Watch Us Grow

Not very rapidly, you may think. Substantial growth is altogether better than the kind which springs up in a night to be withered under the rays of the noonday sun.

Before this issue of the HERALD reaches its readers, the last of our series of six camp meetings will have closed. For seven years it has been my privilege to attend camp meetings in the Lake Union Conference. Never during this period has there been manifested the deep interest in the educational work of this manifested their interest in the progress of the building operations which are being carried forward at Emmanuel Missionary College, and at the various academies throughout the Union. A definite statement concerning the amount of money thus contributed will be given in a subsequent issue.

Our line of duty is apparent. We must meet the demands of the people for a place in which to educate their young people for a place in the work by making it possible for every young man and every young denomination which was shown by our people upon these occasions. It is coming to be recognized by the leaders in this movement that the educational work of this denomination lies at the very foundation of its success. The boys and girls of today are the men and women of tomorrow. Never since the dawn of creation was there placed upon people such a weight of responsibility as rests upon the shoulders of those professing to be the heralds of God's great message of mercy. This work must be finished and finished on time. Upon the young people of this denomination, its chief asset, must rest very largely the burden of this work.

woman in the Lake Union Conference who desires a training in one of our schools to enter its doors this fall.

Here at the College the work is progressing most encouragingly. The boys' dormitory is roofed and the lathing is nearly completed on the second floor. Our other buildings made necessary by the demands from the field are nearing completion. C. A. RUSSELL

"Big Literature Week"

The General Conference has set apart the week, July 13-18, for a Big Literature Week, during which week they ask us to cooperate with the colporteurs by actually going into the field and selling some books. I am writing this notice to urge that every Seventh-day Adventist in the Illinois Conference lay definite plans for this Big Week. If you have any of our smaller books on hand that have not been disposed of, such as "World War" or "World Peace," take them to your neighbors and friends or to business men in the city, or to some other place where you choose to labor, and sell every book that you have on hand, cleaning up the shelves of all magazines and salable books which have been waiting for you to go out and sell them.

If you do not have any books on hand, send to the office at once and secure some. We have on hand several hundred each of "World in Perplexity," "World Problems," and "World Peace." These can be supplied on a moment's notice. Some of us will have better success if we go out with the larger books, but of course, it would not be advisable for our lay-members to get many of these larger books on hand. Let us, however, take some part in the Big Week and report the sales to the office. This will be a big week only as we all cooperate to make it such in reality. Every colporteur in the field will put forth his best effort to work overtime and enlarge his sales. Our ministers and secretaries have been asked to have some part in this Big Week.

W. H. HOLDEN

Important Notice

For many years this denomination has shown its appreciation to the Lord for health, strength, and a knowledge of this truth, as well as for temporal prosperity, by bringing to the treasury of the Lord a liberal gift in midsummer, called the Midsummer Offering. The General Conference has set apart Sabbath, July 19, 1919, for this annual gift, and it is greatly needed in the foreign fields at this time. We feel the pressure of the high cost of living in each of our many families at home, but let us remember, brethren, that this pressure is felt with double force in the foreign fields. Let us, therefore, at this time make a solemn covenant with the Lord. "Our God shall come and shall not keep silence. A fire shall devour before Him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about Him. He shall call to the heavens from above and to the earth that He may judge His people. Gather My saints together unto Me, those that have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice." Ps. 50:3-5.

I am very sorry to tell you through the pages of the LAKE UNION HERALD, that my last report from the Lake Union shows that the Illinois Conference has fallen behind $3,272.41 on our Twenty-five-cent-a-week Fund to missions, and now, brethren, I am sending this notice to make one more appeal to you to clean up this deficit. We have been running behind at the rate of six or seven hundred dollars a month. We must now put forth a decided effort or we shall not be able to dig out of the pit into which we have fallen. Let us make Sabbath, July 19, "Five Dollar Day," and in order to raise an amount equal to five dollars per member throughout the Illinois Conference, I appeal to all who have means, to give very liberally on that day. Are there not some among us who will be able to give $50 and $100 and possibly more to this fund? Are there not others who have Liberty Bonds that they can turn in on this fund?

