The Coming of Christ

Oh saddened heart, cling still to your believing,
While crimson sunsets burn,
There is a solace that so soothes our grieving,
A lesson that we learn
That cheers the soul, the burdened mind relieving,
'Tis the hope of Christ's return.

The Lord will come. These are not idle phrases
That to the world are given;
Beyond the present with its winding mazes,
Where ties of love are riven,
Lies the glad future, where with endless praises
You'll share the bliss of heaven.

Trust then, dear soul, believe your Lord forever,
And in your trusting, cling;
To be like Him your earnest life's endeavor,
Each thought and word like Him,
And when He comes you'll be like Him forever,
This sweet reward He'll bring.

Then heart of faith look up, nor yield to sorrow,
Watch for Him, wait and yearn;
Work in His vineyard till the glorious morrow
When Jesus shall return,
And from the skies the faithful ones will borrow
The joy for which they yearn.

August 5

At the recent session of the Lake Union Conference it was voted that the Educational Sabbaths be faithfully observed in all our churches. August 5 is the next date for this special service. Suggestive programs will be furnished, and we hope every church will enter into the spirit of the occasion and be richly benefited thereby.

A recent article in the HERALD spoke of the demand for more and better trained teachers. This demand is increasing and will continue to grow as our churches become aroused upon the subject of training the children for a part in the finishing of the work instead of training them for the world. The world has enough young people to carry forward its work and to fight its battles; God has a higher standard for His children. These high ideals must be ever kept before them.

There are those among us to whom the Lord has entrusted means. Such could engage in no more fruitful missionary endeavor than to seek out some consecrated and talented young person and encourage that one in a tangible way to prepare for the noble work of the Christian teacher by taking a course in the normal department of Emmanuel Missionary College. Some are already doing this very thing, and are realizing a rich blessing in the doing of it. Send to the College for a calendar and note the strong work offered in this department. Where we have one normal trained teacher we should have ten.

We are able to see some of the fruits of our school work, but what can be said, what can be done, to enlarge the vision of some of our people? One of the educational superintendents in this union makes the statement that in that one local conference there are 30 churches with an average of 15 children of school age where no church school work is being carried forward.

Do we believe the Spirit of Prophecy? How can we say we do, and then utterly fail to carry out its instructions. And in some instances not be willing to give to the matter of establishing a church school careful and prayerful consideration.

Let us hope and pray that as a result of this special educational program our eyes may be opened that we can see our duty, and having seen, be strong in the Lord to walk in its path. I believe God has a teacher somewhere already in the harness, or in training, or waiting for encouragement to enter into training to answer every call.

The Missionary Volunteer program for that day will be upon the same subject. It seems eminently fitting that these two departments of our work which are set for the salvation of our children and youth should unite to make August 5 a red letter day in all our churches.

Camp Meeting

While we had an excellent representation of our people at the Saginaw camp meeting, there are many, no doubt, who could not attend who would be glad to read a report of the meeting.

We had splendid help from our Union men and from Elders Evans and MacGuire. Elder Evans gave a series of most helpful talks on conversion and the Holy Spirit each forenoon at the eleven o'clock hour, while Elder MacGuire did his work largely with the young people. This was greatly appreciated by all. Elder Evans closed his series of meetings with a talk Sabbath morning, after which he asked all who would lead a truly Christian life by the help of God to rise and come forward. Nearly the whole camp went forward and united together in a season of prayer reconsecrating themselves to live a converted Christian life and prepare to meet their Lord.

Elder Christian gave interesting discourses in two of the evening meetings. One on the present war, and the other on the Eastern Question. The other evening meetings were used largely in presenting points of our faith for the benefit of the friends that came from the city. The service Sunday afternoon was a temperance rally which was enjoyed by all. A Mr. and Mrs. Shaw who are connected with the W. C. T. U. were present, and Mrs. Shaw gave an earnest talk.

All testified at the close of the meeting that it was one of the largest and best meetings that East Michigan has ever had.

Conference Proceedings

The following plans and resolutions were adopted by the conference:

Whereas the blessings of the Lord have been seen in the work of our conference during the past year in bringing many souls to an acceptance of the truth, in preserving the lives of our laborers, in granting peace and prosperity within our borders, and in greatly prospering us financially; therefore,—

1. Resolved, That we, assembled in this conference, express our gratitude to God for these mercies, and consecrate ourselves to Him for service that the work may be speedily finished.

Whereas a great temperance movement has been launched in this State, and is being carried forward under the motto, "Make Michigan Dry;" be it

2. Resolved, That we, the delegates to the 14th session of the East Michigan Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, now being held in the City of Saginaw, hereby express our intense interest in the movement, and pledge our loyalty by doing all in our power, by voice and pen and vote, to drive the great destroyer from our commonwealth.

3. Resolved, That we continue to protest against the enactment of laws by Congress for the abridgement of free speech, a free press, and the freedom of the mails beyond existing statutes.

Whereas the Liberty Magazine is doing a very effective work among state legislatures, executive officers, and judges of state supreme courts in molding sentiment against religious legislation and the enforcement of Sunday laws; therefore,—

4. Resolved, That our conference continue to share in supplying the Liberty Magazine to the members of the state legislature, the governor and his cabinet, and the state supreme and circuit court judges, and that the necessary expense involved in this item be taken out of the annual collection for the local religious liberty work.

