OUR GOAL

FOR Christian education in one week, $65,000! When? April 27 to May 3. Can we win it? Yes. How? By every church organizing itself to see that an amount equal to $5 per member is raised in the church and forwarded to the conference treasurer. How shall this money be raised? By the sale of our literature, by personal solicitation from friends and business men, and by personal contributions.

The Union Conference Committee has ordered 50,000 copies of that timely new book, "World Peace," for this special drive. They are now in the hands of the tract society of each conference. Get them, sell them, and turn in your money by May 3. Remember it will take an average of $5 per member for every church in the Lake Union Conference to win this goal. Organize, work, and above all, pray.

Let this quick drive be an example for ourselves and for others, of how a great work can be accomplished in a short time. This is the biggest financial undertaking ever launched by a union conference, and the Lake Union must not fail.

Work of Big Week

My soul was greatly refreshed April 4 as I listened to the report of the students telling how they secured $6,000 in just twenty-nine days. This money is to erect a music hall dedicated to the memory of the students of 1919.

As I heard their story and listened to the expressions of praise to God for the lessons they had learned while working, I said in my soul, What could this whole people do if they were to work as earnestly as the three hundred students have during March? Three hundred during twenty-five days of actual work—counting out the Sabbaths—actually raised in cash a little more than $6,100, and less than one-fourth of this was secured from our people in this Union. A little more than one-half was given by the students personally and about one-fourth or a little more they solicited from business men near the College. The average per capita raised by the students was about $20.33.

April 27 to May 2 we are asking our people in the Lake Union to raise for education an amount equal to $5 for each member. This means the securing of only about one dollar per member each day. We can do this by selling eight copies of "World Peace" or fifteen copies of any of our magazines. It can be earned by taking just a few subscriptions for the Signs Weekly or Signs Magazine. It may also be earned with the Watchman. Besides, there are many other ways to secure $5 in five days if we do not feel able to give it from our earnings. God is not particular about the honest method we use, but He is surely in great earnest about our getting the amount during that particular week.

Elder W. T. Knox, while making a speech at Loma Linda a few days ago said, "The greatest need of this cause today is men. It requires effort to secure money, but even that is easier than to get trained men to carry the message."

Our aim in the Lake Union and at Emmanuel Missionary College is to train workers for God. Scores of young people are preparing to come to the school this fall and we must do our best as God's servants to take care of them while they are training for service. To do this our dormitory for men must be ready. If it is made ready we must have at least $50,000 at once. This is why we call upon you as the great living church of a living God to throw yourselves into the work April 27 to May 2 and raise an amount in each church equal to your membership multiplied by five. A church of ten members would raise $50, one of one hundred members would raise $500, and one of forty members would raise $200. This can be easily and quickly done in each church if each member will take his or her share of the blessing by bearing his or her share of the load and doing the bit asked by the elder or church committee. In like manner the work of the whole Union will be easily done if each church through its officers will organize for service and be ready to strike the blow each day of the Big Week.

There is some virtue in doing a thing. There is also much pleasure in doing a thing on time. In every great machine every part must work just on time to obtain the desired results. How much more important in the doing of God's work by His soul-saving machine—the church.

The hour has struck for this people to arise and finish the work and God is looking for action. With 13,000 living, active parts of God's great church at work April 27 to May 2 what can not be done? Surely we could not fall short in this our supreme effort to provide workers for the harvest. The Master says, "Pray ye the Lord of the harvest that He will send forth reapers into the harvest." These must first be trained, then sent forth. Soon the harvest will be past. Let us work while it is called today.

God expects each person to do his part. Angels will keep the record. May their record show 13,000 earnest men and women at work earnestly praying that success may crown our efforts April 27 to May 2.

What 13,000 People Can Do

One characteristic of the children of Israel in the setting up of David's kingdom was that they kept rank. Of them it is said, "All these men of war that could keep rank came with a perfect heart to Hebron to make David king over all Israel; and all of the rest, also of Israel, were of one heart to make David king." It was this union of heart that not only established David's kingdom but gave it prosperity and security after it was established.

This proof of union lies at the heart of every great and prosperous work. It has always been true of God's people that when they were a united people, following the instruction which He had given them, they were greatly blessed. This was true in the building of the tabernacle anciently. The people gave willingly and there was soon such an abundance of that required for the building and erection of the tabernacle that instruction was issued by Moses to the people to cease giving. This proof of unity and liberality is as true today as it has ever been in the cause of God. This is well manifested in the spirit of unity with which our people are contributing to the great cause

E. M. C. Temperance Campaign

The ministerial band at the College is always anxious to help in every good movement. Accordingly it felt that it should take an active part in the temperance work in Berrien County. On the first day of March steps were taken to organize and get the work started. A manager was chosen and a committee to draft plans. The committee met at once and began to outline the work for the campaign. It was decided that it would be best to get in touch with the Anti-Saloon League of this county, and work under its direction. In harmony with this decision, the manager took steps at once to line up with this organization. We found that the manager of the league would be more than pleased to have our help in fighting the great evil of intemperance in this part of the state. We worked under the auspices of this organization for several weeks.

