Our Educational Program

The readers of the HERALD will be glad to learn something of the work done by the Lake Union Committee and College Board in their latest session. We came together March 9 and continued our session through the week. Much time was given to the consideration of problems connected with the finishing of the third angel's message.

Consideration was given to the Fifty-cent-a-week Fund for missions, and also to the training of missionaries to fill the many, many calls that are coming to us from the foreign fields, as well as the need of our home field.

It seemed to be the consensus of opinion that one of the great needs at the present time is facilities for the training of workers. This has been our theme for the past two years. Improvements have been made in our academies and College. In spite of all that has been done the demand for more facilities and better equipment is constantly being pressed upon us. The larger facilities and greater agitation has brought more students into our schools and has made the demand for equipment still larger.

The decision reached something over a year ago to equip Emmanuel Missionary College for only four hundred students has been conformed to in spite of the need for larger accommodations. The aim on the part of the College management to turn back to the academies the lower grade of students meets with much favor. Hence there will be no call for more improvements beyond what is necessary to take care of four hundred students in Emmanuel Missionary College. Provision for students below the twelfth grade will be made as rapidly as possible in the academies in the different parts of the field and preference will be given in the College to those students who have passed the twelfth grade, or who have reached the age where they wish a brief and thorough training to fit them for service. It is the aim of the management to have Emmanuel Missionary College doing college work to a large extent at the earliest possible moment, the main object of this school being to turn out finished product ready for the mission field, and for active service in the homeland.

The vote taken at the Lake Union Conference was that the Lake Union endeavor to train forty workers per year during the next four years. This will mean that 10 per cent of the total number of students in Emmanuel Missionary College should be graduated each year, hence the necessity of these being the more mature students. Our enrollment this year, up to date, is four hundred and twenty six, and our new buildings are being rapidly put into commission for training in the different lines of service. We are pleased to say that the last of these new buildings—the normal department—will soon be ready for full use, and I am sure this will be greatly appreciated by all the conferences as it begins to develop the much-needed teachers in the church-school line. We desire the interest and prayers of the Lord's people that we may be able to produce the results and to accomplish the aims in the minds of the conference officials, and aid in the building up of this institution. Our great objective is and has been the training of workers for the finishing of the third angel's message. To this end we solicit your children for church school, academy, and college, trusting that when they have finished their college work you will gladly give them to the Lord for the heralding of the third angel's message.

As the Committee viewed this great, yet unfinished work, considerable anxiety was expressed with regard to the raising of the funds still necessary to complete work now under way at the College. Several methods were proposed, but for different reasons were rejected. The last plan proposed was that the Union Conference officials, namely: the president and secretaries together with the College faculty and students be entrusted with the task of raising the money necessary to finish the work now under way, the sum being somewhat in advance of $25,000. This is in addition, of course, to what is now in the hands of the local conference officials to be raised. You may, therefore, expect to hear soon that you are to have a visit from the president of the Union Conference together with his corps of laborers, the great object of which will be to complete the task in which we have been engaged for the past two years. We shall hope to meet our people in the spirit of Christ, and shall set before you to the best of our ability the privileges of the Christian in his daily living; the needs of the world for the gospel of Jesus, and our duty to the youth of our land. We solicit your prayers that this may be done in the spirit of the message. We shall hope to make our appointments largely in churches where union meetings can be held, and we invite the members of churches in the surrounding territory to join with the church where the meeting is being held in a great rally for the finishing of the Lord's work. Watch the HERALD for announcements!

Bible Chautauqua in Chicago

An unusually keen interest is being manifested in the Bible chautauqua that will be held in Orchestra Hall, beginning with the lecture which Elder A. G. Daniells will give on "Has Christianity Failed? An Answer to Bolshevism," on Tuesday night, March 23. This is a new venture in that an admission will be charged.

Orchestra hall has a seating capacity of 3,000 persons, and is located on the principal boulevard of the city. Instead of taking up an offering to help meet the expenses, tickets are being sold. Our people are cooperating in this feature of the effort in a most encouraging manner by purchasing tickets for themselves, selling tickets to friends, and supplying to the conference officials the names of those to whom invitations to attend are being sent.

On the first day of the sale of tickets, a total of $790 worth were purchased. Brother H. H. Todd, the treasurer, is busily engaged in supplying the demand, and also has the assistance of the box officials where the chautauqua is to be held.

The meetings are being extensively advertised through the newspapers, by cards, handbills, and other methods.

Ten different speakers have been secured, the others besides Elder Daniells being Elders W. A. Spicer, E. E. Andross, C. B. Hayns, W. W. Prescott, C. S. Longacre, B. G. Wilkinson, J. C. Stevens, J. G. Lamson, and M. H. St. John.