5. Resolved, That we express our appreciation of the weekly visits of the Review and Herald and make an earnest effort to place it in every Sabbath keeping home in our conference.

6. Resolved, That we endeavor to make the LAKE UNION HERALD all it should be to our field;

(a) By encouraging all our people to subscribe for it, and

(b) By urging all our workers to report items of interest concerning their work, at least once a month.

In harmony with the recommendation of the fall council of the North American Division, and the Lake Union Conference at its last session,

7. We recommend, That our conference session be held biennial.

8. Resolved, That we express our appreciation of the work of our faithful colporteurs, and by words and deeds cooperate with them, and encourage others to join their ranks.

Whereas the plan of paying two per cent of our income into a fund for the meeting of such expenses of the conference as cannot properly be paid out of the tithe has been blessed of the Lord; and,

Whereas these expenses continue to arise; therefore,—

9. We recommend, The continuance of this plan, and that we renew our efforts to encourage every member to be faithful in paying it.

Whereas the Harvest Ingathering for missions has proved a great blessing in acquainting the world with this great movement, and in raising funds with which to extend the work; therefore,—

10. Resolved, That we undertake to raise $3,500 during 1916, and that each conference worker devote at least one week of his time to this work, and that we urge all our people to unite with him in doing the same.

Whereas the Home Missionary Department has been organized for the purpose of enlisting every church member in active missionary efforts that the work may be speedily finished; we therefore,—

11. Recommend, That this conference choose a secretary to promote and foster this work in the churches, and unite with other conference workers in organizing each church and company for definite lines of service.

Whereas the third angel's message is fast closing, and the end will soon be reached, at which time God's work and institutions, as well as His people, must have no unfulfilled obligations financial or otherwise; and,

Whereas there is a general movement among our people to remove the stigma of debt that has rested upon our institutions; therefore,—

12. Resolved, That we reaffirm our approval of the policy of a cash basis for our work. By this is meant that individuals send cash with orders, and that recognized laborers and societies remit monthly for all supplies, and that the tract society conduct its work in harmony with this policy.

Whereas our conference laborers can be of great assistance in the carrying out of the above resolutions; therefore,—

13. We recommend, That by precept and example they encourage our people, individuals and societies, to carry out at their homes, the spirit of the resolutions they pass here in conference, teaching, as they meet with churches and companies, from both the Bible and the "Testimonies," the importance of economy and the prompt discharge of all obligations, not only among ourselves and institutions, but also with the world.

Whereas our Sabbath school teachers need the best possible training for their God-given work, and in order that our people may get a new vision of their privileges as members of the Sabbath school; therefore,—

14. We recommend, That all workers, and prospective workers in this line, avail themselves of the excellent help provided by the Sabbath school department of the General Conference in the Training Course.

15. We further recommend, That all officers and teachers study to make every member of their schools a working member, that they encourage the daily study of the Sabbath school lessons, and that they do all in their power by way of personal work for the salvation of every pupil.

Whereas the foreign mission fields are now, in this time of dire warfare, more than ever before dependent upon the spiritual and financial support from the North American Division Conference; therefore,—

16. We recommend, that the Sabbath schools raise fifteen cents a week per member in order that the conference may be successful in raising its twenty cents or more per week.

Whereas foreign mission study has been successfully used to promote this end; therefore,—

17. We recommend, That more time be given to the same in our Sabbath school programs.

Whereas the Spirit of Prophecy has urged us to enter our large cities with strong aggressive efforts, and to put our work on a basis which will give it the recognition which it deserves; and,

Whereas in the City of Detroit many of our people are worshipping in rented halls, and have no suitable place in which to conduct their schools, and since they have already taken steps to erect a building by pledging themselves to raise $5,000 for this purpose; therefore,—

18. Resolved, That we as a conference encourage and assist them in this enterprise by raising the sum of $2,500 in the conference, and that we urge them to take immediate steps to further this effort.

Whereas the Iowa Conference, through the North American Division Conference, has requested the East Michigan Conference to release Elder A. F. French for work in that conference; and,

Whereas Elder French has expressed a willingness to go; we therefore,—

19. Recommend, That the conference committee reply favorably to this request.

Whereas we are informed by the President of the North American Division Conference that Elder N. V. Willess of the Georgia Conference desires to have work in a northern conference on account of ill health in the southern climate; and,

Whereas this brother has been recommended to us as a valuable laborer; we therefore,—

20. Recommend, That the conference committee extend to Elder Willess an invitation to come to this conference to labor.

In view of the great temptations that beset our youth while attending the schools of the world,—

21. We recommend, (a) That there be a more general observance among our churches of the two educational Sabbaths set apart by the General Conference.

(b) That a deeper interest be manifested in the schools already established, and that only encouraging words be given to those bearing these burdens.

(c) That inasmuch as the mid-winter institute has become a permanent and potent factor in building up the primary work in this conference, we urge every church having a school to send a delegate from its school board along with its teacher.

(d) That in the sense of this conference it is the duty of every worker to so acquaint himself with the principles of Christian education that he can give an intelligent study on this theme in the churches that he may visit, and that in every church he visits he endeavor to meet all the young people of school age and urge them to enter our own schools.

Whereas the Morning Watch has proved a source of spiritual uplift to our young people who have faithfully observed the same; therefore,—

22. We recommend, That the plan be extended to include all our people.

23. We recommend, That our workers and other leaders thoroughly acquaint themselves with the plans of work carried on by our Missionary Volunteer societies with a view of encouraging the members in reaching the following goals: Reading the Bible Through, the Standard of Attainment, the Reading Course, and Foreign Missions.

