A Preparation for Foreign Service

FREDERICK GRIGGS

It is the steady purpose of Emmanuel Missionary College to meet every need of our great and growing cause. There is no movement in the world equal to the great Second Advent Movement which proclaims the end of all things earthly. This proclamation is based upon the Word of God. It long ago foretold the coming of our blessed Lord at the time in which

This instruction should involve first of all a thorough understanding and knowledge of the Bible. Christ as the center and meaning of all the teachings of the Scriptures should be so evidently set forth that there is wrought into the student's life that personal experience which gives meaning and force to all the teachings of the Scriptures which we designate as doctrinal we are now living. This good news of His coming is to be heralded to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, and it is to be heralded by those who believe in Christ as their personal Saviour and who look with joy for His coming. A prime fundamental of the Seventh-day Adventist faith is this soon coming of Christ. This belief places the believer under great obligation to give to all men, even those in the most uncivilized portions of the world, a knowledge of the Saviour and His soon coming.

Into the preparation for the life work of young men and women who believe in this message there should come very definite instruction regarding the promulgation of this good story of the soon coming of Christ.

truths. But it is one thing for a person to understand the truths of the Bible and to apply them to himself, and it is another thing to be qualified to give these truths to others. And so our courses of instruction are shaped with the definite end of qualifying the student to know and to give God's message of truth.

This work will not be closed in one portion of the world until it is closed in all portions, and the most heathen and uncivilized portions of the world, as well as the Christian and enlightened, are to know of Christ and His coming. In order that the student shall be thoroughly prepared to give this gospel he needs while in school days to make a definite study of these heathen lands and to be definitely prepared to meet the people in their conditions of life that he may minister to them most effectively. The gospel cannot be presented quite the same to any two persons or to any two races or classes of people. Our Saviour adapted His teachings to the people among whom He lived, and yet His teachings were of such a nature that they have been applicable to all men of all times and places. Likewise must the gospel worker take these teachings of Christ and adapt them to the conditions of those whom he teaches.

These considerations have led the Faculty of Emmanuel Missionary College to introduce more definite lines of study relating to the mission fields. We believe that the student should have that practical instruction which will enable him to minister to people not only of spiritual things but of physical. The missionary should be one who has an adaptability not only of heart but of mind and body that will enable him to so instruct those to whom he goes as to lift them on to a higher plane of life and living. He should thoroughly understand the principles of health. He should be able to do necessary mechanical and agricultural lines of work. He should be able to minister to the sick and to definitely aid them in their restoration to health. He should be as well informed as possible concerning the land and the people to which he goes. Accordingly classes of instruction of quite an intensive nature have been provided for India, China, Malaysia, Japan, the South Sea Islands, and Africa. These studies will give to the student an understanding of the physical conditions of the people, their modes of living, their religions and all possible information that will enlighten him concerning the people and best qualify him to go to them.

Classes will be offered in the following subjects:

Mission Polity and Methods.....	four hours
Comparative Religions	" "
History of Missionary Expansion	" "
Tropical Diseases and Sanitation	" "
Minor Surgery	two hours
Mission Dentistry	" "
Africa	" "
South America	" "
China	" "
Japan and Korea.....	" "
India	" "
Malaysia	" "
The Moslem World and the
Levant	four hours

These subjects enter definitely into the Ministerial

Course, but they may be also used as electives in any of the other college courses.

We look for many young men and women to have their attention directed to the unenlightened portions of earth as the result of the emphasis which we are placing upon them. We hope that devoted persons who have not been giving thought to college work may have the appeal for help which these dark lands make cause them to attend college this year and thus answer their call.

Religious Liberty Matters

I have been receiving letters of inquiry concerning the Anti-Church School Amendment. One question is, "Has the amendment been legally set aside so that it will not be necessary to consider its being made part of the ballot at the November election?" In answer to this, I will say that the promoters of the amendment have asked the supreme court for a writ of mandamus to compel the secretary of state to place the amendment upon the ballot, notwithstanding the adverse opinion and order of the attorney general. In accordance with this application the supreme court has ordered the secretary of state to show cause why he should not place the said amendment upon the ballot. The briefs and arguments are now before the supreme court, and it will render a decision on the subject the last of September.

In the meantime, we are going ahead with our campaign of distributing literature against the amendment just as if nothing stood in the way of its consideration on election day. In the opinion of many, the supreme court will only consider the matter of the law governing legislation by petition and will not anticipate the effect of the amendment until the legislature passes laws which will make the amendment operative. We advise our people to go right ahead with the campaign as if we would have to meet it on election day.