Brethren, let us make one united effort to clean up this deficit. Let us clean it up so clean that the next report from the Lake Union Conference will show that we have gone over the top. We are interested in humanity, and wherever humanity suffers we wish to help, and the whole world lies in wickedness. It is the Lord's cause that is suffering now. Let us consider our duty towards Him, the greatest duty we have on earth. Do not just read this notice and lay it aside and forget it, but make a covenant with the Lord by sacrifice.

Camp Meeting Help

Last year we had some confusion in regard to help on the camp ground, and I am writing this notice early in the season to say that we wish those who desire to work by the hour in the dining tent or who wish to do any work on the camp ground, from the time we begin pitching the tents until the ground is cleared, to write the office stating the work they wish to do. Then we can consider the matter carefully and make arrangements for the help needed. All such arrangements should be made with the president of the conference direct. Remember the camp meeting will be held on the fairgrounds at Peoria, August 28 to September 7.

Adelphian Academy News

The girls have been busy canning a nice supply of strawberries for next season's use. Raspberries are nearly ready to can.

The principal's rooms in Faculty Home are being overhauled and the woodwork freshly painted.

Mrs. Avery and the children have just arrived.

Farm crops are growing rapidly. Brother Curtis and his assistants are very busy cultivating the same.

A car load of lumber is already on the grounds preparatory to starting the additions to our buildings. We should like to correspond with some young men who would like to get practical experience in carpentry and thus earn something toward school expenses next year.

Miss McDill and Brother Hagman are visiting churches in the interest of the educational work.

Miss McDill, Mrs. Moore, Miss Valentine, Mr. Thiele, and Professor Avery spent Sabbath with the Flint church.

We wish as rapidly as possible to get in touch with all who are thinking of attending school next year. If you have not already filled out an application blank, will you not let us hear from you at once? Address W. L. Avery, Holly, Mich.

Impressions of Bethel—No. 2

A few weeks ago we published No. 1 under the above heading, consisting of some letters regarding our Bethel school written from the viewpoint of parents and patrons. This letter was written by a young lady, a former student.

"I am very much interested in Bethel, and shall do all I can for the school. From what I saw of the students during the elders' meeting I was impressed that they are workers for Bethel. Every student should bring with him next fall at least one other student, and no doubt some will be able to bring more than one. Another plan is to impress upon every church elder in the conference his duty to earnestly urge upon the minds of the youth their need of an education that will train them for a place in the finishing of this great work. I believe we ought also to help with our means as far as possible. I enjoyed being at the elders' meeting very much. The studies given on the Testimonies were a great help to me and we have been studying them in our Young People's Society. In all our planning we must put prayer first, and then work with a willing spirit. I do hope and earnestly pray that much will be done for the school and that God's blessing will be with every effort put forth."

An Important Matter

There is great need for every Seventh-day Adventist to study the serious times of today and also to take an inventory of his own spiritual condition. We must rise to higher ground and improve the opportunity knocking at our door. Satan is watching the true Christian very closely. I read in "Early Writings," page 266:

"I saw that Satan bade his angels lay their snares especially for those who were looking for Christ's second appearing, and keeping all the commandments of God. Satan told his angels that the churches were asleep. He would increase his power and lying wonders and he could hold them 'But,' he said, 'the sect of Sabbath-keepers we hate; they are continually working against us, and taking from us our subjects, to keep the hated law of God. Go, make the possessors of lands and money drunk with cares. If you can make them place their affections upon these things, we shall have them yet. They may profess what they please, only make them care more for money than for the success of Christ's kingdom or the spread of the truths we hate. We must keep in our ranks all the means of which we can gain control. The more means the followers of Christ devote to His service, the more will they injure our kingdom

JULY 31, 1919, IS FAST APPROACHING

On that date the SPECIAL OFFER of a fourteen months' "Review" subscription for $2.50 expires.

Send Your Renewal or New Subscription before that date

THE "Review" is read by believers in every section of the globe. Outside of the United States and Canada it goes to 102 different countries. Many subscribers in these foreign lands must wait weeks, and even months after the paper is printed before they receive their copies.

These brethren appreciate the "Review" for the message of good cheer which it brings to them, and for the information which it contains.

