A Tribute

To One Who Loves His Fellowmen

"There are men that time but mellows as it ever onward goes;
There are hearts that carry fragrance as the
fragrance of the rose;
There are greetings that are warmer for the
snowy, frosted head;
There are memories we shall treasure e'en
till memory has fled.

"There are faces time has furrowed, where
are joy and sorrow blent;
There are feet that ne'er grow weary when
on deeds of kindness bent;
There are souls that bid defiance to each
wordly, selfish creed;
There are men we love to honor for each
thought and word and deed.

"There are those who are as sunbeams as they go their daily round.
They are worthy of remembrance, for but seldom they are found.
So I write this humble tribute, though it needs a worthier pen,
To a prince of nature's moulding,—one who loves his fellow men."

Broadview Institute

We are very sorry that the accompanying picture of the colporteurs at the Broadview Theological Seminary arrived too late to be in our Colporteurs' Special.

Of all of the sixteen institutes held in this Union there was none more interesting than the one we had with our foreign students at the Theological Seminary. Professor Olson, the principal, was very kind to us in

The Strangers Within Thy Gates

The everlasting gospel, including the three angels' messages, is to be preached to "every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people" in all the world before the end comes and before the blessed Lord can say "well done good and faithful servant." In the Lake Union Conference are represented, as on the day of Pentecost, people out of every nation under heaven, and as firm believers in the soon coming of our Saviour we also believe the words from His own lips that "this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations, and then shall the end come." Our Lord can not come, the end can never come until this work has been done. And since this gospel is to be preached in all the world as a witness unto all nations, the more than thirty-five million representatives from these nations in our own land must hear this gospel that many of them may believe and be saved. But how shall they believe in Him and on Him of whom they have not heard and "how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach except they be sent?" How can we send preachers unless we train and develop them?

This the people of the Lake Union Conference have felt a burden to do and have in the past shown their real interest in by their liberal attitude towards the Broadview Swedish Seminary, where young people are trained for work among the Swedish nationality, and the Swedish Department appreciating the help and encouragement it has received, has consented, together with the Lake Union and the General conferences, to establish a department for the training of workers in all nationalities except the English, German, and Danish-Norwegian.

The General Conference has promised $24,000 towards a new school building with dining room, kitchen, store room, laundry, and living rooms for at least eighty students. The Lake Union Conference and the Swedish brethren and friends have put themselves under the burden of raising the remainder, which will be over $40,000. By faith the work of construction has already begun. The cost of the room with these conveniences will be a thousand dollars or more. How many of the LAKE UNION HERALD readers feel impressed to give a thousand dollars towards this worthy cause? It will cost about sixty dollars to furnish a room for two students. How many rooms will you furnish?

This is one of the most effectual ways to hasten the coming of the Lord and to quickly finish the work at home and abroad. Kindly fill in the following pledge card, stating how much you can give, cut out and send either to the Broadview Swedish Seminary or G. E. Nord, 4221 N. Hamlin Ave., Chicago, Ill.

An Important Matter

All Christian parents, and especially Seventh-day Adventists, should be awake to the responsibility resting upon them in the matter of educating their children.

Our children are a heritage from the Lord and it is through their education and home training that it is possible for us to largely shape their lives in both the present and future.

The prophet has said, "Behold I and the children whom the Lord hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the Lord of hosts, which dwelleth in Mount Zion." Isa. 8:18. This being true, we cannot but feel the importance of giving them the advantage of a Christian education. It is to this end that we have established our church schools, to supplement the home training.

The present amendment proposed by the Wayne County Civic Association, has for its objective the closing of all sectarian, church, and parochial schools, holding that they are un-American. We resent any insinuation that our church schools are in any sense or to any degree un-American and believe we can say without fear of evidence to the contrary that Seventh-day Adventists are as loyal Americans as are to be found in our great republic.

But believing in our God-given rights of civil and religious liberty, guaranteed to us by the constitution of the United States, we feel it our duty to oppose the proposed amendment and to carry on a campaign of education against it. Through the press and leaflets sent out, there will be brought to your attention the importance of aiding in the work of defeating the proposed amendment.

Will you not, my brother and sister, lend your influence to this work?