In regard to registration matters. Sometime ago we presented an item or two in regard to registration, stating that it would be incumbent upon all to re-register and do it before the month of August terminated. Since that time several decision and opinions have been rendered by state officials and courts concerning the matter of registration, which have brought to some minds a confused idea concerning registration.

Please note these points: Various township clerks and county officials have posted notices regarding the primary elections which will take place during the month of August. They are instructing persons qualified to vote concerning registration matters in connection with those primaries. While the primaries have to do with the nominating of candidates to be voted for at the November election and are important, still we are more concerned about the necessary preparation to vote at the general election. I understand that in order to vote at the general election in November, a new registration will be required during the month of September. However, more upon this point, namely, registrations in September will be available at the hands of the county officers before referred to. I will endeavor to secure a copy of the law governing registration and present it in the next issue of the HERALD.

Progress of the Colporteur Work

We are living "in a grand and awful time." Never before has there been such a time in the history of this world. Opportunities are unlimited for the carrying of this message to the people.

The month of July shows the largest report for a single month in the history of the Lake Union Conference. This means a great deal; it is a gain of $12,000 over July of last year. The report is $44,814.37.

The Big Week was a great success. There was one report for this week of a little more than $500 for one colporteur. The largest report we had for any individual colporteur last year was a little more than $300 for one week.

Our goal for 1920 is $300,000 for the Western Branch. There is not the slightest doubt of our passing this mark, judging from the reports that are coming in; and there will come a time in the near future when the Lake Union Conference will report one-half million dollars for a year. It does seem to me that we ought to get right at the work and finish it up.

If you will pardon a personal experience, I will tell you of my work the past week or two. I felt that it would be right for me to enter the field with my prospectus during the Big Week, and get a new canvassing experience. First I canvassed in Bedford, Ind., where I sold $4.32 worth of books per hour. Then I went to Kokomo and worked there 71 hours and sold $518.70 worth of our books, which is just $7.30 per hour. Just a word about the conditions while I was there. One day 500 men were turned out of work, and the next day 2,500 men. Most of the factories were discharging 35 per cent of their laborers.

After this experience I felt that I would like to canvass in West Michigan Conference, and in the city where our Western Branch has been for so many years, so I canvassed 24 hours in South Bend and sold $233.58 worth of books, which makes an average of $9.73 per hour.

Now, my dear reader, what I have done you can do. God will help you. One day of this experience the Lord helped me sell 8 full leather, 4 half leather, and 14 cloth of one of our large books which was $147 for the day. I have been a field secretary for a little more than twelve years. Eight years of this time I was in the South, four years in Canada and the Lake Union, and this is my best record for one day. The last 46 hours of my personal work gave me orders for $439.78 worth of books. One day of nine hours in South Bend I sold 21 of our large books, worth $117.

If you have a desire to enter the work and yet feel afraid that you will not be able to make a living for your family, let me beg you to cut loose from the world and enter the work at once for God is putting His hand to the finishing of the work and it will soon be cut short. God bless you and give you courage, is my prayer.

Missionary Volunteer Button

"M. V.! What does M. V. stand for?"

"M. V., that means Missionary Volunteer. Our denomination of Seventh-day Adventists has its young people all organize as Missionary Volunteers."

"That's interesting. Seventh-day Adventists, you say."

"Yes."

"Well, that's a new one to me. There are so many denominations in America. I don't believe I have gone to church once since I have been over here a year and a half; I don't know where I am at."

So spoke a young man from Holland who had just moved over here two years ago, and his wife had come to this country only last fall. The conversation turned to the subject of the signs of the times, and this young man expressed eagerness to read anything that he could secure upon present-day conditions.

A splendid opportunity for missionary work, and all because of the Missionary Volunteer button being in the right place. Where is your Missionary Volunteer button? If I were to meet you on the train would I see it? Let us use the Missionary Volunteer button for its real purpose. It is a sign of what we are.

Many times as I have been sitting in the street car or in the train I have seen people stare hard at the Missionary Volunteer button on my lapel. It has opened up more than one conversation for me, and it will for you. If you do not have one, get one. You can secure them from your Conference Missionary Volunteer Society, or through your local tract society secretary. But wear the Missionary Volunteer button.

An Encouraging Report

In the past few weeks I have been visiting among the churches and find a good spirit prevailing. At Antigo, where brethren Petersen and Robison are holding tent meetings, there is a good interest. The tent is well filled every night, and we look for a large addition to the church at that place. The brethren have a list of names furnished them by the people, and are kept busy visiting and holding Bible studies with these interested ones.