We held enthusiastic meetings at the following places in Berrien County: Berrien Springs, Sodus, Watervliet, Coloma, Riverside, Hagar Church, Niles, New Buffalo, Derby, Stevensville, Stewart, Hinchman, and Scottsdale. Our company included about twenty musicians, known as the "College Orchestra," a male quartet, a soloist, and two speakers. Usually some one was chosen to recite a temperance selection. In all there were about twenty-five who enjoyed the pleasure of touring the county. We were conveyed from place to place by five automobiles, which the brethren near the College kindly offered for this good work. The picture in this issue is a view of the band as they were about to start on a trip.

In all, we met at least twenty-five hundred people. We endeavored to help the voters to see the seriousness of the issue and gave them instructions as to how to vote in order to defeat the amendment. The women were urged to register and vote. Of course, there is always some expense connected with a work of this kind. We received a good, liberal offering at every meeting. The total offerings for the month were nearly one hundred dollars, spent for hall rent, advertising, etc.

As a means of advertising the College, the campaign cannot be estimated. It certainly was a great means in getting the people of this county acquainted with our school. In most cases, the people of the various towns were solicited for funds on our $6,000 goal with encouraging results. We feel sure that in the future it will be comparatively easy to solicit funds for missions from the people of Berrien County.

The latest report from the election is that only three out of the thirty-six voting precincts in Berrien County voted wet. The county went dry by 4,000 majority. Of course, we take our share of the credit.

Spring Is Here

The carpet of green beneath our feet,
Blue-tinted hepaticas, dainty and sweet,
The voice of the lark as he greets the dawn,
And laughs in his glee that winter is gone;
All these are the signs, unmistakable and clear,
That spring is here.

The maple has closed her bleeding heart,
Her naked branches with verdure start.
The piping of frogs, the whirl of wings,
From birds of passage to nature bring
The gladsome music so sweet and clear,
That spring is here.

The street corner crowd their marbles have found,
The prints of bare feet are seen on the ground,
The earthworm is hiding beneath the green sod,
And bluegill and perch keep their eye on the rod;
All these are the signs, unmistakable and clear,
That spring is here.

Yes, springtime is here with hope and cheer,
Rejoice and be glad and dry that tear.
Let sunshine within meet sunshine without,
With never a worry or frown or pout.
Just sing and be glad with no doubt or fear,
For spring is here.

of missions. Last year witnessed the largest sum by far that has ever been raised. It amounted to over thirty cents a week per member for our people and this was accomplished simply because each one did his part. So it is today—all we need to know is that we are walking in the light of the counsel of the Lord and then by united effort, a great and yet a joyous work may be done.

The Lord has given very definite instruction with reference to our making provision by which every one of our young men and women and our younger children may be educated in His service. He requires that every member of the church shall recognize that "the work that lies next to our church members is to become interested in our children and youth." "The Lord of Heaven is looking on to see who is doing the work He would have done for the children and youth." Again, "As a church, as individuals, if we would stand clear in the judgment, we must make more liberal efforts for the training of our young people, that they may be better fitted for the various branches of the great work committed to our hands." And yet again, "The church is asleep, and does not realize the magnitude of this matter of educating the children and youth." And yet once again, "There is no work more important than the education of our youth."

In order to educate our children and youth we shall have to provide buildings and facilities. We are sometimes inclined to think that because the coming of the Lord is so soon that He does not call upon us to do this, but the instruction is, "A great work must be done all through the world and let no one conclude that because the end is near there is no need of special effort to build up the various institutions as the cause demands. . . . When the Lord shall bid us make no further effort to build meeting houses and establish schools, sanitariums and publishing institutions, it will be time for us to fold our hands and let the Lord close up the work but now is our opportunity to show our zeal for God and our love for humanity."

The needs of the young people of the Lake Union Conference present to us a very serious problem. Our academies are filled to the limit. Our College is full and still there are many hundreds of our young people who should be in our academies and in our College, who are not there. It is our bounden duty to recognize that "the work that lies next our hearts" is to create a desire in the hearts and minds of these young men and women to receive an education for the service of the Lord, and the young people of the Lake Union Conference are being stirred in this matter. They are feeling that the times are perilous and the cause of God demands their service.

Now it is incumbent upon us to make this provision and to make it at once. This is not a matter that can be delayed year after year, and there is no reason why we should delay it, for in a united effort in which all take part, a great work can be done in a very limited time.

In this campaign for $6,000 in thirty days, the students of Emmanuel Missionary College, themselves, gave $3,000. Now students have as little money as the general class of persons and yet by work on the place, by canvassing, by self-denial, 250 students, the number actually engaged in the campaign, gave an average of $12 apiece.

The membership of the Lake Union Conference, at the close of last year was 13,653, and without doubt, it is at the present time fully 14,000. Now can we not, as one united people, raise $5 per church member and have it in hand as quickly as the young people of the College did? If we will give ourselves to this task, and all the officers of our churches heartily unite it can certainly be in hand. This sum of money at $5 per church member will equal $68,265, to be used for the advancement of the work that lies next us—the education of our children and youth. It can be done but our faith must lay hold and say that it will be done. This is what the young people said. They believed it could be done and they not only raised this amount themselves, but they solicited from their friends an equal amount making a grand total of over $6,000 in twenty-nine days.

The finishing of the work of God very materially depends upon, first of all, the work that lies next us. Our children and youth must be trained for a part in this work. They must be brought to a knowledge of God—into the love of His truth. A united effort will at once provide the funds by which, this coming summer, our academies and College may be placed on vantage ground. As our work grows, we shall have to increase these facilities from time to time but it will pay. It can be done. Let us all say that it will be done.

