Your Place

Just where you stand in the conflict,
There is your place;
Just where you think you are useless,
Hide not your face.
God placed you there for a purpose,
Whate'er it be.
Think! He has chosen you for it;
Work loyally.

Gird on your armor! be faithful
At toil or rest,
Whiche're it be, never doubting
God's way is best.
Out in the fight, or on picket,
Stand firm and true;
This is the work that your Master
Gives you to do.

Usual and Yet Unusual

Calls for mission funds and offerings are very common. There is a continual demand for "men and money." For several years it has been customary among this people to take up a midsummer offering for missions. The day for this offering is Sabbath, July 29. While this offering is a usual thing, conditions are such that it really becomes very unusual. We have never faced conditions in our work such as we do today. Our missionaries in foreign lands are pleading and urging that we send more men and women to their fields. A very large number of competent and promising young people from our schools stand ready to accept an invitation and go. They are willing to leave home and friends and native land for the cause of the Master. But we are away in arrears on our mission funds. This Union is over $21,000 behind. A generous midsummer offering would help greatly in this vital need. We pray that God may impress all to give very liberally. The situation in the world is very strange and tense. Surely we are in the last days. Never before have the thickening signs indicated as they do now that the day of God's wrath is at hand. This is no time to gather wealth. We must give ourselves, our children, and our means to the cause of Christ.

Offerings in Times of Peace

Our brethren in Europe are in dire distress because of the war. Many have lost their homes and not a few of our laborers have been taken away from their work. Our missionaries in East Africa, in Turkey, and in other fields under European control have been cut off from all sources of supplies. Several of them have been taken away from their homes and missions and placed in some military camp. In this country we have peace though only a few weeks ago it appeared as though we would be thrown into a murderous conflict with Mexico. We often hear it said that this country is at peace because of careful diplomacy and able national leadership. We are convinced that it is God who has kept this country out of the maelstrom of war, and He is doing this for some purpose. The Lord knows that if this country goes to war His work on earth will nearly stop.

On Sabbath, July 29, it will be just two years since the war really began in Europe. Our brethren have decided that this Sabbath should be the day for our midsummer offering. We want to show our gratitude to God for the peace He gives us. How much is this peace worth? What is it worth to our sons and to the young men who are husbands and fathers in our midst? What is it worth to their families? In 1914 our midsummer offering in the Lake Union Conference was $2,400.90. In 1915 it was $3,327. This is about thirty cents per member for this Union. Would it not be possible for us to secure a far larger midsummer offering this year? We are greatly behind on our mission funds for 1916. On July 1 the net shortage for this Union was $21,957, which is a worse shortage than at this time last year. We hope that every minister and worker will do his utmost to secure a large midsummer offering. We are asking our leaders and members of every church as well as our scattered brethren in this Union to work for a large donation: The cause of God needs this very greatly. Our missionaries find open doors on every hand; but during the first six months of this year we have not raised nearly enough money to support the cause of God in the regions beyond. We hope that a strong effort will be made and that a spirit of liberality will be shown by all so that we may have a large midsummer offering. Every member, even the children, can give something. If for any reason the midsummer offering can not be taken up on Sabbath, July 29, it ought to be gathered the following Sabbath. We hope that every church treasurer will send the money in as soon as it is received. This money applies on the twenty-cent-a-week fund. "The Master has need of it."

Summer School Institute and Principals' Conference

Attention has already been called to this important gathering of Christian teachers at Berrien Springs at the close of summer school. The programs are out and the topics to be considered should appeal to every progressive teacher.

The institute will be called at 2:30 P. M., Thursday, August 6, and will continue until Sunday night. Monday and Tuesday the principals' council will be in session. Lake Union Conference teachers' examinations will be conducted Monday and Tuesday, also.

The regular annual meeting of the educational board will be held on Wednesday, beginning at 8 A. M.

Either Professor Griggs or Professor Howell of the general educational department, and Elder MacGuire of the general Missionary Volunteer department will be in attendance.

