A Letter from Elder and Mrs. Moon

To the people of the Lake Union Conference, Greeting: Although we have been absent from you for a long time, we have had a constant reminder of the dear associations of the past in the weekly visits of the LAKE UNION HERALD. Its unchanging face has endeared it as one of our family. Every visit has brought some fresh news of those whom we left behind in the school, in the various conferences, and in the many churches, with all the departments of the work.

We have been thrilled with the stories of advancement in all lines—the growth of conferences, the financial prosperity that has attended all, including institutions, and above all, the progress of the message among men.

How we have enjoyed these weekly visits, bringing word of the location and doings of those with whom we were once associated. We have also taken pleasure in forming the acquaintance of some of the new ones who have come to take the place of those who have departed. Some way, there seems a freshness about the visits of this member that we have not been able to recognize in any of the new visitors.

One thing of special interest is the fact that some of the young people, who were in college in those past days, are now out in the field in different parts of the world, foreign and local, improving their God-given talents, and putting to good use the training they received in the excellent schools of the Lake Union.

The visits of the HERALD have not been without an occasional message of sadness. They have brought the intelligence of the laying away of some of the loved ones to await the coming of the Life-giver. One of the latest of these was Brother Burkitt, of the Pittwood, Illinois church, a man of integrity and devotion to principle. But our sorrow is not like that of others who have no hope.

We have been especially pleased to note the advancement in the educational work. We are glad it has grown to such an extent that it has resulted in an imperative demand for an enlargement in the College buildings. May the interest deepen and grow till it will be necessary to provide room and school privileges for all of the more than four thousand youth and children in that great Union.

With unabated love and interest, we remain

Your brother and sister,

ALLEN AND CARRIE MOON

Our School

The members of the Locating Committee appointed at camp meeting for our new academy were out all day Sunday, June 22, investigating farms which have been suggested to us. It is needless to say that it is quite a task to find the ideal place for our school. There are, of course, a variety of opinions in so large a conference as Indiana, and the committee is anxious to satisfy all, so far as is reasonable. Truly, no one's opinion of a location can be honored if it is prompted by, or based on a selfish motive, or personal convenience. The first requirement of a location must be land of good quality—land that will produce and respond to honest and faithful farming. The second requirement is equally important. There must be good water and an abundance of it—whether it comes from wells or springs, it matters not. After this, we look for beauty—the more picturesque a building site, the greater will be the appreciation. We are looking for a place that has an elevated grove not far distant from a creek, which will be advantageous for drainage. It is preferable that this creek, or river be on the farm. The farm must lie on one of the main highways of the state, and not too far from an interurban or steam railway. We may not find this high ideal on a farm of eighty acres, but we are putting forth a faithful effort to secure it. Your president, in company with others, is out at every opportunity hoping that the right place may be found. Thus far we have four locations to present to the large committee, which is to meet July 15 for the final decision. These farms are located at Greenfield, Ingalls, Frankfort, and Southport. The local committee will look at other farms between now and July 15. Let us hope and pray that the very best place for our school will be found.

What Is My Duty?

What is our duty right now? You will agree that the greatest necessity is to support the educational plan with liberal donations. Those of you who have a Liberty Bond tucked away in some safe corner will help materially by giving it to us for this special use. Those of you who have ready cash, do not fail to send a portion of it to the office to be applied on the educational fund. Those of you who cannot give a large sum, pay small sums every month. Can we not do without some of the things that we might get, were it not for this urgent call in educating our boys and girls? Will you join me in giving $5 each month this year toward this worthy cause?—$5 a

Seventieth Anniversary

July is almost here, and with its advent our church paper, the Review and Herald, will be seventy years old. Seventy years of continual, faithful service is worthy of more consideration than merely a passing notice. These years have been years of varied experiences for us as a people, but through it all the Review has been a faithful counselor and guide, as well as a friend and helper.

In considering this matter it has been decided to issue a special anniversary number to bear date of July 31, 1919. The number will be of great value, even better if possible, than any other number yet issued.