A Change

At the Lake Union Conference held in January at Battle Creek, it was decided to invite Brother W. A. Mallernee of Battle Creek to join the conference working force in North Michigan as home missionary secretary. Elder Chancy Wood has for nearly two years held this position. This announcement may come as a surprise to many. After due consideration and counsel with the brethren, all felt this change advisable. This will leave Elder Wood free to devote his entire time to the ministry and evangelistic work in the field.

For sometime, we have felt the need of securing one or two more ministers for our field. By this arrangement, Elder Wood, who is well acquainted with our people and the field, will be free to give his entire time to ministerial work and I am sure the Lord will continue to bless his labors.

Brother Mallernee, while a young man, comes to us well recommended. He has had a good experience in other lines of the work, having for sometime done excellent work as leader of the young people's department in Battle Creek church.

I am sure that I shall not be disappointed when I assure Brother Mallernee that he will have the same loyal support and hearty cooperation in his work that you have given to Brother Wood.

Brother Mallernee expects to move his family to Petoskey and be ready to begin his labors with us the first of June.

All matters pertaining to the home missionary work should be sent to him at the conference office address.

A Plea to Our Youth

A crisis is upon us. The love of pleasure and worldly wealth is demoralizing and shattering the ranks of our young people. The eyes that should see a world ripe for the harvest are inflamed with the dazzling glare of mundane attractions. The ears that should hear the pleas for help that come from across the sea are stifled with the din of a pleasure mad world. Satan with his drag net is ever at work and in his hauls he often takes in some of our young men and women.

It is high time that we awake and shake off the shackles of worldly pleasure and love of ease, dedicating our lives to the giving of the gospel to a perishing world. What hope of the future have we if we live for the gratification of self? Let us look beyond this life of toil and consider the reward that is offered to those who live to bless others. To be safeguarded from the temptation of the world, our whole life must be absorbed in Christian activity.

The cause of God needs young men and women of strength and determination who are not afraid to face the hardships of foreign mission life. From Africa, India, China, South America, and the islands of the sea, come urgent pleas for some one to come and give them the light of the gospel. Many have been waiting in darkness for years, expecting a worker to bring them the glad tidings. They have waited because we have not had the qualified young people to send to them. How long will we retard the work of God? There are many of our young men working in the shops of the city who should be proclaiming the message in the lands of heathen darkness as well as the homeland. The tragic needs of the poor unsaved sinners should make an impression on us that would eclipse every worldly ambition.

God has given us talents to use in His service, but many are lending them to the devil at what they consider a high rate of interest. Some day God will ask us to give an account of the manner in which we have used our talents. It will be a happy day for us if we can say that we have lived and toiled, giving our time, strength and ability—all to the glory of God. What joy will be ours when we see the radiant faces of men and women whom we have through our influence saved from eternal death. How does twenty thousand dollars look to you in comparison to a soul saved from destruction? It is a tragic pity that a little money appeals more to some of our youth than the salvation of souls. If we could only see things in their true light, how small and unattractive the wealth and glory of this world would appear. We do well to look ahead. The time of trouble is about to engulf us. Wealth and pleasure will vanish like a snowflake under the glare of the tropic sun. Only the souls of those redeemed by the blood of Jesus will be saved. Everything else will be destroyed. Why not work for that which is enduring?

We are in a crisis. There is a great shortage of qualified men and women to fill places of responsibility in the Lord's work. We need ministers, canvassers, and Bible workers in this conference. The Foreign Mission Board is perplexed because it cannot obtain the much-needed workers for mission fields. I appeal to the young men and women of North Michigan. Volunteer for service. God expects you to accept the task He has assigned you. Ask Him to make plain to you what is your duty and then do it cheerfully whatever the cost may be. If you are not prepared for service, decide right now to obtain a Christian education. If it appears impossible for you to secure a Christian training, seek God for advice. In the meanwhile take advantage of every opportunity that comes to you. Write me about your plans for entering the Lord's work or securing a preparation for it. Perhaps I can aid you.

Attention, Sabbath Schools

It is now time to place your order for the Memory Verse cards for next quarter. Nearly every quarter some of our schools go without these cards because the order is placed after the supply has been sold. We have just received a letter from the publishers stating they cannot secure a larger supply than has been coming to them so we trust our Sabbath schools will get these orders in as quickly as possible. Price, five cents per set.

The Sabbath-school quarterlies for the next quarter are now ready.