FREDERICK GRIGGS

Victory

It was the same old College building, the same old chapel, and the same student body that you would see most any day that you would visit at E. M. C. But the atmosphere was different, and they smiled just a little more than usual. It seemed that because we were happy, all the world must be happy. A large V in the front of the room told the story—VICTORY.

Why was everybody so happy? Because of the prayer and sacrifice spoken of in the following paragraphs. The greater the sacrifice, the greater the joy at victory. We cannot tell our friends how this money came, for we know not. All we know is that God by His strength has brought it to us.

The following is an approximate schedule of funds as they came in during the last week of the Student Campaign. Friday saw but $3,800 in the hands of our treasurer. By Tuesday, the amount had jumped to $4,900, Wednesday to $5,300, Thursday to $5,700 and Friday at 10:30 A. M. the amount reached was officially given as $6,115.40.

That you may comprehend the actual amount, a comparison or two may be of interest. These dollars if converted into pennies, touching one another would reach from the General Conference office in Takoma Park to the United States Capitol in Washington, a distance of seven miles. Again, these 600,000 pennies would, if placed side by side, completely cover the College chapel floor, and this is no small room.

Truly we can say "What hath God wrought!" Read the following, which are some of the experiences gained by the students in securing the 600,000 pennies, as related at the chapel hour April 4:

Elder Guthrie's prayer: Our Father in heaven, we rejoice greatly this morning because we have found Thee the ever same compassionate Saviour. We have found Thee the same kind, helping friend in our daily tasks, in our troubles, in our struggles, and in overcoming sin. Thou hast given us victory. This morning we desire especially to thank Thee for victory. We ask that Thou will direct in all our work.

Bless us this morning in our exercises. Bless us in our work in the future. May our minds be fixed upon the wonderful things to be done in the name of Christ for the sake of needy humanity. Help us so that we may join together in one great undivided movement, for the advancement of Thy work, and working together, we all may have that success which will be to the glory of Thy name and praise throughout the ages.

President Griggs: I am authorized by the faculty to declare a vacation for the rest of this day. Now I think that we could very profitably spend a few moments in telling what this campaign has meant to us individually. I think it is commendable that the students have raised this amount of money and have interested other people in raising an equal amount. I am sure we appreciate most heartily the courtesy and interest which has been shown us by friends who are not directly connected with our denomination.

I am delighted that we are a day ahead rather than a day behind—that we do not have to put this campaign over until the first of the week.

What has this campaign meant to me? What has it meant to us? It has meant much to me personally. It has shown me, for one thing, the great value that comes from a united movement. You take our missionary undertakings. I well remember when the ten-cents-per-week proposition was proposed. Several years went by before our people contributed the sum of ten cents per week per church member. After a time it was raised to fifteen cents. But after it was raised to fifteen cents it kept steadily increasing—from fifteen to twenty, from twenty to twenty-five, and last year we raised thirty cents, five cents per week above the amount specified. It made a large sum of money, as you know. Nearly a million and a half dollars. This spirit of unity makes for foundations in our work.

This campaign has meant to me also a loyal student body. I have never enjoyed any movement in any school that I have been connected with as I have this. I have seen the spirit of loyalty not only in this campaign but it has entered into everything else. You are coming to feel that this is your school, and this is what you should feel, and I am satisfied that this proof of loyalty will make us more loyal to every good work that we are in any way allied with. It will make us more loyal to our government.

I believe there is a great benefit to come from this campaign to the people of the Lake Union Conference. What we have done, they can do. If our students have gone down into their pockets for $12 or $15, I am sure our people can do the same thing. Not that only, but it is a lesson which seems to me should be, and I believe will be, a lesson to our people everywhere. Now we have not taken, in this campaign, two years, three years, or even three months. We took it for thirty days and did it in twenty-nine days, and I believe we have not done anything in any movement, that our people cannot do. We are just ordinary people and our pocketbooks are thinner than most people's.

I want each of you, and any of you, all of you, to take a little time in a general good testimony meeting and tell us what this campaign has meant to you.

Elder Guthrie: I certainly appreciate the spirit of the students. This campaign effort will give inspiration to the people of the Lake Union Conference, and I hope that when fall comes and school again opens, that we shall see not only a music conservatory, men's dormitory and central power house, but we shall see, more than all of this, something that I esteem of much greater value—the finest class of young men and women that we have ever seen in the history of this school. I believe that will be due to the combined efforts of the students, the experiences which you tell, the life that you live, the real spirit of the institution as is carried by you to the different conferences where you may go.

Walter Murray: To me, this campaign has meant that I have received first of all, a greater faith in God. These experiences teach us how to ask God. I am sure He is working a work in our hearts. I am glad that I have had a part with those who "do things."

Bernard Thompson: I got out of this campaign a great deal more than I put into it. I have put into it every ounce of energy I had so you know what I got out of it.

Mr. Green: In reading the life of J. A. Garfield he said at one time that the spirit of the school is the school. He said if you were sitting on one end of a log and Professor John Hopkins was sitting on the other end, you would have a university. To my mind this morning the spirit of the school is worth more than the $6,000. I cannot possibly express in words the great appreciation that I feel in being connected with this student body.

