Be Cheerful

Drop a word of cheer and kindness—
Just a flash and it is gone;
But there's half a hundred ripples
Circling on and on and on,
Bearing hope and joy and comfort
On each splashing, dashing wave,
Till you would not guess the volume
Of the one kind word you gave.

Facts and Figures

We herewith present two statements concerning the Harvest Ingathering campaign in the Lake Union Conference during 1915. The first gives the number of papers ordered in our field the past years, the other gives the amount of money secured for mission.

We hope our brethren will study these two tables. We used 21,000 more copies last year than during 1914. And we secured almost $6,000 more for missions, showing that our people did better work and that our friends are not tired of giving. We used 14,000 more papers than any other union and our receipts were over $2,000 more than any other. But the Lake Union fell almost $3,000 behind its quota, while the Atlantic Union ran ahead of its goal to the amount of $3,900 and the East Canadian Union which led the entire field raised more than twice its share. In looking at our Union alone we observe that two conferences raised more than their quota. Nearly every conference did more than the previous year, yet some were far behind. If we really try we can reach our goal. Faithful leaders and a willing people bring success.

A Late Start and a Run

Every morning walking along Kedzie Avenue, in Chicago to our office we meet people running to catch the elevated train. Almost the same ones run each day. Some run till they are all out of breath. They even run in this sizzling weather. Many of these folk live only three blocks from the car. If they started five or even three minutes earlier they could walk leisurely to the station and get a car on time, but they have gotten this habit of a late start and a run.

There are some among us who have this habit. We see it in the Harvest Ingathering work. In the HERALD last week we read some very interesting items concerning this campaign. A number of our conferences and brethren have already placed their order for the Harvest Ingathering papers this year. The orders that are received first are naturally filled first. There is danger that we may not be able to get the papers as soon as we wish them if we delay ordering them. We would urge our church elders, leaders, ministers, and other workers to send in their orders for the Harvest Ingathering papers right away. These orders should be sent to the local tract society. Every conference has this question under consideration and is planning to order its quota of the papers at once. This subject should be taken up in every church next Sabbath, if possible. Let us start the Harvest Ingathering work earlier this year than last.

"Let Us Rise Up and Build"

Neh. 2 : 18

After the schools of the Prophets had been in operation long enough to educate substantial men for statesmanship in Israel, there followed Solomon's golden reign of peace, the building of the temple, and the experience recorded in the fifth, sixth, and seventh chapters of second Chronicles.

It is a wonderful experience to follow the Lord so closely in the work of our lives that He can so signally manifest His approval as He did to Solomon. It was not until the work of building the temple was done and "Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated: and the silver and gold and all the instruments" that he considered his work ready for dedication. When "the trumpeters and singers were as one to make one sound to be heard in praising the Lord . . . then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the Lord; . . . for the glory of the Lord has filled the house of God." Upon a finished work God set His approval. So interested were the people in doing as the Lord had directed that they "made one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the Lord."

God's blessing always rests upon one who does a work for Him, however imperfect it may be, but He gives wisdom for a complete work as the heart and life are submitted to Him. It was when the people all shouted that the walls of Jericho fell, it was when there was one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the Lord that the glory of the Lord filled the house. When, in Nehemiah's experience of rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem, they said, "Let us rise up and build" and they "strengthened their hands for this good work," then the wall was built, "for all the people had a mind to work."

Had there been a lack of unity within the walls, they could never have withstood the attempts of the enemy without, to spoil their work. But all these wicked efforts were unavailing because God's work was being done by a united people. There is no surer way of breaking down the walls of our defense than by allowing the world to take the time and talents of our young people. "Now as never before we need to understand the principles of true education or we shall never have a place in the kingdom of God." United effort is required for our church schools, our training schools, and just now for our medical school.

No more truly did God send Nehemiah to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem, or approve of the building of Solomon's temple, than He has spoken definite plans for the work of our medical college. Just as truly as His glory filled the temple, so will His presence and blessing manifest His approval if we follow His opening providences at this time.