The General Conference has adopted other means to make this seventieth anniversary a memorable event among us. July has been set aside as a month in which all the friends of our church paper will visit every member of our church, endeavoring to place this paper in the homes of all Seventh-day Adventists. To assist in this campaign, and as one way in which to celebrate the seventieth anniversary, the publishers have voted to give all who will subscribe, or renew during July—anniversary month—a subscription of fourteen months for $2.50.

This means that any one who is a subscriber to the Review, no matter how far in the future the subscription extends, can have fourteen months added to his subscription by paying $2.50, if done during the month of July. It also means that any one not a subscriber can secure a fourteen months' subscription for $2.50 if the order is given during July. Periods other than a year are not affected by this offer. Thus, any one sending in $1.50 for the Review during July would receive the paper only six months—not seven. A renewal, or subscription for two years at $4.50, or three years at $6, would receive the Review 24 and 36 months—not 28 and 42 months.

Now this campaign will be a success just in proportion as you help to make it a success. Are you a subscriber to the Review? How many families in your church do not take our church paper? Your example and encouragement will help. First, subscribe or renew, then go to your brother and sister in the truth who are not members of the Review family, and bring them into the fold. Three months ago the Review and Herald was in 63 per cent of our Adventist homes; in May 75 per cent. If we all pull together, we can make this 100 per cent by July 31. What do you say?

From the Field

Our camp meeting at Frankfort was a season of refreshing for all, especially our colporteurs, nearly all of whom came to enjoy the feast. On Monday, June 2, twenty-five colporteurs marched to the platform and after ten-minute speeches from Elders Guthrie and Wiest, they each related some good experience that had come to them in the work. As usual the people voted the meeting a success and many were stimulated to enter the work.

Brother Davis was on hand to conduct most of the morning and evening meetings, which were held each day except Sabbath.

Professor Griggs spoke one morning on the necessity of the colporteur educating himself as he worked, and many were the remarks one could hear after that meeting from the colporteurs who resolved to become more efficient in their work.

Altogether we have about forty agents in the field. The several companies of students who went out from E. M. C. and Broadview are doing nicely, and some of the students already have their scholarship earned. The regulars are again getting settled into the harness after their trip to camp meeting, and soon we want to be reaching the $2,000 mark each week. Still there is room and those who contemplate taking up the work should write at once. Address me at 417 Castle Hall Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

The Efforts in the Illinois Conference

Our ministers are all started in the summer tent efforts, and reports of success are coming in one after another. I hold in my hand a brief letter which I am sure will be of interest to our people. It relates to the colored tent effort being conducted in Cairo, and reads as follows:

"Dear Elder Holden: I feel thankful to God for His blessing to us. We are having the biggest thing in the city. Large numbers attend every night; outside and inside the tent is crowded. Hundreds of the people of Cairo are hearing the truth, white as well as colored. The greatest feature of the work is that at least half of the congregation are men. The ministers attend and are friendly to us. The city seems ready for the message. We need your prayers for a double portion of the Spirit. I feel the burden of the work as never before. Fred C. Phipps."

Another letter from Elder L. O. Drews of Ottawa states that fifteen persons recently united with the church by baptism, and he has several more in a class that he hopes will be baptized before long. Elder Drews went to Ottawa in February and began Sunday night meetings in the church. His first baptism is the result of his Sunday night meetings, and he feels of good courage as he begins his tent effort in the city of Ottawa.

We have other interesting reports from the field, and hope in a little time to report souls saved through the efforts of each tent company. W. H. HOLDEN

Every Seventh-day Adventist, Take Notice

Great "Review and Herald" Anniversary

I hold in my hand a letter from the Review and Herald Publishing Association, in which I read, "Next July the Review will be seventy years old. The issue in July will be a seventieth anniversary number. Elder Wilcox is preparing a very fine number for this occasion. It will recount God's dealings and blessings toward His people throughout the existence of this denomination, together with plans and hopes for the future. It is expected that it will be better than the 'World Outlook' number, which as you will remember was the first issue of this year. During the seventieth anniversary month it is planned to carry on an aggressive campaign to increase the circulation of the Review. . . . The campaign is to be a world-wide one, and it is hoped at this time, by making a heroic effort (to use the words of Elder Daniells) to place the Review in the home of every Seventh-day Adventist, where it is at all possible to do so."