Mr. Babienco: If we are with God and God is with us we can do great things.

F. W. James: This campaign has taught me to trust more fully in God. I have learned that he answers prayer, and that He will always answer prayer.

Miss Westcott: This campaign has taught me the spirit of loyalty—true loyalty to God and loyalty to this movement. I am thankful for the faith it has given me in God. It has given me a vision of the great work that lies before us.

Professor Haughey: Tread softly upon the past. Plant your foot firmly upon the future, but remember that we live in the everlasting now. I was thinking just a little of the past. In 1872 the first campaign was launched for education. We had no educational institution at that time except a little school in Battle Creek. The whole denomination at that time was the field in which they could gather funds. It took them a year to get $40,000 in pledges and money. Now we go from one campaign into another, from one inspiration to another. I remember of a man telling me of his method of work. It seems to be the denominational method now. This man was Doctor David Paulson. He told me that his life after he became a Seventh-day Adventist seemed to be that of passing from one inspiration to another. The inspiration would come to him to do a thing and he said it was impossible for him to get away from it until it was done, and the moment it was done he had no further inspiration for that work, but another came and when it was finished, then another. I think that is about the way that this denomination is moving now—very rapidly. This work will soon come to a close. I praise the Lord for that.

Mosser Taylor: Well, when this campaign started out, I pledged quite heavily and I wondered where I was going to get the money, because I had so very little. I believe it was an answer to prayer because I had to just get down and ask the Lord to help me get the money. I was called over to Chicago on business and it was nothing of importance in itself but in the meantime I was offered a job at nursing. I had never nursed in my life but I had a little idea of how it should be done so I said "I will be around at eight o'clock to-night." I stayed a full week and got my pledge.

Two Thousand in South Wisconsin

Thirteen thousand Seventh-day Adventists should be looking forward to the Big Week. Two thousand of these are in the South Wisconsin Conference. Are you looking forward to, praying for, and planning to be among the number who are to make the Big Week the greatest one for God and His work?

Plans have been definitely laid whereby all may meet with success. All that can be lacking is co-operation on your part. This I am sure you will give. April 27 to May 2 will be the week we shall be able to shout victory. This week will demonstrate what can be accomplished, not only in a spiritual, financial, and educational way, but it will be the means of demonstrating to you that you are a success and can accomplish under God what you have set out to do.

It is barely possible that you do not know what you will be asked to do during the Big Week. Or if you know, it may be that you do not know how you can accomplish what you are asked to do. It is expected that every one of the 13,000 Seventh-day Adventists in the Lake Union will raise at least the sum of $5 per member. This is to go to the building and equipment of our schools—proportionately to the church schools, the academy, and the College.

But this Big Week will mean not only the raising of funds for our schools, but it will of necessity include working for students for each of these schools. When we have trained our children and youth in this message we shall have an army of workers to go forth and proclaim the soon coming of Christ and the need of preparation for that great event.

Should you not have the $5 to contribute, you will each have the opportunity of purchasing forty copies of the new book, "World Peace in the Light of Bible Prophecy," which you can very easily dispose of, thus without cost to yourself securing the necessary $5. This book will sell well, and I believe that there is no reason why much of the necessary funds for carrying on the work of our schools may not be raised in this way. If every member of the South Wisconsin Conference devotes April 27 to May 2 to the work of securing students for our schools, visiting homes with literature to sell, and in other ways promulgating our educational work, we shall find that our schools will be filled and the money on hand for building and properly equipping the necessary buildings for carrying on the work.

I pray that the Lord may help us to realize our responsibility to the children and youth of our denomination in giving them a training for His service.

E. A. BRISTOL

And Bethel Also

Amidst all the clamor and call for equipment and room in which to conduct school, it would hardly seem proper to listen to all the calls which are being made from our schools for assistance without hearing from Bethel also.

Many of the constituency of South Wisconsin are aware of the conditions existing in the boys' dormitory at Bethel. For the past two years and more, we have not been able to accommodate the boys in the boys' dormitory. During the school year 1917-18, one morning a young man arrived on the place, and asked for a room. I was obliged to tell him that we did not have a single space left at the academy. We had as many as four in one room in some rooms. However, I told him that if he wanted to stay at Bethel bad enough to climb up in the attic of the academy building and curtain himself off a room, he could have it. He had enough of the Bethel spirit to stay. That boy was Lester Hanson, the son of our former conference president.

This present school year we have been more than filled up many times. In some cases, when students have written in asking to come, I have had to write back and tell them to wait until I could go out in the community and prevail upon the kind-heartedness of some member of the Bethel church living in the community to take them into his home, knowing that there was not room enough for them at the academy, and that they could not come unless they came under these circumstances.

It is a shame to have young people ready to go to school, and yet have no room for them at the school. There are young people in the conference whose parents would send them to the academy if they could be placed in the academy dormitory for the boys, but the parents do not always like to send their children to find a home as best they can in a strange neighborhood.

What does South Wisconsin say? Shall this condition go on and lend discouragement to some of our boys, as well as for us to fail in supplying our share of Christian workers for our churches, and for the gospel work at large?

At the time of the elders' meeting, these matters were presented, and there was a very strong sentiment to go ahead.

