Dedication at Saginaw

For sometime the church at Saginaw has been considered inadequate for our work. The location was unfortunate and inconvenient. Last spring after carefully considering the matter, it was decided to sell the old church and erect a new one. The brethren were very fortunate in securing a beautiful location in one of the best parts of the city, on the main thoroughfare leading to the business section of the east side. Some of the wealthiest people of the city live in the neighborhood of the church. They are very friendly to us and gave us material assistance for our building.

Ground was broken and the task of erecting the church commenced in April, and in six months the building was ready for dedication. The untiring efforts of Elders Guild and Woodman, and the faithful workers that were employed, made it possible for Saginaw to have this handsome edifice for worship.

It is built of field stone, trimmed with cut stone, and so arranged that it is one of the nicest churches owned by our people, as well as one of the prettiest in the city. The interior of the building, on the main floor, has three rooms—the auditorium, a schoolroom, and a rest-room at the entrance. In the basement is a vestry at the rear for Sabbath school work, and such other services as may be desired. There is a gallery at the rear of the auditorium. Altogether the room will seat about three hundred or three hundred fifty comfortably. The building complete cost approximately ten thousand dollars.

THE SAGINAW CHURCH BUILDING

Sunday, October 29, in the afternoon the church was dedicated. Elder L. H. Christian, president of the Lake Union Conference, delivered the sermon, and the writer offered the dedicatory prayer. The services in connection with the dedication began on Friday evening and lasted until Sunday evening. Elders C. S. Longacre of Washington, D. C., L. H. Christian, M. C. Guild, O. M. Kittle, N. V. Willess, H. B. Westcott, W. H. Green, I. J. Woodman, and the writer were in attendance. Many of the brethren and sisters from the surrounding churches, also the members of the conference committee were present.

Elder I. J. Woodman was left as pastor of the church, and immediately commenced a series of lectures with the hope that many will see this blessed truth and take their stand for it. Let us all pray that our Heavenly Father will bless this monument, dedicated to Him and this truth, to the salvation of many souls.

Pontiac

At the time of our camp meeting in Saginaw, we were asked to locate in Pontiac as soon as possible. It took some time to bind off our work in Bay City where we had labored for three years. It was not until the first of September that we were able to leave.

Our stay in Bay City was very pleasant, and through the blessing of our Heavenly Father we were able to see fruits of our labor. While it seemed like leaving home to part with our many friends in Bay City, it also seemed like returning home to come back to Pontiac where we were located for a short time before going to Bay City.

We see many pleasing changes since we were here last. Then we were unable to rent a hall or secure any public place for meeting. Now we have a neat church building, very centrally located, which was purchased last July. At that time a church of ten members was organized. We now have a membership of fifteen.

A growing interest is being manifested in our Sabbath and Sunday evening services.

We have started a church school which is progressing nicely under the supervision of Miss Marian Briggs.

If any have interested relatives or friends living in the city we would be pleased to receive their names and addresses.

Pray for us that we may be able to gather the honest in heart out of this city which has so long closed its doors against the third angel's message.

News Items

Elder S. E. Wellman, formerly of Wisconsin, who by recommendation of the Union Committee exchanges places with Elder A. F. French, has arrived at Bay City, where he is to be stationed, and begun work. We trust that Elder Wellman and family may enjoy East Michigan and find Bay City a fruitful field.

We are glad to report good orders for P. T. S. and booklets. But for inability to obtain the Home Circle Library prospectus, a number would be at work for the smaller books.

Owing to her health, Miss Ivah Krome has had to give up her work in the Holly school, and Miss Florence Thomas, of Charlotte, has taken her place.

Miss Tillie E. Barr, of the Conference office, is enjoying a few days' visit with Professor and Mrs. Kelley, at Berrien Springs.

With the increase of prices to take effect Jan. 1, 1917, our people should avail themselves of the opportunity to renew subscriptions to periodicals and to purchase needed books at the old prices. To delay will mean loss.

Elder Kittle, our home missionary secretary, is planning a vigorous campaign for this fall, with institutes to be held at various places. The first institute will be held at Detroit, Sabbath, the 18th.