An ideal site has been purchased in a most favorable part of Los Angeles for the new Ellen G. White Memorial Hospital. The signal blessing of God has rested upon those who are working to secure means for its erection. In speaking of the purchase of Loma Linda in 1905, Sister White said, "The securing of this property at such a price as we paid for it is a miracle that should open the eyes of our understanding. If such manifest workings of God do not give us a new experience, what will?"

The Lord is continuing just such miracles in the advance of our work here. Let there be a long, strong, united effort now to provide those facilities for our school which will "close a door the enemy would be pleased to have left open." Let our sisters rise to the privileges that are now theirs in this "Woman's Movement" and let the work of erecting the Ellen G. White Memorial Hospital go rapidly forward.

Notice

I take pleasure in announcing to the brethren of the South Wisconsin Conference that Professor P. E. Berthelsen, formerly of the Danish-Norwegian Seminary at Hutchinson, Minnesota, will connect with the faculty at Bethel, Wis.

Professor Berthelsen is a man of long experience in our schools, having taught at Union College and at the Seminary for about twenty years. He is an ordained minister and interested in the spiritual welfare of our people, and especially that of the young people. I am sure that with this addition to the faculty we may look for most efficient work in the Bethel Academy this coming year.

A splendid company of students are preparing to attend. Almost the entire enrollment from last year will return this year.
P. A. HANSON

Madison Sanitarium

P. L. Larson, business manager of the Madison Sanitarium, gave a good report of that institution at our recent camp meeting. The sanitarium is in a good condition both temporally and spiritually. Much interest has been manifested in the Bible studies, especially the prophecies, during the year by a number of the patients. Good seed has been sown. Some much needed repairs have been made on the buildings and grounds. The credit of the Sanitarium Association is good, and an excellent spirit of cooperation is manifested by our people throughout the conference.

Madison

We are glad to report that God is blessing the work at Madison. Because of the exceedingly warm weather our attendance has not been as large as we would like to have it, still there have been a number of interested people present each evening. As we visit these interested ones we find that the spirit of the Lord has brought conviction to their hearts. Last week we talked on the Sabbath question and our prayer is that as men see the truth God will give them strength to step out and obey it.

Appleton

According to a recommendation of the conference committee, the tent meetings were started in this city Sunday evening, July 16. We have a very good location in a desirable part of the city. We advertised our meetings well, and the daily papers of the city assisted us by giving a full column write-up regarding the nature of our work. They have given us space for every article we have taken them. Our attendance has not been large, but a good interest has been manifested by those present. We are now ready for the Sabbath question, and we earnestly solicit the prayers of our brethren and sisters that God will help us, and give us a harvest of souls as the result of this effort.

The members of the Appleton church are giving valuable assistance, and this is a great source of encouragement to us.

A Letter to Our Young People

My dear young friends: You will find in this issue a letter from Professor Ludington concerning the Meiktila, India, school of which he is superintendent. I know you will be interested in all that he has to say about the school over there, and I believe it will prove an inspiration to you in helping to raise our $500 for that school. While doing this, do not let us neglect our other funds for missions.

G. R. FATTIC

To the Young People of Wisconsin

You do not know how encouraged we feel to know that the young people at home are so faithfully stand-by their representatives in foreign lands. When I saw the report in the LAKE UNION HERALD stating the goal that you are to reach this year, I thought I would write and tell you how thankful we would be to you for your sacrificing efforts. I know that whatever you undertake will be carried to a successful finish.

I wish you could all come and visit our school. You could see many things that have become so common to me that I am afraid I will not mention them. You may imagine that you have arrived at Meiktila and are ready to go with me as I go about my daily work.

At six o'clock in the morning you will be awakened by a gong. It is not a gong exactly, nor a bell. It is a piece of railroad iron about eight inches long. This is the signal for all boarding boys who are not paying full tuition to go to work.

As we pass from one group of boys to another we assign work and inspect what has been done. Some of the boys do the sweeping, dusting, etc., while others work in the garden, run errands, and work in the shop. All greet us with a merry "Good morning."