The letter also states that during the month of July you can secure a fourteen months' subscription for the regular price of one year's subscription—$2.50, and this offer is good for renewals as well as new subscriptions. Do you not, therefore, think that this is an opportune time for you to subscribe for that good messenger, the Review and Herald? It is the minister that visits thousands of Sabbath-keeping homes. It has done its part in past years to encourage our brethren and sisters who have not had the privilege of listening to the living preacher from Sabbath to Sabbath. Personally, I do not see how a Seventh-day Adventist can keep up spiritually without the good old Review in his home, and I am writing this notice to appeal to every Seventh-day Adventist throughout the Illinois Conference to put forth a great effort to place the Review and Herald in every Sabbath-keeping home. First, see that it is in your home, then encourage every Sabbath-keeping family in your church to subscribe for the paper before the close of July, and remember that by so doing you get the anniversary number, which comes out in July, and also a fourteen months' subscription for the price of twelve months.

We are living in the time of high cost of living, and while it is hard to meet the running expenses of the year, it is at the same time very easy to save $2.50, for if you go without a little luxury, you save a lot of money these days. So just make the month of July a self-denial month, and you will certainly save $2.50 to pay for the good old Review.

We are certainly praying and working to see our Review and Herald subscription list jump from 320, where it is now, to 458, where it ought to be. Remember 458 is the goal. Will you add your name to help us go over the top?

W. H. HOLDEN

Danville

We have begun our tent meetings and we are now right in the midst of the summer's work. Our first meeting was held Sunday evening, June 1, so we are now just entering upon the fourth week of the meetings. The attendance has not been as large as we had hoped for, but those who do come seem to be very much interested in the way Seventh-day Adventists explain the Scriptures. Two or three ministers have attended the services frequently and have bought literature dealing with the prophecies.

This week the Sabbath truth will be presented and the sincerity of those who are coming from night to night will be tested.

We are making an earnest effort with Present Truth for that part of the city in which the tent is located. We expect to distribute nearly eight thousand of these message-filled pamphlets by the time the meetings are ended. Brother and Sister McAlister are having some precious experiences each day as they distribute this literature from house to house.

Pray for us that honest souls may find the truth this summer in Danville.

E. N. SARGEANT

Galesburg

Since writing last I have been very busy getting ready for our tent effort which opened Sunday evening, June 15. We were able to secure a splendid lot in the east part of town for our tent. We are on one of the main streets in the city and on a car line. This makes it possible for people from all over the city to easily reach the tent. We have a new 40x60 foot tent, a splendid outfit and one that our people can well be proud of. We were blessed in being able to secure a large number of wild ferns from the woods to beautify our tent. These we placed in a large flower box in front of the rostrum, making a beautiful scene, indeed.

Last night was the beginning of our second week and we had a fairly good congregation in spite of the threatening weather. The attendance on Sunday night has been good, but through the week small, yet I believe that with the blessing of the Lord we shall witness some good results from our effort here. We solicit your prayers for the success of this work.

Special Meeting in Springfield

We are planning a special meeting for the Springfield church on Sabbath and Sunday, July 12 and 13. Besides Elder P. C. Hanson and the writer, we expect extra help from the Union. Brother J. L. McConaughy, Union field missionary secretary, is expected to be present, and possibly others. The first meeting will be held Friday evening, July 11, at eight o'clock; Sabbath school at 9:30 A. M. preaching 10:30. A second service will be held in the afternoon. There will also be services Sunday afternoon and evening. We trust our brethren within reach of Springfield will attend all of these meetings.

On Sabbath, July 19, Elder P. C. Hanson and Brother J. L. McConaughy will conduct similar meetings in the church at Moline.

