Progress

Another week has passed and we are home once more from the rush and strain of camp meetings. As we passed from one to another of the meetings, our hearts were made glad by the deep spiritual tone and interest of the people present. The attendance was not so large as last year, except in South Wisconsin. There the attendance was even larger than one year ago. Our first meeting was Indiana and our last Chicago. In all of these meetings the people took an interest in preparing to finish this work and pledged

We hope to show you a picture of the men's dormitory in next week's issue. This much-needed dormitory will be a great help to our young men in their preparation for service. We are nearing the close of "this generation," and there is still a great work to do. If we could secure just one student from each church in the Lake Union we would have 394 students at the College this year. Is there not a bright, consecrated young man or lady in your church that you can encourage to attend school this year? If we secure 394 liberally to the educational fund. Indiana pledged about $7,000; East Michigan a similar amount; West Michigan secured pledges to the amount of $6,300; South Wisconsin reached $8,700, while Chicago and North Wisconsin also took hold of the work. South Wisconsin has sent in what purports to be their full quota of $9,000, giving them a list now of thirteen sections on the diagram. Illinois has five sections, East Michigan three sections, North Michigan two, West Michigan two, Chicago and Indiana have one square each. Twenty-seven squares have now been taken. We are three squares short of being one-third done our task for 1919. Square No. 7 has been taken by one brother. All the others by the conferences above mentioned.

college students this year, it will add greatly to the value of the school. We are very desirous that our younger students attend the academies, thus making room for those of college age and attainments at the College. We could use four hundred graduates next year as preachers, Bible workers, and teachers.

A Splendid Report from the Home Field

The camp meetings for the spring season are in the past. By the time this paper reaches its readers, our colporteurs will be in the field again. There are some very encouraging reports coming in at the present time. We have a report from Indiana this week for $2,596.70. The Chicago Conference has been doing some very commendable work of late and the reports are ranging from twelve to thirteen hundred dollars per week. East Michigan has had an increase of colporteurs since the camp meeting closed and their first report shows $804 for the week. One report of a little more than a week shows $186 from one of our student colporteurs. Another student in a little more than a week has $119.80. There are others for $80 and above. I am particularly interested in this report and feel that if East Michigan can reach a thousand dollars a week, with what the other conferences are doing, we ought to have a splendid report for the month of July.

North Michigan is doing some very excellent work. One of our student colporteurs reports $233 for his first week and $239 for another week, and one of our regular colporteurs sends in for twenty-two hours' delivery, $558. The remainder of the week he took orders for $59 worth of our literature. Another one of our students who was sick until Wednesday, and worked only a part of that day and the remainder of week, reports orders to the amount of $102, while another young man from the school reports $131 for forty hours' work. A number of our colporteurs have already earned their scholarship; some are working on a second scholarship for a relative or friend. I feel confident that all our students who are out in the field will be back in school by September 24. We feel that our people are praying for the publishing department and we are of the best of courage.

South Wisconsin Camp Meeting

The 1919 annual gathering of our people was held, as advertised, on the Watertown fairgrounds, and though now in the past it will long be remembered as a precious time of drawing nearer to God on the part of those privileged to be present. The workers' meeting which preceded the camp meeting was one of unusual spiritual experiences and manifestations of the presence and power of God's Spirit, in which all the workers seemed to share.

Good water, well-drained grounds, and fine weather throughout added much to the enjoyment and benefits derived by all.

Besides Eldér Guthrie and all the departmental secretaries of the Union, whose help was greatly appreciated, we had with us during the middle and latter part of the time Elders Branson, president of the South-eastern Union, and Westworth, president of East Michigan. The educational work was represented by Professors W. E. Howell, Frederick Griggs, C. A. Russell, G. R. Fattic, H. T. Elliott, and Mrs. Augusta Blosser-Jorgensen. Most of these had a part in the symposium on Educational Day, with the result that this branch of the work received a great impetus in its primary, academic, and collegiate divisions.