These boys work until eight and then have fifteen minutes to get ready for school. At 8:15 the gong sounds again and you will see boys coming from all directions to attend the school. They come from neighboring villages. Most of them are Burmese, but occasionally you will see a native of India, or some Chinese or Karens. Most of them dress in Burmese costume.

All the boys meet in the chapel, marching in together. The chapel is also used as a classroom. After chapel the different classes march to their own rooms for their class work. About this time the workman arrives to work on the shoes and boots that have been ordered. Our leather department makes about thirty pair a month, and they are shipped to all parts of the country.

Breakfast is served at half past ten, and consists of rice and curry. The Burmese have a strange way of eating, which nevertheless requires some skill. The hand is used in mixing the food and when mixed it is rolled into a small ball and flipped into the mouth somewhat as a boy shoots marbles. It is the custom for all the people to take a nap after breakfast and all do this at the school excepting the superintendent.

At twelve o'clock the boys return to their school work and remain until three. The small boys then go to their homes and the older ones to the workshop. At present we are teaching the boys to make boots, shoes, and rattan furniture; also carpentry. Sloyd is taught in connection with carpentry. The boys work in the shop about an hour and a half each day. Many of them are lazy and need a great deal of persuasion.

I want to tell you some of the things that are needed here in the line of improvements, which the $500 will help to obtain. A house is needed for the head teacher; a well, fence, new dormitory, and chapel equipment, and many other minor things. Without a fence we cannot do any agricultural work because the cattle are continually eating whatever we plant. Our water has to be carried nearly a mile from a little lake, and you can realize that we need a well.

A typewriter is also needed, but that is considered a luxury. A number of friends are trying to raise money for a typewriter.

Our school has opened with a much larger enrollment than we had last year, there being twice as many enrolled on the opening day as on the corresponding day last year. The Lord is blessing our school and we hope to see many of these dear young people led to Jesus. I ask an interest in your prayers that the Lord will continue to bless our school and I trust that some of you will soon come out to India and help us.

News Items

Within a few days the books that have been sold by our loyal colporteurs this summer, will be placed in the homes of the people. We solicit an interest in your prayers in behalf of these workers and their deliveries.

A new addressing machine has been installed at the office. It will save considerable labor and time.

Brother W. J. Walters and wife are now permanently located at Fond du Lac.

Not all of the home missionary reports have come in for the second quarter. These will be appreciated at an early date by Brother Belding.

Brother George Meyer who is canvassing in Manitowoc County writes, "I am still of good courage. Last Friday while working I lost my map and upon returning to the place where I thought I had left it, I made an exhibition and took two orders in the same home. The Lord has wonderful ways of bringing His truth to the people."

Elder Lewsadder and wife called at the office this week. They report a deep interest on the part of a few in the tent meetings at Berlin.

Brother Belding just returned to the office having visited the brethren at Portage, Mauston, Tomah, Valley Junction, Laval, and Shenington.

Miss Evelyn Eglin who has been having splendid success in selling "Bible Readings" in Waukesha County this summer, sends in this interesting item. "At one place where the people already had 'Bible Readings' I found it lying open upon the table. The woman had been studying it. She prized it very highly." Thus our books are appreciated and read.

Elder P. A. Hanson was at Milton Junction and Madison a few days last week.

How We Reached Our Goal

In recent years, we, as a denomination, have been setting big and far-reaching goals in our work, in the ingathering of souls, in the raising of foreign as well as home mission offerings, in the distribution and selling of literature, and otherwise. That this has proved not only a great stimulus, but at the same time a special blessing to the cause in general, no one can deny who has seen it worked out.

This is written especially in the interests of our Sabbath school work, and for the encouragement of Sabbath school officers and teachers. We consider our Sabbath school work one of the most important lines of our world-wide movement, and believe that our Sabbath schools should be real soul winning centers.

