Nearer Than We Dream

A few more paces then the journey ended,
A few more trials and the triumph won,
A few more darksome hours of patient waiting
Until the rising of our glorious Sun.
Much nearer than we dream the heavenly city,
And close at hand our Father's kind embrace,
When passing the triumphal arch of glory
To dwell within the radiance of His face.
Upon the threshold of our joys eternal
Why linger long amid the gloom of grief?
Our hope, our life, our surety are supernal,
And earth's short day for praise is all too brief.

The Devil's "Busy Hour"

Some may say that the great deceiver of mankind is busy all the time, that he is always as busy as can be and consequently cannot be busier at one time than another. These folks forget that busy beings are the very ones who have "busy hours." At a prayer meeting not long ago a sister arose and said that she had found out that the devil's busiest hour was on Friday afternoon just before Sabbath. She said she never received a Sabbath blessing unless she was ready for the Sabbath. She told how she had been tempted to do this and do that and thus get behind and work an hour or even two after sundown. Her testimony made a deep impression on us. We are certain that many lose a large share of the Sabbath blessing because they are unprepared to welcome its sacred hours.

We have, however, thought that the devil was just as busy to destroy the Sabbath blessing on Sabbath afternoon, or the early hours after the Sabbath, as he was before the Sabbath began. Some go to church Sabbath morning and visit the shows, or ride around in the country in their auto all Sabbath afternoon. For our part it seems as if they might almost as well be ploughing or out sawing wood as to go joyriding on the Sabbath. We have noticed, too, that some folks, especially the young people, attend the Sabbath meeting and then slip down town towards evening or after sundown and fool away several hours during the night. We know of instances where they would go for entertainment or to places of amusement. Nothing could be more displeasing to the Lord and more contrary to the spirit of the Sabbath than this. Those of our members who attend such places should be dwelt with faithfully and honestly by the church. Adventists do not believe in horse racing, dog shows, the circus, theaters, card playing, or the movies. These last days of earth's history are in fact the devil's busiest time. He has come down with great wrath, knowing that his time is short.

Diet

W. C. DUNSCOMBE

In our last article the necessity for thorough mastication was pointed out. Now just a word in regard to condiments and stimulants.

These may be classed under the same heading, from the fact that they all cause irritation and congestion to the mucous membrane lining the stomach. If this congestion and stimulation is repeated day after day and meal after meal, it soon results in chronic catarrh or inflammation of the stomach. The glands which secrete the hydrochloric acid and the pepsin begin to waste, and finally become incapable of performing their proper functions.

"As a man eateth, so he thinketh." Perhaps one of the most potent causes of disease today is overeating. Investigators who have the widest experience, assert that the majority of people eat twice as much as is required for the body. The body is like a furnace and the waste materials may be likened to the smoke. When we overeat, the excretory organs become clogged up with the waste material, with unoxidized substances which cannot be utilized, and the result is rheumatism, neurasthenia, bilious attacks, etc. When a furnace is fed with too much fuel, a large quantity of thick black smoke is poured forth which clogs up the flues and dampens the fire. It is the same way in the body. When we consume more food than the body can use, the extra amount cannot be oxidized and burned in the body. The burden of carrying off these unoxidized substances is thrown upon the liver and kidneys. The poisons resulting from these unoxidized substances are taken up into the blood, and all the cells of the body are bathed in them. Thus the body becomes as it were, a factory of poisons. We can get a good idea of how quickly these poisons are taken up by the blood and excreted, when we remember that for some hours after a person has taken some alcoholic drink, the breath smells strongly of alcohol. The alcohol is absorbed into the blood, from whence it is excreted by the liver and the kidneys. A considerable amount is also thrown off from the lungs. This is the reason it is noticeable in the breath for such a long time afterwards.

The mind is influenced by the body. If the body cells are bathed in irritating poisons, the brain will work badly, and these same irritating poisons also circulate through the brain. The irritation causes the brain to be surcharged with blood, and we have such symptoms as sleeplessness and irritability; also mania, insanity, etc.

Our Second Greatest Danger

"Money is the most perilous thing with which we have to cope, next to the baser, sensual nature. It is one of the most dangerous forces with which we have to deal. Money—we all know how perilous it is, how constantly through the new Testament the warnings are given."