One feature of the results may be seen from the statement of Professor French, of Emmanuel Missionary College faculty, that South Wisconsin had the largest number of applications for the College of any camp meeting thus far held this year. This is encouraging, but there are many more who should be definitely planning to attend E. M. C. next year. By actual count in the childrens', juniors', and seniors' meeting tents, it was found that not half of our children and young people were in our own schools last year. Surely September will see something different. A large number enrolled for Bethel, yet the number of these should be far greater and let us pray that the Lord will move upon the hearts of many parents and young people in this conference to respond to this call.

The balance of about $9,000, still due on the Educational Fund of $19,000 voted last year, was raised at this camp meeting. About twenty men present pledged $250 each, others gave $100, many more either $50 or $25 each, and one sister gave $500. These, with cash and smaller pledges, brought the total up to about $9,000.

It was voted by the conference to build a new boys' dormitory at Bethel. The academy students who were on the ground were active and successful in soliciting funds for this purpose. However, we are still lacking a few thousand dollars necessary to build the boys' dormitory, yet it was voted to go ahead with it and take immediate steps for raising the remainder.

Our sanitarium at Madison was well represented by the Doctors Ingersoll with some of the nurses, who furnished a booth on the grounds and gave free treatments where needed. They also gave demonstrations in the pavilion, of much practical benefit, and Dr. R. S.

Ingersoll presented the medical work in a talk at one of the sessions. Each of the departments of our work had its own special hour.

The camp meeting was indeed a time of refreshing to the colporteurs. Brother C. C. King reports: "Our regulars were in for the full time, and many of the students came in for the closing days. Special meetings were held twice daily for the canvassers, and at these meetings inspiring talks were given by the visiting Union and General Conference workers.

"Tuesday, June 24, was rally day, and many interesting experiences were then told of the Lord's providences and blessings. Brother J. W. Davis, Union field secretary, made us all glad again by his presence among us, and his timely and inspiring talks were appreciated by increasing numbers at each meeting."

Brother L. G. Jorgensen briefly summarizes his work at camp meeting as follows:

"Four public home missionary meetings were held in the big tent where topics of general interest were taken up by local and general home missionary men.

"The home missionary booth was frequently visited by the interested home missionary workers and officers of the churches. A growing interest is manifested among laymembers in practical Christian help work for relatives, friends and neighbors. The church officers' meetings were well attended and the time was profitably spent in discussing their duties and problems."

The bookstand was well patronized, the total sales for the ten days amounting to $2,291.87.

An interesting feature of the camp meeting Sabbath school on the Thirteenth Sabbath was a letter from Professor I. A. Steinel, one of Wisconsin's sons who is now in the Philippine Islands. The offering given that day was for the work in the Philippines and amounted to $539.82. There were 985 present to enjoy the Sabbath school in its various divisions, and many late comers arrived after the count was made.

A keen interest was manifested in all of the young people's meetings and work. The majority of those baptized were young people. A goodly number enrolled to read their Bibles through, and for the other courses offered through the Missionary Volunteer Department.

One meeting in the big tent was given to the consideration of the Missionary Volunteer work, with special emphasis on the Reading Courses. Seventy-five sets of books were sold and many orders were taken for those who could not be provided for at that time. The meeting was preceded by a forceful, earnest sermon by Elder Guthrie at the eleven o'clock hour on "The Salvation of Our Youth," which begins in the home. The home may and should be the strongest power for saving our children and youth.

The work of the children was well cared for under the direction of the Sabbath school department, with Miss Flora McChesney as leader in the primary division, and Mrs. F. R. Thornton in the kindergarten. There was an average attendance of about seventy-five in both divisions. The primary children gave $22.53 toward the assistance of the native workers in South America, whom the South Wisconsin Juniors are supporting.

About thirty persons received the ordinance of baptism at camp meeting, seven of whom were a result of Elder Gaede's recent effort at Watertown. They now have a church of about twenty members there.

The attendance at the camp meeting was variously estimated, but perhaps the nearest correct was that at least fifteen hundred of our people were there a part or the whole of the time. Those present did but very little running around, but gave, on the contrary, their close attention to the meetings, and a general spirit of devotion pervaded the camp.

Do You Have It?