News Notes

Miss Etta L. Young of the East Michigan Conference is now with us and will take charge of the Sabbath school work in this field which was formerly carried by Sister Holden. Sister Young will also have charge of the medical department of our work. We give her a hearty welcome in this needy field.

Elder Holden spent a few days at the Chicago camp meeting. He was called there to preside at the legal meeting of the delegates of the sanitarium association.

How thankful we ought to be for the number of students now in the colporteur field who are sending in reports of their work each week. The younger and inexperienced students especially need our prayers. Let us not fail to petition the Lord to give them the needed help and strength for their work.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. H. Lindsey recently joined our force of office workers. We very much appreciate their efficient help in the office these busy days.

As has already been reported, our camp meeting will be held on the fairground at Peoria, August 28 to September 7. We feel confident that this will be one of the largest camp meetings that Illinois has had. We hope many are already laying plans to attend this important meeting.

There has been a lively increase in the circulation of Present Truth in this conference, especially since so many of the churches have responded to the plans laid before them by the missionary department. A report recently received from our publishers shows that a little more than 21,000 copies of Present Truth were sent into the conference during the month of May, which was an increase of more than 16,000 copies over the circulation of the previous month. Let the good work continue.

Camp Meeting Notes

The South Wisconsin camp meeting is in full swing as these notes are being written. The meetings of all departments are well attended.

The first Sabbath brought big blessings to the camp and it seems that all are determined to have a closer walk with God. Professor Lamson's sermons on Sunday were much appreciated by all, and we regretted that he must return to his duties in Hinsdale so soon. Elder R. T. Dowsett, who is now connected with the Review and Herald publishing house as treasurer of that institution, will be remembered by many of the Wisconsin believers. He was with us during the first four days of our meeting and his Bible studies on the History of the Apostolic Church and on the Elijah Message, were timely and practical, bringing great blessing to those who heard them.

A good work is being done among the young people of our conference. We wish that more of our young people could attend our annual gatherings. As usual, the morning devotional meetings in the pavilion and the young people's tent from six to seven o'clock, are favorite gathering places, starting the day right with God.

The well-stocked book room in the Art Building presents a good display of our books and other literature, and is a scene of much activity between meetings. Those in charge are averaging $100 a day in cash sales.

Miss Myrtle Jensen and Miss Matilda Hansen have begun canvassing among the foreigners at Racine. They expect to do the same work in Milwaukee and Kenosha during the summer. July 1 they will be joined by the Misses Carrie and Mary Nelson. All four girls are from the Hutchinson Seminary at Hutchinson, Minn. Let us remember these young ladies in our prayers.

Elder H. R. Johnson, teacher of Bible in Hutchinson Seminary, is giving us a Bible and Testimony study each day. Many others are rendering special help from day to day, and much of the Spirit of God is manifest on the grounds.

News Notes

The camp meeting at Lapeer was well attended by people from all parts of the conference. A good spirit prevailed and a number went forward in baptism.

The workers of the conference are now scattered and are busy getting ready for the summer efforts. Most of these workers stayed to help dismantle the camp, and now they have the strenuous work of getting their tents pitched and ready for strong and energetic campaigns to spread the message. The line-up of our tent companies is as follows: In Detroit, Elders Cotton and Ferris and Brethren Metcalf and John Fenner. These brethren will be assisted by Sisters Webber, Lynch, Irwin, and Cass. In Bay City, Elder Frank Dudley and Brother Peterson, assisted by Sisters Graham and Sell. At Jackson, Elder R. C. Gardner will have charge of the tent with a tent master yet to be supplied. He will be assisted by Sisters Ena Alger and Mrs. Flinn. Elder Morrison and Brother Newbold are located at Imlay City and will be assisted by Sisters Pearl Morrison and Sylvia Sevens. Elder T. B. Buckner will have charge of the effort for colored people in Detroit. His son will serve as his tent master and they will have Miss Elston as Bible worker.