Yours for the boys of South Wisconsin,
H. T. ELLIOTT

Loyal Students

At the recent elders' meeting at Bethel, the needs of the Bethel school were presented to the board, and the students, with a good school spirit, promised to be responsible for one-tenth of the entire amount to be raised in the conference for building and equipping the needed additions to the school.

There are six hundred young people in South Wisconsin Conference who should be in Bethel Academy, and at the present time we have an enrollment of but 141, with the entire capacity filled to overflowing. The thing most needed, which must have first attention, is the boys' dormitory. The students in the school, in conjunction with the brethren at Bethel, have contributed a sufficient amount to put up the foundation which will cost $2,000.

It now stands the brethren of South Wisconsin in hand to come across with the funds to erect the building, or the walls will stand there as a monument of their failure. I am sure that our conference will not fail in this matter of supplying funds for the necessary room, and while we contribute $5 to the educational fund—one-nineteenth to the church schools, nine-nineteenths to the academy, and nine-nineteenths to the College,—it will be necessary for us to put in an extra five or ten dollars per member for the building of the boys' dormitory. This should be specified separately so that it can be credited to the proper fund. I am sure that our brethren in South Wisconsin will do their part in supplying this need for our worthy students—a new dormitory.

E. A. BRISTOL

News Notes

Are you studying the Sabbath school lessons daily? If not, why not?

Have you put in your order for a supply of the splendid new book, "World Peace"? A number of our people in this conference have already planned to sell it, and some have started the work. One sister went out with this book a short time ago and in a little while had taken twenty-seven orders. You can do as well. Be sure to mix faith with the work.

South Wisconsin camp meeting, June 19-29. The place will be announced later.

Elder G. P. Gaede called at the office last week.

Sabbath, May 23, will be Sabbath School Investment Day, June 7, Sabbath School Rally Day. Please remember to get ready for these two important days in the Sabbath school work.

Milton Junction Sabbath school reached and passed its Thirteenth Sabbath goal of one dollar per member, on March 29. This amounted to $111.50. Some of the other interesting Sabbath school reports are as follows: Madison, Thirteenth Sabbath goal, $50, reached; Bethel set a high goal for the quarter and reached and passed it; Milwaukee English gave $301.47 during the quarter; Hundred Mile grove, with five members, gave $20.63 for the quarter.

Lee Foote, our former assistant in the tract society, has again connected with the office in the same capacity, coming April 8.

The new Sabbath school quarterly goal chart has been sent out to all the schools. This has a place for the record of membership, attendance, daily study of the lesson, and offerings. Let each one do his part in making the best record possible.

Bethel News Notes

Lulu Hallock was a recent Bethel visitor.

The new boys' dormitory seems real at last! Excavation for the basement is almost completed, and lumber is already on the ground.

The last program of the rhetoricals for the year was given last Saturday evening. One feature of this program was original orations rendered by three members of the public speaking class.

The Student Recruiting Band has become a permanent organization. A constitution has been formed, and the spring election held recently gives a chance for the new officers to plan the summer campaign. The goal for the new year is a live topic for discussion just now.

In response to the petition sent in to the War Department for the release and the honorable discharge of Leslie Janke, word comes that measures are being taken to honor the request.

The school is to have a new well. The water supply has been inadequate for a long time. The machine has dug down about fifty feet at this writing.

The spring week of prayer has opened auspiciously. Very earnestly indeed the school has seemed to enter into this season of devotion. The committee has chosen volume five of the Testimonies as a basis for the week's study. Valuable instruction of a directly personal nature, for both teachers and students, seems bound up in this book. We believe this definitely earnest study of these books for this time is the right preparation for the times in which we live.

Waldery

It was my privilege to be at Waldery for a few days. This gave me an opportunity to get a ground-floor view of our school. This splendid school in our midst is growing in a remarkable way, and it would thrill you to see the zeal, determination, and progress evident everywhere. But Waldery, like a healthy child, has outgrown its clothes, and the time has come for it to put on new and better fitting apparel.

This is a condition we are glad to see for it is the result of students flocking to that common center. It means, friends, that God is sending young people to Waldery that workers may be trained to finish the work. Something has been said of other departments of the school, and I feel that we should not pass by the canvassing band. Much interest is being taken in the distribution of our literature and many earnest, consecrated workers will earn scholarships by this means next summer. For the benefit of these workers there will be an institute held April 29 to May 2. Brother J. W. Davis will be present to give valuable instruction. I am convinced that this department of the school will hold the standard higher than ever before, and that many books will find their way into the hands of honest-hearted people. C. F. COLTON

What Walderly Has Done for Me

Walderly has meant a great deal to me. Before I came here the school was represented as a place of good Christian influences, where one is associated with Christian students and teachers. I have found it to be all that it was represented and more, too. Claude Johnson.

Since I have been attending school at Walderly, I have seen the truth worked out in the lives of those around me and it makes me more desirous of being a true Christian—a follower of Christ. Mina Rafferty.

Walderly has done very much for me while I have been here these six months. It has taught me not to be harsh, to be quick, that we have a Saviour who is soon coming, to love others, to be kind, and to obey orders. Stella Hubbell.

When I came to Walderly I was not a Christian, but after I came here I made up my mind to follow the Lord. I have overcome many difficulties and I have received some training for the Lord's work. I have a desire to work for Him until He comes. Howard Carpenter.