These important gatherings should be made occasions of real spiritual refreshing and inspiration, as well as professional progress. C. A. RUSSELL

The Sight for the Ellen G. White Memorial Hospital, Los Angeles, California

Away from the din and noise of the city, and well above its smoke and dirt rises the Boyle Heights of Los Angeles, California. Along its crest runs Boyle Avenue. In the very heart of this clean residence district lies a vacant lot. It is somewhat higher than the surrounding portion, higher than the general level of Boyle Heights. Bounded by good cement sidewalks and fine streets, it faces in every direction toward quiet, comfortable homes.

It is as if God had laid His hand over this one spot until His people should need it. Some of those who have been working in the city this past year, have looked longingly toward this beautiful knoll. It seems to be the most desirable place in all that city for such a memorial as the hospital will be. On Tuesday, May 16, 1916, a company of about twenty of the brethren in charge of the work of the medical school looked over the ground. Among them was Elder. I. H. Evans, president of the North American Division Conference. All present concurred in the opinion that this location was admirably suited to our needs, and so the south half was purchased and paid for. The faithful men and women who have had the privilege of helping to buy this land, believe that they have followed God's opening providence.

This site is most fortunately located for such work as must be done here. It lies between two long and important street car lines, one on each side, two blocks away—near enough for convenience, far enough so that the noise of the cars will not disturb patients. Within ten minutes walking distance is a great "foreign field." In this and other similar sections are thousands of the earth's poor who must have the gospel. Many of these have been coming to our dispensary. Better facilities and room to care for these patients properly will increase the patronage. To all who have seen it, the location seems ideal for the medical missionary work which must be done in the great city of Los Angeles, and the training of hundreds of young people for service in the fields beyond.

From the Field

On the last Sabbath in June it was my privilege to meet with the Eau Claire church in quarterly services. Missionary work and plans for a church school were the items most considered at the business meeting held evening after the Sabbath. The brethren are of good courage and manifested a desire to do their part in the finishing of the Lord's work.

The next Sabbath I held a quarterly meeting with the Scandanavian church in Chippewa Falls. Three new members were added to the church.

Sabbath, July 8, I met with the La Grange church. This is one of the pioneer churches in the state, located in the country between Tomah and Wyeville. Most of the old members have moved to other localities; but some new ones have accepted the truth. About forty-five attended the meeting. I will again meet with this church the first Sabbath in September for quarterly services. I wish that all the members of the church and also the isolated Sabbath keepers in that vicinity could attend this meeting.

P. M. HANSON

Items from South Wisconsin

Most encouraging reports are coming in from the work of the various tent companies. Elder G. P. Gaede and company report from the German effort in Milwaukee, that they are having a large attendance of interested listeners. Elder Hicks and his company have started with a good attendance in East Madison. Brother Lewsadder and his company of workers are pleasantly located on Pierce and Ceresco Streets, Berlin, and are being favored with a good class of listeners, several of whom are now taking the Signs; among them the city mayor. Elder Ferris, who has his tent located only a few feet off College Avenue in Appleton, was delayed in getting started, but reports a good attendance. We are sure all these workers will have success this summer if they keep near to the Lord and are diligent in service.

P. A. HANSON

Milton Junction

A special effort was made in the Milton Junction Sabbath school to make the thirteenth Sabbath offering as large as possible. The needs of the Brazillian field were presented all through the quarter, and the members were urged to do their best in giving. On the thirteenth Sabbath the offering was taken up, also pledges payable on the following Sabbath. The total amount received was $85.20. We had hoped it would reach one hundred dollars, but considering that several of the members had just given large amounts at the Madison camp meeting, we feel thankful for this much, and believe that this will be an encouragement to other Sabbath schools. May the Lord add His blessing.

IDA CHAPMAN, Sec'y

A Bethel Booster

A few days ago a former student came to me saying, "I do not have money, but if you will accept work I will donate a week's work to the school to help on the indebtedness, and I have a friend, Mr. — not of our faith, who will also work some." After this young man had worked a day the farm manager said, "He can handle the breaking plow better than any of the rest of us."

With such a spirit as this among the young people, we should not only clear the debt, but clear the land as well.