Brother Copeland and I visited the church at Beldenville a short time ago. The church there had been in a rather unsettled condition for some time. The work was reorganized and, we trust, placed on a better basis. The brethren and sisters seem to be of good courage and we look for a promising work to be done there.

I visited the little company at Ironwood, Michigan, Sabbath, August 14. While there I baptized three. Two of these are the result of home missionary work that has been carried on by the members. The brethren are quite active in circulating literature, and always take hold of the Harvest Ingathering work in a good substantial way. This year one of the sisters felt that if she waited until the papers were ready, she would be too busy to take up the work, so last week she went out without any papers and in two hours secured over $16. This sister does not have very much time to spare but thinks that the cause of God is more important than anything else and desires to put in what time she can in His work. The company at Ironwood is increasing in numbers and they feel quite encouraged over the prospects before them.

An Important Matter

I am much interested in the following statement: "The greatest undeveloped force in the world is the church." This being true we might also say our boys and girls are the greatest undeveloped forces in the church. If this be true, what can we do as church members toward training this enormous latent power? A number of churches this year are feeling, down deep in their hearts, what this means. Schools are being started to put these young people into working harness. Wherever this has been undertaken an entirely new life has come into the church.

Last year something like two hundred and fifty were in our church schools. All felt satisfied that much good had been accomplished, but what about the greater number not in a Christian school? The answer is obvious.

In direct harmony with our Sabbath school lessons, every reader of this article will say that every boy and girl should be in one of our schools. I believe this is possible if every Seventh-day Adventist would do his duty to hasten the finishing of the Lord's work. I trust as you read this you will stop to study this verse: "But whoso hath the world's goods, and beholdeth his brother in need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, now doth the love of God abide in him?" I John 3:17.

T. S. COPELAND

They Are Counting on Us

The financial statement for the month of July has been laid on my desk and I have been making some comparisons. I find in the matter of missions two of the churches, Hancock and Merrill, have gone over the goal of 50 cents per week per member. A number of them have reached 30 cents, and quite a number have reached 25 cents. On the whole, however, we are considerably short for the conference, but by taking hold with renewed energy I am sure we can make it this year. I trust all are preparing for the Harvest Ingathering work, which will materially increase our amount for missions.

I find that in fifteen churches there are tithe payers who believe in paying two-per-cent. Their names alphabetically with their per cent follows:

CHURCH	PER CENT	CHURCH	PER CENT
Antigo	58	Merrill	71
Ashland Eng.	72	Orange	92
Bear Lake	95	Plum City	90
Clear Lake	67	Spooner	60
Cumberland	53	Superior	50
Hancock	90	Trade Lake	93
Ironwood	89	Washburn	80
Jim Falls	67

This month the offerings for missions fell short of what it should be to make the month come up to the standard. Let us rally to this, brethren and sisters, and make the month of August and the remaining months of the year go beyond the goal so as to make up our deficiency. The brethren in the mission fields are looking to us to do our part to sustain the work. Let us not fail them.

News Items

Sister E. E. Brewer, one of our faithful colporteurs, called at the office this morning as she was passing through the city. She is of good courage, and reports having taken $130 worth of orders in forty hours last week.

We have just received a second shipment of the new book, "Facing the Crisis." Without question this is one of the best written books of the series, and contains a very definite message for this time. This is a ready seller, and one that we should circulate among our neighbors and friends. Send in your order to the tract society at once for a good supply of these. Ten or more books to one address will be sent postpaid.

Brother Thure Wiik, who has been working at Walderly since school closed, made the office a brief visit Friday, on his way home, where he will spend a few days before taking-up school work this fall.

Brother Schebo reports a good interest at Grantsburg. Here is where he had his tent last year and a few became interested in the message. He has strong hopes that we can organize a church at that place.

Brother Morris reports the canvassing work advancing, and he is kept very busy assisting different ones. Several students have already made their scholarships, and in fact all are reporting excellent success.

work. They have ordered and paid for 6,000 of the Present Truth. The city has been divided into districts and over each district there has been placed a leader, who oversees a weekly distribution of these papers. We have also received some assistance from the local newspaper. On the subject of Spiritualism, the editor gave us a very good report in a prominent place in his paper, which has a circulation of nearly 30,000.

As we look into the earnest faces that fill our tent night after night and see their sincere responses to our invitations, we are sure God is preparing many of them for the acceptance of the truth. To this end we solicit the prayers of the believers in the East Michigan Conference.