In one of our Chicago Sabbath schools, the Humboldt Park Danish-Norwegian, the membership was 110 at the beginning of the second quarter of this year. The officers and teachers felt that this second quarter ought to be a special membership rally quarter, and so the following goals were set: membership by July 1, 125; attendance, 110; offerings, $175. The highest attendance up to that time had been 101, and the offerings had never climbed higher than to $150 for any one quarter.

The teachers pledged themselves to do all in their power to help reach this goal, and they made a strenuous effort not only to be present every Sabbath themselves, and be there on time, but encourage their pupils from Sabbath to Sabbath to come. Regular monthly teachers' and officers' meetings were held, also regular weekly teachers' meetings. A spirit of cooperation and unity took hold of all, and in a week or two irregular members began to come regularly, and visitors came in greater numbers, and in many cases joined as members of the Sabbath school.

Every two or three weeks special exercises were given for the benefit of the children and youth, with the result that more than twelve were added to the intermediate, primary, and kindergarten departments. The pastor of the church, Elder L. Halsvick, gave the school his fullest and heartiest cooperation and assistance.

The Home Department secretary looked up aged, feeble, and out-of-town members, and every member that could be located was asked to join the Sabbath school either by coming or by registering as a member of the Home Department.

At the end of the quarter we were very glad to find that the membership had reached 149 including 18 Home Department members, and the attendance had been 127, also including Home Department members. The offerings were $184, of which the Home Department members had contributed more than $16.

Next to the rich blessings of God, and the work of the Holy Spirit, we owe this increase to our faithful teachers. The fullest cooperation on the part of officers, teachers, and all members, is the keynote to success in our Sabbath school work. Try it in your school and see what the result will be.

Does it Pay to Recanvass Territory?

Brother Lorenzo Clark sends the following word concerning his experience in recanvassing territory that he canvassed about a year ago. "At one place where I stayed over night they remembered me from my work there a year ago, and began asking me questions about the Bible. The hired man ordered 'Daniel and Revelation' in Danish. The people themselves ordered 'Practical Guide', and when I started to leave in the morning they ordered 'Daniel and Revelation'."

Brother E. A. Rideout informs us that he is recanvassing territory that was canvassed last year and the year before. He finds many of our large books, still his average is above a dollar an hour.

These facts are of great value, and prove that books can be sold where the territory has been recently worked.

C. J. TOLF

Does It Pay?

For the purpose of encouragement we are apt to call your attention to the pleasant and profitable phases of the colporteurs' work, but it may be well to think a little of the trials and conflicts of God's messengers as this may also help us to take a deeper interest in this branch of God's work and in the workers.

The following extracts are taken from this week's mail. We trust it will stir your hearts to more earnest prayer in behalf of these loyal workers.

The following is from a student who has the double burden of paying for his brother's education as well as his own. "After a strenuous two days' or three days' work in the hot sun during the past week, I felt just a little hard toward God. Then the thought flashed into my mind. 'Don't feel hard toward the Father, He has a hard time getting into the hearts of these people, too.' I then began to read Job, and when I read His wonderful words 'Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him,' tears came to my eyes and repentance and peace to my troubled heart. I am going to pray and trust." This brother worked forty-eight hours in the intense heat of the week ending July 29.

A sister working in a small city writes, "This has been a very hard week, owing to the hot weather. This surely is toiling for Jesus, but sometimes I am not as joyful as I ought to be. I always feel encouraged when I think about how much Jesus did for me, and the thought that I am a pilgrim and a stranger, and can tarry but a night, makes even the hardest day a joy, as I know the sooner the message has gone to all the world, the sooner we can go home."

There is no note of discouragement in this, but there is a firm faith in the hope of being saved and going "home." Dear reader, have you this firm and joyful hope abiding in your heart? Why not consecrate yourself this day to the Lord, and help to quickly finish this work?