Whereas experience has taught that churches wishing to carry school work beyond the 8th grade are in need of much counsel in order that disappointment to the pupils or financial loss to the school shall not result; therefore,—

24. We recommend, That no church offer work beyond the 8th grade without first counselling the Educational Superintendent and the Union Secretary, and obtaining the approval of the conference executive committee.

25. We recommend, That the service on each fourth Sabbath in the month be given to the consideration of plans and methods for Home Missionary work by using the programs in the Church Officer's Gazette.

Whereas it has seemed good to the Lake Union Conference to form a new conference in the Northern part of Wisconsin, with an understanding that they might expect the North Michigan conference to cede a part of their territory to such a new conference; and,

Whereas the North Michigan Conference has asked the East Michigan Conference to cede to them Midland County in order that their territory may be self-supporting to a conference administration after parting with a part of theirs; and,

Whereas we are informed that the North Michigan Conference is making a similar request to the West Michigan Conference for some of its territory in case it parts with some of its former territory; we therefore,—

26. Recommend, That we grant the request of the North Michigan Conference for Midland County on condition that they do cede a part of theirs to the North Wisconsin Conference.

Realizing the great importance of a careful adherence to the health principles laid down by God for our protection and blessing in these last days when disease, suffering, and death are everywhere in the land; therefore,—

27. We recommend, That our people renew their interest in these health principles, and use simple rational treatments in preference to patent medicines and poisonous drugs.

Whereas our Sanitariums have been established in the providence of God for the treatment of the sick and the dissemination of health principles; and,

Whereas the Sanitarium for this conference is located at LaFayette, Indiana; therefore,—

28. We recommend, That our people patronize this institution and advise their relatives and friends to do likewise.

29. We recommend, That each family of Sabbath keepers supply themselves, as far as possible, with a full set of the "Testimonies," or at least Volumes six and nine.

In view of the many acts of kindness shown us by the people and business men of Saginaw, and by the newspapers of the city for their courtesy in publishing liberal reports of the proceedings of this conference, the city council for the use of Ezra Rust Park, the street car company for financial assistance, the Grinnell Brothers for the use of two splendid pianos, Mr. Charles Frueh for palms, and Mr. Carott for water pipes; therefore,—

30. Resolved, That we hereby express our appreciation for these favors, and request that this report be published in the newspapers of the city.

Northern Illinois Conference

Office Address, 116 N. California Ave., Chicago, Ill.
President, J. H. Schilling

Conference Proceedings

The thirteenth annual session of the Northern Illinois Conference was held at Sherwood Grove, Joliet, Ill., June 15-25, in connection with the annual camp meeting at that place. The first meeting was called to order at 9:15 A. M., Friday, June 16, with Elder W. A. Westworth, the president, presiding. Sixty-five delegates from the churches were present at this meeting and were given seats in the conference. Others arrived later making a total delegation of 136, representing 31 churches.

By vote of the delegates the conference committee was asked to appoint the standing committees for the conference. These committees as appointed were as follows:

Pastoral Committee: W. A. Westworth, T. F. Hubbard, Milton St. John.

Plans and Resolutions: J. B. Blosser, C. A. Russell, Edith Shepard, W. L. Avery, T. J. Tolf, E. R. Lauda, H. E. Moon, W. B. Forsyth, Louis Halswick.

Nominations: H. H. Todd, A. Christensen, L. E. Winslow, A. B. Morrical, E. W. Webster.

Credentials and Licenses: Adolph Johnson, Wm. Covert, W. D. Forde.

The Committee on Plans brought in several reports during the meeting and the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas the Lord's hand has been seen in our work during the past year in giving us remarkable success in various lines of missionary activity, in prospering our institutional work, and blessing us in financial management; and,

Whereas His protecting power has been manifested in giving peace to our land and in preserving the lives of our workers and ministers; therefore,—

1. Resolved, That we hereby express our appreciation of His special blessing and care, and pledge ourselves to carry forward the work in full harmony with His will.

2. Resolved, That the sessions of this conference be held biennially instead of annually as heretofore.

Whereas there is need of broadening our educational work and extending its influence into the homes; therefore,—

3. We recommend, That an earnest effort be made to place the journal Christian Educator in the hands of our people; that we urge our people to procure and read "Counsels to Teachers, Parents, and Students"; that the educational Sabbaths be faithfully observed in all of our churches.

Whereas there is a great increasing need of trained teachers for our church schools; therefore,—

4. We recommend, That our ministry and the other leaders in our work be on the alert to recognize talent which could be developed along the lines of teaching, and seek to induce such individuals to take a course of training in the normal department of Emmanuel Missionary College.

Whereas there is greater need than ever before for separating our children from the schools of the world and placing them in schools of God's own planting; therefore,—

5. We recommend, That our churches where there are children of school age, give earnest and prayerful consideration to the question of providing for the Christian education of the lambs of the flock.

6. We urge our people to avail themselves of the opportunity offered by making a sacrifice if necessary to send to Fox River Academy the young people who are of proper age and grade to be placed in this school of God's planting.

7. Resolved, That we express our appreciation of the weekly visits of the Review and Herald, and that we make a special effort to place it in every Sabbath keeping family in the conference.