Chicago German Work

The German work is developing encouragingly. The blessing of the Lord is with Brother P. H. Hermann who is leading out in the work with Sister Mueller associated with him as a Bible Worker. There is a good spirit among the members of the church and all seem willing to take hold and do their best to make this effort a success.

Since February 16, Sunday services have been conducted in a hall. About two hundred and fifty persons on an average attend these meetings. A large majority of these people are not of our faith. The law with its binding claims has been presented and the testing points of the message are at present under consideration. Let us pray that the Lord will bless the effort being put forth and help our brother with his collaborators to wrest from the hand of the enemy all desirous of obeying the Lord as His word leads them to a knowledge and acceptance of this blessed truth.

On Tuesday evening, March 25, Brother P. H. Hermann was chosen and ordained to the office of local elder to the church. A good spirit was manifested among the members and real earnestness seemed to take hold of them for the finishing of the work.

Chicago Conference Items

It is encouraging to see how the Lord is blessing the work in the city of Chicago. There are at the present time about thirteen workers in the city and in the near-by suburbs. This permits us to hold, occasionally, a little institute. It has been thought that Chicago could not be worked, but it is wonderful how the homes are opening to our colporteurs, and the experiences they are meeting with are interesting.

Brother D. J. Graham is located on the south side of the city and has been given that territory. He is going over it now for the third time. In one of his experiences he said that he met a lady to whom he sold a copy of "Bible Readings" three years ago. She enjoyed this book so much that she ordered two copies from Brother Graham by mail. One of these copies was for another person that she had interested, but as Brother Graham had moved from the address that he had given her he did not get the order. As she was so anxious to get these books she ordered them of the Review and Herald Publishing house of Washington, D. C. When Brother Graham called with "Our Day" she recognized him and was very glad that he had called and immediately placed an order for "Our Day." This brother finds that resident canvassing pays.

Another experience that he met with one Monday morning was of interest. The first home that he called at the lady ordered "Our Day" and was so much interested that she sent her little boy with him to her brother-in-law's home. On arriving there he found the man sleeping, as he worked nights, but he told the lady that his mission was very important and he must see him. Accordingly, she awoke the man and he invited Brother Graham into his room. After giving him the canvass for his book the man ordered a copy of "Our Day" and asked if he had another book to sell. Brother Graham then canvassed him for "Bible Readings" and received his order for that. The man then asked if he had another book. Brother Graham then told him about "Daniel and Revelation" which he also ordered, and again the man asked for another book. This time Brother Graham told him about "Great Controversy" the best he could and again the man placed his order, but still he felt the need for more books and so placed an order for the next book that Brother Graham told him about. This made $18.50 of orders in less than thirty minutes. A few days later while riding in the car he met the man but did not recognize him. The man, however, remembered him and informed him that he would like to have the books the next day. This was some time before they were to be delivered. The next morning Brother Graham started out to deliver the books. Just twenty minutes from the time he left his home he came back with the money in his pocket. When he reached the home he found the man again asleep, but told his wife that he must see him so she awoke him again. This time the man invited Brother Graham in. Brother Graham took from his case one book at a time and placed them on the table. The man was very much pleased and paid for them with a twenty dollar bill.

Here is another experience that is too good not to mention. He met a man who had bought a copy of "Bible Footlights" some years ago. He liked it so much that he would scarcely listen to the canvass for "Our Day" giving as his reason that "Bible Footlights" spoke a great deal of the Bible and especially mentioned the Sabbath question, but when he found that "Our Day" also took up the Sabbath he bought one of the books and paid cash for it.

Brother K. G. Risetter has located in Whiting, Indiana, a county that has just recently been given to us. He came to one lady to whom he had sold a book some time before. She was very glad to see Brother Risetter. She has been praying for light to come to her.

When you hear these wonderful experiences do you not feel as though you would like to be united with us in this good work? W. A. BERGHERM

"I Can't Talk"

"And Moses said unto the Lord, O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since Thou hast spoken unto Thy servant: but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue. And the Lord said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? Have not I the Lord? Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say." Ex. 4:10-12.

The Lord knows all about our limitations. Many say that they can not talk the message to others. To such the Lord says, "I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say." A few words accompanied by God's Holy Spirit have greater convicting power than volumes without it. There is just as much danger of talking too much as too little. Let us pray God for prudence. Even though you may be dumb the Lord can use you. The fewer the natural talents we have the more glory it brings to God when we are used in saving souls.

(Some) "Because they can serve only in little things, they think themselves justified in doing nothing. In this they err."—Prophets and Kings, page 219.

"Every believer, educated or uneducated, can bear the message."—Testimonies, Vol. IX, p. 26.

"There is earnest work for every pair of hands to do."—Ibid, p. 37.

No matter about our inability, if we are only faithful, the Lord will give us success. "Success depends not so much on talent as on energy and willingness."—Prophets and Kings, page 219. "Thy people shall be willing in the day of Thy power." Ps. 110:3. Shall we not stop making excuses and rather say, "Lord take me as I am and use me for service and daily teach me how to be more successful."

Developments at Cedar Lake Academy

Sunday evening, April 6, the teachers and students gave a temperance program in the Edmore church. The church was well filled, and in the audience were many of Edmore's leading citizens. The women of the audience were impressed with their responsibility in the matter of keeping the saloons out of Michigan, and when the call was made for those who would vote "No" on the liquor amendment, nearly every woman's hand in the audience was raised. Many spoke words of appreciation at the close of the meeting.