Home Missionary Notes

Although the Harvest Ingathering campaign is scheduled to begin September 1 in this conference, some of the churches in North Michigan have already begun the good work, and $15 has already been received at the office on this fund.

Every church in the conference is to have the help of some minister during the campaign months of September and October. This does not mean that the churches are to wait for the minister before beginning work, but just as soon as your papers arrive you should set to work in earnest, as the money is needed this year more than ever before.

Isolated members not regularly attending church will have to order their papers from the office here in Petoskey. Please place your order early as the supply is limited.

The writer had the pleasure of driving with his family over to visit the little company at Carp Lake, where an interesting meeting was held Sabbath, August 14. The Harvest Ingathering work was the theme of the meeting, and I am sure if all the churches in North Michigan follow the example set by the believers at Carp Lake, our goal will be passed by a big margin.

The churches at Cooks and Wilson have entered a campaign to place Present Truth in every home in their respective counties. And, by the way, the price of Present Truth has just been advanced. The following prices are in effect September 1: Price per year, 25 cents; single copies, 2 cents; 25 copies, 35 cents; 100 copies, $1.25; 1,000 copies, $10.

For the second quarter of 1920, from a conference membership of 1,061, only 310 members sent in a report of any kind. From the largest church in the conference, a church having a membership of 75, only 4 members reported. Is this as it should be? Is it pleasing to God? Did you ever see a church member

Lansing

Our company at Lansing consists of Elder Frank Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. William Bergherm, Miss Sell, and Mrs. Graham. We are now in the fourth week of the effort and the outlook is most encouraging.

We began our meetings July 18 with a full tent. Each night we have been gratified to see nearly every seat occupied, while on Sunday nights fully a hundred have had to stand. The tent is centrally located on East Michigan Avenue, which is the dividing street of the city.

At the present time we have one hundred and fifty names on our visiting list. These all seem to be very much interested and are pressing us to hear about the Sabbath question. We have promised to take up this subject next Sunday night. One very encouraging feature of our work here is the active cooperation we have received from church members, both in the line of music and in active house-to-house missionary who did not believe in reporting? If you have, you noticed this member seldom had anything to report. The church member that is really alive and doing missionary work is glad to report. Is it any wonder, when only one Seventh-day Adventist in three in the North Michigan Conference is doing anything to spread the message to those in his community, that the outpouring of the Holy Spirit is not seen in our midst?

"When we have entire, whole-hearted consecration to the service of Christ, God will recognize the fact by an outpouring of His Spirit without measure; but this will not be while the largest portion of the church are not laborers together with God."—Mrs. E. G. White.

I hope that the members of the North Michigan Conference will arouse themselves to see the need of being more faithful in doing the little acts of missionary work that lie in their reach, and to be faithful from this time on in reporting to their missionary secretary, or in the case of the isolated, to report direct to the office.

W. A. MALLERNEE

Marching Toward the Goal

What would you think of a ship sailing at random upon the great ocean with no destination in view? Tell the average man that such an act was taking place and he would be almost sure to say, "The captain of that boat must be crazy." No one would care to contradict him. A ship with no definite goal in view is of no value for it will never make port.

Men are like ships. They have certain aims in life, but often hardships and adversity cause them to lose courage and they drift with the winds as does a sail ship when caught in the terrible storms on the high seas. A few years ago I had for companions men who are commonly designated as laborers. Week after week I worked with them in the great wheat fields of the central west. Good hearted fellows they were, most of them, but they thought little of the future. When asked about their destination, they often replied, "I don't know, but I am on my way." These words often provoked a laugh, but they are not words to laugh at; for they spell failure and what is sadder than a wasted, misspent life? The underworld today is filled with men and women. Investigate and you will find that most of them never had any definite, unwavering aim in life. Men of talent and education today are menial drudges because they never decided what place they are going to fill in life and then stuck to the decision made. Decisions do not count for much unless we abide by them. Goals that are changed each week will never bring us to the highlands of success.

Men in every walk of life recognize the value of an aim or a goal. It is an essential factor to success. Jurists, educators, men of commerce, missionaries, and ministers have all had visions that they have spent years and even a lifetime in realizing.