These words from Robert Speer are not too strong. The Saviour declared, "Where your treasure is there will your heart be also." And Paul emphasized the danger of wealth in the words, "The love of money is the root of all evil." In the Spirit of Prophecy we read, "Selfishness girds many about as with iron bands. It is my farm, my goods, my trade, my merchandise. They do comparatively nothing to what they might. They are withholding and robbing God, for they are fearful they shall come to want. They dare not trust God. This is one of the reasons that, as a people, we are so sickly, and so many are falling into their graves. The covetous are among us."

Notice the following weighty words from Gladstone, the British Stateman, "I believe that the diffusion of the principle and practice of systematic beneficence will prove the moral specific of our age. In regard to money—there is a great advantage in its methodical use. Especially is it wise to dedicate a certain portion of our means to purposes of charity and religion and this is more easily begun in youth than in after life. The greatest advantage of making a little fund of this kind is that when we are asked to give, competition is not between self on the one hand and any charity on the other, but between the different purposes of religion and charity with one another, among which we ought to make the most careful choice. It is desirable that the tenth of our means be dedicated to God, and it tends to bring a blessing on the rest. No one can tell the richness of the blessings that come to those who thus honor the Lord with their substance."

As a people we are in danger of becoming grasping and worldly. It is perhaps our first great peril rather than the second. Many Seventh-day Adventists will settle their eternal destiny by the way in which they handle the Lord's goods. God is testing us to see if we will pay a faithful tithe.

Allegan

Allegan is a growing church. While I am at home it keeps me busy looking after new interests. This is due to the earnest labors of the church members for their fellow men. Sabbath, the 19th, seven new converts united with the church by baptism. Elder Nethery officiating. Besides these there are some studying "The World War" and other good literature. What we all need is more confidence in our brethren, and full cooperation in all departments of the work, together with an acquaintance by personal communion with our God. This message, with Christ as its foundation, built up to its present condition by sacrifice and faithful labor is going to triumph gloriously. We must triumph with it.

F. A. WRIGHT

District Meeting

The second district quarterly meeting this year, of the Monterey, Allegan, Otsego, and Kalamazoo churches was held at the last named place Sabbath May 5. The meeting opened with the largest number present that has attended these meetings in a number of years.

The Sabbath school convened at 9:30 A. M., conducted by the local superintendent. Mrs. Almeda Haughey-Nelson conducted the review and Elder S. B. Horton taught the day's lesson.

Elder F. A. Wright of Allegan, after telling briefly of his experiences in the field, gave us a very timely sermon on the present day conditions.

In the afternoon meeting, a discussion of the statistical report showed the amount of work being done by each church. After a short talk by Elder Horton, the services closed with a devotional service, in which nearly all took part.

Special songs and recitations helped to make the program enjoyable. We were especially glad to have with us Brother Edward Schram of Battle Creek. Elder S. A. Burnam, who is past ninety years of age, sang, "Redeemed." Two liberal donations went entirely to foreign missions.

A Visit to Fox River Academy

It was a pleasant privilege to visit Fox River Academy during the closing days of the present school year. The last Friday evening service in which the students took part, was an enjoyable occasion. It was inspiring to hear our young people testify of their faith in God and their determination to serve Him wherever duty may call. All but three of the students present spoke. Several parents and patrons of the school joined in this good service. When parents see their children standing up for Christ it causes them to rejoice and feel repaid for all the sacrifice they have made to send them to our schools. Such training can only be given in schools taught by Christian teachers. Our schools stand for character and service. They aim to develop a strong individual Christian character and prepare our youth for active service in the Lord's work. Fox River Academy is one of the schools where these principles are carried out. It needs a larger number of students next year. The total enrollment for the school year just closed was fifty-five. Thirteen of these students came from Southern Illinois territory. Thirty-five were enrolled at the close of the year and only seven of these were from our conference. There is room in the dormitories for many more, and they can be handled without any increased expense for teaching force. Our young people need the benefits of the school. Twelve students finished the tenth grade this year, and four of these were from Southern Illinois.