Cadillac Camp Meeting

By the time this reaches you it will be only two weeks until the annual camp meeting of the North Michigan Conference at Cadillac, August 24 to September 3. I trust that no one has lost his interest in the welfare of our conference and the upbuilding of the cause in the earth. The Lord has told us that we are not to forsake the assembling of ourselves together, and so much the more as we see the day approaching. Certainly everything is pointing to the soon coming of our Saviour.

I am very anxious to renew my acquaintance with the brethren of the North Michigan Conference, and I want to see every individual at the camp meeting. If each one who has started in the service of the Lord would humbly seek God, putting away every sin, we would see the mighty power of God manifested at our camp meeting, His spirit poured out, and our companions, children, young people, and friends giving their hearts to the Lord. Will not everyone do his part in making this meeting what God wants it to be?

In the weeks intervening between now and the time for our annual gathering, a vigorous campaign should be carried on in every church to make this the largest meeting we have ever held in North Michigan. Few more such opportunities will be given us of meeting together, and with the Lord's help the meeting this year should be one filled with spiritual help for all.

Begin the camp meeting campaign next Sabbath. A camp meeting prayer band will kindle the spirit. Talk of the coming feast as you meet for service and and read what the Lord has instructed us concerning these important gatherings. Many who have grown cold in the service of the Lord are waiting for a kind word and an invitation to come back to the Saviour. Get them to come to the meeting. There is the young man planning to work for the world, and the young woman soon to be married to a man not in the truth. The Spirit of the Lord can change these decisions. Some of the aged brethren and sisters have not been to camp meeting for some years. Plan for them to be there and their hearts will be cheered by once more meeting with others of like faith. Some of your isolated members do not often meet with you; arrange for a church reunion at camp meeting. Special preparation will be made for the young people and children. Give them the opportunity of receiving a special blessing.

Pray, Plan, and Push. Begin now!

E. A. BRISTOL

Camp Meeting Notice

Remember the camp meeting comes this month, Aug. 24 to Sept. 3, and that you should place your orders at once for a tent and other supplies. Send all orders directly to the conference office, 510 Petoskey St., Petoskey, Mich. Prices are as follows: tents $2.50, bed springs 50 cents, spring cots 50 cents, stoves $1, tables 25 cents, chairs 10 cents, floor $1, straw 10 cents. When ordering, state each item wanted and also the number you will need of each. Bring with you a liberal supply of bedding also a straw tick, for these cannot be secured on the grounds.

Farewell

It is with many regrets that I leave the work in the North Michigan Conference. It seems I have barely begun to get in touch with it, but in the shift of Educational and Missionary Volunteer secretaries in the conferences, it has seemed best for me to take up the work in the Northern Illinois Conference.

I shall still have a deep concern for the work in the North Michigan Conference and shall watch its progress with much interest. This past year has been a pleasant one as I have met the different people of the conference in their homes, churches, and at camp meetings.

Miss Carolyn Rasmussen who is to be my successor, has had several years of experience in the Indiana

Conference so it is a satisfaction to know that the work is to be left in good hands.

My Chicago address is 116 N. California Avenue.

News Notes

You will enjoy the coming camp meeting on the fair grounds at Cadillac, August 24 to September 3. The people of the city are very friendly and are cooperating in every way possible to make this meeting one of the best we have ever had in North Michigan. Come and bring all the family with you.

A large assortment of Bibles, books, and literature have been ordered for the camp meeting, and we shall have an interesting display at the large book tent. Come prepared to take advantage of the liberal discounts and special bargains offered. We want every one to come in and examine the new publications this year. We also want you to become acquainted with the new workers who have come since our last camp meeting. We are anxious to get acquainted with you.

The Wearner sisters have made their first delivery, which was very successful, putting into the homes of the people $341.40 worth of books.

The Swenson sisters have also had a very successful delivery.

The conditions have not been the best for some of our colporteurs, but the Lord is richly blessing their faithful efforts.

Beechwood Academy Notes

We are glad to be able to announce that the calendars will be ready for distribution the first week in August, and we will place these pamphlets in the hands of prospective students at the earliest possible moment thereafter. Any young person interested in a Christian education at Beechwood who does not receive a copy of the calendar by the 10th of August, should send a card to Beechwood Academy, Needham, Indiana, and a copy will be sent out immediately.