Missionary Volunteers need a goal to spur them on, to concentrate their energies, to remind them of their duties, and to keep them sailing ahead on a definite course. First we need an individual goal. Let us ask ourselves the question, "What does God want me to be?" We will never be truly happy until we are where God wants us to be. His purpose for us may not be just what we would select for ourselves if we consulted our selfish inclinations, but we may be assured that His way is best. "I'll be what You want me to be" should be our attitude in choosing a career. Above all, we should not let selfish, sordid motives influence us in our life's work. In fact, we cannot be loyal Missionary Volunteers unless we adopt their aim, "The gospel to all the world in this generation." This is a great goal, a lofty purpose, a noble aim, for what is greater than the proclamation of a saving message to a lost world? This aim should grip our lives. It should stifle any worldly ambition, it should lead us to give our talent, our strength, our all to the service of Jesus who bore so much for us.

If we as Volunteers had a spiritual comprehension of the task confronting us, we would plead for Pentecostal power to accomplish it. We must keep our eyes on the goal for the fields are white for the harvest. By losing sight of our aim we change our course. How many of our youth today are serving the world because they lost sight of the goal that meant toil and service, but it is a service that brings joy.

Collectively, Missionary Volunteers need a goal for it unites us. It is a common task that God has called us to. In unity of purpose there is strength, for it gives harmony in action. It is our work. We are all in partnership in this great work of saving lost souls. Our aim binds us close together and it has already made it possible for us to do a great work not only in the homeland but in foreign fields as well.

May God help us all to go forward unitedly, "marching toward the goal." L. M. PETERSEN

The Cedar Lake Academy recruiting bands are doing faithful work this summer. One student reports having written thirty letters to prospective students since the close of school. Harvest Ingathering

It is now planned in the Chicago Conference to begin our Harvest Ingathering campaign for missions promptly on time, Wednesday, September 1. At this time our conference office will be closed and all the workers in the office will go into the field with the Harvest Ingathering Watchman. We are also asking every worker in the conference to cancel his appointments for this date and devote his time wholly to this Harvest Ingathering work. We would be glad to have as many of our people join us on this specific day as possible and see if we cannot make September 1, 1920, the biggest day for the Harvest Ingathering campaign that we have ever seen, and thus give us a good start toward our goal of $10,335. This goal means $6 per member. I am wondering how many of us can raise the $6 on the very first day of the campaign. Let us do our best.

One sister and her two daughters in Canada have been working four weeks in the Harvest Ingathering, and her husband told me this morning that they had raised $1,200; that the largest single donation they had received was $5. Now I believe, brothers and sisters, that if one sister and her two daughters can raise $1,200 in four weeks and the largest donation only $5, there is no reason why every person in the Chicago Conference could not raise his goal on September 1. We certainly can do it at least during the month of September. Let us make one big drive and pass our goal before September 30, 1920.

It is also planned to have a meeting in all the churches of the conference on the evening of September 1 to tell experiences and take a report of the work done. Let us remember the day and plan for the day.

"We are pressing on the upward way,
New heights we're gaining every day.

Still praying as we onward bound,

'Lord plant our feet on higher ground.'"

Our effort for the Polish people in Chicago is truly on the upward way. A goodly number of souls are nearing the door of the sheepfold, soon, we believe, to enter in and feed on the green pasture He has prepared for them. Although opposition, threats, and persecutions have been quite severe, yet the attendance on Sunday nights is good.

Our subject last Sunday was "Doing the Will of the Father," or "Obedience to His Commandments." When the people were asked how many would like to do the will of the Father, a number of hands were raised. At the close of the service a man and his wife who were there for the first time grasped my hand firmly and said, "We did not hear anything out of the way and will gladly come again." May the Lord bless these souls and others as well that they may taste and see that the Lord is good.

We earnestly ask your prayers for the Polish work in Chicago.

Tri-City Sanitarium

At a committee meeting held in Moline, Ill., August 9 the matter of closing the sanitarium was considered. It was unanimously decided to continue to operate the institution as a sanitarium.

Dr. Elliott, however, has received a call to the Melrose Sanitarium and resigned his position. It is therefore necessary for us to secure another physician at an early date to take charge of the institution. A call has been sent in through Elder Andross for a physician. As soon as returns have been received we shall be glad to report in this matter.

We are very anxious to secure a number of trained nurses to take up the work in this institution, as we hope to operate it without a training class.

The building is now being overhauled, repainted inside and out, and put in first-class condition. It will be a splendid opportunity for both doctors and nurses to make a fine showing. Under the adverse circumstances of the past six months, the institution shows a gain of $2,500. This can be greatly increased under more favorable circumstances with a full corps of workers.

A good cook is also desired. Anyone having some name to present should correspond with Elder W. H. Holden, 304 West Allen St., Springfield, Ill.

