good many times by working some such plan when otherwise the order would be lost. It is not wrong to resort to some legitimate means of persuading people to take books which they ordered but feel they are unable to pay for.

The new Sabbath school help is selling. A number of orders have already been received, and we expect to sell a good many during campmeeting. One company ordered nine copies of the leather binding. All need to study Sister White's writings earnestly, and we should welcome the series of lessons which calls for "Acts of the Apostles" as the help.

Before campmeeting opened, orders had come in for more tents than were available. Notwithstanding the rainy season, our people feel the importance of attending campmeeting. May they receive the looked for blessing.

With the Schools

After spending two days with the family school at Xenia, I met with the Noble church on Sabbath, June 3, and we considered the interests of the Sabbath school together. They had postponed their Rally Day program, and a part of the day was devoted to the consideration of the church school work.

Definite steps were taken in planning for a school. A board was elected and organized for work during the summer months, so that they may have everything in readiness when the time comes for school to begin. After leaving Noble, I spent the mid-week with isolated ones at Robinson and Chrisman.

June 10, I met Elder Nethery at Charleston and meetings were held Sabbath and Sunday. We spent the remainder of the week with isolated ones here and at Mattoon. We found an interesting group of children attending the Sabbath school and I held a special meeting with them on Sunday.

There are interests in many places, and I am impressed by every visit that the call of the hour is for workers—those who are willing to spend and be spent for the Master. There are calls for church school teachers, Sabbath school teachers, and willing workers in every line of work. The Lord knows there are those prepared to fill these calls, and He wants to prepare more to fill other calls that will be made. If He has prepared you are you willing to go? If you are still to be prepared are you willing to prepare? Who will go? CORA B. HICKS

Martinsville

It has been more than two weeks since we arrived in Martinsville, and our meetings have been in progress for ten days. The weather was very unfavorable for an attendance the first week of the meetings as it rained nearly every evening. The second Sunday evening one hundred and thirty were present. We are trusting that with good weather we may secure a steady attendance.

Although the message has been proclaimed in this town many times in the past, we believe that the Lord still has some honest souls here who will step out into the light of this message.

News Notes

Brother C. J. Smith reports a continued interest at Witt. Although he is connected with the tent effort at Martinsville he will be with the company at Witt at least once a month over the Sabbath. During a recent visit there a Sabbath meeting was held in the home of one of the new converts and many not of our faith were present. We hope to see a strong church raised up at Witt.

We are glad that a number have manifested an interest in the magazine work. We now have several agents in the field and will be glad to hear from others who are interested in this line of work. There ought to be quite a number of our young people who desire to engage in the sale of this class of literature during the summer months.

We praise God for what He has done for us and for our home church. Surely we have received rich blessings here which are being witnessed to by the experiences of many of our members.

Our church is using a hundred of the Review Extras each week. Peace and harmony prevail and the members are growing in grace and in the knowledge of God. The Lord has blessed our labors and ten have been baptized. More are being prepared for that ordinance a little later. We have also used 600 of the Temperance Instructors. We expect God to water the seed sown, that many honest souls may be brought out. Remember us in your prayers.

Rally Day

Rally day held at the Berrien Springs village Sabbath school, June 3, will long be remembered as one of the bright spots in the experience of all who attended. Following the Sabbath school study the forenoon's program was given in the church, after which we all went to Brother Webber's where luncheon was served on the lawn and the children's part of the exercises given. The day's exercises were appropriately concluded by the ordinance of baptism. Four of our number were baptized by Elder Anderson. Let us give thanks unto the Lord for these manifestations of His Spirit and earnestly pray that many souls will be born into the kingdom as a result of this day's efforts.

Notes

A very quiet wedding was solemnized between Mr. Frank Crail of Mt. Sterling, Ill., and Miss Mary E. Morrison of Coopersville, at the home of the bride's mother on Monday evening, June 19, 1916. Mr. and Mrs. Crail will make their home in Illinois. The HERALD family unite in best wishes to these young people.

Elder Guthrie was called to Joliet, Ill., last Thursday to attend a meeting of the Lake Union Committee, there being important business to transact. He was also in attendance at the East Michigan campmeeting on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Special meetings will be held at Barryton, Sabbath and Sunday, June 30 and July 1. Elders Guthrie and Horton will be present.

On Sabbath, July 8, there will be a service at a school house near the home of Mrs. Ethel Overly, about nine miles north of Brunswick and four miles south of Hesperia. Sabbath school at ten o'clock A. M. Our brethren and friends in this section are invited to attend.