Field Report

Since writing the last article for the HERALD I visited the Carterville, DuQuoin, Stewardson, and Kingman churches, and some isolated believers near Vienna. At Carterville and DeQuoin I held just one night meeting. A good number attended the service at each place. Two persons were awaiting baptism at Carterville; it had to be deferred on account of the ill health of one of them. They are planning for a church school at each of these places the coming year. At Carterville there are some opportunities for a few families desiring to purchase land and settle near a church and school. Any one interested in the proposition can obtain information by addressing the writer. At Stewardson the ordinances of the Lord's house were celebrated and a good spirit was manifest in our midst. The members there are also planning for aggressive missionary work. I held meetings at Kingman with several outsiders present. One man was baptized and taken into church membership. A double marriage ceremony was conducted here, Reuben Russell and Miss Nettie Wood; John Evitts and Azalia Russell. I am sure these young people will have the good wishes of the HERALD family. Near Vienna there are two families of believers who have not yet been baptized, but will be in the fall. I held two evening meetings here and spent the day in visiting interested ones.

E. F. PETERSON

News Notes

Camp meeting time will soon be here. We are preparing a well stocked book tent and trust our people will come prepared to take advantage of the discounts that will be given on our literature. The value of our literature in spreading abroad a knowledge of this saving truth cannot be over estimated.

Brother J. W. Mace, Home Missionary Secretary of the Union Conference will be with us a large portion of the time at camp meeting. We are sure that his helpful service will be appreciated in connection with the Home Missionary Department work.

No doubt many have seen the notice of a campaign with the Present Truth Series, beginning September 1 and continuing to March 1. The plan is that we send a complete set of the Present Truth Series to our friends and neighbors at 24 cents a set, these to be mailed from the publishing house. We are sure many will want to take advantage of this plan.

We are in hopes that many are praying for our faithful colporteurs now in the field who must suffer considerable discomfort on account of the hot weather that is prevailing. Let us not cease in our prayers that the Lord will help them to overcome all obstacles in connection with their work.

Brother H. E. Moon and family are now located in Springfield. Brother Moon who has been connected with the conference and tract society in the Northern Illinois Conference for a number of years has taken up similar work in our office. We will surely all give Brother Moon a hearty welcome.

Elder N. Z. Town has written that he will attend our camp meeting in the interests of the publishing work from the North American Division Conference, and will also have some interesting things to tell us about the work among the Inca Indians in South America, he having just returned from an extended trip in assisting in the organization of the South American Division Conference.

The time for the midsummer offering to missions is at hand. In the midst of peace, prosperity, and other blessings, let us make a most liberal offering for the support of the work in the fields beyond. At this time of the year the mission funds are low and need replenishing. If there are those who have not the ready cash to give, pledges may be made, giving property, a horse, a cow, or something that might be sold readily and the proceeds given to the cause of missions. Ps. 50:3-5 says that when the Lord comes He will gather together those that have made a covenant by sacrifice with Him. Many of our churches are in arrears on the twenty-cent-a-week fund. This will be a good opportunity to make up what is lacking. At the church service Sabbath, July 29, the offering will be taken. Let each come prepared to give what he can.

Midsummer Offering

July 29 is the day for the midsummer offering for missions. We are short on our twenty-cents-a-week fund, $6,192.35 for the first six months of this year, and the needs of our foreign workers are most piteously pleading. I am praying for a liberal offering on that date. The world's need of the gospel of the kingdom is my plea to the believers in West Michigan. Your local elder has a letter to be read Sabbath, July 29, telling of the needs and conditions in South America. The letter is not in print. You must learn its contents at the church.

WM. GUTHRIE

Religious Liberty Extra, No. 18

I must call attention at this time to the importance of the above Extra. The articles by W. A. Colcord on "Religious Liberty," by L. A. Smith on the "Limits of Civil Authority," and Wm. Lloyd Garrison's "Protest against Sunday Laws" ought to be read by every lover of liberty both for his own sake and for the sake of those whom he may enlighten by himself being informed on these great questions. Then there is a splendid study on the "Proper Relation of the Church and State" and "What Eminent Authorities Say" which are also meat for this time. Our churches ought to scatter these as the "leaves of autumn" that the people may be warned of the dangers about them. Prices as follows: 15 copies, 10 cents; 25 copies, 15 cents; 50 copies, 30 cents; 100 copies, 50 cents; 1000 copies, $4. Conference Headquarters

All are glad to know that our conference headquarters are in Ashland. We have secured an excellent location. Our address is Room 5, Ashland National Bank Bldg., Ashland, Wis. We are doing business in a rather primitive way, but still, we appreciate all orders that come in. More regarding our work will be printed later.