A very wholesome spiritual atmosphere has pervaded the student body and faculty the past year and it will be a good place for parents to send their boys and girls of academy age. There is a strong faculty who are eminently qualified to do the work. It is not too early for parents, church officers, and students to begin planning and working for an increased attendance from our field the coming year.

The farm work will be looked after by competent persons through the summer and good crops are hoped for to help in supplying next year's wants in fruits and vegetables. Let us each do our part in encouraging and helping some young person to attend Fox River Academy next year. E. F. PETERSON

Camp Meeting

At a recent meeting of the conference committee, it was definitely settled that our next camp meeting will be held in the city of Wabash, Aug. 16-26, and we believe, dear brethren and sisters, that it is none too early for us to begin to plan now to be at this important meeting. It is altogether useless for me to take time to set before you the critical condition in which we find ourselves—plunged into the greatest war which the world has ever known, and not knowing what the next turn of events will be, how important it is for all of God's people to be awake to the situation and press forward to victory. This camp meeting will be the most important that has ever been held in Indiana, in fact we are drawing so rapidly toward the end, that it seems absolutely necessary that our people attend.

The time of our camp meeting will not be given to business proceedings, as you will remember that last year we started on the plan of having our elections and business meetings held every two years instead of annually. This will give us much more time to study conditions as they are, and to seek God and study His word for light and help such as we must have to carry us through the present crisis.

The city of Wabash is a delightful place, and the commercial club of that town have held out great inducements to us. The city park in the best residence portion of the town is offered free with its mammoth pavilion, insuring us a dry, commodious, and pleasant auditorium. Many courtesies are extended, and we feel that it is incumbent upon all our people to show their appreciation of the liberality of the citizens of Wabash who are anxious to have us come and give them the benefits of our meeting.

Let us begin to pray now, and pray daily, that there may be a pentecostal outpouring of the spirit of God to fit us for the final conflict and glorious triumph that awaits the children of God. W. A. WESTWORTH

Special Class for Red Cross, Accident, Emergency, and Hospital Work at the Wabash Valley Sanitarium

Because of the present crisis and the great war into which our country is now entering, there is special need of instruction in first aid, accident and emergency, hospital and emergency nursing, etc.

It has been decided at a special session of the medical board of the Lake Union Conference, to give our people a course of instruction along these lines at the Wabash Valley Sanitarium, for one month beginning June 25.

The course is open to all our people over sixteen years of age, and will include instruction in accidents and emergencies, bandaging, use of drugs, antiseptics, etc., home and hospital treatments, food for the sick, first aid to the injured, poisons and their antidotes, emergency nursing, etc.

A leaflet is being prepared which will be sent to those who wish more information concerning the curriculum and objects of this special course.

The expense of this course will be $25 for those who urgently need the training. The charge for others will be $35, as this represents the actual cost of this course. All fees must be paid in advance.

Before being admitted to this course, a recommendation to the superintendent of the sanitarium will be required from the president of the conference in which the sanitarium is located.

The above fee pays for board, tent accommodations, instruction, etc. The necessary books will cost the student about $2.50. Each one should bring with him (or her), the necessary bedding, such as blankets, bed linen, pillows, etc., also toilet articles.

Each one will be expected to devote two hours each day to work in the domestic department of the sanitarium.

Those who wish to avail themselves of this exceptional opportunity for this special training, should apply at once, so the sanitarium can make arrangements to accommodate all who wish to take the course.

For further information and for application blanks address W. C. Dunscombe, M. D., Wabash Valley Sanitarium, La Fayette, Ind.

News Notes

Miss Carmichael visited the company at Bunker Hill on May 5. After a very interesting Decennial-day program a society of nineteen members was organized.

Brother Perrin was in South Bend Tuesday and Wednesday of last week selecting our supply of books for camp meeting.

A large number were in attendance at the closing exercises of Adelpian Academy, May 12 and 13. The evening of the twelfth a recital was given by the music students. A picnic was held on the campus Sunday, and in the evening a very interesting program was given in which both teachers and students took part. The prospects are bright for a large attendance at the academy the coming year.