8. We further recommend, That an earnest effort be made to place the LAKE UNION HERALD in every family, and encourage our workers to report at least once a month items of interest concerning their work.

Realizing the need of a special fund in the conference to cover expenses that should not be paid from the tithe, and recognizing the practical benefit that has accrued in the past,

9. We earnestly recommend the two per cent plan to all our people.

Whereas "The advocates of temperance fail to do their whole duty unless they exert their influence by precept and example, by voice and pen and vote, in behalf of prohibition and total abstinence"; therefore,—

10. Resolved, That our people prepare for united and effective action whenever the opportunity is granted to vote against the liquor traffic, and that they be encouraged to circulate our splendid temperance literature upon this subject.

11. Resolved, That we place ourselves on record as favoring the national prohibition of the liquor traffic as the most effective measure for the elimination of this national curse.

Believing that the fundamental principles of civil and religious liberty are being seriously endangered it is; therefore,—

12. Resolved, That we continue to protest against the enactment of laws by Congress for the abridgment of free speech, a free press, and the freedom of the mails beyond existing statutes.

Whereas The Liberty Magazine is doing a very effective work among state legislators, executives officers, and judges of state supreme courts, in molding sentiment against religious legislation and the enforcement of Sunday laws; therefore,—

13. Resolved, That our conference continue to supply the Liberty Magazine to the members of the state legislature, the governor and his cabinet, and the state supreme and circuit court judges, and that the necessary expense involved in this item be taken out of the annual collection for the local religious liberty work; also,—

14. We recommend, That we put forth an effort at our camp meeting to get our people to subscribe for Liberty at the club rate of twenty cents per subscription, when ordered in clubs of five subscriptions to be sent to one address; or, at twenty-five cents per yearly subscription, in clubs orders of four or more subscriptions to one or more addresses.

Whereas God has greatly blessed the efforts put forth for our young people in their salvation and training in service; and,

Whereas there is imperative need of a great soul winning campaign for and by our youth; therefore,—

15. Resolved, (a) That all our workers and church officers make a special effort to inform themselves on Missionary Volunteer plans and methods, and to cooperate in every possible way with those who are appointed to lead out in this work.

(b) We urge upon our workers, church officers, and parents the importance of encouraging our young people in taking up the different features of our Missionary Volunteer work, namely; The Morning Watch, reading the Bible through, Standard of Attainment, the Reading Courses, and the Mission Goal.

Whereas the circulation of our literature is ordained of the Lord to do a mighty work in preparing the world for the coming of Christ, and His blessing is being manifest in its prosecution; we therefore,—

16. Recommend, That our people do all they can to encourage these workers, by their words and prayers, and by making them welcome in their homes while engaged in this work.

Whereas the Home Missionary Department has been organized to enlist the cooperation of every Seventh-day Adventist in some line of missionary work in the spread of the third angel's message; therefore,—

17. We recommend, (a) That this conference, as soon as possible, appoint a Home Missionary Secretary who will devote his time to this work, and in cooperation with other workers organize each church and company for active service.

(b) That the services on each fourth Sabbath in the month be given to the consideration of plans and methods of home missionary work by using the programs in the Church Officer's Gazette.

(c) That each family of Sabbath keepers supply themselves with a set of the "Testimonies," especially volumes VI and IX, and undertake to read them this fall and winter.

18. We recommend, That our conference laborers and

Sabbath school officers and teachers cooperate with the Sabbath school department in reaching the following goals:

All the church in the Sabbath school, and all the Sabbath school in the church; a Home Department for each school where isolated members are connected with the church; the holding of consecration services for the unconverted once a quarter; a daily study of the lesson; assisting to reach the third million dollar goal for missions by the close of 1916.

Realizing the results and blessings connected with the Harvest Ingathering campaign for missions,—

19. We therefore recommend, That our churches fully unite in this work, securing the cooperation of every member, and that they be encouraged to set a goal of not less than $3 to be raised by each adult member.

20. We recommend, That the word "annual" in the first line of Section 2, line 5; Section 6, line 9; Section 9, of Article 5, and line 1 of Article 11, of the constitution be changed to "biennial."

At the sixth meeting of the conference the delegates received the report of the Committee on Nominations. This report elicited much interest, due to some changes in officers recommended by the committee. After a thorough consideration of the report the following officers were elected to serve during the next biennial term: President, J. H. Schilling; secretary and treasurer, Frank Hiner. Executive Committee: J. H. Schilling, Adolph Johnson, H. H. Todd, Frank Hiner, M. H. St. John, E. W. Webster, H. P. Buzzell. Secretary and treasurer of tract society, Frank Hiner; field missionary secretary, C. J. Tolf; Sabbath-school secretary, Edith Shepard; young peoples secretary, Edith Shepard; educational secretary, Edith Shepard.

The members of the board of Fox River Academy from this conference: J. H. Schilling, Frank Hiner, and C. J. Tolf.

The committee on Licenses and Credentials presented the following report which was accepted by a unanimous vote:

Ministerial Credentials: W. A. Westworth, Adolph Johnson, W. D. Forde, Milton St. John, E. R. Lauda, J. H. Schilling, Wm. Covert, R. Calderone, Louis Halsvick, T. F. Hubbard, J. M. Erikson, E. W. Webster.

Colporteurs Credentials: L. Clark, E. A. Rideout, A. M. Tatton, D. R. Devereaux, E. Davis.