Chicago Missionary Volunteer Officers' Institute

The institute was conducted in the Humboldt Park church beginning Friday night, February 27, and lasting over the following Sunday night, February 29.

While this meeting was announced as a Missionary Volunteer officers' institute, general invitation was extended also to all church elders, church school teachers, and conference workers to attend. While conditions seemed to prevent a full attendance, we were glad many could be present. Another encouraging feature was the interest manifested by our people in the city. Quite a number of visitors were present at every meeting.

Although we had to crowd a full program into so short a time, those discussing the various topics assigned presented them in a very practical way. After all, the practical plans are the most workable, and the fact that the practical side of our work was emphasized, we believe contributed largely to the interest and success of this institute.

Aside from our local workers present, there were in attendance Professor C. A. Russell, Professor G. R. Fattic, Professor H. T. Elliott, our new Union Missionary Volunteer secretary, Miss Edna L. Walker, M. V. secretary of the Illinois Conference, also Miss Meleen, educational secretary of the Illinois Conference, all of whom took active part on the program. Of our own workers who took active part on the program were Elder Clark and Miss Hazel Klose.

Professor Russell led out with an interesting study on the need of leadership in our work and how such may be developed. He also presented the topics, "City Problems" and "Social Plans." A very keen interest was shown on the part of all in the discussion of these topics.

On Sabbath morning Elder Clark preached a stirring sermon on "Our Denominational Young People's Problem," emphasizing this further in a most interesting and practical study Sunday morning on "Soul Winning."

Professor Fattic presented the topics, "Educational and Devotional Features," and the "General Plan of Organization," bringing in the relation of our educational and Missionary Volunteer departments.

Professor Elliott discussed the work of the "Organized Society," also "Society Programs."

Miss Hazel Klose read an excellent paper on "The Church School as an Agency in Promoting Our Junior Work."

Miss Walker gave a timely talk on the importance of reporting. This feature was emphasized as being essential to the progress of our work.

The matter of our 1920 goals was briefly presented by the writer, and Sunday evening the hour was given over to a Question Box, Professor Russell in charge.

The keynote of this convention was a greater consecration to our work, and a deeper interest and a greater effort in soul-winning.

We earnestly solicit an interest in the prayers of our people in behalf of our young people and their problems in this great city.

Walderly Notes

Dr. Ingersoll of the Madison Sanitarium came to Walderly last Thursday, remaining until the following Sabbath evening, when she left for Chippewa Falls. During Thursday afternoon and all day Friday the doctor was busy giving the students and teachers physical examinations.

Mr. George J. St. Clair stopped off at Walderly a few hours last week to visit our school and his two children, Ethel and Robert. Brother St. Clair seemed very favorably impressed with our academy and the work his children are doing here.

The Walderly Echo will come out about March 25. We are pleased to report that the subscriptions have now reached three hundred. It will be necessary for all of our friends who wish to be charter subscribers to the Echo to send in their names right away. The goal set by the students and teachers is four hundred, and the motto of the Echo staff is, "Walderly knows no failure."

Brother George Baker of Belden, Minn., recently visited Walderly in the interest of his son Paul, a church school pupil here. Brother Baker is canvassing in this conference near Ashland.

Two bath-rooms are being placed in the basement of Birch Hall, the boys' dormitory. These rooms will afford very respectable and convenient accommodations, not only for toilet but also for treatments where patients will not have to be exposed to the cold after being "roasted and soaked" by hydrotherapy.

Brother C. R. Morse came to Walderly last Wednesday in the interest of the canvassing work. His talks in chapel were appreciated. He organized a colporteurs' band while here.

Which Will Be First?

To the Church Elders and Leaders: We are now prepared to send out the correct statement of the church membership and the quota for each church on the Academy Fund. We are also giving credit to each church for the funds sent in since the closing of last year's business. These reports are taken from the church report of January and February. You see that not very much has come in thus far this year. I am getting a bit anxious. Shall we start the boys' dormitory as soon as the weather will permit, or must we hold back on account of lack of funds?

If you could all come in direct touch with our boys at the academy, you would agree that they are worthy of a good building by next fall. We cannot expect boys to live in shacks another winter. Indiana must rise as one man and build a comfortable place for the training of our boys. Already, a goodly number are definitely preparing themselves for the work. They are having a colporteurs' band, the members of which are studying for a proper training for this work. Next summer will find some of these going from house to house spreading the printed page of the third angel's message.

From time to time I shall keep you informed concerning the amount of money received. At the camp-meeting, we shall have a special educational day. At this meeting we shall place in your hands the amount raised by each church. Which church will be the first to raise the full quota? It can be yours. Make it possible.