Camp-Meeting

By the time this reaches the readers of the HERALD it will be only a little over three weeks until camp-meeting commences.

The conditions which prevail in the world at this time tell us plainly that the end of all things is right at hand. Anciently God's people were commanded to meet three times a year in their annual convocations. None were excused.

As we see the commotion, strikes, and unrest which prevail throughout the world, we know that we shall not have many more opportunities to gather in our annual camp-meetings. Then let all begin to plan to be at the first meeting and stay until the close.

We should allow nothing to hinder our attending for we read from the spirit of prophecy, "Our camp-meetings are to promote spiritual life among our own people. It is important that the members of our churches should attend our camp-meetings."

Let us come to the camp-meeting and bring the children and young people. Let us begin to seek God that He will open the way for us to attend the camp-meeting. I quote from the servant of the Lord: "Let all who possibly can, attend these yearly gatherings. All should feel that God requires this of them Come, brethren and sisters, to these sacred convocation meetings, to find Jesus. He will come up to the feast."

Some say it costs too much to go, and it would be better to not go and thus save the money and give it to help the cause. Here is what the Testimonies say about this reasoning:

"Some will say, it is expensive to travel and it would be better for us to save the money, and give it for the advancement of the work where it is so much needed. Do not reason in this way; God calls upon you to take your place among the rank and file of His people. Strengthen the meeting all you possibly can by being present with your families. Put forth extra exertion to attend the gathering of God's people."

The camp-meeting this year will be held on the Fairground at Madison, June 24 to July 4.

German Work in North Chicago

Mrs. Ochs and I arrived in Chicago the tenth day of March to take up work among the German-speaking people on the north side. We left all our relatives and friends behind, but we are glad to say that we have been made to feel at home in our new field of labor. The work is one, and we are all one in Christ Jesus.

I began Sunday night meetings in the church shortly after my arrival. These meetings have been well attended all the way through. Sunday night will be the last meeting. The effort will not have been in vain. Four who were in the valley of decision when the meetings began, have yielded to the Master's call, and were baptized a few weeks ago. One family that stepped out of the Lutheran Church gave $300 tithe. One lady who was formerly a Catholic paid $30 tithe the very day she was baptized. Surely the Lord is working upon the hearts of the people. June 5 we expect to baptize two more.

The church has been helping in the Orchestra Hall effort. The lectures that we have heard there have been an inspiration to us and they have given us new hope and courage in the finishing of the message, and we believe they have aroused an interest in many who will be willing to come to the different efforts this summer to hear more of the truth.

Because of the shortage of tents it has been decided to pitch but one German tent this summer. We will pitch this, however, twice. We expect to begin the first series of meetings June 6. As these tents are being pitched for the purpose of preaching the gospel, should we not as workers in the different parts of the field unite our voices to ask God to give us a large harvest of souls?

From the Field

It was my privilege to be at the sanitarium Friday night, May 21, and to speak to the sanitarium family. I was very much pleased with the excellent report rendered by the young people's society. They are doing good work in the distribution of literature, visiting the sick, etc. Sabbath morning I left for Monticello where Brother Williams has continued his labors from last summer's tent effort. We had a large gathering of the believers. They came from Honey Creek, Monon, and Idaville. We had all-day meetings, preaching in the morning and afternoon, and after the afternoon service five persons were buried with their Lord in baptism. Brother Williams has done an excellent work in this part of the field. During the summer's effort he was assisted by Brother Bish.

Workers are now being called to Cicero to prepare for the camp-meeting. We have every confidence of a very large meeting. Let us all pray most earnestly that the Lord will be with-His people at this time.

Favorable Conditions Needful to Growth

In my window stands a flower pot in which is growing a geranium. It has been there a long time, yet it seems to grow no larger. It seems to have little vigor and the flowers that bloom on it are few.

As I sit and look at this representative of the plant world, my mind goes back a few years to a scene in a far western state. I see another geranium growing beside a house, and that plant, instead of being a weakling is large and strong, covered with flowers.

Each is a geranium. More care has been given the weakling in my window than was ever given the one that grows outside. Why is this so? It is the surroundings and the atmosphere. My potted plant sits where no sunshine reaches it, and when the cold winds of winter come the artificial heat is not conducive to proper development. The other plant grows where the sun always shines, where the frost never comes, and the air carries just the right proportion of moisture.