Brother F. A. Quackenbush, who for some time has been located at Holly while laboring in various places, has removed to Port Huron. While carrying on the work there, he will also seek to conserve the interest at other near-by places.

Harvest Ingathering

By the time this reaches the readers we will have reached the latter part of November. The time for work on the Harvest Ingathering will be almost closed. If we are to reach our goal we must take hold with renewed vigor. Our first month's report is better than for 1915, but we are still far short of the needed amount to meet our goal.

Our mission offerings are also far short of the twenty-cent-a-week for the year. We need $11,000 during November and December to make our full quota.

I have been greatly rejoiced to learn of the good work being done by our missionaries in the different fields. Doors are being opened everywhere for the truth to enter. Just a few lessons are needed in many places to win a soul for the Master. All heaven is waiting to see what interest we take in saving those who are so very anxious for the truth. Ten dollars now will be worth more to this cause and will win more souls to the truth than one hundred dollars at some later time. We will get more joy out of the hearty handshake of some saved soul in the new earth than we will from holding many hundreds of dollars in our hands now. If our treasures are in heaven, our hearts will be there also.

Through the faithful work and suffering of Brother Stahl, the power of the Catholic Church has been broken in parts of South America so that liberty is now granted other denominations where only a short time ago mobs were raised and urged on by the church dignitaries to drive other church workers from the field.

Just now we need to send men to answer the calls coming to us from those newly-opened gates.

My brethren, will we now arise and do this work and receive the crown? May the Lord help us to go up and take the land.

WM. GUTHRIE

A Report

I am glad to let the HERALD family know that I have raised my Harvest Ingathering goal and thirty-five cents over five dollars. There is a blessing in it. It is a blessing to be a colaborer with God, in helping carry the gospel to the ends of the earth.

Dedication and Other Meetings at Princeton

About two years ago a neat little church building was provided for the Seventh-day Adventist congregation at Princeton. But dedicatory services were deferred until the house and complete equipments were free from debt.

The meetings were conducted November 10-12, by Elder E. R. Lauda and the writer. Four sermons were delivered. The last of the four was an appropriate dedicatory address by Elder Lauda. The other three were all practical in character, given with a view to obedience and acceptable worship of God.

A dedicated house should be used in such a way as to honor God and give stability to His cause, and this can be done only when the people who worship there live such lives as will duplicate the pattern lived by Jesus.

The dedication of a church is but a lifeless form, and the investment of money to build it is but a waste of means unless the people who meet to worship in it are themselves heart and soul dedicated to the Lord.

The sermons, the readings, the songs, and the dedicatory prayer all are directed to the end of consecrated living. If this shall be the fruit of the Princeton services, our labors will not have been in vain.

WM. COVERT

A Good Example

It is really wonderful what a person can do in the work of the Lord when he gets a vision of the need and his duty.

One of the sisters in the Elgin church caught such a vision it seems, for we hear that though she teaches school all day she goes out to solicit means for foreign missions, using the Harvest Ingathering Signs. She writes us as follows: "My Harvest Ingathering donations are now $49.50, with 175 papers given out in about two months. I figured that regularity and frequency would accomplish more than a few spurts, so I aimed for five daily calls from Monday to Friday. When people told me to call again Saturday, I went after sundown. I have not always attained five daily, but the Lord has certainly helped and blessed."

I understand that she does this work after supper. Dear reader, is there not a lesson in this for you if you have not done as much? This sister is doing this because she feels it a duty. Is it not the duty of each one of us to do likewise, if we can?

If you have let down in your efforts, will you not feel it a duty as well as a privilege to take up the work once more in real earnest, throwing your whole soul into the work? Let us never give up until we have reached the goal for the conference. Your missionaries are depending on you.

Tri-City Sanitarium Items

The sanitarium is very fortunate in having secured the services of Dr. E. A. Warner, of Montrose, Minn., to act as house physician. The doctor and his family are now located in Moline.

The sanitarium has recently purchased a new Coolidge tube to add to the X-ray equipment.