One important step, perhaps the most important, is to organize your church into working bands. Devise means to raise money. The women might sew, make quilts, etc. Then both men and women can sell books, or perhaps some other articles and save the profits for the academy. The two-per-cent is another method by which we can raise money, for it has been voted that we will resort to this fund for the building up of our educational work. Lay aside every week a certain portion toward your $15 and you will be surprised at the amount of money brought into the church.

Let us take courage and put forth the proper effort in raising our quota. Let us be honest to our God, and a true friend to our boys and girls in Indiana. I am looking to every man, woman, and child to do his duty.

Among the Churches

The Marion church has just finished a two weeks' campaign, led by Elder C. L. White, and as a result of this special effort, several have been added to the church. The campaign closed in an all-day meeting Sabbath, March 13, in the interest of the Home Missionary Department. Big results may be looked for as a reward for the organization planned and consecration experienced by almost the entire church membership.

Union church, Indianapolis, always a well organized and well equipped church, has gone a step farther toward efficiency. Recently a men's brotherhood club was organized and it is planned to have regular programs, at which the very best talent obtainable will discuss seasonable topics. This we feel sure will serve to cement still more closely, in the bonds of Christian fellowship, all who are privileged to hold membership in this organization.

Recently I have been permitted to call on most of the membership of the Hartford City church. It is a pleasure to visit these brethren. Brother Miles is rapidly recovering from a sickness that forced him to spend some time at the Wabash Valley Sanitarium. Brother and Sister Gettys are getting well settled in their new home, having recently returned to Hartford City from Lafayette. Brother Leach and wife have moved to Frost, Ohio, and they will be missed by the church.

Everywhere I go, I hear good words for our weekly church paper. So many improvements have been added to the good old Review that believers in the third angel's message can ill afford to be without it. Events are shaping themselves swiftly for the last great crisis. Are you trying to do without the help of the Review and Herald? It will support and instruct you in many an hour when help will be sorely needed. It is only $2.50 per year. You need this paper.

Report of Labor

Since my last report I have visited some of the churches in my district. At Glenwood I held meetings for two weeks. It was a real pleasure to meet with this company. About twenty years ago Elder Hebner and the writer held a series of meetings in this place and raised up a church. Some of these have fallen asleep in Jesus. The living are faithful. I was with this church for quarterly services when officers were elected. I have reasons to believe that this church will continue to grow.

I met with the Decatur church in quarterly service. The next meeting, a union meeting, was held at Sand Lake. Some from Howard City and Cedar Springs met with us. Elder Piper and Brother Waller gave most helpful instruction which was appreciated by all.

Wednesday, March 3, I met with the Howard City church in the interest of religious liberty. Each family present signed for Liberty for a year, and they took fifty copies for distribution. Two were added to the church at this time.

Sabbath, March 6, I met again with the Sand Lake church. Only a few were present, but they took a lively interest in the meeting, and took a club of Liberty. I found the little company at Cedar Springs active in missionary work. They take a club of Signs, and are placing our literature in a rack at the station.

Truly the time has come to scatter our literature like the leaves of autumn. Come, brethren and sisters, take hold of the work and hasten our blessed Saviour's return.

West Michigan Notes

Wanted—Three hundred consecrated men and women in West Michigan to take subscriptions for the Watchman Magazine. A nice prospectus is now obtainable for this work, for fifty cents. You will enjoy it, besides having eighty cents commission on each yearly subscription. Just think—twelve message-filled documents going into the home—a cash proposition with no delivering to do. If you are interested, write the West Michigan Tract Society, box 55, Grand Rapids, Mich.

You will want the splendid book, "Ministry of Angels" by Elder I. H. Evans, to study in connection with next quarter's Sabbath-school lessons. It comes in cloth binding at 75 cents, paper at 35 cents, postpaid. Order now.

The field day in connection with the district meeting at Elkhart last Sunday was a splendid success and greatly enjoyed by all those taking part. In just a short time we solicited over $22 more than the cost of the literature given out. The donors were presented with one of our splendid World's Crisis Series books.

The church at Berrien Springs College is paying for 1,200 subscriptions of the Present Truth in an endeavor to place a yearly subscription—24 numbers—in every home in Berrien County. They are also using hundreds of copies in personal house-to-house work.

Grand Rapids church is organized into seven districts for the weekly missionary prayer meetings with a leader appointed for each district. They are using Present Truth and Signs weekly in their work, and the enthusiasm is running so high that one of the companies has had to swarm for want of room at their meetings.