We shall be glad to correspond at once with two or three young men who are planning to attend Beechwood this coming year, and who can be here by August 15 to assist in the work that must necessarily be done before school opens. The work will be credited on the school account. Some one handy with tools is preferred.

There will also be work for two or three girls, especially those old enough to go ahead with some of the hard work connected with the opening of the school.

We have several pleasant surprises for our students for the coming year. We are sure that all will have a pleasant and prosperous school year at Beechwood, and we invite the young people of Indiana who are seeking an education and who have a real desire to become fitted for the Master's work, to come and be one of our academy family.

J. G. LAMSON, Principal

Indianapolis

This is now the eighth week of our tent effort for the colored people, and the interest is still good. On Sunday and Monday nights, July 23 and 24, the Sabbath question was presented. Each night there were about one hundred seventy-five persons present not of our faith. Several of these kept the following Sabbath, and others are deciding to do so in the near future. We are praying for a rich harvest of souls. Pray with us.

Colporteur Experiences

Brother Bergherm writes.—"The Lord is still richly blessing me and answering my prayers." Brother Bergherm has now been working seven weeks and has secured orders amounting to $821.50. The Lord says to go into His vineyard and work, and He will pay you what is right.

Brother Shepard writes.—"I am of good courage and earnestly pray for the success of all the canvassers."

Brother Lucas is working among German Lutherans largely and is meeting with good success. He is averaging more than $1 an hour.

Brother Heflin writes encouragingly of his work. He says, "I thank God for His blessings and ask your prayers."

Miss Harrison.—"I canvassed a man the other day who said he would take the book although he did not think he would have time to read it. He thought it would be a good book to loan. This man is the ticket agent on the Monon Railroad."

Miss Mast.—"I am so glad I am in this work. Last Monday I took an order for a full morocco from a lady who is a Christian Scientist, and Tuesday a Spiritualist gave me an order for her grandchildren." Miss Mast writes of such experiences nearly every week.

Brother Wiggins.—"In one home I secured $9 worth of orders. Aside from my canvassing, I am having a good experience with the minister with whom we are staying. For two weeks he has asked me to help him in preparing his Sunday sermons. We have now come to the crisis. He has asked us when we have time to spare to give him our reasons for keeping the seventh day and he in turn is to give us his reasons for observing the first day. I believe this man is earnest and sincere. No one could treat us better than he does."

Brother Rahm.—"I started to canvass one man and his wife began to laugh. I asked her if she had the book. She said 'Yes, I threw one away because it was a Catholic book. I won't have a Catholic book in my home.' I asked if it was 'Bible Readings.' She said it was the same book. I said it surely was another book and handed it to her. 'Yes, it had those same pictures,' she said. I finished my canvass and secured an order for the half morocco binding."

Miss Miller has been working hard for the $100 mark and last week realized her aim—38 hours, $109.50. She says, "It was very hot and rainy this week, but the Lord surely did bless me. People said, 'O, don't go that way,' but I did and sold a book in every house."

Ellen G. White Memorial Hospital Day, Sabbath, October 14, 1916.

College

Prof. W. E. Howell of the Educational Department arrived on the third.

Mr. E. P. Weaver has returned from his vacation, and he and his corps of workers are making some changes in the heating plants. A new boiler has been ordered for the Ladies' Dormitory.

Recently a large number of return post cards were sent to students and graduates by the editorial committee of the Summer Bulletin. If you have not sent your news note please do so as soon as possible.

Miss Rena Klooster, a college graduate of 1914, who has had two years' experience as preceptress and matron at San Fernando Academy, reached here last week and has taken up her duties as matron.

Last Sabbath evening a farewell reception was given in honor of Mrs. Martha White, who has acted as matron for the last six years. A beautiful traveling bag was presented to the guest of honor as a slight token of appreciation of her services. Mrs. White left Tuesday, the first.