The Moline Sabbath school is busy climbing "Mt. Moline," or in other words bringing new members into the school. They have painted a large green mountain on cardboard, with paths for the men, women, boys, and girls, and each time a new member is brought in, it is designated on one of the paths. During the last quarter the membership has increased from fifty-eight to seventy-five.

Sister F. A. Marsh of Aledo, who has been ill so many months, is improving and is able to be around in a wheel chair. Her nephew, Norman Marsh, is also spending a few days at the sanitarium.

The appearance of the reading room and front stairs at the sanitarium has been very much improved this week by a new brown rug and stair carpet.

Misses Mabel and Edna Eggum, who graduated in the nurses' class of 1916 at Hinsdale, have come to the Tri-City Sanitarium to take up work.

Mr. John Birdwell of Hinsdale arrived at the sanitarium Friday to take charge of the bath room work. Mr. E. E. Wiswell, who formerly had charge of the work, is leaving for Arkansas to take charge of his mother's farm.

Willing Offerings

At different times during the past few months several individuals have handed to me, or sent to the office, one or more articles of jewelry to be sold and the proceeds to be given to foreign missions. On a recent trip several rings were handed to me with instruction to secure all I could from their sale for the cause of God. One of our sisters desiring to make an offering on the fourteenth Sabbath and not having the ready cash to do this with sent in an article of jewelry to be sold as an offering. Surely this is a commendable way to dispose of such articles. God's people are not supposed to wear them, and how much better to convert them into money for the cause, than to keep in one's possession for the fires of the last day. Then too, it removes the temptation to put them on and wear them. Perhaps there are others having articles of this kind who desire to give them to the work of the Lord. We shall be glad to hear from any such and shall get all we can in selling them and turn the money in to the Lord's treasury. In the 51st Psalm we are told that the Lord will gather together all those that have made a covenant by sacrifice with Him. Let us all enter into the spirit of sacrifice as never before to finish the work of the Lord in the earth.

E. F. PETERSON

News Notes

The tent at West Frankfort has been taken down and the work continued by Elder C. W. Curtis. There are a few new believers as a result of the tent effort. A Sabbath school has been organized and we hope to see it grow into a strong company of believers.

We are living in a world of changes which is very evident in the Lord's work from time to time. Recently Elder R. J. Nethery was called to take up work in the West Michigan Conference. Elder Lewis Drews of Wisconsin has accepted a call to labor in our field among the Germans of whom we have many thousands. We regret to see Elder Nethery and family leave us, but our prayers and good wishes follow them and we bespeak a hearty welcome to Elder Drews and family as they cast their lot with us.

To date over 1,000 more Harvest Ingathering papers have been ordered than last year. The work is still going on. We hope none of these papers will be left unused. With the great needs in the fields beyond, let us greatly increase the amount gathered in to meet the urgent calls coming to the Mission Board.

The children of the Springfield church have raised more than $24 in the Harvest Ingathering work. This is more than double their goal.

Notes from the Field

These are a few of the encouraging words from our band of faithful colporteurs. The Lord is blessing and giving courage and strength to each worker.

Our annual institute will be held January 5-14, and I trust that many of our people who feel that they ought to be out with the message will plan to take advantage of this opportunity to get a training, and will let the Lord use them in placing the good books where they may be used in winning precious souls to Jesus. "Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that My house may be filled." Luke 14:23. We are not to compel them by taking them by the collar but by placing before them that which will compel them to make a choice for or against God and His truth.

The place where this institute will be held will be announced later. At present we are ready to receive invitations.

For week ending October 28, Sister Katherine Drury sends in a report for thirty-four hours showing forty-one orders amounting to $130.25.

Brother G. W. Kimberlin has just made a delivery of books amounting to $305, delivering ninety-two books out of ninety-four orders.

Brother Watson and Brother Lager have begun work in Benton. In speaking of this Brother Watson writes, "It looks as though we might do well in Benton."

Brethren Suda and Kaufman are nearly through with Logan County. Brother Kaufman for week ending October 28 sends in his banner report.