Burning soot from the chimney of the academy building fell upon the roof during the afternoon of Friday, April 4. Not long afterward students, teachers, and neighbors were busy with ladders, fire extinguishers, and water buckets. The real damage was limited. An awning was destroyed, three large-sized holes burned through the roof, and considerable plaster damaged. Very little excitement was manifested, but every one was busy. We are indeed thankful that we were able to save the building.

Plans are now well under way to provide the needed buildings and equipment so that when school opens next fall Cedar Lake Academy will be able to properly conduct a fully standardized twelfth-grade school. Plenty of light is to be one of our leading features. Our city is set on a hill, and therefore must not be left in darkness. We are planning to install an adequate electric plant. An abundance of good spring water is to be furnished to all the buildings. We expect to be fully equipped for teaching science, which means to us an outlay of several hundred dollars in equipment. Another feature of the school will be a wood-work department. Here our boys and girls will become skillful in the use of the hand as well as the brain.

Sabbath and Sunday, April 4 and 5, we enjoyed a visit from Elder Slade. He occupied the hour of the morning service Sabbath, and spoke to us again in the afternoon. In counsel with other members of the academy board, he spent Sunday in planning the improvements of the academy. We are counting on a strong faculty for Cedar Lake Academy next year. The prospects at present are that nearly every teacher will be a college graduate. G. H. SIMPSON

Cedar Lake Church

An addition is to be built in connection with the academy building. This will furnish rooms for both the academy and the church school, and will give a large chapel for school purposes and church services. Because of the use of the building the church will enjoy, we are planning to bear our share of the expense. In a meeting held evening after Sabbath, April 5, the question of the responsibility of our local church in this building proposition was discussed at some length. Elder Slade was with us for counsel. When the meeting closed $800 had been pledged, and we expect to raise at least $700 more to help in this work. We expect to enjoy very much the comfortable quarters that are now being planned for us. A MEMBER

News Notes

The moment has come for the world clock to strike for world peace. There are "acres of diamonds" for those who sell, as well as those who read the latest book entitled "World Peace in the Light of Prophecy."

Elder Shepard visited the church at Greenville on April 5 and reports the church organized into aggressive missionary work, using Present Truth.

Elder E. K. Slade visited the Edmore church Friday evening, April 4, where Brother Hagle is stationed. The following Sabbath he visited the Cedar Lake church and reports a profitable time at both places.

Professor W. J. Blake, of the Battle Creek Academy, and Professor George H. Simpson, of the Cedar Lake Academy, expect to attend the educational convention at Takoma Park, D. C., the latter part of the month.

We are very sorry to learn the sad news of the death of Sister Eva Waters, who has been the faithful treasurer of the Clifford Lake church. She passed away March 29. More particulars will no doubt appear later.

The Big Week

You have doubtless followed the educational agitation in the HERALD for the last few weeks. The special time of this campaign is the week beginning April 27. You are fully aware by this time that an extensive building program is in progress at Berrien Springs College, and the Indiana Conference has its portion of financial responsibility in these improvements. Our allotment is $9,000; we have already sent to the Union the sum of $5,000, and this still leaves a deficit of $4,000 for Indiana to raise. It is the desire that this full amount be raised during the big week of April 27. The plan set forth by the Union is to ask every member to give $5 for this purpose. If Indiana will take hold of this, we shall raise over $9,000. It is the plan then to use the surplus for the educational work in our own local field.

I solicit your support, and want every member to put forth every effort to give the sum of $5 by the first of May for the educational work in this Union. If you do not have the money you can sell the last book of Elder Daniells on "World Peace." They sell very readily, and you can earn the money easily.

We look for your faithful cooperation in this special endeavor.
C. S. WIEST

The Canvassing Field

The following letter recently received from Brother Fred Kaufman, who was at Cayuga, Ind., will be read with interest, I am sure:

"I have been very successful in my work, and am of good courage. I must tell you of one experience that proves to me again that the hand of the Lord is directing the work. I called at a home the second time, and found no one there each time. The next morning after leaving the home where I spent the night, over a mile from this place, the Lord seemed to lead my mind back to this home. So I decided to put Him to a test. I was about one hundred yards from the place where the road turns leading to this home. I began to pray, I said, 'Lord, if you want me to go back there again, tell me in some definite way before I get to the turn. I thought of Philip's experience with the eunuch, and wished we were living so near the Lord that the Spirit could direct us in the same way. Well, when I got back from Gaza to Indiana again, I found myself some distance from the turn of the road. But, when I rapped at the door and found no one at home, I began to think the Lord surely did not lead me this time, and was just on the point of turning away when I noticed the peculiar actions of the dog. He would run away from the house a short distance and whine, and bark, and then back to me again. He did this each time I rapped on the door. I followed the dog and saw a man coming towards the house, who proved to be the man who lived there, and whose attention had been attracted to the house by the dog. I told him what I was doing, and he invited me in and gave me an order for 'Bible Readings' in the best binding.

"I found a lady who buys many religious books. She told me the best book she owned was 'Coming King.' I also noticed a copy of an old edition of 'Great Controversy' in her bookcase. I believe the work will soon be over, Brother Maris. Once in awhile the Lord seems to give me a glimpse of the nearness of the end."