After attending the board meeting in Chicago, Elder Clark went to Nevada, Iowa, to deliver the commencement address at the graduating exercises of the Oak Park Academy and the Iowa Sanitarium which was held jointly.

Bethel Sabbath School Convention

A very interesting time was spent with the Bethel Sabbath school, April 27 and 28, the occasion being a convention. One session was held Friday evening and another Sabbath afternoon. The Sabbath morning service consisted of the Sabbath school Missionary Investment program.

"What I Would Do to Improve the Sabbath School," was the first topic of the convention, presented in symposium form by five members. The first speaker stated that the thing he would do to improve the Sabbath school would be to raise the standard of offerings. He said: "There are two classes; one looks at himself, therefore he keeps his money all for himself. The other looks to the fields beyond and sends his money there." Other points mentioned were promptness, attention, and a thorough study of the lesson.

The next topic, "The Teachers' Meeting and Its Relation to the Sabbath School," was presented by Professor Elliott. Some of the points he brought out were: "The teachers' meeting bears the same relation to the Sabbath school as the summer school and institute do to the day school. To have teachers we must train them. The teachers' meeting is the thermostat of the Sabbath school."

Mr. Parfitt presented "Ideal Teaching" in a very practical way by teaching his regular Sabbath school class of five boys of the intermediate division. From the interest manifested and the ready response from the class this presented many features of ideal teaching.

Following the Investment Day program Sabbath forenoon the audience was given the privilege of responding to this plan. Slips of paper were passed out, and we believe with the blessing of the Lord upon the pledges indicated by those slips, that there will be a bountiful ingathering in the fall, the proceeds of which will enlarge the Sabbath school offering.

The first topic of the afternoon session was presented by two students, one member of the academy faculty, and one of the church elders. The subject was "How the Student May Help His Home Sabbath School When He Returns Home." The speakers presented many helpful thoughts. Some of them were: "Be willing to help; encourage others to attend; be on time; take the front seats and not the back ones; listen; the training received at school will be reflected in the Sabbath school; arise to emergencies; after going to school do something at home."

A few of the thoughts from "Mission Devices to Increase Offerings" are as follows: "No one will think much about anything of which he has no knowledge. The more we hear and see of a thing, the more we will think about it. So in order to keep before the Sabbath school the importance of the work and the needs for the foreign fields it is necessary to keep them informed as to the conditions, progress, etc. of that field. It has been proved by many Sabbath schools that devices help to create and maintain an interest in missions." A number of devices were suggested for such uses.

One of the most important topics was the last one: "The Children's Division," presented by Miss Rathbun and ably discussed by Mrs. Thompson, Miss Sampson, Mrs. Hughs, and Miss Parfitt. The importance of proper teachers for children was made prominent. The qualifications were that they should love children; be resourceful; be adaptable; know how to tell stories; be impartial; plan surprises; have variety; and make this a live division.

Bethel Temperance Campaign

The temperance work is onward in this community. The Missionary Volunteer Society shouldered the responsibility of doing all in its power for the advancement of the work in this place. A committee of three was appointed to lay the plans, the acceptance of which resulted in the giving of programs in the school-houses and halls within our reach. The Bethel orchestra played at each program to draw in all classes of people. Eight persons were chosen from the society to furnish us with special music.

After one or two recitations, Mr. Thomson gave a stirring lecture in which he convinced his hearers that the liquor traffic should be downed. The Temperance Instructor was freely distributed at the close of each lecture while the orchestra gave its closing number.

The obstacles that presented themselves to hinder the work were not a few. Four feet of slowly melting snow made the roads almost impassable, yet the Lord's hand was in the work and He gave us safe conveyance to every place. Every appointment was promptly met. Although we were tired out at the close of our campaign, we felt well repaid for the efforts when after the election, we heard that Arpin went dry by thirty-nine votes, and Richfield by a majority of twenty-nine votes in favor of prohibition which is twenty-six more than last year.

Eight lectures were given in all and we feel assured that the influence of the work done by the society will open the hearts of the thinking people about us to receive the more important message that we have for the world in the closing days of its history. We ask you to pray that this society shall be a light in this place.

KENNETH A. MACAULAY, Leader

Madison Sanitarium Notes

Miss Mary Birge, employee of the North Wisconsin Conference office at Ashland, Wis., is taking treatments at the sanitarium.