"Let them have a part to act, and from week to week let them bring in their reports, telling what they have experienced, and, through the grace of Christ what success has been theirs. If the missionary meeting were a meeting where such reports were brought in by consecrated workers, it would not be dull, tedious, and uninteresting. It would be full of intense interest, and there would be no lack in attendance." —"An Appeal to Our Churches," p. 16.

Oshkosh

After a few months of physical labor last summer to recuperate tired nerves, I was asked to make Ashland my field of labor. I began work here with the Harvest Ingathering Watchman about November 15. While securing funds for missions, I made many friends, and found a number of persons with whom I am now studying privately.

For some time the members have engaged in the systematic distribution of Present Truth. This, with the personal work done during the winter, has developed a good interest among the people, and they are asking when and where we hold our meetings. This question we are not ready to meet for the lack of a suitable place of worship, and consequently we cannot make the progress that we could if we had a suitable place for our services. This situation has caused us to seek earnestly for a proper place, and we believe that God, in His providence, has provided for us the right place. It is a very neat and substantial church building, now owned by the Universalists, which stands on a corner four blocks west of the center of the city, in a very good neighborhood. The present value, as estimated by Elder Bristol, is about $15,000, but we can secure it for $4,000.

We feel that this is the very place we ought to have, and the church, numbering about twenty active members, is bending every energy to the task of raising the money. As we are all poor, we are compelled to lean heavily on God, and this we are doing by asking Him to help us in any way that He sees best, for we are unable to do this in our own strength.

We are encouraged by the instruction found in "Gospel Workers," pages 431-436. We are told that "a house of worship should be built wherever a company of believers is raised up, to be a memorial for God and the Sabbath." As this is the Lord's work, we are assured that He will help us.

The prospect of a good harvest in the city, is also a great encouragement to us. We solicit your prayers, sympathy, and cooperation, and earnestly long for the power of the Holy Spirit in our work here.

Bethel Notes

Mr. Harvin P. Evans, advocate manager of The Student Movement, made us a visit March 8. The Bethel Students took up his proposition enthusiastically and secured enough subscriptions to provide two pages for Bethel in The Student Movement.

Friday morning, March 12, Miss May Bell, Missionary Volunteer secretary of the South Wisconsin Conference, opened our Missionary Volunteer convention by a stirring study on soul-winning, encouraging each one of us to win souls wherever we are. In the school, the home, or abroad,—wherever we may be.

To open our vesper service we sang "I've found a Friend," Professor Russell's favorite song and also a favorite with the students.

From the thought in Zephaniah 1:14-18 and 2:1-3, we were admonished to be ready for "the great day of the Lord" for it is near at hand and we must get our will and everything on God's side for all depends upon the right action of the will. "Many will be lost while hoping and desiring to be Christians." God's Spirit was surely in our midst and we had an excellent social service. We all thanked God for His blessings to us.

"What hath God wrought" was the subject of Professor Russell's talk in our Sabbath service. We were encouraged by the many instances cited which showed that God does great things for His people who trust in Him. All were urged to do their part in giving this message to the entire world and thus hasten Christ's coming.

Sabbath afternoon the Y. P. M. V. convention was continued, and the following subjects were presented and discussed: "The Membership of a Missionary Volunteer Society," by Miss Grace Maas; "Why Be a Missionary Volunteer," by Miss Ada Allen; and "Programs" (Gazette Specials), by Miss Grace Bisbee.

Evening after Sabbath, Professor Russell spoke to us for a few minutes on the fickle love of the world which we must guard against. True friendship and love are honorable and we as Christians must cultivate these. We were then favored by a recital by Miss Gift and Miss Wangerin which gave us a greater love for music.

Sunday night we had the last meeting of the Missionary Volunteer convention. The following subjects were taken up and discussed "Duties of Missionary Volunteer Officers," by A. W. Perrine; "About My Father's Business," by Edgar Shultz; "Duties of Members," by Miss Mable Sorenson; "Dangers of Light Reading," by Clarence Nelson. Professor Elliott then spoke to us on "Enlisting and Training the Last Army of God," and again we were encouraged to train and go out into the harvest fields of the world to do something for Christ.

We are looking forward eagerly to the colporteurs' institute at Bethel Academy beginning March 19. We are now receiving rich blessings from the spring week of prayer.

Madison Sanitarium Notes

Brother Chas. E. Dessain has nearly completed the repainting of all the rooms and halls of the sanitarium. It very much improves the appearance.

Mr. H. Wm. Heller of Marshfield, who was recently operated on for goiter, has recovered and returned to his home.

Mr. Andrew Rosen, who was operated on in our institution, has recovered and joined our working force.

Prof. George Taylor, who was under the doctor's care at our sanitarium for two weeks, has returned to his work at Bethel Academy.