News Notes

Elder J. J. Irwin went to Petoskey to pack his goods and bring his family to Ashland. He expects to move here this week.

V. R. Hillman was the first worker to call at our office, and he seemed pleased with the location. He held a meeting with the Scandinavians in Ashland in the morning and in Washburn in the afternoon.

Although small in number, the Ashburn church is a live missionary church and is sending out hundreds of papers and tracts each month. We expect to see souls saved in the kingdom as a result.

The tract society equipment has not yet arrived, but we have rented a typewriter and are looking for business.

We trust that all in the territory of the North Wisconsin Conference will remember that all orders and all money should be sent to our office here at Ashland.

Two tent efforts will be conducted in the conference this summer, let us pray that this work may be successful in the salvation of souls.

We were pleased with the first reports received from our faithful band of colporteurs, and we are praying that a large number in our field will decide to enter this branch of the work.

Barbers Mill

We are thankful for evidences that God is still moving upon honest hearts to obey Him. In connection with the meeting on Missionary Volunteer Day, we held a consecration service, and all present either consecrated or reconsecrated themselves to God. The rally day exercises deepened this consecration, and when a call was made before we began to celebrate the ordinances at our last quarterly meeting, three of our youth united with the church. All who are old enough are now members. Sabbath, July 15, was another good day. Following a study on baptism, a lady came forward and joined us. Nine years ago Elder J. M. Reese held some meetings here and told me that he felt sure that some day this lady would embrace the truth. This is only another evidence that when we sow seeds of truth in honest hearts, they will, sooner or later, produce a harvest. It is also an evidence that one will sow and another will enter into his labors. One sows, another waters, but God gives the increase. In the afternoon of that same day a baptismal service was held. We, as a church, are of good courage and expect by God's grace to continue faithful and meet our soon coming Saviour.

JESSE E. DUNN

From the Colporteurs

Brother Bergherm writes.—"It seems as if the work goes so fast that we cannot keep up with it. Wednesday was my record day, I sold $55 worth of books. On that day I wrote out so many orders that I actually could not keep track of their number. In one house I sold $11 worth of books, and besides they gave me my dinner."

Brother Rahm writes.—"Thursday the Lord gave me orders at the first seven houses I visited. One man was leaving the house in a buggy and he stopped and said, 'You sold a book to my brother, didn't you?' He took a half morocco without hardly looking at it."

Miss Everett.—"I sold $15 worth of books in just twenty-five minutes in a little town called Hadley. I sold two $5 books and in neither case did I give a complete canvass."

E. M. FISHELL

Canvassing Notes

Miss Bessie Harrison writes.—"I realize I am engaged in a good work, and even if I do not always get orders where I think I should, I try to do my duty in giving the people a chance to know the truth." This is the true spirit. Miss Harrison's sales averaged more than $1 per hour last week.

Fred Wiggins.—"I am glad to say that in many ways the past week has been one of the best in my experience in the canvassing field. It has taught me to have greater faith in God than ever before. When it looked as if there was no one who would keep me over night the Lord would lead me to a place to stay, and without an exception He gave me an order wherever I stayed for the night."

Ruth McCreery.—"I certainly enjoy this work." Miss McCreery is one of our new recruits, and we are pleased to receive such an encouraging report from her.

C. C. King.—"I am glad to report another week's work for the Maater, and am thankful for the success that attended my efforts. It was indeed very warm, and it was rather difficult to get the attention of the people and create an interest under such conditions, but the Lord blessed me, and to Him be the glory." Brother King has a large delivery to make this week and our prayers go with him that it may be a successful one.

W. H. Plake.—"The Lord has given me my second best week since I entered the work, for which I am very grateful."

Madge Miller.—"My report this week stands for hard work. I do not know as I have, in all the time I have been out, worked so hard before. I wanted to make it 40 hours. I only walked sixty miles." As a result of this earnest effort, Miss Miller has a report of $76 for 34 hours' work. We rejoice with her in her well earned success.