At the eighth meeting a memorial address to the Senate and House of Representatives protesting against certain religious measures now pending before Congress and calling attention to the principles involved, was presented to the delegates for action. Following an interesting discussion led by Elder Evans the delegates voted that the memorial be accepted and that it be placed before our congressmen at Washington.

Nine meetings of the conference were held. A good spirit prevailed throughout the session. On motion by E. O. Parker, supported by E. W. Webster, the delegates voted to adjourn sine die.

Some of God's Wonders

Some interesting experiences have been sent us by our colporteurs.

Sister Grace Branson writes.—"Three people who had ordered my book in the cloth binding took a better one when I delivered, and one lady who had taken a cloth binding stopped me three days later and wanted me to exchange it for a full leather. She said, 'I knew the book was very good, but it is much better than I thought. I will use it so much that in a short time it would have to be rebound, so I may as well get a binding that will last.'" Sister Branson is selling "Bible Readings."

It would be well for the colporteurs to take notice of the foregoing. An effort was made to substitute better bindings for cloth orders, and note the result in a small delivery.

Gust Lindsay writes.—"Monday was my best day. At the first house I canvassed I sold a book, and they told me to go to their relatives and friends and tell them that they recommended the book to them. I gave only two canvasses all day. All the rest took the book because of the recommendations of their friends. I found one lady who had 'Bible Readings' and had loaned it to her neighbors. I sold several books around there. I was very glad to find a home in which they had the old edition. The lady was much pleased with the book and recommended it to her neighbors. They gave me three orders. One lady said, 'I want that book no matter what denomination prints it. My boy goes to roller skating rinks and pool rooms, and I want him read it.'"

Brother Oscar Olson writes.—"Thursday everything looked blue, but I am beginning to go by faith and not by sight. I went aside where I could be alone with God for a while. I read from the 'Manual' and something seemed to say I was wasting my time and I ought to be out canvassing, but I felt my need of help. After reading and praying things looked different, and before noon I had twenty dollars' worth of orders and by night thirty-three dollars' worth. I praise God for His goodness. One lady I canvassed said, 'There was a man around here not long ago with a book something like that. He was a Seventh-day Adventist, are you?' I told her I was and she asked, 'How is it that Seventh-day Adventists sell more books than other denominations?'

Who is it that scatters these books everywhere? It is men and women who have consecrated their lives to the colporteur work. This is one of God's mighty agents for the finishing of the work.

Edwin R. Thiele.—"I have had some interesting experiences. Wednesday morning the roads were very muddy when I started. I worked north to the northern edge of the county and then turned east. I had hardly gone a half a mile when I noticed I had lost my map. I retraced my steps and found it just a little beyond the corner where I turned. I picked it up and again turned to the east, but felt impressed I had lost that map for a purpose. The farther I went east the more impressed I was that I ought to have gone north. Finally I turned back and went north. I sold a book in the first house I came to, and two in the next, and hardly missed a house for the rest of the week. I sold two books at the Sunday school superintendent's home, and Friday a man to whom I had already sold a book told me that the Sunday school superintendent wanted me to bring him another book. This makes three at one house." This sounds unbelievable, yet it is the experience of one of our boys in Carroll County. Does it sound as though books cannot be sold? Brother Thiele took orders for sixty-three dollars' worth of books that week.

News Notes

Prof. B. G. Wilkinson of Washington, D. C., paid a visit to the office last week.

Elder W. A. Westworth and wife left last Thursday to take up work in Indiana. Our hearty good wishes go with them to their new field of labor.

A farewell gathering in honor of Mr. H. E. Moon and Miss Edith Shepard was held at the mission home last week, at which over one hundred guests were present. A very entertaining and interesting program was rendered under the auspices of Miss Mae Kegebein. Mr. Moon takes up the work in Southern Illinois and Miss Shepard in Indiana. We regret very much the loss of these faithful workers.

Elder J. H. Schilling's family arrived last week. We are sure Elder Schilling begins his work in this field having the hearty cooperation of every member of this conference.

We are receiving words of courage and cheer from our colporteurs in the field. We hope that many of our people will remember these faithful workers in their prayers.

Out of the eight tent efforts to be conducted in the city this summer five are now in operation and having good success.

Herrin

We are glad to report a growing work at Herrin. For some time the church there had been growing smaller because of removals and apostasies, but it has begun to build up again and the prospects are bright. From July 6 to 9 special meetings were held at the church. Sabbath afternoon, July 9, three persons were baptized, and at a later service they, with four others, seven in all, were taken into church membership. Three of the four mentioned came in on profession of faith and former baptism in other churches. One had been baptised in the Baptist church and two in the church of Latter Day Saints. Thus we see how the remnant are being called out from many different religious faiths to keep the commandments of God and prepare to meet Him. The last two mentioned accepted the truth through reading "Bible Footlights" and talking with one of our faithful colporteurs. Thank God for the untiring efforts of those carrying the message in printed form from door to door. The little company of believers were much encouraged by the additions made to their number, and are more determined than ever to "press the battle to the gates." In the fall several more will no doubt be ready for baptism and church membership.

Among the Churches

At the last meeting of the conference committee it was decided that I should spend the time until camp meeting doing general field work, visiting some of the churches and places where there is some interest instead of assisting in the Bloomington effort as had been previously planned.