Mrs. Mary Howell of our Conference office has found it necessary to lay down her work on account of her health, and is taking a few days rest and treatment with us.

We are glad to welcome as a new member of our sanitarium family Miss Florence J. Potter who comes from Winifred, South Dakota. She has had part of her nurses' course at the Chamberlain Sanitarium and comes here to finish.

Three of our nurses, Miss Adell Baker, Miss Bertha Antisdell, and Miss Marie Schaefer have recently left to take special work in Chicago before finishing their course with us.

On March 16, we were glad to have a visit from Elder J. J. Irwin, president of the North Wisconsin Conference. He conducted our morning worship with the patients.

We are interested in receiving an inquiry from two young ladies of the Atlantic Union Conference who desire to come here for the nurses' course because of the fact that they can get more experience in surgical nursing here than in other institutions where they had contemplated taking their course.

News Items

Milwaukee (English) Sabbath school secretary writes that on a recent Sabbath out of an attendance of 100 members 64 were able to report daily study.

Have you ordered your books for the Sabbath School Training Course? Send through your librarian or direct to tract society for "Testimonies on Sabbath School Work" and "Stewardship and Missions." You will need the Worker for the outline of study.

Missionary Volunteer conventions will be held at Bethel March 11-13 and at Milwaukee March 19-21.

Elder A. F. French called at the office on his way to Baraboo, Wis. He planned to return to Bethel for the Missionary Volunteer Convention.

East Michigan Conference

Office Address, Holly, Mich.
President, Wm. A. Westworth

Right or Wrong

We are working hard this year to secure a complete missionary report. From General Conference president down to local church secretary we are working for this full report. The reporting system permeates our entire organization. It is an indispensable adjunct to the working out of our world-wide plans. Without reports our work could never be supervised and systematized so that a work throughout the world could be carried on. We all report. Our missionaries report. Our Bible workers report, all of our ministers report, and even our conference presidents are required to render their reports. In our entire organization only members of local churches ever think of claiming exemption in this matter of handing in reports.

Just because they do not receive a stipulated salary, some lay members think they are outside of the organization proper and need not hand in their reports. But is a salary necessary in order to make us a part of their world-wide work? Are we bound together as members by bands of gold? Is financial remuneration the one thing that makes us coworkers in this great message? Or, are we not all workers together with God? Is not any duty enjoined upon part of us enjoined upon all? Is not any feature that will make for the necessary systematizing of our great cause just as incumbent upon one as upon all?

In this reporting proposition we are either right or wrong. Either those of us in the organization who realize the importance of reporting are right or we are wrong. One or the other must be right, the conference organization or the member of the local church who still refuses to hand in his reports. Which can it be?

Dear brethren, I hope you will think this matter through. Kindly endeavor to realize what reporting means and what our work would amount to if there were no reports at all. Try to figure out how you would feel if you were in charge of some certain territory in which the work was to be finished and you never could get any reports of how the work was getting along. Try to think of reporting, not as a means of displaying what we have done, but as a matter of vital record, a means of informing the conference just how the various parts of the field are progressing in this closing work.

And then kindly consider this appeal as an invitation to you to report the work that you have done. We are looking to you to report this week and every week to the missionary secretary of your local church.

EDWIN R. THIELE

I Was There! Were You?

"I have enjoyed these meetings more than any other since our last camp-meeting." "I did not realize that such heavy responsibilities rested upon me. Pray that I may have strength to do my work acceptably." "This convention has given me a greater desire to successfully lead our young people." "Pray for me that I may become a true leader." The above testimonies are but a few of the good ones I heard at our officers' institute held in Jackson March 4-7.

The key note for our convention was sounded Thursday evening in the words of Luke 24:6: "Jesus Himself drew near and went with us." Truly, He did draw near and go with us. His presence was felt in all of our sessions. The Holy Spirit was constantly working on the hearts of those present. It was a blessed meeting we had together.

Professors C. A. Russell, G. R. Fattic, and H. T. Elliott, from the Union office, Elders W. A. Westworth and R. C. Gardner, and Brother E. R. Thiele of our conference, were present and gave us many helpful talks and practical suggestions. Prof. S. R. Haynes lead the singing.

The devotional features of our M. V. work were especially emphasized by each speaker. Sabbath was a day of dedication and consecration. Elder Westworth's morning sermon caused all present to search their lives for hidden sin. A special call,—not the usual reconstruction call,—a call for all of those to stand who would give themselves to the Lord for service, to be used wherever He sees fit to call, brought nearly all present to their feet. Our hearts were made tender as the world's crisis was pictured before us, but far more important to us was, "its call to our youth." Surely, our youth are willing to answer, not the call of fame, popularity, wealth, worldly pleasure, but, the call of lost souls. Sabbath afternoon five young people came forward and gave themselves to their Saviour for the first time.