Brother Lager was obliged to be absent from the field a short time, but is now back again. He writes: "I have begun work and must say that I enjoy being back in the field again. It does one good to see how deeply interested some people are as we meet them and talk of the wonderful works and wisdom of God. To the Lord be all the praise."

"The people seem so pleased with the book where we can place one in the home. I thank the dear Lord for the rich blessings He has bestowed on us."—C. W. Saunders.

Important Notice

Have you heard about the advance in prices which goes into effect January 1? All our periodicals and a large number of our books will be affected. Instead of a reduction and club rates this year there must be an advance, because of the extreme high cost of raw materials. Our publishing houses have done their best to delay this increase in prices. For the past year they have been paying more than double for raw materials. This extra expense has taken more than the net gain, so the raise is necessary that our publishing work may continue. But to be fair to all, they have given us until December 31 to renew our subscriptions and order the books we need at present prices. If you are unacquainted with these prices, send to us for a free catalog at once and then mail us your orders without delay.

NORTH MICHIGAN TRACT SOCIETY

News Notes

We have just learned through Brother Stearns that Brother F. R. Johnson of Barryton has enlisted as a Christian colporteur and will begin field work November 27.

Everyone will be glad to see Brother I. E. Emerson's report with the canvassers' reports this week. He has been out of the field for a number of weeks, but writes that he is glad to be back, and is having a good time in the Lord's work.

We believe there are others in North Michigan who should come back to the service of the King of kings. There are rich blessings in store for those who give faithful service.

Brother C. J. Mitchell, although a worker with no previous experience, has had remarkable success. He writes, "I am so glad that I can have a part in the Lord's work. It is so good of Him to let me help. With His help I will be faithful." Let us all remember Brother Mitchell in our prayers, also all of our other colporteurs who are giving their lives and energy to the giving of the message.

Brother A. P. Friday has been especially blessed in his work this fall. He writes: "I have much to thank the Lord for. I am of good courage and want to be more faithful in my work and be an inspiration to others who should be in this work." This should be the aim, prompted by the true spirit, in every colporteur. The Lord will bless those who are filled with the spirit of sacrifice and love for the message.

Many who cannot spend all their time in the field can do a noble work among their neighbors and friends with the smaller books. From now until Christmas is an especially good time to work with the Home Circle Library prospectus and World's Crisis Library. The Home Circle Library contains all the children's books published by the Review and Herald, also such books as "Steps to Christ," "Christ Our Saviour," etc. The World's Crisis Library contains all the new books—"Armageddon," "Vatican and the War," "Other Side of Death," "The Christian Sabbath," "The Return of Jesus," etc. Either prospectus is 50 cents, or the two for $1 postpaid. We give 50 per cent discount on all these books to those who take up this work. It not only pays, but you are giving the message with every book sold. Do not delay ordering one or both of these prospectuses at once and begin work while the time is most favorable. Order through your missionary secretary, if possible, and be sure to state which you want, the Home Circle or the World's Crisis Library.

Eau Claire and Chippewa Falls

Friday evening, November 10, it was my privilege to meet with our church in Eau Claire. The members are active in the Harvest Ingathering work. Their goal is $200, $5 per church-member. They have already gathered about $150. No doubt the goal will be reached. And besides this the work has brought a more precious experience of brotherly love into the church.

The following Sabbath I met with our people in Chippewa Falls. The work there has this year been moving steadily onward. Eight members have been added to the church. I feel confident that this church also will reach the goal in the Harvest Ingathering campaign.

P. M. HANSON

Milwaukee

The work here is onward. The interest is fairly good. Last Friday night it was my privilege to baptize six dear souls who had made a covenant with Jesus to walk in newness of life. It was a solemn occasion. A number of people were out. The Lord willing, we shall soon have another baptism, as there are others preparing for this. We have more than we can do in visiting all the interested ones. The work is great but the laborers are few. Pray the Lord of the harvest that He may send out more workers.