There are about three hundred families who do not have the Review and Herald, even to read. Does this mean you? Here is what the Review has in store for you for fourteen months, beginning during the month of July. The Review is waiting to come to your home and give you this information. From week to week the Review keeps its readers informed regarding the missionary activities of the church. The vast missionary enterprises are reported regularly by our contributors, who are in all parts of the globe. Their articles are illustrated many times with original photographs, made especially for the Review. Our missionaries tell, not only the progress our work is making, but of conditions in the field—the customs, habits, religious beliefs, the trend of thought of the people to whom they are bringing the gospel.

The Home Department of the Review is filled each week with articles of profit and practical benefit to every member of the home. There are many suggestions of economies found in this department, which if followed would save sufficient to pay the subscription price of the paper. The great departments of our work, such as educational, publishing, medical, bureau of home missions, religious liberty, home missionary, Missionary Volunteer, regularly report their work through the Review. Some of the ablest writers in the denomination contribute their best to this paper. Our missionaries in all parts of the world report to the Review. Our officials, General, Union, and local, write for it. The Review is the paper which every believer needs.

Now is the time to renew your subscription. Take advantage of our Seventieth Anniversary offer, fourteen months for $2.50. This offer is good for new subscriptions or renewals, but is limited to our Seventieth Anniversary month—July, 1919. Help reach the South Wisconsin Review goal of 662. Send your subscription or renewal at once to the office at Madison, Wis., 260 Washington Bldg.

Did It Pay?

A few months ago a home missionary convention was held in the city of Detroit, all the churches uniting. Friday and Sabbath were spent in studying the theory of missionary work. It was suggested that all go out on Sunday and try to put into practice the things which had been taught in the convention. Some hesitated, as they had never tried to sell papers or books. Some said, "It can't be done. People won't be bothered on Sunday." But about fourscore people went out Sunday morning with our small books and magazines. An experience meeting was held in the afternoon which lasted for two hours, and time could not be given for all to relate their many and varied experiences. One brother told of starting by visiting his neighbor and selling him a Marked Bible. When he returned home about noon he found the two girls reading the little booklet and looking up the texts in the Bible. One of these young ladies was at the camp meeting this year and was baptized. At the present time she is out in the field selling "Our Day" and plans to be in school this fall. Having received the message herself, she is taking it to others. No one can tell the amount of good which may come as the result of this little pamphlet. Many instances have already come to us of those who have been brought into the truth through reading Marked Bible. This is a wonderful little messenger of truth and we should scatter it broadcast. If we are faithful in sowing the seed, the Lord will water it and see that it brings forth fruit. Do you suppose this brother will ever regret having spent this Sunday morning in missionary work? Do you suppose he is still working? Yes, we know that he is, and he, too, is planning to give his whole time to this noble work of taking the printed page to those who are hungering for truth. There are many more in this field who should be making this their life work. Can we not all use a large number of this little booklet, Marked Bible? The tract society has a good stock on hand and will be glad to give your order prompt attention. The price is one dollar for ten, postpaid. We do not always see the results which we wish to see from our work, but now and then instances come to our attention which cheer our hearts and give us a new determination to do our duty. The Lord has set us as a watchman in Zion and will hold us responsible for souls unwarned.

Conference Work

Brother C. F. Colton, who has served in this Conference as field missionary secretary, is now getting ready to move to his new field of labor in North China. The work made progress while he was here and many canvassers are now out in the field doing good work. The committee has invited Brother C. R. Morris to take up this work and he has already entered upon his duties. All mail intended for the colporteur work should be directed to C. R. Morris, Spooner, Wis.

It was the testimony of nearly every one who attended the camp meeting at Ashland this year that this was the best meeting we have ever had. The Spirit of the Lord was present in our meetings to convict souls, and a number gave their hearts to God for the first time and are going home to live out the faith they have received.

We were favored with excellent help from the Union as well as from the Scandinavian Department. Professor Howell from Washington made us a flying visit and all were glad to hear his encouraging report from the Educational Department.

Services were held in the English and Scandinavian languages at the same time. Elders Brodersen, Lewis Johnson, G. E. Nord, and H. P. Neilson were with us to help in the Scandinavian work and also assisted in the English. The attendance was not quite as large as the previous year.