As I consider these plants, I think how like our Adventist families they are. Those families that fail to surround themselves with the Christian influence that comes from our books, magazines, and periodicals, are very much like the little stunted plant in my window; but those strong followers of Christ who can always be depended upon to carry their end of the load, are usually found growing in the sunlight of these happy conditions.

And remember, dear parents, that your children cannot develop in the shade. Fail to provide sunshine in the form of good reading, and some of these days they will have slipped from the truth we love. There is no better reading than the Review and Herald. You and your family will grow in the message if you read it each week. The price now is $2.50. After July 1, the price will be $3. Four hundred dollars in forty days! "Too big a job," said John Lazy. "It can't be done," said Mary Doubter. "We'll try," said all of Mr. Worker's boys and girls, and when they got busy, others caught the spirit and now the record shows $402.75 in twenty-eight days! "H-o-w d-i-d i-t h-a-p-p-e-n?" asked Fred Lazy, May Slowbody, Frank Easy, and Jane Nohelper when they heard the news. "I'm surely surprised," said George Wakingup. "Guess I'll try my luck, too."

All the bands are divided into three groups—"Winners," "Tryers," and "Donothingers." Already 19

Bands are "Winners," 29 have joined the "Tryers," while two are still with the "Donothingsers." Surely everyone of the "Tryers" will hop over to the "Winner's" side this week and we hope the "Donothingsers" will wake up and jump high out of the hole. Although we have passed the $400 mark, every band should make its goal, and then we can lay shingles—$2.75 (overflow) on the Shingle Fund already. Let every band do its part.

One hundred and ninety-one Juniors have earned $1 each, 17 have turned in $5 each, while one has passed the $10 mark. There are only nine more working days. We hope every Junior will reach the $1 goal. Mr. Dunn's carpentry class has nearly completed the boys' dormitory which will be displayed at camp-meeting.

Notes From the Field

The Lord gave me $49.50 worth of orders yesterday, and the Sunday before this $46.50.

Saturday night I went to a surprise party given for grandfather, and I received orders for a little over $18 worth of our books.

One day last week, while riding on a street car, I gave a lady a leaflet describing one of our small books, and she gave me her order for it. I told her that I had some larger books that she might be interested in. She gave me her name and address, and I called on her last Friday and she gave me an order for $24 worth of our books and paid two dollars down.

As I was coming home on the car Friday evening, I met a man to whom I had sold three of our large books about a year ago. I arranged for a Bible worker to call on the family last fall, and they are very much interested. I told him of the book "Daniel and Revelation." He asked me to bring him a half-leather binding next Monday.

BARLEY.—It is with deep regret that we announce the death of Sister Louisa Barley of Marion, Ind. A few weeks ago she returned home from the sanitarium to prepare for camp-meeting. On May 20 she was out to her farm and enjoyed a pleasant day. On Friday she worked around the house, quite largely in the yard. Just before Sabbath she walked to the grocery and secured her Sabbath supplies, and that night about nine o'clock she became ill, and she became seriously sick Friday night, and quietly passed away at 1:30 A. M. Sunday morning. Her death will be a great loss to the Indiana Conference, as well as to the Marion church. Many a needy person found a responsive heart in Sister Barley. The funeral service was conducted by the writer, Tuesday, May 25.

Camp-Meeting

The camp-meeting this year for North Wisconsin will be held at Ashland on the Fair Grounds, west of the city. The street cars will run out to the grounds during the time of the meeting. To reach the grounds, go north from either station two blocks and take car going to your left, or west. The car takes you within a short distance of the grounds.

We are planning for a large attendance and I trust all are praying that this may be the best meeting we have ever held. The times certainly call in no uncertain tones for a deeper consecration on the part of God's people. A study of the Testimonies shows us that attendance at our camp-meetings is a matter of great importance and we cannot afford to neglect assembling ourselves to get in closer touch with the work.

Bring your children and your neighbor too. Let us make this gathering a spiritual feast. Let us seek God earnestly that His presence may be with us in a marked manner.

J. J. IRWIN

To Missionary Volunteers

"The object of a camp-meeting is to lead all to separate from business cares and burdens, and devote a few days exclusively to seeking the Lord. We should occupy the time in self-examination, close searching of heart, penitential confession of sins, and renewing our vows to the Most High. If any come to these meetings for less worthy objects, we hope the character of the meeting will be such as to bring their minds to its proper objects."—Testimonies for the Church, vol. II, p. 601.