Professor W. L. Avery is now located at Adelphian Academy, also Professor V. Hageman and family. These brethren are getting ready for an earnest summer's campaign in the interest of the academy.

The work on the new office building is getting along nicely. The workmen are just putting up the rafters and expect to soon have the roof on. The brick walls are practically completed at this writing.

Brother E. F. Flick has been chosen to lead out in the field missionary work of the conference to take the place of Brother Van Fossen, certain conditions having seemed to indicate to Brother Van Fossen that it would be best for him to take up some other work. We expect that very soon Brother Flick will move to headquarters here at Holly. Any who are contemplating entering the colporteur work may correspond with him at this place in care of the tract society.

A quiet wedding took place at 8 P. M. June 11 on the East Michigan camp ground at Lapeer when Mr. Ray L. Smith and Mabel B. Brace of Detroit were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Elder Guthrie officiating. We wish for these young people a very happy and prosperous life until the Lord comes. May the world be made better and greatly benefited by their many godly deeds.

Two new families have recently moved to Holly to enjoy school privileges here. They are Brother William Sunday of Indiana, and Brother Foote of Marshall, Mich.

Elder Gardner preached his first sermon at Jackson last Sabbath.

The camp equipment has all been packed away in the conference storehouse at Holly.

Elder Westworth visited the camp meeting at South Wisconsin the past week and from there goes to the meeting of the Chicago Conference.

Brother Moore recently visited Jefferson, Owosso, Prattville, and Addison.

Brother Thiele and Professor Avery spent last Sabbath with the church at Flint.

Plans are now under way for erecting a new church building at Holly.

Miss McDill has arrived at the academy where she will be a member of the faculty this coming year, acting as preceptress and teacher.

Miss Esther Frank, who has been bookkeeper at the academy the past year has connected with the tract society as assistant in the office.

July of this year marks the seventieth anniversary of the Review and Herald. To celebrate this event the publishers offer to send the paper for 14 months for the price of a year's subscription, $2.50. Whether you are a new subscriber or are renewing this offer holds good. We trust many will take advantage of this liberal offer.

Present Truth Number 41 on Bolshevism ought to have a wide circulation. Price, 60 cents a hundred. Order of the tract society.

North Michigan Conference

Office Address, 510 Petoskey St., Petoskey, Mich.

President, R. J. Nethery

Wilson

June 11-15 the Upper Peninsula general meeting was held at the Wilson church. From all parts of the conference above the Straits our brethren gathered until we had the largest company of believers that ever assembled at this place. And what a cheer it was to the ministering brethren and other workers present to greet the large audiences that at times filled the house to overflowing.

The Holy Spirit was present to refresh and convert souls. The clear distinctive features of the message were preached in power and the power of truth was clearly demonstrated. Five souls were buried with their Lord in baptism the last day of the gathering.

A large supply of literature was on hand which the brethren purchased freely. The educational work was pushed forward and Wilson will have a church school another year, practically all the teacher's salary being raised by pledges. Brother Stearns succeeded in getting some canvassers who are going to work for a scholarship this coming year.

The brethren of the church entertained with all the hospitality for which the northern country is noted.

CHANCY WOOD

Chicago Conference

Office Address, 28 E. Jackson Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

President, A. J. Clark

The Colored Church in Chicago

The special meetings that were conducted on Sunday evenings closed June 1. The Sabbath preceding the last meeting fifteen souls were buried in baptism. Among these was a baptist minister who had been under conviction for some time. He finally yielded to the pleadings of the Holy Spirit and decided fully for present truth. It is his purpose to further study the message in order that he may preach it.

We truly thank God for the triumph of the truth in the hearts of honest souls.

Bury Your Wrongs

In the very depths of yourself dig a grave. Let it be like some forgotten spot to which no path leads; and there, in the eternal silence, bury the wrongs that you have suffered. Your heart will feel as if a weight had fallen from it, and a divine peace will come to abide with you.—Charles Wagner.