We are also engaged in the Harvest Ingathering work. Many of the firms here have made it a rule to give only for the poor and suffering ones in this city. But the Lord is helping us. With His help I have received with very little effort compared with last year, more than my goal. But I shall not stop here. The churches are manifesting an interest in the work in general, but there is so much room for improvement. Oh, that we could all see what God expects of His people at this time, then we would do altogether different from what we are now doing. The time is short. Every day counts for eternity.

Madison Sanitarium News Notes

Dr. Riley Russell and wife of Soonan, Korea, have been visitors of late at the sanitarium, and their stirring reports of the work in the Orient brought good cheer to the hearts of the sanitarium family.

Elder A. F. French, recently from East Michigan, and now located at Baraboo, spent a day at the Sanitarium and spoke to the patients and helpers in the evening.

Mrs. George A. Brown, a graduate of Caterham Sanitarium, England, now living at Wingard, Sask., Canada, is a patient at the sanitarium.

The Harvest Ingathering campaign has been a live issue at the sanitarium the past few weeks. Our goal set by the Union of $200 we have reached. The church and sanitarium family have used 900 papers and gathered in $285.

Miss Anna Janke of Pound, Wis., and June Hickok, of Berlin, Wis., former graduates, visited the sanitarium recently.

Indiana Conference

Office Address, 521 E. 23d St., Indianapolis.
President, Wm. A. Westworth

Educational and Young People's Work

Camp meeting opened only a few weeks after my arrival in the conference. About three hundred young people and children gathered upon the grounds. Through the influence and earnest prayers of our Christian youth, and efficient help given by Professors Lamson and Thurber, Elder Hubbard, and others, many youth gave their hearts to the Master and were baptized.

At one devotional meeting forty-seven children offered testimonies of love and thanksgiving to Jesus. Besides the spiritual lessons, they were given instruction in raffia. The articles thus made were sold for $22.50, which was given to missions.

Eighteen schools taught by twenty-one teachers opened this fall. The new ones are located at Seafield, Wolcott, Unionville, and Peru.

All school terms have been lengthened to at least eight months, teachers' salaries raised, and the majority of the school boards are holding regular monthly board and school meetings.

Recently I spent a pleasant day at Beechwood Academy. A splendid spirit is there. Professor Lamson and his associate teachers were very busy doing necessary repair work on the building and hearing classes. How we wish more of the Indiana youth were members of this happy academy family. Fathers and mothers, the Lord is calling for your children. Give them to His cause for service, or soon the world will claim them.

I am visiting the Young People's Societies, organizing Standard of Attainment classes, Reading Course circles, and King's Pocket League Bands as rapidly as possible.

The Liberty and P. T. S. No. 22 to the lawyers of Indiana before Christmas is our working goal just now.

I appreciate the hearty cooperation given, and plead for your daily prayers that Heaven may bless our work for the dear children and young people of Indiana.

Beechwood Academy Notes

Professor Lamson spent the Sabbath with the 23d Street church in Indianapolis.

Burt Potts was called home Friday to the funeral of his uncle. Professor Lamson preached the funeral sermon.

The carpentry class has nearly completed all the repair work left to do at the school for the time being. Some outside construction work is anticipated in the neighborhood.

The carry-all was carefully overhauled last week and put in good shape for the winter.

Obituaries

Dr. David Paulsen

When, amid the beautiful mountains of Asheville, N. C., during the quiet hours of Sunday afternoon, October 15, the hand of death removed Dr. David Paulsen from his earthly labors, the poor and down-trodden lost one of their most kindly friends. Through twenty years of active work in behalf of his fellow men, thousands of the world's sad hearted and discouraged ones had come to know that beneath that simple and unassuming exterior there beat one of the warmest and most tender hearts that had come to earth in our day.

In a way, the end of this life was all that loved ones and friends could wish and in harmony with the quiet and peaceful tenor of his life. He left his home and work at Hinsdale, Ill., three weeks before. The thought that a loving God worked through natural agencies was ever strong in his mind. His whole life had centered and pivoted around the Bible principle that God uses the simple things of nature to bring about the healing of disease-racked bodies. He felt that if he rested awhile amid the mountains of the Southland physical restoration might come to him. In that quiet and humble spot David Paulsen yielded the stewardship of his life into the arms of its great Giver.