Verily the "Review" is a strong medium which helps to bind the great body of believers together in one common faith.

If our brethren at the ends of the earth are willing to wait weeks and even months for a copy of their church paper, is there any excuse for English-reading believers in the Lake Union Conference, where the paper is received by date of issue, or at most within a day or two later, not subscribing?

SEVENTIETH ANNIVERSARY ANNOUNCEMENT

July, 1919 Completes the Seventieth Year of Publication of our Church Paper, the "Review and Herald"

This paper was brought into existence by divine appointment. Seventy years ago Elder and Mrs. James White were living at Rocky Hill, Conn. While living there Elder White was impressed that it was his duty to write and publish the present truth. He was greatly encouraged and blessed as he decided to do this, but being penniless he thought it impossible to publish a paper, so became discouraged and gave up his plan. Sister White was then shown in vision that he (Elder White) must walk out by faith and write and publish the present truth.

Seventy years ago in July the first number of the paper was published. Those papers were directed to all whom it was thought would read them. When they were ready for mailing those sturdy, consecrated pioneers gathered around the little pile of papers, and with earnest prayers mingled with tears entreated that God's blessing might attend the silent messengers. Very soon letters came bringing means to publish the paper, and the good news of many embracing the truth.

Through all the years the Review has been an important factor in the development of this message, and in helping the believers to maintain a bright Christian experience, beset as they have been with trials and temptations especially designed to discourage and dishearten those keeping God's commandments.

The Review asks every believer in the Lake Union Conference to join them in celebrating the completion of seventy years of service, and to assist in helping our church paper to become of greater service in the future.

During the month of July, 1919, the publishers offer to send the Review fourteen months for $2.50. This offer is good for both renewals and new subscriptions.

If you are not a subscriber send $2.50 during July and the Review will be sent to you for fourteen months.

If you are a subscriber to the Review, (no matter how long in the future your subscription may be paid) send $2.50 during July and your expiration date will be set forward fourteen months.

All orders for subscriptions or renewals should be sent to your conference tract society.

❖ The Lake Union ❖
and
The "Review and Herald"

THERE are 3,453 copies of our church paper, the Review and Herald, going to the Lake Union Conference.

Our goal is 4,267. This goal is one-third the church membership as it stood Jan. 1, 1918, after making deductions for foreign believers who cannot read English. About 80 per cent of the goal has been reached.

That goal is conservative. There are about 9,000 families in the Lake Union Conference in which a Seventh-day Adventist resides. This means that the circulation of our church paper ought to be about 9,000 in our Union, because, "the Review is a valuable paper; it contains matter of great interest to the church, and should be placed in every family of believers." — Volume IV, p. 599.

Lake Union, let us not only reach that goal, but pass it by thousands. Now—during the SEVENTIETH ANNIVERSARY month of the publication of our church paper,—is the time to do it. Remember the special offer—FOURTEEN MONTHS for $2.50. This applies to renewals as well as new subscriptions, but the offer is limited to July.

Send orders to your conference tract society office.

❧ Five Reasons Why You Should Subscribe ❧

1. The Review is a highly spiritual paper. You will receive an inspiration from reading it that you cannot secure from any other source.
2. Reading the Review will strengthen your faith in the message and the Word. As you read in its pages of events now taking place which are fulfilling prophecy, your belief in the fundamental teaching of the Advent Movement will become more firm.
3. The Review will keep you informed regarding the plans of such great organizations as the National Reform Association, Federal Council of Churches, and other societies and organizations, the work of which will vitally affect the believers in our message.
4. The development and progress of this message is faithfully reported in the Review. An isolated believer who reads the Review regularly each week is better informed regarding the work of the third angel's message than the believer who has the best of church privileges, but denies himself the Review.
5. The Review contains thirty-two pages each week, all of which are filled with material written for the special purpose of giving Seventh-day Adventists the information and help which they need to develop characters that will stand the tests before us, and gain eternity at last. There is nothing light or trifling found in it. It is such a paper as you would wish your children to read. It is the best kind of periodical to use in missionary work.

No Seventh-day Adventist can afford to be without the "Review."