W. B. MARIS

Elder Hubbard received an invitation to speak in one of the large Methodist churches of Indianapolis, and on Sunday night, April 6, he accepted this invitation and spoke to a very interested audience. It is the plan to have a central effort in the city, and the pastor of this Methodist church took occasion to announce the opening service for this effort, to be conducted by Elder Hubbard. We consider it a good opening for work here. The meetings will be held every Sunday night in the Masonic Temple—a beautiful hall on the first floor.

A Problem in Proportion

Statement: If 300 students in 29 days working 24 hours a day can raise $6,115.40, how much can 13,000 people raise in 6 days working 24 hours a day?

"Over the top" is becoming a hackneyed phrase, but it meant something to the boys in khaki who went over. It means something to us that they went over. Some of them never came back, but they went over.

You have heard and read of the Big Student Drive until you may have wearied of it. Had you been here and seen and felt the inspiration of it all, you would have joined in the shout of victory when our volunteer student army went over the top.

Now will you help us to solve this problem in proportion? Surely an army of 13,000 in the Lake Union Conference when fired by the enthusiasm of a noble purpose can bring into the treasury of the Educational Fund $65,000 in a week.

The walls of Jerusalem were built, "For the people had a mind to work." And the walls of our school homes will be built when our people—every one—have a mind to work.

Once our neighbors came in to help us raise a windmill derrick. Some lifted until red in the face just as others were letting go to catch their breath. One man seeing the difficulty stepped to one side and shouted, "Hee-o-hee!" Up shot the derrick about two feet. Again came the call, and again a united boost sent it up. "In unity there is strength."

Five dollars from every church member is not an impossible goal. It can be done. It can be given. It can be earned. It can be borrowed. Get inoculated with the same germ which spread enthusiasm among the student body at the College. It is contagious. We expect it to prove epidemic throughout the Union.

Elsewhere in this issue and in the next will be found suggestions for earning the amount called for which will prove a blessing to him who gives and him who takes.

Sit down and solve this problem in proportion and then estimate what this will mean to the work of training our young people to carry this message to the multiplied millions of earth. Then do your bit, and make yourself responsible for getting others to do theirs.

Emmanuel Missionary College Notes

The chapel appears very quiet and modest again after the removal of the campaign posters. A spirit of thankfulness, that the great campaign recently launched at this school has successfully ended, is seen everywhere among students and teachers. A committee of the students is to act with the faculty and board in deciding the style of architecture to be used in the music building.

The canvassers' institute and spring week of prayer give us great opportunities for spending this week well. We have prayer bands every day, an interesting chapel period, and the institute has a session every afternoon. The lessons have been cut to half this week.

The junior class has been organized and has chosen Henry Blom for president. The colors worn are gold and black. The academic seniors have elected Harvey Howard as their president and are wearing green and yellow ribbons.

Thomas D. Rowe, a graduate of 1918, called at the College on his way to the educational convention at Washington. He is principal of the Battleford Academy in Saskatchewan, Canada. He brought good news of several E. M. C. graduates working in that field.

Loren C. Shepard and wife, both former students here, visited friends on their way to their new field of labor in North India. Mr. Shepard will be head of the book work there.

Julius Paulson, president and manager of the Hinsdale Sanitarium, will give a lecture on Mexico, April 26, in the College chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith, former students of E. M. C., in their far-away home at Dwarikhal, Garwal District, India, were made happy by the arrival of a little daughter, Katherine Erville, February 23.

Elder Slade, president of the West Michigan Conference, was here Sabbath and Sunday. He spoke to us on Sabbath. On Sunday he called on the students who are planning to work in the West Michigan Conference this summer.

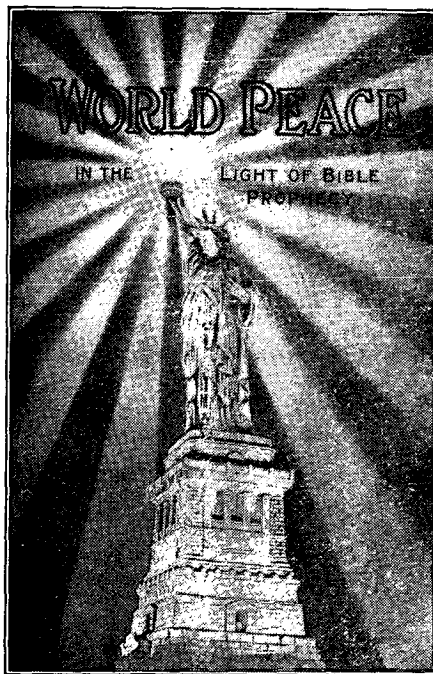

Ernest Lloyd, of the Pacific Press, was at the College during the colporteurs' institute, representing the magazine work. He gave several inspiring talks to the students while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, of Lafayette, Ind., have moved to Berrien Springs. Mr. Davidson is working in the mechanical department.

Viva Edwards will live down town with her mother, who is moving here from Flint, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hall spent a few days at the College last week. Mr. Hall is now home missionary and Missionary Volunteer secretary of Indiana.

Those planning to attend the educational convention at Washington, D. C., from the school are President Griggs, Jesse Marshall, Ernest Ayars, and Walter Murray.

THIS IS THE BOOK

"Build it well, whate'er you do;
Build it straight and strong and true;
Build it clean and high and broad;
Build it for the eye of God."