He was born in Wisconsin, October 27, 1868. In 1889 he was employed as call boy in the Battle Creek Sanitarium. Without funds he worked his way through school, and graduated from Ann Arbor University in 1894 with medical honors. As a missionary he went to the slums of Chicago in 1898, there spending a year or more in learning how to work for the most needy class of humanity. He was later a physician in the Battle Creek Sanitarium where he formed the acquaintance of, and married Dr. Mary Wilde. For several years Dr. Paulsen was chief physician in the Hinsdale (Ill.) Sanitarium which was established under his direction. Of him it may well be said: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

P. T. MAGAN

Elder W. H. Littlejohn

Wolcott Hackley Littlejohn was born in Little Falls, New York, the twenty-seventh of May 1834. He was the son of Flavius J. and Harriet B. Littlejohn. At the age of four, with his parents he came to Allegan, Mich., where his boyhood was spent. With the intention of becoming a lawyer, he attended Kalamazoo College and Michigan University, leaving the latter at the end of his sophomore year on account of an affection of the eyes which resulted in total blindness about fifteen years later.

In 1866, he became identified with the Seventh-day Adventist denomination and he remained a firm believer in the fundamental doctrines advocated by them to the time of his death.

About fifteen years previously, he had attended a course of lectures by Elders Loughborough and Cornell. A long and careful study of the ideas presented finally led him to take the step in question. He entered the ministry and for many years was actively engaged in the work.

In 1883 he came to Battle Creek to become pastor of the Adventist church. In August of that year he was united in marriage to Mrs. Adaline P. Harvey. Shortly after, he accepted the presidency of Battle Creek College which he held for two years. From that time until failing health prevented, he spent his time largely in writing on Biblical subjects. For many years he was a constant contributor to the Review and Herald and other denominational publications, and was the author of several tracts, pamphlets, and bound volumes.

His was a life of unusual mental activity, and he was known as a sound reasoner and a profound logician. His faith in God remained unshaken to the close, and he sleeps to await the call of the Life-giver when "the trumpet shall sound and the dead shall be raised incorruptible." His age was 82 years, 5 months, and 10 days.

There are left to mourn, his faithful companion and one stepson, Frederick H. Harvey. Together they tenderly ministered to him in his declining years, doing everything that warm hearts and loving hands could do to lighten the "valley of the shadow." There are also left two nephews, Wolcott H. Butler of Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Augustus S. Butler of Allegan, Michigan, and other more distant relatives.

The funeral was held from the home west of Battle Creek, Elders R. A. Hart and L. McCoy assisting at the services. He was taken to his old home, Allegan, for burial.

C. A. RUSSELL

THURBER:—Ella May Davis was born July 14, 1882, at Adrian, Mich., and died at Takoma Park, D. C., Oct. 28, 1916, aged 34 years, 3 months, and 14 days. She was brought up in the faith, and was converted and baptized at the age of eighteen while attending school at Mt. Vernon Academy, Ohio. In 1902 she was united in marriage to Robert B. Thurber. To this union were born four children, three boys and one girl, all of whom are living. In the year 1909 Brother and Sister Thurber were called to the mission field, and spent six years laboring in Burma. While there the faithful wife and mother was stricken with a serious tropical disease. As soon as the nature of the malady was determined the family returned to America, and every thing that medical skill and loving care could suggest was done for her recovery. She hovered between life and death for months, suffering greatly, yet always patient and cheerful. Many earnest prayers ascended in her behalf, and she became perfectly resigned to the will of God. To the last her faith and courage in God remained unshaken, and she peacefully fell asleep in Jesus: "And so He giveth His beloved sleep." The husband and children, her parents, three sisters, and two brothers mourn their loss. Funeral services were conducted by the writer, at the home of her parents at Adrian, Mich., to which place she was taken after her decease.