Mr. P. Larson was at Fond du Lac recently, bringing back with him Brother Geo. Sheldon, that he might have sanitarium care.

Mrs. Mina Hege of Bethel recently connected with the sanitarium.

Brother W. J. Walter spent Sabbath and Sunday at the sanitarium while Elder H. H. Hicks was absent conducting the funeral service of Sister Potts at Yuba. The stirring messages on soul saving given by Brother Walter were greatly enjoyed by all.

Miss Elizabeth Kimlin, graduate of the Graysville (Tenn.) Sanitarium, joined our family recently to assist for a few months.

Miss Carrie Curtiss, one of our senior nurses, left May 14 to take four months' work in obstetrics in the Chicago Lying-in Hospital.

We are very sorry to announce that our medical matron, Miss Grace Jennings, has been compelled to undergo a very critical operation, but very glad to report she is recovering rapidly.

A. N. Anderson, Lake Union auditor, spent a few days at the sanitarium auditing the books.

Our Camp Meeting

Just three weeks from now our camp meeting will open and will continue from the 21st of June to the 2d of July. It will be held in the beautiful little town of Brookfield, about twelve miles from the center of Chicago toward Aurora, on the Burlington Railroad. Our foreign publishing house is located there. About six miles further west is the Hinsdale Sanitarium, and about one and one-half miles across the fields our Swedish Seminary is located. This is a very convenient place for our camp meeting with Chicago and all these institutions so near. The railroad facilities are very good. About two-thirds of our churches are located on the Burlington Railroad so that our people can come directly to this place without changing to another road. We will pitch our camp in a beautiful grove at the edge of town about two blocks from the station. This grove is an ideal spot, with large oak trees growing on it, and it is a convenient place for a camp meeting. The people of Brookfield are very congenial and are doing all they can to help us in arranging for our camp with as little expense as possible. Since the Lord has helped us to find this beautiful place and all things seem to point to the fact that God would have us here, we hope that our people will do their utmost to be present and receive the blessings God has for all of us at this time.

The apostle Paul in writing to the Hebrews says: "And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works. Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching." This is good instruction, brethren and sisters, especially now in the face of what is transpiring on the earth. The Spirit of Prophecy says: "God has committed to our hands a most sacred work, and we need to meet together to receive instruction that we may be fitted to perform this work. We need to meet together and receive the divine touch that we may understand our work in the home. Parents need to understand how they may send forth from the sanctuary of their home their sons and daughters so trained and educated that they will be fitted to shine as lights in the world."—Volume IX, page 81.

"There is need of camp meetings like those held in the early stages of the work,—camp meetings separate from the business of the conference. At a camp meeting the workers should be free to give the knowledge of the truth to those who attend from outside." This instruction from the Word of God and the Testimonies is sufficient to show us the importance of such meetings and the need of attending them. May God help all of you, dear brethren and sisters, to arrange your work that you may be present. We do not know how many camp meetings we can yet attend. The time is short in which to finish the work, and what we do must be done quickly, so come and let us put our shoulders to the wheel and help push this work to completion.

The expense of attending this camp meeting will not be much more than in former years. We will not charge you more for tents, lumber, chairs, bed springs, cots, and tables than last year. The tent will cost you $3 for the entire time. If you have the tent floored all over, it will cost you $2 and if only half floored $1. The spring for your bed will cost you 50 cents; cots 15 cents; and the chairs will be 15 cents each. The only thing that will cost you more this year is the food, and you know why that is. We promise you, however, to serve food at the dining tent at just as low a rate as possible. We shall do all we can to save you money and yet make you comfortable.

Elder Spicer, who has been in Europe for some time, will attend our camp meeting and give us instruction and encouragement. Elders Longacre and Eastman will also be present. We shall have a doctor and one or two nurses on the ground to give our people instruction in medical lines and in healthful living. Begin to lay your plans at once. Arrange your work on the farm, in the factory, in the home and everywhere, so that you can attend the meeting and seek God during this time. We all need to get nearer to God, and since this opportunity is given, let us make use of it.