After the Sabbath, workers, leaders, secretaries, delegates, and friends all gathered at the home of Brother Schuster, and the Jackson young people entertained. Jesus said. "Brother, be of good cheer," and we endeavored to follow this injunction.

Sunday morning, after our devotional hour, it was announced that we were going "to learn to do by doing." Our program called for a discussion of Missionary Volunteer activities. Many had excellent short speeches prepared. These were all saved for future use. We had the "discussion" but it was with the people of the surrounding community. As the result of one hour's discussion right out in the field, over 100 books were sold, 500 papers were given away, several magazines were sold, 20 missionary visits were made, and practically 500 personal invitations were given for Elder Gardner's Sunday evening meeting. The thirty-six participating in the work were so enthusiastic over their success that 100 more (all there were to be had) books were bought that they might sell them on their way home. The experience meeting that followed the field hour lasted more than an hour. One young woman—not knowing the price of "Epidemics"—sold two for fifty cents each. She returned the other 25 cents after she ascertained the price. It will avail nothing in the future to tell these young people that they cannot sell books,—and on Sunday, too,—for they have accomplished the (supposedly) impossible. Let us have more field days.

Sunday afternoon was our closing session. "For their sakes I sanctify Myself," prayed Jesus. At the close of this institute we all determined to set ourselves apart for the salvation of souls and to press on faithfully until the end.

A VOLUNTEER

God Is Willing and Ready to Bless

Brother R. D. Cobb of the Riverdale church writes: "The influenza epidemic has passed. Mrs. Cobb and I put in a good share of three weeks taking care of our neighbors who were sick. While others were afraid to enter into the homes of the afflicted, we did so without fear. We did not have the influenza. We visited some wealthy homes and some where abject poverty existed. We did everything we could to relieve suffering and our services were greatly appreciated by the rich and poor alike. We found many opportunities to speak comforting words and tell people of the love of Christ. God is willing and ready to bless willing hearts."

One Dollar for Fifty Cents

According to the parable of Jesus the servant that received one talent buried it in the ground. When his master returned the man was called a "wicked and slothful servant." Those that had put their talents out to the leaders received commendation and a reward from their master. Talents buried in the ground do no one any good. Money has merit only when used wisely. We hear that a dollar now is worth only 50 cents or less—but it is still worth 100 cents on each Dollar Day. We are not asking for two dollars in order that we may have the full value of one. Let us make it Dollar Day March 27.

Adelphian Academy Notes

The academy boys have been having an experience recently cutting wood. It has been necessary to use wood to help out our fuel supply. Just now we are rejoicing over the arrival of a car of coal.

We have had considerable sickness in the dormitories this winter, but at present all are well. Many students have been called home on account of sickness among their relatives.

Two new Grinnell pianos were purchased last week. One of these was placed in the chapel and the other in our music studio. Work in the piano department will be made much more convenient by the completion of three new music rooms into which we have just moved.

Traps and drums were purchased recently by the students for use in the orchestra.

At a recent board meeting it was voted that immediate steps be taken for the erection of a sanitarium cottage.

Elder J. M. Wilbur, our conference medical secretary, is making his headquarters with us.

A series of lectures on "Better America" have been given at the academy for the past few weeks.

A class of nine, that will be graduated, are busily planning their commencement week.

Items of Interest

We are very sorry to announce the death of Sister Ray Mead and of her father, of St. Charles, from pneumonia. The funeral was held Tuesday, March 9.

Orders are rolling in for large clubs of Liberty Magazine. Has your church sent in its order? This is the magazine to send to your friends, or the business men of your town to show them why we stand for religious freedom.

We are glad to report a good canvassing band at the academy. Brother Flick attended their band meeting Sunday afternoon, and eleven students have definitely decided to go into the book work this summer.

Have you your Sabbath School Teachers' Training Course books for this year? The course began March 1, but it is not too late to order the books along with the Worker and take the course. If you are a teacher you cannot afford to be without these books—"Stewardship and Missions" and "Selections from the Testimonies on Sabbath School Work." Price, postpaid, 75 cents.

Brethren Flick and Harrison spent Sabbath and Sunday, March 13 and 14, in Detroit with our canvassers there.

The meetings held at the academy during the spring week of prayer proved to be beneficial. Many of the students consecrated themselves to the service of the Lord.

From Our Mail Bag

The following extracts taken from letters received from our church-school teachers are full of optimism and courage. It cheers our hearts to know that they are happy in their God-given work.