All the perplexities of life's experience will then be made plain. Where to us have appeared only confusion and disappointment, broken purposes and thwarted plans, will be seen a grand, overruling, victorious purpose, a divine harmony.—"Education."

Obituaries

SAGAR.—Rachel Thomas was born at Kenton, Ohio, April 27, 1873. In 1901 at the Dayton Ohio camp meeting, she was baptized and united with the Seventh-day Adventist Church, of which she remained a member until her death, which occurred at Bay City, Mich., May 25, 1919. Her husband, mother, one son and one daughter mourn, but in hope of a glorious resurrection.

R. J. NETHERY

HART.—Miss Olive N. Hart was born near Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 1, 1839. She attended a camp meeting at Hastings, Nebr., in 1909, and there accepted the truth, which faith was very dear to her at the time of her death at Oakfield, Wis., April 22, 1919.

LUTIE C. KING

JENSEN.—Karen Marie Madison was born in Denmark, April 7, 1859, and died May 19, 1919, aged 60 years, 1 month, and 12 days. In 1875 she was married to Lars Jensen to which union was born one child. Sister Jensen had for some time been a firm believer in the third angel's message although she never united with our people because of her husband's opposition. It was her request that she be buried from the Adventist church and that an Adventist minister should officiate at the funeral. She sleeps, awaiting the call of the Life-giver.

J. D. JOHNSON

PRICE.—Perry Price was born May 25, 1858, near Bloomington, Ill. He died at his home June 8, 1919, being 61 years and 13 days old. He was married Oct. 18, 1891, to Miss Eliza Bean who, with one son, Harry, survives him. He also leaves two sons by a former marriage. For several years Mr. Price has been affiliated with the Seventh-day Adventist denomination in this city, being a firm believer and a strong advocate of the principles of that faith. In January of this year he felt the need of a deeper consecration, and was baptized. He fell asleep in the hope of a soon-coming Saviour.

P. C. HANSON

KELLOGG.—L. A. Kellogg was born at Saline, Mich., Oct. 25, 1842, and died at Selkirk, Mich., May 15, 1919. Jan. 2, 1864 he was married to Miss Adelia Wood. To this union were born three sons. His wife died April 20, 1898. March 1, 1913 he was married to Mrs. Charity Butzer who, with two sons M. L. Kellogg of Detroit, Mich. and S. L. Kellogg of Holly, Mich., is left to mourn. For several years he preached the gospel of the third angel's message in central Michigan where he raised up several churches. The funeral was held at Selkirk, conducted by the Dunkard minister where we laid him to rest to wait the call of the Life-giver. We mourn but not as those without hope.

S. L. KELLOGG

HILL.—Ida Crawford was born at Mauston, Wis., Mar. 26, 1868, and died at the Madison Sanitarium May 25, 1919, at the age of 51 years, 1 month, and 29 days. She was a graduate of the Battle Creek Sanitarium Training School for Nurses and in 1893 was sent by them to Guadalajara, Mexico with a company of others to establish a branch sanitarium. She remained there two and a half years. Dec. 2, 1902 she was married to John Hill of Tomah, Wis. Early in life she gave her heart to Christ, and her delight was to follow in the footsteps of Him who went about doing good. For years she was a faithful member of the LaGrange church and will be greatly missed by the church and the community in which she lived. She leaves to mourn, besides her husband, five sisters and five brothers. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer from Job 14:14, 15.

The House by the Side of the Road

"He was a friend to man, and lived in a house by the side of the road."
—Homer.

There are hermit souls that live withdrawn

In the peace of their self-content;

There are souls, like stars, that dwell apart,

In a fellowless firmament:

There are pioneer souls that blaze their paths

Where the highways never ran;—

But let me live in a house by the side of the road

And be a friend to man.

Let me live in a house by the side of the road,

Where the race of men go by—

The men who are good, and the men who are bad,

As good and as bad as I.

I would not sit in the scorner's seat,

Or hurl the cynic's ban;

Let me live in a house by the side of the road

And be a friend to man.

I see from my house by the side of the road,

By the side of the highway of life,

The men who press with the ardor of hope,

The men who are faint with the strife.