I shall hope to see you all at this holy convocation and wish you much of God's blessing.

J. H. SCHILLING

Fox River Academy News Notes

School closed at Fox River Academy, May 21. The closing days* passed very pleasantly. Wednesday, May 16, at the close of the school session, teachers and students went to a pleasant spot near Mission Creek for a day's outing and picnic dinner. At the after dinner program Professor Johnson was presented with a fine traveling bag from the teachers and students. Professor Johnson goes to the Danish-Norwegian Seminary.

On Sabbath, the 19th, Elder E. F. Peterson preached a practical baccalaureate sermon. Sunday evening the commencement program was given, Elder St. John delivering the address.

We were glad to have so many visitors. Elders Christian, Shilling, Peterson, and St. John were the ministers present.

Monday a crowd of happy students started for their homes. All are beginning to plan for next year.

The past year has been a very satisfactory one. Our students have attempted and completed several definite missionary and financial undertakings, and now go forth with courage to take up work in new lines.

The new calendars are ready to be mailed. We will be glad to send them to all who are interested. Address the principal, W. L. Avery, Sheridan, Ill.

Northern Illinois Conference Association

The next annual session of the Northern Illinois Conference Association will be held at Brookfield, in connection with the state conference and camp meeting. The purpose of this meeting will be the election of all the regular officers and the board of trustees. All accredited delegates to the conference compose the constituency of this association. The first legal meeting will be called June 25, 1917, at 9 A. M.

Upper Peninsula Camp Meeting

The Upper Peninsula camp meeting will be held at the Harris church, June 13-17. The first meeting will be held Wednesday, 7:30 P. M. The brethren of the Harris church will open their homes to accommodate all who attend so there will be no tent rent.

Conveyances will be provided to transfer our people to and from the depot to the church free of charge. If there are some who cannot come at the opening of the meeting, it will be necessary for them to make special arrangements. Provide yourselves with bedding, straw tick, baked goods and butter enough to last four days.

The program will be as follows:

8:30-9:15	- - -	devotional
9:30-11:00	- - -	preaching
11:00-1:00	- - -	dinner
1:30-3:00	- - -	preaching
3:15-4:15	- - -	Bible study
7:30	- - -	preaching

Aside from the local help, assistance from the Union and Division conferences is expected.

Mesick Church School

We are glad to report a successful church school this year, with Miss Birdie Jaques as teacher. The good attendance at the closing exercises showed how much Miss Jaques' work is appreciated. The program was very interesting, one of the numbers being a "kitchen band." After the exercises were over a luncheon was served at the home of Brother Mesick.

Sabbath School Notes

The writer spent Sabbath, May 19, at Bayfield where a new school is starting. About twenty were in attendance. Their donations were $1.93.

Last quarter, owing to the severe weather in this field, the donations were low. Let us make up the loss this quarter. A number of our schools are making the 13th Sabbath a "Dollar Day." Why not all?

A special call comes from Central China. In the six great provinces containing millions of people, there are only two ordained ministers. It is a blessed privilege to fit into China's need and lift in this hour of opportunity.

Educational Notes

The Junior boys and girls who are in school are doing excellent work in helping to reach our Missionary Volunteer goal. There are many other Juniors to be heard from.

The Clearwater Lake school started May 21, with Miss Arvilla Ebert as teacher.

All churches desiring to have church schools, should make their desires known early.

Are we doing our best to have our boys and girls attend the church school? This should be the question on every Seventh-day Adventist's tongue.

Every young person in the North Wisconsin Conference is cordially invited to attend the camp meeting at Spooner, June 14-24. Let us make this our recruiting station and get better organized for service. A great work is before us.

Fish Creek Missionary Notes

We held Missionary Investment Day in our church May 5, with nearly all the members present.

The papers read, that were prepared by our conference Sabbath school secretary and the president of our conference, were right to the point and gave us a clear idea of what the missionary work should mean to us in these perilous times.

Nearly all contributed something, some cash, others proceeds from work, vegetables, fancy work, etc. The total will be gathered the first Sabbath after Thanksgiving.

Feeling that the Lord was with us in all of our efforts, I trust that there may be more Sabbath days in which we may enjoy such spiritual blessings.