The tract society, under the management of H. W. Johnson, assisted by H. E. Moon from the Illinois Conference, did a splendid business. The people took a large amount of literature home with them to use among their neighbors. Eighteen were baptized as the result of these meetings, and we feel that a decided forward move was made in the conference work.

Arrangements for the summer's work were made and the following companies were selected: Elder J. M. Hoyt, assisted by N. C. Peterson and V. R. Hillman, will conduct an effort at Hudson. Elder F. A. Wright, assisted by Bryan Robinson and G. Herwick, will conduct an effort at Iron River, Wis. Miss Lucene Wright, who has lately come to us from West Michigan, will assist Brother Wright part of the time in the tent effort and the remainder of the time will labor in Superior. We shall have another tent effort at Grantsburg conducted in the Swedish language, with Brother W. A. Schebo in charge, assisted by C. L. Burke from the Broadview Seminary. Miss Leffler, who has recently come to us from Iowa, will assist in the work here.

Our people will be very anxious for the success of these efforts, and I trust that many prayers will ascend to the throne of grace for these brethren that many souls may be brought to the truth.

J. J. IRWIN

A Call to China

Some time ago an urgent call came to this Union for a worker for China, and I was asked to accept this call, and will probably leave North Wisconsin about the first of August. It is with sincere regret that I leave the many friends and the book work here. I appreciate very much the cooperation of the workers, and thank the colporteurs for their friendship and kindness. To them the Master says: "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."

I ask that you pray for me as I go to my new field of labor. I hope to meet you in the great gathering day.

Of Interest to All

The large committee selected at the recent conference held at Frankfort is appointed to meet for final selection of the academy farm, July 13-15. We are allowing ourselves these three days to look at every prospect that has been favorably suggested. The members of this committee are Elders W. T. Knox,

Wm. Guthrie, C. S. Wiest, and Brethren J. V. Moore, J. J. Fellow, L. Harris, and Chas. Hutchinson. We truly hope and pray that the right location may be found for this important school. Now, brethren, just as soon as this location is selected we can go right on to build, if we have the means. But, we cannot go ahead, even in the laying of the foundation, without knowing that we have sufficient to finish it. Let us all, therefore, give immediately as much as we can, so that we may have in the treasury as much as $15,000. C. S. WIEST

Muncie

Sunday evening, June 29, we began our meetings in this place. The subject, "The Skeptic Silenced," drew a full house, and we had the privilege of telling them that God knows the end from the beginning.

It seemed for a time that we were going to be defeated in getting a lot for our tent and a place to live, but we finally secured both in one day. We have the best lot in Muncie for our tent, located in the center of the city one block west of the courthouse. Thus far we have had three meetings and a good audience each night.

I had the privilege of baptizing six more in Ft. Wayne before leaving there for Muncie. The Ft. Wayne company became very dear to us, and it was hard to leave them. The Sunday before we left we had a very enjoyable outing in the park, when the members presented us with a gift, showing their appreciation of our service while among them.

If any of the HERALD family desire to have my book of sermons on why I left Rome and joined the Adventists, they can have the same for thirty cents. The profit goes to help pay my expenses.

Notes of Progress

A building program is soon to be inaugurated at Hartford City. The schoolroom needs to be enlarged, and already pledges to the amount of $436 have been given. It is planned to have the improvement completed in time for the opening of school in September.

The Kennard church is doing special work with the Liberty magazine. The members of this church who live at New Castle are circulating this good publication in that city.

It has been more than a month since our spring camp meeting. At that time sixty of our people signed the Bible year enrollment. Were you one of the sixty, and if you were, have you been as faithful to this means of grace as you planned to be? If not, pray over it. Remember that prayer and the word go together. "Through the word, God talks to us." "Incline your ear, and come unto Me," said God; "hear, and your soul shall live." Isa. 55:3. God's word instructs in what we are to believe, and directs us what we are to do.

"How precious is the Book divine,
By inspiration given!
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,
To guide our souls to heaven."

The Marion church property has taken on a much brighter appearance. It has just been given a new covering of white paint. Surely the brethren will enjoy their worship there much better.