Camp-Meeting

Final Notice

If you have not ordered your tent for camp-meeting you should do so at once, so we may have some idea as to how many we are expected to supply. The rent for tents, cots, chairs, etc., is as follows: Tents, 12x14, $4; tents, 12x16, $4.50; single bed springs, or cot, 75 cents; chairs, 15 cents, or 2 for 25 cents; tables 25 cents. Lumber will be rented or sold to our people for what it costs on the ground. We can secure a limited amount of lumber only, but as the ground is high and dry, very few of the tents will need flooring. We would therefore advise that as far as possible our people get along without floors in their tents.

Be sure to bring your own bedding, as it is not our purpose to run hotel tents, and if you come without proper quilts, sheets, pillows, pillow cases, straw tick, do not expect the conference to furnish them. In fact every year we find the conference short of these supplies for the ministers' tents, and such tents as we are obliged to furnish for our visitors. If any of our good sisters have extra quilts and sheets they could donate to the conference at this time, please bring them along, as they will be greatly appreciated. Every year we have to get a few more supplies to keep the work going.

Meals will be served in the dining tent on the fair-ground, on the cafeteria plan as usual.

Camp-meeting will be held on the fairgrounds in Peoria, and no matter what train you come on, you should take the Knoxville street car to the fairgrounds.

Baggage

Do not give your baggage checks to strangers. Brother J. C. Nixon will have charge of the baggage. Give your checks either to Brother Nixon, or leave them at the bookstand on the fairground with H. E. Moon. We have made special arrangements for hauling the baggage, and if you get any other man to haul your trunk it may cost you $1 or $1.50, instead 50 cents.

Springfield Tent Company

We closed our tent effort Sunday evening, August 15, in order to ship our tents to camp-meeting, and to assist in the erection of the camp at Peoria for our annual camp-meeting. About three hundred people, in spite of the wet weather, were present to hear the closing lecture on "The End of the World."

The meetings have been in progress nine weeks, and every night the Lord blessed us with a good audience. Monday evenings were devoted to answering the questions placed in the question box, and we found them to be profitable evenings. As a result of the faithful, united efforts of our company, twenty-seven persons have taken their stand for the truth and are awaiting baptism. We have forty-two homes open for Bible studies, and many other homes are receiving literature. We praise God for what has been accomplished, and we feel that many more will, in the near future, take their stand for God's truth for today.

The total expense of the effort has been $415, and the total donations $391.80. Considering the present value of equipment bought and charged to our expense account, and the profits on our book sales, our donations have more than covered our expenses. Our sales of small books have amounted to $50.

All the lectures have been given by the writer, excepting two given by Elder M. D. Wood of India, and one by Elder W. H. Holden. Plans are being made to carry forward the work here during the winter. Miss Inis Morey and Mrs. F. G. McAlister, who have done very faithful and efficient work as Bible workers, will remain in the city to assist in the work. Brother F. G. McAlister, who has acted as tentmaster during the effort, will canvass in the city this winter. Brother H. M. Vixie, who has done excellent work in directing the music, is leaving for Emmanuel Missionary College.

We desire to thank our people throughout the field for the prayers that have been offered in behalf of the effort here, and we earnestly request your prayers for our future work.

News Notes

The Springfield Junior Missionary Volunteer Society held a Reading Course rally August 14 at which time ten certificates were granted, this making a total of sixteen issued this year. At the close of the service an offering was taken with which to purchase the new 1921 Juniors' books. The overflow will apply on the Inca Indian Fund.

When packing for camp-meeting be sure to put in your lesson quarterly, September Sabbath School Worker, Instructor, and Little Friend.

Miss Meleen left last week to attend the teachers' institute at the College.

Misses Meleen and Walker spent educational day at Danville, August 7, and reported a very profitable time.

Miss Walker left last week to spend August 21 with the company at Quincy.

Due to the extraordinary advance in the price of paper, our publishers inform us that many of our publications will be increased in price to cover this additional cost in publication. This advance in price will include much of our missionary ammunition such as Present Truth and the World's Crisis Series, however we shall be able to sell most of our literature at the old price at our camp-meeting bookstand, so we would advise our people to come prepared to secure a good supply at the present prices before the advanced prices go into effect.

When this number of the HERALD reaches our readers, we shall be located at the Peoria camp grounds busily preparing for the comfort and entertainment of our people who will attend this important meeting. We hope that all will come with a prayerful spirit and desirous of seeking the blessing the Lord has for His people at this time.