Leaving Danville, June 8, I spent five days with the church at Charleston. At this place I found Sister Hicks who was out in the interest of the Sabbath school and young people's work. Our first meeting was held Friday night and I spoke to a well filled house. Sabbath, Sister Hicks spoke especially to the young people and members of the Sabbath school on the goals set for us during the year, and after Sabbath school I preached. I spoke again in the evening, and also Sunday and Monday evenings. A good interest was manifested in every meeting held, and the brethren and sisters greatly appreciated the opportunities of attending the services. While at Charleston I visited two families in the country. In one of these homes the husband has been keeping the Sabbath for some time. He is a man of good character and of more than ordinary intelligence, and read himself into the message. He hopes to soon be able to arrange his business affairs so he will be free to fully obey in every respect.

From Charleston I went to Mattoon where I held two meetings with the little company there. Their interest showed that they appreciated the meetings and we were all sorry we could not have more time together. While there, in company with Brother Gaddis, I visited a man who for several years was a staunch Seventh-day Adventist, but is now out of the truth. After a season of prayer I urged him to return to the good old way, and when we left Brother Gaddis asked him to come out to the Sabbath service again. There were tears in his eyes and we feel that the spirit of God is still working with him. It is our prayer that he will yet come back before it is too late.

Friday morning I left Mattoon for Noble where I was met at the train by Brother Pilchard. At Noble we held four meetings which were well attended considering the unfavorable weather. On Sunday, between showers, a little company gathered on the banks of a stream to witness one dear sister buried with her Lord in baptism. This sister had for twenty-one years known of Seventh-day Adventists and had been many times urged to accept the truth. While I believe all present were glad to see her go forward in baptism, the sad part of the story is that among those who saw her baptized and had at one time earnestly urged her to obey, were those who have fallen out of the race. So while we rejoice as souls come into the fold it makes our hearts sad to see others fall out when we are so near the journey's end. While at Noble, as at the other places visited, I took occasion to call on the isolated ones and encourage them.

I left Noble, Wednesday morning, June 21 and went next to Robinson where I spent a day and night with a family who have for some years been separated from those of our faith. They hope to be able to so arrange their business that they can attend camp meeting and send some of their children to Fox River Academy this year. My visit was the first this family have received from any of our ministers and it was greatly appreciated by them.

Sabbath, June 24, I was privileged to be at home again with the church at Danville.

At this writing I am leaving for another trip, and my first visit will be with the church at Shelbyville.

News Notes

Only three weeks before camp meeting at Martinsville. Order tents and supplies early. Send orders to the tract society. Plan to come early and stay right through. Bring your Bibles and hymn books. Get as many of the family there as possible especially the unconverted and backslidden. Pray each day for a successful meeting.

The tract society will have on hand; Bibles, books, periodicals, and tracts at the camp meeting, Martinsville, Aug. 10-20. Come prepared to lay in a supply for home and missionary use.

The Martinsville tent company report a continued good attendance at their meetings.

Elder E. F. Peterson recently visited the Sanitarium treatment rooms at Marion owned by the business men of the city, and operated by Brother and Sister Levant Clark. He reports a growing interest in the work being done there.

We would be pleased to have a number of our brethren volunteer to assist in the pitching of the camp at Martinsville. Workers' meeting will begin Thursday, Aug. 3. Write to Elder E. F. Peterson and tell him when you can come so arrangements may be made to take care of you. Board and tent rent free during workers' meeting to those who assist in getting the camp in readiness.

Camp Meeting

We are all looking forward to the time when we will be privileged to gather with God's people on the camp ground. Of old the Lord's people came together three times each year, but we only once. Ours should, therefore, be the more representative gathering. There are many important questions to come before us this year and we need your help that these questions may be properly settled. With the signs being fulfilled as they are at this time and with the needs of God's cause making such demands for men and means, we should have the largest attendance at our camp meeting that has ever been known in the history of the West Michigan Conference. The day of pentecost found the disciples with one accord in one place waiting for the promise. After due preparation they received the promise. We may receive the promise also but we must put forth the same diligent effort as did the disciples.

The Turk is about to leave Europe and Michael will soon stand up. The work of soul saving will then be closed forever, and our opportunities for work will be forever past.

The gathering of God's people, Aug. 17-27, will be devoted to special consecration for the reception of of the Holy Spirit as a preparation for service. I am deeply impressed that these are the epoch making hours in the final triumph. Progress is written on the very face of nature, and unless we are awake to the times we will be left far in arrears in the race of life. We may feel that we give financial support and should remain at home that we may give the more. Let me entreat you, give first your heart and your influence with your presence to the work of God, and your money, even though much less—if God permits—will accomplish far more for the cause you love. I desire first of all that every person who loves this truth plan to be present during the full ten days of the meeting if possible. Brethren, God wants our service in finishing this great work, and the coming camp meeting is His appointed time to prepare us as a people to be laborers together with Him.

We desire that you as members of the body pray earnestly that every soul attending the meeting may receive undeniable evidence of his or her acceptance with God.

You, dear reader, are the one to whom I appeal. It may be you have not been attending the camp meetings recently. We want you this year. If you are a regular attendant, we cannot spare you and you cannot afford to be absent. So come one and all.