In a communication that we received recently from Wabash, our hearts were gladdened by a report of helpful neighborliness. One of their members was sick, so the afflicted one was taken to the home of a brother in Christ and cared for. This is true home missionary work, for we are admonished to "do good to all men, especially those of the household of faith."

Recently I visited one of our companies and held Sabbath school and a short after service in a home where one of the members had been confined to her bed for eight weeks. Oh, how much that service was enjoyed by that sick sister. Surely those of us to whom God gives an abundance of health need to be more thankful for His great goodness to us, not forgetting in our prayers those less fortunate.

Have you celebrated the Seventieth Anniversary of the Review and Herald, by sending in your subscription? If you have, you are now ready to go to another and ask for his subscription. Won't you do it?

O. B. HALL

News Notes

Brother Joe Hickey, who recently returned from France, was in the office Sunday. He plans to enter the canvassing field immediately.

Brother C. P. Hall, who has been assisting Brother Maris, has started to canvass again. In his first week he reports $175 worth of orders. He expects to get his scholarship in three weeks.

Sales for the colporteurs, week ending June 28, were the largest in the history of this conference, amounting to $2,596.70.

Excellent reports have come from the tent efforts at Lafayette, Crawfordsville, Muncie, and Montpelier.

Elder C. L. White has been called from Lafayette to Michigan on account of the death of his father-in-law. Elder Wiest took charge of the meeting Sunday night. From there he went to Berrien Springs to attend the Union Conference Committee meeting.

Brother T. A. Goodwin and family left Sunday for a two-months' trip to California.

Miss Gettys and Ingels, in company with Elder Wiest and family, visited the Northfield church Sabbath, July 5. The spirit that prevails at this church is worthy of mention. Each member is active in the work, and this activity is evidenced by the fact that every member is a subscriber to the Review and Herald. Their church building has recently been papered, and a spirit of good fellowship exists among the brethren.

Miss Shepard is at Berrien Springs, in the interest of church school teachers for Indiana.

North Michigan Conference

An Excellent Report

Brother W. I. Coleman has broken all previous records. In 140 hours he took 122 orders valued at $574.

or an average of $4.10 an hour and earned a scholarship in less than two weeks. Sister K. Schmidt has earned a scholarship and is working for another. Brethren Butterfield and Schmidt have almost a scholarship, and Sisters Grove, Coleman and Salchow are doing well and will soon have no more fears about getting to school this year. Sisters Alice and Bessie Wery and Edith Murner just started and have sent in a report of one week's efforts. The Wery sisters have an average of over $2 an hour. Brother Freeman's record shows that he has canvassed 633 hours and took 259 orders valued at $1,257.40, or an average of almost $2 per hour. Brother Peterson put in 526 hours and the Lord has given him 356 orders valued at $1,200.75. His average is $2.28 an hour. Brother Wm. F. McPherson has worked 357 hours, averaging $2.44 an hour, making a total of $872. Brother R. A. McPherson has an average of $2.46 and a total of $992.25 for 402 hours' service.

Should Seventh-day Adventists put an advertisement for work in the HERALD when the Lord holds out the wonderful opportunities of the colporteur work? None of our people need longer look for work in North Michigan. All they have to do is to decide to work for God and humanity and get into the work. The above record is proof enough for any calm thinking man.

Brethren John and James London and Harry Pierce and Sisters Schanch, Thompson, and Tinker will soon be at the battle front assisting the above band to give the last message to the people of North Michigan. Do you want a part in this work and a part with God's people hereafter? If so write to 315 West Twelfth St., Traverse City, Mich.

HUGH STEARNS, Field Secretary

News Notes

Elder Nethery attended the Lake Union Conference Committee meeting July 7 in Berrien Springs.

Elder Chancy Wood was in the office recently.

Brother L. M. Petersen has been visiting friends and relatives in North Wisconsin.

We are pleased to see so many new subscriptions to the Review and Herald coming in.

Miss Rasmusson has been attending a teacher's convention in Milwaukee.

Brother Stearns was in the office last week. He reports that this is the most prosperous year our colporteurs have ever had. Watch their reports.

Brother Chubb, our office assistant, is taking his vacation, visiting friends and relatives in Rhodes.