Miss Trueblood writes: "School is going fine. I like the work better every day. We have started our Bible Year. Sixteen of us are reading. The children are very enthusiastic over it."

From Miss Rank: "The girls are getting along fine in their work. I feel quite encouraged because arithmetic seems to be getting easier every day. I give them a gold star each night if they have been good, on time, and for having good grades; if they fail in any of these, I give them a black zero. They surely work hard for the star."

A note of good cheer from Miss Armstrong: "Every one seems to be in good spirits. Three of my pupils have been baptized."

Miss Peterson: "You know about the surprise I told you they were going to give me. Well, they made me a new porch and steps, and a new table for our bookcase—surely this is an improvement. We have some children who do not come to school, but desire to be members of our Junior Society. We call them "Home Department Members." They send out papers and do their reporting. I have about finished the teachers' reading course. I will send the children's names, for they have finished their course, too."

Quoting from Miss Hendrickson: "We are through with our primary reading course, and are learning the Morning Watch verses. This spring we are going to have missionary gardens. There is so much joy in service for the Master, isn't there? I can truthfully say I enjoy my work, and my desire is to see my children in the new earth."

From Miss Hill: "My children have been unusually good. They have a few goals to reach and stars to get, etc. That always seems to help. Certainly I do enjoy my work, especially when everything runs so smoothly."

Miss Branson and the boys and girls in Springfield are working hard to make their school a standard one before the year is over. Nine of these pupils were not absent during this past six-week period; eleven not tardy, and five were neither absent nor tardy.

From Florence Puels: "The girls are sewing, and what they are making will be sold at a sale, and this will come back to aid us in our equipment fund. I am very anxious for its success. I have finished the second of the reading course books, and before long I shall complete the Manual."

From a burdened teacher: "I have four boys in the school who are not yet responsive to spiritual things. Do pray with me that before the school year is over they may cast their lot with Jesus."

Pray that the Lord will continue to bless these faithful workers who are "engaged in the noblest work any man or woman can undertake."

In the December tithe report, published in the HERALD of Jan. 21, 1920, the Freeport church should have been credited with $46.11 tithe, $31.80 two-per-cent, and $10 for missions. By mistake the Freebury company was credited with this.

"Just do your best. It matters not how small—
How little heard of—
Just do your best—that's all,
Just do your best. God knows it all,
And in His great plan you count as one,—
Just do your best until the work is done."

Obituary

HAUGHEY.—Myrtle A. Wing was born in Pittsfield, Ill., Sept. 8, 1865, and died Feb. 13, 1920, aged 54 years, 4 months, 5 days. She had been in ill health for some time and was not strong enough to gain the victory over the severe attack of influenza. She obtained a high school education in Pittsfield and taught public school a number of years. Sept. 14, 1892, she was united in marriage to A. C. Haughey. To this union one son was born. In 1893, she accepted the message of Revelation 14, was baptized and united with the Springfield Ill., church and continued faithful until death claimed her. She was active in missionary work, taking special interest in the youth. She leaves to mourn, a husband, one son, one brother. Funeral service was conducted at the home, and we laid our sister to rest in the Oswego Cemetery, there to await the call of the Life-giver.

The March issue of the Medical Evangelist in a direct way exposes the fallacy of placing confidence in drugs and patent medicines for the alleviation of human ill. It ought to be a regular visitor to your home. The subscription price is sixty cents a year. Send in your subscription today to The Medical Evangelist, Loma Linda, Calif.

Hinsdale Sanitarium News

Miss Zada Hibben returned from her trip to Nashville, Tenn., last week and gave a splendid report at the young people's meeting Friday evening. She told of the Polk Street Settlement work and of several of the other enterprises of the medical missionary volunteers all of which was very interesting and inspiring. The Madison School seems to be doing what many other institutions should be doing, encouraging workers to enter the cities for cafeteria and treatment-room work.

Mr. Geo. E. Nichols, one of the patients at the sanitarium, gave a splendid piano recital Monday evening, March 8. On Thursday evening Mr. Wm. Ryan of Chicago gave one of the best stereopticon lectures we have had in a long while. His subject was "Touring Ireland."

Thursday evening, March 11, a number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Paulson to celebrate their twentieth wedding anniversary. They were married in Mexico twenty years ago. Brother Paulson remarked that he had been married three times. When called on for an explanation, he told of the three different ceremonies and services necessary in Mexico in order to make one wedding.

Evening after the Sabbath, March 6, Zechariah Colin of Chicago, was married to Mrs. Eva Andrews of Highlands, Chaplain J. G. Lamson officiating. They will make their home at Harvey.

Dr. O. M. Hayward of Reeves, Ga., made the sanitarium a short visit last week.