W. H. WAKEHAM

KELLOGG.—Charles Preston, son of Smith M. and Susan Kellogg, was born Dec. 21, 1871, at Wet Prairie, Mich., and died at Elgin, Ill., Oct. 28, 1916. He was married to Rose Dennon, April 1, 1896. To this union were born four children. He was baptized and united with the Seventh-day Adventist Church at the age of fifteen, ever remaining a faithful member. At the time of his death he was deacon of the church and superintendent of the Sabbath school. His wife, three children, father, two brothers,—Arthur and Eugene,—two sisters,—Mrs. Dr. Saddler and Mrs. Kellogg,—and many others were present at the funeral to mourn the loss of him who had departed so suddenly when every consideration seemed to say that he should have remained. We are confident that he sleeps in Jesus. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer from 1 Cor. 13:12. Interment at Elgin.

WM. COVERT

WORSTER.—Maggie Brillhart was born in Union County, Ohio, May 31, 1852. With her parents she moved to Indiana in 1866, living at Bourbon until January 1, 1877, when she was married to Henry B. Worster and then located in North Liberty, Ind., where she continued to reside until Oct. 17, 1916, when she fell asleep, aged 64 years, 4 months, and 16 days. To this marriage two children were born—Dr. Wm. W., now of Alhambra, Cal., and Lela who is yet at home. She united with the Adventist Church in 1875 and was always a help and strength in the church of her choice. Funeral services were held in the home where many neighbors and friends came for the last tribute of respect for one they had known so long. We sorrow, but not as those who have no hope.

Did you know that it was through the influence of Seventh-day Adventists down in Peru that that country granted religious liberty to its people? Do your friends and neighbors know about it? The December Watchman tells the story. It's a most interesting one, too. See that your neighbors receive a copy and read about it.

College

Elder Paap recently made a much appreciated visit to the College. He spoke from Prov. 22:29. Some of the ideas which he emphasized were,—have your heart in your work, it is better to have a disposition to get into your work than to get your work behind you, the man who succeeds is the one who does more than he is paid for. He also said that there is something the matter with a man's Christian experience if it does not "work well on the upgrade."

In chapel last Monday morning, Professor Graf told us how to study and remember. Memory consists of impression, retention, recall, and recognition. We have very little control over any of these four except the first, therefore we should make the impression vivid and intense.

Elder Schilling delivered a very instructive discourse last Wednesday in chapel. He told us that we should all have a few guiding stars. His guiding stars are,—Paul, the man of experience; St. Augustine, the man of unselfish devotion, love, and charity; Martin Luther, the man of iron determination and perseverance; and John Wesley, the man of humility and prayer.

An orchestra of fifteen members has recently been organized. Mr. H. J. Capman is leader and Mr. Glenn Bradford business manager.

Mr. Fred Royston and family of Onondaga, Mich., have recently moved to the College vicinity. His two daughters, Hazel and Violette, who have been attending the College this year will now live with their parents.

Reduction In "Signs" Weekly Rates

With a firm conviction that our denominational missionary paper, the Signs, should occupy a much broader field of influence, and that this desired result would follow if prices were such as to encourage the taking of large clubs, the publishers of that soul-winner have decided to make some sweeping reductions in rates.

After earnestly studying the situation for several days, it was seen that this could be done by effecting certain economies in production, such as issuing an eight-page paper the size of the Harvest Ingathering Signs, and the standardizing of their English and foreign periodicals, ten or twelve in number.

In some respects, the paper in its new form will be better than heretofore. Shorter, right-to-the-point articles, set in one size smaller type, will insure quite as wide a range of topics each week as now appear.

The new prices follow: Single subscriptions, one year, $1; six months, 60 cents. Clubs of five or more, one year, 80 cents each; five or more, six months, 45 cents each. Five or more, three months, 25 cents each. Lists—five or more to separate addresses, one year, 85 cents each; five or more, six months, 50 cents each; five or more, three months, 30 cents each. Single subscription, one year, with premium book, "Questions and Answers," $1.50. All singles and clubs now on mailing list will have time extended proportionately to the amount due.

Special offer: The remainder of this year together with the full 50 issues of 1917, at the prices quoted.