Elder Nethery conducted quarterly services in the Eastport church the last Sabbath in June.

We trust all our people are planning to attend our camp meeting to be held in Cadillac, August 21-31.

Some time ago we reported that Elders J. C. and F. J. Harris and Brother Howard were going to hold a tent effort in Evart. They were unable to secure a location in that place so have gone to Coleman. For the same reason Elder Piper and Brother Bogar have gone to Frankfort instead of Kalkaska.

Brother Emerson, one of our colporteurs, was in the office last week. He has returned to his home at Carp Lake where he will remain about a week.

West Michigan Tent Efforts

A great deal of care has been exercised in planning for the evangelistic efforts to be conducted in West Michigan during this season. Six tent companies will be in the field and they will be made up and located as follows:

Battle Creek—Elder A. E. Serns assisted by Brethren Blake, Mallernee, and Schram, and the membership of the Battle Creek church.

South Bend—Elder F. W. Johnston assisted by Freburn James and Mrs. Buzzell, Miss Krome and Miss Clymer.

Elkhart—Elder Orva Lee Ice assisted by Brother B. M. Butterfield and Mrs. Butterfield, Misses Fleetwood and Harding.

Belding—Brother B. F. Williams and wife and Brother H. O. Butler and wife.

Bloomington—Elder S. B. Horton assisted by Brother Clarence Elliott.

Sand Lake—Elder Byron Hagle assisted by Mrs. Hagle and Brother Robert Boothby.

We entertain strong hopes that these efforts will prove fruitful in bringing many souls to a knowledge of the truth. We bespeak for these tent companies the best of assistance and cooperation on the part of the churches where they are located and those that are near by.

E. K. SLADE

Gobleville

Rally Day at Gobleville was observed in an interesting manner June 7.

The chapel was prettily decorated with festoons of colored crepe paper, and a profusion of flowers and greenery. Our membership of forty-three were all in attendance, also a number of guests.

Our aim is to make our Sabbath school department still stronger, and better able to win more souls to Christ during the coming year.

Our Sabbath school is held at 1:30 P. M. during the summer months, and we will gladly welcome all neighboring Sabbath schools at any time to any of our services.

The tent effort at Ottawa began June 7 with a good attendance, and some of the people that were at the first meeting are still attending, and manifest a good interest. With the help of God, we expect to see souls saved in the kingdom as a result of this effort.

Our hearts rejoiced that we had the privilege of baptizing fifteen persons in the Fox River as a result of the Sunday night meetings during the winter months.

We need the prayers of God's people for the work at Ottawa that many may decide for this precious truth.

Business Notices

WANTED AT ONCE.—Single man to work on farm by month, one who understands general farm work. Church privileges. Wesley M. Felton, R. F. D. 1, New Lothrop, Mich.

WANTED.—Experienced Seventh-day Adventist automobile repair man, one with some knowledge of electrical equipment preferred. V. L. Howard, 94 Glen Urban Ave., Washington Heights, Battle Creek, Mich.

FOR SALE.—Cooky and cocoanut macaroon business. Splendid opportunity for Sabbath keeper. Healthy climate. Altitude over 5,000 feet. We clear over $50 a week. Reason for selling, going to Loma Linda to take Medical Evangelist Course. Address R. Grose, 3021 Walnut St., Denver, Colo.

WANTED.—At the Madison Sanitarium, Madison, Wis., some one for second engineer's work, or an apprentice in the mechanical department. In answer please state if experienced and wages. Madison Sanitarium, Madison, Wis.

COOKING OIL prices have gone sky-high. Prices quoted to us this week will make it necessary for us to get $25 a case for Wesson's Oil. We have on hand four 5-gallon cans of Wesson's which we can sell at $12 a can. When this is gone the price will be about $13. We have bought on a contract 50 cases of Mazola oil which we can furnish at $22.50 until the 50 cases are gone. The prices will probably be much higher on our next shipment. If you wish any of this lot of 50 cases, get your orders to us early, and take advantage of this special offer. Snowdrift is so high we are not quoting prices at present. Everything seems to point to higher prices. East Michigan Tract Society, Holly, Mich.