Not knowing that "Bible Readings" in the German is out of print at the present time, Brother Brodt took orders for five copies, and of course we were not able to fill that part of his recent order. He writes us today that he has received word from three of these people saying that they will be glad to get the book in the fall when the new "Bible Readings" in German will be ready. We are glad to hear that he did not lose all of these orders.

Brother Fishell has been very busy this past week starting new recruits. At this writing he is in Marion helping one of our brethren there.

Be sure to send all orders for supplies to the tract society.

D. A. BAILEY

A Note from a Canvasser

I am engaged in selling books for the Lord. This work is very different from any work I have tried in the past, and I believe that the Lord has called me to it. I find great joy in working for Him. Last week I sold forty-eight books, and one day I made three dollars above my expenses. The people are very poor and many of them are Catholics. I carry several copies of the Review and Herald Extra with me to give to interested ones. Our books furnish a wonderful opportunity for everyone to work for the Lord.

Location of Tent Companies

Being sure that our people will be interested in knowing where the different tents will be located, and where the laborers will be working this summer, we place in the HERALD the report of the Committee on Distribution of Labor which was read the last Sunday night of the camp meeting. I believe that all our people in the field should earnestly pray for these workers, for our work will soon be finished and we must do all that we can to save souls. It is a heavy burden that the workers carry and they need the prayers of God's people. Let us daily remember them at the Throne of Grace, praying God to give them a rich harvest of souls.

The report was as follows: L. T. Nichola and D. A. Newbold, Highland Park; W. D. Parkhurst and M. Shepard, Jackson, Clare Wood as Bible worker; W. E. Videto and A. V. Morrison, Elkton, Elsie Curtis as Bible worker; I. J. Woodman and F. J. Rowland, Vernon, Pluma Severn as Bible worker; N. V. Willess and T. M. Summerville and wife, Danville; A. F. French and F. A. Quackenbush and wife, Middletown; H. B. Westcott to finish up his work in Bay City, then begin work in Pontiac; Miss Vara Lynch to do Bible work in Bay City; Miss Harter, Mrs. Everest, Mrs. Flynn, and Miss Arnold remain in Detroit.

A. J. CLARK

Some Colporteur Experiences

Brother R. W. Cavell, who is working in Shiawassee County writes.—"I have had some good experiences and answers to prayer. I gave a deaf woman a canvass by just handing her the prospectus. As she looked it over I sat near praying. She finally laid it down and said, 'No.' I continued praying, and shortly she picked it up again and to my surprise gave me an order. How true the words of Sister White, 'The Lord Jesus, standing by the side of the canvasser, is the chief worker.'"

Brother Mielicke, in Saginaw County.—"One man whose order I had failed to get, overtook me, about dark, on his wheel, and said he wanted one of those good books. At another place where I had twice failed to find the man at home, I called the third time and he gave me an order. It surely pays to pass none by. One old gentleman seemed glad to get the book and paid me in advance."

Brother H. W. Perrin who is also working in Shiawassee.—"I had a pleasant talk with one lady who said she had 'Bible Readings' and several Adventist books, and greatly enjoyed reading them. She also said that 'Bible Readings' was a great help in her Sunday school work. She said she had thoroughly studied all points of the Adventist faith and agreed with us in everything but the Sabbath question, and that she does not clearly see. She says she is looking for the truth and wants to find it. She is recognized as the best Bible student in that part of the country."

There are many such hungry souls longing for the truth. Are there not others who are now standing idly by who will join our faithful band of colporteurs?

News Notes

Elder N. V. Willess and family have just arrived from Georgia to take up labor in this conference. Elder Willess will associate with Brother and Sister Summerville in a tent effort at Danville. A cordial welcome will be extended by all to Elder Willess and his family; and we trust they will enjoy their labor here and be instrumental in the bringing of many souls to a knowledge of the truth.

Elder Clark was called to Flint, Tuesday evening, the 18th, to speak on the subject of "True Americanism." An interest was aroused there among a number of lodge men, as a result of one man hearing lectures given by Elder Christian in Chicago and Saginaw. There is a good interest and Elder Clark will go again next week. As the work closes we may expect to hear of many instances of this kind.