Colporteur Note

Brother J. H. Mann has just completed a very successful delivery of about $300 worth of "Bible Readings." He has now placed nearly $500 worth of books in the county he is working, and it is only partly covered as yet. We can not help but see that the hand of God is in this work when we hear of the cheering experiences our colporteurs are having. It has been considered very difficult to deliver books in the county in which Brother Mann has been working. Agents selling books other than ours became discouraged and never returned to deliver them after having taken a large number of orders. Just before Brother Mann made his delivery he learned that the ministers had warned the whole neighborhood against his books. From every human standpoint it seemed the enemy of our souls had won a victory. But as God has said He would cause the wrath of man to praise Him, this anger on the part of the ministers only served to help in the delivery.

Wiggins says, "We are located with a Christian minister here in Crawfordsville. We are of good courage and feel that there is a work for us to do here." Brother C. C. King writes, "Now is the time when we need the Caleb and Joshua brand of faith and courage. May the Lord help us all to be faithful and do our duty." Miss Spicer secured orders amounting to $24 in fourteen hours. This is her first experience in the canvassing work.

Miss Miller sends us this experience, "One man asked me what I was and I told him. He was a Russellite. After a little discussion his wife ordered a book and he wanted to know if I was going to make an Adventist out of him. I told him no, I wanted him to believe as he thought the Bible taught."

Brother Klose secured $53 worth of orders in forty hours last week. Brother Colton writes, "I have experienced the Lord's blessings the past week and even though wet by traveling through the rain, I was successful in preaching seventy-six short sermons and securing twenty-two orders."

Brother Rahm says, "I met two men in a repair shop, and by the expression of their faces it seemed as though I was wasting time there. I hurried through the canvass and to my surprise I sold each man a book." While last week was Brother Rahm's first experience in the canvassing field he secured orders amounting to $88.60 in forty hours.

Brother J. L. Lucas has taken up the canvassing work again. Brother Brodt writes that he is of good courage. His sales were $56.60 in forty-one hours. Brethren Ortner and Ruf are of excellent courage also.

Brother Crandall says, "The secret of my success lies in the power of Christ going before me as I visit the homes of the people."

Brethren and sisters, fathers and mothers of Indiana, pray for the boys and girls who are canvassing.

Notes from the Colporteurs

Our goal is $1000 a week, and the sales of twenty colporteurs last week were more than $1000. The largest record was made by William Bergherm. In thirty-four hours he sold $176 worth of books. Forty hours a week is our standard. The rains have not driven our colporteurs out of the field, but have made our average per hour larger.

We secured three hundred twenty-two orders for "Great Controversy" and "Bible Readings" last week. This means that at least 1000 sermons were preached in securing these orders, and approximately 57,000 remain yet to be preached as soon as these books are delivered.

Brother Heflin writes, "The weather has not been favorable, but the Lord has blessed me." Brother

College

Mrs. O. J. Graf and Miss Alma J. Graf are spending some time at the Northern Illinois campmeeting.

Miss Dorothy E. White has returned from Muskegon where she spent a profitable month canvassing for "Bible Readings."

Prof. S. L. Clark, principal of Hazel Academy, was a recent caller at the College.

George Sorenson and Eugene Smoker called on the twenty-first. Mr. Smoker will canvass in Wisconsin.

Those of the summer school students arriving early are the Misses Ebert and Drew, Mrs. B. C. Peake, and Mr. and Mrs. Schonard.

Mr. Fred Green and wife, also Norvall and Everett, left Thursday evening to attend the Northern Illinois campmeeting.

Prof. R. U. Garrett of Cedar Lake Academy stopped a few hours at the College to make arrangements for the printing of the Cedar Lake calendar.

Miss Lucy Hunt, a former student, was married June 14 to Mr. Harry Hunt of New York. We extend to them our best wishes.

E. M. C. Colporteur Notes

Lena Ambs, Angola.—"The Lord has blessed us all very much. So far, in four days, I have taken $58 worth of orders, besides selling fifty-two magazines. I am sure the Lord wants me to return to E. M. C., and receive a preparation for the work."

Evelyn Eglin, Oconomowoc, Wisconsin.—"I am learning many lessons while canvassing, and I can say that I really enjoy the work. It is the greatest thing I ever found to develop one's faith. God's protecting hand is so evident every day. He has given us many good experiences in the last two weeks."

Mildred Shaw, Oconomowoc.—"Two full weeks of canvassing, accompanied with many good experiences, have passed. The Lord has surely been with us and given us many blessings for which we are thankful. We have had many direct answers to prayer and we cannot doubt God's ever guiding hand. My sales last week were $118. This week they were $113.50, and considering the bad rainy weather we had the last three days I am very thankful for this amount."