An Important Matter

by getting our subjects. Discourage and dishearten their ministers; for we hate them. Present every plausible excuse to those who have means, lest they hand it out. (Defeat the devil.) Control the money matters if you can, and drive their ministers to want and distress. Make covetousness and love of earthly treasures the ruling traits of their character. Crowd every attraction around them, and they will be surely ours. And not only are we sure of them, but their hateful influence will not be exercised to lead others to heaven. When any shall attempt to give, put within them a grudging disposition, that it may be sparingly. I saw that Satan carries out his plans well."

Does this sad condition exist in your heart? Pray that our Indiana Conference may truly be delivered from it. God has need of all we are and all we have. Let us put all upon the altar, and let the sacrifice be consumed as an offering unto the Lord.

Remember our boys and girls and the educational fund. We must have a school. Let us rise and build.

C. S. WIEST

Crawfordsville

Two weeks ago an evangelistic campaign was opened in this beautiful city, which is one of the oldest educational centers in the state. Our tent is located on one of the main thoroughfares, in a very desirable residential district—a location for which we feel very grateful to God. The corps of workers consists of Elder B. J. White, Miss Leone White, Miss Eva Pitcher, and the writer.

Our tent is filled nearly every night, largely by the same people. We are receiving many names of interested ones, and among these there must be those who are honest in heart. The daily papers are eager to get our reports, sometimes printing articles almost a column in length. We have heard of several who have been reached in this way.

Brethren of Indiana, we need your prayers. Remember us before the throne of grace.

W. H. BERGHERM

Colporteur News

Words of courage are coming from all parts of the field. We now have about twenty students at work, besides the regular colporteurs. The seven students from the Swedish Seminary are reporting about $400 in orders each week, and letters full of courage come from them.

Brother Brodt, working in Warrick County, reports finding a whole family who are keeping the Sabbath from reading the books, "Great Controversy," "Daniel and Revelation," and "Bible Readings," and he says that although they had never met a Seventh-day Adventist they were lending these books far and wide to their neighbors.

Colporteur Kelley, who recently went to Evansville, has organized a Sabbath school there among the isolated believers, rented a hall, and will hold Sunday night meetings. Thus we enter this unworked city with the truth of God, and we are sure that soon the printed page will be scattered there like the leaves of autumn. We hope to group a few colporteurs with families in this end of the state this winter, and organize a good church school.

Brother C. P. Hall, who has been assisting in the field work the last few months, has taken up work in Davis County.

Brother J. A. Jackson of Wabash tells of a woman who had been prejudiced against our doctrine. She sent for him and asked the reasons for his belief. After a short Bible study on the Sabbath, he sold her "Our Day." He expresses a desire that we all pray to the Lord to follow up this opening in some way.

Chester Cunnington and Faye Brown, two boys of immature age, have each earned half a scholarship in two weeks by selling "Our Day." Brother Brown reports finding much Seventh-day Adventist literature in people's homes, some of which they prize very highly.

Brother G. M. Wagner, working in Indianapolis, says: "At one house there was quite a gathering on the front porch and I thought at first that I would not go in, but the Lord led me on. As I neared the porch, I kept thinking—'The more the better.' Well, I took three orders there for 'Great Controversy.' Another time I canvassed a man who said: 'Well, I never bought a book in my life but this is one that I am going to buy.'"

Many other good experiences come to us, but lack of space forbids mentioning them. We are told by the servant of the Lord, "If it were not for the canvasser many would never hear the truth." Let us support this army of pioneers with our prayers. If any contemplate joining the ranks, write me at 417-21 Castle Hall Bldg., Indianapolis.

Notice

Owing to increased business in the tract society and the additional work in handling so many small personal accounts, it has been decided to do a strictly cash business with everyone, except the regular colporteurs and church societies.

Many conferences are giving credit to colporteurs only but we wish to help you in every way consistent to business principles, so if you will place your order with the church librarian, it will receive our careful attention.

If you wish to order direct, please send money with order. If you do not know the price, we will furnish you catalogue on request. This is not a discrimination but an advanced step in our work. With your cooperation, we can better serve you.

Judge Not

In men whom men condemn as ill,
 I find so much of goodness still;
 In men whom men pronounce divine,
 I find so much of sin and blot,
 I hesitate to draw a line
 Between the two, where God has not.