Walderly Academy Items

The academy has purchased a beautiful new flag.

Earl Armitage enjoyed a visit from his mother recently.

We have the promise of a new sewing machine. This gift will be greatly appreciated.

Our choral society is doing good work under the direction of Miss Holmes.

We regret the serious illness of our two boys from Tennessee, Mack Davis and Foster Meadows. Both boys are at the hospital in Superior. Mack was operated on May 11, and is doing nicely, but Foster's condition is such that it is still impossible to operate. We request that their friends will unite with us in praying for their speedy recovery.

Mr. L. C. Shepard spent the week-end with us, giving interesting talks Friday evening and at the young people's meeting Sabbath afternoon.

Our calander for 1917-18 will soon be ready for mailing. If you desire a copy send your name at once to the principal at Hines, Wisconsin.

The latest student to enter school is Mina Raferty who with her family has recently moved here from Colorado.

Guilford Baker has entered the school home and will remain till camp meeting time.

Charles Cheever of Jim Falls has connected with the school for the summer.

We are still in need of books for our library. If you have any books that you can spare the donation will be thankfully received.

The laundry has been moved from the basement. This is a welcome change to the girls.

Our blacksmith shop is being opened to the general public. As there is no shop for miles this will be a help to the community as well as a source of income to the school.

May 8 was observed by Walderly Academy as Arbor, Bird, and General Cleaning-up Day. Beginning at 7:30 A. M. an appropriate program was given in the chapel, after which teachers and students went out-of-doors for the real work of the day. The morning was devoted to cleaning up the grounds around the buildings and to burning up the rubbish. After a good dinner, to which the outside students and all the members of the faculty were invited, attention was given to the aesthetical phase of the work, and trees were planted, new paths and roads laid out, "the island" was cleared and beautified, and plans drawn for a rustic bridge connecting "the island" to the mainland. At the close of the day all realized a feeling of satisfaction; for such exercise carried with it the sense of helpfulness and the approval of conscience for duty well done.

We have completed our sawing for this year. We sawed over 190,000 feet of lumber. On our banner day 8,000 feet were sawed in a little less than nine hours. Several times, 7,500 feet were sawed in a day. Now we shall devote all our time to agriculture and other outside work. We have begun plowing and are clearing more land of stumps and stones.

LAKE UNION HERALD

ISSUED WEEKLY BY THE

Lake Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists

PRICE, FIFTY CENTS A YEAR.

Printed by Emmanuel Missionary College Press,
Berrien Springs, Michigan.Entered as second-class matter, November 3, 1908, at the post-office of Berrien Springs, Michigan.All subscriptions should be sent to your local conference tract society office.All matter intended for publication should be sent to the Editor, Lake Union Herald, Berrien Springs, Michigan.Approved advertisements will be published in the HERALD at the following rates: Forty words or less, fifty cents for each insertion, and one cent per word for each additional word. Each group of initials or figures counts as one word. Cash must accompany copy for all advertisements.

Owing to the complete disabling of the gasoline engine in the printing office, which has been in almost constant service for fifteen years, last week's paper has been unavoidably delayed. We had already begun the installation of electric motors for driving the machinery in the shop but the large motor for the cylinder press had not yet been secured. The breaking down of the engine necessitated securing this at once. It was received late Saturday night, installed Sunday, and its first work was printing last week's HERALD. For this reason both papers come in one wrapper.

An article has been received from Elder Westworth also one from Dr. Dunscombe in regard to the Red Cross training to be given at the LaFayette Sanitarium. We regret that for lack of space we are unable to print the article from Elder Westworth.

The second quarter's issue of the Yiddish magazine, The Messenger, is now ready. Order of your tract society.

Registration Notice

Tuesday, June 5, has been appointed by the government as registration day. Every man between the age of 21 and 30 years inclusive, whether native born or alien, is expected to register. This applies also to invalids and persons who are ill. A man is 30 until his 31st birthday anniversary. We believe that all our church members should comply with this regulation. We are informed that question 12 on the registration card will be, "Do you claim exemption from draft (specify grounds)?" To this our brethren can truthfully answer, "Yes. Member of Seventh-day Adventist Church."