Mother

We have lost our dearest mother,
 She has bidden all adieu;
 She is gone but not forgotten,
 Though her form is lost to view.
 Oh, that dear one, how we loved her!
 Oh, how hard to give her up!
 But the angel Death has called her
 And removed her from our flock.
 Precious mother, she has left us,
 Left us, yes her work is o'er;
 But we hope to meet our loved one
 On the earth renewed once more.
 Lone the house and sad the hours
 Since the one so dear has gone;
 But a brighter home awaits her
 In the resurrection morn.
 Do not weep, her toils are over,
 Do not weep, her race is run,
 May God grant we rest as hopeful,
 When our work, like hers, is done.
 We do yield, till then, with sadness,
 Mother dear to Him to keep,
 And rejoice in sweet assurance,
 "He giveth His beloved sleep."

A Correction

The total number of hours of colporteur work in the Northern Illinois Conference for week ending June 10 which appeared in the HERALD of last week should have been 1285 instead of 285, and of Indiana should have been 1118 instead of 118 as printed, making a grand total for the Union for the week 4876 hours instead of 2876. With the correction made the average per hour is nearly $1.24.

To Our Subscribers

During June, July, and August a large number of subscriptions expire. Perhaps some are expecting a special rate to be made again this summer and are waiting for it before renewing. The special rate was made during the past two or three summers as a special inducement to get more of our people to become acquainted with the weekly visits of the paper, and as these subscriptions were received at a loss, for the expense of printing the HERALD far exceeds 25 cents per year per copy, no one could reasonably expect such an offer to be made year after year.

At the present time the prices on all materials used in the printing office such as paper, ink, printers' rollers, type, etc., have sharply advanced in price. This is an additional reason why it is impossible to make a special offer this season. Publishers throughout the country are facing the question of either raising the price of their publications, decreasing their size, or going out of business.

Our supply of paper, purchased before the rise in price, is sufficient to last nearly three months yet, and we are fortunate in thus having almost a year's advantage of most small publishers. We believe when our readers understand these facts there will be no hesitancy in renewing promptly.

The date of your expiration is printed on the wrapper and if you have received no other notice please consider that a request for renewal. We purpose to notify each one before discontinuing the paper but sometimes during a rush the notices are not sent out.

Send your renewal to your conference tract society through your local missionary secretary if possible, otherwise direct to the tract society. Notices of change of address may be sent direct to the LAKE UNION HERALD, Berrien Springs, Mich.

Now Ready

The July Life and Health is now being mailed to subscribers. The cover page of this number is most attractive. It is a scene of a man in a boat, pulling an oar. Any person who is at all a lover of water—and who is not—will certainly desire a copy of this particular number. The magazine is brim full with timely articles on how to keep our health in the hot summer months. It should have a broad circulation. 25 copies cost $1.25; 50 or more at the rate of 4 cents each. Send orders through your tract society.

With one of the most suggestive cover designs and three most striking cartoons and a number of other selected illustrations, the July Watchman is a most ready seller. It is an excellent number and worthy of a large sale.

To every person ordering 200 copies of the Anti-Tobacco Instructor, one address, one order, the Instructor will give a copy of either of the three following books, especially good for boys and girls: "Stories Worth Rereading," "Tiger and Tom," or "The King's Daughter." In addition to this premium, the papers will be furnished at 2 cents a copy instead of 2½ cents, the price of less than 200 copies. To every person ordering 500 copies of the Anti-Tobacco number, the Instructor will give an excellent $2.50 reference, self-pronouncing Bible, and furnish the papers at 2 cents a copy.

The officers of the Young People's Society of Missionary Volunteers have selected "Advance Guard" as one of the books to be used in the Reading Course for the year beginning in October, 1916. No doubt there are hundreds of people both young and old who would be glad to read these series of missionary biographies even though they do not belong to the society. Therefore, the price to all will be the same during the year, which is seventy-five cents for the regular one dollar cloth bound book.

The third quarter Liberty Magazine is now ready for mailing, and is an especially convincing number along religious liberty lines. The entire number is good. Your friend should read it. Will you give him the opportunity?

Forty Per Cent Discount to Seventh-day Adventists

"The Men of the Mountains" is a new book that reveals the mountain and hill country of the South as it really is today. It tells of the aid that is being given the mountaineer and of the response he is making to this help. It is indeed cheering to read how he is welcoming the light of the message as it is presented by our teachers and other consecrated workers. This book contains 27 chapters, or 320 pages, is printed in large clear type, and is illustrated by numerous pen drawings and 16 full-page engravings. Scores and scores of unsolicited testimonials have been received for it from all parts of North America. In order that all our people may be able to secure a copy of "The Men of the Mountains," it has been arranged to furnish the book to Seventh-day Adventists at forty per cent discount. The regular price $1.50 for the cloth and 75 cents for the paper covers, less the discount as above stated, will make the full cloth cost only 90 cents, and the paper covers 45 cents, post-paid. Send all orders to your tract society.