Lodi

After camp-meeting we came to Lodi and pitched our tent in a very desirable location, near the business section, and held our first meeting July 18. Our attendance has not been large at any time, averaging about one hundred and twenty-five on our best nights.

We are now giving the testing truths of the Sabbath, and the attendance is smaller; however a number are coming regularly and show a deep interest.

We are fortunate in being near enough Madison Sanitarium (about twenty miles away) to have Dr. Ingersoll and his helpers give us a health lecture and demonstration each Tuesday evening. These lectures are a real help in our work. They are greatly appreciated by the people.

The members of the church are doing all they can to make our work a success. We earnestly ask your prayers that God may give us many souls.

Muncie

On Sunday night, August 1, we closed our first effort of five weeks. Almost every seat in the tent was taken at this meeting. The next Wednesday evening we began another effort on Twelfth and High Streets. The attendance is increasing each evening. Sunday night the tent was filled to hear the "False Hope of a Second Chance During the Millennium."

Last Sabbath we received seven more new members into the church. We expect to have another baptism in the near future. Our church treasurer's report for seven months, ending July 31, shows that the total receipts amounted to $2,947.46, an average of $70.17 per member. On our quota of 50 cents a week per member for missions, we are short $47, but we shall soon pass our goal in the Harvest Ingathering campaign. We are also about $200 short on our academy fund of $15 per member. We hope to see the Muncie church pass all our goals before the year closes. There are always a few slackers in all our churches, and Muncie has her share of them, but we hope to arouse them to action.

MATT J. ALLEN

We Are Depending on You

Just five more days and our Harvest Ingathering campaign will begin. Are you ready to start promptly at that time, or do you feel that you have finished the work that has been given you to do? Suppose Jesus should come next Wednesday, would your work all be done? Have you taken the message to all in your neighborhood?

We are told that on the morning after the great earthquake and fire in San Francisco, that one of our sisters stood on the heights of the Golden Gate park, and looking down on the ruined homes beneath her, said, "My skirts are free. I have done what I could to warn them of their doom. I have visited every house in the burned area and taken them the warning in some form."

Suppose there should be a great earthquake and fire in your community and every home within a radius of three miles should be destroyed. Could you look over that ruined field without regret? Is there a voice now calling you to "go work in My vineyard"?

Our Ingathering plan, as we have been told by the Lord's servant, is ordained of God. Everyone who has ever engaged in this work will bear witness that a wonderful blessing comes to all who labor in this branch of the harvest field. Yoke up with Jesus and try this work today. He will go with you and will carry the "heavy end of the load." You will be a happier Christian if you are a working Christian. You may think this is not your work, but try it.

This year Indiana must raise $12,000. This is an average of a little less than $7 for every believer in our conference. It may be your church will ask you to reach a still higher goal. It will mean hard work, but "Must Jesus bear the cross alone,

And all the world go free?
No, there's a cross for every one
And there's a cross for me."

Make a covenant with God; promise that you will go where He wants you to go, and you will find in this service a joy and satisfaction that you have seldom felt before. We are depending on you to do your best.

Hartford City School

Last spring Hartford City held what was called "Clean-up Week." In order to encourage cleanliness in the schools and also at home, the children of the various schools were asked to write essays or make drawings about "Clean-up Week." The prize was a $5 gold piece for the best written essay or drawing from the public school, Seventh-day Adventist school, and Catholic school. From the essays and drawings which were handed in from the Seventh-day Adventist school, the judges selected the drawing of John Leach of the fifth grade and the essay of Dorothy Hayes who is in the seventh grade. The work of both was so perfectly done that the judges decided to divide the $5 between them. The essay received the grand prize of all the schools because it was so perfectly written, only one mistake being found—a comma was omitted. Dorothy's essay is as follows:

Back-Yard Sanitation and Garbage

"When people are looking for a home to buy, they do not choose the one with unsightly surroundings, but the one with a clean yard, well kept fences, and flowers.

"A dirty back yard is not only unsightly, but is the breeding place of many flies and mosquitoes. Piles of tin cans, ashes, and paper strewn about disfigure many back yards.

"The garbage also aids the flies by producing germs which cause many deaths. Let us have a more convenient place to put the garbage can, instead of just outside the kitchen door.

"We should all help clean up our homes. If this were done we would have the cleanest city in the state, and 'Hartford City would win.' May this be our motto: Clean up, Paint up, and Keep it up."

FAYE ELLIS

Look Up!

There's neither strength nor courage
In looking down one's nose;
You'll find no inspiration
In counting o'er your woes—
Look up!