College Items

The College and Union Conference boards met July 7 and 8. The treasurer's report for the fiscal year ending June 30, which was rendered by President Griggs, showed a small operating gain last year in spite of the heavy losses due to the influenza epidemic. Among the actions taken by the College Board were plans to provide cottages for the young married people desiring to attend the College, a more adequate system of fire protection, and a special course for Bible workers.

Dr. Cooper made a business trip to Chicago last week, purchasing textbooks for some of the new departments.

The wheat on the farm is ready for the threshers. Several teams are kept busy hauling coal from the village, where we have five carloads on the track.

Miss Bess Dexter and Mrs. Clarence Buzzell visited at the College last week.

There is an attendance of 67 at the summer school at present, and a number are arriving from day to day.

Professor and Mrs. Summers are studying music in Chicago with several prominent teachers.

Miss Lenna Simkin is spending her vacation in the East with her parents.

The employees of the College and the summer school students celebrated July fourth by holding a picnic in the park at Berrien Springs on Tuesday, July 8. A splendid dinner was served by the College, after which speeches were made and several recitations given. Features of the afternoon's enjoyment were a baseball game between the carpenters and mechanics, and swimming and boating on Lake Chapin.

An Important Matter

Herewith we are publishing the latest reports of the Review and Herald circulation in the Lake Union Conference. These are interesting figures and we trust all the readers of the HERALD will carefully note them. As yet none of the conferences in this Union have reached their goal although East Michigan is nearing the top.

The good old Review should be in the home of every believer in this great Union. It is impossible to keep pace with the rapid progress and new developments of the message without the Review. Seventy years ago this month our good church paper came into existence and it has been a faithful messenger and cheerful guest in the homes of thousands of believers. We trust that every one who does not have access to the Review and Herald every week will take advantage of the special offer now being made by the publishers and become a regular subscriber. By sending $2.50 to your tract society secretary before the last of this month you will receive the Review for fourteen months; it makes no difference whether you are already a subscriber or not. Even though your subscription does not expire for three or four months you can take advantage of this special offer this month and the fourteen months will be added to your present subscription.

If you know of those in your church who are not subscribers, please call their attention to this special offer and urge them to subscribe. The Review and Herald should come first in every Adventist home. Every one who can afford the daily paper can afford the Review. I trust that every faithful member will be a booster for the good old Review during the remainder of this month.

Converted by a Magazine

"I thought I would write a few lines to let you know that I am still devoting a few hours a week to selling your magazine. I first became interested in the truth a little over two years ago by reading the Watchman. I subscribed for it a few days after receiving the copy from a friend and am still receiving it every month.

"I was baptized about two months ago and I am now looking forward to the baptism of my husband in the near future. When I realize how that one magazine brought me out of darkness, I know that it can do the same for others. That God may bless this branch of the threefold message is my earnest prayer."

The Call

(Tune: "Juanita")

Far o'er the waters comes a tender pleading call;
List to its accents, Christian brothers all,
Millions in the darkness bowing down to wood and stone—
Hopeless, helpless millions sigh and cry and moan.

CHORUS

India, pleading India, who will hear thy plaintive plea?
India, bleeding India, Jesus died for thee.

Up from the Southland comes another pleading cry—
Dark Afric's millions hopeless, helpless lie.
Land of darkest nighttime, without hope or joy or peace,
Sing of that sweet bright time which shall bring release.

CHORUS

Africa, darkest Africa, who will hear thy plaintive plea?
Africa, darkest Africa, Jesus died for thee.

Unnumbered millions in far China's stricken land
Eagerly watching for the outstretched hand.
Land of Buddha's blighting, of Confucius' hopeless night,
Gospel truth is lighting with its banner bright.

CHORUS

China, helpless China, who will hear thy plaintive plea?
China, hopeless China, Jesus died for thee.

Here in the homeland, with its friends and loved ones all,
Thousands are waiting, heeding not the call.
Volunteers are needed—quickly train and arm for fight.
Never more unheeded—we will send the light.

CHORUS

Jesus, precious Jesus, we will do or die for Thee.
Jesus, blessed Jesus, here am I, send me.