—Joaquin Miller

College

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Murray are spending a few weeks at the College before leaving for the South American mission field.

A number attended the West Michigan camp meeting recently.

The Misses Reynolds and Erickson spent a few days at the Hinsdale Sanitarium recently.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Butterfield spent Sabbath and Sunday here with friends and relatives.

Mrs. P. L. Thompson and little son are here for the summer.

Miss Joy Murphy has taken up stenographic work in the business office.

Encouraging progress is being made on the buildings. The new Music Hall is ready for the plasterers, and both this building and the new boys' dormitory have been covered with asbestos roofing. Good progress is also being made on the new central heating plant.

Elder Branson, president of the Southeastern Union Conference, was a recent visitor. He expressed himself as being much pleased with the beautiful location and excellent spirit here.

Miss Margaret Davis, who has been visiting at the College, returned to her home in Battle Creek.

One hundred and sixteen cases of currants were picked in one day on the College farm last week. Altogether there will be about 165 cases shipped this year.

Forty-eight hundred pounds of cured alfalfa hay to the acre is the record made by the farm department for the first cutting of the season. At present the farm department is preparing for the wheat harvest.

Miss Mildred Russell is spending a few weeks at home from Hinsdale.

Mrs. M. E. Kern and daughter Geneva are visiting here for a few days.

President Griggs addressed the employees of the institution Wednesday evening, commending the progress of the work and the good spirit shown.

Mrs. Cush Sparks is visiting at her mother's home in College View, Nebr. She was accompanied by the twins.

A large number of summer school students are here and each day brings others. They are already hard at work.

Word comes that H. B. Lundquist, well known here, now a worker in the South American field, is rapidly recovering from a severe attack of typhoid.

Mr. Floyd Coffman, a former student, has arrived to assist in the work at the College.

Worth Reading

The August Watchman Magazine contains three timely articles. "Approaching the End of History," an impressive presentation of the fulfilment of Daniel 8, "A Great Reform Movement," introducing from Revelation 14 the mighty and divinely-directed mission of the church in this generation, and, "Ushering in a New Era of Peace," forcefully setting forth Christ as the only source of true peace. Recently a woman living in St. Paul, Minn., wrote the Southern Publishing Association, as follows:

"I first became interested in the truth by reading the Watchman. I subscribed for it a few days after receiving the copy from a friend and am still receiving it every month.

"I was baptized about two months ago and I am now looking forward to the baptism of my husband in the near future."

You never hear the robins brag about the sweetness of their song

Nor do they stop their music gay when'er a poor man comes along.

God taught them how to sing an' when they'd learned the art He sent 'em here

To use their talents day by day the dreary lives 'o men to cheer.

An' rich or poor an' sad or gay, the ugly an' the fair to see
Can stop most any time in June an' hear the robins' melody.

I stand an' watch 'em in the sun, usin' their gifts from day to day,

Swellin' their little throats with song, regardless of man's praise or pay,

Jes' bein' robins, nothing else, nor claiming greatness for their deeds.

But jes' content to gratify 'one of the big world's many needs.

Singin' a lesson to us all to be ourselves and scatter cheer
By usin' every day the gifts God gave us when He sent us here.

Why should we keep our talents hid or think we favor men because

We use the gift that God has given? The robins never ask applause

Nor count themselves remarkable, nor strut in a superior way

Because their music sweeter is than that God gave unto the jay.

Only a man conceited grows as he makes use of talents fine,
Forgetting that he merely does the working of the Will Divine.

Lord, as the robins, let me serve! Teach me to do the best I can

To make this world a better place an' happier for my fellow man,

If gifts o' mine can cheer his soul an' hearten him along his way

Let me not keep that talent hid. I would make use of it today.

An' as the robins ask no praise or pay for all their songs o' cheer

Let me in humbleness rejoice to do my bit o' service here.

—Edgar A. Guest

Who then is free? The wise man
Who can govern himself.

In many a child whom the parents would pass by, God sees capabilities far above those revealed by others who are thought to possess great promise. . . . Let every child, then, receive an education for the higher service.—"Education."