When darkness gathers 'round you,
The path you can't discern,
Be guided by the sky-line,
And doubt and fear you'll spurn—
Look up!

There's strength in Christian courage;
There's light and life and hope
In looking up toward heaven,
Then why in darkness mope?—
Look up!

Look up to the blessed Saviour;
Look up to the Father true;
Look for the prize eternal;
Look for the city new—
Look up!

The Fall Council

The readers of the HERALD family will be glad to know that the Fall Council of the General Conference is to be held in Indianapolis, Ind., October 20-31. This will be an important meeting as all the presidents of conferences in America will be asked to attend and many important questions will be discussed.

I feel to suggest that the HERALD family pray earnestly for the success of this meeting. We have a great work and should lay great plans for its speedy completion.

Union News Items

Elder Wm. Guthrie made a short visit to the Antigo company in North Wisconsin and reports an excellent interest, the boys using modern means to advertise and enthusiastic methods of presenting the truth.

Meetings were recently held at the Cooks and Wilson churches in North Michigan. Elders Guthrie, McConaughy and Elliott were in attendance from the Union. A splendid interest was shown by the people. Elder Passabois joined them at Wilson, working in the interest of the French young people and seeking students for Oshawa. It is reported that his efforts were crowned with some success.

Professor G. R. Fattic has been for the past week attending the School Homes' Council at Hutchinson, Minn.

Elder Guthrie and family and Miss Simkin left Thursday morning to drive through to the West Michigan camp-meeting at Marshall, Mich.

Brother J. W. Davis, our Union Field Secretary, has been spending the past two weeks in the field canvassing with good results. We know many will be interested in his report.

We are pleased to welcome to our office force Miss Helen Gettys, who was formerly stenographer in the Indianapolis office.

Mrs. Lou K. Curtis has returned from her vacation which was spent in Iowa and Wyoming.

Mr. Presley has just returned to the office after his vacation which he spent in New York state. Mrs. Presley and infant daughter, Phyllis Louise, will return home in about a month.

Mrs. Templeton has returned from her extended vacation and is again at work in the Union office. Mr. Templeton expects to return this week to take up work at the College until school begins.

The representatives from this Union to the School Homes' Council were as follows: Mr. Gunderson, Walderly; Mr. Phipps, Miss Phelps, Miss Jensen, Bethel; Mr. Knudson, President Olson, Mrs. Olson, Broadview; Miss Miles, Sheridan; Miss McDill, Mr. Palmer, Mrs. Palmer, Indiana; Mrs. Dresser, Mrs. Montgomery, Mr. Livingston, Holly; Miss Shaw, Mr. Ford, Cedar Lake; President Griggs, E. M. C.; Mr. Fattic, I. U. Conference.

The Council was marked by a strong spiritual tone and the help was largely given by such men as Elder Andross, Professor Howell, Elder Prescott, Professor Cady, and Elder Irwin. This will mean much more than we had dared to hope for the strengthening of the spiritual tone and betterment of the home life of our schools and we are glad for a full representation of our school interest in the Lake Union.

Emmanuel Missionary College Notes

Mr. Forrest Joselyn, who has been connected with the Melrose Sanitarium, has recently come to the College to connect with the business office.

The mechanical department under the direction of Mr. J. R. Sampson is very busy getting things in readiness for the opening of college, September 22. A few changes are being made. The serving-room has been extended north so as to admit of a third serving line for the dining-room. A front entrance to the dining-room is being placed under the north entrance to Birch Hall. These changes will improve the dining service.

The Summer School closes a very profitable session this week. An institute is being held at the close. Professor M. E. Cady, educational secretary of the Columbia Union Conference, and Miss Sarah E. Peck of our General Educational Department, are expected to be in attendance. In connection with the closing exercises of the Summer School there will be a graduating exercise.

The harvesting of the garden crops is at its height. The College has a small piece of land under irrigation which is producing excellent returns. From one-fourth of an acre of cabbage on this irrigated land over $400 has been realized; one-seventeenth of an acre has already produced over $200 worth of sweet peas. About one-half of a three-acre tomato crop has been harvested from which about $500 has been received. Twenty-five hundred quarts of apples have been canned. The second crop of alfalfa was very poor owing to the drought, but rains have come and the prospects are quite encouraging for the third cutting.

President Griggs, Miss Lamson, and Miss Klooster were in attendance last week at the Educational Council held at Hutchinson.

Prof. C. M. Sorensen, who for nine years has been connected with the Washington Missionary College, has accepted the position as head of the history department. He is here with his family and they are locating in the Grove.