WM. GUTHRIE

Niles

No doubt those interested in the tent efforts in the Lake Union will be glad to read a report from Niles. My family and I have been located here for two weeks. Our tent is pitched on a beautiful corner lot, surrounded with large maple trees, in the resident section of the city. Niles is a very aristocratic town and the work has been slow in starting, but now we see many new faces each evening. Last Sunday evening, July 9, the tent was almost filled. Miss Frances Goodwin is with us, visiting with interested ones and studying the Bible with them. There are several interested ones who attend regularly, and most all those in attendance are of a good class of people. We are very much encouraged to see the interest increasing, and we are of the opinion that it will continue to grow. We earnestly ask all the readers of the HERALD to remember us at the throne of grace.

U. S. ANDERSON

Charlotte

Our winter's effort in Charlotte has not been without some fruit. There were four who followed their Lord in baptism this spring, and several others will do so at camp meeting time.

Elder Hoyt and I are now holding meetings at Holland, Mich. The first meeting was held July 5. The attendance is fairly good. I will report more definitely later.

F. A. WRIGHT

Report of Labor

On Friday, June 30, Elder Guthrie and I met with the little company near Barryton, Mecosta County, Michigan, where I had previously held a series of meetings.

They had their new church building ready for the meetings although they had worked very hard to do so. There will be considerable more work to be done on the building before it is completed. It will be free from debt. Five meetings were held there. Elder Guthrie gave some excellent instruction which was gladly received by all.

Sabbath, July 1, was a most precious season. After a stirring discourse by the president, time was given for all to bear testimony for the Lord. The time was well used by many in telling how precious the message for these last days is to them. On Sunday morning, July 2, after instruction was given on the subject of baptism, we went to a beautiful lake some five miles distant where fourteen were buried with Christ in baptism, all adults. In the evening of the same day a church of twenty members was organized with a full corps of officers.

Others will unite with this church soon. May the Lord greatly bless this little church which will be known in the conference as the Barryton church.

Ashland

The first camp meeting ever held in the North Wisconsin Conference was at Spooner, July 4-9. There were about one hundred fifty adults present. Most of the conference laborers attended this meeting, and Elders Christian and P. A. Hanson, and Brethren Mace, and Blosser, were also with us during the meeting. There was a splendid spirit of union among those present. There was very little business to transact as this had been done by the delegates at the Madison meeting so most of the time was spent on spiritual things. Sabbath forenoon after a searching sermon by Elder Christian practically the whole camp consecrated themselves to the Lord. In the afternoon the needs of the missions were considered and the offering, with the Sabbath school donation, amounted to over $1100.

Sunday afternoon there were 16 baptised by Elder Edwardson, and several more are planning to take this step at their home churches.

The people left the camp ground of good courage, and the prospects are good for this new conference.

At present Brother H. W. Johnson and I are at Ashland looking for a location for the conference headquarters. As soon as definite word is obtained announcements will be made through the paper.

Hopkins

Our tent is located on a grassy lot one block from the main street of the town. The first meeting was held the evening of June 21, and we have had services every evening except the night of July 4. On that evening, we conducted an open air stereopticon lecture for the W. C. T. U. A large per cent of the pictures were on temperance.

Our nightly attendance has been good on the whole, considering the population of the town. It has averaged above thirty-five, and has scarcely fallen below twenty-five any evening. The people turn out best on Saturday and Sunday evenings. Several times the attendance has been nearly eighty.

Tonight, July 12, our subject is "The Change of the Sabbath." This is the last of six discourses on the Law and Sabbath. This vital subject has created quite an interest. Some people have attended nearly every night since we started. We are praying that souls will decide to obey God and unite with His covenant keeping people. Twice we have placed literature dealing with the subjects presented at the tent in the homes of the community.

Pray that God's spirit may work for the advancement of His work here at Hopkins.

At the close of camp meeting it was voted that I should make this city my field of labor, and plans were laid to begin the work with a tent effort. Brother E. F. Peterson and Sister D. B. Christianson were asked to connect with the effort, and Professor P. L. Thompson, who is acting as chaplain of the Sanitarium this summer, will give us what help he can. We opened our meetings July 9 with a good attendance, and prospects are good for a harvest of souls.

It has been my privilege to spend some time at the Sanitarium since camp meeting, and my heart rejoices at the excellent work being done. Every available room is filled and every one is busy. A good class of people not of our faith are here seeking physical health, and we trust that they may not only find this but the message for this time also.

The Sanitarium family are cooperating with us in our tent work. Doctor Lindsay and Doctor Dean will lecture on the "Gospel of Health," and some of the nurses will give lectures on healthful cooking, and demonstrations of our methods of treating diseases will be given.

The church at the Sanitarium numbers over 100, and our goal is a church of 40 members in the city of Madison by Jan. 1, 1917.

Pray for the work in this capitol city.

H. H. HICKS

Sturgeon Bay and Fish Creek

In company with Brother Belding I visited the above named churches two weeks ago Sabbath. Doctor Bently of Sawyer took us in his automobile to Fish Creek, twenty-five miles to the north, as there is no railroad there. They gave us the time of the Sabbath school on account of our having to get back to Sturgeon Bay. There were about twenty in attendance. The matter of tithes and offerings, also home missionary work was considered. All seemed anxious and willing to do all they can to finish the work. Several subscriptions for the Review and Herald were received, besides we sold some tracts and other literature.

We returned to Sturgeon Bay, reaching there about four o'clock, where we found about twenty-five waiting for us. We urged them to strive harder to live the victorious life, and we studied some scriptures with them that show that God is anxiously waiting to pour out His spirit in mighty power, but that He cannot do it until those professing to be His chosen people, as individuals, put sin out of their lives. All were willing to step forward. The matter of home missionary work was considered and 100 "Armagedons" were sold, beside other literature, and several subscriptions to the Review and Herald were also taken.