"The camp-meeting is one of the most important agencies in our work. It is one of the most effective methods of arresting the attention of the people and reaching all classes with the gospel invitation."—Vol. VI, 31.

"And our camp-meetings have another object, preparatory to this. They are to promote spiritual life among our own people. . . . God has committed to our hands a most sacred work and we need to come together to receive instruction that we may be fitted to perform this work . . . to receive the divine touch that we may understand our work in the home."—Id. pp. 32, 33.

"It is important that the members of our churches should attend our camp-meetings. The enemies of truth are many; and because our numbers are few, we should present as strong a front as possible. Individually you need the benefits of the meeting, and God calls upon you to number one in the ranks of truth."—Id. p. 38.

"Make no excuse that will keep you from gaining every spiritual advantage possible. You need every ray of light."—Id. p. 39.

"In the days of Christ the people were admonished to attend these great gatherings, for the Lord saw they were necessary for the spiritual life of His people." Notice another statement. "If the children of Israel needed the benefit of these holy convocations in their time, how much more do we need them in these last days of peril and conflict! And if the people of the world then needed the light which God had committed to His church, how much more do they need it now"—Id. p. 40.

"Let all who possibly can, attend these yearly gatherings. All should feel that God requires this of them."—Vol. II, p. 600.

These surely are very impressive statements. They should be weighed heavily by each of us as we are making plans for attending our North Wisconsin camp-meeting June 17-27. As Missionary Volunteers, let us avail ourselves of this one more privilege. Let us finish working our plans, and be present from first to last. Let us seek the Lord earnestly that our own hearts may be ready to receive and to pass on the blessings that are in store for us. This should be the best camp-meeting ever held in this conference. Without question this will be true in proportion as we pray for its success and in proportion as we are determined to work for souls before coming and while on the camp-ground.

"You must make efforts if you have salvation at last. Come to those meetings prepared to work."—Vol. II, p. 601.

News Notes

Most of the church schools closed the past week. Good are reports coming in from all of them. A few of the churches have already hired their teacher for the coming year.

Sixteen of the churches in North Wisconsin paid over 50 per cent on their two-per-cent for the month of April. The names and per cent are as follows: Ashland (English) 93, Bear Lake 123, Bloomville 100, Chippewa Falls 50, Clear Lake 68, Conference 61, Cumberland 64, Hancock 92, Iron River 80, Jim Falls 55, Knapp 94, Orange 103, Plum City 56, Spooner 67, Superior 51, Trade Lake 87.

Elder Wright called at the office the other day and reported an increasing interest at Superior, and good results from the work that is being done.

Miss Marian Owens, who has been connected with the office for about one year, is taking a vacation, visiting relatives and friends at Berrien Springs.

Camp-meeting is to be at Ashland, June 17-27. By all means plan to be with us and get the benefit that comes from this annual gathering. Order blanks are being sent to the people in the conference to use in ordering supplies for the camp-meeting. Be sure to send in your order early.

"Rome was not built in a day but it burned overnight."

Hinsdale Sanitarium News

Mr. Albert E. Curtis of Chicago, gave his lecture "Over There and Back," to the patients at the Sanitarium, May 17 and the following Monday evening, Dr. Tarnowski gave an illustrated lecture on the "Balkans." Only three more of the stereopticon lectures in this season's course.

Elder C. B. Haynes of New York gave the ninth number on the Chautauqua lecture course last week, and as he was to deliver the baccalaureate address at the College, he remained over until the last end of the week at Hinsdale, taking a much-needed and well-earned rest.

Chaplain J. G. Lamson is at present on a ten day leave, giving addresses at several of the academies and the College. During his absence Elder Cotton is assisting in the religious services at the Sanitarium.

The second story of the new south addition is open for guests and the other floors will be ready soon. Floors are being laid in the basement also, and it is expected the graduation exercises of this year's class of nurses will be held in the new room.

The intermediate school conducted by the sanitarium held closing exercises Thursday evening, May 20, and a fine tenth-grade class was graduated. Miss Fyrn Ford and her assistant, Miss Dedeker, have accomplished a good work during the year.

The primary school also closed its work after a very successful year under the labors of Miss Hazel Klose.