Professors Steen and Phipps are spending the Sabbaths out among the churches in the interest of Adelpian Academy. They report good meetings, and a real interest in the school. Many of the young people are planning to attend this coming year.

Work on the church building at Saginaw is progressing, and the brethren and sisters there will soon have a new house of worship.

The friends of Brother Johnson, our canvassing agent, were sorry to learn during the camp meeting that he had been called to connect with the newly formed North Wisconsin Conference as secretary and treasurer. While we are sorry to see him leave East Michigan, we are glad to see the new conference receive a good man, and trust he will enjoy his new field of labor.

Our new canvassing agent, Brother W. A. Bergherm, of Indiana, arrived during camp meeting, and has already begun his work. We hope he will like his new field of labor, and be able to lead out in a strong work in the circulation of literature in East Michigan.

We were sorry to learn a few days ago that Brother Floyd Myers found it necessary to leave his canvassing and assist at home, because of sickness in his father's family. We trust that he will soon find it possible to be back in the field, and assist in putting many books into the hands of the people in our conference.

The hard work of camp meeting is in the past, the camp meeting equipment has either been taken back to Holly and stored, or sent out to different parts of the conference to be used in tent efforts this summer. May all the efforts put forth be fruitful, and many souls be saved as a result of this season's work.

LAKE UNION HERALD

ISSUED WEEKLY BY THE Lake Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists
PRICE, FIFTY CENTS A YEAR.

Printed by Emmanuel Missionary College Press,
Berrien Springs, Michigan.

Entered as second-class matter, November 3, 1908, at the post-office of Berrien Springs, Michigan.

All subscriptions should be sent to your local conference tract society office.

All matter intended for publication should be sent to the Editor, Lake Union Herald, Berrien Springs, Michigan.

Approved advertisements will be published in the HERALD at the following rates: Forty words or less, fifty cents for each insertion, and one cent per word for each additional word. Each group of initials or figures counts as one word. Cash must accompany copy for all advertisements.

Mrs. Lou Kirby Curtis Editor

A Correction

In last week's paper the report of the work at Hopkins by Brethren Clinton Lee and Lyle Shepard should have been in the West Michigan Conference reports instead of the North Wisconsin Conference reports.

Present Truth Series special list for our relatives and friends closes September 1. Let all remember the first of September.

"The Wreck of the World"

This is the title of a most interesting message-filled article in the August Watchman by Elder C. B. Haynes.
This article with the others appearing in this issue of The Watchman will appeal to those who are interested in our truth. Send fifty cents for ten copies.

The August Signs Magazine is full of the message. It contains just the things which man needs to know. Not simply for the life which is to come, but which will be of untold benefit in this life. Why not order ten or more copies of this valuable number to place in the hands of your friends and neighbors?

The August number of Life and Health tells you how to keep well and cool during the hot summer months.
If a copy of this number were placed in every home in America much suffering would be eliminated which is occasioned by ignorance with reference to diet, clothing, and exercise during hot weather. Who will help circulate 100,000 of this very excellent number? Five to forty copies of this journal cost five cents each; fifty or more at four cents each. Send orders through your tract society.

Owing to the many false doctrines now prevalent, there is a growing interest in the subject of death.
The book, "The Other Side of Death" contains a very clear and comprehensive exposition of this question.
In lots of ten or more it can be obtained in the paper cover for 12½ cents per copy. Order a supply from your tract society and you will be surprised how quickly they will sell. Try it.

Another Standard of Attainment test comes next September. Are you preparing for it?

College

Mr. Ford Cady was called to his home in Fountain
City, Wisconsin, by the death of his brother. Mr.
Cady will return soon.

Prof. G. R. Fattic returned on the eighteenth from a short vacation in Indiana.

H. W. Wilcox stopped for a few hours on Wednesday on his way home.

It is with sorrow that we report the death of Mrs.
Cooper. The funeral was held Sunday, the twenty-third, at the home of her son, Dr. O. R. Cooper, who is at the head of the science department at the College.
Interment at Battle Creek.