The German Tent at Milwaukee

We opened our meetings, Sunday night, July 9. We have 300 chairs crowded into our tent, and these were only half enough to seat the people who came out to hear us. We feared our congregation would be smaller Monday night, but we had just as large a crowd. Our tent is located on Fond du Lac and Hickory Streets. We have a splendid location. We had considerable trouble securing permission to pitch our tent and wire it for electricity, but the Lord helped us through it all so that we had everything in readiness for the opening meeting. The evil one is using some of the ministers of other denominations to persuade the people to stay away, but we trust and pray that whatever is done will be for the furtherance of God's cause. We solicit the prayers of all the brethren.

Eau Claire

I attended the Spooner camp meeting for two days, leaving there Friday evening for Eau Claire. Sabbath morning the believers came together for Sabbath school. Brother Anderson, the leader, gave me the time of the after service. We studied together some very important scriptures relating to that oneness and unity that must be manifest in these last days. I am sure by the help of God the believers will take an advanced step to put sin out of their lives, and be ready for the mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

From a Colporteur

The Lord has certainly answered prayer this week and has given me my scholarship. One woman cried because her husband would not get the book for her, and two other women began to cry while looking at the book. Thursday evening I felt like stopping. I went for about a mile and a half and found no one at home. I was discouraged, but I remembered that I had determined to get the rest of my scholarship that week, so I decided to stay the rest of the week. Soon I came to a house where the people were at home. I received their order for a four dollar book, made arrangements to stay over night, and sold another four dollar book across the road. In the morning the man called his neighbor on the telephone and told her of my book. He said that he and the man across the road had each bought one, and that she should buy one. Then he took me about two miles down the road in his buggy. The Lord gave me my first five dollar order, and three, three dollar orders that morning. We should not listen to Satan when he tell us to stop. I hope that all the books may be delivered, and that souls may accept the truth by reading them.

Missionary Volunteer Emblem

For some time the Missionary Volunteers have wanted some kind of emblem that would enable them to recognize each other wherever they chanced to meet, and that would so represent all that the Missionary Volunteer organization stands for, that when those not of our faith should see this emblem and ask what it stood for, we cou'd, in the very explanation of the "M. V.," give them at least a part of the message for this time.

We are able to announce that such an emblem has been gotten out by the Missionary Volunteer department at Washington, and can be secured from your local tract society for fifteen cents.

It is a small oxidized metal pin with the letters "M. V." in red enamel on it; the back ground is a miniature map of the world. This emblem represents the scope of our work and aim, and stands for whole hearted consecration to God and to "The giving of the Advent message to all the world in this generation." It stands for personal, heart-to-heart soul winning. The emblem means all this. The young man who became discouraged and put his pin under his coat lapel, had the right idea of what it stood for. When ordering state whether the solid button back, or safety pin fastener is wanted:

Also remember that the offer of a "William Miller Bible card" has been extended to all who read the Bible through in 1916, the same as it was for the year 1915. Let all who have begun, and all those who are at this time beginning, be faithful in their daily Bible assignments, that when the year closes each one will have finished the reading of that Book of books, and will have the spiritual good that the faithful reading can bring to the soul.

College

According to the canvassers' report as published in the HERALD last week, there were twenty-nine E. M. C. canvassers out of a total of one hundred forty-three, and the E. M. C. canvassers sold $1670.55 worth of books out of a total of $5389.51. To put it in another way, about one-fifth of the canvassers were from E. M. C. and their sales amounted to a little less than one-third of the total.

The first cutting of alfalfa has been stored away in the barn, and a splendid crop of clover is now being cut.

Miss Jennie Judson of Coopersville, Mich., Miss Ida Christensen of Chicago, Ill., Miss Alfareta Sherman of East Tawas, Mich., Mr. Lester Vail of Springfield, Ill., Mrs. Vesta Rust of Greenville, Mich., and Mr. H. W. Denton of Petoskey, Mich., have entered the summer school since the last report, bringing our enrollment up to eighty-four.

Summer school students who can be spared from other work are busy picking currents and raspberries.

Brother Frank Hiner, his wife, and son spent a few days at the College last week. Brother Hiner's family are moving here to give his sons the educational advantages that E. M. C. affords.

The prospects for E. M. C. at the camp meetings were never brighter. At the Wisconsin and Northern Illinois camp meetings our students secured over 100 subscriptions to The Student Movement. At East Michigan there were from fifty to seventy-five subscriptions secured, and the deficiency in subscriptions was made up by securing a large number of students.

We are not only securing a large number of students, but a very fine class, among them two young men who will be seniors, who have been attending Minnesota University.

Miss Agnes Hull was taken suddenly ill, and was removed to the Hinsdale Sanitarium recently.

Mrs. Sherman Shears of Otsego, paid a short visit to E. M. C. on the twelfth.

The College recently made about thirty tons of hay. Dr. Cooper has been forced to give up some of his class work on account of the serious illness of his mother.

The new catalogues are now ready for distribution, and those interested may obtain them by addressing the president, O. J. Graf, Berrien Springs, Mich.

The remaining two numbers of the College bulletin will be sent out about the middle of August. One is to be an album of views of the College campus and surroundings, the other will deal with the advantages of a college education obtained at Emmanuel Missionary College. Write Professor Graf.