But I turn not away from their smiles nor their tears—

Both parts of an infinite plan;

Let me live in my house by the side of the road

And be a friend to man.

I know there are brook-gladdened meadows ahead,

And mountains of wearisome height;

That the road passes on through the long afternoon,

And stretches away to the night.

But still I rejoice when the travelers rejoice,

And weep with the strangers that mourn,

Nor live in my house by the side of the road

Like a man who dwells alone.

Let me live in my house by the side of the road,

Where the race of men go by—

They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong,

Wise, foolish—so am I.

Then why should I sit in the scorner's seat,

Or hurl the cynic's ban?—

Let me live in my house by the side of the road

And be a friend to man.

—Sam Walter Foss

It is with pleasure that we publish the communication found in this issue from Brother and Sister Moon. Elder Moon faithfully and efficiently served this Union Conference for many years as president, and labored untiringly to build up the work in all lines. Sister Moon ably served the Union as educational secretary for a time. We are sure that all our readers will be glad to hear from them.

Sister B. J. White, writing from Crawfordsville, Ind., June 23, says: "We began our meetings last night with a full tent. A deep interest was manifested by the people and they said they were coming again. We are well pleased with the beginning of our work here."

A Final Appeal

Our summer school will have begun by the time this issue reaches its readers.

At this writing it is impossible to estimate the attendance.

But it is possible to estimate the demand for elementary teachers.

I am writing this from one of the camp grounds in this Union Conference.

In this conference there should be fourteen schools in operation this year.

There are seven teachers to supply these schools.

Does God demand that our children be "educated in their own churches" and still lay the burden of carrying forward this "nicest work" upon no one?

Come to the Summer School and train for this work.

Even though a few days late, come.

Write for further information.

C. A. RUSSELL

An Interesting Story

It is an interesting story to lovers of the message. It harks back to the peaceful days of 1874; to the then quiet little city of Oakland, Calif., where on Thursday of any week one might have seen Elder James White and his few printer assistants on bended knees about a little pile of wrapped papers. Or if the observer had been on the street about a half hour later, he might have seen young W. C. White on his way to the post office with that entire edition of the Signs Weekly in a wheelbarrow.

That small band with a great message needed not a Webster's to tell them the meaning of the word "sacrifice." It was a large part of their experience. But they knew the real meaning of "joy," too; for even before the end of that first year, they began to hear of persons who had accepted the truth as a result of reading the Signs.

And so it has been during these forty-five years, for this periodical was ordained of God, and designed by Him to accomplish this very end. Thousands—yes, thousands—have been partly or wholly persuaded through reading the Signs. A great, glorious record, is it not? And surely it would be within the bounds of conservatism to say that these thousands have paid tithes and offerings amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Sixty million, perhaps seventy million copies of this pioneer minister have been circulated by our people in one way and another since that first issue of June 4, 1874. If the wheelbarrow were still used, it would need to make hundreds of trips to the post office each week. But this now memorable conveyance, and even the later horse-drawn wagon, have given way to the motor. And even the truck must make three or four trips in order to handle a present-day edition of 62,000 copies.

During the past few weeks (in April and May) an unusual number of cheering letters have been received at the Signs office from persons who, through the reading of the Weekly, have, either taken their stand with our people recently or are deeply interested in the truth it teaches. It would require several columns of this paper to print these letters.

You can preach and teach the truth to a good audience every week, without interfering with your regular daily work, by faithfully circulating the Signs through the mails and in the various ways generally known to our people.

A New Record

On June 19 The Watchman Magazine sales for the July issue totaled 10,327, a new record for one day's orders. Just the day previous a woman living in New Orleans, La., wrote the publishers saying, "I am so thankful for the teaching in your Watchman Magazine, because I myself have been keeping holy the first day of the week. From what your magazine has taught me I have made a vow to keep holy the Sabbath of our Lord." It is the soul-winning power of our monthly magazines that make them such splendid missionary literature.