Dr. Olsen spent two days at the Columbia Union Conference sessions being held in Columbus, Ohio, returning March 14.

The new dining-room was opened for use March 15. The additional room was very much needed as the tables have been crowded recently.

The completion of the new business offices made it possible for the Chaplain's office to be vacated by the cashiers and bookkeepers, and Professor Lamson moved his office back from his residence to his former quarters next the lobby of the main building.

Mrs. Cole and daughter of Mt. Pleasant, Mich., who have made splendid recoveries from surgical operations returned to their home this week.

Mrs. J. G. Lamson has now so far recovered that she is spending a part of the time at the sanitarium each day.

The sanitarium board is giving earnest consideration to the erection of a nurses' home, and definite decisions are expected this week. The plan most favored will provide for about one hundred nurses, besides schoolrooms, parlors, etc.

The sanitarium greenhouses, under the able management of Mr. A. C. Graefe, are providing flowers for many of the sick rooms and will have an abundant supply of foliage and flowering plants ready to beautify the premises as soon as the weather permits.

Broadview Theological Seminary

OUR SLOGAN—FOR A BROAD VIEW OF SERVICE

The enthusiasm of Broadview field day of February 19 has not abated. Each succeeding Sunday finds a large number of the students out in the surrounding cities with "Epidemics." This book sells readily.

Professor John Knudson recently spent a week in the South, visiting his parents at Keene, Texas. He tells us that he found several prospective students who will join the representatives from the Southland at Broadview next year.

Brother Gus Anderson and wife are in Kansas City, Kan., on business.

On the afternoon of March 6 the Reverend D. Nyvall, president of North Park College, gave an address, which he delivered in the Swedish language and which was of profit to all.

During the chapel hour on Monday, March 1, Brother C. A. Russell gave an inspiring talk in his genial style. He also spoke to the students at two of their rhetoric classes.

On the evenings of February 28 and March 6, the literary society programs were in charge of the Swedish and English departments. Special interest was manifested in the work of these departments.

Last week President H. O. Olson attended board meetings in Chicago and Berrien Springs.

We were greatly favored by the visits and chapel talks of Brethren G. E. Nord, August Anderson, Steen Rasmussen, L. C. Metcalf, Paul Campbell, E. C. Townsend, and C. V. Leach and his sister, Miss Hazel V. Leach.

The girls of the domestic science department exhibited their ability in the culinary art last Monday, when the department conducted an auction sale. Their fellow students and teachers were ready purchasers.

Monday, March 8, proved to be an exciting day at Broadview. The question, "Are you going to the debate?" was heard on every hand until 2:10 P. M., when six of the students of the advanced rhetoric class participated in a lively debate in the chapel on the subject, "Resolved, That self-support is profitable to the college student."

Mr. L. C. Metcalf conducts the weekly rehearsals of the Broadview chorus on Monday at 7:30 P. M. Thirty of the young men and young women will go from the Seminary to Orchestra Hall, Chicago, to assist in the international chorus of two hundred-fifty voices, which is to be a feature of the musical program that will be given in connection with the forthcoming Seventh-day Adventist Bible chautauqua.

Miss Ruth Carmichael, of Grand Rapids, Mich., was the guest of her sister over the week-end.

Tuesday last revealed the mental standing of the B. T. S. students. They received their grade cards.

A piano from the Baldwin Company and an American Library Bureau librarian's desk have recently been added to the school equipment.

Dr. Edgar J. Banks of the University of Chicago delivered a most instructive illustrated lecture on "The Seven Wonders of the Ancient World," Saturday evening, March 13.

On March 15 the local board of the Broadview Theological Seminary met to make final arrangements for the erection of the new ladies' dormitory.

Union Conference Religious Liberty Office

By an action of the Union Executive Committee and through the courtesy of the Chicago Conference the headquarters of the religious liberty secretary will be at 812 Steger Building, Chicago, Ill., after April 1.

Owing to the many activities of religious and patriotic organizations which will affect the principles of religious liberty, it is necessary for us to initiate and conduct a very large program; and I bespeak for our secretary the hearty cooperation and prayers of our brethren throughout the Union, which I am sure will be accorded.

Brother H. H. Rans, formerly of the South Bend Branch Office, now manager of the Canadian office, writes: "We are planning to move to Oshawa this week. You will be interested to know that our plans for the new building are going forward rapidly. We have taken advantage of the good sleighing, and now have 700 yards of gravel on the building site, besides several car loads of lumber. Our building will be of brick, and this will be coming in before the snow goes away. The brethren and sisters in Canada are rejoicing over this new move, and I believe will rally to its support when the plant is in full operation."
